

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

⁹BOSTON: JAMES LORING, AND LINCOLN & EDMANDS. BOOKSELLERS, WASHINGTON STREET. 1832.

ADVERTISEME

Dr. Watts is universally acknowledged to stand unrivalled in Sacred Poetry. Most remarkably qualified by the great Head of the Church for the service of presenting a volume of "Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs," in compositions adapted for public worship, Christians in both the eastern and western hemispheres have not only sought his work as an auxiliary to social and private devotions, but introduced it with surprising unanimity for public worship. No individual, it is generally allowed, has so perfectly preserved in verse, the pure genius of the Bible, or so closely imitated its doctrine and precept, as Watts. To have attained this elevation, he must have partaken, in large measure, of the grace of the Holy Spirit,—an unction from above. Perhaps no other volume of sacred verse has received so copious a blessing from God, in enlightening awakened sinners and quickening the devotions of believers. His near imitation of the Bible has commanded a high degree of respect, which it is very undesirable to diminish.

HARVARD COLLEGE LIBRARY

extending through the world, an animating view of the grace and glory of the gospel. As Christians generally are familiar with Watts, and as pious families practise reading the hymns for edification as well as for worship, the omission of the few which are not adapted to singing, would be generally regretted. If it be not commonly appropriate to sing the divine judgments, yet it must be awakening attentively to peruse a description of them. The attempts which have been made to abridge and alter the hymns of Dr. Watts, have not hitherto met with public approbation. This evinces their high character and excellence. And it is believed to be most judicious to preserve his work entire, and leave those who conduct public worship to judge what hymns are most appropriate, and also to select from the longer hymns the verses perpetuate the use of his book may be one happy means of preserving in the Churches, and best suited to the occasion.

The want of a diversity of hymns, on subjects not contained in Dr. Watts, has called forth several collections in England, as supplements. Dr. Rippon published one for the Baptist Churches, and Burder, Dobell, and others, for the Independent Churches. They expressed the highest veneration for Watts's Hymns, and have manifested a solicitude to perpetuate their use by the supplements they have furnished.

The late esteemed pastor of the First Baptist Church in Boston, Rev. James M. Winchell, performed this welcome service for the Baptist Churches in the United States, by selecting three hundred hymns. After the lapse of several years, it has been judged expedient to enlarge his Supplement by an addition of two hundred hymns, which is now effected without advancing the price. In this addition, the prominent objects have been, to increase the number of hymns on Missionary Subjects, to furnish a greater variety of Particular Metres, to embody many elevated hymns of modern date, and to multiply short hymns to be sung at intervals in Prayer and Conference Meetings, and at the close of worship. Winchell's Watts has already obtained very general approbation; and as it preserves to our churches Dr. Watts's Psalms and Hymns ENTIRE and UNALTERED, with a Supplement of more than five hundred hymns, the whole comprising more than twelve hundred sacred compositions, conveniently bound in one volume, it will undoubtedly be found so complete, as to meet the wishes of Christians generally, and become the standard work in our churches. Indeed, the Supplement alone now furnishes a copious variety for 'public worship.

It being desirable that the additional hymns should be generally short, many of them consist of a selection of verses from distinguished compositions; and the expressions have been varied, whenever it was deemed expedient. The additional hymns are placed at the end of the Supplement, that the present edition may occasion no derangement in the use of former editions. Such congregations, however, as prefer using them immediately, can procure the additional hymns by the quantity at a very trifling cost. Aug. 1832

THE PUBLISHERS.

Entered according to the Act of Congress in the year 1832, by James Loring, and Lincoln & Edmands, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts. GENERAL DIRECTIONS

THE first number is the number of the Arrangement, opposite to which is the number of the Psalm or Hymn in the common edition of Watts. Thus.

169 of the Arrangement is the 169th page; and the 94th Hymn, 2d Book, C. M. in Watts; St. Ann's and Abridge, the names of tunes in which it may be sung. The sharp # is added to denote the key, and to assist in the selection of other appropriate tunes.

A Psalm or Hymn suited to a particular subject may be found

- 1. By the table of the first lines, if the first line be recollected, the number opposite to each Psalm and Hymn referring to the number of the Arrangement.
- 2. By the tables of Psalms and Hymns following the Preface, if the number of the Psalm or Hymn in the common editions be recollected. Thus.

The 84th Psalm, 1st Part, L. M. is 402 of the Arrangement.

The 63d Hymn, 1st Book, is 158th of numbers of both in the following order. the Arrangement.

3. By referring to the Index of Subjects, or the Syllabus of the Arrangement, when neither the number nor the first line is recollected.

The numbers in the Index of Scripthe Arrangement, founded upon the pas- | will be avoided.

sages to which they are opposite. Thus, Genesis, 1st....58, that is, page 58 of the Arrangement, contains the Hymn founded on that passage of Scripture.

The Psalms and Hymns on the "Perfections of God," on the "Doctrines of the Gospel," and on the "Graces of the Holy Spirit," follow the alphabetical order of the subjects on which they are written.

Particular Directions to Ministers and others who take the lead in public or family worship.

- 1. In giving out a Psalm or Hymn where the Arrangement is used exclusively, it will be necessary to mention the number of the Arrangement only.
- 2. Where the common editions of Watts are principally used, the number of the Arrangement may be omitted.
- 3. Where the Arrangement and the common editions are used promiscuously, it will be necessary to mention the 139th Psalm, 1st Part L. M. being the 40th of the Arrangement.

35th Hymn, 2d Book, C. M. is 218th of the Arrangement.

By a careful observance of the above Directions, all confusion or inconventures refer to the Psalms and Hymns in lience in the use of this Arrangement

PREFACE.

THE Psalms and Hymns of the Rev. Dr. Watts are so generally esteemed, and so extensively circulated, that any apology is deemed unnecescirculated, that any apology is deemed unnecessary for this attempt to facilitate the use of them. Owing to their promiscuous position in the common editions, and also to the extreme deficiency of the Indexes, the use of them has long been attended with many inconveniences, especially to those leading in public worship. These cially to those leading in public worship. inconveniences have suggested to many persons the propriety of an arrangement of the whole the propriety of an arrangement of the whole into distinct sections or chapters, according to the different subjects of which they treat, interpers-ing the Psalms and Hymns in one book. Such an arrangement was successfully attempted, some years since, by the Rev. Dr. Rippon, of London; which met with so great encouragement, as to require four editions in the short space of four years. From his labours, it is just to acknowledge, much assistance has been derived in preparing this American edition.

Dr. Watts himself seems to have justified the principle of an arrangement, by following it in several instances. He has judiciously placed together in one book the Hymns on the Lord's Sup-per; the advantage of which is repeatedly experienced at the administration of that ordinance. He has also placed together the Hymns on Solomon's Songs; the songs to the Blessed Trinity; and the Hosannas to Christ. But, if there be any advan-tage in having these Hymns arranged under their respective heads, still greater advantage, it is thought, must be derived from having the whole thus arranged.

It is even conjectured, by many, that Dr. Watts would have followed this plan throughout, had it early enough occurred to him, and had he pub-lished the several parts of his book at the same time. "For," as Dr. Rippon has justly observed, "to have been consistent with himself, he should have distributed the whole work into sections, or none of it; but, by setting the example in several chapters, it is presumed he has sanctioned the analysis of every part of the work."

With regard to the interspersion of the Psalms

among the Hymns, it is only necessary to observe, that this has been done already, to a considerable extent, by Dr. Watts himself. It will be perceived by any one, who will consult the titles of the first and second books of Hymns, that there are, among them, more pieces composed from the Book of Psalms, than there are either from the Gospel of Matthew, Mark, Luke or John, or from the important Epistle to the Hebrews. The interspersion, therefore, of the whole cannot be considered a just cause of complaint; especially when the use of the whole is thereby made easy: for, by a glance of the eye, all the Psalms or Hymns on a particular subject may be immediately perceived.

It may not be improper to observe here, that great care has been taken to preserve the Psalms and Hymns of Dr. Watts entire; at the same time, by a careful comparison of the best editions, both European and American, not a few of the typo-graphical errors, and other alterations, which have been accumulating for years, have been corrected.

It ought also to be distinctly noticed, that the number of each Psalm and Hymn in the common editions is preserved in a conspicuous place in this; so that, by referring to the Directions, and the Tables of Numbers which follow this Preface, no inconvenience will be occasioned by the promiscuous use of this with the old editions of Watts.

The tunes named over each Psalm and Hymn are such as have received the approbation of some of the best judges of music. For the selection of them, the subscriber acknowledges himself chiefly indebted to Mr. Jonathan Huntington, a teacher of music, who cheerfully undertook the task, at the request of the Standing Committee of the Handel and Haydn Society in this town.

The advantages which Ministers and private Christians may derive from this Arrangement, and especially from the enlarged Indexes both of subjects and scriptures, which are attached to it, will, it is thought, best recommend it. It is not presumed to be perfect, though it is hoped no errors of magnitude have crept into it. Such as it errors of magnitude have crept into it. Such as it is, it is humbly commended to the candour of an enlightened Christian public; and especially to the blessing of Him, who is "fearful in praises," with a fervent desire that it may be instrumental in promoting the interests of piety, and the cause of sacred devotion.

Boston, November, 1818.

THE number of Hymns in the Selection has been limited to a little over three hundred, for the purpose of rendering it convenient to bind them in the same volume with the Psalms and Hymns of Dr. Watts, to which they are designed as a Supplement.

In one respect, at least, it is thought this Selection will be preferable to any now in circulation. It contains the whole of the Sacred Poetry of Dr. Watts, comprising nearly eighty Hymns from the pen of that "sweet singer in Israel," adapted to the purposes of devotion and praise, not found in the common editions.

A primary object, after giving the whole of Dr. Watts, has been to select the best Hymns on subjects which he had omitted: and the compiler flatters himself that this work, containing as it does MORE THAN A THOUSAND Psalms and Hymns, of approved excellence, will furnish the churches of Christ with a supply of sacred po-etry better suited to all subjects and occasions than any heretofore published; while, by throwing the whole into one volume, the price is reduced, and the confusion arising from the use of two books avoided.

May the great Head of the Church bless this humble effort to promote His glory and the beauty of Christian worship.

JAMES M. WINCHELL.

PSALMS AND HYMNS.

THE PERFECTIONS OF GOD, ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

PSALM 33. 2d Part. P. M. St. Hellens, Brooklyn.

Misufficiency of God, and vanity of creatures.

HAPPY nation, where the Lord
Reveals the treasure of his word,
And builds his church, his earthly throne!
His eye the heathen world surveys,
He form'd their hearts, he knows their ways;
But God, their Maker, is unknown.

Let kings rely upon their host,

And of his strength the champion boast; In vain they boast, in vain rely: In vain we trust the brutal force, Or speed, or courage of a horse To guard his rider, or to fly.

3The eye of thy compassion, Lord, Doth more secure defence afford, When death or dangers threatening stand:

Thy watchful eye preserves the just, Who make thy name their fear and trust, When wars or famine waste the land.

4 In sickness or the bloody field,
Thou our physician, thou our shield,
Send us salvation from thy throne:
We wait to see thy goodness shine;
Let us rejoice in help divine,

For all our hope is God alone.

Psalm 33. 2d Part. C. M. Wareham, Rochester, Warsaw.

All-sufficiency of God, &c.

BLEST is the nation where the Lord
Hath fix'd his gracious throne;
Where he reveals his heavenly word,
And calls their tribes his own.
His eye, with infinite survey,

Does the whole world behold; He form'd us all of equal clay, And knows our feeble mould. 3 Kings are not rescu'd by the force Of armies, from the grave; Nor speed, nor courage of a horse

Can the bold rider save.

4 Vain is the strength of beasts or men, To hope for safety thence;

But holy souls from God obtain A strong and sure defence.

5 God is their fear, and God their trust, When plagues or famine spread; His watchful eye secures the just, Among ten thousand dead.

6 Lord, let our hearts in thee rejoice,
And bless us from thy throne;
For we have made thy word our choice,
And trust thy grace alone.

PSALM 36. C. M. Barby, Irish, Clarenden.

Being and attributes of God asserted.

WHILE men grow bold in wicked ways,

And yet a God they own,
My heart within me often says,

Their thoughts believe there's none.
Their thoughts and ways at once declare
(Whate'er their lips profess)

'God hath no wrath for them to fear,
'Nor will they seek his grace.'

3 What strange self-flattery blinds their eyes!

But there's a hastening hour, When they shall see, with sore surprise. The terrors of thy power.

4 Thy justice shall maintain its throne, Though mountains melt away; Thy judgments are a world unknown,

A deep, unfathom'd sea.

5 Above these heavens' created rounds, Thy mercies, Lord, extend; Thy truth outlives the narrow bounds, Where time and nature end.

6 Safety to man thy goodness brings, Nor overlooks the beast;

Beneath the shadow of thy wings Thy children choose to rest.

7 [From thee, when creature streams run And mortal comforts die, [low, Perpetual springs of life shall flow, And raise our pleasures high.

8 Though all created light decay, And death close up our eyes, Thy presence makes eternal day, Where clouds can never rise.

4 PSALM 103. 2d Part. S. M. Dover, Calmar.

Compassion of God.

Y soul, repeat his praise,
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

2 God will not always chide; And when his strokes are felt, His strokes are fewer than our crimes, And lighter than our guilt.

3 High as the heavens are rais'd Above the ground we tread, So far the riches of his grace Our highest thoughts exceed.

4 His power subdues our sins, And his forgiving love, Far as the east is from the west, Doth all our guilt remove.

The pity of the Lord
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.

6 He knows we are but dust, Scatter'd by every breath; His anger, like a rising wind, Can send us swift to death.

7 Our days are as the grass, Or like the morning flower; If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field, It withers in an hour.

8 But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

5 Hymn 45. B. 2. L. M. Shoel, Wells, Hague. Condescension of God.

THY favours, Lord, surprise our souls; Will the Eternal dwell with us? What canst thou find beneath the poles To tempt thy chariot downward thus? 2 Still might he fill his starry throne, And please his ears with Gabriel's songs; But heavenly Majesty comes down, And bows to hearken to our tongues!

3 Great God! what poor returns we pay
For love so infinite as thine!
Words are but air, and tongues but clay,
But thy compassion's all divine.

6 Hymn 46. B. 2. L. M.
Portugal, Truro, Dunstan,
Condescension of God.

UP to the Lord, who reigns on high, And views the nations from afar, Let everlasting praises fly,

And tell how large his bounties are.

2 [He that can shake the worlds he made,
Or with his word, or with his rod;
His goodness, how amazing great!
And what a condescending God!

3 God, that must stoop to view the skies, And bow to see what angels do, Down to the earth he casts his eyes, And bends his footsteps downward too.

4 He overrules all mortal things, And manages our mean affairs: On humble souls the King of kings Bestows his counsels, and his cares.

5 Our sorrows and our tears we pour Into the bosom of our God; He hears us in the mournful hour, And helps to bear the heavy load.

6 In vain might lofty princes try Such condescension to perform; For worms were never rais'd so high Above their meanest fellow worm.

70! could our thankful hearts devise A tribute equal to thy grace, To the third heaven our songs should rise, And teach the golden harps thy praise.

HYMN 99. B. 2. C. M.
Abridge, Christmas.

Decrees of God.

ET the whole race of creatures lie
Abas'd before their God;
Whate'er his sovereign voice has form'd
He governs with a nod.

2 [Ten thousand ages ere the skies Were into motion brought, All the long years and worlds to come Stood present to his thought.

3 There's not a sparrow nor a worm
But's found in his decrees;
He raises monarchs to their thrones,
And sinks them as he please.]

4 If light attend the course I run. Tis he provides those rays; And 'tis his hand that hides my sun, If darkness cloud my days.

5 Yet I would not be much concern'd, Nor vainly long to see The volumes of his deep decrees, What months are writ for me.

6 When he reveals the book of life, O, may I read my name Among the chosen of his love, The followers of the Lamb.

Hymn 67. B. 2. C. M. 8 Abridge, Bedford, Stephens.

Dominion and immutability of God. IREAT God! how infinite art thou! What worthless worms are we! Let the whole race of creatures bow, And pay their praise to thee.

2 Thy throne eternal ages stood, Ere seas or stars were made; Thou art the ever-living God, Were all the nations dead.

3 Nature and time quite naked lie To thine immense survey, From the formation of the sky To the great burning day.

4 Eternity, with all its years, Stands present in thy view; To thee there's nothing old appears-Great God! there's nothing new.

5 Our lives thro' various scenes are drawn, And vex'd with trifling cares! While thine eternal thought moves on Thine undisturb'd affairs.

6 Great God! how infinite art thou! What worthless worms are we! Let the whole race of creatures bow, And pay their praise to thee.

PSALM 93. L. M. 9 Old Hundred, Portugal, Hamburg.

Dominion, eternity and immutability of God. EHOVAH reigns! he dwells in light, Girded with majesty and might; The world, created by his hands, Still on its first foundation stands.

2 But ere this spacious world was made, Or had its first foundation laid, Thy throne eternal ages stood, Thyself the Ever-living God.

3 Like floods the angry nations rise, And aim their rage against the skies: Vain floods, that aim their rage so high! At thy rebuke the billows die.

4 Forever shall thy throne endure: Thy promise stands forever sure: And everlasting holiness Becomes the dwellings of thy grace.

1st Part. P. M. PSALM 93. 10 Old 50th, or Landaff, Cherriton.

Dominion of God.

THE Lord of glory reigns, he reigns on high: His robes of state are strength and majesty. This wide creation rose at his command Built by his word and 'stablish'd by his hand. Long stood his throne ere he began creation, And his own Godhead is the firm foundation.

2 God is th' Eternal King: thy foes in vain Raise their rebellion to confound thy reign; In vain the storms, in vain the floods arise And roar, and toss their waves against the skies: Foaming at heaven, they rage with wild commotion, But heaven's high arches scorn the swelling ocean.

3 Ye tempests, rage no more; ye floods, be still! And the mad world submissive to his will! Built on his truth, his church must ever stand; Firm are his promises and strong his band. See his own sons, when they appear before him, Bow at his footstool, and with fear adore him.

PSALM 93. 2d Part. P. M. Dalston, Worship.

THE Lord Jehovah reigns, And royal state maintains, His head with awful glories crown'd: Array'd in robes of light, Begirt with sovereign might,

And rays of majesty around. Upheld by thy commands, The world securely stands;

And skies and stars obey thy word: Thy throne was fixed on high, Before the starry sky; Eternal is thy kingdom, Lord.

In vain the noisy crowd, Like billows fierce and loud. Against thine empire rage and roar: In vain, with angry spite, The surly nations fight,

And dash like waves against the shore. 4 Let floods and nations rage. And all their powers engage: Let swelling tides assault the sky;

The terrors of thy frown Shall beat their madness down: Thy throne forever stands on high.

Thy promises are true, Thy grace is ever new: There fix'd, thy church shall ne'er remove:

Thy saints with holy fear Shall in thy courts appear, And sing thine everlasting love.

(Repeat the fourth stanza, if necessary.)

12 Hymn 70. B. 2. L. M. Rothwell, Dunstan.

Dominion of God over the sea.

GOD of the seas, thy thundering voice Makes all the roaring waves rejoice; And one soft word of thy command Can sink them, silent, in the sand.

2 If but a Moses wave thy rod, The sea divides and owns its God; The stormy floods their Maker knew, And led his chosen armies through!

The scaly shoals, amidst the sea,
To thee, their Lord, a tribute pay;
The meanest fish that swims the flood
Leaps up, and means a praise to God.

4 [The larger monsters of the deep On thy commands attendance keep: By thy permission, sport and play, And cleave along their foaming way.

5 If God his voice of tempest rears, Leviathan lies still, and fears; Anon he lifts his nostrils high, And spouts the ocean to the sky.]

6 How is thy glorious power ador'd Amidst those watery nations, Lord! Yet the bold men that trace the seas, Bold men, refuse their Maker's praise.

7 [What scenes of miracles they see, And never tune a song to thee! While on the flood they safely ride, They curse the hand that smooths the tide.

8 Anon they plunge in watery graves, And some drink death among the waves; Yet the surviving crew blaspheme, Nor own the God that rescu'd them.]

90, for some signal of thy hand! Shake all the seas, Lord, shake the land: Great Judge, descend, lest men deny That there's a God who rules the sky.

13 Hymn 115. B. 2. C. M. #
Murlow, St. Anns, Christmas.

Dominion and vengeance of God.

Reigns the Creator, God;
Wide as the whole creation's bound
Extends his awful rod.

2 Lct princes of exalted state
 To him ascribe their crown;
 Render their homage at his feet,
 And cast their glories down.

3 Know that his kingdom is supreme, Your lofty thoughts are vain; He calls you gods, that awful name, But ye must die like men. 4 Then let the sovereigns of the globe Not dare to vex the just;

He puts on vengeance like a robe, And treads the worms to dust.

5 Ye judges of the earth, be wise, And think of heaven with fear; The meanest saint that you despise Has an avenger there.

HYMN 17. B. 2. C. M.
Arlington, Devizes, Braintree.

Eternity of God.

RISE, rise, my soul, and leave the ground,

Stretch all thy thoughts abroad, And rouse up every tuneful sound To praise th' Eternal God.

2 Long ere the lofty skies were spread, Jehovah fill'd his throne; Or Adam form'd, or angels made, The Maker liv'd alone.

3 His boundless years can ne'er decrease
But still maintain their prime;
Eternity's his dwelling place,

And ever is his time.

4 While like a tide our minutes flow
The present and the past,
He fills his own immortal now,

And sees our ages waste.

5 The sea and sky must perish too,
And vast destruction come;
The creatures—look! how old they grow,
And wait their fiery doom.

6 Well, let the sea shrink all away, And flames melt down the skies, My God shall live an endless day, When old creation dies.

PSALM 89. 1st Part. C. M. Irish, Devizes, St. Anns.

Faithfulness of God.

MY never-ceasing song shall show The mercies of the Lord; And make succeeding ages know How faithful is his word.

2 The sacred truths his lips pronounce Shall firm as heaven endure: And if he speak a promise once, Th' eternal grace is sure.

3 How long the race of David held The promis'd Jewish throne! But there's a nobler covenant seal'd

4 His seed forever shall possess
A throne above the skies;
The meanest subject of his grace

Shall to that glory rise.

To David's greater Son.

5 Lord God of Hosts, thy wondrous ways | 7 [His power he show'd by Moses' hands, Are sung by saints above;

And saints on earth their honours raise To thy unchanging love.

PSALM 145. 2d Part, C. M. 16 Barby, Bedford. Goodness of God.

SWEET is the memory of thy grace. My God, my heavenly King; Let age to age thy righteousness In songs of glory sing.

2 God reigns on high, but not confines His goodness to the skies;

Thro' the whole earth his bounty shines, And every want supplies.

3 With longing eyes thy creatures wait On thee for daily food:

Thy liberal hand provides their meat, And fills their mouths with good.

4 How kind are thy compassions, Lord! How slow thine anger moves! But soon he sends his pardoning word-To cheer the souls he loves.

5 Creatures, with all their endless race, Thy power and praise proclaim; But saints, that taste thy richer grace, Delight to bless thy name.

17 PSALM 103. 1st Part. L. M. Shoel, Newcourt.

Goodness and mercy of God.

BLESS, O my soul, the living God, Call home thy thoughts, that rove abroad:

Let all the powers within me join In work and worship so divine.

2 Bless, O my soul, the God of grace; His favours claim thy highest praise: Why should the wonders he hath wrought Be lost in silence and forgot?

3 Tis he, my soul, that sent his Son To die for crimes which thou hast done; He owns the ransom, and forgives The hourly follies of our lives.

4 The vices of the mind he heals, And cures the pains that nature feels, Redeems the soul from hell, and saves Our wasting life from threatening graves. 5 Our youth, decay'd, his power repairs; His mercy crowns our growing years; He satisfies our mouth with good,

And fills our hopes with heavenly food. 6 He sees th' oppressor and th' oppress'd, And often gives the sufferers rest; But will his justice more display

In the last great rewarding day.

And gave to Israel his commands: But sent his truth and mercy down To all the nations by his Son.

8 Let the whole earth his power confess, Let the whole earth adore his grace: The Gentile with the Jew shall join In work and worship so divine.]

PSALM 146. L. M. 18 Luton, Blendon.

Goodness and truth of God.

PRAISE ye the Lord; my heart shall join In work so pleasant, so divine; Now while the flesh is mine abode, And when my soul ascends to God.

2 Praise shall employ my noblest powers, While immortality endures:

My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life, and thought, and being last.

3 Why should I make a man my trust? Princes must die and turn to dust; [power Their breath departs, their pomp and And thoughts all vanish in an hour.

4 Happy the man whose hopes rely On Israel's God: he made the sky, And earth, and seas, with all their train, And none shall find his promise vain.

5 His truth forever stands secure: He saves th' oppress'd, he feeds the poor; He sends the labouring conscience peace, And grants the prisoner sweet release.

6 The Lord hath eyes to give the blind; The Lord supports the sinking mind; He helps the stranger in distress, The widow and the fatherless.

7 He loves his saints, he knows them well, But turns the wicked down to hell; Thy God, O Zion! ever reigns; Praise him in everlasting strains.

Psalm 146, as 113th. P.M. 19 St. Hellens, Psalm 46th, Brooklyn.

Goodness of God, and vanity of men.

I'LL praise my Maker with my breath; And when my voice is lost in death, Praise shall employ my nobler powers: My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life and thought, and being last, Or immortality endures.

2 Why should I make a man my trust? Princes must die and turn to dust: Vain is the help of flesh and blood; Their breath departs, their pomp and pow'r And thoughts all vanish in an hour; Nor can they make their promise good.

Hymn 22. B. 2. L. M. 20 Truro, Blendon.

Grandeur of God, or his terrible majesty. TERRIBLE God, who reign'st on high, How awful is thy thundering hand! Thy fiery bolts, how fierce they fly! Nor can all earth or hell withstand. 2 This the old rebel angels knew,

And Satan fell beneath thy frown; Thine arrows struck the traitor thro', And weighty vengeance sunk him down. 3 This Sodom felt — and feels it still-

And roars beneath th' eternal load: 'With endless burnings who can dwell, 'Or bear the fury of a God?'

4 Tremble, ye sinners, and submit; Throw down your arms before his throne; Bend your heads low beneath his feet, Or his strong hand shall crush you down.

5 And ye, bless'd saints, that love him too, With reverence bow before his name; Thus all his heavenly servants do: God is a bright and burning flame.

Hymn 42. B. 1. C. M. 21 # or b Dundee, St. Ann's.

Grandeur of God, or divine wrath and mercy. DORE and tremble, for our God Is a consuming fire; His jealous eyes his wrath inflame, And raise his vengeance higher.

* Heb. xii. 29

2 Almighty vengeance, how it burns! How bright his fury glows! Vast magazines of plagues and storms Lie treasured for his foes.

3 Those heaps of wrath, by slow degrees Are forced into a flame;

But kindled, O! how fierce they blaze! And rend all nature's frame.

4 At his approach the mountains flee, And seek a watery grave;

The frighted sea makes haste away, And shrinks up every wave.

5 Through the wide air the weighty rocks Are swift as hailstones hurl'd: Who dares to meet his fiery rage,

That shakes the solid world? 6 Yet, mighty God! thy sovereign grace

Sits regent on the throne, The refuge of thy chosen race

When wrath comes rushing down. 7 Thy hand shall on rebellious kings

A fiery tempest pour, While we, beneath thy sheltering wings, Thy just revenge adore.

PSALM 145. L. M. 22 Old Hundred, Dunstan, Bath.

Greatness, truth, and justice of God. MY God, my King, thy various praise Shall fill the remnant of my days: Thy grace employ my humble tongue, Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear Some thankful tribute to thine ear; And every setting sun shall see New works of duty done for thee.

 $3\,\mathrm{Thy}$ truth and justice I'll proclaim; Thy bounty flows, an endless stream; Thy mercy swift; thine anger slow, But dreadful to the stubborn foe.

4 Thy works with sovereign glory shine, And speak thy majesty divine; Let "every realm with joy" proclaim The sound and honor of thy name.

5 Let distant times and nations raise The long succession of thy praise; And unborn ages make my song The joy and labour of their tongue.

6 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds? I hy greatness all our thoughts exceeds! Vast and unsearchable thy ways; Vast and immortal be thy praise!

23 PSALM 145. 1st Part. C. M. Barby, Rochester, Conway. ONG as I live I'll bless thy name,

My King, my God of love;

My work and joy shall be the same In the bright world above.

2 Great is the Lord, his power unknown, And let his praise be great;
I'll sing the honours of thy throne,

Thy works of grace repeat.

3 Thy grace shall dwell upon my tongue, And, while my lips rejoice, The mon that been my second song

The men that hear my sacred song Shall join their cheerful voice.

4 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name, And children learn thy ways; Ages to come thy truth proclaim, And nations sound thy praise.

5 Thy glorious deeds of ancient date Shall through the world be known: Thine arm of power, thy heavenly state, With public splendour shown.

6 The world is managed by thy hands;
Thy saints are ruled by love;
And thine eternal kingdom stands,
Though rocks and hills remove.

24 HYMN 86. B. 1. C. M. b or # Canterbury, Covington.

Holiness and majesty of God.

HOW should the sons of Adam's race
Be pure before their God!
If he contend in righteousness,
We fall beneath his rod.

2 To vindicate my words and thoughts I'll make no more pretence; Not one of all my thousand faults Can bear a just defence.

3 Strong is his arm, his heart is wise; What vain presumers dare Against their Maker's hand to rise, Or tempt th' unequal war?

4 [Mountains by his almighty wrath From their old seats are torn; He shakes the earth from south to north,

And all her pillars mourn.

5 He bids the sun forbear to rise; The obedient sun forbears: His hand with sackcloth spreads the skies, And seals up all the stars.

6He walks upon the stormy sea;
Flies on the stormy wind;
There's none can trace his wondrous way,
Or his dark footsteps find.]

25 Hymn 82. B. 1. L. M. # or b

Holiness of God and mortality of men.

SHALL the vile race of flesh and blood
Contend with their Creator, God?

Shall mortal worms presume to be More holy, wise, or just than he?

2 Behold he puts his trust in none
Of all the spirits round his throne;
Their natures, when compar'd with his,
Are neither holy, just, nor wise.

3 But how much meaner things are they. Who spring from dust and dwell in clay! Touch'd by the finger of thy wrath, We faint and vanish like the moth.

4 From night to day, from day to night, We die by thousands in thy sight: Bury'd in dust whole nations lie, Like a forgotten vanity.

5 Almighty Power, to thee we bow; How frail are we, how glorious Thou No more the sons of earth shall dare With an eternal God compare.

26 PSALM 99. 2d Part. S. M. St. Thomas, Dover.

Holiness and vengeance of God.

EXALT the Lord our God,
And worship at his feet:
His nature is all holiness,
And mercy is his seat.

When Israel was his church, When Aaron was his priest, When Moses cry'd, when Samuel pray'd, He gave his people rest.

3 Oft he forgave their sins, Nor would destroy their race, And oft he made his vengeance known, When they abus'd his grace.

4 Exalt the Lord our God, Whose grace is still the same; Still he's a God of holiness, And jealous for his name.

27 HYMN 87. B. 2. C. M. #
Alridge, Bedford.
Incomprehensibility of God.

HOW wondrous great, how glorious

Must our Creator be! Who dwells amidst the dazzling light Of vast infinity!

2 Our soaring spirits upward rise
Toward the celestial throne:
Fain would we see the blessed Three,
And the Almighty One.

3 Our reason stretches all its wings, And climbs above the skies; But still how far beneath thy feet Our grovelling reason lies!

4 [Lord, here we bend our humble souls, And awfully adore: For the weak pinions of our minds Can stretch a thought no more.]

5 Thy glories infinitely rise
Above our labouring tongue;
In vain the highest seraph tries
To form an equal song.

6 [In humble notes our faith adores The great mysterious King, While angels strain their nobler powers, And sweep th' immortal string.]

28 HYMN 170. B. 2. L. M.

Islington, Luton.
Incomprehensibility and Sovereignty of God.
[CAN creatures to perfection find
Th' eternal, uncreated Mind?
Or can the largest stretch of thought
Measure and search his nature out?

2 'Tis high as heaven, 'tis deep as hell, And what can mortals know or tell? His glory spreads beyond the sky, And all the shining worlds on high.

3 But man, vain man would fain be wise; Born like a wild young colt, he flies Through all the follies of his mind, And smells and snuffs the empty wind.]

4 God is a King, of power unknown; Firm are the orders of his throne; If he resolve, who dare oppose, Or ask him why, or what he does?

5 He wounds the heart, and he makes whole; He calms the tempest of the soul: When he shuts up in long despair, Who can remove the heavy bar?

6 He frowns, and darkness veils the moon, The fainting sun grows dim at noon; The pillars of heaven's starry roof Tremble and start at his reproof.

7 He gave the vaulted heaven its form, The crooked serpent and the worm; He breaks the billows with his breath, And smites the sons of pride to death...

8 These are a portion of his ways;
But who shall dare describe his face?
Who can endure his light, or stand
To hear the thunders of his hand?

29 Hymn 26. B. 2. L. M. Lowell, Wells.

Invisibility of God.

LORD, we are blind, poor mortals, blind, We can't behold thy bright abode;
O! 'tis beyond a creature mind
To glance a thought half way to God!

Infinite leagues beyond the slave.

2 Infinite leagues beyond the sky
The great ETERNAL reigns alone;
Where neither wings nor souls can fly,
Nor angels climb the topless throne.

3 The Lord of glory builds his seat Of gems incomparably bright; And lays beneath his sacred feet Substantial beams of gloomy night.

4 Yet, glorious Lord, thy gracious eyes Look through, and cheer us from above: Beyond our praise thy grandeur flies, Yet we adore, and yet we love.

PSALM 142. C. M. Canterbury, Barby, Wantage.

Kindness of God, or God the hope of the heispless.

TO God I made my sorrows known,
From God I sought relief;
In long complaints before his throne
I pour'd out all my grief.

2 My soul was overwhelmed with woes, My heart began to break; My God, who all my burdens knows, He knows the way I take.

3 On every side I cast mine eye,
And found my helpers gone;
While friends and strangers pass'd me by,

Neglected or unknown.

4 Then did I raise a louder cry,
And call'd thy mercy near:

'Thou art my portion when I die, 'Be thou my refuge here.'

5 Lord, I am brought exceeding low; Now let thine ear attend; And make my foes, who vex me, know I've an Almighty Friend.

6 From my sad prison set me free, Then shall I praise thy name; And holy men shall join with me Thy kindness to proclaim.

31 HYMN 105. B. 2. C. M. b or # Christmas, Arlington, Perry.

Long suffering of God.

A ND are we wretches yet alive?
And do we yet rebel?
Tis boundless, its amazing love,
That bears us up from hell!

2 The burden of our weighty guilt
Would sink us down to flames;
And threatening vengeance rolls above.

To crush our feeble frames.

3 Almighty goodness cries, Forbear!
And straight the thunder stays:

And dare we now provoke his wrath, And weary out his grace!

4 Lord, we have long abus'd thy love, Too long indulg'd our sin; Our aching hearts e'en bleed to see What rebels we have been. 5 No more, ye lusts, shall ye command;
No more will we obey;
Stretch out, O God, thy conquering hand,
And drive thy foes away.

32 HYMN 103. B. 2. C. M. #Franklin, Christmas.

Love of God in the gift of his Son.

COME, happy souls, approach your God,

With new melodious songs; Come, render to almighty grace The tribute of your tongues.

2 So strange, so boundless was the love
That pity'd dying men,
The Father sent his equal Son
To give them life again.

3 Thy hands, dear Jesus, were not arm'd
With a revenging rod;
No hard commission to perform

No hard commission to perform The vengeance of a God.

4 But all was mercy, all was mild, And wrath forsook the throne, When Christ on the kind errand came, And brought salvation down.

5 Here, sinners, you may heal your wounds,
 And wipe your sorrows dry:
 Trust in the mighty Saviour's name,

And you shall never die.
6 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
Accept thine offer'd grace;
We bless the great Redeemer's love

We bless the great Redeemer's love, And give the Father praise.

HYMN 104. B. 2. S. M. Watchman, Olmutz.

Love and mercy of God.

RAISE your triumphant songs
To an immortal tune;
Let the wide earth resound the deeds
Celestial grace has done.

Sing how Eternal Love
 Its chief Beloved chose,
 And bid him raise our wretched race
 From their abyss of woes.

3 His hand no thunder bears, No terror clothes his brow; No bolts to drive our guilty souls To fiercer flames below.

4 'Twas mercy fill'd the throne,
And wrath stood silent by,
When Christ was sent with pardons down
To rebels doom'd to die,

5 Now, sinners, dry your tears, Let hopeless sorrow cease; Bow to the sceptre of his love, And take the offer'd peace. 6 Lord, we obey thy call; We lay an humble claim To the salvation thou hast brought, And love and praise thy name.

PSALM 113. P. M. St. Hellens, Brooklyn.

Majesty and condescension of God.

YE that delight to serve the Lord,
The honours of his name record,
His sacred name forever bless:
Where'er the circling sun displays
His rising beams or setting rays,

Let lands and seas his power confess.

2 Not time, nor nature's narrow rounds, Can give his vast dominion bounds; The heavens are far below his height: Let no created greatness dare With our eternal God compare,

Arm'd with his uncreated might!

3 He bows his glorious head to view

What the bright hosts of angels do,
And bends his care to mortal things:
His sovereign hand exalts the poor,
He takes the needy from the door,
And makes them company for kings.

4 When childless families despair,
He sends the blessing of an heir
To rescue their expiring name:
The mother, with a thankful voice,
Proclaims his praises and her joys:
Let every age advance his fame.

PSALM 113. L. M. Newcourt, Gloucester.

Majesty and condescension of God.

YE servants of th' Almighty King,
In every age his praises sing:
Where'er the sun shall rise or set,
The nations shall his praise repeat.

2 Above the earth, beyond the sky, Stands his high throne of majesty: Nor time, nor place his power restrain, Nor bound his universal reign.

3 Which of the sons of Adam dare, Or angels, with their God compare? His glories, how divinely bright, Who dwells in uncreated light!

4 Behold his love! he stoops to view What saints above and angels do; And condescends yet more to know The mean affairs of men below.

5 From dust and cottages obscure, His grace exalts the humble poor; Gives them the honour of his sons, And fits them for their heav'nly thrones. 6 [A word of his creating voice Can make the barren house rejoice: Though Sarah's ninety years were past, The promis'd seed is born at last.

7 With joy the mother views her son, And tells the wonders God has done; Faith may grow strong when sense despairs,

Though nature fails, the promise bears.]

PSALM 36. S. M. Olmutz, Paddington.

Majesty of God and wickedness of man.

WHEN man grows bold in sin,
My heart within me cries,
'He hath no faith of God within,
'Nor fear before his eyes.'

2 [He walks a while conceal'd In a self-flattering dream, Till his dark crimes, at once reveal'd, Expose his hateful name.]

3 His heart is false and foul, His words are smooth and fair; Wisdom is banish'd from his soul, And leaves no goodness there.

4 He plots upon his bed,
New mischiefs to fulfil;
He sets his heart, and hands, and head,
To practise all that's ill.

5 But there's a dreadful God, Though men renounce his fear; His justice, hid behind the cloud, Shall one great day appear.

6 His truth transcends the sky; In heaven his mercies dwell; Deep as the sea his judgments lie; His anger burns to hell.

7 How excellent his love
 Whence all our safety springs!
 O never let my soul remove
 From underneath his wings.

37 Psalm 145. 3d Part. C. M. #
Lanesboro', St. Martin's, Irish.

Mercy of God to sufferers.

LET every tongue thy goodness speak, Thou sovereign Lord of all; Thy strengthening hands uphold the And raise the poor that fall. [weak,

2 When sorrow bows the spirit down, Or virtue lies distress'd Beneath some proud oppressor's frown,

Thou giv'st the mourners rest.

3 The Lord supports our tottering days,
And guides our giddy youth:

Holy and just are all his ways, And all his words are truth. 4 He knows the pains his servants feel, He hears his children cry,

And, their best wishes to fulfil, His grace is ever nigh.

5 His mercy never shall remove From men of heart sincere: He saves the souls, whose humble love

Is join'd with holy fear.

6 [His stubborn foes his sword shall slay, And pierce their hearts with pain; But none that serve the Lord shall say, 'They sought his aid in vain.']

7 [My lips shall dwell upon his praise, And spread his fame abroad; Let all the sons of Adam raise The honours of their God.]

38 PSALM 103. 2d Part. L. M.

Mercy and love of God to his people.

THE Lord, how wondrous are his ways,
How firm his truth, how large his
He takes his mercy for his throne, [grace!
And thence he makes his glories known.

2.Not half so high his power hath spread The starry heavens above our head, As his rich love exceeds our praise, Exceeds the highest hopes we raise,

3 Not half so far hath nature placed The rising morning from the west, As his forgiving grace removes The daily guilt of those he loves.

4 How slowly doth his wrath arise! On swifter wings salvation flies: And if he lets his anger burn, How soon his frowns to pity turn!

5 Amidst his wrath, compassion shines; His strokes are lighter than our sins; And while his rod corrects his saints, His ear indulges their complaints.

6 So fathers their young sons chastise, With gentle hands and melting eyes: The children weep beneath the smart, And move the pity of their heart.

PAUSE.
7 The mighty God, the wise and just,
Knows that our frame is feeble dust;
And will no heavy load impose
Beyond the strength that he bestows.
8 He knows how soon our nature dies,

Blasted by every wind that flies; Like grass we spring, and die as soon As morning flowers that fade at noon.

9 But his eternal love is sure
To all the saints, and shall endure:

From age to age his truth shall reign, Nor children's children hope in vain.

PSALM 103. 1st Part. S. M. Olmutz, Dover, Watchman, Hopkins. Mercy of God to soul and body.

BLESS the Lord, my soul! Let all within me join, And aid my tongue to bless his name,

Whose favours are divine.

2 O bless the Lord, my soul, Nor let his mercies lie Forgotten in unthankfulness, And without praises die.

Tis he forgives thy sins, Tis he relieves thy pain, Tis he that heals thy sicknesses, And makes thee young again.

He crowns thy life with love, When ransom'd from the grave; He that redeem'd my soul from hell Hath sovereign power to save.

5 He fills the poor with good; He gives the sufferers rest; The Lord hath judgments for the proud, And justice for the oppress'd.

His wondrous works and ways He made by Moses known; But sent the world his truth and grace By his beloved Son.

40 PSALM 139. 1st Part. L. M. Hebron, Blendon, Castle-Street. Omniscience of God.

ORD, thou hast search'd and seen me through; Thine eye commands with piercing view My rising and my resting hours, My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own, Are to my God distinctly known; He knows the words I mean to speak, Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within thy circling power I stand; On every side I find thy hand: Awake, asleep, at home, abroad, I am surrounded still with God

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great! What large extent! what lofty height! My soul, with all the powers I boast, Is in the boundless prospect lost.

5 O may these thoughts possess my breast, 'Where'er I rove, where'er I rest;

'Nor let my weaker passions dare 'Consent to sin, for God is there!'

PAUSE I. 6 Could I so false, so faithless prove, To quit thy service and thy love, Where, Lord, could I thy presence shun,

Or from thy dreadful glory run?

7 If up to heaven I take my flight, 'Tis there thou dwell'st enthron'd in light, Or dive to hell, there vengeance reigns, And Satan groans beneath his chains.

8 If, mounted on a morning ray I fly beyond the western sea, Thy swifter hand would first arrive, And there arrest thy fugitive.

9 Or should I try to shun thy sight Beneath the spreading veil of night, One glance of thine, one piercing ray, Would kindle darkness into day.

10 'O may these thoughts possess my breast 'Where'er I rove, where'er I rest;

'Nor let my weaker passions dare 'Consent to sin, for God is there!' PAUSE II.

11 The veil of night is no disguise, No screen from thy all-seeing eyes: Thy hand can seize thy foes as soon Through midnight shades as blazing noon.

12 Midnight and noon in this agree, Great God, they're both alike to thee: Not death can hide what God will spy, And hell lies naked to his eye.

13 'O may these thoughts possess my breast,

'Where'er I rove, where'er I rest; 'Nor let my weaker passions dare 'Consent to sin, for God is there!'

PSALM 139. 1st Part. C. M. # 41 London, St. Ann's, Ferry.

Omniscience of God.

IN all my vast concerns with thee, In vain my soul would try To shun thy presence, Lord, or flee The notice of thine eye.

2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys My rising and my rest;

My public walks, my private ways, And secrets of my breast.

3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord Before they're form'd within; And ere my lips pronounce the word,

He knows the sense I mean. 4 O wondrous knowledge, deep and high! Where can a creature hide?

Within thy circling arms I lie, Beset on every side.

5 So let thy grace surround me still, And like a bulwark prove,

To guard my soul from every ill, Secur'd by sovereign love.

PAUSE.

6 Lord, where shall guilty souls retire, Forgotten and unknown?

In hell they meet thy dreadful fire, In heaven thy glorious throne.

7 Should I suppress my vital breath, To 'scape the wrath divine, Thy voice could break the bars of death, And make the grave resign.

8 If, wing'd with beams of morning light, I fly beyond the west, Thy hand, which must support my flight,

Would soon betray my rest.

9 If o'er my sins I think to draw The curtains of the night, Those flaming eyes that guard thy law Would turn the shades to light.

10 The beams of noon, the midnight hour, Are both alike to thee:

O may I ne'er provoke that power From which I cannot flee.

Hymn 32. B. 1. C. M. 42 Christmas, Franklin. Omnipotence of God.

THENCE do our mournful thoughts arise?

And where's our courage fled? Has restless sin and raging hell Struck all our comforts dead?

2 Have we forgot the Almighty Name That form'd the earth and sea? And can an all-creating arm Grow weary or decay?

3 Treasures of everlasting might In our Jehovah dwell; He gives the conquest to the weak, And treads their foes to hell.

4 Mere mortal power shall fade and die, And youthful vigour cease; But we that wait upon the Lord Shall feel our strength increase.

5 The saints shall mount on eagles' wings, And taste the promis'd bliss, Till their unwearied feet arrive Where perfect pleasure is.

PSALM 111. 2d Part. C. M. Lanesboro', Braintree. #

Perfections of God. REAT is the Lord; his works of might Demand our noblest songs: Let his assembled saints unite

Their harmony of tongues. 2 Great is the mercy of the Lord, He gives his children food; And, ever mindful of his word,

He makes his promise good.

3 His Son, the great Redeemer, came To seal his covenant sure; Holy and reverend is his name, His ways are just and pure.

4 They that would grow divinely wise Must with his fear begin; Our fairest proof of knowledge lies

In hating every sin.

Hymn 166. B. 2. C. M. 44 Bedford, London, Barby. Perfections of God.

HOW shall I praise th' eternal God, That Infinite Unknown? Who can ascend his high abode, Or venture near his throne?

2 [The great Invisible! He dwells Conceal'd in dazzling light; But his all-searching eye reveals

The secrets of the night. 3 Those watchful eyes, that never sleep, Survey the world around;

His wisdom is a boundless deep, Where all our thoughts are drown'd.]

4 [Speak we of strength? His arm is strong To save, or to destroy; Infinite years his life prolong,

And endless is his joy.] 5 [He knows no shadow of a change,

Nor alters his decrees; Firm as a rock his truth remains, To guard his promises.]

6 Sinners before his presence die; How holy is his name!

His anger and his jealousy Burn like devouring flame.]

7 Justice, upon a dreadful throne, Maintains the rights of God; While mercy sends her pardons down Bought with a Saviour's blood.

8 Now to my soul, immortal King, Speak some forgiving word; Then 'twill be double joy to sing The glories of my Lord.

HYMN 167. B. 2. L. M. 45 Gloucester, Truro. Perfections of God.

REAT God! thy glories shall employ My holy fear, my humble joy; My lips, in songs of honour, bring Their tribute to th' eternal King.

2 [Earth and the stars, and worlds unknown,

Depend precarious on his throne; All nature hangs upon his word, And grace and glory own their Lord.] 3.[His sov'reign pow'r what mortal knows?]
If he command, who dare oppose?
With strength he girds himself around,
And treads the rebels to the ground.]

4 [Who shall pretend to teach him skill? Or guide the counsels of his will? His wisdom, like a sea divine, Flows deep and high beyond our line.]

5 [His name is holy, and his eye
Burns with immortal jealousy;
He hates the sons of pride, and sheds
His fiery vengeance on their heads.]

6 [The beamings of his piercing sight Bring dark hypocrisy to light; Death and destruction naked lie, And hell uncover'd to his eye.]

7 [Th' eternal law before him stands; His justice, with impartial hands, Divides to all their due reward, Or by the sceptre, or the sword.]

8 [His mercy, like a boundless sea, Washes our loads of guilt away, While his own Son came down and died, T' engage his justice on our side.]

9 [Each of his words demands my faith, My soul can rest on all he saith; His truth inviolably keeps The largest promise of his lips.]

10 O tell me, with a gentle voice,
'Thou art my God,' and I'll rejoice!
Fill'd with thy love, I dare proclaim
The brightest honours of thy name.

46 HYMN 168. B. 2. L. M.
Nantwich, Old Hundred, Winchelsea.

Perfections of God.

His robes are light and majesty;
His glory shines with beams so bright,
No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe; His justice guards his holy law; His love reveals a smiling face; His truth and promise seal the grace.

3 Thro' all his works his wisdom shines, And baffles Satan's deep designs; His power is sovereign to fulfil The noblest counsels of his will.

4 And will this glorious Lord descend To be my Father and my Friend? Then let my songs with angels join; Heaven is secure, if God be mine.

47 Hymn 169. B. 2. H. M. Portsmouth, Bethesda, Harwich.

THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
His throne is built on high;

The garments he assumes
Are light and majesty:
His glories shine | No mortal eye
With beams so bright, Can bear the sight.

The thunders of his hand
Keep the wide world in awe;
His wrath and justice stand
To guard his holy law:
And where his love His truth confirms
Resolves to bless And seals the grace.

3 Through all his ancient works
Surprising wisdom shines,
Confounds the powers of hell,
And breaks their curs'd designs.
Strong is his arm, |His great decrees,
And shall fulfil | His sovereign will.

4 And can this mighty King
Of glory condescend?
And will he write his name,
'My Father and my Friend?'
I love his name, | Join all my powers,
I love his word; | And praise the Lord.

PSALM 115. L. M. Bath, Medway.

Perfections of God, and vanity of idols.

NOT to ourselves, who are but dust,
Not to ourselves is glory due,
Eternal God, thou only just,
Thou only gracious, wise and true.

2 Shine forth in all thy dreadful name;
Why should a heathen's haughty tongue
Insult us, and, to raise our shame,
Say, 'Where's the God you've serv'd
so long?'

3 The God we serve maintains his throne Above the clouds, beyond the skies; Through all the earth his will is done; He knows our groans, he hears our cries.

4 But the vain idols they adore
Are senseless shapes of stone and wood;
At best a mass of glittering ore,
A silver saint, or golden god.

5 [With eyes and ears they carve their head; Deaf are their ears, their eyes are blind In vain are costly offerings made, And vows are scatter'd in the wind.

6 Their feet were never made to move, Nor hands to save when mortals pray Mortals, that pay them fear or love, Seem to be blind and deaf as they.]

7 O Israel, make the Lord thy hope, Thy help, thy refuge, and thy rest: The Lord shall build thy ruins up, And bless the people and the priest! 8 The dead no more can speak thy praise, They dwell in silence and the grave; But we shall live to sing thy grace, And tell the world thy power to save.

PSALM 135. C. M. #
Devizes, Arlington, Conway.

Perfections of God, and vanity of idols.

WAKE, ye saints, to praise your King,
Your sweetest passions raise,
Your plous pleasure, while you sing,

Increasing with the praise.

2 Great is the Lord; and works unknown
Are his divine employ;

But still his saints are near his throne, His treasure and his joy.

3 Heaven, earth and sea confess his hand; He bids the vapours rise; Lightning and storm, at his command,

Sweep through the sounding skies.

4 All power, that gods or kings have
Is found with him alone; [claim'd,
But heathen gods should ne'er be nam'd,
Where our Jehovah's known.

5 Which of the stocks or stones they trust Can give them showers of rain? In vain they worship glittering dust, And pray to gold in vain.

6 [Their gods have tongues that cannot talk, Such as their makers gave:

Their feet were ne'er design'd to walk, Nor hands have power to save.

7 Blind are their eyes, their ears are deaf, Nor hear when mortals pray; Mortals, that wait for their relief, Are blind and deaf as they.]

8 Ye saints, adore the living God, Serve him with faith and fear; He makes the churches his abode, And claims your honours there.

PSALM 115. P. M. Walworth, New 50th.

Perfections of God, and vanity of idols.

NOT to our names, thou only just and true, Not to our worthless names is glory due; Thy power and grace, thy truth and justice claim Immortal honours to thy sovereign name; [abode, Shine through the earth from heaven thy blest Nor let the heathen say, 'And where's your God?

2 Heav'n is thy higher court; there stands thy throne, And through the lower worlds thy will is done. Our God fram'd all this earth, these heavens he spread,

But fools adore the gods their hands have made: The kneeling crowd, with looks devout, behold Their silver saviours, and their saints of gold.

3 [Vain are those artful shapes of eyes and ears; The moiten image neither sees nor hears: Their hands are helpless, nor their feet can move; They have no speech, nor thought, nor power, nor love; Yet sottish mortals make their long complaints. To their deaf idols, and their moveless saints.

4 The rich have statues well adorn'd with gold;
The poor, content with gods of coarser mould,
With tools of iron carve the senseless stock,
Lopt from a tree, or broken from a rock:
People and priests drive on the solemn trade,
And trust the gods that saws and hammers made.]

5 Be heaven and earth amaz'd! 'Tie hard to say Which are more stupid, or their gods or they. O Israel, trust the Lord! he hears and sees, He knows thy sorrows, and restores thy peace; His worship does a thousand comforts yield. He is thy help, and he thine heavenly shield.

6 In God we trust; our implous foes in vain Attempt our ruin, and oppose his reign; Had they prevail?d, durkness had cloe'd our days, And death and silence had forbid his praise: But we are sav'd, and live: Let songs arise, And Zion bless the God that built the skies.

51 Hymn 80. B. 2. S. M. St. Thomas, Clapton.

Power of God.

O! the Almighty Lord! How matchless is his power! Tremble, O earth, beneath his word, And all the heavens adore.

2 Let proud imperious kings Bow low before his throne! Crouch to his feet, ye haughty things, Or he shall tread you down.

3 Above the skies he reigns, And with amazing blows, He deals unsufferable pains On his rebellious foes.

4 Yet, everlasting God, We love to speak thy praise; Thy sceptre's equal to thy rod, The sceptre of thy grace.

The arms of mighty love
Defend our Zion well;
And heavenly mercy walls us round
From Babylon and hell.

6 Salvation to the King
Who sits enthron'd above:
Thus we adore the God of night,
And bless the God of love.

52 Psalm 66. 1st Part. C. M. Cambridge, Braintree, Warsaw.

Power and Gaodness of God.

SING, all ye nations, to the Lord, Sing with a joyful noise; With melody of sound record

His honours, and your joys. 2 Say to the Power that shakes the sky, 'How terrible art thou!

'Sinners before thy presence fly,
'Or at thy feet they bow.'

3 [Come, see the wonders of our God, How glorious are his ways!

 $\mathsf{Digitized}\,\mathsf{by}\,Google$

In Moses' hand he put his rod, And clave the frighted seas.

4 He made the ebbing channel dry, While Israel pass'd the flood; There did the church begin their joy, And triumph in their God.]

5 He rules by his resistless might; Will rebel mortals dare Provoke th' Eternal to the fight, And tempt that dreadful war?

6 O bless our God, and never cease; Ye saints, fulfil his praise; He keeps our life, maintains our peace, And guides our doubtful ways.

7 Lord, thou hast prov'd our suffering souls, To make our graces shine; So silver bears the burning coals, The metal to refine.

8 Through watery deeps and fiery ways
We march at thy command;
Led to possess the promis'd place
By thine unerring hand.

53 PSALM 89. 2d Part. C. M. Baldwin, Kendall.
Power and Majesty of God.

WITH reverence let the saints appear, And bow before the Lord; His high commands with reverence hear, And tremble at his word.

2 How terrible thy glories be!
How bright thine armies shine!
Where is the power that vies with thee?
Or truth compar'd with thine?

3 The northern pole and southern rest On thy supporting hand; Darkness and day from east to west Move round at thy command.

4 Thy words the raging winds control,
And rule the boisterous deep;
Thou mak'st the sleeping billows roll,
The rolling billows sleep.

5 Heaven, earth, and air, and seas are thine,
 And the dark world of hell:
 How did thine arm in vengeance shine,
 When Egypt durst rebel!

6 Justice and judgment are thy throne, Yet wondrous is thy grace; While truth and mercy, join'd in one, Invite us near thy face.

54 PSALM 8. S. M. #
St. Thomas, Utica.

Severeignty of God, and men's dominion over the O LORD, our heavenly King, Thy name is all divine! Thy glories round the earth are spread And o'er the heavens they shine.

When to thy works on high
I raise my wond'ring eyes,
And see the moon, complete in light,
Adorn the darksome skies:

3 When I survey the stars,
And all their shining forms,
Lord, what is man, that worthless thing,
Akin to dust and worms!

4 Lord, what is worthless man,
That thou shouldst love him so!
Next to thine angels is he placed,
And lord of all below.

5 Thine honours crown his head, While beasts like slaves obey, And birds that cut the air with wings, And fish that cleave the sea.

6 How rich thy bounties are!
And wondrous are thy ways:
Of dust and worms thy power can frame
A monument of praise.

7 [Out of the mouths of babes
And sucklings thou canst draw
Surprising honours to thy name!
And strike the world with awe.

8 O Lord, our heavenly King,
Thy name is all divine;
Thy glories round the earth are spread,
And o'er the heavens they shine.]

PSALM 68. 1st Part. L. M. :
Nantwich, Islington, Ellenthorpe.
Vengeance and compassion of God.

Vengeance and compassion of God.

LET God arise in all his might,
And put the troops of hell to flight,
As smoke, that sought to cloud the skies,
Before the rising tempest flies.

2 [He comes, array'd in burning flames; Justice and vengeance are his names: Behold, his fainting foes expire, Like melting wax before the fire.]

3 He rides and thunders through the sky His name, Jehovah, sounds on high: Sing to his name, ye sons of grace; Ye saints, rejoice before his face.

4 The widow and the fatherless
Fly to his aid in sharp distress;
In him the poor and helpless find
A judge that's just, a father kind.

5 He breaks the captive's heavy chain, And prisoners see the light again; But rebels that dispute his will, Shall dwell in chains and darkness still.

PAUSE.
6 Kingdoms and thrones to God belong;
Crown him, ye nations, in your song:

His wondrous names and powers rehearse; His honours shall enrich your verse.

7 He shakes the heavens with loud alarms! How terrible is God in arms! In Israel are his mercies known; Israel is his peculiar throne.

8 Proclaim him King, pronounce him blest; He's your defence, your joy, your rest; When terrors rise, and nations faint, God is the strength of every saint.

PSALM 111. 1st Part. C. M. # . 56 Arlington, Marlow, Rochester. Wisdom of God in his works.

SONGS of immortal praise belong To my Almighty God; He has my heart, and he my tongue, To spread his name abroad.

2 How great the works his hand hath How glorious in our sight! [wrought! Good men in every age have sought His wonders with delight.

3 How most exact is nature's frame! How wise th' Eternal Mind! His counsels never change the scheme That his first thoughts design'd.

4 When he redeem'd his chosen sons, He fix'd his covenant sure:

The orders that his lips pronounce To endless years endure.

5 Nature and time, and earth and skies, Thy heavenly skill proclaim; What shall we do to make us wise, But learn to read thy name?

6 To fear thy power, to trust thy grace, Is our divinest skill;

And he's the wisest of our race That best obeys thy will.

Psalm 139. 2d Part. C. M. 57 Braintree, Barby, Covington. Wisdom of God in the formation of man.

HEN I with pleasing wonder stand And all my frame survey, Lord, 'tis thy work: I own thy hand Thus built my humble clay.

2 Thy hand my heart and reins possess'd. Where unborn nature grew; Thy wisdom all my features trac'd, And all my members drew.

3 Thine eye with nicest care survey'd The growth of every part, Till the whole scheme thy thoughts had laid

Was copied by thine art.

4 Heaven, earth and sea, and fire and wind Show me thy wondrous skill;

But I review myself, and find Diviner wonders still.

5 Thine awful glories round me shine, My flesh proclaims thy praise; Lord, to thy works of nature join Thy miracles of grace.

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE.

Hymn 147. B. 2. C. M. 58 Rochester, St. Anns, Bethlehem. Creation of the world. Gen. i.

NOW let a spacious world arise, Said the Creator, Lord:

At since the obedient earth and skies Rose at his sovereign word.

2 [Dark was the deep; the waters lay Confus'd, and drown'd the land: He call'd the light — the new-born day Attends on his command.

3 He bade the clouds ascend on high; The clouds ascend, and bear

A watery treasure to the sky, And float on softer air.

4 The liquid element below Was gather'd by his hand! The rolling seas together flow, And leave the solid land.

5 With herbs and plants (a flowery birth) The naked globe he crown'd, Ere there was rain to bless the earth, Or sun to warm the ground.

6 Then he adorn'd the upper skies: Behold! the sun appears;

The moon and stars in order rise, To mark out months and years.

7 Out of the deep th' Almighty King Did vital beings frame;

The painted fowls of every wing, And fish of every name.]

8 He gave the lion and the worm At once their wondrous birth; And grazing beasts, of various form, Rose from the teeming earth.

9 Adam was form'd of equal clay, Though sovereign of the rest, Design'd for nobler ends than they, With God's own image blest.

10 Thus glorious in the Maker's eye The young creation stood;

He saw the building from on high, His word pronounc'd it good.

11 Lord, while the frame of nature stands, Thy praise shall fill my tongue; But the new world of grace demands

A more exalted song.

59 Psalm 139. 2d Part. L. M. Armley, Malden.

The wonderful formation of man.

TWAS from thy hand, my God, I came,
A work of such a curious frame;
In me thy fearful wonders shine,
And each proclaims thy skill divine.

And each proclaims thy skill divine.

2 Thine eyes did all my limbs survey,
Which yet in dark confusion lay:
Thou saw'st the daily growth they took,
Form'd by the model of thy book.

3 By thee my growing parts were nam'd, And what thy sovereign counsels fram'd (The breathing lungs, the beating heart) Were copied with unerring art.

4 At last, to show my Maker's name, God stamp'd his image on my frame, And in some unknown moment join'd The finish'd members to the mind.

5 There the young seeds of thought began, And all the passions of the man: Great God, our infant nature pays Immortal tribute to thy praise. PAUSE.

6 Lord, since in my advancing age
I've acted on life's busy stage,
Thy thoughts of love to me surmount
The power of numbers to recount:

7 I could survey the ocean o'er, And count each sand that makes the shore, Before my swiftest thoughts could trace The numerous wonders of thy grace.

8 These on my heart are still impress'd, With these I give mine eyes to rest; And at my waking hour I find God and his love possess my mind.

60 PSALM 33. 1st Part. C. M.
Wareham, Devizes, Cambridge.

REJOICE, ye righteous, in the Lord, This work belongs to you:
Sing of his name, his ways, his word, How holy, just, and true!

2 His mercy and his righteousness
Let heaven and earth proclaim;
His works of nature and of grace
Reveal his wondrous name.

3 His wisdom and almighty word The heavenly arches spread, And by the Spirit of the Lord Their shining hosts were made.

4 He bade the liquid waters flow To their appointed deep: The flowing seas their limits know, And their own station keep.

5 Ye tenants of the spacious earth, With fear before him stand: He spake, and nature took its birth, And rests on his command.

6 He scorns the angry nations' rage, And breaks their vain designs: His counsel stands through every age, And in full glory shines.

PSALM 33. P. M. St. Hellens, Psalm 46.

Works of creation and providence.

YE holy souls, in God rejoice, [voice: Your Maker's praise becomes your Great is your theme, your songs be new: Sing of his name, his word, his ways, His works of nature, and of grace!

Sing of his name, his word, his ways, His works of nature, and of grace! How wise and holy, just and true! 2 Justice and truth he ever loves,

2 Justice and truth he ever loves,
And the whole earth his goodness proves;
His word the heavenly arches spread:
How wide they shine from north to south!
And by the spirit of his mouth
Were all the starry armies made.

3 He gathers the wide flowing seas,
(Those watery treasures know their place)
In the vast store-house of the deep:
He spake, and gave all nature birth,
And fires and seas, and heaven and earth
His everlasting orders keep!

4 Let mortals tremble, and adore
A God of such resistless power,
Nor dare indulge their feeble rage:

Vain are their thoughts and weak their But his eternal counsel stands, [hands, And rules the world from age to age.

62 PSALM 104. L. M. Gloucester, Bath, Italy.

The glory of God in creation and providence.

Y soul, thy great Creator praise:
When cloth'd in his celestial rays,
He in full majesty appears,
And, like a robe, his glory wears.

[NOTE. This peak in may be sung to a different metre, by adding the two following lines to every stances, viz.

Great is the Lord; what tongue can frame
An equal honour to his name.]

2 The heavens are for his curtain spread; Th' unfathom'd deep he makes his bed: Clouds are his chariot, when he flies On winged storms across the skies.

3 Angels, whom his own breath inspires, His ministers are flaming fires: And swift as thought their armies move, To bear his vengeance or his love.

4 The world's foundations by his hand Are pois'd, and shall forever stand; He binds the ocean in his chain, Lest it should drown the earth again.

5 When earth was cover'd with the flood, Which high above the mountains stood, He thunder'd, and the ocean fled, Confin'd to its appointed bed.

6 The swelling billows know their bounds, And in their channels walk their rounds; Yet thence convey'd by secret veins, They spring on hills, and drench the plains.

7 He bids the crystal fountains flow, And cheer the valleys as they go; Tame heifers there their thirst allay, And for the stream wild asses bray.

And for the stream wild asses bray.

From pleasant trees which shade the brink,
The lark and linnet light to drink;
Their songs the lark and linnet raise,
And chide our silence in his praise.

PAUSE I.

9 God, from his cloudy cistern, pours On the parch'd earth enriching showers; The grove, the garden, and the field, A thousand joyful blessings yield.

10 He makes the grassy food arise, And gives the cattle large supplies; With herbs for man, of various power, To nourish nature, or to cure.

11 What noble fruit the vines produce! The olive yields a shining juice; Our hearts are cheer'd with generous wine, With inward joy our faces shine.

12 O bless his name, ye nations, fed With nature's chief supporter, bread: While bread your vital strength imparts, Serve him with vigour in your hearts.

PAUSE II.

13 Behold the stately codar stands,Rais'd in the forest by his hands:Birds to the boughs for shelter fly,And build their nests secure on high.

14 To craggy hills ascend the goat; And at the airy mountain's foot The feebler creatures make their cell; He gives them wisdom where to dwell.

15 He sets the sun his circling race, Appoints the moon to change her face; And when thick darkness veils the day, Calls out wild beasts to hunt their prey. 16 Fierce lions lead their young abroad, And roaring, ask their meat from God; Rut when the morning beams arise, The savage beast to covert flies.

17 Then man to daily labour goes; The night was made for his repose: Sleep is thy gift, that sweet relief From tiresome toil and wasting grief.

18 How strange thy works! how great thy And every land thy riches fill: [skill! Thy wisdom round the world we see; This spacious earth is full of thee. 19 Nor less thy glories in the deep, Where fish in millions swim and creep, With wondrous motions, swift or slow, Still wandering in the paths below.

20 There ships divide their watery way, And flocks of scaly monsters play; There dwells the huge Leviathan, And foams and sports in spite of man.

PAUSE III.
21 Vast are thy works, Almighty Lord.

All nature rests upon thy word, And the whole race of creatures stand, Waiting their portion from thy hand.

22 While each receives his different food, His cheerful looks pronounce it good; Eagles and bears, and whales and worms Rejoice and praise in different forms.

23 But when thy face is hid, they mourn, And, dying, to their dust return; Both man and beast their souls resign, Life, breath and spirit, all are thine.

24 Yet thou canst breathe on dust again, And fill the world with beasts and men; A word of thy creating breath

Repairs the wastes of time and death.
25 His works, the wonders of his might,
Are honour'd with his own delight:
How awful are his glorious ways!

The Lord is dreadful in his praise. 26 The earth stands trembling at thy stroke, And at thy touch the mountains smoke; Yet humble souls may see thy face, And tell their wants to sovereign grace.

27 In thee my hopes and wishes meet, And make my meditations sweet; Thy praises shall my breath employ Till it expire in endless joy.

28 While haughty sinners die accurst, Their glory bury'd with their dust, I, to my God, my heavenly King, Immortal hallelujahs sing.

PSALM 121. L. M. Truro, Nantwich.

Divine protection.

UP to the hills I lift mine eyes, Th' eternal hills beyond the skies Thence all her help my soul derives; There my Almighty Refuge lives.

2 He lives; the everlasting God, [flood; That built the world, that spread the The heavens with all their hosts he made, And the dark regions of the dead.

He spreads the evening vale, and keeps | 2 My feet shall never slide, The silent hours while Israel sleeps. | Nor fall in fatal snares,

4 Israel, a name divinely blest,
May rise secure, securely rest;
Thy holy Guardian's wakeful eyes
Admit no slumber nor surprise.

5 No sun shall smite thy head by day, Nor the pale moon with sickly ray Shall blast thy couch; no baneful star Dart his malignant fire so far.

6 Should earth and hell with malice burn, Still thou shalt go, and still return Safe in the Lord; his heavenly care Defends thy life from every snare.

7 On thee foul spirits have no power; And in thy last departing hour, Angels, that trace the arry road, Shall bear thee homeward to thy God.

PSALM 121. C. M. Dundee, Abridge.

To heaven I lift my waiting eyes,
There all my hopes are laid;
The Lord, that built the earth and skies,
Is my perpetual aid.

2 Their feet shall never slide nor fall, Whom he designs to keep: His ear attends the softest call; His eyes can never sleep.

3 He will sustain our weakest powers With his almighty arm,

And watch our most unguarded hours
Against surprising harm.

4 Israel, rejoice, and rest secure, Thy keeper is the Lord; His wakeful eyes employ his power

For thine eternal guard.

5 Nor scorching sun, nor sickly moon,
Shall have his leave to smite;
He shields thy head from burning noon,

6 He guards thy soul, he keeps thy breath
Where thickest dangers come;
Go and return, secure from death,
Till God commands thee home.

From blasting damps at night.

PSALM 121. H. M. Bethesda, Portsmouth.

God our preserver.

UPWARD I lift mine eyes,
From God is all my aid;
The God that built the skies,
And earth and nature made:
God is the tower | His grace is nigh
To which I fly; | In every hour.

2 My feet shall never slide,
Nor fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my guard and guide,
Defends me from my fears.
Those wakeful eyes, | Shall Israel keep,
Which never sleep, | When dangers rise

3 No burning heats by day, Nor blasts of evening air, Shall take my health away, If God be with me there:

Thou art my sun, | To guard my head And thou my shade, | By night or noon.

4 Hast thou not given thy word.
To save my soul from death?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath:
I'll go and come, | Till from on high
Nor fear to die, | Thou call me home.

66 Hymn 19. B. 2. C. M. Abridge, London.

Our bodies frail, and God our preserver.

LET others boast how strong they be,
Nor death nor danger fear;
But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
What feeble things we are.

2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand, And flourish bright and gay; A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land, And fades the grass away.

3 Our life contains a thousand springs,'
And dies, if one be gone:
Strange! that a harp of thousand strings
Should keep in tune so long!

4 But 'tis our God supports our frame,
The God who built us first;
Salvation to th' Almighty Name

That rear'd us from the dust.

5 [He spake—and straight our hearts and
In all their motions rose; [brains
'Let blood,' said he, 'flow round the veins,'

And round the veins it flows.

6 While we have breath, or use our tongues,
Our Maker we'll adore;

His Spirit moves our heaving lungs, Or they would breathe no more.]

67 Hymn 83. B. 1. C. M. Durham, Windsor.

Afflictions and death under Providence.

NOT from the dust affliction grows,
Nor troubles rise by chance;
Yet we are born to cares and woes.

Yet we are born to cares and woes— A sad inheritance!

2 As sparks break out from burning coals, And still are upwards borne; So grief is rooted in our souls, And man grows up to mourn.

3 Yet with my God I leave my cause, And trust his promis'd grace: He rules me by his well-known laws Of love and righteousness.

4 Not all the pains that e'er I bore Shall spoil my future peace; For death and hell can do no more Than what my Father please.

68 Hymn 13. B. 2. L. M. #

The creation and dissolution of the world. SING to the Lord who built the skies, The Lord, who rear'd this stately frame;

Let all the nations sound his praise, And lands unknown repeat his name.

2 He form'd the seas, and form'd the hills, Made every drop, and every dust; Nature and time with all their wheels, And push'd them into motion first.

3 Now, from his high imperial throne, He looks far down upon the spheres; He bids the shining orbs roll on, And round he turns the hasty years.

4 Thus shall this moving engine last,
Till all his saints are gather'd in:
Then for the trumpet's dreadful blast,
To shake it all to dust again.

5 Yet when the sound shall tear the skies, And lightning burn the globe below, Saints, you may lift your joyful eyes, There's a new heav'n and earth for you.

69 PSALM 107. 4th Part. L. M. Eaton, Nantwich, Blendon.

The seamon's song.

WOULD you behold the works of God,
His wonders in the world abroad,
Go with the mariners, and trace
The unknown regions of the seas.

2 They leave their native shores behind, And seize the favour of the wind, Till God command, and tempests rise, That heave the ocean to the skies.

3 Now to the heavens they mount amain; Now sink to dreadful deeps again; What strange affright young sailors feel, And like a staggering drunkard reel!

4 When land is far, and death is nigh, Lost to all hope, to God they cry: His mercy hears their loud address, And sends salvation in distress.

5 He bids the winds their wrath assuage; The furious waves forget their rage:

'Tis calm; and sailors smile to see The haven where they wish'd to be.

6 O may the sons of men record. The wondrous goodness of the Lord! Let them their private offerings bring, And in the church his glory sing.

70 PSALM 107. C. M., Cambridge, Rochester, Abridge.

THY works of glory, mighty Lord,
Thy wonders in the deeps,
The sons of courage shall record,
Who trade in floating ships.

Who trade in floating ships.

2 At thy command, the winds arise,
And swell the towering waves;
The mean extended result the tower

The men, astonished, mount the skies, And sink in gaping graves.

3 [Again they climb the watery hills, And plunge in deeps again: Each like a tottering drunkard reels, And finds his courage vain.

4 Frighted to hear the tempest roar, They pant with fluttering breath; And, hopeless of a distant shore, Expect immediate death.]

5 Then to the Lord they raise their cries; He hears their loud request, And orders silence through the skies, And lays the floods to rest.

6 Sailors rejoice to lose their fears, And see the storm allay'd:

Now to their eyes the port appears; There let their vows be paid. 7 Tis God that brings them safe to land:

Let stupid mortals know

That waves are under his command,
And all the winds that blow.

8 O that the sons of men would praise
The goodness of the Lord!
And those that see thy wondrous ways,

71 HYMN 109. B. 2. L. M.
Bath, Putney.
The darkness of Providence.

Thy wondrous love record.

L ORD, we adore thy vast designs, Th' obscure abyss of providence! Too deep to sound with mortal lines, Too dark to view with feeble sense.

2 Now thou array'st thine awful face In angry frowns, without a smile: We through the cloud believe thy grace, Secure of thy compassion still.

3 Through seas and storms of deep distress.
We sail by faith, and not by sight;

Faith guides us in the wilderness, Through all the terrors of the night.

4 Dear Father, if thy lifted rod Resolves to scourge us here below; Still let us lean upon our God, Thine arm shall bear us safely through.

72 PSALM 73. S. M. Sutton, Hopkins.

The mystery of Providence unfolded.

SURE there's a righteous God,
Nor is religion vain;
Though men of vice may boast aloud,
And men of grace complain.

2 I saw the wicked rise,
And felt my heart repine,
While haughty fools, with scornful eyes,
In robes of honour shine.

3 [Pamper'd with wanton ease, Their flesh looks full and fair; Their wealth rolls in like flowing seas, And grows without their care.

4 Free from the plagues and pains That pious souls endure, Through all their life oppression reigns, And racks the humble poor.

5 Their impious tongues blaspheme The everlasting God: Their malice blasts the good man's name, And spreads their lies abroad.

6 But I, with flowing tears, Indulg'd my doubts to rise; 'Is there a God that sees or hears 'The things below the skies?']

7 The tumults of my thought Held me in hard suspense, Till to thy house my feet were brought, To learn thy justice thence.

8 Thy word with light and power Did my mistakes amend;
I view'd the sinners' life before.

I view'd the sinners' life before, But here I learnt their end.

9 On what a slippery steep The thoughtless wretches go: And O, that dreadful flery deep, That waits their fall below!

10 Lord, at thy feet I bow,
My thoughts no more repine;
I call my God my portion now,
And all my powers are thine.

73 PSALM 73. 1st Part. C. M. # London, Duadee.

Now I'm convinced the Lord is kind To men of heart sincere, Yet once my foolish thoughts repin'd, And border'd on despair.

2 I griev'd to see the wicked thrive, And spoke with angry breath, 'How pleasant and profane they live

'How pleasant and profane they live!
'How peaceful is their death!.

3'With well-fed flesh and haughty eyes
'They lay their fears to sleep;

'Against the heavens their slanders rise, 'While saints in silence weep.

4'In vain I lift my hands to pray,
'And cleanse my heart in vain,
'For I am shortered all the day,

'For I am chasten'd all the day,
'The night renews my pain.'

5 Yet while my tongue indulg'd complaints,
I felt my heart reprove:

'Sure I shall thus offend thy saints,
'And grieve the men I love.'

6 But still I found my doubts too hard,
The conflict too severe,
Till I retir'd to search thy word,

And learn thy secrets there.

7 There, as in some prophetic glass,

I saw the sinner's feet High mounted on a slippery place, Beside a fiery pit.

8I heard the wretch profanely boast, Till at thy frown he fell; His honours in a dream were lost, And he awoke in hell.

9 Lord, what an envious fool I was!
 How like a thoughtless beast!
 Thus to suspect thy promis'd grace,
 And think the wicked blest.

10 Yet I was kept from full despair,
Upheld by power unknown:
That blessed hand that broke the snare

Shall guide me to thy throne.

74 PSALM 9. 2d Part. C. M. Canterbury, Plymouth.

The wisdom and equity of Providence.

WHEN the great Judge, supreme and just,

Shall once inquire for blood, The humble souls, who mourn in dust, Shall find a faithful God.

2He from the dreadful gates of death Doth his own children raise; In Zion's gates, with cheerful breath,

They sing their Father's praise.

3 His foes shall fall, with heedless feet,

Into the pit they made; And sinners perish in the net Which their own hands have spread. 4 Thus by thy judgments, mighty God, Are thy deep counsels known: When men of mischief are destroy'd, The snare must be their own.

PAUSE.
5 The wicked shall sink down to hell;
Thy wrath devour the lands
That dare forget thee. or rebel

That dare forget thee, or rebel
Against thy known commands.
6 Though saints to sore distress are brought,

And wait and long complain, Their cries shall never be forgot, Nor shall their hopes be vain.

7 [Rise, great Redeemer, from thy seat, To judge and save the poor; Let nations tremble at thy feet,

And man prevail no more.

8 Thy thunder shall affright the proud,

And put their hearts to pain,

Make them confess that thou art God,

And they but feeble men.]

75 PSALM 36. L. M. #
Old Hundred, Eaton, Blendon.
The perfections and providence of God; or, general

Providence and special grace.

HIGH in the heavens, eternal God!
Thy goodness in full glory shines;
Thy truth shall break thro every cloud
That veils and darkens thy designs.

2 Forever firm thy justice stands, As mountains their foundations keep; Wise are the wonders of thy hands; Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

3 Thy providence is kind and large;
Both man and beast thy bounty share;
The whole creation is thy charge,
But saints are thy peculiar care.

4 My God! how excellent thy grace, Whence all our hope and comfort springs; The sons of Adam in distress Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

5 From the provisions of thy house We shall be fed with sweet repast; There mercy like a river flows, And brings salvation to our taste.

6 Life, like a fountain, rich and free, Springs from the presence of the Lord; And in thy light our souls shall see The glories promis'd in thy word.

76 PSALM 147. 1st Part. L. M. :

Creation, providence and grace.

PRAISE ye the Lord: 'tis good to raise Our hearts and voices in his praise:
His nature and his works invite
To make this duty our delight.

2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem, And gathers nations to his name; ' His mercy melts the stubborn soul, And makes the broken spirit whole.

3 He form'd the stars, those heav'nly flames; He counts their numbers, calls their names:

names; His wisdom's vast, and knows no bound, A deep, where all our thoughts are drown'd.

And all his glories infinite:
He crowns the meek, rewards the just,
And treads the wicked to the dust.

PAUSE.

5 Sing to the Lord, exalt him high,
Who spreads his clouds around the sky;
There he prepares the fruitful rain,
Nor lets the drops descend in vain.

6 He makes the grass the hills adorn,
And clothes the smiling fields with corn:
The beasts with food his hands supply,
And the young ravens when they cry.
7 What is the creature's skill or force?
The sprightly man, the warlike horse,
The nimble wit, the active limb?
All are too mean delights for him.

8 But saints are lovely in his sight: He views his children with delight: He sees their hope, he knows their fear, And looks and loves his image there.

77 PSALM 136. L. M. Luton, Eaton, Wells.

Creation, providence and grace.

CIVE to our God immortal praise!

Mercy and truth are all his ways:
Wonders of grace to God belong,
Repeat his mercies in your song.

2 Give to the Lord of lords renown, The King of kings with glory crown: His mercies ever shall endure, When lords and kings are known no more.

3 He built the earth, he spread the sky, And fix'd the starry lights on high: Wonders of grace to God belong, Repeat his mercies in your song.

4 He fills the sun with morning light, He bids the moon direct the night: His mercies ever shall endure, [more. When suns and moons shall shine no

5 The Jews he freed from Pharaoh's hand, And brought them to the promis'd land: Wonders of grace to God belong, Repeat his mercies in your song. 6 He saw the Gentiles dead in sin, And felt his pity work within: His mercies ever shall endure, When death and sin shall reign no more. 7 He sent his Son with power to save From guilt, and darkness, and the grave : Wonders of grace to God belong, Repeat his mercies in your song. 8 Thro'this vain world he guides our feet, And leads us to his heavenly seat: His mercies ever shall endure, When this vain world shall be no more.

PSALM 136. C. M. 78 Braintree, Irish.

God's wonders of creation, providence, redemption of Israel, and salvation of his people. IVE thanks to God, the sovereign His mercies still endure; And be the King of kings ador'd, His truth is ever sure.

2 What wonders hath his wisdom done! How mighty is his hand! Heaven, earth and sea he fram'd alone: How wide is his command!

3 The sun supplies the day with light: How bright his counsels shine! The moon and stars adorn the night! His works are all divine.

4 [He struck the sons of Egypt dead; How dreadful is his rod? And thence with joy his people led:

How gracious is our God! 5 He cleft the swelling sea in two;

His arm is great in might! And gave the tribes a passage thro';

His power and grace unite. 6But Pharaoh's army there he drown'd; How glorious are his ways!

And brought his saints through desart Eternal be his praise. ground: 7 Great monarchs fell beneath his hand;

Victorious is his sword; While Israel took the promis'd land:

And faithful is his word.] 8 He saw the nations dead in sin;

He felt his pity move; How sad the state the world was in; How boundless was his love!

9He sent to save us from our wo; His goodness never fails; From death, and hell, and every foe;

And still his grace prevails! 10 Give thanks to God, the heavenly King;

His mercies still endure; Let the whole earth his praises sing; His truth is ever sure.

PSALM 68. 3d Part. L. M. Antigua, Islington.

Praise for temporal blessings; or, common and special mercies.

 \mathbf{X}/\mathbf{E} bless the Lord, the just, the good, Who fills our hearts with joy and food :

Who pours his blessings from the skies, And loads our days with rich supplies.

2He sends the sun his circuit round. To cheer the fruits, to warm the ground; He bids the clouds with plenteous rain. Refresh the thirsty ground again.

3 Tis to his care we owe our breath. And all our near escapes from death: Safety and health to God belong; He heals the weak, and guards the strong.

4 He makes the saint and sinner prove The common blessings of his love; But the wide difference that remains Is endless joy, or endless pains.

5 The Lord, that bruis'd the serpent's head, On all the serpent's seed shall tread: The stubborn sinner's hope confound, And smite him with a lasting wound.

6 But his right hand his saints shall raise From the deep earth, or deeper seas; And bring them to his courts above, There shall they taste his special love.

PSALM 57. L. M. 80 Bath, Warsaw.

Praise for protection, grace, and truth.

MY God, in whom are all the springs Of boundless love and grace unknown;

Hide me beneath thy spreading wings, Till the dark cloud is overblown.

2 Up to the heavens I send my cry; The Lord will my desires perform; He sends his angels from the sky, And saves me from the threatening storm.

3 Be thou exalted, O my God, Above the heavens, where angels dwell: Thy power on earth be known abroad, And land to land thy wonders tell.

4 My heart is fix'd; my song shall raise Immortal honours to thy name; Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise. My tongue, the glory of my frame.

5 High o'er the earth his mercy reigns, And reaches to the utmost sky; His truth to endless years remains When lower worlds dissolve and die.

6 Be thou exalted, O my God,
Above the heavens, where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

81 PSALM 65. 2d Part. L. M. #
Ninety-seventh Psalm, Shoel.
Divins Providence in air, earth and sea; or, the God of nature and grace.

THE God of our salvation hears
The groans of Zion mix'd with tears;
Yet when he comes with kind designs,
Through all the way his terror shines.

2 On him the race of man depends, Far as the earth's remotest ends, Where the Creator's name is known, By nature's feeble light alone.

3 Sailors, that travel o'er the flood, Address their frighted souls to God, When tempests rage, and billows roar, At dreadful distance from the shore.

4 He bids the noisy tempest cease; He calms the raging crowd to peace, When a tumultuous nation raves Wild as the winds, and loud as waves.

5 Whole kingdoms, shaken by the storm, He settles in a peaceful form; Mountains, establish'd by his hand, Firm on their old foundations stand.

6 Behold! his ensigns sweep the sky; New comets blaze, and lightnings fly: The heathen lands, with swift surprise, From the bright horrors turn their eyes.

7 At his command, the morning ray Smiles in the east, and leads the day; He guides the sun's declining wheels, Over the tops of western hills.

8 Seasons and times obey his voice; The evening and the morn rejoice To see the earth made soft with showers, Laden with fruit, and dress'd in flowers.

9 Tis from his watery stores on high He gives the thirsty ground supply; He walks upon the clouds, and thence Doth his enriching drops dispense.

10 The desert grows a fruitful field;
Abundant food the valleys yield;
The valleys shout with cheerful voice,
And neighbouring hills repeat their joys.

11 The pastures smile in green array.; There lambs and larger cattle play; The larger cattle and the lamb, Each in his language speaks thy name.

12 Thy works pronounce thy power divine;
O'er every field thy glories shine;
Through every month thy gifts appear;
Great God! thy goodness crowns the year.

82 PSALM 78. 1st Part. C. M. # Wareham, Irish, Peterborough. Providences of God recorded; or, privus education and instruction of children.

ET children hear the mighty deeds
Which God perform'd of old;
Which in our younger years we saw,
And which our fathers told.

2 He bids us make his glories known, His works of power and grace; And we'll convey his wonders down, Through every rising race.

3 Our lips shall tell them to our sons, And they again to their's; That generations yet unborn

May teach them to their heirs.

4 Thus shell they learn in God alone
Their hope securely stands;
That they may ne'er forget his works,
But practise his commands.

UNIVERSAL PRAISE.

83 PSALM 100. 1st Part. L. M. #
Old Hundred, Marlow, Conway.

Praise to our Creator.

YE nations round the earth, rejoice Before the Lord, your sovereign King, Serve him with cheerful heart and voice, With all your tongues his glory sing.

2 The Lord is God: 'tis he alone Doth life and breath and being give; We are his work, and not our own; The sheep that on his pastures live.

3 Enter his gates with songs of joy, With praises to his courts repair, And make it your divine employ To pay your thanks and honours there.

4 The Lord is good; the Lord is kind; Great is his grace, his mercy sure; And the whole race of man shall find His truth from age to age endure.

84 PSALM 100. 2d Part. L.M. #
Blendon, Sabaoth, Castle Street.

The same.

SING to the Lord with joyful voice;
Let every land his name adore;
Let earth, with one united voice,
Resound his praise from shore to shore.

2 Nations, attend before his throne, With solemn fear, with sacred joy: Know that the Lord is God alone: He can create, and he destroy.

3 His sovereign power, without our aid, Made us of clay, and form'd us men; And when like wandering sheep we He brought us to his fold again. [stray'd, 世

4 We are his people, we his care, Our souls and all our mortal frame: What lasting honours shall we rear, Almighty Maker, to thy name? 5 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,

High as the heavens our voices raise; And earth, with her ten thousand tongues, Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise. 6 Wide as the world is thy command; Vast as eternity thy love; Firm as a rock thy truth must stand,

When rolling years shall cease to move.

PSALM 148. L. M. 85 Newcourt, Eaton, Sabaoth.

Universal praise to God. OUD hallelujahs to the Lord, From distant worlds where creatures dwell;

Let heaven begin the solemn word, And sound it dreadful down to hell.

[NOTE. This psalm may be sung to a different metre, by adding the two following lines to every stanza, viz. Each of his works his name displays, But they can ne'er fulfil his praise.]

2 The Lord! how absolute he reigns! Let every angel bend the knee! Sing of his love in heavenly strains, And speak how fierce his terrors be.

3 High on a throne his glories dwell, An awful throne of shining bliss; Fly through the world, O sun, and tell How dark thy beams compar'd to his.

4 Awake, ye tempests, and his fame In sounds of dreadful praise declare; And the sweet whisper of his name Fill every gentler breeze of air.

5 Let clouds, and winds, and waves agree To join their praise with blazing fire; Let the firm earth and rolling sea In this eternal song conspire.

6Ye flowery plains, proclaim his skill; Valleys, lie fow before his eye; And let his praise from every hill Rise tuneful to the neighbouring sky.

7 Ye stubborn oaks, and stately pines, Bend your high branches, and adore: Praise him, ye beasts, in different strains: The lamb must bleat, the lion roar.

8 Birds, ye must make his praise your theme:

Nature demands a song from you; While the dumb fish that cut the stream Leap up, and mean his praises too.

Mortals, can you refrain your tongue, When nature all around you sings?

O for a shout from old and young, From humble swains, and lofty kings! 10 Wide as his vast dominion lies. Let the Creator's name be known: Loud as his thunder shout his praise. And sound it lofty as his throne. 11 Jehovah! 'tis a glorious word! O may it dwell on every tongue! But saints, who best have known the Lord, Are bound to raise the noblest song. 12 Speak of the wonders of that love Which Gabriel plays on every chord; From all below, and all above,

Hymn 27. B. 2. 86 Castle-Street, Antigua.

Loud hallelujahs to the Lord.

Praise ye him, all his angels. OD! the eternal, awful name, That the whole heav'nly army fears, That shakes the wide creation's frame. And Satan trembles when he hears.

2 Like flames of fire his servants are, And light surrounds his dwelling-place; But, O ye fiery flames, declare The brighter glories of his face.

3 Tis not for such poor worms as we, ${f T}$ o speak so infinite a thing ; But your immortal eyes survey

The beauties of your sovereign King. 4 Tell how he shows his smiling face, And clothes all heaven in bright array; Triumph and joy run through the place, And songs eternal as the day.

5 Speak—for you feel his burning love-What zeal it spreads through all your frame!

That sacred fire dwells all above, For we on earth have lost the name.

6 [Sing of his power and justice too, That infinite right hand of his, That vanquish'd Satan and his crew, When thunder drove them down from bliss.]

7 [What mighty storms of poison'd darts Were hurl'd upon the rebels there! What deadly javelins nail'd their hearts Fast to the racks of long despair!

8 (Shout to your King, ye heavenly host You that beheld the sinking foe; Firmly ye stood when they were lost; Praise the rich grace that kept you so. 9 Proclaim his wonders from the skies; Let every distant nation hear;

And while you sound his lofty praise, Let humble mortals bow and fear.]

PSALM 86. C. M. Mear, Abridge.

A general song of praise to God.

A MONG the princes, earthly gods,
There's none hath power divine;
Nor is their nature, mighty Lord,
Nor are their works like thine.

2 The nations thou hast made, shall bring Their offerings round thy throne; For thou alone dost wondrous things,

For thou alone dost wondrous things, For thou art God alone. 3 Lord, I would walk with holy feet; Teach me thine heavenly ways,

And my poor scatter'd thoughts unite In God my Father's praise.

4 Great is thy mercy, and my tongue Shall those sweet wonders tell, How by thy grace my sinking soul Rose from the deeps of hell.

88 HYMN 71. B. 2. C. M.
Cambridge, Clifford.
Praise to God from all creatures.

THE glories of my Maker, God, My joyful voice shall sing, And call the nations to adore Their Former and their King.

2 'Twas his right hand that shap'd our clay, And wrought this human frame; But from his own immediate breath Our nobler spirits came.

3 We bring our mortal powers to God, And worship with our tongues: We claim some kindred with the skies, And join th' angelic songs.

4 Let grov'ling beasts of every shape, And fowls of every wing, And rocks and trees, and fires and seas

Their various tribute bring.

5 Ye planets, to his honour shine;
And wheels of nature roll;

Praise him in your unwearied course Around the steady pole.

6 The brightness of our Maker's name The wide creation fills,

And his unbounded grandeur flies Beyond the heavenly hills.

89 PSALM 148. S. M. St. Thomas, Sutton.
Universal praise.

LET every creature join
To praise th' eternal God;
Ye heavenly host, the song begin,
And sound his name abroad.

Thou sun with golden beams, And moon with paler rays, Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flames, Shine to your Maker's praise.

3 He built those worlds above, And fix'd their wondrous frame;

By his command they stand or move, And ever speak his name.

4 Ye vapours, when ye rise,
Or fall in showers, or snow,
Ye thunders, murmuring round the skies,
His power and glory show.

5 Wind, hail, and flashing fire, Agree to praise the Lord, When ye in dreadful storms conspire To execute his word.

6 By all his works above
His honours be exprest;
But saints, that taste his saving love,
Should sing his praises best.

PAUSE I.

7 Let earth and ocean know
They owe their Maker praise:
Praise him, ye watery worlds below,
And monsters of the seas.

8 From mountains near the sky
Let his high praise resound,
From humble shrubs and cedars high,
And vales and fields around.

9 Ye liens of the wood, And tamer beasts that graze, Ye live upon his daily food, And he expects your praise.

10 Ye birds of lofty wing, On high his praises bear, Or sit on flowery boughs, and sing Your Maker's glory there.

11 Ye creeping ants and worms,
His various wisdom show;
And flies, in all your shining swarms,
Praise him that drest you so.

12 By all the earth-born race,
His honours be exprest;
But saints, that know his heavenly grace,
Should learn to praise him best.
PAUSE II.

13 Monarchs of wide command,
Praise ye th' eternal King;
Judges, adore that sovereign hand,
Whence all your honours spring.

14 Let vigorous youth engage
To sound his praises high;
While growing babes and with ring
Their feebler voices try.

15 United zeal be shown
His wondrous fame to raise;
God is the Lord; his name alone
Deserves our endless praise.

16 Let nature join with art,
And all pronounce him blest;
But saints, that dwell so near his heart,
Should sing his praises best.

90 PSALM 103. 3d Part. S. M. :
Paddington, Dover.

THE Lord, the sovereign King,
Hath fix'd his throne on high;
Oer all the heavenly world he rules,
And all beneath the sky.

9 Ye angels, great in might,
And swift to do his will,
Eless ye the Lord, whose voice ye hear,
Whose pleasure ye fulfil.

8 Let'the bright hosts who wait. The orders of their King, And guard his churches when they pray, Join in the praise they sing.

While all his wondrous works
Through his vast kingdom shew
Their Maker's glory, thou, my soul,
Shalt sing his praises too.

91 PSALM 148. H. M. #
Portsmouth, Bethesda, Harwich.
Praise to God from all creatures.
YE tribes of Adam, join
With heaven, and earth, and seas,
And offer notes divine
To your Creator's praise.
Ye holy throng | In worlds of light
Of angels bright, | Begin the song.

2 Thou sun, with dazzling rays,
And moon, that rules the night,
Shine to your Maker's praise,
With stars of twinkling light.
His power declare, | And clouds that fly
Te floods on high, | In empty air.

B The shining worlds above
In glorious order stand,
Or in swift courses move
By his supreme command.
He spake the word, | From nothing came
And all their frame | To praise the Lord.

He mov'd their mighty wheels
In unknown ages past;
And each his word fulfils
While time and nature last.

In different ways
His wondrous name,
His works proclaim
And speak his praise.

PAUSE.

PAUSE.

Let all the earth-born race
And monsters of the deep,
The fish that cleave the seas,
Or in their bosom sleep,
From sea and shore And still display
Thair tribute pay Their Maker's power.

6 Ye vapours, hail, and snow,
Praise ye th' Almighty Lord,
And stormy winds that blow,
To execute his word.

When dightnings shine, Let earth adore Or thunders roar, His hand divine.

7 Ye mountains near the skies,
 With lofty cedars there,
 And trees of humbler size,
 That fruit in plenty bear;
 Beasts, wild and tame, | In various forms
 Birds, flies, and worms, | Exalt his name.

8 Ye kings, and judges, fear
The Lord, the sovereign King;
And while you rule us here,
His heavenly honours sing;
Nor let the dream | Make you forget
Of power and state | His power suprema.

9 Virgins, and youths, engage
To sound his praise divine,
While infancy and age
Their feebler voices join.
Wide as he reigns, By every tongue
His name be sung In endless strains.

10 Let all the nations fear
The God that rules above;
He brings his people near,
And makes them taste his love.
While earth and sky His saints shall raise
Attempt his praise, His honours high.

SCRIPTURE.

92 HYMN 53. B. 1. L. M.
Blendon, Portugal.
The Holy Scriptures.

OD, who in various methods told His mind and will to saints of old, Sent his own Son, with truth and grace, To teach us in these latter days.

2 Our nation reads the written word.
That book of life, that sure record:
The bright inheritance of heaven
Is by the sweet conveyance given.

3 God's kindest tho'ts are here express'd, Able to make us wise and bless'd; The doctrines are divinely true, Fit for reproof and comfort too.

4 Ye people all, who read his love
In long epistles from above,
(He hath not sent his sacred word
To every land) Praise ye the Lord.

93 Hymn 151. B. 2. L. M. Eaton, Gloucester.

Prophecy and inspiration.

TWAS by an order from the Lord
The ancient prophets spoke his word;

The Spirit did their tongues inspire, And warm'd their hearts with heavenly fire.

2 The works and wonders which they wrought

Confirm'd the messages they brought: The prophet's pen succeeds his breath, To save the holy words from death.

3 Great God! mine eyes with pleasure On the dear volume of thy book; [look There my Redeemer's face I see, And read his name who died for me.

4 Let the false raptures of the mind Be lost, and vanish in the wind; Here I can fix my hope secure; This is thy word, and must endure.

94 Hymn 119. B. 2. C. M. # or b

The Holy Scriptures.

ADEN with guilt, and full of fears, I fly to thee, my Lord; And not a glimpse of hope appears But in thy written word.

2 The volume of my Father's grace Does all my grief assuage; Here I behold my Saviour's face Almost in every page.

3 [This is the field where hidden lies
The pearl of price unknown;
That merchant is divinely wise.

That merchant is divinely wise,
Who makes the pearl his own.]

4 [Here consecrated water flows, To quench my thirst of sin; Here the fair tree of knowledge grows, No danger dwells therein.]

No danger dwells therein.]

5 This is the judge who ends the strife
Where wit and reason fail;
My guide to everlasting life

Through all this gloomy vale.
6 O may thy counsels, mighty God.
My roving feet command;
Nor I forsake the happy road

That leads to thy right hand.

PSALM 19. L. M.

Castle-Street, Portugal.

The books of nature and of repture compared: or the glory and success of the gospel.

THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord; In every star thy wisdom shines; But when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light, And nights and days thy power confess: But the blest volume thou hast writ Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon and stars convey thy praise Round the whole earth, and never stand; So when thy truth began its race, It touch'd and glanc'd on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest, Till through the world thy truth has run; Till Christ has all the nations blest, That see the light, or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of Righteousness, arise, Bless the dark world with heavenly light: Thy gospel makes the simple wise; Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view, In souls renew'd, and sins forgiven: Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew, And make thy word my guide to heaven.

96 PSALM 19. P. M. St. Hellens, Forty-sixth Psalm.

The books of nature and of scripture.

GREAT God, the heaven's well order'd frame

Declares the glories of thy name:
There thy rich works of wonder shine:
A thousand starry beauties there,

A thousand radiant marks appear Of boundless power, and skill divine.

2 From night to day, from day to night, The dawning and the dying light Lectures of heavenly wisdom read; With silent eloquence they raise

Our thoughts to our Creator's praise,
And neither sound nor language need.

3 Yet their divine instructions run Far as the journeys of the sun,

And every nation knows their voice.

The sun, like some young bridegroom dress'd,

Breaks from the chambers of the east, Rolls round, and makes the earth rejoice.

4 Where'er he spreads his beams abroad, He smiles, and speaks his maker, God; All nature joins to show thy praise. Thus God in every creature shines;

Fair is the book of nature's lines,
But fairer is thy book of grace.

PAUSE.

5 I love the volumes of thy word;
What light and joy those leaves afford
To souls benighted and distress'd!
Thy precepts guide my doubtful way;
Thy fear forbids my feet to stray;
Thy promise leads my heart to rest.

6 From the discoveries of thy law The perfect rules of life I draw; These are my study and delight: Not honey so invites the taste, Nor gold, that has the furnace pass'd, Appears so pleasing to the sight.

7 Thy threatenings wake my slumbering

And warn me where my danger lies; But 'tis thy blessed gospel, Lord, That makes my guilty conscience clean, Converts my soul, subdues my sin, And gives a free, but large reward.

8 Who knows the errors of his thoughts? My God, forgive my secret faults, And from presumptuous sins restrain; Accept my poor attempts of praise, That I have read thy book of grace

And book of nature, not in vain. 97 PSALM 119. 7th Part. C. M. Peterborough, Abridge.

Imperfection of nature, and perfection of Scripture. ET all the heathen writers join To form one perfect book Great God, if once compar'd with thine, How mean their writings look!

2 Not the most perfect rules they gave Could show one sin forgiven, Nor lead a step beyond the grave; But thine conduct to heaven.

3 I've seen an end of what we call Perfection here below: How short the powers of nature fall,

And can no further go.

4 Yet men would fain be just with God, By works their hands have wrought; But thy commands, exceeding broad, Extend to every thought.

5 In vain we boast perfection here, While sin defiles our frame; And sinks our virtues down so far. They scarce deserve the name.

6 Our faith and love, and every grace, Fall far below thy word; But perfect truth and righteousness Dwell only with the Lord.

98 PSALM 119. 4th Part. C. M. Franklin, Bangor. Instruction from Scripture. Verse 9.

OW shall the young secure their hearts,

And guard their lives from sin? Thy word the choicest rules imparts, To keep the conscience clean.

Verse 130. 2 When once it enters to the mind, It spreads such light abroad,

The meanest souls instruction find, And raise their thoughts to God. 5*

Verse 105 3 Tis like the sun, a heavenly light That guides us all the day; And through the dangers of the night A lamp to lead our way. erses 99, 100.

4 The men that keep thy law with care, And meditate thy word, Grow wiser than their teachers are. And better know the Lord.

Verses 104, 113.

5 Thy precepts make me truly wise; I hate the sinner's road:

I hate my own vain thoughts that rise, But love thy law, my God.

6 [The starry heavens thy rule obey, The earth maintains her place And these thy servants night and day

Thy skill and power express. 7 But still thy law and gospel, Lord, Have lessons more divine:

Not earth stands firmer than thy word, Nor stars so nobly shine.]

8 Thy word is everlasting truth, How pure is every page! That holy book shall guide our youth, And well support our age.

PSALM 119. 5th Part. C. M. 99 Irish, Brattle-Street.

Delight in Scripture; or, the word of God dwelling in us. Verse 97.

HOW I love thy holy law! 'Tis daily my delight: And thence my meditations draw Divine advice by night. Verse 148.

2 My waking eyes prevent the day To meditate thy word: My soul with longing melts away To hear thy gospel, Lord.

3 How doth thy word my heart engage. How well employ my tongue! And, in my tiresome pilgrimage, Yields me a heavenly song. Verse 19, 103.

4 Am I a stranger, or at home, "Tis my perpetual feast; Not honey dropping from the comb So much allures the taste.

Verses 72, 127 5 No treasures so enrich the mind; Nor shall thy word be sold For loads of silver well refin'd, Nor heaps of choicest gold.

6 When nature sinks, and spirits droop. Thy promises of grace

Are pillars to support my hope, And there I write thy praise. 100 PRALM 119. 6th Part. C. M. # |3 [Mercy and truth unite in one, Litchfield, St. John's.

Holiness and comfort from the word.

Verse 128. ORD, I esteem thy judgments right, And all thy statutes just; Thence I maintain a constant fight

With every flattering lust.

2 Thy precepts often I survey: I keep thy law in sight, Through all the business of the day, To form my actions right.

3 My heart in midnight silence cries, 'How sweet thy comforts be!' My thoughts in holy wonder rise, And bring their thanks to thee.

Verse 162. 4 And when my spirit drinks her fill At some good word of thine, Not mighty men that share the spoil Have joys compared to mine.

101 PSALM 119. 8th Part. C. M. # Barby, Swanwick.

The word of God is the saint's portion; or the excellency and variety of Scripture.

ORD, I have made thy word my choice, My lasting heritage; There shall my noblest powers rejoice, My warmest thoughts engage.

2 I'll read the histories of thy love, And keep thy laws in sight, While through the promises I rove, With ever fresh delight.

3 Tis a broad land of wealth unknown, Where springs of life arise; Seeds of immortal bliss are sown, And hidden glory lies.

4 The best relief that mourners have, It makes our sorrows blest; Our fairest hope beyond the grave, And our eternal rest.

And smiling, sit at thy right hand: Eternal justice guards thy throne, And vengeance waits thy dread command.]

4 A thousand seraphs, strong and bright, Stand round the glorious Deity; But who, among the sons of light, Pretends comparison with thee?

5 Yet there is one, of human frame, Jesus, array'd in flesh and blood, Thinks it no robbery to claim A full equality with God.

6 [Their glory shines with equal beams; Their essence is forever one; Inames, Though they are known by different The FATHER GOD, and GOD the SON.

HYMN 2. B. 1. L. M. 103 Tallis, Evening Hymn, All Saints. The deity and humanity of Christ.

ERE the blue heavens were stretch'd abroad.

From everlasting was the Word: With God he was; the Word was God, And must divinely be adored.

2 By his own power were all things made; By him supported, all things stand: He is the whole creation's head, And angels fly at his command.

3 Ere sin was born, or Satan fell, He led the host of morning stars; Thy generation who can tell, Or count the number of thy years?)

4 But lo, he leaves those heavenly forms; The Word descends and dwells in clay, That he may hold converse with worms, Dress'd in such feeble flesh as they.

5 Mortals with joy beheld his face, Th' eternal Father's only Son! How full of truth! how full of grace! When through his flesh the Godhead shone!

6 Archangels leave their high abode, To learn new mysteries here, and tell The love of our descending God, The glories of Immanuel.

B. 2. Hymn 47. 104 Truro, Sabaoth.

Glory and grace in the person of Christ JOW to the Lord a noble song! Awake, my soul; awake, my tongue; Hosanna to th' Eternal Name,
And all his boundless love proclaim.
2 See, where it shines in Jesus' face,
The brightest image of his grace;
God, in the person of his Son,
Has all his mightiest works outdone.
3 The spacious earth and spreading flood
Proclaim the wise, the powerful God;
And thy rich glories from afar
Sparkle in every rolling star.
4 But in his looks a glory stands,
The noblest labour of thine hands;
The pleasing lustre of his eyes
Outshines the wonders of the skies.
5 Grace! 'tis a sweet, a charming theme;

My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name; Ye angels, dwell upon the sound; Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground. 6O, may I live to reach the place Where he unveils his lovely face, Where all his beauties you behold, And sing his name to harps of gold!

INCARNATION OF CHRIST.

105 Hymn 3. B. 1. S. M. a

The nativity of Christ.

BEHOLD the grace appears, The promise is fulfill'd; Mary, the wondrous virgin, bears, And Jesus is the child.

2 [The Lord, the highest God, Calls him his only Son; He bids him rule the lands abroad, And gives him David's throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign
With a peculiar sway;
The nations shall his grace obtain,
His kingdom ne'er decay.]

4 To bring the glorious news, A heavenly form appears; He tells the shepherds of their joys, And banishes their fears.

5 'Go, humble swains,' said he,
'To David's city fly;
'The promis'd infant, born to-day,
'Doth in a manger lie.

6 'With looks and heart serene,
'Go, visit Christ your King;'
And straight a flaming troop was seen;
The shepherds heard them sing:

7 'Glory to God on high, 'And heavenly peace on earth; Good will to men, to angels joy, 'At the Redeemer's birth.' In worship so divine
Let saints employ their tongues;
With the celestial hosts we join,
And loud repeat their songs:

'Glory to God on high,
'And heavenly peace on earth;
'Good will to men, to angels joy,
'At our Redeemer's birth.']

106 PSALM 97. 2d Part. L. M. Schwell.

Christ's incarnation.

THE Lord is come, the heavens proclaim
His birth; the nations learn his name;
An unknown star directs the road
Of eastern sages to their God.

2 All ye bright armies of the skies, Go, worship where the Saviour lies! Angels and kings before him bow, . Those gods on high and gods below.

3 Let idols totter to the ground,
And their own worshippers confound:
Let Judah shout, let Zion sing,
And earth confess her sovereign King.

107 Hymn 60. B. 1. L. M. Gloucester, Antigua.

The virginMary's song: or, the promised Messiah born OUR souls shall magnify the Lord; In God the Saviour we rejoice; While we repeat the virgin's song, May the same Spirit tune our voice.

2 [The Highest saw her low estate, And mighty things his hand hath done; His overshadowing power and grace Make her the mother of his Son.

3 Let every nation call her bless'd, And endless years prolong her fame; But God alone must be ador'd; Holy and reverend is his name.]

4 To those that fear and trust the Lord, His mercy stands forever sure; From age to age his promise lives, And the performance is secure.

5 He spake to Abraham and his seed, In thee shall all the earth be bless'd? The memory of that ancient word Lay long in his eternal breast.

6 But now no more shall Israel wait, No more the Gentiles lie forlorn; Lo, the Desire of Nations comes; Behold the promis'd seed is born!

108 Hymn 135. B. 2. L. M. Nantwich, Shoel.

Types and prophecies of Christ.

BEHOLD the woman's promis'd seed!
Behold the great Messiah come!
Behold the prophets all agreed
To give him the superior room!

2 Abrah'm, the saint, rejoic'd of old, When visions of the Lord he saw; Moses, the man of God, foretold This great fulfiller of his law.

3 The types bore witness to his name, Obtain'd their chief design, and ceas'd; The incense, and the bleeding lamb, The ark, the altar, and the priest.

4 Predictions in abundance meet, To join their blessings on his head; Jesus, we worship at thy feet, And nations own the promis'd Seed.

109 Hymn 136. B. 2. L. M. Luton, Ninety-seventh Psalm.

Miracles at the birth of Christ.

THE King of glory sends his Son
To make his entrance on this earth;
Behold the midnight bright as noon,
And heavenly hosts declare his birth!

2 About the young Redeemer's head, What wonders and what glories meet! An unknown star arose, and led The eastern sages to his feet.

3 Simeon and Anna both conspire
The infant Saviour to proclaim;
Inward they felt the sacred fire,
And blest the Babe, and own'd his name.

4 Let Jews and Greeks blaspheme aloud, And treat the holy Child with scorn; Our souls adore th' eternal God, Who condescended to be born.

110 PSALM 98. 2d Part. C. M. $ Kingston, Mear.

JOY to the world! the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King:
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

2 Joy to the earth! the Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and Repeat the sounding joy. [plains

3 No more let sins and sorrows grow, Nor thorns infest the ground; He comes to make his blessings flow Far as the curse is found.

4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

PSALM 96. C. M. Rochester, Devizes.

Christ's first and second coming
ING to the Lord, ye distant lands,
Ye tribes of every tongue:
His new discover'd grace demands
A new and nobler song.

2 Say to the nations, Jesus reigns, God's own Almighty Son; His power the sinking world sustains,

And grace surrounds his throne.

3 Let heaven proclaim the joyful day,

Joy through the earth be seen; Let cities shine in bright array, And fields in cheerful green.

4 Let an unusual joy surprise
The islands of the sea;

Ye mountains, sink; ye valleys, rise; Prepare the Lord his way. 5 Behold, he comes! he comes to bless

The nations as their God;
To show the world his righteousness,

And send his truth abroad.
6 But when his voice shall raise the dead,
And bid the world draw near,
How will the guilty nations dread

PSALM 97. C. M. Braintree, Irish, Bedford.

To see their Judge appear.

Christ's incurnation and the last judgment.

YE islands of the northern sea,
Rejoice, the Saviour reigns;
His word like fire prepares his way,
And mountains melt to plains.

2 His presence sinks the proudest hills, And makes the valleys rise; The humble soul enjoys his smiles, The haughty sinner dies.

3 The heavens his rightful power proclaim!
The idol gods around

Fill their own worshippers with shame And totter to the ground.

4 Adoring angels at his birth,
Make the Redeemer known:
Thus shall he come to judge the earth,

And angels guard his throne.

5 His foes shall tremble at his sight,
And hills and seas retire;

His children take their unknown flight, And leave the world on fire.

6 The seeds of joy and glory, sown For saints in darkness here, Shall rise and spring in worlds unknown, And a rich harvest bear.

LIFE OF CHRIST.

113 HYMN 139. B. 2. L. M. # Portugal, Eaton. The example of Christ.

MY dear Redeemer, and my Lord, I read my duty in thy word: But in thy life the law appears, Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal, Such deference to thy Father's will, Such love and meekness so divine, I would transcribe, and make them mine. 3 Cold mountains, and the midnight air Witness'd the fervour of thy prayer;

The desert thy temptations knew, Thy conflict, and thy victory too. 4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear

More of thy gracious image here; Then God, the Judge, shall own my name Among the followers of the Lamb.

114 Hymn 112. B. 2. L. M. Nantwich, Dunstan.

Angels ministering to Christ and saints. GREAT God, to what a glorious height Hast thou advanc'd the Lord, thy Hast thou advanc'd the Lord, thy Angels, in all their robes of light, [Son! Are made the servants of his throne.

2 Before his feet their armies wait, And swift as flames of fire they move, To manage his affairs of state, In works of vengeance and of love.

3 His orders run through all their hosts, Legions descend at his command, To shield and guard our native coasts, When foreign rage invades our land.

4 Now they are sent to guide our feet Up to the gates of thine abode, Through all the dangers that we meet, in travelling the heavenly road.

⁵Lord, when I leave this mortal ground, And thou shalt bid me rise and come, Send a beloved angel down, Safe to conduct my spirit home.

Hymn 113. B. 2. C. M. 115 Dundee, St. David's.

The same. THE majesty of Solomon, How glorious to behold! The servants waiting round his throne, The ivory and the gold!

2 But, mighty God! thy palace shines With far superior beams; Thine angel guards are swift as winds,

Thy ministers are flames.

3 [Soon as thine only Son had made His entrance on this earth,

A shining army downward fled To celebrate his birth.

4 And when, oppress'd with pains and fears, On the cold ground he lies,

Behold a heavenly form appears,

T' allay his agonies.]

5 Now to the hands of Christ our King Are all their legions given;

They wait upon his saints, and bring His chosen heirs to heaven.

6 Pleasure and praise run through their To see a sinner turn; [host, Then Satan has a captive lost,

And Christ a subject born. 7 But there's an hour of brighter joy,

When he his angels sends Obstinate rebels to destroy, And gather in his friends.

80! could I say, without a doubt, 'There shall my soul be found,' Then let the great archangel shout, And the last trumpet sound.

SUFFERINGS AND DEATH OF CHRIST.

PSALM 69. 2d Part. L. M. 116 Dresden, Darwin.

Christ's sufferings and zeal. TWAS for our sake, eternal God, Thy Son sustain'd that heavy load Of base reproach and sore disgrace, And shame defiled his sacred face.

2 The Jews, his brethren, and his kin, Abus'd the Man that check'd their sin: While he fulfill'd thy holy laws, They hate him, but without a cause.

3 [' My Father's house,' said he, ' was made 'A place for worship, not for trade;' Then, scattering all their gold and brass, He scourg'd the merchants from the place.

4 [Zeal for the temple of his God Consum'd his life, expos'd his blood: Reproaches at thy glory thrown He felt, and mourn'd them as his own.]

5 [His friends forsook, his followers fled, While foes and arms surround his head; They curse him with a slanderous tongue And the false judge maintains the wrong.]

6 His life they load with hateful lies, And charge his lips with blasphemies: They nail him to the shameful tree; There hung the Man that died for me!

7 [Wretches, with hearts as hard as stones, Insult his piety and groams; Gall was the food they gave him there, And mock'd his thirst with vinegar.]

8 But God beheld, and from his throne Marks out the men that hate his Son:
The hand that rais'd him from the dead Shall pour due vengeance on their head.

117 PSALM 69. 1st Part. L. M. Darwin, Putney.

Christ's passion and sinners' salvation.

DEEP in our hearts let us record
The deeper sorrows of our Lord:
Behold the rising billows roll,
To overwhelm his holy soul!

2 In long complaints he spends his breath, While hosts of hell and powers of death, And all the sons of malice join, To execute their curs'd design.

3 Yet, gracious God, thy power and love Have made the curse a blessing prove; Those dreadful sufferings of thy Son Aton'd for sins which we had done.

4 The pangs of our expiring Lord
The honours of thy law restored;
His sorrows made thy justice known,
And paid for follies not his own.

50! for his sake our guilt forgive, And let the mourning sinner live; The Lord will hear us in his name, Nor shall our hope be turn'd to shame.

118 PSALM 69. 1st Part. C. M. Abridge, Canterbury.

The sufferings of Christ for our salvation.

SAVE me, O God; the swelling floods
'Break in upon my soul:

I sink, and sorrows o'er my head
Like mighty waters roll.

2'I cry till all my voice be gone;
'In tears I waste the day:

My God, behold my longing eyes,
And shorten thy delay.

8 They hate my soul without a cause, And still their number grows

More than the hairs around my head,
 And mighty are my foes.

Twas then I paid that dreadful debt,
That men could never pay,
And gave those honours to thy law,

Which sinners took away.

5 Thus, in the great Messiah's name, The royal prophet mourns; Thus he awakes our hearts to grief,

And gives us joy by turns.

6 Now shall the saints rejoice, and find
Salvation in my name,
For I have borne their heavy load

Of sorrow, pain, and shame.

7' Grief, like a garment, cloth'd me round,
'And sackcloth was my dress,
'While I procured for paked souls

'While I procur'd for naked souls
'A robe of righteousness.

8' Among my brethren and the Jews 'I like a stranger stood,

'And bore their vile reproach, to bring 'The Gentiles near to God.

9'I came in sinful mortals' stead
'To do my Father's will;

'Yet, when I cleans'd my Father's house,
'They scandaliz'd my zeal.

10 'My fasting and my holy groans 'Were made the drunkard's song; 'But God, from his celestial throne, 'Hood, my complaining to the song;

'Heard my complaining tongue.

11'He sav'd me from the dreadful deep.
'Nor let my soul be drown'd.

'Nor let my soul be drown'd;
'He rais'd and fix'd my sinking fees
'On well establish'd ground.

12'Twas in a most accepted hour 'My prayer arose on high,

'And, for my sake, my God shall hear 'The dying sinner's cry.'

119 PSALM 69. 2d Part. C. M. b or # Abridge, Canterbury.

The passion and exaltation of Christ.

NOW let our lips with holy fear,
And mournful pleasure, sing
The sufferings of our great High-Priest,
The sorrows of our King.

2 He sinks in floods of deep distress;
How high the waters rise!

While to his heavenly Father's ear He sends perpetual cries.

3' Hear me, O Lord, and save thy Son,
'Nor hide thy shining face;

'Why should thy favourite look like one 'Forsaken of thy grace?

4' With rage they persecute the Man 'That groans beneath thy wound,

'While for a sacrifice I pour 'My life upon the ground.

5 They tread my honour to the dust,
And laugh when I complain;

Their sharp insulting slanders add Fresh anguish to my pain.

6'All my reproach is known to thee, 'The scandal and the shame;

 Reproaches break my bleeding heart, 'And lies defile my name.

f'I look for pity, but in vain; 'My kindred are my grief:

I ask my friends for comfort round, But meet with no relief.

6'With vinegar they mock my thirst; 'They give me gall for food;

'And, sporting with my dying groans, 'They triumph in my blood

9 Shine into my distressed soul, 'Let thy compassion save;

And though my flesh sink down to death, 'Redeem it from the grave.

10'I shall arise to praise thy name, 'Shall reign in worlds unknown;

'And thy salvation, O my God, 'Shall seat me on thy throne.'

PSALM 22. 1st Part. C. M. 120 Plymouth, Bangor. The sufferings and death of Christ.

WHY hath my God my soul forsook, 'Nor will a smile afford?' (Thus David once in anguish spoke, And thus our dying Lord.)

Though 'tis thy chief delight to dwell Among thy praising saints,

Yet thou canst hear a groan as well, And pity our complaints.

8 Our fathers trusted in thy name, And great deliverance found; But I'm a worm, despis'd of men, And trodden to the ground.

4 Shaking the head, they pass me by, And laugh my soul to scorn; 'In vain he trusts in God,' they cry,

'Neglected and forlorn. 5 But thou art he who form'd my flesh

By thine almighty word: And since I hung upon the breast, My hope is in the Lord.

6 Why will my Father hide his face When foes stand threatening round, In the dark hour of deep distress. And not a helper found?

PAUSE. 7 Behold thy darling left among The cruel and the proud,

As bulls of Bashan, fierce and strong, As lions roaring loud.

6 From earth and hell my sorrows meet, To multiply the smart; They nail my hands, they pierce my feet,

And try to vex my heart.

19 Yet if thy sovereign hand let loose The rage of earth and hell, Why will my heavenly Father bruise The Son he loves so well?

10 My God, if possible it be, Withhold this bitter cup; But I resign my will to thee,

And drink the sorrows up. 11 My heart dissolves with pangs unknown;

In groans I waste my breath; Thy heavy hand hath brought me down

Low as the dust of death. 12 Father, I give my spirit up, And trust it in thy hand:

My dying flesh shall rest in hope, And rise at thy command.

Hymn 114. B. 2. C. M. 121 St. Martins, Mear.

Christ's death, victory, and dominion. SING my Saviour's wondrous death;

I SING my Saviou.

He conquer'd when he fell: "Tis finish'd," said his dying breath And shook the gates of hell.

2''Tis finish'd,' our Immanuel cries; 'The dreadful work is done? Hence shall his sovereign throne arises

His kingdom is begun.

3 His cross a sure foundation laid For glory and renown,

When, through the regions of the dead, He pass'd to reach the crown.

4 Exalted at his Father's side Sits our victorious Lord:

To heaven and hell his hands divide The vengeance or reward.

5 The saints from his propitious eye Await their several crowns, And all the sons of darkness fly The terror of his frowns.

PSALM 16. 2d Part. L. M. 122 Evening Hymn, Leeds.

Christ's all-sufficiency. OW fast their guilt and sorrows rise Who haste to seek some idol god! I will not taste their sacrifice. Their offerings of forbidden blood.

2 My God provides a richer cup, And nobler food to live upon; He for my life has offer'd up Jesus, his best beloved Son.

3 His love is my perpetual feast; By day his counsels guide me right; And, be his name forever blest, Who gives me sweet advice by night. 4 I set him still before mine eyes; At my right hand he stands prepar'd To keep my soul from all surprise, And be my everlasting guard.

RESURRECTION OF CHRIST. 123 PSALM 16. 2d Part. C. M.

Abridge, Bedford.

The death and resurrection of Christ.

T SET the Lord before my face,

'He bears my courage up;

'My heart and tongue their joys express,

'My flesh shall rest in hope.

2'My spirit, Lord, thou wilt not leave 'Where souls departed are;

'Nor quit my body to the grave,
'To see corruption there.

8'Thou wilt reveal the path of life,
'And raise me to thy throne:
'Thy courts immortal pleasure give;
'Thy presence, joys unknown.'

4 [Thus, in the name of Christ the Lord, The holy David sung,

And Providence fulfils the word Of his prophetic tongue.

5 Jesus, whom every saint adores, Was crucify'd and slain;Behold, the tomb its prey restores!Behold, he lives again!

6 When shall my feet arise and stand On heaven's eternal hills? There sits the Son at God's right hand, And there the Father smiles.]

124 HYMN 76. B. 2. C. M. Devizes, Rochester.

The resurrection and ascension of Christ.

HOSANNA to the Prince of Light,
Who cloth'd himself in clay,
Enter'd the iron gates of death,
And tore the bars away.

2 Death is no more the king of dread Since our Immanuel rose; He took the tyrant's sting away,

And spoil'd our hellish foes.

3 See, how the Conqueror mounts aloft,
And to his Father flies,

With scars of honour in his flesh, And triumph in his eyes.

There our exalted Saviour reigns, And scatters blessings down; Our Jesus fills the middle seat Of the celestial throne.

5 [Raise your devotion, mortal tongues, To reach his blest abode; Sweet be the accents of your songs To our incarnate God. 6 Bright angels, strike your loudest string, Your sweetest voices raise; Let heaven, and all created things, Sound our Immanuel's praise.]

125 Hymn 26. B. 1. C. M. York, St. Anns.

Hope of heaven by the resurrection of Christ.

BLEST be the everlasting God,
The Father of our Lord;
Be his abounding mercy prais'd,
His majesty adored.

2 When from the dead he rais'd his Son, And call'd him to the sky, He gave our souls a lively hope

He gave our souls a lively hope That they should never die. 3 What though our inbred sins require

Our flesh to see the dust, Yet as the Lord our Saviour rose,

So all his followers must.

4 There's an inheritance divine
Reserv'd against that day;

'Tis uncorrupted, undefil'd,
And cannot waste away.
5 Saints by the power of God are kept

Till the salvation come; We walk by faith, as strangers here, Till Christ shall call us home.

126 Hymn 137. B. 2. L. M. Luton, Leeds, Dunstan.

Miracles in the life, death, and resurrection of Christonia Behold the blind their sight receive! Behold the dead awake and live!

The dumb speak wonders! and the lame Leap like the hart, and bless his nama 2 Thus doth th' eternal Spirit own,

And seal the mission of the Son; The Father vindicates his cause, While he hangs bleeding on the cross 3 He dies! the heavens in mourning stood; He rises! and appears a God:

Behold the Lord ascending high, No more to bleed, no more to die!

4 Hence and forever from my heart I bid my doubts and fears depart; And to those hands my soul resign, Which bear credentials so divine.

ASCENSION AND EXALTATION OF CHRIST.

127 PSALM 2. L. M. bor $

Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension.
WHY did the Jews proclaim their rage?
The Romans, why their swords employ?

Against the Lord their powers engage, 4 These are the men, the pious race, His dear Anointed to destroy?

That seek the God of Jacob's face;

2 Come, let us break his bands,' they say, 'This man shall never give us laws:' And thus they cast his yoke away, And nail'd their Monarch to the cross.

3 But God, who high in glory reigns, Laughs at their pride, their rage controls; He'll vex their hearts with inward pains, And speak in thunder to their souls.

4'I will maintain the King I made,

'On Zion's everlasting hill;

'My hand shall bring him from the dead,
'And he shall stand your Sovereign still.'

5 [His wondrous rising from the earth Makes his eternal Godhead known; The Lord declares his heavenly birth, 'This day have I begot my Son.

6 Ascend, my Son, to my right hand;
There thou shalt ask, and I bestow
The utmost bounds of heathen land:

'To thee the northern isles shall bow.']
7 But nations that resist his grace
Shall fall beneath his iron stroke;
His rod shall crush his foes with ease,
As potter's earthen work is broke.

PAUSE.

8 Now ye, who sit on earthly thrones, Be wise, and serve the Lord the Lamb: Now at his feet submit your crowns, Rejoice and tremble at his name.

9 With humble love address the Son, Lest he grow angry and ye die; His wrath will burn to worlds unknown, If ye provoke his jealousy.

10 His storms shall drive you quick to hell; He is a God, and ye but dust: Happy the souls that know him well, And make his grace their only trust.

128 PSALM 24. L. M. Wells, Nantwich.

Saints dwell in hearen; or, Christ's ascension.

THIS spacious earth is all the Lord's,
And men, and worms, and beasts,
and birds;

He rais'd the building on the seas, And gave it for their dwelling-place. 2 But there's a brighter world on high,

Thy palace, Lord, above the sky: Who shall ascend that blest abode, And dwell so near his Maker, God. The that abbox and form to sin

3 He that abhors and fears to sin, Whose heart is pure, whose hands are

Him shall the Lord the Saviour bless, And clothe his soul with righteousness.

These are the men, the pious race, That seek the God of Jacob's face; These shall enjoy the blissful sight, And dwell in everlasting light. PAUSE.

5 Rejoice, ye shining worlds on high, Behold the King of Glory nigh! Who can this King of Glory be? The mighty Lord, the Saviour's he.

6 Ye heavenly gates, your leaves display To make the Lord the Saviour way: Laden with spoils from earth and hell, The Conqueror comes with God to dwell.

7 Rais'd from the dead, he goes before, He opens heaven's eternal door, To give his saints a blest abode, Near their Redeemer and their God

129 PSALM 47. C. M. Devizes, Rochester.

Christ ascending and reigning.

FOR a shout of sacred joy
To God, the sovereign King!

Let every land their tongues employ,
And hymns of triumph sing.

2 Jesus our God ascends on high! His heavenly guards, around, Attend him, rising, through the sky, With trumpets' joyful sound.

3 While angels shout and praise their King, Let mortals learn their strains: Let all the earth his honours sing:

O'er all the earth he reigns.

4 Rehearse his praise with awe profound;

Nor mock him with a solemn sound Upon a thoughtless tongue.

5 In Israel stood his ancient throne; He lov'd that chosen race;

But now he calls the world his own, And heathens taste his grace.

6 The Gentile nations are the Lord's, There Abraham's God is known, While powers and princes, shields and Submit before his throne. [swords

130 PSALM 68. 2d Part. L. M. #

Christ's ascension, and the gift of the Spirit.

ORD, when thou didst ascend on high,
Ten thousand angels fill'd the sky
Those heavenly guards around thee wait,
Like chariots that attend thy state.

2 Not Sinai's mountain could appear More glorious when the Lord was there; While he pronounc'd his dreadful law, And struck the chosen tribes with awe. 3 How bright the triumph none can tell, When the rebellious powers of hell, That thousand souls had captive made, Were all in chains like captives led.

4 Rais'd by his Father to the throne, He sent the promis'd Spirit down, With gifts and grace for rebel men, That God might dwell on earth again.

131 HYMN 141. B. 1. S. M. Sutton, Little Marlborough.

The humiliation and exaltation of Christ.

WHO has believed thy word,
Or thy salvation known?

Reveal thine arm, Almighty Lord,
And glorify thy Son.

2 The Jews esteem'd him here Too mean for their belief; Sorrows his chief acquaintance were, And his companion, grief.

3 They turn'd their eyes away,
And treated him with scorn;
But 'twas their griefs upon him lay;
Their sorrows he has borne.

4 Twas for the stubborn Jews, And Gentiles then unknown, The God of justice pleas'd to bruise His best beloved Son.

5 'But I'll prolong his days,
'And make his kingdom stand;
'My pleasure,' saith the God of grace,
'Shall prosper in his hand.

6 ['His joyful soul shall see The purchase of his pain, And by his knowledge justify 'The guilty sons of men.]

7 ['Ten thousand captive slaves,
 'Releas'd from death and sin,
 'Shall quit their prisons and their graves,
 'And own his power divine.]

8 ['Heaven shall advance my Son 'To joys that earth deny'd;
'Who saw the follies men had done,
'And bore their sins, and died.']

132 Hymn 142. B. 1. S. M. Olmutz,

The same.

IKE sheep we went astray,
And broke the fold of God;
Each wandering in a different way;
But all the downward road.

2 How dreadful was the hour, When God our wanderings laid, And did at once his vengeance pour Upon the Shepherd's head!

8 How glorious was the grace When Christ sustain'd the stroke! His life and blood the Shepherd pays
A ransom for the flock.

4 His honour and his breath
Were taken both away;
Join'd with the wicked in his death,
And made as vile as they.

5 But God shall raise his head O'er all the sons of men, And make him see a numerous seed To recompense his pain.

6 'I'll give him,' saith the Lord,
'A portion with the strong;
'He shall possess a large reward,
'And hold his honours long.'

133 Hymn 43. B. 2. L. M. Nantwich, Dunstan.

Christ's sufferings and glory.

NOW for a tune of lofty praise
To great Jehovah's equal Son!
Awake, my voice, in heavenly lays,
Tell loud the wonders he hath done.

2 Sing how he left the worlds of light, And the bright robes he wore above; How swift and joyful was his flight On wings of everlasting love!

3 [Down to this base, this sinful earth, He came to raise our nature high; He came t' atone almighty wrath—Jesus, the God, was born to die.]

4 [Hell and its lions roar'd around; His precious blood the monsters spilt; While weighty sorrows press'd him down, Large as the loads of all our guilt.]

5 Deep in the shades of gloomy death, Th' Almighty Captive pris'ner lay; Th' Almighty Captive left the earth, And rose to everlasting day.

6 Lift up your eyes, ye sons of light, Up to his throne of shining grace; See what immortal glories sit Round the sweet beauties of his face!

7 Amongst a thousand harps and songs, Jesus, the God, exalted reigns! His sacred name fills all their tongnes, And echoes through the heavenly plains!

PSALM 8. C. M.
Pembroke, Exeter, Abridge.

Christ's condescension and glorifications or, God made man.

O LORD, our Lord, how wondrous Is thine exalted name! [great The glories of thy heavenly state Let men and babes proclaim.

2 When I behold thy works on high, The moon that rules the night,

And stars, that well adorn the sky, Those moving worlds of light,—

8 Lord, what is man, or all his race, Who dwells so far below,

That thou shouldst visit him with grace, And love his nature so?—

4 That thine eternal Son should bear To take a mortal form, Made lower than his angels are, To save a dying worm!

*[Yet while he lived on earth unknown, And men would not adore,

The obedient seas and fishes own

The obedient seas and fishes own His Godhead and his power.

6 The waves lay spread beneath his feet, And fish, at his command, Bring their large shoals to Peter's net, Bring tribute to his hand.

7 These lesser glories of the Son Shone through the fleshly cloud;Now we behold him on his throne, And men confess him God.]

8 Let him be crown'd with majesty, Who bow'd his head to death; And be his honours sounded high, By all things that have breath.

9 Jesus, our Lord, how wondrous great Is thine exalted name!The glories of thy heavenly state Let the whole earth proclaim.

135 HYMN 83. B. 2. C. M. Irish, Cambridge.

The passion and exaltation of Christ.

THUS saith the Ruler of the skies, 'Awake, my dreadful sword; 'Awake, my wrath, and smite the man, 'My fellow,' saith the Lord.

2 Vengeance receiv'd the dread command, And, armed, down she flies;
Jesus submits t' his Father's hand,
And bows his head and dies.

3 But, O! the wisdom and the grace, That join with vengeance now! He dies to save our guilty race, And yet he rises too.

4 A person so divine was he,
Who yielded to be slain,
That he could give his soul away,
And take his life again.

5 Live, glorious Lord, and reign on high, Let every nation sing, And angels sound, with eudless joy, The Saviour, and the King.

136 Hymn 84. B. 2. S. M. Froome, Watchman, Dover, Lisbon.

COME, all harmonious tongues, Your noblest music bring; Tis Christ, the everlasting God, And Christ, the Man, we sing.

Tell how he took our flesh, To take away our guilt;

Sing the dear drops of sacred blood, That hellish monsters spilt.

3 [Alas! the cruel spear Went deep into his side; And the rich flood of purple gore Their murderous weapons dy'd.]

4 [The waves of swelling grief Did o'er his bosom roll, And mountains of almighty wrath Lay heavy on his soul.]

5 Down to the shades of death He bow'd his awful head; Yet he arose to live and reign When death itself is dead.

6 No more the bloody spear, The cross and nails no more; For hell itself shakes at his name, And all the heavens adore.

7 There the Redeemer sits High on the Father's throne; The Father lays his vengeance by, And smiles upon his Son.

There his full glories shine
With uncreated rays,
And bless his saints' and angels' eyes '
To everlasting days.

PSALM 21. L. M. Eaton, Dunetan.

Christ exalted to the langdom.

DAVID rejoic'd in God, his strength, Rais'd to the throne by special grace; But Christ, the Son, appears at length, Fulfils the triumph and the praise.

2 How great is the Messiah's joy
In the salvation of thy hand!
Lord, thou hast rais'd his kingdom high,
And given the world to his command.

3 Thy goodness grants whate'er he will, Nor doth the least request withhold; Blessings of love prevent him still, And crowns of glory, not of gold.

4 Honour and majesty divine
Around his sacred temples shine;
Blest with the favour of thy face,
And length of everlasting days.

And as a fiery oven glows With raging heat and living coals, So shall thy wrath devour their souls.

138 PSALM 22. 2d Part. C. M. Bangor, Wantage.

Christ's sufferings and kingdom.

NOW from the roaring lion's rage, 'O Lord, protect thy Son; 'Nor leave thy darling to engage 'The powers of hell alone.

2 Thus did our suffering Saviour pray, With mighty cries and tears: God heard him in that dreadful day, And chas'd away his fears.

3 Great was the victory of his death, His throne exalted high;

And all the kindreds of the earth Shall worship, or shall die.

4 A numerous offspring must arise From his expiring groans; They shall be reckon'd in his eyes For daughters and for sons.

5 The meek and humble souls shall see His table richly spread;

And all that seek the Lord shall be With joys immortal fed. 6 The isles shall know the righteousness

Of our incarnate God; And nations yet unborn, profess Salvation in his blood.

139

PSALM 22. L. M. Putney, Armley.

b

Christ's sufforings and exaltation. NOW let our mournful songs record The dying sorrows of our Lord,

When he complain'd in tears and blood, As one forsaken of his God. 2 The Jews beheld him thus forlorn, [scorn:

And shook their heads, and laugh'd in 'He rescu'd others from the grave, 'Now let him try himself to save.

3'This is the Man did once pretend 'God was his father and his friend; 'If God the blessed loved him so,

'Why doth he fail to help him now?'

4 Barbarous people! cruel priests! How they stood round like savage beasts, Like lions gaping to devour, When God had left him in their power.

5 They wound his head, his hands, his feet, Till streams of blood each other meet: By lot his garments they divide, And mock the pangs in which he died.

5 Thine hand shall find out all his foes; | 6 But God his Father heard his cry; Rais'd from the dead, he reigns on high; The nations learn his righteousness, And humble sinners taste his grace.

> 140 PSALM 89. 4th Part. C. M. Christmas, Swanwick.

Christ's mediatorial kingdom; or, his divins and human nature.

HEAR what the Lord in vision said, And made his mercy known: 'Sinners, behold, your help is laid

'On my Almighty Son. 2'Behold the Man my wisdom chose

'Among your mortal race; His head my holy oil o'erflows, 'The Spirit of my grace.

3' High shall he reign on David's throne, 'My people's better King;

'My arm shall beat his rivals down, 'And still new subjects bring.

4 'My truth shall guard him in his way, 'With mercy by his side,

'While in my name, through earth and 'He shall in triumph ride. 5'Me for his Father and his God

'He shall forever own, 'Call me his rock, his high abode; 'And I'll support my Son.

6'My first-born Son, array'd in grace, 'At my right hand shall sit;

'Beneath him angels know their place, 'And monarchs at his feet.

7'My covenant stands forever fast; 'My promises are strong; 'Firm as the heavens his throne shall 'His seed endure as long.' [last,

PSALM 99. 1st Part. S. M. # 141 Sutton, Hopkins.

Christ's kingdom and majesty. PHE God Jehovah reigns, Let all the nations fear:

Let sinners tremble at his throne, And saints be humble there.

Jesus, the Saviour, reigns! Let earth adore its Lord; Bright cherubs his attendants stand, Swift to fulfil his word.

In Zion is his throne, His honours are divine: [known, His church shall make his wonders For there his glories shine.

How holy is his name! How terrible his praise! Justice, and truth, and judgment join In all his works of grace.

INTERCESSION OF CHRIST.

142 Hymn 36. B. 2. S. M. Thacher, St. Thomas.

Christ's intercession.

WELL, the Redeemer's gone T' appear before our God, To sprinkle o'er the flaming throne With his atoning blood.

2 No fiery vengeance now, Nor burning wrath comes down; If justice call for sinners' blood, The Saviour shows his own.

3 Before his Father's eye
Our humble suit he moves;
The Father lays his thunder by,
And looks, and smiles, and loves.

4 Now may our joyful tongues
Our Maker's honour sing;
Jesus, the Priest, receives our songs,
And bears them to the King.

5 [We bow before his face, And sound his glories high; 'Hosanna to the God of grace, 'Who lays his thunder by.]

6 'On earth thy mercy reigns, 'And triumphs all above;' But, Lord, how weak are mortal strains, To speak immortal love.

7 [How jarring and how low Are all the notes we sing!
Sweet Saviour, tune our songs anew.

Sweet Saviour, tune our songs anew, And they shall please the King.]

143 HYMN 37. B. 2. C. M. Syork, Braintree.

LIFT up your eyes to the heavenly Where your Redeemer stays: [seat, Kind Intercessor, there he sits,

And loves, and pleads, and prays.

2 Twas well, my soul, he died for thee,
And shed his vital blood;

Appeas'd stern justice on the tree, And then arose to God.

3Petitions now, and praise may rise, And saints their offerings bring; The Priest, with his own sacrifice, Presents them to the King.

4 [Let Papists trust what names they please,

Their saints and angels boast; We've no such advocates as these, Nor pray to th' heavenly host.]

5 Jesus alone shall bear my cries
 Up to his Father's throne;
 He, dearest Lord, perfumes my sighs,
 And sweetens every groan.

6 [Ten thousand praises to the King; Hosanna in the highest; Ten thousand thanks our spirits bring To God and to his Christ.]

144 Hymn 145. B. 1. C. M. # Christmas, Rochester.

Christ and Agron.

TESUS, in thee our eyes behold
A thousand glories more
Than the rich gems and polish'd gold
The sons of Aaron wore.

2 They first their own burnt offerings brought,

To purge themselves from sin; Thy life was pure, without a spot, And all thy nature clean.

3 [Fresh blood, as constant as the day, Was on their altar spilt;

But thy one offering takes away, Forever, all our guilt.]

4 [Their priesthood ran through several For mortal was their race; [hands, Thy never-changing office stands Eternal as thy days.]

5 [Once, in the circuit of a year, With blood, but not his own, Aaron within the veil appears

Before the golden throne,
6 But Christ, by his own powerful blood
Ascends above the skies,

And in the presence of our God Shows his own sacrifice.]

7 Jesus, the King of glory, reigns On Zion's heavenly hill, Looks like a lamb that has been slain, And wears his priesthood still.

8 He ever lives to intercede Before his Father's face:

Give him, my soul, thy cause to plead, Nor doubt the Father's grace.

145 HYMN 12. B, 2. C. M. :

THE true Messiah now appears,

The types are all withdrawn: So fly the shadows and the stars, Before the rising dawn.

2 No smoking sweets, nor bleeding lambs, Nor kid, nor bullock slain;

Incense and spice, of costly names, Would all be burnt in vain.

3 Aaron must lay his robes away, His mitre and his vest.

When God himself comes down to be The offering and the priest. 4 He took our mortal flesh, to show The wonders of his love; For us he paid his life below, And prays for us above.

5'Father,' he cries, 'forgive their sins,
'For I myself have died;'
And then he shows his open'd veins,
And pleads his wounded side.

PSALM 2. S. M. #
Silver-Street, Dover.
Christ dying, rising, interceding, and reigning.

Christ dying, rising, interceding, and reigning.

AKER and sovereign Lord
Of heaven, and earth, and seas,
Thy providence confirms thy word,
And answers thy decrees.

2 The things so long foretold By David, are fulfill'd, When Jews and Gentiles join to slay Jesus, thine holy child.

3 Why did the Gentiles rage, And Jews, with one accord, Bend all their counsels to destroy Th' Anointed of the Lord?

4 Rulers and kings agree To form a vain design; Against the Lord their powers unite, Against his Christ they join.

5 The Lord derides their rage, And will support his throne; He who hath rais'd him from the dead Hath own'd him for his Son.

PAUSE.

6 Now he's ascended high,
And asks to rule the earth;
The merit of his blood he pleads,
And pleads his heavenly birth.

7 He asks, and God bestows A large inheritance;
Far as the world's remotest ends His kingdom shall advance.

The nations that rebel Must feel his iron rod;

He'll vindicate those honours well Which he received from God.

Be wise, ye rulers, now,
 And worship at his throne;
 With trembling joy, ye people, bow
 To God's exalted Son.

10 If once his wrath arise,Ye perish on the place;Then blessed is the soul that fliesFor refuge to his grace.]

Psalm 2. C. M. # or b Dundee, Bath. The same.

WHY did the nations join to slay The Lord's anointed Son? Why did they cast his laws away, And tread his gospel down?

2 The Lord, who sits above the skies, Derides their rage below; He speaks with vengeance in his eyes, And strikes their spirits through.

3'I call him my eternal Son,

'And raise him from the dead;
'I make my holy hill his throne,
'And wide his kingdom spread.

4 Ask me, my Son, and then enjoy
The utmost heathen lands:
Thy rod of iron shall destroy

'Thy rod of iron shall destroy
'The rebel who withstands.'

5 Be wise, we rulers of the part

5 Be wise, ye rulers of the earth, Obey th' anointed Lord, Adore the King of heavenly birth, And tremble at his word.

6 With humble love address his throne, For if he frown, ye die; Those are secure, and those alone, Who on his grace rely.

CHARACTERS AND OFFICES OF CHRIST.

148 Hymn 13. B. 1. L. M. Gloucester, Leeds, China.

The Son of God incarnate; or, the titles and the kingdom of Christ.

THE lands that long in darkness lay
Now have beheld a heavenly light;
Nations that sat in death's cold shade
Are blest with beams divinely bright.

2 The virgin's promis'd Son is born; Behold th' expected Child appear! What shall his names or titles be? 'The Wonderful, the Counsellor!

3 [This infant is the Mighty God, Come to be suckled and adored; Th' Eternal Father, Prince of Peace, The Son of David, and his Lord.]

4 The government of earth and seas Upon his shoulders shall be laid; His wide dominion still increase, And honours to his name be paid.

5 Jesus, the holy Child, shall sit High on his father David's throne; Shall crush his foes beneath his feet, And reign to ages yet unknown.

149 HYMN 132. B. 2. C. M. Cambridge, Clifford.

The offices of Christ.

WE bless the Prophet of the Lord, That comes with truth and grace; Jesus, thy Spirit and thy word Shall lead us in thy ways.

2 We reverence our High-Priest above, Who offered up his blood; And lives to carry on his love, By pleading with our God.

3 We honour our exalted King;
How sweet are his commands!
He guards our souls from hell and sin,
By his Almighty hands.

4 Hosanna to his glorious name, Who saves by different ways; His mercies lay a sovereign claim To our immortal praise.

150 Hymn 146. B. 1. L. M. Wells, Antigua.

Characters of Christ, borrowed from inanimate things.

O, worship at Immanuel's feet, See in his face what wonders meet! Earth is too narrow to express His worth, his glory, or his grace.] 2 [The whole creation can afford But some faint shadows of my Lord; Nature, to make his beauties known, Must mingle colours not her own.] 3 [Is he compared to wine or bread? Dear Lord, our souls would thus be fed: That flesh, that dying blood of thine, Is bread of life, is heavenly wine.] 4 [Is he a tree? The world receives Salvation from his healing leaves: That righteous branch, that fruitful bough

Is David's root and offspring too.]
5 [Is he a rose? Not Sharon yields
Such fragrancy in all her fields:
Or if the lily he assume,
The valleys bless the rich perfume.]
6 [Is he a vine? His heavenly root
Supplies the boughs with life and fruit:
O let a lasting union join
My soul to Christ the living vine!]
7 [Is he the head? Each member lives,
And owns the vital powers he gives;
The saints below, and saints above,

Soin'd by his Spirit and his love.]

[Is he a fountain? There I bathe,
And heal the plague of sin and death;
These waters all my soul renew,
And cleanse my spotted garments too.]

9 [Is he a fire? He'll purge my dross; But the true gold sustains no loss; Like a refiner shall he sit, And tread the refuse with his feet.]

10 [Is he a rock? How firm he proves! The Rock of Ages never moves; Yet the sweet streams that from him flow Attend us all the desert through.]

11 [Is he a way? He leads to God; The path is drawn in lines of blood; There would I walk, with hope and zeal, Till I arrive at Zion's hill.]

12 [Is he a door? I'll enter in: Behold the pastures large and green! A paradise—divinely fair; None but the sheep have freedom there.]

13 [Is he design'd a corner-stone For men to build their heaven upon? I'll make him my foundation too, Nor fear the plots of hell below.]

14 [Is he a temple? I adore
Th' indwelling majesty and power;
And still to this most holy place,
Whene'er I pray, I turn my face.]

15 [Is he a star? He breaks the night, Piercing the shades with dawning light; I know his glories from afar, I know the bright, the morning-star.]

16 [Is he a sun? His beams are grace, His course is joy, and righteousness; Nations rejoice when he appears To chase their clouds, and dry their tears.]

17 [O let me climb those higher skies, Where storms and darkness never rise; There he displays his power abroad, And shines and reigns th' Incarnate God.]

18 [Nor earth, nor seas, nor sun, nor stars, Nor heaven his full resemblance bears; His beauties we can never trace, Till we behold him face to face.]

151 HYMN 149. B. 1. L. M. Green's Hundredth, Bath.

The offices of Christ.

TOIN all the names of love and power, That ever men or angels bore; All are too mean to speak his worth, Or set Immanuel's glory forth.

2 But O! what condescending ways. He takes to teach his heavenly grace! My eyes with joy and wonder see What forms of love he bears for me.

3 [The 'Angel of the covenant' stands With his commission in his hands, Sent from his Father's milder throne, To make the great salvation known.]

4 [Great Prophet! let me bless thy name; By thee the joyful tidings came Of wrath appeas'd, of sins forgiven, Of hell subdu'd and peace with Heaven.]

5 [My bright Example, and my Guide, I would be walking near thy side; O let me never run astray, Nor follow the forbidden way!]

6 [I love my Shepherd—he shall keep My wandering soul among his sheep: He feeds his flock, he calls their names, And in his bosom bears the lambs.]

7 [My Surety undertakes my cause, Answering his Father's broken laws; Behold my soul at freedom set, My Surety paid the dreadful debt.]

8 [Jesus, my great High Priest, has died — I seek no sacrifice beside; His blood did once for all atone, And now he pleads before the throne.]

9 My Advocate appears on high— The Father lays his thunder by; Not all that earth or hell can say Shall turn my Father's heart away.]

10 [My Lord, my Conqueror, and my King, Thy sceptre and thy sword I sing: Thine is the victory, and I sit A joyful subject at thy feet.]

11 [Aspire, my soul, to glorious deeds; The Captain of salvation leads; March on, nor fear to win the day, Tho' death and hell obstruct the way.]

12 [Should death, and hell, and powers unknown

Put all their forms of mischief on, I shall be safe; for Christ displays Salvation in more sovereign ways.]

151 HYMN 147. B. 1. L. M.
Truro, Newcourt.

The names and titles of Christ.

[TIIS from the treasures of his word I borrow titles for my Lord:
Nor art nor nature can supply Sufficient forms of majesty.

2 Bright image of the Father's face, Shining with undiminish'd rays; Th' eternal God's eternal Son, The heir and partner of his throne.]

3 The King of kings, the Lord most high Writes his own name upon his thigh; 'He wears a garment dipp'd in blood, And breaks the nations with his rod.

4 Where grace can neither melt nor move, The Lamb resents his injur'd love; Awakes his wrath without delay, And Judah's Lion tears the prey.

5 But when for works of peace he comes, What winning titles he assumes,— Light of the world, and Life of men?

Nor bears those characters in vain.

6 With tender pity in his heart,
He acts the Mediator's part;
A friend and brother he appears,
And well fulfils the names he wears.

7 At length the Judge his throne ascends, Divides the rebels from his friends, And saints in full fruition prove His rich variety of love.

152 Hymn 61. B. 1. L. M. 97th Psalm, Newcourt.

Christ our High Priest and King; and Christ coming to judgment.

NOW to the Lord, that makes us know The wonders of his dying love, Be humble honours paid below, And strains of nobler praise above.

2 'Twas he that cleans'd our foulest sins, And wash'd us in his richest blood; 'Tis he that makes us priests and kings, And brings us, rebels, near to God.

3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest, To Jesus, our superior King, Be everlasting power confess'd, And every tongue his glory sing.

4 Behold on flying clouds he comes, And every eye shall see him move; Though with our sins we pierc'd him once, Then he displays his pardoning love.

5 The unbelieving world shall wail, While we rejoice to see the day: Come, Lord, nor let thy promise fail, Nor let thy chariots long delay.

153 HYMN 148. B. 1. H. M. *
Portsmouth, Harwich.

The names and titles of Christ.

The titles of my Lord,
And borrow all the names
Of honour from his word.
Nature and art
Can ne'er supply | Of majesty.

In Jesus we behold
His Father's glorious face,
Shining forever bright
With mild and lovely rays.
Th' eternal God's | Inherits and
Eternal Son | Partakes the throne.]

3 The sovereign King of kings, The Lord of lords most high, Writes his own name upon His garment and his thigh.

His name is call'd | He rules the earth 'The word of God,' | With iron rod.

4 Where promises and grace
Can neither melt nor move,
The angry Lamb resents
The injuries*of his love;
Awakes his wrath | As lions roar
Without delay, | And tear the prey.

5 But when for works of peace
The great Redeemer comes,
What gentle characters,
What titles he assumes:
Light of the world Nor will he bear
And Life of men; Those names in vain.

6 Immense compassion reigns
In our Immanuel's heart,
When he descends to act

A Mediator's part:
He is a friend, | Divinely kind,
And brother too; | Divinely true.

7 At length the Lord, the Judge,
His awful throne ascends,
And drives the rebels far
From favourites and friends:
Then shall the saints
Completely prove Of all his love.

153 HYMN 150. B. 1. H. M. Portsmouth, St. Philips.

The offices of Christ.

JOIN all the glorious names
Of wisdom, love, and power,
That ever mortals knew,
That angels ever bore:
All are too mean
To speak his worth,
My Saviour forth.

2 But, O what gentle terms,
What condescending ways
Doth our Redeemer use
To teach his heavenly grace!
Mine eyes with joy | What forms of love
And wonder see | He bears for me.

3 [Array'd in mortal flesh,
He, like an angel, stands
And holds the promises
And pardons in his hands:
Commission'd from | To make his grace
His Father's throne, | To mortals known.]

4 [Great Prophet of my God,
My tongue would bless thy name;
By thee the joyful news
Of our salvation came;
The joyful news Of hell subdu'd,
Of sins forgiven, And peace with Heav'n.]

5 Be thou my Counsellor, My Pattern and my Guide; And through this desert land
Still keep me near thy side.
O let my feet | Nor rove, nor seek
Ne'er run astray, | The crooked way.]

6 [I love my Shepherd's voice;
His watchful eyes shall keep
My wandering soul among
The thousands of his sheep:
He feeds his flock, His bosom bears
He calls their names; The tender lambs.]

7 [To this dear Surety's hand
Will I commit my cause;
He answers and fulfils
His Father's broken laws.
Behold my soul | My Surety paid
At freedom set! | The dreadful debt.]

S [Jesus, my great High Priest, Offer'd his blood, and died: My guilty conscience seeks No sacrifice beside.

His powerful blood | And now it pleads
Did once atone; | Before the throne.]

9 [My Advocate appears
For my defence on high;
The Father bows his ear,
And lays his thunder by.
Not all that hell | Shall turn his heart,
Or sin can say | His love away.]

10 [My dear Almighty Lord,
My Conqueror and my King,
Thy sceptre, and thy sword,
Thy reigning grace, I sing.
Thine is the power; | In willing bonds
Behold I sit | Before thy feet.]

11 [Now let my soul arise,
And tread the tempter down;
My Captain leads me forth
To conquest and a crown.
A feeble saint | Tho' death and hell
Shall win the day, | Obstruct the way.]

12 Should all the hosts of death,
And powers of hell unknown,
Put their most dreadful forms
Of rage and mischief on,
I shall be safe; Superior power
For Christ displays And guardian grace.

ADDRESSES TO CHRIST:

HYMN 62. B. 1. C. M. Melody, Swanwick.

Christ Jesus, the Lamb of God, worshipped by all the creation.

COME, let us join our cheerful songs With angels round the throne; Ten thousand thousand are their tongues; But all their joys are one.

2 'Worthy the Lamb that died,' they cry, 'To be exalted thus;'

'Worthy the Lamb,' our lips reply, 'For he was slain for us.'

8 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honour and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.

4 Let all that dwell above the sky, And air, and earth, and seas, Conspire to lift thy glories high,

And speak thine endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him, that sits upon the throne,

And to adore the Lamb.

155 HYMN 1. B. 1. C. M.

Let Part.

A new song to the Lamb that was slain.

BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb,
Amidst his Father's throne:
Prepare new honours for his name.

Parma, Devizes.

And songs before unknown.

2 Let elders worship at his feet,
The church adore around,
With vials full of odours sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.

3 Those are the prayers of all the saints, And these the hymns they raise: Jesus is kind to our complaints, He loves to hear our praise.

4 [Eternal Father, who shall look Into thy secret will?

Who but the Son shall take that book, And open every seal?

5 He shall fulfil thy great decrees, The Son deserves it well; Lo, in his hand the sovereign keys Of heaven, and death, and hell?

6 Now to the Lamb, that once was slain, Be endless blessings paid; Salvation, glory, joy remain

Forever on thy head.

7 Thou hast redeem'd our souls with blood,
Hast set the prisoners free:

Hast set the prisoners free;
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.

8 The worlds of nature and of grace Are put beneath thy power; Then shorten these delaying days, And bring the promised hour.

155 HYMN 148. B. 2. C. M. St. Anns, Barby.

DEAREST of all the names above, My Jesus, and my God!

Who can resist thy heavenly love, Or trifle with thy blood?

2 Tis by the merits of thy death The Father smiles again; Tis by thine interceding breath The Spirit dwells with men

The Spirit dwells with men.

3 Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find:

My thoughts no comfort find; The holy, just, and sacred Three Are terrors to my mind.

4 But if Immanuel's face appear, My hope, my joy begins; His name forbids my slavish fea

His name forbids my slavish fear, His grace removes my sins.

5 While Jews on their own law rely, And Greeks of wisdom boast, I love th' incarnate mystery, And there I fix my trust.

156 Hymn 49. B. 1. C. M. Abridge, Stade.

The works of Moses and the Lamb.

HOW strong thine arm is, mighty God!

Who would not fear thy name?

Jesus, how sweet thy graces are!

Who would not love the Lamb?

2 He has done more than Moses did, Our Prophet and our King; From bonds of hell he freed our souls,

And taught our lips to sing.
3 In the Red Sea, by Moses' hand,
The Egyptian host was drown'd;

But his own blood hides all our sins, And guilt no more is found.

4 When through the desert Israel went, With manna they were fed; Our Lord invites us to his flesh, And calls it living bread,

5 Moses beheld the promised land, Yet never reach'd the place; But Christshall bring his followers home To see his Father's face.

6 Then shall our love and joy be full, And feel a warmer flame, And sweeter voices tune the song

Of Moses and the Lamb.

157 HYMN 79. B. 2. C. M. Stade, Irish, Swanwick.

Praise to the Redsemer.

PLUNG'D in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.

2 With pitying eyes, the Prince of Grace Beheld our helpless grief;

He saw—and (O, amazing love!)
He ran to our relief.

 $\mathsf{Digitized}\,\mathsf{by}\,Google$

3 Down from the shining seats above With joyful haste he fled, Enter'd the grave in mortal flesh, And dwelt among the dead.

4 He spoil'd the powers of darkness thus, And brake our iron chains;

Jesus has freed our captive souls From everlasting pains.

5[In vain the baffled prince of hell His cursed projects tries; We that were doom'd his endless slave

We that were doom'd his endless slaves
Are rais'd above the skies.]

60! for his love, let rocks and hills Their lasting silence break, And all harmonious human tongues The Saviour's praises speak.

7 [Yes, we will praise thee, dearest Lord, Our souls are all on flame: Hosanna, round the spacious earth, To thine adored name!

8 Angels, assist our mighty joys;
Strike all your harps of gold;
But when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.]

158 Hymn 63. B. 1. L. M. Old Hundred, Dunstan.

Christ's humiliation and exaltation.

WHAT equal honours shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing,
Are far inferior to thy name?

2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of life, that groan'd and died;
Worthy to rise, and live and reign
At his almighty Father's side.

3 Power and dominion are his due, Who stood condemn'd at Pilate's bar; Wisdom belongs to Jesus too, Tho' he was charg'd with madness here.

4 All riches are his native right, Yet he sustain'd amazing loss: To him ascribe eternal might, Who left his weakness on the cross.

5 Honour immortal must be paid, Instead of scandal and of scorn; While glory shines around his head, And a bright crown without a thorn.

6 Blessings forever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men;
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen.

159 HYMN 25. B. 1. L. M.
Eaton, China.
A vision of the Lamb.

ALL mortal vanities, be gone, Nor tempt my eyes, nor tire my ears, Behold amidst th' eternal throne A vision of the Lamb appears!

2 [Glory his fleecy robe adorns, Mark'd with the bloody death he bore; Seven are his eyes, and seven his horns, To speak his wisdom and his power.

3 Lo, he receives a sealed book 'From him that sits upon the throne; Jesus, my Lord, prevails to look On dark decrees, and things unknown.]

4 All the assembling saints around Fall worshipping before the Lamb, And in new songs of gospel sound Address their honours to his name.

5 [The joy, the shout, the harmony Flies o'er the everlasting hills; 'Worthy art thou alone,' they cry, 'To read the book, to loose the seals.']

6 Our voices join the heavenly strain, And with transporting pleasure sing, 'Worthy the Lamb that once was slain, 'To be our Teacher and our King!

7 His words of prophecy reveal Eternal counsels, deep designs; His grace and vengeance shall fulfil The peaceful and the dreadful lines.

8 Thou hast redeem'd our souls from hell With thine invaluable blood; And wretches, that did once rebel, Are now made favourites of their God.

9 Worthy forever is the Lord, That died for treasons not his own, By every tongue to be adored, And dwell upon his Father's throne.

159 HYMN 21. B. 2. L. M. Nantwich, Dunstan.

A song of praise to God the Redeemer.

ET the old heathens tune their song
Of great Diana, and of Jove,
But the sweet theme that moves my tongue
Is my Redeemer and his love.

2 Behold! a God descends and dies, To save my soul from gaping hell! How the black gulf, where Satan lies, Yawn'd to receive me when I fell!

3 How justice frown'd, and vengeance stood, To drive me down to endless pain! But the great Son propos'd his blood, And heavenly wrath grew mild again.

4 Infinite lover! gracious Lord!
To thee be endless honours given:
Thy wondrous name shall be adored
Round the wide earth, and wider beaven.

HYMN 5. B. 2. L. M. Gloucester, Portugal.

Gloucester, Portugal.

Longing to praise Christ better.

CRD, when my thoughts with wonder roll
O'er the sharp sorrows of thy soul,

O'er the sharp sorrows of thy soul, And read my Maker's broken laws, Repair'd and honoured by thy cross;

2 When I behold death, hell, and sin, Vanquish'd by that dear blood of thine, And see the Man, that groan'd and dy'd, Sit glorious by his Father's side;

3 My passions rise and soar above; I'm wing'd with faith, and fir'd with love; Fain would I reach eternal things, And learn the notes that Gabriel sings.

4 But my heart fails, my tongue complains
For want of their immortal strains;
And in such humble notes as these
Falls far below thy victories.

5 Well, the kind minute must appear, When we shall leave these bodies here, These clogs of clay—and mount on high, To join the songs above the sky.

DOCTRINES OF THE GOSPEL. ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

ADOPTION.

161 HYMN 64. B. 1. S. M. Calmar, Germany, Dover.

BEHOLD what wondrous grace
The Father hath bestow'd
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God!

2 "Tis no surprising thing, That we should be unknown; The Jewish world knew not their King, God's everlasting Son.

3 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.

4 A hope so much divine
May trials well endure,
May purge our souls from sense and sin,
As Christ the Lord is pure.

5 If in my Father's love
 I share a filial part,
 Send down thy Spirit like a dove,
 To rest upon my heart.

6 We would no longer lie, Like slaves, beneath the throne; Our faith shall Abba, Father, cry, And thou the kindred own. 161 Hymn 143. B. 1. C. M. Canterbury, Dundee.

2d Part.
Characters of the children of God, from several Scriptures.

A S new born babes desire the breast To feed, and grow, and thrive; So saints with joy the gospel taste, And by the gospel live.

2 [With inward gust their heart approves All that the word relates;

They love the men their Father loves, And hate the works he hates,]

3 [Not all the flattering baits on earth Can make them slaves to lust; They can't forget their heavenly birth, Nor grovel in the dust.

4 Not all the chains that tyrants use Shall bind their souls to vice: Faith, like a conqueror, can produce

A thousand victories.]
5 [Grace, like an uncorrupted seed,
Abides and reigns within;
Immortal principles forbid

The sons of God to sin.]
6 [Not by the terrors of a slave
Do they perform his will,
But with the noblest powers they have
His sweet commands fulfil.]

7 They find access at every hour To God within the veil; Hence they derive a quickening power, And joys that never fail.

8 O happy souls! O glorious state
Of overflowing grace!

To dwell so near their Father's seat, And see his lovely face.

9 Lord, I address thy heavenly throne; Call me a child of thine; Sand down the Spirit of the Son

Send down the Spirit of thy Son To form my heart divine.

10 There shed thy choicest loves abroad, And make my comforts strong: Then shall I say, 'My Father, God,' With an unwavering tongue.

ATONEMENT.

162 PSALM 40. 2d Part. C. M. Jordan, Mear.

The incornation and sacrifice of Christ
THUS saith the Lord, 'Your work is vain,

'Give your barnt offerings o'er;
'In dying goats and bullocks slain
'My soul delights no more.'

2 Then spake the Saviour, 'Lo, I'm here, 'My God, to do thy will;

'Whate'er thy sacred books declare, 'Thy servant shall fulfil.

3'Thy law is ever in my sight,

'I keep it near my heart; 'Mine ears are open with delight 'To what thy lips impart.'

4 And see, the blest Redeemer comes! The eternal Son appears!

And at the appointed time assumes
The body God prepares.

5 Much he reveal'd his Father's grace, And much his truth he show'd,

And preach'd the way of righteousness, Where great assemblies stood. 6 His Father's honour touch'd his heart,

He pitied sinners' cries, And, to fulfil a Saviour's part, Was made a sacrifice.

PAUSE.

7 No blood of beasts, on altars shed, Could wash the conscience clean; But the rich sacrifice he paid Atones for all our sin.

8Then was the great salvation spread, And Satan's kingdom shook; Thus by the woman's promis'd Seed The serpent's head was broke.

163

PSALM 40. L. M. Bath, Hebron. Christ our sacrifice.

wonders, Lord, thy love has wrought, Exceed our praise, surmount our thought: Should I attempt the long detail, My speech would faint, my numbers fail.

2 No blood of beasts, on altars spilt, Can cleanse the souls of men from guilt; But thou hast set before our eyes An all-sufficient sacrifice.

3Lo! thine eternal Son appears; To thy designs he bows his ears; Assumes a body well prepared, And well performs a work so hard.

4'Behold, I come,' (the Saviour cries, With love and duty in his eyes,) 'I come to bear the heavy load

'Of sins, and do thy will, my God. 5. Tis written in thy great decree, "Tis in thy book foretold of me,

'I must fulfil the Saviour's part; 'And, lo! thy law is in my heart.

6'I'll magnify thy holy law,
'And rebels to obedience draw, 'When on my cross I'm lifted high,

'Or to my crown above the sky.

7'The Spirit shall descend, and show 'What thou hast done, and what I do;

'The wondering world shall learn thy grace,

'Thy wisdom and thy righteousness.'

Hymn 155. B. 2. 164 Marlow, St. Anns.

1st Part. Christ our passover.

LO, the destroying angel flies To Pharach's stubborn land! The pride and flower of Egypt dies By his vindictive hand.

2 He pass'd the tents of Jacob o'er, Nor pour'd the wrath divine: He saw the blood on every door, And blest the peaceful sign.

3 Thus the appointed Lamb must bleed,

To break the Egyptian yoke: Thus Israel is from bondage freed, And 'scapes the angel's stroke.

4 Lord, if my heart were sprinkled too, With blood so rich as thine, Justice no longer would pursue This guilty soul of mine.

5 Jesus, our passover, was slain, And has at once procured Freedom from Satan's heavy chain, And God's avenging sword.

HYMN 118. B. 2. L. M. 164 Newcourt, Antigua. 2d Part

The priesthood of Christ. BLOOD has a voice to pierce the skies;

Revenge! the blood of Abel cries; But the dear stream, when Christ was Speaks peace as loud from every vein. 2 Pardon and peace from God on high; Behold he lays his vengeance by; And rebels, that deserve his sword, Become the favourites of the Lord.

3 To Jesus let our praises rise, Who gave his life a sacrifice: Now he appears before his God, And for our pardon pleads his blood.

COMMUNION WITH GOD.

PSALM 23. L. M. Newcourt, Hague. 165 God our shepherd.

MY shepherd is the living Lord; Now shall my wants be well sup-His providence and holy word [ply'd; Become my safety and my guide.

2 In pastures where salvation grows He makes me feed, he makes me rest: There living water gently flows, And all the food's divinely blest.

3 My wandering feet his ways mistake. But he restores my soul to peace; And leads me, for his mercy's sake, In the fair paths of righteousness.

4 Though I walk through the gloomy vale, Where death and all its terrors are, My heart and hope shall never fail, For God my shepherd's with me there.

5 Amid the darkness and the deeps, Thou art my comfort, thou my stay; Thy staff supports my feeble steps, Thy rod directs my doubtful way.

6 The sons of earth and sons of hell Gaze at thy goodness, and repine To see my table spread so well, With living bread and cheerful wine.

7 [How I rejoice, when on my head Thy Spirit condescends to rest! Tis a divine anointing, shed Like oil of gladness at a feast.

8 Surely the mercies of the Lord Attend his household all their days; There will I dwell to hear his word, To seek his face, and sing his praise.]

166 PSALM 23. C. M. Braintree, Mear.

The same.

MY shepherd will supply my need, Jehovah is his name; In pastures fresh he makes me feed,

Beside the living stream. 2 He brings my wandering spirit back, When I forsake his ways;

And leads me, for his mercy's sake, In paths of truth and grace. 3 When I walk through the shades of death,

Thy presence is my stay; A word of thy supporting breath

Drives all my fears away. 4 Thy hand, in sight of all my foes, Doth still my table spread;

My cup with blessings overflows, Thine oil anoints my head.

5 The sure provisions of my God Attend me all my days;

O may thine house be mine abode, And all my work be praise.

5 There would I find a settled rest, (While others go and come) No more a stranger, nor a guest,

But like a child at home.

PSALM 23. S. M. 167 Shirland, Calmar.

THE Lord my Shepherd is, I shall be well supply'd: Since he is mine, and I am his, What can I want beside?

He leads me to the place Where heavenly pasture grows, Where living waters gently pass, And full salvation flows.

If e'er I go astray, He doth my soul reclaim, And guides me in his own right way, For his most holy name.

While he affords his aid. I cannot yield to fear; Though I should walk through death's dark shade, My Shepherd's with me there.

5 In sight of all my foes Thou dost my table spread; My cup with blessings overflows, And joy exalts my head.

6 The bounties of thy love Shall crown my following days; Nor from thy house will I remove Nor cease to speak thy praise.

PSALM 73. 2d Part. C. M. b 168 Rochester, Arundel.

God our portion here and hereafter.

COD, my supporter and my hope, My help forever near, Thine arm of mercy held me up, When sinking in despair.

2 Thy counsels, Lord, shall guide my feet Through this dark wilderness; Thine hand conduct me near thy seat, To dwell before thy face.

3 Were I in heaven without my God, Twould be no joy to me; And while this earth is my abode, I long for none but thee.

4 What if the springs of life were broke, And flesh and heart should faint, God is my soul's eternal rock,

The strength of every saint.

5 Behold, the sinners, that remove Far from thy presence, die; Not all the idol gods they love Can save them when they cry

6 But to draw near to thee, my God, Shall be my sweet employ; My tongue shall sound thy works abroad, And tell the world my joy.

169 Hymn 94. B. 2. C. M. St. Ann's, Abridge.

MY God, my portion, and my love, My everlasting all!

I've none but thee in heaven above,

Or on this earthly ball.

2 [What empty things are all the skies, And this inferior clod!

There's nothing here deserves my joys; There's nothing like my God.

8 [In vain the bright, the burning sun Scatters his feeble light;
Tis thy sweet beams create my noon:

Tis thy sweet beams create my noon; If thou withdraw, 'tis night.

4 And while upon my restless bed Among the shades I roll, If my Redeemer shows his head,

Tis morning with my soul.]

5 To thee I owe my wealth, and friends,
And health, and safe abode:

Thanks to thy name for meaner things, But they are not my God.

6 How vain a toy is glittering wealth,
If once compared to thee!
Or what's my safety, or my health.

Or what's my safety, or my health, Or all my friends, to me? 7 Were I possessor of the earth,

And call'd the stars mine own,
Without thy graces, and thyself,
I were a wretch undone.

8 Let others stretch their arms like seas, And grasp in all the shore; Grant me the visits of thy face, And I desire no more.

170 HYMN 93. B. 2. S. M. #

Dover, Pelham.

God all, and in all.

MY God, my life, my love, To thee, to thee I call; I cannot live if thou remove, For thou art all in all.

2 [Thy shining grace can cheer This dungeon where I dwell: Tis paradise when thou art here; If thou depart, 'tis hell.]

8 [The smilings of thy face, How amiable they are! Tis heaven to rest in thine embra

Tis heaven to rest in thine embrace, And no where else but there.]

4 [To thee, and thee alone, The angels owe their bliss; They sit around thy gracious throne, And dwell where Jesus is.]

[Not all the harps above Can make a heavenly place,

If God his residence remove, Or but conceal his face.]

6 Nor earth, nor all the sky Can one delight afford; No, not a drop of real joy, Without thy presence, Lord.

7 Thou art the sea of love, Where all my pleasures roll; The circle where my passions move. And centre of my soul.

B [To thee my spirits fly, With infinite desire;

And yet how far from thee I lie! Dear Jesus, raise me higher.]

171 HYMN 15. B. 2. L. M. Eaton, 97th Psalm.

The enjoyment of Christ; or, delight in worship.

PAR from my thoughts, vain world be gone;

Let my religious hours alone; Fain would my eyes my Saviour see; I wait a visit, Lord, from thee!

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire, And kindles with a pure desire: Come, my doar Jesus, from above, And feed my soul with heavenly love.

3 [The trees of life immortal stand In blooming rows at thy right hand; And, in sweet murmurs by their side, Rivers of bliss perpetual glide.

4 Haste then, but with a smiling face, And spread the table of thy grace; Bring down a taste of truth divine, And cheer my heart with sacred wine.] 5 Bless'd Jesus, what delicious fare!

How sweet thy entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace, and dying love.

6 Hail! great Immanuel, all divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One,
That eyes have seen, or angels known.

172 HYMN 16. B. 2. L. M. Portugal, Dunstan, Castle-Street.

LORD, what a heaven of saving grace Shines through the beauties of thy face,

And lights our passions to a flame; Lord, how we love thy charming name.

2 When I can say, my God is mine, When I can feel thy glories shine, I tread the world beneath my feet, And all that earth calls good or great.

3 While such a scene of sacred joys Our raptured eyes and soul employs, Here we could sit, and gaze away A long, an everlasting day.

4 Well, we shall quickly pass the night, ?' he fair coasts of perfect light; Then shall our joyful senses rove O'er the dear object of our love.

5 [There shall we drink full draughts of

And pluck new life from heav'nly trees; Yet now and then, dear Lord, bestow A drop of heaven on worms below.

6 Send comforts down from thy right hand, While we pass through this barren land; And in thy temple let us see A glimpse of love, a glimpse of thee.]

COVENANT OF GRACE.

173 PSALM 89. 1st Part. L. M. | All Saints, Carthage.

The covenant made with Christ; or, the true David.

POREVER shall my song record
The truth and mercy of the Lord:
Mercy and truth forever stand,
Like heaven, establish'd by his hand.

2 Thus to the Son he sware, and said,
With thee my coverant first is made

'With thee my covenant first is made;
'In thee shall dying sinners live;

'Glory and grace are thine to give.
3' Be thou my Prophet, thou my Priest;
'Thy children shall be ever blest:

'Thy children shall be ever blest;
'Thou art my chosen King; thy throne

'Shall stand eternal, like my own.
4 'There's none of all my sons above

'So much my image, or my love:
'Celestial powers thy subjects are,
'Then what can earth to thee compare?

5 David, my servant, whom I chose,
To guard my flock, to crush my foes,

'And raised him to the Jewish throne, 'Was but a shadow of my Son.'

6 Now let the church rejoice, and sing Jesus, her Saviour and her King; Angels his heavenly wonders show, And saints declare his works below.

174 PSALM 89. 5th Part. C.M. | Arundel, Bethlehem.

The covenant of grace unchangeable; or, afflictions without rejection.

'YET (saith the Lord) if David's race,
'The children of my Son,
'Should break my laws, abuse my grace,
'And tempt mine anger down;

2 'Their sins I'll visit with the rod,
'And make their folly smart;

But I'll not cease to be their God,
Nor from my truth depart.

3' My covenant I will ne'er revoke, 'But keep my grace in mind;

'And what eternal love hath spoke, 'Eternal truth shall bind.

4 'Once have I sworn, (I need no more)
'And pledg'd my holiness,

'To seal the sacred promise sure
'To David and his race.

5 The sun shall see his offspring rise, And spread from sea to sea,

'Long as he travels round the skies, of 'To give the nations day.

6'Sure as the moon that rules the night,
'His kingdom shall endure,
'Till the fix'd laws of shade and light,

'Shall be observed no more.'

175 Hymn 40. B. 21 C. M. Baldwin, St. Martins.

Our comfort in the covenant made with Christ.

OUR God, how firm his promise stands,
E'en when he hides his face!

He trusts in our Redeemer's hands
His glory and his grace.

2 Then why, my soul, these sad complaints, Since Christ and we are one? Thy God is faithful to his saints, Is faithful to his Son.

3 Beneath his smiles my heart has liv'd, And part of heaven possess'd; I praise his name for grace receiv'd, And trust him for the rest.

176 HYMN 139. B. 2. L. M. Bath, Slade.

Hope in the covenant; or, God's promise and truth unchangeable.

HOW oft have sin and Satan strove To rend my soul from thee, my God; But everlasting is thy love, And Jesus seals it with his blood.

2 The oath and promise of the Lord Join to confirm the wondrous grace; Eternal power performs the word, And fills all heaven with endless praise.

3 Amidst temptations sharp and long, My soul to this dear refuge flies; Hope is my anchor, firm and strong, While tempests blow, and billows rise.

4 The gospel bears my spirit up;
A faithful and unchanging God
Lays the foundation for my hope,
In oaths, and promises, and blood.

DEPRAVITY AND FALL OF MAN.

HYMN 57. B. 1. C. M. Dundee, Wantage, Plymouth.

Original sin; or, the first and second Adam.

ACKWARD with humble shame we On our original; [look How is our nature dash'd and broke, In our first father's fall!

2 To all that's good, averse and blind, But prone to all that's il; What dreadful darkness veils our mind! How obstinate our will!

3 Conceived in sin (O wretched state)
Before we draw our breath,
The first young pulse begins to beat
Iniquity and death.

4 How strong in our degenerate blood The old corruption reigns, And, mingling with the crooked flood, Wanders through all our veins!

5 [Wild and unwholesome as the root Will all the branches be;

How can we hope for living fruit

From such a deadly tree?

6 What mortal power, from things unclean, Can pure productions bring? Who can command a vital stream From an infected spring?

7 Yet, mighty God, thy wondrous love Can make our nature clean, While Christ and grace prevail above The tempter, death, and sin.

8 The second Adam shall restore
The ruins of the first;
Hosanna to that Sovereign Power
That new-creates our dust.

178 HYMN 124. B. 1. L. M. Nuremburg, Medway.

The first and second Adam.

EEP in the dust, before thy throne,
Our guilt and our disgrace we own:
Great God! we own th' unhappy name
Whence sprang our nature and our shame.

2 Adam, the sinner: at his fall,
Death, like a conqueror, seized us all;
A thousand new-born babes are dead,
By fatal union to their head.

3 But while our spirits, fill'd with awe, Behold the terrors of thy law, We sing the honours of thy grace, That sent to save our ruin'd race.

4 We sing thy everlasting Son, Who join'd our nature to his own; Adam the second, from the dust Raises the ruins of the first.

5 [By the rebellion of one man,
Through all his seed the mischief ran;
And by one man's obedience now,
Are all his seed made righteous too.]
6 Where sin did reign and death abound,
There have the sons of Adam found

6 Where sin did reign and death abound, There have the sons of Adam found Abounding life;—there glorious grace Reigns through the Lord, our righteousness.

179 PSALM 51. 2d Part. L. M. Dresden, Malden.

Original and actual sin confessed.

ORD, I am vile, conceived in sin,
And born unholy and unclean;
Sprung from the man, whose guilty fall
Corrupts his race, and taints us all

2 Soon as we draw our infant breath, The seeds of sin grow up for death: Thy law demands a perfect heart; But we're defiled in every part.

3 [Great God, create my heart anew, And form my spirit pure and true; O make me wise betimes, to see My danger and my remedy.]

4 Behold, I fall before thy face; My only refuge is thy grace: No outward forms can make me clean; The leprosy lies deep within.

5 No bleeding bird, nor bleeding beast, Nor hyssop branch, nor sprinkling priest, Nor running brook, nor flood, nor sea, Can wash the dismal stain away.

6 Jesus, my God, thy blood alone
Hath power sufficient to atone;
Thy blood can make me white as snow,
No Jewish types could cleanse me so.

7 While guilt disturbs and breaks my peace Nor flesh nor soul hath rest or ease; Lord, let me hear thy pardoning voice. And make my broken bones rejoice.

180 PSALM 51. 1st Part. C. M. Bedford, St. Anns.

Original and actual sin confessed and pardoned.

ORD, I would spread my sore distress.

And guilt before thine eyes;

Against thy laws, against thy grace,

How high my crimes arise! 2 Shouldst thou condemn my soul to hell,

And crush my flesh to dust,

Heaven would approve thy vengeance

And earth must own it just. [well,

3I from the stock of Adam came, Unholy and unclean; All my original is shame, And all my nature sin.

4 Born in a world of guilt, I drew Contagion with my breath; And, as my days advanc'd, I grew A juster prey for death.

5 Cleanse me, O Lord, and cheer my soul

With thy forgiving love; O make my broken spirit whole, And bid my pains remove.

6 Let not thy Spirit quite depart, Nor drive me from thy face; Create anew my vicious heart, And fill it with thy grace.

7 Then will I make thy mercy known Before the sons of men; Backsliders shall address thy throne,

And turn to God again.

181 HYMN 128. B. 2. C. M. Howard, York.

Corrupt nature from Adam.

BLEST with the joys of innocence,
Adam, our father, stood,
Till he debas'd his soul to sense,

And ate th' unlawful food.

2 Now we are born a sensual race,
To sinful joys inclin'd:

To sinful joys inclin'd; Reason has lost its native place, And flesh enslaves the mind.

3 While flesh, and sense, and passion reigns,
Sin is the sweetest good;
We fancy music in our chains,
And so forget the load.

4 Great God! renew our ruin'd frame, Our broken powers restore; Inspire us with a heavenly flame, And flesh shall reign no more!

' 5 Eternal Spirit, write thy law
Upon our inward parts,
And let the second Adam draw
His image on our hearts.

182 PSALM 14. 1st Part. C. M. b

Ponature all men are sinners.

COLS in their hearts believe and say,

'That all religion's vain;

'There is no God that reigns on high,

'Or minds th' affairs of men.'

2 From thoughts so dreadful and profane Corrupt discourse proceeds; And in their impious hands are found

And in their impious hands are found Abominable deeds.

3 The Lord, from his celestial throne, Looks down on things below, To find the man that sought his grace, Or did his justice know. 4 By nature all are gone astray; Their practice all the same; There's none that fears his Maker's hand, There's none that loves his name.

5 Their tongues are used to speak deceit; Their slanders never cease;

How swift to mischief are their feet! Nor know the paths of peace.

6 Such deeds of sin (that bitter root)
In every heart are found;
Nor can they bear diviner fruit
Till grace refine the ground.

183 Hymn 160. B. 2. L. M. Malden, Putney.

Custom in sin.

ET the wild leopards of the wood Put off the spots that nature gives: Then may the wicked turn to God, And change their tempers and their lives.

2 As well might Ethiopian slaves
Wash out the darkness of their skin;
The dead as well may leave their graves,
As old transgressors cease to sin.

3 Where vice has held its empire long, "Twill not endure the least control; None but a power divinely strong Can turn the current of the soul.

4 Great God! I own thy power divine,
That works to change this heart of mine.
I would be form'd anew, and bless
The wonders of creating grace.

184 Hymn 24. B. 2. L. M. # Gloucester, 97th Psalm.

WHEN the great Builder arch'd the skies,

And form'd all nature with a word; The joyful cherubs tuned his praise, And every bending throne adored.

2 High in the midst of all the throng, Satan, a tall arch-angel, sat! Among the morning stars he sung,

Till sin destroyed his heavenly state.

3 ['Twas sin that hurl'd him from his throne

Grovling in fire, the rebel lies; How art thou sunk in darkness down, Son of the morning, from the skies!

4 And thus our two first parents stood, Till sin defiled the happy place: They lost their garden and their God, And ruin'd all their unborn race.

5 [So sprung the plague from Adam's bower And spread destruction all abroad; Sin, the cursed name, that in one hour Spoil'd six days' labour of a God.]

b

6 Tremble, my soul, and mourn for grief,
That such a foe should seize thy breast;
Fly to thy Lord for quick relief;
O! may he slay this treacherous guest.
7 Then to thy throne, victorious King,
Then to thy throne our shouts shall rise;
Thine everlasting arm we sing,
For sin, the monster, bleeds and dies.

185 HYMN 150. B. 2. C. M. Wantage, Chelsea.

The deceitfulness of sin.

SIN has a thousand treacherous arts
To practise on the mind;

With flattering looks she tempts our But leaves a sting behind. [hearts, 2 With names of virtue she deceives

The aged and the young,
And, while the heedless wretch believes,

She makes his fetters strong.

3 She pleads for all the joys she brings,
And gives a fair pretence:

And gives a fair pretence; But cheats the soul of heavenly things, And chains it down to sense.

4 So on a tree divinely fair Grew the forbidden food; Our mother took the poison there, And tainted all her blood.

186 Hymn 153. B. 2. C. M. Bangor, Henry.

The distemper, folly, and madness of sin.

SIN, like a venomous disease,
Infects our vital blood;
The only balm is sovereign grace,
And the physician, God.

2 Our beauty and our strength are fled, And we draw near to death, But Christ the Lord recalls the dead With his Almighty breath.

3 Madness, by nature, reigns within, The passions burn and rage, Till God's own Son, with skill divine, The inward fire assuage.

4 [We lick the dust, we grasp the wind, And solid good despise:

Such is the folly of the mind, Till Jesus makes us wise.]

5 [We give our souls the wounds they feel, We drink the poisonous gall, And rush with fury down to hell;

But Heaven prevents the fall.]

6 [The man possess'd among the tombs
Cuts his own flesh and cries:
He foams and raves, till Jesus comes,
And the foul spirit flies.]

187 Hymn 156. B. 2. C. M. bor # Abridge, Swanwick.

Presumption and despair; or, Satan's various temptations.

HATE the tempter and his charms;
I hate his flattering breath;
The serpent takes a thousand forms
To cheat our souls to death.

2 He feeds our hopes with airy dreams, Or kills with slavish fear;

And holds us still in wide extremes, Presumption, or despair.

3 Now he persuades, 'how easy 'tis 'To walk the road to heaven;' Anon he swells our sins, and cries,

'They cannot be forgiven.'
4 [He bids young sinners, 'yet forbear
'To think of God, or death;

'For prayer and devotion are 'But melancholy breath.'

5 He tells the aged, 'they must die, 'And 'tis too late to pray;

'In vain for mercy now they cry,
'For they have lost their day.']

6 Thus he supports his cruel throne By mischief and deceit,

And drags the sons of Adam down To darkness and the pit.

7 Almighty God, cut short his power; Let him in darkness dwell; And, that he vex the earth no more, Confine him down to hell.

188 Hymn 157. B. 2. C. M. Carolina, Windsor.

NOW Satan comes with dreadful roar, And threatens to destroy; He worries whom he can't devour, With a malicious joy.

2 Ye sons of God, oppose his rage, Resist, and he'll be gone; Thus did our dearest Lord engage

And vanquish him alone.

3 Now he appears almost divine,
Like innocence and love;

But the old serpent lurks within, When he assumes the dove.

4 Fly from the false deceiver's tongue, Ye sons of Adam, fly;

Our parents found the snare too strong, Nor should the children try.

189 HYMN 158. B. 2. L. M. b Windham, Armley. Few saved; or, the almost Christian, the Hypocrise, and Apostate.

BROAD is the road that leads to death, And thousands walk together there;

Digitized by Google

But wisdom shows a narrower path, With here and there a traveller.

2' Deny thyself, and take thy cross,' Is the Redeemer's great command; Nature must count her gold but dross, If she would gain this heavenly land.

3 The fearful soul, that tires and faints, And walks the ways of God no more, Is but esteem'd almost a saint, And makes his own destruction sure.

4 Lord, let not all my hopes be vain; Create my heart entirely new; Which hypocrites could ne'er attain, Which false apostates never knew.

190 PSALM 8. 2d Part. L.M. b or # Quercy, Leeds, Wells.

Adam and Christ, lords of the old and new creation.

LORD; what was man when made at Adam, the offspring of the dust! [first! That thou shouldst set him and his race But just below an angel's place?—

2 That thou shouldst raise his nature so, And make him lord of all below; Make every beast and bird submit, And lay the fishes at his feet?

3 But O! what brighter glories wait To crown the second Adam's state! What honours shall thy Son adorn, Who condescended to be born!

4 See him below his angels made! See him in dust among the dead, To save a ruin'd world from sin; But he shall reign with power divine!

5 The world to come, redeem'd from all The miseries that attend the fall, New made, and glorious, shall submit At our exalted Saviour's feet.

ELECTION.

191 Hymn 54. B. 1. L. M. Castle-Street, Shoel.

Electing grace; or, saints beloved in Christ.

JESUS, we bless thy Father's name;
Thy God and our's are both the same;
What heavenly blessings from his throne
Flow down to sinners through his Son!

2 'Christ be my first elect,' he said;
Then chose our souls in Christ our head,
Before he gave the mountains birth,
Or laid foundations for the earth.

3 Thus did eternal love begin
To raise us up from death and sin;
Our characters were then decreed,
Blameless in love, a holy seed.

4 Predestinated to be sons,

Born by degrees, but chose at once:

A new, regenerated race, To praise the glory of his grace. 5 With Christ, our Lord, we share our part In the affections of his heart;

In the affections of his heart; Nor shall our souls be thence remov'd, Till he forgets his First Belov'd.

192 HYMN 117. B. 1. L. M. Putney, Armly.

Election sovereign and free.

[BEHOLD the potter and the clay!
He forms his vessels as he please:
Such is our God, and such are we,
The subjects of his just decrees.

2 Doth not the workman's power extend O'er all the mass, which part to choose, And mould it for a nobler end, And which to leave for viler use?]

3 May not the sovereign Lord on high Dispense his favours as he will; Choose some to life, while others die, And yet be just and gracious still?

4 [What if, to make his terror known, He lets his patience long endure, Suffering vile rebels to go on, And seal their own destruction sure?

5 What if he means to show his grace, And his electing love employs To mark out some of mortal race, And form them fit for heavenly joys?]

6 Shall man reply against the Lord, And call his Maker's ways unjust, The thunder of whose dreadful word Can crush a thousand worlds to dust?

7 But, O my soul, if truth so bright Should dazzle and confound thy sight, Yet still his written will obey, And wait the great decisive day.

8 Then shall he make his justice known And the whole world, before his throne, With joy, or terror, shall confess The glory of his righteousness.

193 Hymn 96. B. 1. C. M. St. Ann's, Christmas.

Election excludes boasting.

BUT few among the carnal wise,
But few of noble race,
Obtain the favour of thine eyes,
Almighty King of grace!

2 He takes the men of meanest name For sons and heirs of God; And thus he pours abundant shame On honourable blood.

3 He calls the fool, and makes him know The mysteries of his grace,

To bring aspiring wisdom low, And all its pride abase.

4 Nature has all its glories lost,

When brought before his throne; No flesh shall in his presence boast, But in the Lord alone.

194 Hymn 11. B. 1. L. M. Antigua, Wells.

The humble enlightened, and carnal reason humbled; or, the sovereignty of grace.

THERE was an hour when Christ

rejoic'd,
And spoke his joy in words of praise;
'Father, I thank thee, mighty God,

'Lord of the earth, and heavens, and seas!
2'I thank thy sovereign power and love,
'That crowns my doctrine with success;

'And makes the babes in knowledge learn
'The heights, and breadths, and lengths of grace.

3'But all this glory lies conceal'd
'From men of prudence and of wit;
The prince of darkness blinds their eyes,
'And their own pride resists the light.

4'Father, 'tis thus, because thy will Chose and ordain'd it should be so; 'Tis thy delight t' abase the proud, And lay the haughty scorner low.

5 There's none can know the Father right, 'But those who learn it from the Son; 'Nor can the Son be well received,

'But where the Father makes him known. 6'Then let our souls adore our God, 'That deals his graces as he please;

'Nor gives to mortals an account 'Or of his actions, or decrees.'

195 HYMN 12. B. 1. C. M. Wareham, St. Ann's.

Free grace in revealing Christ.

JESUS, the man of constant grief; A mourner all his days; His spirit once rejoic'd aloud, And turn'd his joy to praise:

2'Father, I thank thy wondrous love,
'That hath reveal'd thy Son

'To men unlearned; and to babes 'Hath made thy gospel known.

3'The mysteries of redeeming grace
'Are hidden from the wise:
'While pride and carnal reasonings join
'To swell and blind their eyes.'

Thus doth the Lord of heaven and earth His great decrees fulfil, And orders all his works of grace By his own sovereign will. 196 HYMN 96. B. 2. C. M. #
London, Canterbury.

Distinguishing love; or, angels punished, and man

OWN headlong from their native

The rebel angels fell, [skies And thunderbolts of flaming wrath Pursued them deep to hell.

2 Down from the top of earthly bliss Rebellious man was hurl'd; And Jesus stoop'd beneath the grave

To reach a sinking world. 3 O, love of infinite degree,

Unmeasurable grace!
Must Heaven's eternal darling die
To save a traitorous race?

4 Must angels sink forever down,
And burn in quenchless fire,
While God forsakes his shining throne

To raise us wretches higher?

5 O for this love, let earth and skies
With hallelujahs ring,

And the full choir of human tongues
All hallelujahs sing.

197 Humn 97. B. 2. L. M. #
Danvers, Bath.
The same.

FROM heaven the sinning angels fell, And wrath and darkness chain'd them down;

But man, vile man, forsook his bliss, And mercy lifts him to a crown.

2 Amazing work of sovereign grace
That could distinguish rebels so!
Our guilty treasons call'd aloud
For everlasting fetters too.

3 To thee, to thee, almighty love, Our souls, ourselves, our all we pay: Millions of tongues shall sound thy praise On the bright hills of heavenly day.

JUSTIFICATION.

198 Hymn 94. B. 1. C. M.
Abridge, Bedford.

Justification by faith, not by works; or, the law condemns, grace justifies.

WAIN are the hopes the sons of men On their own works have built; Their hearts by nature all unclean, And all their actions guilt.

2 Let Jew and Gentile stop their mouths, Without a murmuring word, And the whole race of Adam stand Guilty before the Lord.

3 In vain we ask God's righteous law To justify us now,

b

Since to convince and to condemn Is all the law can do.

4 Jesus, how glorious is thy grace! When in thy name we trust Our faith receives a righteousness, That makes the sinner just.

199 HYMN 154. B. 2. L. M. German Hymn, Wells.

Self-righteousness insufficient.

WHERE are the mourners,' saith the Lord,

'That wait and tremble at my word,
'That walk in darkness all the day?

'That walk in darkness all the day?'
Come, make my name your trust and stay.

2'[No works, nor duties of your own 'Can for the smallest sin atone;

'The robes that nature may provide,

'Will not your least pollutions hide.
3'The softest couch that nature knows

'Can give the conscience no repose:
'Look to my righteousness, and live,

'Comfort and peace are mine to give.

4 'Ye sons of pride, that kindle coals, 'With your own hands, to warm your souls,

'Walk in the light of your own fire, 'Enjoy the sparks that ye desire:

5'This is your portion at my hands;
'Hell waits you with her iron bands;

'Ye shall lie down in sorrow there, In death, and darkness, and despair.'

200 PSALM 71. 2d Part. C. M. Irish, Rochester.

Christ our strength and righteousness.

Y Saviour, my Almighty Friend!
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end,
The numbers of thy grace?

2 Thou art my everlasting trust; Thy goodness I adore; And since I knew thy graces first,

I speak thy glories more.

3 My feet shall travel all the length

Of the celestial road,
And march with courage in thy strength,
To see my Father God.

4 When I am fill'd with sore distress
For some surprising sin,

I'll plead thy perfect righteousness, And mention none but thine.

5 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!My soul, redeem'd from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

6 [My tongue shall all the day proclaim
My Saviour and my God;
His death has brought my foes to shame,
And sav'd me by his blood.

7 Awake, awake, my tuneful powers; With this delightful song I'll entertain the darkest hours,

Nor think the season long.]

201 Hymn 109. B. 1. L. M.

Bath, China, Dedham.

The value of Christ and his righteourness.

No more, my God, I boast no more
Of all the duties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held before,
To trust the merits of thy Son.

2 Now, for the love I bear his name, What was my gain I count my loss; My former pride I call my shame, And nail my glory to his cross.

3 Yes, and 1 must and will esteem All things but loss for Jesus' sake: O may my soul be found in him, And of his righteousness partake.

4 The best obedience of my hands
Dares not appear before thy throne;
But faith can answer thy demands,
By pleading what my Lord has done.

202 HYMN 20. B. 1. C. M. Exeter, Irish, York.

Spiritual appa el; namely, the robe of righteousness, and garments of salvation.

A WAKE, my heart, arise, my tongue, Prepare a tuneful voice; In God, the life of all my joys, Aloud will I rejoice.

2'Tis he adorn'd my naked soul, And made salvation mine; Upon a poor polluted worm He makes his graces shine.

3 And, lest the shadow of a spot Should on my soul be found, He took the robe the Saviour wrought And cast it all around.

4 How far the heavenly robe exceeds What earthly princes wear!
These ornaments, how bright they shink How white the garments are!

5 The Spirit wrought my faith and low And hope, and every grace; But Jesus spent his life to work The robe of righteousness.

6 Strangely, my soul, art thou array's
By the great sacred Three!
In sweetest harmony of praise
Let all thy powers agree.

PARDON.

203

PSALM 130. C. M. Carolina, Wantage.

Pardoning grace.

OUT of the depths of long distress, The borders of despair, I sent my cries to seek thy grace, My groans to move thine ear.

2 Great God, should thy severer eye, And thine impartial hand, Mark and revenge iniquity,

No mortal flesh could stand.
3 But there are pardons with my God
For crimes of high degree;

Thy Son has bought them with his blood, To draw us near to thee.

10 draw us near to thee.

4 [I wait for thy salvation, Lord, With strong desires I wait;
My soul, invited by thy word, Stands watching at thy gate.]
5 [Just as the guards that keep the night, Lorg for the marriage elsies.]

Long for the morning skies,
Watch the first beams of breaking light,
And meet them with their eyes;—

6 So waits my soul to see thy grace, And, more intent than they, Meets the first op'nings of thy face, And finds a brighter day.]

7 Then in the Lord let Israel trust, Let Israel seek his face: The Lord is good as well as just,

And plenteous in his grace.

8 There's full redemption at his throne
For sinners long enslaved;
The great Redeemer is his Son;
And Israel shall be saved.

204

PSALM 130. L. M. Danvers, Eaton. Pardoning grace.

FROM deep distress and troubled thoughts

To thee, my God, I rais'd my cries; If thou severely mark our faults, No flesh can stand before thine eyes.

2 But thou hast built thy throne of grace, Free to dispense thy pardons there, That sinners may approach thy face, And hope, and love, as well as fear.

3 As the benighted pilgrims wait, And long and wish for breaking day, So waits my soul before thy gate; When will my God his face display?

4 My trust is fix'd upon thy word, Nor shall I trust thy word in vain; Let mourning souls address the Lord, And find relief from all their pain. 5 Great is his love, and large his grace, Through the redemption of his Son! He turns our feet from sinful ways, And pardons what our hands have done.

PSALM 32. S. M. Aylesbury, Sutton.

O BLESSED souls are they,
Whose sins are cover'd o'er!
Divinely blest, to whom the Lord
Imputes their guilt no more.

2 They mourn their follies past,
And keep their hearts with care;
Their lips and lives, without deceit
Shall prove their faith sincere.

3 While I conceal'd my guilt,
I felt the festering wound,
Till I confess'd my sins to thee,
And ready pardon found.

Let sinners learn to pray,
Let saints keep near the throne;
Our help in times of deep distress
Is found in God alone.

PSALM 32. C. M. Brattle-Street, Barby.

Free pardon, and sincere obedience; or, confession and forgiveness.

HAPPY the man to whom his God No more imputes his sin; But, wash'd in the Redeemer's blood, Hath made his garments clean.

2 Happy, beyond expression, he Whose debts are thus discharg'd, And from the guilty bondage free, 'He feels his soul enlarg'd!

3 His spirit hates deceit and lies, His words are all sincere; He guards his heart, he guards his eyes, To keep his conscience clear.

4 While I my inward guilt suppress'd, No quiet could I find:

Thy wrath lay burning in my breast, And rack'd my tortured mind.

5 Then I confess'd my troubled thoughts, My secret sins reveal'd;

Thy pardoning grace forgave my faults, Thy grace my pardon seal'd.

6 This shall invite thy saints to pray; When like a raging flood Temptations rise, our strength and stay Is a forgiving God.

207 PSALM 32. 2d Part. L. M. b. Newcourt, Putney.

A guilty conscience eased by confession and pardon
WHILE I keep silence, and conceal
My heavy guilt within my heart,

What torments doth my conscience feel! | 5 lt rises high and drowns the hills, What agonies of inward smart!

2 I spread my sins before the Lord, And all my secret faults confess; Thy gospel speaks a pardoning word, Thy Holy Spirit seals the grace.

3 For this shall every humble soul Make swift addresses to thy seat; When floods of huge temptations roll, There shall they find a blest retreat.

4 How safe beneath thy wings I lie, When days grow dark, and storms ap-

And when I walk, thy watchful eye Shall guide me safe from every snare.

208 PSALM 32. 1st Part. L. M. Ninety-seventh Psalm, Antigua. Repentance and free pardon; or, justification and sanctification.

LEST is the man, forever blest, Whose guilt is pardon'd by his God, Whose sins with sorrow are confess'd. And cover'd with his Saviour's blood.

2 Blest is the man to whom the Lord Imputes not his inquities: He pleads no merit of reward, And not on works but grace relies.

3 From guile his heart and lips are free; His humble joy, his holy fear With deep repentance well agree, And join to prove his faith sincere.

4 How glorious is that righteousness That hides and cancels all his sins! While a bright evidence of grace Through his whole life appears and shines.

Hymn 85. B. 2. C. M. 209St. Martins, Mear. Sufficiency of pardon.

THY does your face, ye humble souls, Those mournful colours wear? What doubts are these that waste your

And nourish your despair?

2 What the your num rous sins exceed The stars that fill the skies, And, aiming at th' eternal throne, Like pointed mountains rise?

3 What the your mighty guilt beyond The wide creation swell, And has its curs'd foundations laid Low as the deeps of hell?

4 See here an endless ocean flows

Of never-failing grace;
Behold a dying Saviour's veins
The sacred flood increase.

Has neither shore nor bound; Now if we search to find our sins, Our sins can ne'er be found.

6 Awake, our hearts, adore the grace, That buries all our faults, And pard'ning blood, that swells above Our follies and our thoughts.

PERSEVERANCE.

Psalm 125. C. M. 210 Peterborough, Cambridge. The saint's trial and safety.

TNSHAKEN as the sacred hill And fix'd as mountains be, Firm as a rock, the soul shall rest, That leans, O Lord, on thee.

2 Not walls, nor hills could guard so well Old Salem's happy ground, As those eternal arms of love, That every saint surround.

3 While tyrants are a smarting scourge To drive them near to God,

Divine compassion still allays The fury of the rod.

4 Deal gently, Lord, with souls sincere, And lead them safely on

To the bright gates of paradise, Where Christ their Lord is gone. 5 But if we trace those crooked ways

Which the old serpent drew, The wrath that drove him first to hell Shall smite his followers too.

PSALM 125. S. M. 211 Sutton, St. Thomas.

The saint's trial and safety; or, moderated afflictions. FIRM and unmov'd are they That rest their souls on God; Fix'd as the mount where David dwelt, Or where the ark abode.

As mountains stood to guard The city's sacred ground, So God, and his almighty love, Embrace his saints around.

What though the Father's rod Drop a chastising stroke, Yet, lest it wound their souls too deep,

Its fury shall be broke. 4 Deal gently, Lord, with those,

Whose faith and plous fear, Whose hope and love, and every grace Proclaim their hearts sincere,

5 Nor shall the tyrant's rage Too long oppress the saint; The God of Israel will support His children, lest they faint.

6 But if our slavish fear Will choose the road to hell, We must receive our portion there, Where bolder sinners dwell.

PSALM 138. L. M. 212 Slade, Wells.

Restoring and preserving grace. [WITH all my powers of heart and tongue

I'll praise my Maker in my song; Angels shall hear the notes I raise, Approve the song and join the praise.

2 Angels that make thy church their care Shall witness my devotion there, While holy zeal directs mine eyes To thy fair temple in the skies.

3 I'll sing thy truth and mercy, Lord, I'll sing the wonders of thy word: Not all thy works and names below So much thy power and glory show.

4To God I cry'd, when troubles rose; He heard me, and subdu'd my foes; He did my rising fears control, And strength diffus'd thro' all my soul.

5 The God of heaven maintains his state, Frowns on the proud, and scorns the great; But from his throne descends to see The sons of humble poverty.

6 Amidst a thousand snares I stand, Upheld and guarded by thy hand; Thy words my fainting soul revive, And keep my dying faith alive.

7 Grace will complete what grace begins, To save from sorrows or from sins; The work that wisdom undertakes, Eternal mercy ne'er forsakes.

213 PSALM 97. 3d Part. L. M. Castle-Street, Sabaoth. Grace and glory.

TH' Almighty reigns, exalted high O'er all the earth, o'er all the sky; Though clouds and darkness veil his feet, His dwelling is the mercy seat.

20 ye that love his holy name, Hate every work of sin and shame: He guards the souls of all his friends, And from the snares of hell defends.

3 Immortal light, and joys unknown, Are for the saints in darkness sown; Those glorious seeds shall spring and rise, And the bright harvest bless our eyes.

4 Rejoice, ye righteous, and record The sacred honours of the Lord; None but the soul that feels his grace Can triumph in his holiness.

Hymn 51. B. 1. 214 8. M. Silver-Street, Dover, Lisbon.

Persevering grace.

God, the only wise, Our Saviour and our King, Let all the saints below the skies Their humble praises bring.

2 'Tis his almighty love, His counsel and his care, Preserves us safe from sin and death. And every hurtful snare.

He will present our souls Unblemish'd and complete, Before the glory of his face,

With joys divinely great.

Then all the chosen seed Shall meet around the throne, Shall bless the conduct of his grace, And make his wonders known.

To our Redeemer, God, Wisdom and power belongs, Immortal crowns of majesty, And everlasting songs.

REDEMPTION.

HYMN 78. B. 2. C. M. 215Dundee, Bedford.

Redemption by Christ. WHEN the first parents of our race Rebell'd, and lost their God, And the infection, of their sin Had tainted all our blood;—

2 Infinite pity touch'd the heart Of the eternal Son;

Descending from the heavenly, court, He left his Father's throne. 3 Aside the Prince of glory threw

His most divine array, And wrapp'd his Godhead in a voil Of our inferior clay.

4 His living power and dying love Redeem'd unhappy men,

And rais'd the ruins of our race To life and God again.

5 To thee, dear Lord, our flesh and soul We joyfully resign;

Bless'd Jesus, take us for thy own, For we are doubly thine.

6 Thine honour, shall forever be The business of our days; Forever shall our thankful tongues Speak thy deserved praise.

HYMN 29. B. 2. C. M. 216 Arlington, Archdale.

Redemption by price and power.

ESUS, with all thy saints above. My tongue would bear her part. Would sound aloud thy saving love, And sing thy bleeding heart.

2 Bless'd be the Lamb, my dearest Lord, Who bought me with his blood, And quench'd his Father's flaming sword In his own vital flood.

3 The Lamb, that freed my captive soul From Satan's heavy chains, And sent the lion down to howl Where Kell and horror reigns.

4 All glory to the dying Lamb, And never-ceasing praise, While angels live to know his name, Or saints to feel his grace.

HYMN 82. B. 2. C. M. 217 Bethlehem, York.

Redemption and protection from spiritual enemies. RISE, my soul, my joyful powers, And triumph in my God; Awake, my voice, and loud proclaim His glorious grace abroad.

2 He raised me from the deeps of sin, The gates of gaping hell,

And fix'd my standing more secure Than 'twas before I fell.

3 The arms of everlasting love Beneath my soul he placed, And on the Rock of Ages set My slippery footsteps fast.

4 The city of my blest abode Is wall'd around with grace; Salvation for a bulwark stands To shield the sacred place.

5 Satan may vent his sharpest spite, And all his legions roar; Almighty mercy guards my life,

And bounds his raging power. 6 Arise, my soul; awake, my voice, And tunes of pleasure sing; Loud hallelujahs shall address My Saviour and my King.

Hymn 35. B. 2. C. M. 218 Swanwick, Rochester.

Proise to God for creation and redemption. ET them neglect thy glory, Lord, Who never knew thy grace; But our loud song shall still record The wonders of thy praise.

2 We raise our shouts, O God, to thee, And send them to thy throne; All glory to th' UNITED THREE, The undivided ONE.

3 Twas He (and we'll adore his name) Who form'd us by a word; "Twas He restored our ruin'd frame; Salvation to the Lord.

4 Hosanna! let the earth and skies Repeat the joyful sound, Rocks, hills, and vales, reflect the voice In one eternal round.

REGENERATION.

Hymn 95. B. 1. C. M. 219 Bangor, Dundee.

Regeneration. NOT all the outward forms on earth, Nor rites that God has given Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth Can raise a soul to heaven.

2 The sovereign will of God alone Creates us heirs of grace; Born in the image of his Son,

A new, peculiar race. 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind, Breathes on the sons of flesh,

New models all the carnal mind, And forms the man afresh.

4 Our quicken'd souls awake, and rise From the long sleep of death; On heavenly things we fix our eyes, And praise employs our breath.

HYMN 99. B. 1. C. M. York, Dedham. 220

Stones made children of Abraham; or, grace not conveyed by religious parents.

I/AIN are the hopes that rebels place Upon their birth and blood, Descended from a pious race, (Their fathers now with God.)

2 He from the caves of earth and hell Can take the hardest stones, And fill the house of Abrah'm well With new created sons.

3 Such wondrous power doth he possess, Who form'd our mortal frame, Who call'd the world from emptiness; The world obey'd and came.

Нуми 130. В. 2. 221 C. M. Conway, Irish.

The new creation. TTEND, while God's exalted Son A Doth his own glories shew;

'Behold, I sit upon my throne, 'Creating all things new.

2'Nature and sin are pass'd away, 'And the old Adam dies; 'My hands a new foundation lay;

'See the new world arise. 3'I'll be a Sun of Righteousness 'To the new heavens I make;

'None but new-born heirs of grace 'My glories shall partake.'

4 Mighty Redeemer! set me free From my old state of sin;O, make my soul alive to thee, Create new powers within.

5 Renew mine eyes, and form mine ears, And mould my heart afresh;

Give me new passions, joys, and fears, And turn the stone to flesh.

6 Far from the regions of the dead, From sin, and earth, and hell; In the new world that grace has made, I would forever dwell.

222 Hymn 159. B. 2. C. M. Covington, Braintree.

An unconverted state; or, converting grace.

CREAT King of glory, and of grace,
We own with humble shame
How vile is our degenerate race,
And our first father's name.

2 From Adam flows our tainted blood, The poison reigns within,

Makes us averse to all that's good, And willing slaves to sin. 3[Daily we break thy holy laws.

And then reject thy grace;
Engaged in the old serpent's cause,
Against our Maker's face.]

4 We live estranged afar from God,
And love the distance well;
With haste we run the dangerous road,
That leads to death and hell.

5 And can such rebels be restored? Such natures made divine? Let sinners see thy glory, Lord, And feel this power of thine.

6 We raise our Father's name on high, Who his own Spirit sends To bring rebellious strangers nigh, And turn his foes to friends.

223 Hymn 161. B. 2. C. M. Wantage, Dundee.

Christian virtues; or, the difficulty of conversion.

TRAIT is the way, the door is strait,
That leads to joys on high;
Tis but a few that find the gate,
While crowds mistake and die.

2Beloved self must be deny'd,
The mind and will renew'd,
Passion suppress'd, and patience try'd,
And vain desires subdued.

3[Flesh is a dangerous foe to grace, Where it prevails and rules; Flesh must be humbled, pride abased, Lest they destroy our souls.]

4 The love of gold be banish'd hence,
(That vile idolatry)

And every member, every sense, In sweet subjection lie.

5 The tongue, that most unruly power, Requires a strong restraint: We must be watchful every hour,

And pray, but never faint.

6 Lord! can a feeble, helpless worm,

Fulfil a task so hard?
Thy grace must all my work perform,

Thy grace must all my work period And give the free reward.

SALVATION.

224 HYMN 88. B. 2. C. M. Devizes, Rochester.

Salvation.

SALVATION! O, the joyful sound! Tis pleasure to our ears; A sovereign balm for every wound,

A cordial for our fears.

2 Bury'd in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay,
But we arise by grace divine
To see a heavenly day.

3 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

225 HYMN 111. B. 1. C. M. Braintree, Rochester.

Salutation by grace.

[I ORD, we confess our numerous faults,
How great our guilt has been!

Foolish and vain were all our thoughts,
And all our lives were sin.

2 But, O my soul, forever praise, Forever love his name,

Who turns thy feet from dangerous ways Of folly, sin and shame.]

3["Tis not by works of righteousness, Which our own hands have done, But we are saved by sovereign grace, Abounding through his Son.]

4"Tis from the mercy of our God
That all our hopes begin;
"Tis by the water and the blood

Our souls are wash'd from sin.

5"Tis through the purchase of his death,
Who hung upon the tree,

The Spirit is sent down to breathe On such dry bones as we.

6 Raised from the dead, we live anew;
And, justify'd by grace,
We shall appear in glory too,
And see our Father's face.

226 HYMN 137. B. 1. L. M. Islington, Portugal.

NOW to the power of God supreme
Be everlasting honours given:
He saves from hell, (we bless his name)
He calls our wandering feet to heaven.

2 Not for our duties nor deserts, But of his own abounding grace, He works salvation in our hearts, And forms a people for his praise.

3"Twas his own purpose that begun To rescue rebels doom'd to die: He gave us grace in Christ his Son, Before he spread the starry sky.

4 Jesus, the Lord, appears at last, And makes his Father's counsels known; Declares the great transactions pass'd, And brings immortal blessings down.

5 He dies! and in that dreadful night Did all the powers of hell destroy; Rising, he brought our heaven to light, And took possession of the joy.

227 PSALM 85. 2d Part. L. M. Luton, Rothwell, Dunstan.

Salvation by Christ.

SALVATION is forever nigh The souls that fear and trust the Lord; And grace, descending from on high, Fresh hopes of glory shall afford.

2 Mercy and truth on earth are met, Since Christ the Lord came down from heaven:

By his obedience, so complete, Justice is pleas'd, and peace is given.

3 Now truth and honour shall abound, Religion dwell on earth again, And heavenly influence bless the ground, In our Redeemer's gentle reign.

4 His righteousness is gone before, To give us free access to God: Our wandering feet shall stray no more, But mark his steps, and keep the road.

228 Hymn 4. B. 2. L. M. 97th Psalm, Danvers.

Salvation in the cross.

HERE at thy cross, my dying God, I lay my soul beneath thy love, Beneath the droppings of thy blood, Jesus! nor shall it e'er remove.

2 Not all that tyrants think or say, With rage and lightning in their eyes, Nor hell shall fright my heart away, Should hell with all its legions rise. 3 Should worlds conspire to drive me thence, Moveless and firm this heart should lie; Resolv'd, (for that's my last defence) If I must perish, there to die.

4 But speak, my Lord, and calm my fear; Am I not safe beneath thy shade? Thy vengeance will not strike me here, Nor Satan dare my soul invade.

5 Yes, I'm secure beneath thy blood, And all my foes shall lose their sim; Hosanna to my dying God; And my best honours to his name.

229 PSALM 69. 3d Part. C. M. # Hymn Second, St. Ann's, Mear. Christ's obediente and death; or, God glorified and sinners saved.

FATHER, I sing thy wondrous grace, I bless my Saviour's name; He bought salvation for the poor,

And bore the sinner's shame. 2 His deep distress has raised us high; His duty and his zeal

Fulfill'd the law which mortals broke, And finish'd all thy will.

3 His dying groans, his living songs Shall better please my God, Than harp or trumpet's solemn sound, Than goats' or bullocks' blood.

4 This shall his humble followers see, And set their hearts at rest; They by his death draw near to thee, And live forever blest.

5 Let heaven, and all that dwell on high, To God their voices raise, While lands and seas assist the sky, And join to advance his praise.

6 Zion is thine most holy God;
Thy Son shall bless her gates;
And glory, purchased by his blood,
For thine own Israel waits.

SANCTIFICATION.

230 Hymn 132. B. 1. L. M. Portugal, Slade.

Holiness and grace.

O let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad, The honours of our Saviour God, When his salvation reigns within, And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied, Passion and envy, lust and pride; While justice, temperance, truth, and Our inward piety approve. [love 4 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord,
And faith stands leaning on his word.

231 HYMN 143. B. 2. C. M. Colchester, Abridge.

Flesh and Spirit.

WHAT different powers of grace and sin

Attend our mortal state!

I hate the thoughts that work within,
And do the works I hate.

2Now I complain, and groan, and die, While sin and Satan reign, Now raise my songs of triumph high,

For grace prevails again.

3 So darkness struggles with the light,

Till perfect day arise;
Water and fire maintain the fight
Until the weaker dies.

4Thus will the flesh and Spirit strive, And vex and break my peace; But I shall quit this mortal life, And sin forever cease.

232 HYMN 104. B. 1. C. M.
Cambridge, Irish.
A state of nature and of grace.

NOT the malicious, nor profane, The wanton, nor the proud, Nor thieves, nor slanderers, shall obtain The kingdom of our God.

2Surprising grace! and such were we By nature and by sin, Heirs of immortal misery,

Unholy and unclean.

3 But we are wash'd in Jesus' blood,
We're pardon'd through his name;
And the good Spirit of our God

Has sanctify'd our frame.
40 for a persevering power
To keep thy just commands!

To keep thy just commands!
We would defile our hearts no more,
No more pollute our hands.

233 PSALM 119. 11th Part. C. M. b Plymouth, Durham. Breathing after holiness. Verses 5, 33.

O THAT the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still!
O that my God would grant me grace
To know and do his will!

20 send thy Spirit down to write
Thy law upon my heart!
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Nor act the liar's part.

Verses 37, 36.

3 From vanity turn off mine eyes;
Let no corrupt design,
Nor covetous desires, arise
Within this soul of mine.
Verse 133.

4 Order my footsteps by thy word, And make my heart sincere; Let sin have no dominion, Lord,

But keep my conscience clear. Verse 176.

5 My soul hath gone too far astray; My feet too often slip; Yet since I've not forgot the way,

Restore thy wandering sheep.

Verse 33.

6 Make me to walk in thy commands;

Tis a delightful road;

Nor let my head or heart or hands Offend against my God.

Hymn 97. B. 1. L. M. 97th Psalm, Brentford.

Christ our wisdom and righteomeres.

URY'D in shadows of the night,
We lie till Christ restores the light,
Wisdom descends to heal the blind,
And chase the darkness of the mind.

2 Our guilty souls are drown'd in tears, Till his atoning blood appears; Then we awake from deep distress, And sing, The Lord our Righteousness.

3 Our very frame is mix'd with sin, His Spirit makes our natures clean; Such virtues from his sufferings flow, At once to cleanse and pardon too.

4 Jesus beholds where Satan reigns, Binding his slaves in heavy chains; He sets the prisoners free, and breaks The iron bondage from our necks.

5 Poor helpless worms in thee possess Grace, wisdom, power and righteousness; Thou art our mighty All, and we Give our whole selves, O Lord, to thee

235 Hymn 98. B. 1. S. M.
Little Marlboro', Durham.
The same.

HOW heavy is the night, That hangs upon our eyes, Till Christ with his reviving light Over our souls arise.

Our guilty spirits dread To meet the wrath of heaven; But, in his righteousness array'd, We see our sins forgiven.

3 'Unholy and impure
Are all our thoughts and ways;
His hands infected nature cure
With sanctifying grace.

Ь

4 The powers of hell agree
To hold our souls in vain;
He sets the sons of bondage free,
And breaks the cursed chain.

5 Lord, we adore thy ways,
To bring us near to God;
Thy sovereign power, thy healing grace,
And thine atoning blood.

236 Hymn 90. B. 2. C. M. Marlow, St. Ann's.

Faith in Christ for pardon and sanctification.

HOW sad our state by nature is!
Our sin, how deep it stains!
And Satan binds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.

2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace Sounds from the sacred word; Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,

And trust upon the Lord.

3 My soul obeys th' Almighty call, And runs to this relief;

I would believe thy promise, Lord, O! help mine unbelief.

4 [To the dear fountain of thy blood, Incarnate God, I fly;

Here let me wash my spotted soul From crimes of deepest dye.

5 Stretch out thine arm, victorious King, My reigning sins subdue; Drive the old dragon from his seat, With all his hellish crew.]

6 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm, On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness, My Jesus, and my all!

LAW AND GOSPEL.

MORAL LAW.

237 HYMN 116. B. 1. L. M. :

Love to God and our neighbour.

THUS saith the first, the great command,

'Let all thy inward powers unite
'To love thy Maker and thy God
'With utmost vigour and delight.

2'Then shall thy neighbour next in place 'Share thine affections and esteem;

And let thy kindness to thyself

'Measure and rule thy love to him.'

3 This is the sense that Moses spoke, This did the prophets preach and prove; For want of this, the law is broke, And the whole law's fulfill'd by love. 4 But O! how base our passions are! How cold our charity and zeal! Lord, fill our souls with heavenly fire, Or we shall ne'er perform thy will.

238 PSALM 50. 2d Part. C. M. # Wareham, St. Martins.

Obedience is better than sacrifice.

THUS saith the Lord, 'The spacious fields.

fields,
'And flocks and herds are mine;
'O'er all the cattle of the hills

'I claim a right divine.
2'I ask no sheep for sacrifice,

'Nor bullocks burnt with fire;
'To hope and love, to pray and praise,
'Is all that I require.

3' Call upon me when trouble's near, 'My hand shall set thee free;

'Then shall thy thankful lips declare
'The honour due to me.

4'The man that offers humble praise, 'He glorifies me best;

'And those, that tread my holy ways, 'Shall my salvation taste.'

239 PSALM 16. 1st Part. L. M. b

Confession of our poverty, and saints the best conpany; or, good works profit men, not God.

PRESERVE me, Lord, in time of need;

For succour to thy throne I flee, But have no merits there to plead; My goodness cannot reach to thee.

2 Oft have my heart and tongue confess'd. How empty and how poor I am; My praise can never make thee bless'd, Nor add new glories to thy name.

3 Yet, Lord, thy saints on earth may reap Some profit by the good we do; These are the company I keep, These are the choicest friends I know,

4 Let others choose the sons of mirth To give a relish to their wine; I love the men of heavenly birth, Whose thoughts and language are divine.

240 Hymn 115. B. 1. C. M. # orb

Conviction of sin by the law.

CRD, how secure my conscience was, And felt no inward dread!

I was alive without the law,

And thought my sins were dead.

2 My hopes of heaven were firm and But, since the precept came [bright With a convincing power and light, I find how vile I am. 3 [My guilt appear'd but small before, 5 Till terribly I saw

How perfect, holy, just, and pure Was thine eternal law.

4 Then felt my soul the heavy load, My sins revived again; I had provoked a dreadful God,

And all my hopes were slain.

5 I'm like a helpless captive, sold Under the power of sin;

I cannot do the good I would, Nor keep my conscience clean.

6 My God, I cry with every breath
For some kind power to save,
To break the yoke of sin and death,
And thus redeem the slave.

241 HYMN 121. B. 2. L. M. Gloucester, All Saints.

The law and rospel distinguished.

The law and gospel distinguished.

THE law commands, and makes us

What duties to our God we owe; But 'tis the gospel must reveal Where lies our strength to do his will.

2 The law discovers guilt and sin, And shows how vile our hearts have been; Only the gospel can express Forgiving love, and cleansing grace.

3 What curses doth the law denounce Against the man that fails but once! But in the gospel Christ appears,

Pard'ning the guilt of numerous years.

4 My soul, no more attempt to draw
Thy life and comfort from the law;
Fly to the hope the gospel gives;
The man that trusts the promise lives.

242 HYMN 120. B. 2. S. M. Beveridge, Sutton.

The law and go-pel joined in Scripture.

THE Lord declares his will,

And keeps the world in awe;

Amidst the smoke on Sinai's hill

Breaks out his fiery law.

2 The Lord reveals his face;And smiling from above,Sends down the gospel of his grace,Th' epistles of his love.

3 These sacred words impart
Our Maker's just commands;
The pity of his melting heart
And vengeance of his hands.

4 [Hence we awake our fear, We draw our comfort hence; The arms of grace are treasured here And armour of defence.

5 We learn Christ crucify 11,
And here behold his blood;
All arts and knowledges beside
Will do us little good.]

6 We read the heavenly word, We take the offer'd grace, Obey the statutes of the Lord, And trust his promises.

7 In vain shall Satan rage Against a book divine,

Where wrath and lighting guard the page, Where beams of mercy shine.

GOSPEL.

243 PSALM 89. 3d Part. C. M. #

A blessed gospel.

PLEST are the souls that hear and The gospel's joyful sound; [know Peace shall attend the paths they go, And light their steps surround.

2 Their joy shall bear their spirits up, Through their Redeemer's name; His righteousness exalts their hope, Nor Satan dares condemn.

3 The Lord, our glory and defence, Strength and salvation gives: Israel, thy King forever reigns, Thy God forever lives.

244 HYMN 128. B. 1. L. M. Old Hundred, Ellenthorpe.

The apostles' commission; or, the gospel attested by miracles.

'GO, preach my gospel,' saith the

'Bid the whole earth my grace receive; 'He shall be saved that trusts my word: 'He shall be damn'd that won't believe.

2' [I'll make your great commission known,

'And ye shall prove my gospel true, 'By all the works that I have done, 'By all the wonders ye shall do.

3'Go heal the sick, go raise the dead,

'Go cast out devils in my name;
'Nor let my prophets be afraid,

'Nor let my prophets be alraid,
'Though Greeks reproach, and Jews
blaspheme.]

4 'Teach all the nations my commands; 'I'm with you till the world shall end!

'All power is trusted in my hands;

'I can destroy, and I defend.'

5 He spake, and light shone round his head; On a bright cloud to heaven he rode They to the farthest nations spread The grace of their ascended God. 245 Hymn 131. B. 2. L. M. Antigua, Islington, Italy.

The excellency of the Christian Religion.

ET everlasting glories crown
Thy head my Slaviour and my Lord

ET everlasting glories crown
Thy head, my Saviour, and my Lord;
Thy hands have brought salvation down,
And writ the blessings in thy word.

2 [What if we trace the globe around, And search from Britain to Japan, There shall be no religion found So just to God, so safe for man.]

3 In vain the trembling conscience seeks Some solid ground to rest upon; With long despair the spirit breaks, Till we apply to Christ alone.

4 How well thy blessed truths agree! How wise and holy thy commands! Thy promises, how firm they be! How firm our hope and comfort stands!

5 [Not the feign'd fields of heath'nish bliss Could raise such pleasures in the mind; Nor does the Turkish paradise Pretend to joys so well refined.]

6 Should all the forms that men devise Assault my faith with treacherous art, I'd call them vanity and lies, And bind the gospel to my heart.

246 HYMN 118. B. 1. S. M. bor # Hopkins, St. Thomas.

Moses and Christ; or, sins against the law and gospel.

THE law by Moses came;

Rut neace and truth and love

But peace and truth and love
 Were brought by Christ (a nobler name)
 Descending from above.
 Amidst the house of God

2 Amidst the house of God
Their different works were done;
Moses a faithful servant stood,
But Christ a faithful Son.

3 Then to his new commands
Be strict obedience paid;
O'er all his Father's house he stands
The Sovereign and the Head.

4 The man that durst despise The law that Moses brought, Behold! how terribly he dies For his presumptuous fault.

But sorer vengeance falls
 On that rebellious race,
 Who hate to hear when Jesus calls,
 And dare resist his grace.

247 HYMN 119. B. 1. C. M. #

Dundee, Lanesboro'.

The different success of the gespel.

CHRIST and his cross are all our theme;

The mysteries that we speak

Are scandal in the Jews' esteem, And folly to the Greek.

2 But souls enlighten'd from above With joy receive the word; They see what wisdom, power and love Shine in their dving Lord.

Shine in their dying Lord.

3 The vital savour of his name

Restores their fainting breath: But unbelief perverts the same To guilt, despair and death.

4 Till God diffuse his graces down, Like showers of heavenly rain, In vain Apollos sows the ground, And Paul may plant in vain.

248 HYMN 138. B. 2. L. M.

Rothwell, Eaton.

The power of the gospel.

THIS is the word of truth and love, Sent to the nations from above; Jehovah here resolves to show What his Almighty grace can do. 2 This remedy did wisdom find,

To heal diseases of the mind;
This sovereign balm, whose virtues can
Restore the ruin'd creature, man.

3 The gospel bids the dead revive; Sinners obey the voice, and live; Dry bones are raised and cloth'd afresh; And hearts of stone are turn'd to flesh.

4 [Where Satan reign'd in shades of night, The gospel strikes a heavenly light; Our lusts its wondrous power controls, And calms the rage of angry souls.

5 Lions and beasts of savage name
Put on the nature of the Lamb;
While the wide world esteem it strange,
Gaze, and admire, and hate the change.]

6 May but this grace my soul renew, Let sinners gaze, and hate me too; The word that saves me does engage A sure defence from all their rage.

2 Here, in thy gospel's wondrous frame, Fresh wisdom we pursue;

A thousand angels learn thy name, Beyond whate'er they knew.

3 Thy name is writ in fairest lines, :
Thy wonders here we trace;
Wisdom through all the mystery shines,
And shines in Jesus' face.

- 4 The law its best obedience owes To our incarnate God;
 - And thine avenging justice shows
 Its honours in his blood.
- 5 But still the lustre of thy grace Our warmer thoughts employs, Gilds the whole scene with brighter rays, And more exalts our joys.

250 HYMN 10. B. 1. S. M. St. Thomas, Froome.

The blessedness of gospel times; or, the revelation of Christ to Jews and Gentiles.

HOW beauteous are their feet, Who stand on Zion's hill! Who bring salvation on their tongues, And words of peace reveal!

- 2 How charming is their voice! How sweet the tidings are! 'Zion, behold thy Saviour King, 'He reigns and triumphs here.'
- 3 How happy are our ears, That hear this joyful sound, Which kings and prophets waited for, And sought, but never found!
- 4. How blessed are our eyes, That see this heavenly light! Prophets and kings desired it long, But died without the sight!
- 5 The watchmen join their voice, And tuneful notes employ; Jerusalem breaks forth in songs, And deserts learn the joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his arm Through all the earth abroad: Let every nation now behold Their Saviour and their God.

251 Psalm 98. 1st Part. C. M. # Braintree, Abridge, Patmos.

Praise for the gospel.

To our Almighty Maker, God, New honours be address'd; His great salvation shines abroad, And makes the nations bless'd.

²He spake the word to Abrah'm first; His truth fulfils his grace; The Gentiles make his name their trust, Anthearn his righteousness.

The fall and recovery of man; or, Christ and Saturate and enmity.

ECEIV'D by subtle snares of hell, Adam, our head, our father, fell! When Satan, in the serpent hid, Propos'd the fruit that God forbid.

2 Death was the threat'ning: death began To take possession of the man; His unborn race received the wound, And heavy curses smote the ground.

5 | Our guilt shall vanish all away, Though black as hell before;

Our sins shall sink beneath the sea, And shall be found no more.

6 And lest pollution should o'erspread Our inward powers again, His Spirit shall bedew our souls,

Like purifying rain.]

7 Our heart, that flinty, stubborn thing, That terrors cannot move, That fears no threat'nings of his wrath,

Shall be dissolved by love.

8Or he can take the flint away. That would not be refined; And, from the treasures of his grace, Bestow a softer mind.

9 There shall his sacred Spirit dwell, And deep engrave his law

And every motion of our souls To swift obedience draw.

10 Thus will he pour salvation down, And we shall render praise; We the dear people of his love, And he our God of grace.

Hymn 15. B. 1. L. M. 258 Tallis' Evening Hymn, Bath.

Our own weakness; or, Christ our strength. ET me but hear my Saviour say, Strength shall be equal to thy day,' Then I'll rejoice in deep distress, Leaning on all-sufficient grace. 2 I glory in infirmity,

That Christ's own power may rest on me; When I am weak, then am I strong, Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

3 I can do all things, or can bear All sufferings, if my Lord be there; Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains, While his left hand my head sustains.

4 But if the Lord be once withdrawn, And we attempt the work alone, When new temptations spring and rise, We find how great our weakness is. 5 So Samson, when his hair was lost,

Met the Philistines to his cost; Shook his vain limbs with sad surprise, Made feeble fight, and lost his eyes.

HYMN 84. B. 1. L. M. 259 Danvers, Antigua.

Salvation, rightcourses, and strength in Christ.

EHOVAH speaks, let Israel hear, Let all the earth rejoice and fear, While God's eternal Son proclaims His sovereign honours and his names.

2'I am the Last, and I the First, 'The Saviour God, and God the Just:

'There's none beside pretends to shew

'Such justice and salvation too.

3 ['Ye that in shades of darkness dwelk Just on the verge of death and hell, 'Look up to me from distant lands, 'Light, life, and heaven are in my hands.

4'I by my holy name have sworn, 'Nor shall the word in vain return,

'To me shall all things bend the knee. 'And every tongue shall swear to me.]

5'In me alone shall men confess, ' Lies all their strength and righteousness:

'But such as dare despise my name, 'I'll clothe them with eternal shame. 6' In me, the Lord, shall all the seed

'Of Israel from their sins be freed, 'And by their shining graces, prove 'Their interest in my pardoning love.'

Hymn 85. B. 1. S. M. 260 Lisbon, St. Thomas. The same.

THE Lord on high proclaims His Godhead from his throne; 'Mercy and justice are the names 'By which I will be known.

'Ye dying souls, that sit 'In darkness and distress,

'Look from the borders of the pit 'To my recovering grace.'

Sinners shall hear the sound: Their thankful tongues shall own 'Our righteousness and strength is found 'In thee, the Lord, alone.'

In thee shall Israel trust, And see their guilt forgiven; God will pronounce the sinners just, And take the saints to heaven.

HYMN 87. B. 1. L. M. 261 Antigua, Stonefield.

God dwells with the humble and penitent. THUS saith the High and Lofty One ullet I sit upon my holy throne;

'My name is God, I dwell on high, 'Dwell in my own eternity.

2' But I descend to worlds below, 'On earth I have a mansion too;

'The humble spirit and contrite Is an abode of my delight.

3'The humble soul my words revive; 'I bid the mourning sinner live;

'Heal all the broken hearts I find, And ease the sorrows of the mind.

4 [When I ontend against their sin, 'I make them know how vile they've been;

'But should my wrath forever smoke, 'Their souls would sink beneath my stroke.

5 O may thy pardoning grace be nigh, Lest we should faint, despair, and die! Thus shall our better thoughts approve The methods of thy chastening love.]

262 HYMN 125. B. 1. C. M. Eustis, Barby.

Christ's compassion to the weak and tempted.

WITH joy we meditate the grace
Of our High-Priest above;
His heart is made of tenderness,
His bowels melt with love.

2 Touch'd with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he has felt the same.

3 But spotless, innocent and pure The great Redeemer stood, While Satan's fiery darts he bore, And did resist to blood.

4 He in the days of feeble flesh Pour'd out his cries and tears, And in his measure feels afresh What every member bears.

5 [He'll never quench the smoking flax, But raise it to a flame; The bruised reed he never breaks, Nor scorns the meanest name.]

6 Then let our humble faith address His mercy and his power; We shall obtain delivering grace In the distressing hour.

263 HYMN 138. B. 1. C. M. London, Abridge, Marlow. Saints in the hands of Christ.

FIRM as the earth thy gospel stands,
My Lord, my hope, my trust;
If I am found in Jesus' hands,
My soul can ne'er be lost.

2 His honour is engag'd to save
The meanest of his sheep;
All that his heavenly Father gave,
His hands securely keep.

3 Nor death nor hell shall e'er remove His favourites from his breast; In the dear bosom of his love They must forever rest.

264 PSALM 119. 10th Part. C. M. b. St. Martin's, Gainsborough.

Pleading the promises.

BEHOLD thy waiting servant, Lord, Devoted to thy fear; Remember and confirm thy word, For all my hopes are there.

Yernes 41, 88, 107.

2 Hast thou not sent salvation down,
And promised quickening grace?

Doth not my heart address thy throne?

And yet thy love delays.

3 Mine eyes for thy salvation fail; O bear thy servant up! Nor let the scoffing lips prevail,

Who dare reproach my hope.

4 Didst thou not raise my faith, O Lord?
Then let thy truth appear:
Saints shall rejoice in my reward,
And trust, as well as fear.

265 HYMN 69. B. 2. C. M. Conway, Christmas.

The faithfulness of God in his promises.

[BEGIN, my tongue, some heavenly theme,

And speak some boundless thing, The mighty works, or mightier name Of our eternal King.

2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness, And sound his power abroad;

Sing the sweet promise of his grace, And the performing God.

3 Proclaim salvation from the Lord, For wretched, dying men; His hand has writ the sacred word

His hand has writ the sacred word With an immortal pen.

4 Engraved as in eternal brass
The mighty promise shines;
Nor can the powers of darkness raze

Nor can the powers of darkness raze
Those everlasting lines.]
5[He that can dash whole worlds to death,

And make them when he please; He speaks—and that almighty breath Fulfils his great decrees.

6 His very word of grace is strong As that which built the skies; The voice that rolls the stars along Speaks all the promises.

7 He said, Let the wide heaven be spread, And heaven was stretch'd abroad: Abrah'm, I'll be thy God, he said, And he was Abrah'm's God.

80, might I hear thine heavenly tongue But whisper, Thou art mine! Those gentle words should raise my song

To notes almost divine.

9 How would my leaping heart rejoice,
And think my heaven secure!
I'd trust the all-creating voice,

And faith desires no more.]

266 Hymn 60. B. 2. L. M. Islington, Winchelsea.

The truth of God the promiser; or, the promises are our security.

PRAISE, everlasting praise be paid To Him who earth's foundations laid; Praise to the God whose strong decrees Sway the creation as he please.

- 2 Praise to the goodness of the Lord, Who rules his people by his word; And there, as strong as his decrees, He sets his kindest promises.
- 3 Firm are the words his prophets give; Sweet words, on which his children live; Each of them is the voice of God, Who spoke, and spread the skies abroad.
- 4 Each of them powerful as that sound That bid the new-made world go round: And stronger than the solid poles, On which the wheel of nature rolls.]
- 5 Whence then should doubts and fears arise? Why trickling sorrows drown our eyes? Slowly, alas! our mind receives The comforts that our Maker gives.
- 60, for a strong, a lasting faith, To credit what the Almighty saith! To embrace the message of his Son, And call the joys of heaven our own.
- 7 Then, should the earth's old pillars shake, And all the wheels of nature break, Our steady souls would fear no more Than solid rocks, when billows roar.
- 8 Our everlasting hopes arise Above the ruinable skies, Where the eternal Builder reigns, And his own courts his power sustains.

INFLUENCES AND GRACES OF THE SPIRIT.

267 HYMN 144. B. 2. L. M. #. Danvers, Ralston.

The effusion of the Spirit; or, the success of the gospel.

GREAT was the day, the joy was great,
When the divine disciples met;
While on their heads the Spirit came,
And sat like tongues of cloven flame.
What gifts, what miracles he gave!

What gifts, what miracles he gave!
And power to kill, and power to save:
Furnish'd their tongues with wondrous words.

Instead of shields, and spears, and swords.

Thus arm'd, he sent the champions forth,
From east to west, from south to north;

Go! and assert your Saviour's cause; Go! spread the mystery of his cross.

4 These weapons of the holy war, Of what almighty force they are, To make our stubborn passions bow, And lay the proudest rebel low!

5 Nations, the learned and the rude, Are by these heavenly arms subdued; While Satan rages at his loss, And hates the doctrine of the cross.

6 Great King of grace, my heart subdue;
I would be led in triumph too,
A willing captive to my Lord,
And sing the victories of his word.

FAITH.

268 Hymn 140. B. 1. C. M. #

A living and a dead faith. Collected from several Scriptures.

MISTAKEN souls! that dream of heaven,

And make their empty boast Of inward joys, and sins forgiven, While they are slaves to lust!

2 Vain are our fancies, airy flights, If faith be cold and dead; None but a living power unites To Christ, the living head.

3 Tis faith that changes all the heart, Tis faith that works by love; That bids all sinful joys depart, And lifts the thoughts above.

4 Tis faith that conquers earth and hell By a celestial power;

This is the grace that shall prevail
In the decisive hour.

5 [Faith must obey her Father's will, As well as trust his grace; A pardoning God is jealous still For his own holiness.

6 When from the curse he sets us free, He makes our natures clean, Nor would he send his Son to be The minister of sin.

7 His Spirit purifies our frame, And seals our peace with God; Jesus and his salvation came By water and by blood.

269 Hymn 112. B. 1. C. M. Swanwick, Mear.

The brazen sepent; or, looking to Jesus.
O did the Hebrew prophet raise
The brazen serpent high;
The wounded felt immediate ease,
The camp forbore to die.

2' Look upward in the dying hour,
'And live,' the prophet cries;
But Christ performs a nobler cure,
When faith lifts up her eyes.

3 High on the cross the Saviour hung; High in the heavens he reigns: Here sinners, by the old serpent stung, Look, and forget their pains.

4 When God's own Son is lifted up, A dying world revives; The Jew beholds the glorious hope, The expiring Gentile lives.

270 Hymn 142. B. 2. S. M. St. Thomas, Dover, Haverhill.

Fault in Christ our sacrifice.

NOT all the blood of beasts, On Jewish altars slain, Could give the guilty conscience peace, Or wash away the stain.

2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb, Takes all our sins away; A sacrifice of nobler name And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand On that dear head of thine, While like a penitent I stand, And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see The burdens thou didst bear, When hanging on the cursed tree, And hopes her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his bleeding love.

271 HYMN 100. B. 1. L. M. Islington, Bath. Believe and be saved.

NOT to condemn the sons of men Did Christ, the Son of God, appear; No weapons in his hands are seen, No flaming sword, nor thunder there.

2 Such was the pity of our God, He loved the race of man so well, He sent his Son to bear our load Of sins, and save our souls from hell.

3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word, Trust in his mighty name, and live; A thousand joys his lips afford, His hands a thousand dessings give.

4 But vengeance and damnation lies On rebels who refuse the grace; Who God's eternal Son despise, The hottest hell shall be their place. 272 HYMN 125. B. 2. L. M. All Saints, Wells.

Faith and repentance, unbelief and imperitence.

IFE and immortal joys are given
To souls that mourn the sins they've done;

Children of wrath made heirs of heaven, By faith in God's eternal Son.

2Wo to the wretch that never felt The inward pangs of pious grief, But adds to all his crying guilt The stubborn sin of unbelief!

3 The law condemns the rebel dead, Under the wrath of God he lies: He seals the curse on his own head; And with a double vengeance dies.

273 Hymn 120. B. 1. C. M. Christmas, Rochester.

Faith of things unseen.

FAITH is the brightest evidence Of things beyond our sight,
Breaks through the clouds of flesh and sense,

And dwells in heavenly light.
2 It sets times past in present view,
Brings distant prospects home,

Of things a thousand years ago,
Or thousand years to come.

3 By faith we know the worlds were made By God's almighty word; Abrah'm to unknown countries led, By faith obey'd the Lord.

4 He sought a city, fair and high,
Built by the eternal hands:
And faith assures us, though we die
That heavenly building stands.

274 HYMN 129. B. 2. L. M.
Nantwich, Italy, Danvers.
We walk by faith, not by sight.

'TIS by the faith of joys to come, We walk thro' deserts dark as night; Till we arrive at heaven, our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light. 2 The want of sight she well supplies. She makes the pearly gates appear: Far into distant worlds she pries,

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through, While faith inspires a heavenly ray, Though lions roar, and tempests blow, And rocks and dangers fill the way.

And brings eternal glories near.

4 So Abrah'm, by divine command, Left his own house to walk with God; His faith beheld the promised land, And fired his zeal along the road,

275 HYMN 162. B. 2. C. M. Oakland, Warsaw.

Meditation of heaven; or, the joy of faith.

MY thoughts surmount these lower skies,

And look within the veil;
There springs of endless pleasure rise,
The waters never fail.

2 There I behold, with sweet delight, The blessed Three in One; And strong affections fix my sight On God's incarnate Son.

3 His promise stands forever firm, His grace shall ne'er depart; He binds my name upon his arm, And seals it on his heart.

4 Light are the pains that nature brings; How short our sorrows are, When with eternal future things The present we compare!

51 would not be a stranger still To that celestial place, Where I forever hope to dwell, Near my Redeemer's face.

276 HYMN 14. B. 1. L. M. Truro, Portugal.

The triumph of faith; or, Christ's unchangeable love.

WHO shall the Lord's elect condemn?
 'Tis God that justifies their souls;
 And mercy, like a mighty stream,
 O'er all their sins divinely rolls.

2 Who shall adjudge the saints to hell? Tis Christ that suffer'd in their stead; And, the salvation to fulfil, Behold him rising from the dead!

3He lives! he lives! and sits above, Forever interceding there: Who shall divide us from his love, Or what should tempt us to despair?

4 Shall persecution, or distress, Famine, or sword, or nakedness? He that hath loved us bears us through, And makes us more than conquerors too.

5 Faith hath an overcoming power; It triumphs in the dying hour; Christ is our life, our joy, our hope, Nor can we sink with such a prop.

6 Not all that men on earth can do, Nor powers on high, nor powers below, Shall cause his mercy to remove, Or wean our hearts from Christ our love. FEAR AND HOPE.

277 PSALM 119. 13th Part. C. M. b.

Holy fear, and tenderness of conscience. Verse 10.

WITH my whole heart I've sought thy
O let me never stray [face,
From thy commands, O God of grace,
Nor tread the sinner's way!

2 Thy word I've hid within my heart,
To keep my conscience clean,
And be an everlasting guard
From every rising sin.

3 I'm a companion of the saints,
Who fear and love the Lord:
My sorrows rise, my nature faints,
When men transgress thy word.

While sinners do thy gospel wrong,
My spirit stands in awe:
My soul abhors a lying tongue,
But loves thy righteous law.

5 My heart with sacred reverence hears
The threatenings of thy word;
My flesh with holy trembling fears
The judgments of the Lord.

6 My God, I long, I hope, I wait l'or thy salvation still;
While thy whole law is my delight,
And I obey thy will.

278 PSALM 42. 1st Part. C. M. # or b .

Desertion and hope; or, complaint of absence from public worship.

WITH earnest longings of the mind, My God, to thee I look; So pants the hunted hart to find And taste the cooling brook.

2 When shall I see thy courts of grace, And meet my God again? So long an absence from thy face

My heart endures with pain.

3 Temptations vex my weary soul,
And tears are my repast;

The foe insults without control,—
'And where's your God at last?'

4 Tis with a mournful pleasure now I think on ancient days; Then to thy house did numbers go, And all our work was praise.

5 But why, my soul, sunk down so far Beneath this heavy load? Why do my thoughts indulge despair, And sin against my God? 6 Hope in the Lord, whose mighty hand | 6 I call'd thy mercies to my mind, Can all thy woes remove: For I shall yet before him stand, And sing restoring love.

PSALM 42. 2d Part. L. M. 279 Portugal, Hebron.

Melancholy thoughts reproved; or, hope in affliction. Y spirit sinks within me, Lord, But I will call thy name to mind, And times of past distress record, When I have found my God was kind.

2 Huge troubles, with tumultuous noise, Swell like a sea, and round me spread; Thy water-spouts drown all my joys, And rising waves roll o'er my head.

3 Yet will the Lord command his love When I address his throne by day: Nor in the night his grace remove; The night shall hear me sing and pray. 4 I'll cast myself before his feet,

And say, 'My God, my heavenly rock! 'Why doth thy love so long forget 'The soul that groans beneath thy stroke.'

5 I'll chide my heart, that sinks so low Why should my soul indulge her grief? Hope in the Lord, and praise him too: He is my rest, my sure relief.

6 Thy light and truth shall guide me still; Thy word shall my best thoughts employ, And lead me to thine holy hill, My God, my most exceeding joy!

280 PSALM 77. 1st Part. C. M. Miller, Dundee.

Melancholy assaulting, and hope prevailing. TO God I cry'd with mournful voice, I sought his gracious ear, In the sad day when troubles rose, And fill'd the night with fear.

2 Sad were my days, and dark my nights, My soul refused relief;

I thought on God, the just and wise, But thoughts increased my grief. 3 Still I complain'd, and still oppress'd,

My heart began to break My God, thy wrath forbade my rest, And kept mine eyes awake.

4.My overwhelming sorrows grew Till I could speak no more; Then I within myself withdrew,

And call'd thy judgments o'er. 5 I call'd back years and ancient times, When I beheld thy face;

My spirit search'd for secret crimes, That might withhold thy grace.

Which I enjoy'd before; And will the Lord no more be kind? His face appear no more?

7 Will he forever cast me off? His promise ever fail? Hath he forgot his tender love?

Shall anger still prevail? 8 But I forbid this hopeless thought, This dark, despairing frame. Remembering what thy hand hath wrought; Thy hand is still the same.

9 I'll think again of all thy ways, And talk thy wonders o'er;

Thy wonders of recovering grace, When flesh could hope no more. 10 Grace dwells with justice on the throne;

And men that love thy word, Have in thy sanctuary known The counsels of the Lord.

281 PSALM 3. C. M. Irish, Abridge.

Doubts and fears suppressed; or, God our defeats from ein and Satan.

MY God, how many are my fears! How fast my foes increase! Conspiring my eternal death, They break my present peace.

2 The lying tempter would persuade There's no relief in heaven: And all my swelling sins appear Too big to be forgiven.

3 But thou, my glory and my strength, Shalt on the tempter tread, Shalt silence all my threatening guilt, And raise my drooping head.

4 [I cry'd; and from his holy hill He bow'd a listening ear I call'd my Father and my God,

And he subdued my fear. 5 He shed soft slumbers on mine eyes. In spite of all my foes;

I 'woke, and wonder'd at the grace, That guarded my repose.]

6 What though the hosts of death and hell All arm'd against me stood!

Terrors no more shall shake my soul; My refuge is my God.

7 Arise, O Lord, fulfil thy grace, While I thy glory sing:

My God hath broke the serpent's teeth, And death has lost his sting.

8 Salvation to the Lord belongs; His arm alone can save; Blessings attend thy people here, And reach beyond the grave.

HUMILITY.

Hymn 131. B. 1. L. M. 282 Castle Street, All Saints.

The pharisee and publican. BEHOLD how sinners disagree, The publican and pharisee; One doth his righteousness proclaim; The other owns his guilt and shame.

2 This man at humble distance stands, And cries for grace with lifted hands; That, boldly rises near the throne, And talks of duties he has done.

3 The Lord their different language knows, And different answers he bestows; The humble soul with grace he crowns, While on the proud his anger frowns.

4 Dear Father, let me never be Join'd with the boasting pharisee; I have no merits of my own, But plead the sufferings of thy Son.

Psalm 131. C. M. 283 Dedham, Mear. Humility and submission.

Is there ambition in my heart? Search, gracious God, and see; Or do I act a haughty part? Lord, I appeal to thee.

21 charge my thoughts, be humble still, And all my carriage mild; Content, my Father, with thy will, And quiet as a child.

3The patient soul, the lowly mind Shall have a large reward: Let saints in sorrow lie resign'd, And trust a faithful Lord.

JOY AND REJOICING.

284 PSALM 18. 3d Part. L. M.
Antigua, Hague.
Rejoicing in God; or, salvation and triumph.

JUST are thy ways, and true thy word, Great Rock of my secure abode: Who is a God, beside the Lord? Or where's a refuge like our God? 2 Tis he that girds me with his might, Gives me his holy sword to wield And, while with sin and hell I fight,. Spreads his salvation for my shield. 3He lives, (and blessed be my Rock)

The God of my salvation lives: The dark designs of hell he broke: Sweet is the peace my Father gives,

4 Before the scoffers of the age I will exalt my Father's name; Nor tremble at their mighty rage, But meet reproach, and bear the shame.

5 To David and his royal seed Thy grace forever shall extend; Thy love to saints, in Christ their head, Knows not a limit, nor an end.

Hymn 57. B. 2. L. M. 285Eaton, All Saints, Ward.

The pleasures of a good conscience.

ORD, how secure and blest are they Who feel the joys of pardon'd sin! Should storms of wrath shake earth and

Their minds have heaven and peace within.

2 The day glides sweetly o'er their heads, Made up of innocence and love: And soft and silent as the shades, Their nightly minutes gently move.

3 [Quick as their thoughts their joys come But fly not half so fast away! Their souls are ever bright as noon, And calm as summer evenings be.

4 How oft they look to th' heavenly hills. Where groves of living pleasure grow! And longing hopes and cheerful smiles Sit undisturb'd upon their brow.]

 $5\,\mathrm{They}$ scorn to seek our golden toys ; But spend the day and share the night In numbering o'er the richer joys,

That heaven prepares for their delight. 6While wretched we, like worms and moles, Lie grov'ling in the dust below: Almighty grace, renew our souls, And we'll aspire to glory too.

HYMN 73. B. 2. C. M. 286 Braintree, Lanesboro'.

Doubts scattered; or, spiritual joys restored. ENCE from my soul, sad thoughts, be gone,

And leave me to my joys, My tongue shall triumph in my God, And make a joyful noise,

2 Darkness and doubts had veil'd my mind, And drown'd my head in tears, Till sovereign grace, with shining rays, Dispell'd my gloomy fears.

30! what immortal joys I felt, And raptures all divine-When Jesus told me — I was his, And my Beloved, mine!

4 In vain the tempter frights my soul, And breaks my peace in vain; One glimpse, dear Saviour, of thy face, Revives my joys again.

287 Hymn 59. B. 2. C. M.

Irish, Arundel.

Puradise on earth.

GLORY to God, who walks the sky, And sends his blessings through; Who tells his saints of joys on high, And gives a taste below.

2 [Glory to God, who stoops his throne, That dust and worms may see't, And brings a glimpse of glory down Around his sacred feet.

3 When Christ, with all his graces crown'd, Sheds his kind beams abroad, 'Tis a young heaven on earthly ground,

And glory in the bud.

4 A blooming paradise of joy In this wild desert springs;
And every sense I straight employ
On sweet celestial things.

5 White lilies all around appear, And each his glory shows! The Rose of Sharon blossoms here, The fairest flower that blows.

6 Cheerful I feast on heavenly fruit, And drink the pleasures down; Pleasures that flow hard by the foot Of the eternal throne!

7 But ah! how soon my joys decay; How soon my sins arise, And snatch the heavenly scene away From these lamenting eyes.

8 When shall the time, dear Jesus, when The shining day appear, That I shall leave these clouds of sin,

And guilt, and darkness here?
9 Up to the fields above the skies,
My hasty feet would go;
There everlasting flowers arise,
And joys unwithering grow.

288 Hymn 30. B. 2. S. M. St. Thomas, Silver-Street.

Heavenly joy on earth.

COME, we that love the Lord, And let our joys be known, Join in a song with sweet accord, And thus surround the throne.

2 The sorrows of the mind Be banish'd from the place! Religion never was design'd To make our pleasures less.]

3 Let those refuse to sing, That never knew our God; But favourites of the heavenly King May speak their joys abroad.

4 [The God that rules on high; And thunders when he please, That rides upon the stormy sky, And manages the seas—]

5 This awful God is our's,
Our Father, and our love
He shall send down his heavenly powers
To carry us above.

6 There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in.

Yes, and before we rise
 To that immortal state,

 The thoughts of such amazing bliss
 Should constant joys create.

8 [The men of grace have found Glory begun below; Celestial fruits on earthly ground From faith and hope may grow.]

9 [The hill of Zion yields A thousand sacred sweets, Before we reach the heavenly fields, Or walk the golden streets.

10 Then let our songs abound, And every tear be dry; We're marching through Immanuel's ground To fairer worlds on high.]

KNOWLEDGE.

289 PSALM 25. 2d Part. S. M. Sutton, Froome.

Divine instruction,

WHERE shall the man be found That fears t' offend his God; That loves the gospel's joyful sound. And trembles at the rod?

2 The Lord shall make him knew. The secrets of his heart, The wonders of his covenant show, And all his love impart.

3 The dealings of his hand Are truth and mercy still, With such as in his covenant stand, And love to do his will.

4 Their souls shall dwell at ease Before their Maker's face; Their seed shall taste the promises In their extensive grace.

290 PSALM 119. 9th Part. C. M. # Arundel, Kingston, Hymn 2d.
Desire of knowledge; or, the teachings of the Spirit with the word.

THY mercies fill the earth, O Lord, How good thy works appear! Open mine eyes to read thy word, And see thy wonders there.

2 My heart was fashion'd by thy hand, My service is thy due; O make thy servant understand The duties he must do.

3 Since I'm a stranger here below,
Let not thy path be hid;
But mark the road my feet should go,
And be my constant guide.

4 When I confess'd my wandering ways,
Thou heard'st my soul complain;
Grant me the teachings of thy grace,
Or I shall stray again.
Verses 33, 34.

5 If God to me his statutes show, And heavenly truth impart, His work forever I'll pursue, His law shall rule my heart.

6 This was my comfort when I bore Variety of grief;

It made me learn thy word the more, And fly to that relief.

7 [In vain the proud deride me now;
I'll ne'er forget thy law;
Nor let that blessed gospel go,

Whence all my hopes I draw.

Veres 27, 171.

8 When I have learn'd my Father's will,
I'll teach the world his ways:
My thankful lips, inspir'd with zeal,
Shall loud pronounce his praise.]

LIBERALITY.

PSALM 37. 2d Part. C. M. b
Barby, St. Ann's.

Charity to the poor; or, religion in words and deeds.

WHY do the wealthy wicked boast,
And grow profanely bold?

The meanest portion of the just
Excels the sinner's gold.

The wicked borrows of his friends,
But ne'er designs to pay;
The saint is merciful, and lends,

Nor turns the poor away.

3 His alms with liberal heart he gives
Among the sons of need;
His memory to long area lives

His memory to long ages lives, And blessed is his seed. # 4 His lips abhor to talk profane,
To slander or defraud;
His ready tongue declares to men
What he has learn'd of God.

5 The law and gospel of the Lord Deep in his heart abide; Led by the Spirit and the word, His feet shall never slide.

6 When sinners fall, the righteous stand,
Preserved from every snare;
They shall possess the promised land,
And dwell forever there.

PSALM 41. L. M.

Antigua, Tallis' Evening Hymn.

Charity to the poor; or, pity to the afficied.

BLEST is the man, whose bowels move,
And melt with pity to the poor;
Whose soul by sympathizing love,
Feels what his fellow saints endure.

2 His heart contrives for their relief More good than his own hands can do; He, in the time of general grief, Shall find the Lord has bowels too.

3 His soul shall live secure on earth, With secret blessings on his head, When drought, and pestilence, and dearth Around him multiply their dead.

4 Or, if he languish on his couch, God will pronounce his sins forgiven, Will save him with a healing touch, Or take his willing soul to heaven.

PSALM 112. L. P. M.
Brooklyn, St. Hellens.
The blessings of the liberal man.

THAT man is blest, who stands in awe
Of God, and loves his sacred law;
His seed on earth shall be renown'd;
His house, the seat of wealth, shall be
An inexhausted treasury,

And with successive honours crown'd. 2 His liberal favours he extends, To some he gives, to others lends:

A generous pity fills his mind: Yet what his charity impairs, He saves by prudence in affairs,

And thus he's just to all mankind. 3 His hands, while they his alms bestow'd, His glory's future harvest sow'd:

The sweet remembrance of the just, Like a green root, revives and bears A train of blessings for his heirs,

When dying nature sleeps in dust.

4 Beset with threatening dangers round,
Unmov'd shall he maintain his ground;
His conscience holds his courage up:

The soul that's fill'd with virtue's light | 4 In times of general distress Shines brightest in affliction's night; And sees in darkness beams of hope. PAUSE.

5 [Ill tidings never can surprise His heart, that fix'd on God relies.

The waves and tempests roar around; Safe on a rock he sits, and sees The shipwreck of his enemies And all their hope and glory drown'd.

6 The wicked shall his triumph see, And gnash their teeth in agony, To find their expectations cross'd:

They and their envy, pride and spite, Sink down to everlasting night, And all their names in darkness lost.]

PSALM 112. L. M. 294 Slade, Nantwich.

The blessings of the pious and charitable. PHRICE happy man, who fears the Lord.

Loves his commands, and trusts his word; Honour and peace his days attend, And blessings to his seed descend.

2 Compassion dwells upon his mind. To works of mercy still inclined; He lends the poor some present aid, Or gives them, not to be repaid.

3 When times grow dark, and tidings spread, That fill his neighbours round with dread, His heart is arm'd against the fear, For God, with all his power, is there.

4 His soul, well fix'd upon the Lord, Draws heavenly courage from his word; Amidst the darkness, light shall rise, To cheer his heart, and bless his eyes.

5 He hath dispersed his alms abroad, His works are still before his God: His name on earth shall long remain, While envious sinners fret in vain.

PSALM 112. C. M. 295Rochester, Mear. Liberality rewarded.

HAPPY is he that fears the Lord, And follows his commands; Who lends the poor without reward, Or gives with liberal hands.

2 As pity dwells within his breast To all the sons of need; So God shall answer his request,

With blessings on his seed.

3 No evil tidings shall surprise His well-establish'd mind: His soul to God, his Refuge, flies, And leaves his fears behind.

Some beams of light shall shine, To show the world his righteousness. And give him peace divine.

5 His works of piety and love Remain before the Lord; Honour on earth, and joys above, Shall be his sure reward.

HYMN 38. B. 2. C. M. 296 York, Braintree. Love to God.

HAPPY the heart where graces reign, Where love inspires the breast; Love is the brightest of the train, And strengthens all the rest.

2 Knowledge, alas! 'tis all in vain, And all in vain our fear;

Our stubborn sins will fight and reign, If love be absent there.

3 'Tis love that makes our cheerful feet In swift obedience move: The devils know, and tremble too;

But Satan cannot love. 4 This is the grace that lives and sings,

When faith and hope shall cease; Tis this shall strike our joyful strings, In the sweet realms of bliss.

5 Before we quite forsake our clay, Or leave this dark abode, The wings of love bear us away To see our smiling God.

Hymn 42. B. 2. C. M. 297 Peterboro', Bethlehem, Salem Delight in God.

2 The swallow near thy temple lies, And chirps a cheerful note: The lark mounts upward to the skies, And tunes her warbling throat ≻

3 And we, when in thy presence, Lord, We shout with joyful tongues; Or, sitting round our Father's board, We crown the feast with songs.

4 While Jesus shines with quick'ning grace We sing, and mount on high; But, if a frown becloud his face,

We faint, and tire, and die. 5 [Just as we see the lonesome down Bemoan her widow'd state.

Wandering, she flies through all the gross, And mourns her loving mate:

6 Just so our thoughts, from thing to thing, | 4 Tender and kind be all our thoughts: In restless circles rove: Just so we droop, and hang the wing, When Jesus hides his love.]

Hymn 108. B. 1. S. M. 298 Paddington, Watchman Christ unscen and beloved.

NOT with our mortal eyes Have we beheld the Lord; Yet we rejoice to hear his name, And love him in his word.

2 On earth we want the sight Of our Redeemer's face; Yet, Lord, our inmost thoughts delight To dwell upon thy grace.

3 And when we taste thy love, Our joys divinely grow Unspeakable, like those above, And heaven begins below.

PSALM 133. C. M. 299 Barby, Abridge. Brotherly love.

L⁰, what an entertaining sight Are brethren that agree! Brethren, whose cheerful hearts unite In bands of piety!

2 What streams of love, from Christ the Descend to every soul, spring, And heavenly peace, with balmy wing, Shades and bedews the whole:—

3 Tis like the oil, divinely sweet, On Aaron's reverend head The trickling drops perfum'd his feet, And o'er his garments spread.

4 Tis pleasant as the morning dews That fall on Zion's hill, Where God his mildest glory shows, And makes his grace distil.

HYMN 130. B. 1. L. M. 300 Quito, Dresden. Love and hatred.

NOW by the bowels of my God, His sharp distress, his sore complaints, By his last groans, his dying blood, I charge my soul to love the saints.

ь

2 Clamour, and wrath, and war be gone, Envy and spite forever cease; Let bitter words no more be known Among the saints, the sons of peace.

3 The Spirit, like a peaceful dove, Flies from the realms of noise and strife; Why should we vex and grieve his love, Who seals our souls to heavenly life!

Through all our lives let mercy run: So God forgives our numerous faults, For the dear sake of Christ his Son.

HYMN 126. B. 1. L. M. 301 # Rothwell, Stonefield.

Charity and uncharitableness.

OT different food nor different dress Compose the kingdom of our Lord, But peace and joy and righteousness, Faith, and obedience to his word.

2 When weaker Christians we despise. We do the gospel mighty wrong For God, the gracious and the wise, Receives the feeble with the strong.

3 Let pride and wrath be banish'd hence. Meekness and love our souls pursue: Nor shall our practice give offence To saints, the Gentile or the Jew.

Hymn 133. B. 1. 302 Dundee, Medfield.

Love and charity. ET Pharisees of high esteem Their faith and zeal declare, All their religion is a dream, If love be wanting there.

2 Love suffers long with patient eye, Nor is provoked in haste; She lets the present injury die,

And long forgets the past. 3 [Malice and rage, those fires of hell, She quenches with her tongue; Hopes, and believes, and thinks no ill, Though she endures the wrong.]

4 [She ne'er desires nor seeks to know The scandals of the time: Nor looks with pride on those below, Nor envies those that climb.]

5 She lays her own advantage by, To seek her neighbour's good So God's own Son came down to die,

And bought our lives with blood. 6 Love is the grace that keeps her power In all the realms above;

There faith and hope are known no more But saints forever love.

PSALM 35. 2d Part. C. M. 303 Abridge, Lanesboro'.

Love to enemies; or, the love of Christ to sinners typified in David.

BEHOLD the love, the generous love, That holy David shows; Hark, how his sounding bowels move To his afflicted foes!

2 When they are sick, his soul complains, And seems to feel the smart; The spirit of the gospel reigns,

And melts his pious heart.

3 How did his flowing tears condole,
As for a brother dead!

And fasting, mortify'd his soul, While for their life he pray'd.

4 They groan'd, and curs'd him on their bed, Yet still he pleads and mourns; And double blessings on his head The righteous God returns.

5 O glorious type of heavenly grace! Thus Christ the Lord appears; While sinners curse, the Saviour prays, And pities them with tears.

6 He, the true David, Israel's King, Blest and beloved of God, To save us rebels, dead in sin, Paid his own dearest blood.

PSALM 109. C. M.
Bedford, Litchfield.

Love to enomies, from the example of Christ.

GOD of my mercy and my praise,
Thy glory is my song:
Though sinners speak against thy grace,
With a blaspheming tongue.

2 When in the form of mortal man Thy Son on earth was found, With cruel slanders, false, and vain, They compass'd him around.

3 Their miseries his compassion move, Their peace he still pursued; They render hatred for his love, And evil for his good.

4 Their malice raged without a cause, Yet, with his dying breath,

He pray'd for murderers on his cross, And blest his foes in death.

5 Lord, shall thy bright example shine In vain before mine eyes?

Give me a soul a-kin to thine,

To love mine enemies.

The Lord shall on my side enga

6 The Lord shall on my side engage, And in my Saviour's name I shall defeat their pride and rage, Who slander and condemn.

305 Hymn 134. B. 1. L. M.

Danvers, Wells.

Religion vain without love.

HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews And nobler speech than angels use, If love be absent, I am found Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.

2 Were I inspired to preach and tell All that is done in heaven and hell; Or could my faith the world remove, Still I am nothing without love.

3 Should I distribute all my store,
To feed the bowels of the poor;
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name;

4 If love to God, and love to men Be absent, all my hopes are vain! Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal, The works of love can e'er fulfil.

PRUDENCE.

306 PSALM 39. 1st Part. C. M.

Watchfulness over the tongue; or, prudence and real
THUS I resolv'd before the Lord,
'Now will I watch my tongue,
'Lest I let slip one sinful word,

'Or do my neighbour wrong.'

2 And if I'm e'er constrain'd to stay,
With men of lives profane,
I'll set a double guard that day,
Nor let my talk be vain.

Nor let my talk be vain.

3 I'll scarce allow my lips to speak
The pious thoughts I feel,
Lest scoffers should the occasion take

To mock my holy zeal.

4 Yet if some proper hour appear.
I'll not be over-awed,
But let the scoffing sinners hear
That I can speak for God.

REPENTANCE.

307 HYMN 123. B. 1. C. M. Franklin, Canterbury.

The repenting produgal.

BEHOLD the wretch, whose lust and Had wasted his estate; [wine He begs a share among the swine, To taste the husks they eat!

2'I die with hunger here,' he cries,
'l starve in foreign lands;

'My father's house has large supplies
'And bounteous are his hands.

3'I'll go, and with a mournful tongue 'Fall down before his face;

'Father, I've done thy justice wrong, 'Nor can deserve thy grace.'

4 He said—and hastened to his home,
To seek his father's love;
The father new the rebel come

The father saw the rebel come, And all his bowels move.

5 He ran, and fell upon his neck, Embraced and kiss'd his son; The rebel's heart with sorrow brake, For follies he had done. 6 Take off his clothes of shame and sin, 210, HYMN 106. B. 2. (The father gives command)

'Dress him in garments white and clean, 'With rings adorn his hand.

7' A day of feasting I ordain; 'Let mirth and joy abound;

'My son was dead, and lives again, 'Was lost, and now is found.

308 PSALM 51. 2d Part. C. M. Ferry, Windsor.

Repentance, and faith in the blood of Christ. GOD of mercy, hear my call, My load of guilt remove; Break down this separating wall That bars me from thy love.

2 Give me the presence of thy grace; Then my rejoicing tongue

Shall speak aloud thy righteousness, And make thy praise my song.

3 No blood of goats, nor heifers slain, For sin could e'er atone; The death of Christ shall still remain Sufficient and alone.

4 A soul oppress'd with sin's desert, My God will ne'er despise; A humble groan, a broken heart, Is our best sacrifice.

Hymn 74. B. 2. S. M. Ь 309 Little Marlboro', Olmutz.

Repentance from a sense of divine goodness; or, a complaint of ingratitude.

S this the kind return. And these the thanks we owe, Thus to abuse eternal love,

Whence all our blessings flow? 2 To what a stubborn frame Has sin reduced our mind! What strange rebellious wretches we,

And God as strangely kind! On us he bids the sun Shed his reviving rays; For us the skies their circles run, To lengthen out our days.

4 The brutes obey their God, And bow their necks to men;

But we, more base, more brutish things, Reject his easy reign.

5 Turn, turn us, mighty God, And mould our souls afresh;

Break, sovereign grace, these hearts of And give us hearts of flesh. [stone,

6 Let old ingratitude Provoke our weeping eyes; And bourly, as new mercies fall, Let hourly thanks arise.

C. M. Haarlem, York.

Repentance at the cross.

O IF my soul was form'd for wo, How would I vent my sighs; Repentance should like rivers flow From both my streaming eyes.

2 Twas for my sins, my dearest Lord Hung on the cursed tree,

And groan'd away a dying life For thee, my soul, for thee.

30! how I hate those lusts of mine That crucified my God; Those sins that pierc'd and nail'd his flesh

Fast to the fatal wood.

4 Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die; My heart has so decreed; Nor will I spare the guilty things That made my Saviour bleed.

5 While, with a melting, broken heart,
My murder'd Lord I view,

I'll raise revenge against my sins, And slay the murderers too.

HYMN 9. B. 2. C. M. Mear, Burford. 311

Godly sorrow arising from the sufferings of Christ. LAS! and did my Saviour bleed! And did my Sovereign die?

Would he devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

2 Thy body slain, sweet Jesus, thine, And bath'd in its own blood, While, all expos'd to wrath divine, The glorious Sufferer stood!

3 Was it for crimes that I had done, He groan'd upon the tree? Amazing pity, grace unknown! And love beyond degree!

4 Well might the sun in darkness hide, And shut his glories in, When God, the mighty Maker, died, For man, the creature's sin.

5 Thus might I hide my blushing face, While his dear cross appears, Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,

And melt mine eyes in tears. 6 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:

Here, Lord, I give myself away; Tis all that I can do.

Hymn 101. B. 1. L. M. 312Truro, Shoel, Sabaoth.

Joy in heaven for a repenting sinner. 7HO can describe the joys that rise, Through all the courts of paradise, To see a prodigal return,
To see an heir of glory born?
2 With joy the Father doth approve
The fruit of his eternal love;
The Son with joy looks down and sees
The purchase of his agonies.
3 The Spirit takes delight to view
The holy soul he form'd anew;
And saints and angels join to sing
The growing empire of their King.

RESIGNATION.

313 Psalm 123. C. M. # or b

Pleading with submission.

THOU, whose grace and justice reign, Enthroned above the skies,
To thee our hearts would tell their pain,
To thee we lift our eyes.

2 As servants watch their master's hand, And fear the angry stroke; Or maids before their mistress stand, And wait a peaceful look;

3 So for our sins we justly feelThy discipline, O God;Yet wait the gracious moment still,Till thou remove thy rod.

4 Those, who in wealth and pleasure live, Our daily groans deride, And thy delays of mercy give Fresh courage to their pride.

5 Our foes insult us, but our hope In thy compassion lies; This thought shall bear our spirits up, That God will not despise.

314 HYMN 129. B. 1. L. M. #
Danvers, Shoel.
Submission and deliverance; or, Abraham effering
his son.

SAINTS, at your heavenly Father's word,
Give up your comforts to the Lord;
He shall restore what you resign,
Or grant you blessings more divine.
2 So Abrah'm, with obedient hand,
Led forth his son at God's command;
The wood, the fire, the knife he took;

His arm prepared the dreadful stroke.
3' Abrah'm, forbear,' the angel cry'd;
'Thy faith is known, thy love is try'd;
'Thy son shall live, and in thy seed

'Thy son shall live, and in thy seed 'Shall the whole earth be blest indeed.' 4 Just in the last distressing hour

The Lord displays delivering power;
The mount of danger is the place
Where we shall see surprising grace.

315 Hymn 5. B. 1. C. M. Bangor, Lebanon.

NAKED as from the earth we came, And crept to life at first, We to the earth return again, And mingle with our dust.

2 The dear delights we here enjoy, And fondly call our own, Are but short favours borrow'd now, To be repaid anon.

3 Tis God that lifts our comforts high, Or sinks them in the grave; He gives, and (blessed be his name!) He takes but what he gave.

4 Peace, all our angry passions, then; Let each rebellious sigh

Be silent at his sovereign will, And every murmur die.

5 If smiling mercy crown our lives, Its praises shall be spread; And we'll adore the justice too, That strikes our comforts dead.

SINCERITY.

316 HYMN 136. B. 1. C. M. #
Mear, Bedford.

Sincerity and hypocrisy; or, formality in worship.

OD is a spirit, just and time.

He sees our inmost mind;

In vain to heaven we raise our cries,

And leave our souls behind.

2 Nothing but truth before his throne With honour can appear;

The painted hypocrites are known Through the disguise they wear. 3 Their lifted eyes salute the skies,

Their bending knees the ground; But God abhors the sacrifice Where not the heart is found.

4 Lord, search my thoughts, and try my ways,

And make my soul sincere;
Then shall I stand before thy face,
And find acceptance there.

317 PSALM 50. 3d Part. L. M. b.
Medway, Dresden, Wells.
Hypocrisy exposed.

THE Lord, the Judge, his churches warns,

Let hypocrites attend and fear, Who place their hope in rites and forms, But make not faith nor love their care. 2 Vile wretches dare rehearse his name

With lips of falsehood and deceit:
A friend or brother they defame,
And soothe and flatter those they hate.

3 They watch to do their neighbours wrong, Yet dare to seek their Maker's face; They take his covenant on their tongue, But break his laws, abuse his grace.

4 To heaven they lift their hands unclean, Defiled with lust, defiled with blood; By night they practise every sin, By day their mouths draw near to God.

5 And while his judgments long delay, They grow secure, and sin the more; They think he sleeps as well as they, And put far off the dreadful hour.

6 O dreadful hour, when God draws near, And sets their crimes before their eyes; His wrath their guilty souls shall tear, And no deliverer dare to rise.

318 Psalm 119. 3d Part. C. M. #
Mear, Great Milton, Dundee.

Professions of sincerity, repentance and obedience.

Verses 57, 60.

THOU art my portion, O my God; Soon as I know thy way, My heart makes haste t' obey thy word, And suffers no delay

And suffers no delay.

2 I choose the path of heavenly truth, And glory in my choice; Not all the riches of the earth

Not all the riches of the eart Could make me so rejoice.

3 The testimonies of thy grace
I set before mine eyes:
Thence I derive my daily strength,

And there my comfort lies.

Verse 59.

4 If once I wander from thy path,
I think upon my ways;
Then turn my feet to thy commands,

And trust thy pardoning grace.

Vernes 84, 114.

Now I am thine, forever thine,
O save thy servant, Lord!

Thou art my shield, my hiding place,
My hope is in thy word.

6 Thou hast inclined this heart of mine Thy statutes to fulfil:
And thus, till mortal life shall end,
Would I perform thy will.

319 Psalm 139. 3d Part. L. M. b

Sincerity professed, and grace tried; or, the heartscarching God.

MY God, what inward grief I feel, When impious men transgress thy will! I mourn to hear their lips profane, Take thy tremendous name in vain.

2 Does not my soul detest and hate The sons of malice and deceit? Those that oppose thy laws and thee, I count them enemies to me.

3 Lord, search my soul, try ev'ry thought:
Though mine own heart accuse me not
Of walking in a false disguise,
I beg the trial of thine eyes.

A Doth search mischief luck within?

4 Doth secret mischief lurk within?
Do I indulge some unknown sin?
O turn my feet whene'er I stray,
And lead me in thy perfect way.

320 PSALM 18. 2d Part. L. M. Blendon, Dunstan.

Sincerity proved and rewarded.

ORD, thou hast seen my soul sincere, Hast made thy truth and love appear; Before mine eyes I set thy laws, And thou hast own'd my righteous cause.

2 Since I have learn'd thy holy ways, I've walk'd upright before thy face: Or, if my feet did e'er depart, 'Twas never with a wicked heart.

3 What sore temptations broke my rest, What wars and strugglings in my breast! But through thy grace that reigns within, I guard against my darling sin:

4 That sin, which close besets me still, That works and strives against my will; When shall thy Spirit's sovereign power Destroy it, that it rise no more?

5 [With an impartial hand, the Lord Deals out to mortals their reward; The kind and faithful soul shall find A God as faithful and as kind.

6 The just and pure shall ever say, Thou art more pure, more just than they: And men that love revenge shall know God hath an arm of vengeance too.]

TRUST AND CONFIDENCE.

321 PSALM 62. L. M. #
Hebron, Medway, Portugal.
No trust in creatures; or, faith in divine grace and

MY spirit looks to God alone, My rock and refuge is his throne:

In all my fears, in all my straits,
My soul on his salvation waits.
2 Trust him, ye saints, in all your ways,

2 Trust him, ye saints, in all your ways, Pour out your hearts before his face; When helpers fail, and foes invade, God is our all-sufficient aid.

3 False are the men of high degree, The baser sort are vanity; Laid in the balance, both appear Light as a puff of empty air. 4 Make not increasing gold your trust, Nor set your hearts on glittering dust; Why will ye grasp the fleeting smoke, And not believe what God has spoke?

5 Once has his awful voice declared, Once and again my ears have heard, 'All power is his eternal due;

'He must be fear'd and trusted too.'

6 For sovereign power reigns not alone, Grace is a partner of the throne; Thy grace and justice, mighty Lord, Shall well divide our last reward.

322 HYMN 103. B. 1. C. M. Devizes, Conway.

I'M not ashamed to own my Lord, Or to defend his cause, Maintain the honour of his word, The glory of his cross.

2 Jesus, my God! I know his name;His name is all my trust:Nor will he put my soul to shame,Nor let my hope be lost.

3 Firm as his throne his promise stands, And he can well secure

What I've committed to his hands Till the decisive hour.

4 Then will he own my worthless name Before his Father's face, And in the New Jerusalem Appoint my soul a place.

ADDRESSES TO THE HOLY SPIRIT.

323 Hymn 34. B. 2. `C. M. #

Breathing after the Holy Spirit; or, fervency of devotion desired.

COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers, Kindle a flame of sacred love In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look how we grovel here below, Fond of these trifling toys:Our souls can neither fly nor go, To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs, In vain we strive to rise; Hosannas languish on our tongues, And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live At this poor dying rate? Our love so faint, so cold to thee,

And thine to us so great?

Come. Holy Spirit, heavenly Doy

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers; Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love, And that shall kindle ours. 324 HYMN 133. B, 2. L. M. Ellenthorpe, Truro.

The operations of the Holy Spirit.

TERNAL Spirit, we confess,
And sing the wonders of thy grace;
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father, and the Son.

2 Enlighten'd by thine heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day:
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory works within, And breaks the chains of reigning sin; Doth our imperious lusts subdue, And forms our wretched hearts anew.

4 The troubled conscience knows thy voice; Thy cheering words awake our joys; Thy words allay the stormy wind, And calm the surges of the mind.

325 HYMN 144. B. 1. C. M. Bedford, Arlington.

The witnessing and sealing Spirit.
WHY should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter, descend, and bring
Some tokens of thy grace.

2 Dost thou not dwell in all the maints, And seal the heirs of heaven? When wilt thou banish my complaints, And show my sins forgiven?

3 Assure my conscience of her part In the Redeemer's blood; And bear thy witness with my heart, That I am born of God.

4 Thou art the earnest of his love, The pledge of joys to come; And thy soft wings, celestial Dove, Will safe convey me home.

326 HYMN 23. B. 2. L. M. Shoel, Uxbridge, Danvers.

The sight of God and Christ in heaven.

DESCEND from heaven, immortal Dove,
Stoop down, and take us on thy wings;
And mount, and bear us far above

2 Beyond, beyond this lower sky, Up where eternal ages roll; Where solid pleasures never die, And fruits immortal feast the soul.

The reach of these inferior things:

3 O for a sight, a pleasing sight Of our Almighty Father's throne! There sits our Saviour, crown'd with light Cloth'd in a body like our own. 4 Adoring saints around him stand,
And thrones and powers before him fall!
The God shines gracious through the man,
And sheds sweet glories on them all!
50 what amazing joys they feel,
While to their golden harps they sing,
And sit on every heavenly hill,
And spread the triumphs of their King!
6 When shall the day, dear Lord, appear,
That I shall mount, to dwell above;
And stand and bow among them there,
And view thy face, and sing, and love?

CHRISTIAN.

327 PSALM 51. 1st Part. L. M. Hebron, Dresden.

A penitent pleading for pardon.

HOW pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 My crimes are great, but not surpass The power and glory of thy grace: Great God, thy nature hath no bound, So let thy pardoning love be found.

30 wash my soul from every sin, And make my guilty conscience clean; Here on my heart the burden lies, And past offences pain mine eyes.

4 My lips with shame my sins confess, Against thy law, against thy grace: Lord, should thy judgment grow severe, I am condemn'd, but thou art clear.

58hould sudden vengeance seize my breath, I must pronounce thee just in death: And if my soul were sent to hell, Thy righteous law approves it well.

6 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

328 PSALM 25. 1st Part. S. M. b

Waiting for pardon and direction.

I LIFT my soul to God,
My trust is in his name:
Let not my foes, that seek my blood,
Still triumph in my shame.

2 Sin and the powers of hell Persuade me to despair; Lord, make me know thy covenant well, That I may 'scape the snare.

3 From the first dawning light Till the dark evening rise,

For thy salvation, Lord, I wait With ever longing eyes.

4 Remember all thy grace, And lead me in thy truth; Forgive the sins of riper days, And follies of my youth.

5 The Lord is just and kind:
The meek shall learn his ways;
And every humble sinner find
The methods of his grace.

6 For his own goodness' sake
He saves my soul from shame;
He pardons (though my guilt be great)
Through my Redeemer's name.

329 HYMN 48. B. 2. C. M. Bedford, Dedham.

HOW vain are all things here below!
How false, and yet how fair!
Each pleasure hath its poison too,
And every sweet a snare.

2 The brightest things below the sky Give but a flattering light; We should suspect some danger nigh,

Where we possess delight.

3 Our dearest joys, and nearest friends,

The partners of our blood, How they divide our wavering minds, And leave but half for God.

4 The fondness of a creature's love, How strong it strikes the sense! Thither the warm affections move, Nor can we call them thence.

5 Dear Saviour, let thy beauties be My soul's eternal food; And grace command my heart away From all created good.

330 Hymn 41. B. 2. L. M. Nantwich, Ward.

A sight of God mortifies us to the world.

P to the fields where angels lie,
And living waters gently roll,
Fain would my thoughts leap out and fly,
But sin hangs heavy on my soul.

2 Thy wondrous blood, dear dying Christ, Can make this world of guilt remove; And thou canst bear me where thou fly'st, On thy kind wings, celestial Dove.

3 O might I once mount up, and see
The glories of th' eternal skies;
What little things these worlds would be,
How despicable to my eyes!

4 Had I a glance of thee, my God, Kingdoms and men would vanish soon; Vanish, as though I saw them not, As a dim candle dies at noon. 5 Then they might fight, and rage and rave, I should perceive the noise no more Than we can hear a shaking leaf, While rattling thunders round us roar.

6 Great All in All, eternal King, Let me but view thy lovely face, And all my powers shall bow, and sing Thine endless grandeur, and thy grace.

331 HYMN 10. B. 2. C. M. b or #

MY soul forsakes her vain delight, And bids the world farewell; Base as the dirt beneath my feet, And mischievous as hell.

2 No longer will I ask your love, Nor seek your friendship more; The happiness that I approve Lies not within your power.

3 There's nothing round this spacious earth
That suits my large desire;
To boundless joy and solid mirth
My nobler thoughts aspire.

4 [Where pleasure rolls its living flood, From sin and dross refined, Still springing from the throne of God,

And fit to cheer the mind.

5 The Almighty Ruler of the sphere,
The glorious and the great.

The glorious and the great,
Brings his own all-sufficience there,
To make our bliss complete.]

6 Had I the pinions of a dove,
I'd climb the heavenly road;
There sits my Saviour, dress'd in love,
And there my smiling God.

332 Hymn 11. B. 2. L. M. # or b All Saints, Park Street, Putney.

I SEND the joys of earth away:
Away, ye tempters of the mind,
False as the smooth, deceitful sea,
And empty as the whistling wind.
2 Your streams were floating me along

2 Your streams were floating me along Down to the gulf of black despair; And, while I listen'd to your song, Your streams had e'en convey'd me there.

3 Lord, I adore thy matchless grace, That warn'd me of that dark abyss; That drew me from those treacherous seas,

And bade me seek superior bliss.

4 Now to the shining realms above
I stretch my hands, and glance mine eyes;
O for the pinions of a dove,
To bear me to the upper skies.

5 There, from the bosom of my God, Oceans of endless pleasure roll; There would I fix my last abode, And drown the sorrows of my soul.

333 PSALM 119. 15th Part. C. M. #

Holy resolutions.

O THAT thy statutes, every hour, Might dwell upon my mind!
Thence I derive a quickening power, And daily peace I find.

Vende 15, 16.

2 To meditate thy precepts, Lord, Shall be my sweet employ; My soul shall ne'er forget thy word, Thy word is all my joy.

3 How would I run in thy commands,
If thou my heart discharge
From sin, and Satan's hateful chains,

And set my feet at large!

Verses 13, 46.

4 My lips with courage shall declare

Thy statutes and thy name;

I'll speak thy word, though kings should

I'll speak thy word, though kings should Nor yield to sinful shame. [hear, yenes 61, 69, 70. 5 Let bands of persecutors rise

To rob me of my right; Let pride and malice forge their lies, Thy law is my delight.

6 Depart from me, ye wicked race, Whose hands and hearts are ill; I love my God, I love his ways, And must obey his will.

334 Hymn 106. B. 1. S. M. St. Thomas, Sutton.

Dead to sin by the cross of Christ.

SHALL we go on to sin,
Because thy grace abounds;
Or crucify the Lord again,
And open all his wounds?

2 Forbid it, mighty God! Nor let it e'er be said, That we, whose sins are crucified, Should raise them from the dead.

3 We will be slaves no more, Since Christ has made us free, Has nail'd our tyrants to his cross, And bought our liberty.

335 Hymn 81. B. 2. C. M. # orb

Our sin the cause of Christ's death.

A ND now the scales have left mine eyes,
Now I begin to see:
O the curs'd deeds my sins have done!
What murderous things they be!

2 Were these the traitors, dearest Lord, That thy fair body tore?

Monsters, that stain'd those heavenly limbs With floods of purple gore?

3 Was it for crimes that I had done, My dearest Lord was slain; When justice seized God's only Son, And put his soul to pain?

4 Forgive my guilt, O Prince of Peace!
I'll wound my God no more;
Hence from my heart, ye sins, be gone;

For Jesus I adore.

5 Furnish me, Lord, with heavenly arms
From grace's magazine,

And I'll proclaim eternal war With every darling sin.

336 Hymn 116. B. 2. C. M.
Christmas, Abridge.

Mercies and thanks.

HOW can I sink with such a prop As my eternal God, Who bears the earth's huge pillars up, And spreads the heavens abroad?

2 How can I die while Jesus lives, Who rose, and left the dead?

Pardon and grace my soul receives From mine exalted Head.

3 All that I am, and all I have Shall be forever thine; Whate'er my duty bids me give, My cheerful hands resign.

4 Yet if I might make some reserve, And duty did not call, I love my God with zeal so great, That I should give him all.

337 HYMN 140. B. 2. C. M. Barby, Abridge, Peterboro'.

The examples of Christ and the saints.

GIVE me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be!

2 Once they were mourning here below, And wet their couch with tears;

They wrestled hard, as we do now, With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came? They, with united breath,

Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb, Their triumph to his death.

4 They mark'd the footsteps that he trod,
(His zeal inspired their breast;)
And, following their incarnate God,
Possess'd the promised rest.

5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise, For his own pattern given; While the long cloud of witnesses Show the same path to heaven.

338 HYMN 48. B. 1. L. M. #
Truro, Dunstan.
The Christian race.

AWAKE, our souls; away, our fears, Let every trembling thought be gone! Awake, and run the heavenly race, And put a cheerful courage on.

2 True, 'tis a strait and thorny road, And mortal spirits tire and faint; But they forget the mighty God, That feeds the strength of every saint;

3 The mighty God, whose matchless power Is ever new, and ever young, And firm endures, while endless years Their everlasting circles run.

4 From thee, the overflowing spring, Our souls shall drink a fresh supply, While such as trust their native strength Shall melt away, and droop, and die.

5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air,
We'll mount aloft to thine abode;
On wings of love our souls shall fly,
Nor tire amidst the heavenly road.

339 HYMN 77. B. 2. L. M.
Blendon, Dunstan.
The Christian warfare.

STAND up my soul, shake off thy fears,
And gird the gospel armour on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where thy great Captain Saviour's gone.
2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course;
But hell and sin are vanquish'd foes;
Thy Jesus nail'd them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose.

3 [What though the prince of darkness rage, And waste the fury of his spite! Eternal chains confine him down To fiery deeps and endless night.

4 What though thine inward lusts rebel!
Tis but a struggling gasp for life;
The weapons of victorious grace
Shall slay thy sins, and end the strife.]

5 Then let my soul march boldly on; Press forward to the heavenly gate; There peace and joy eternal reign, And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

6 There shall I wear a starry crown, And triumph in almighty grace, While all the armies of the skies Join in my glorious Leader's praise. 340 PSALM 144. 1st Part. C. M. #

Resistance and victory in the opiritual warfare.

FOREVER blessed be the Lord,
My Saviour and my shield:
He sends his Spirit with his word,
To arm me for the field.

2 When sin and hell their force unite, He makes my soul his care, Instructs me to the heavenly fight.

Instructs me to the heavenly fight,
And guards me through the war.

3 A friend and helper so divine
Doth my weak courage raise;
He makes the glorious victory mine,
And his shall be the praise.

341 PSALM 119. 17th Part. L. M. b. Medway, Malden.

Courage and perseverance under persecution; er, grace shining in difficulties and trials.

Versee 143, 28.

WHEN pain and anguish seize me, Lord, All my support is from thy word; My soul dissolves for heaviness,

Uphold me with thy strength'ning grace.

Verses 51, 99, 110.

The proud have fram'd their scoffs and

They watch my feet with envious eyes, And tempt my soul to snares and sin; Yet thy commands I ne'er decline.

They hate me, Lord, without a cause, They hate to see me love thy laws;
But I will trust and fear thy name,
Till pride and malice die with shame.

342 PSALM 7. C. M. St. Ann's, Malden.
God's care of his people, and punishment of nersecuture.

MY trust is in my heavenly Friend, My hope in thee, my God; Rise, and my helpless life defend From those who seek my blood.

2 With insolence and fury they My soul in pieces tear, As hungry lions rend the prey, When no deliverer's near.

3If I had e'er provoked them first, Or once abused my foe, Then let him tread my life to dust,

Then let him tread my life to dust And lay mine honour low. If there be malice found in me,

I know thy piercing eyes;
I should not dare appeal to thee,
Nor ask my God to rise.

Arise, my God, lift up thy hand, Their pride and power control; Awake to judgment, and command Deliverance for my soul. PAUSE.

6 [Let sinners and their wicked rage Be humbled to the dust; Shall not the God of truth engage

To vindicate the just?

7 He knows the heart, he tries the reins, He will defend th' upright: His sharpest arrows he ordains

Against the sons of spite.

8 For me their malice digg'd a pit,
But there themselves are cast;
My God makes all their mischief liek

My God makes all their mischief light On their own heads at last.]

9 That cruel, persecuting race
Must feel his dreadful sword;
Awake, my soul, and praise the grace
And justice of the Lord.

343 PSALM 94. 2d Part. C. M. Bangor, Malden, Durham.

God our support and comfort; or deliverance from temptation and persecution.

WHO will arise and plead my right
Against my numerous foes?
While earth and hell their force unite,
And all my hopes oppose?

2 Had not the Lord, my rock, my help, Sustain'd my fainting head, My life had now in silence dwelt,

My life had now in silence dwelt, My soul among the dead. 3' Alas! my sliding feet,' I cry'd;

Thy promise was my prop: Thy grace stood constant by my side: Thy Spirit bore me up.

4 While multitudes of mournful thoughts
Within my bosom roll,

Thy boundless love forgives my faults, Thy comforts cheer my soul.

5 Powers of iniquity may rise,
And frame permicious laws;
But God, my refuge, rules the skies,
He will defend my cause.

6 Let malice vent her rage aloud, Let bold blasphemers scoff; The Lord our God shall judge the proud And cut the sinners off.

344 PSALM 16. 1st Part. C. M. #

Support and counsel from God, without merit.

SAVE me, O Lord, from every foe;
In thee my trust I place,
Though all the good that I can do
Can ne'er deserve thy grace.

2 Yet if my God prolong my breath, The saints may profit by't; The saints, the glory of the earth,
The men of my delight.

3 Let heathens to their idols haste, And worship wood, or stone; But my delightful lot is cast Where the true God is known.

4 His hand provides my constant food, He fills my daily cup; Much am I pleased with present good.

Much am I pleased with present good, But more rejoice in hope.

5God is my portion, and my joy! His counsels are my light: He gives me sweet advice by day, And gentle hints by night.

6 My soul would all her thoughts approve To his all-seeing eye; Not death nor hell my hopes shall move,

While such a friend is nigh.

345 PSALM 120. C. M. b York, St. Ann's, Litchfield. Complaint of quarrelsome neighbours; or, a devout

THOU God of love, thou ever blest,
Pity my suffering state;
When wilt thou set my soul at rest
From lips that love deceit?

2 Hard lot of mine! my days are cast Among the sons of strife, Whose never-ceasing brawlings waste

My golden hours of life.

30 might I fly to change my place,
How would I choose to dwell

In some wide, lonesome wilderness, And leave these gates of hell!

4Peace is the blessing that I seek; How lovely are its charms! I am for peace; but when I speak, They all declare for arms.

5 New passions still their souls engage, And keep their malice strong; What shall be done to curb thy race.

What shall be done to curb thy rage,
O thou devouring tongue?

6Should burning arrows smite thee through, Strict justice would approve; But I had rather spare my foe, And melt his heart with love.

PSALM 56. C. M. #
Mear, Christmas, Covington.

Delinerance from oppression and falsehood; or, God's care of his people, in ensuer to faith and grayer.

THOU, whose justice reigns on high, And makes the oppressor cease;

Behold how envious sinners try

To vex and break my peace.

2 The sons of violence and lies Join to devour me, Lord; But as my hourly dangers rise, My refuge is thy word.

3 In God most holy, just, and true, I have reposed my trust;

Nor will I fear what flesh can do, The offspring of the dust.

4 They wrest my words to mischief still, Charge me with unknown faults; Mischief doth all their counsels fill,

Mischief doth all their counsels fill, And malice all their thoughts. 5 Shall they escape without thy frown?

Must their devices stand?
O cast the haughty sinner down
And let him know thy hand!

PAUSE.
6 God counts the sorrows of his saints,
Their groans affect his ears;
Thou hast a book for my complaints,

Thou hast a book for my complaints,
A bottle for my tears.

7 When to thy throne I raise my cry,

The wicked fear and flee; So swift is prayer to reach the sky, So near is God to me.

8 In thee, most holy, just, and true, I have reposed my trust; Nor will I fear what man can do,

The offspring of the dust.

9 Thy solemn vows are on me, Lord,
Thou shalt receive my praise;
I'll sing, 'How faithful is thy word!

I'll sing, 'How faithful is thy word!
'How righteous all thy ways!'
10 Thou hast secur'd my soul from death!

O set thy prisoner free; That heart and hand, and life and breath May be employ'd for thee.

347 PSALM 31. 2d Part. C. M. #
Rochester, Dorchester, Nottingham.
Deliverance from slander and reproach.

MY heart rejoices in thy name, My God, my help, my trust; Thou hast preserved my face from shame, Mine honour from the dust.

2 'My life is spent with grief,' I cried, 'My years consumed in groans, 'My strength decays, mine eyes are dry'd,

'And sorrow wastes my bones.'
3 Among mine enemies, my name

Was a mere proverb grown, While to my neighbours I became Forgotten and unknown.

4 Slander and fear on every side Seized and beset me round: I to the throne of grace apply'd, And speedy rescue found.

PAUSE.

5 How great deliverance thou hast wrought Before the sons of men! The lying lips to silence brought,

And made their boastings vain!

6 Thy children from the strife of tongues
Shall thy pavilion hide,
Guerd them from infamy and wrongs

Guard them from infamy and wrongs, And crush the sons of pride.

7 Within thy secret presence, Lord, Let me forever dwell; No fenced city, wall'd and barr'd, Secures a saint so well.

348 PSALM 118. 1st Part. C. M. Clarendon, Newton.

Deliverance from tumult.

THE Lord appears my helper now, Nor is my faith afraid What all the sons of earth can do, Since Heaven affords its aid.

2Tis safer, Lord, to hope in thee, And have my God my friend, Than trust in men of high degree, And on their truth depend.

3 Like bees my foes beset me round,
A large and angry swarm;
But I shell all their rage confound

But I shall all their rage confound By thine almighty arm.

4 'Tis through the Lord my heart is strong, In him my lips rejoice; While his salvation is my song,

How cheerful is my voice!

5 Like angry bees they girt me round;

When God appears, they fly: So burning thorns, with crackling sound, Make a fierce blaze, and die.

6 Joy to the saints and peace belongs;
 The Lord protects their days:
 Let Israel tune immortal songs
 To his almighty grace.

349 PSALM 143. L. M. b.
Danvers, Malden, Hebron.

Complaint of heavy afficition in mind and bbdy.

MY righteous Judge, my gracious God,
Hear when I spread my hands abroad,
And cry for succour from thy throne:
O make thy truth and mercy known.

2 Let judgment not against me pass; Behold thy servant pleads thy grace. Should justice call us to thy bar, No man alive is guiltless there.

3 Look down in pity, Lord, and see The mighty woes that burden me; Down to the dust my life is brought, Like one long bury'd and forgot.

4I dwell in darkness, and unseen, My heart is desolate within; My thoughts in musing silence trace The ancient wonders of thy grace.

5 Thence I derive a glimpse of hope
To bear my sinking spirits up;
I stretch my hands to God again,
And thirst, like parched lands, for rain.

6 For thee I thirst, I pray, I mourn: When will thy smiling face return? Shall all my joys on earth remove? And God forever hide his love?

7 My God, thy long delay to save
Will sink thy prisoner to the grave:
My heart grows faint, and dim mine eye:
Make haste to help before I die.

8 The night is witness to my tears,
Distressing pains, distressing fears;
O might I hear thy morning voice,
How would my wearied powers rejoice.

9 In thee I trust, to thee I sigh, And lift my heavy soul on high; For thee sit waiting all the day, And wear the tiresome hours away.

10 Break off my fetters, Lord, and show Which is the path my feet should go; If snares and foes beset the road, I flee to hide me near my God.

11 Teach me to do thy holy will,
And lead me to thy heavenly hill;
Let the good Spirit of thy love
Conduct me to thy courts above.

12 Then shall my soul no more complain,
The tempter then shall rage in vain;
And flesh, that was my foe before,
Shall never vex my spirit more.

350 PSALM 55. C. M.
Wantage, Bangor, Miletus.
Support for the afflicted and tempted soul.

O GOD, my refuge, hear my cries, Behold my flowing tears, For earth and hell my hurt devise, And triumph in my fears.

2 Their rage is levell'd at my life, My soul with guilt they load, And fill my thoughts with inward strife, To shake my hope in God.

3 With inward pain my heart-strings sound;
I groan with every breath:
Horror and fear beset me round.

Among the shades of death.

40 were I like a feather'd dove, And innocence had wings; I'd fly, and make a long remove From all these restless things.

5 Let me to some wild desert go, And find a peaceful home, Where storms of malice never blow,

Temptations never come.

6 Vain hopes and vain inventions all, To 'scape the rage of hell! The mighty God, on whom I call, Can save me here as well.

PAUSE

7 By morning light I'll seek his face, At noon repeat my cry,

The night shall hear me ask his grace, Nor will he long deny.

8 God shall preserve my soul from fear,

Or shield me when afraid; Ten thousand angels must appear, If he command their aid.

9I cast my burdens on the Lord, The Lord sustains them all; My courage rests upon his word

My courage rests upon his word, That saints shall never fall. 10 My highest hopes shall not be vain,

My lips shall spread his praise; While cruel and deceitful men Scarce live out half their days.

351 HYMN 25. B. 2. C. M. Barby, Dundoe.

MY drowsy powers, why sleep ye so?
Awake, my sluggish soul!
Nothing has half thy work to do;
Yet nothing's half so dull!

2 The little ants for one poor grain Labour, and tug, and strive; Yet we, who have a heaven to obtain, How negligent we live.

3 We, for whose sakes all nature stands, And stars their courses move; We, for whose guard the angel bands

We, for whose guard the angel bands Come flying from above;

4 We, for whom God the Son came down, And labour'd for our good; How careless to secure that crown He purchased with his blood!

5Lord, shall we lie so sluggish still, And never act our parts? Come, holy Dove, from th' heavenly hill, And sit and warm our hearts.

6Then shall our active spirits move; Upward our souls shall rise; With hands of faith, and wings of love We'll fly, and take the prize. 352 HYMN 98. B. 2. C. M. Durham, Wantage.

Hardness of heart complained of.

MY heart, how dreadful hard it is!
How heavy here it lies;
Heavy and cold within my breast,
Just like a rock of ice!

2 Sin, like a raging tyrant, sits
Upon this flinty throne;
And every grace lies bury'd deep
Repeath this beart of the

Beneath this heart of stone.

3 How seldom do I rise to God,

Or taste the joys above!
This mountain presses down my faith,
And chills my flaming love.

4 When smiling mercy courts my soul With all its heavenly charms,
This stubborn, this relentless thing,
Would thrust it from mine arms.

5 Against the thunders of thy word Rebellious I have stood; My heart, it shakes not at the wrath

My heart, it shakes not at the wrath
And terrors of a God.

6 Dear Saviour, steep this rock of mine In thine own crimson sea! None but a bath of blood divine Can melt the flint away.

353 Psalm 25. 3d Part. S. M. bor #

Distress of soul; or, backeliding and desertion.

MINE eyes and my desire
Are ever to the Lord:
I love to plead his promises,
And rest upon his word.

2 Turn, turn thee to my soul:
Bring thy salvation near:
When will thy hand release my feet
Out of the deadly snare?

3 When shall the sovereign grace Of my forgiving God Restore me from those dangerous ways My wandering feet have trod?

4 The tumult of my thoughts
Doth but enlarge my wo:
My spirit languishes, my heart
Is desolate and low.

5 With every morning light
My sorrow new begins;
Look on my anguish and my pain,
And pardon all my sins.

PAUSE.

Behold the hosts of hell!
How cruel is their hate!

Against my life they rise, and join Their fury with deceit. b

7 O! keep my soul from death, Nor put my hope to shame; For I have placed my only trust In my Redeemer's name.

With humble faith I wait To see thy face again:

Of Israel it shall ne'er be said, 'He sought the Lord in vain.'

354 Hymn 163. B. 2. C. M. Bangor, Ferry, Marlow.

Complaint of desertion and temptation.

EAR Lord, behold our sore distress;
Our sins attempt to reign;
Stretch out thine arm of conquering grace,

And let thy foes be slain.

2 The lion, with his dreadful roar,

Affrights thy feeble sheep:
Reveal the glory of thy power,
And chain him to the deep.

3 Must we indulge a long despair? Shall our petitions die?

Our mournings never reach thine ear?
Nor tears affect thine eye?

. 4 If thou despise a mortal groan, Yet hear a Saviour's blood; An advocate so near the throne, Pleads and prevails with God.

5 He bought the Spirit's powerful sword, To slay our deadly foes: Our sins shall die beneath thy word.

Our sins shall die beneath thy word, And hell in vain oppose.

6 How boundless is our Father's grace, In height, and depth, and length! He makes his Son our righteousness, His Spirit is our strength.

355 PSALM 13. C. M.
York, Dundee.

Complaint under temptations of the devil.

HOW long wilt thou conceal thy face?
My God, how long delay?
When shall I feel those heavenly rays
That chase my fears away?

2 How long shall my poor labouring soul Wrestle and toil in vain? Thy word can all my foes control, And ease my raging pain.

3 See how the prince of darkness tries All his malicious arts;

All his malicious arts;
He spreads a mist around my eyes,
And throws his fiery darts.

4 Be thou my sun, and thou my shield; My soul in safety keep;

Make haste, before mine eyes are seal'd In death's eternal sleep.

5 How would the tempter boast aloud If I became his prey! Behold the sons of hell grow proud, At thy so long delay.

6 But they shall fly at thy rebuke, And Satan hide his head: He knows the terrors of thy look, And hears thy voice with dread.

7 Thou wilt display that sovereign grace Where all my hopes have hung; I shall employ my lips in praise,

And victory shall be sung.

356 HYMN 20. B. 2. C. M. York, Windsor.

Backelidings and returns; or, the inconstancy of our love.

W HY is my heart so far from thee, My God, my chief delight? Why are my thoughts no more by day With thee, no more by night?

2 [Why should my foolish passions rove? Where can such sweetness be, As I have tasted in thy love,

As I have found in thee?]

3 When my forgetful soul renews The savour of thy grace, My heart presumes I cannot lose The relish all my days.

4 But ere one fleeting hour is past,
The flattering world employs
Some sensual bait to seize my taste,
And to pollute my joys.

5 [Trifles of nature, or of art, With fair, deceitful charms, Intrude into my thoughtless heart, And thrust me from thy arms.]

6 Then I repent, and vex my soul That I should leave thee so; Where will those wild affections roll, That let a Saviour go?

7 [Sin's promis'd joys are turn'd to pain, And I am drown'd in grief; But my dear Lord returns again, He flies to my relief!

8 Scizing my soul with sweet surprise, He draws with loving bands; Divine compassion in his eyes,

And pardon in his hands.]
9 [Wretch that I am, to wander thus,

In chase of false delight!

Let me be fasten'd to thy cross,

Rather than lose thy sight.]

10 Make haste, my days, to reach the goal, And bring my heart to rest

On the dear centre of my soul, My God, my Saviour's breast! 357 PSALM 13. L. M. 57th Psalm, Hebron.

Pleading with God under desertion; or, hope in darkness.

HOW long, O Lord, shall I complain, Like one who seeks his God in vain? Canst thou thy face forever hide, And I still pray and be deny'd?

2 Shall I forever be forgot,
As one whom thou regardest not?
Still shall my soul thine absence mourn?
And still despair of thy return?

3 How long shall my poor, troubled breast Be with these anxious thoughts oppress'd? And Satan, my malicious foe, Rejoice to see me sunk so low?

4 Hear, Lord, and grant me quick relief, Before my death conclude my grief; If thou withhold thy heavenly light, I sleep in everlasting night.

5 How will the powers of darkness boast,
If but one praying soul be lost!
But I have trusted in thy grace,
And shall again behold thy face.

6 Whate'er my fears or foes suggest, Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest; My heart shall feel thy love, and raise My cheerful voice to songs of praise.

358 PSALM 119. 16th Part. C. M. Windsor, Canterbury
Prayer for quickening grace.

MY soul lies cleaving to the dust; Lord, give me life divine! From vain desires and every lust Turn off these eyes of mine.

2I need the influence of thy grace To speed me in thy way, Lest I should loiter in my race, Or turn my feet astray.

8 When sore afflictions press me down,
I need thy quickening powers;
Thy word, that I have rested on,
Shall help my heaviest hours.

Versea 158, 40.

4 Are not thy mercies sovereign still,
And thou a faithful God?

Wilt thou not grant me warmer zeal
To run the heavenly road?

The state of the s

6 Then shall I love thy gospel more, And ne'er forget thy word, When I have felt its quickening power, To draw me near the Lord.

359 PSALM 119. 12th Part. C.M. b Bedford, Windsor, York.

Breathing after comfort and deliverance.

Verse 153.

MY God, consider my distress,
Let mercy plead my cause;
Though I have sinn'd against thy grace,
I can't forget thy laws.

Yenes 29, 116.

2 Forbid, forbid the sharp reproach, Which I so justly fear; Uphold my life, uphold my hopes, Nor let my shame appear.

Nor let my shame appear.

Vernes 122, 135.

3 Be thou a surety, Lord, for me;
Nor let the proud oppress:
But make thy waiting servant see
The shinings of thy face.
Vernes 82.

4 Mine eyes with expectation fail;
My heart within me cries,
"When will the Lord his truth fulfil,
And make my comforts rise?"
Verme 182.

5 Look down upon my sorrows, Lord, And show thy grace the same, As thou art ever wont t' afford To those that love thy name.

PSALM 38. C. M. Dedham, Wenham.

Guilt of conscience and relief; or, repentance, and prayer for pardon and health.

A MIDST thy wrath, remember love, Restore thy servant, Lord;
Nor let a father's chastening prove
Like an avenger's sword.

2Thine arrows stick within my heart, My flesh is sorely press'd; Between the sorrow and the smart My spirit finds no rest.

3 My sins a heavy load appear, And o'er my head are gone; Too heavy they for me to bear, Too hard for me t' atone.

4 My thoughts are like a troubled sea, My head still bending down; And I go mourning all the day, Beneath my Father's frown.

5 Lord, I am weak, and broken sore, None of my powers are whole; The inward anguish makes me roar, The anguish of my soul.

6 All my desire to thee is known, Thine eye counts every tear; And every sigh and every groan Is noticed by thine ear.

7 Thou art my God, my only hope, My God will hear my cry;My God will bear my spirit up, When Satan bids me die.

 8 [My foot is ever apt to slide, My foes rejoice to see't: They raise their pleasure and their pride,

When they supplant my feet.

9 But I'll confess my guilt to thee, And grieve for all my sin; I'll mourn how weak my graces be, And beg support divine.

10 My God, forgive my follies past, And be forever nigh;

O Lord of my salvation, haste, Before thy servant die.]

361 PSALM 107. 2d Part. L. M. Malden, Hague.

Correction for sin, and release by prayer.

ROM age to age exalt his name!
God and his grace are still the same;
He fills the hungry soul with food,
And feeds the poor with every good.

2 But if their hearts rebel, and rise Against the God that rules the skies; If they reject his heavenly word, And slight the counsels of the Lord;

3 He'll bring their spirits to the ground, And no deliverer shall be found: Laden with grief, they waste their breath In darkness, and the shades of death.

4 Then to the Lord they raise their cries; He makes the dawning light arise, And scatters all that dismal shade, That hung so heavy round their head.

5 He cuts the bars of brass in two, And lets the smiling prisoners through; Takes off the load of guilt and grief, And gives the labouring soul relief.

60 may the sons of men record The wondrous goodness of the Lord! How great his works! how kind his ways! Let every tongue pronounce his praise.

PSALM 4. L. M. Denton, Malden.

Hearing of prayer: or, God our portion, and Christ our kope.

O GOD of grace and righteousness, Hear and attend when I complain; Thou hast enlarged me in distress, Bow down a gracious ear again.

2 Ye sons of men, in vain ye try, To turn my glory into shame; How long will scoffers love to lie, And dare reproach my Saviour's name?

3 Know that the Lord divides his saints From all the tribes of men beside; He hears the cry of penitents

For the dear sake of Christ that died.

4 When our obedient hands have done
A thousand works of righteousness,
We put our trust in God alone,

And glory in his pardoning grace.
5 Let the unthinking many say,
Who will bestow some earthly good?
But, Lord, thy light and love we pray;
Our souls desire this heavenly food.

6 Then shall my cheerful powers rejoice At grace and favour so divine; Nor will I change my happy choice For all their corn and all their wine.

363 PSALM 85. Ist Part. L. M. Shoel, Slade.

Waiting for an answer to prayer; or, deliverence begun and completed.

LORD, thou hast call'd thy grace to mind,

Thou hast reversed our heavy doom; So God forgave when Israel sinn'd; And brought his wandering captives home.

2 Thou hast begun to set us free, And made thy fiercest wrath abate; Now let our hearts be turn'd to thee, And thy salvation be complete.

3 Revive our dying graces, Lord, And let thy saints in thee rejoice; Make known thy truth, fulfil thy word; We wait for praise to tune our voice.

4 We wait to hear what God will say; He'll speak, and give his people peace; But let them run no more astray, Lest his returning wrath increase.

364 PSALM 51. 3d Part. L. M. b

The backslider restored; or, repentance, and foith in the blood of Christ.

THOU, that hear'st when sinners cry, Though all my crimes before thee lie, Behold them not with angry look, But blot their memory from thy book.

2 Create my nature pure within, And form my soul averse to sin; Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart, Nor hide thy presence from my heart.

3 I cannot live without thy light, Cast out and banish'd from thy sight: Thine holy joys, my God, restore, And guard me, that I fall no more. 365, 366

4 Though I have grieved thy Spirit, Lord, |2 Death and the terrors of the grave His help and comfort still afford: And let a wretch come near thy throne, To plead the merits of thy Son.

5 A broken heart, my God, my King, Is all the sacrifice I bring; The God of grace will ne'er despise A broken heart for sacrifice.

6 My soul lies humbled in the dust, And owns thy dreadful sentence just; Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye, And save the soul condemn'd to die.

7 Then will I teach the world thy ways; Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace; I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood, And they shall praise a pardoning God.

80 may thy love inspire my tongue: Salvation shall be all my song; And all my powers shall join to bless The Lord, my strength and righteousness.

Hymn 95. B. 2. C. M. 365 Bangor, Dundee.

Look on Him whom they pierced and mourn. INFINITE grief! amazing wo! Behold my bleeding Lord! Hell and the Jews conspired his death, And used the Roman sword.

20! the sharp pangs of smarting pain My dear Redeemer bore,

When knotty whips, and jagged thorns His sacred body tore!

3 But knotty whips and jagged thorns In vain do I accuse;

In vain I blame the Roman bands, And the more spiteful Jews:

4 Twere you, my sins, my cruel sins His chief tormentors were;

Each of my crimes became a nail, And unbelief the spear:

5"Twere you that pull'd the vengeance Upon his guiltless head; Break, break, my heart, - O burst mine And let my sorrows bleed.

6 Strike, mighty grace, my flinty soul, Till melting waters flow,

And deep repentance drown mine eyes In undissembled wo!

366 PSALM 18. 1st Part. L. M. # Islington, Danvers.

Deliverance from despair; or, temptations overcome. THEE will I love, O Lord, my strength, My rock, my tower, my high defence; Thy mighty arm shall be my trust, For I have found salvation thence.

Stood round me with their dismal shade: While floods of high temptations rose, And made my sinking soul afraid.

3 I saw the opening gates of hell, With endless pains and sorrows there Which none but they that feel can tell, While I was hurried to despair.

4 In my distress, I call'd my God, When I could scarce believe him mine. He bow'd his ear to my complaint: Then did his grace appear divine.

5 [With speed he flew to my relief, As on a cherub's wing he rode; Awful and bright as lightning shone The face of my deliverer, God.

6 Temptations fled at his rebuke. The blast of his almighty breath; He sent salvation from on high, And drew me from the deeps of death. 7 Great were my fears, my foes were great; Much was their strength, and more their rage; But Christ, my Lord, is conqueror still, In all the wars that devils wage.

8 My song forever shall record That terrible, that joyful hour; And give the glory to the Lord, Due to his mercy and his power.

367 PSALM 40. 1st Part. C. M. Abridge, Christmas.

A song of deliverance from great distress. WAITED patient for the Lord He bow'd to hear my cry; He saw me resting on his word, And brought salvation nigh.

2 He raised me from a horrid pit: Where mourning long I lay; And from my bonds released my feet; Deep bonds of miry clay.

3 Firm on a rock he made me stand, And taught my cheerful tongue To praise the wonders of his hand, In a new, thankful song.

4 I'll spread his works of grace abroad; The saints with joy shall hear; And sinners learn to make my God Their only hope and fear.

5 How many are thy thoughts of love! Thy mercies, Lord, how great! We have not words nor hours enough

Their numbers to repeat.

6 When I'm afflicted, poor, and low, And light and peace depart, My God beholds my heavy wo, And bears me on his heart.

PSALM 61. S. M. Sutton, Haverhill. Safety in God.

WHEN, overwhelm'd with grief,
My heart within me dies;
Helpless, and far from all relief,
To heaven I lift mine eyes.

2 O lead me to the rock That's high above my head, And make the covert of thy wings My shelter and my shade.

3 Within thy presence, Lord, Forever I'll abide;

Thou art the tower of my defence, The refuge where I hide.

4 Thou givest me the lot
Of those that fear thy name;
If endless life be their reward,
I shall possess the same.

369 Hymn 50. B. 2. L. M.

Comfort under sorrows and pains.

Now let the Lord, my Saviour, smile, And show my name upon his heart; I would forget my pains a while, And in the pleasure lose the smart.

2 But O! it swells my sorrows high, To see my blessed Jesus frown: My spirits sink, my comforts die, And all the springs of life are down.

3 Yet why, my soul, why these complaints? Still while he frowns, his bowels move; Still on his heart he bears his saints, And feels their sorrows, and his love.

4 My name is printed on his breast; His book of life contains my name; I'd rather have it there impress'd, Than in the bright records of fame.

5 When the last fire burns all things here, Those letters shall securely stand, And in the Lamb's fair book appear, Writ by th' eternal Father's hand.

6 Now shall my minutes smoothly run, While here I wait my Father's will; My rising and my setting sun Roll gently up and down the hill.

370 HYMN 102. B. 1. L. M. Portugal, Brentford, Ward.

BLEST are the humble souls that see Their emptiness and poverty: Treasures of grace to them are given, And crowns of joy laid up in heaven.

2 Blest are the men of broken heart, Who mourn for sin with inward smart;

The blood of Christ divinely flows, A healing balm for all their woes.

3 Blest are the meek, who stand afar From rage and passion, noise and war; God will secure their happy state, And plead their cause against the great

4 Blest are the souls that thirst for grace, Hunger and long for righteousness; They shall be well supply'd and fed With living streams and living bread.

5 Blest are the men, whose bowels more And melt with sympathy and love; From Christ, the Lord, shall they obtain Like sympathy and love again.

6 Blest are the pure, whose hearts are clean From the defiling power of sin; With endless pleasure they shall see

A God of spotless purity.

7 Blest are the men of peaceful life, Who quench the coals of growing strife, They shall be call'd the heirs of bliss, The sons of God, the God of peace.

8 Blest are the sufferers, who partake Of pain and shame for Jesus' sake; Their souls shall triumph in the Lord; Glory and joy are their reward.

371 Hymn 53. B. 2. C. M. Blackburn, Lebanon.

The pilgrimage of the saints; or, earth and home ORD! what a wretched land is this, That yields us no supply! No cheering fruits, no wholesome trees, Nor streams of living joy!

2 But pricking thorns through all the And mortal poisons grow; [ground, And all the rivers that are found With dangerous waters flow.

3 Yet the dear path to thine abode
Lies through this horrid land:
Lord! we would keep the heavenly road,
And run at thy command.

4 [Our souls shall tread the desert through,
With undiverted feet;

And faith, and flaming zeal subdus The terrors that we meet.]

5 [A thousand savage beasts of prey
Around the forest roam:

But Judah's Lion guards the way,
And guides the strangers home.

6 [Long nights and darkness dwell below, With scarce a twinkling ray; But the bright world to which we go

Is everlasting day.]
7 [By glimmering hopes and gloomy from We trace the sacred road;

Through dismal deeps, and dangerous 8 The strings that twine about my heart, snares.

Tortures and racks may tear them off;

We make our way to God.

8 Our journey is a thorny maze,
But we march upward still;
Forget these troubles of the ways,

And reach at Zion's hill.]

9 [See the kind angels, at the gates, Inviting us to come!

There Jesus, the forerunner, waits To welcome travellers home.]

10 There, on a green and flowery mount, Our weary souls shall sit,

And with transporting joys recount The labours of our feet.

11 [No vain discourse shall fill our tongue,
Nor trifles vex our ear;
Infinite green shall be our song

Infinite grace shall be our song, And God rejoice to hear.]

12 Eternal glories to the King,
That brought us safely through;
Our tongue shall never cease to sing,
And endless praise renew.

372 HYMN 100. B. 2. L. M. Malden, Windham.

The presence of Christ's the life of my soul.

HOW full of anguish is the thought,
How it distracts and tears my heart,
If God at last, my sovereign Judge,
Should frown, and bid my soul depart.

2 Lord, when I quit this earthly stage, Where shall I fly but to thy breast? For I have sought no other home, For I have learn'd no other rest.

3 I cannot live contented here,
Without some glimpses of thy face;
And heaven, without thy presence there,
Would be a dark and tiresome place.

4 When earthly cares engross the day, And hold my thoughts aside from thee, The shining hours of cheerful light Are long and tedious years to me.

5 And if no evening visit's paid Between my Saviour and my soul, How dull the night! how sad the shade! How mournfully the minutes roll!

6 This flesh of mine might learn as soon To live, yet part with all my blood; To breathe, when vital air is gone, Or thrive and grow without my food.

7 [Christ is my light, my life, my care, My blessed hope, my heavenly prize; Dearer than all my passions are, My limbs, my bowels, or mine eyes. Tortures and racks may tear them off; But they can never, never part With their dear hold of Christ my love.] 9 [My God! and can a humble child, That loves thee with a flame so high, Be ever from thy face exiled, Without the pity of thine eye?

10 Impossible! for thine own hands
Have tied my heart so fast to thee;
And in thy book the promise stands,
That where thou art, thy friends must be.]

373 HYMN 54. B. 2. C. M. Swanwick, Rochester.

God's presence is light in darkness.

Y God, the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,

The glory of my brightest days, And comfort of my nights.

2 In darkest shades, if he appear, My dawning is begun!

He is my soul's sweet Morning Star, And he my rising Sun.

3 The opening heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his heart is mine,

And whispers, I am his.

4 My sould would leave this heavy clay
At that transporting word;

Run up with joy the shining way, T' embrace my dearest Lord.

5 Fearless of hell and ghastly death, I'd break through every foe; The wings of love and arms of faith Should bear me conqueror through.

374 PSALM 90. 3d Part. C. M. Abridge, Canterbury.

Breathing after heaven.

RETURN, O God of love, return: Earth is a tiresome place! How long shall we, thy children, mourn, Our absence from thy face?

2 Let heaven succeed our painful years, Let sin and sorrow cease; And in proportion to our tears So make our joys increase.

3 Thy wonders to thy servants show, Make thy own work complete; Then shall our souls thy glory know

Then shall our souls thy glory know, And own thy love is great. 4 Then shall we shine before thy throne

In all thy beauty, Lord;
And the poor service we have done
Meet a divine reward.

375 Hymn 65. B. 2. C. M. #
Christmas, Conway, Lanesboro'.

The tope of heaten our support under trials on earth.

WHEN I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies;
I bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

Should earth against my soul engage.

2 Should earth against my soul engage, And hellish darts be hurl'd, Then I can smile at Satan's rage, And face a frowning world.

3 Let cares, like a wild deluge, come, And storms of sorrow fall; May I but safely reach my home, My God, my heaven, my all:

4 There shall I bathe my weary soul In seas of heavenly rest; And not a wave of trouble roll Across my peaceful breast.

376 HYMN 117. B. 2. L. M. Portugal, Dresden, Denton.

Living and dying with God present.

CANNOT bear thine absence, Lord;
My life expires if thou depart:
Be thou, my heart, still near my God,
And thou, my God, be near my heart.

2I was not born for earth and sin, Nor can I live on things so vile; Yet I will stay my Father's time, And hope and wait for heaven a while.

3 Then, dearest Lord, in thine embrace Let me resign my fleeting breath; And, with a smile upon my face, Pass the important hour of death.

SAINTS AND SINNERS.

377 PSALM 1. L. M. #
Portugal, All Saints.
The difference between the righteous and the wicked.

The difference between the righteous and the wicked.

APPY the man, whose cautious feet
Shun the broad way that sinners go,
Who hates the place where atheists meet,
And fears to talk as scoffers do.

2 He loves t' employ his morning light Among the statutes of the Lord; And spends the wakeful hours of night With pleasure, pondering o'er his word.

3 He, like a plant by gentle streams, Shall flourish in immortal green; And heaven will shine with kindest beams On every work his hands begin.

4 But sinners find their counsels cross'd: As chaff before the tempest flies, So shall their hopes be blown and lost, When the last trumpet shakes the skies.

5 In vain the rebel seeks to stand
In judgment with the pious race;
The dreadful Judge, with stern command,
Qivides him to a different place.

6' Straight is the way my saints have trod;
I blest the path, and drew it plain;
But you would choose the crooked road,
And down it leads to endless pain.

PSALM 1. S. M. Paddington, St. Thomas.

The saints happy, the sinner miscrable.

THE man is ever blest,
Who shuns the sinners' ways,
Among their councils never stands,

Nor takes the scorner's place;
But makes the law of God
His study and delight,

Amid the labours of the day, And watches of the night.

3 He, like a tree, shall thrive, With waters near the root: Fresh as the leaf his name shall live; His works are heavenly fruit.

4 Not so th' ungodly race;
They no such blessings find;
Their hopes shall flee like empty chaff
Before the driving wind.

5 How will they bear to stand
Before that judgment seat,
Where all the saints at Christ's right hand
In full assembly meet?

6 He knows and he approves
The way the righteous go;
But sinners and their works shall meet
A dreadful overthrow.

379 PSALM 119. 1st Part. C. M.

The blessedness of saints, and miscry of sinners.

Verses 1, 2, 3.

BLEST are the undefiled in heart,
Whose ways are right and clean;
Who never from thy law depart,
But fly from every sin.

2 Blest are the men that keep thy word, And practise thy commands; [Lord, With their whole heart they seek the And serve thee with their hands.

3 Great is their peace who love thy law; How firm their souls abide! Nor can a bold temptation draw Their steady feet aside, 4 Then shall my heart have inward joy,
And keep my face from shame,
When all thy statutes I obey,
And honour all thy name.

Venses 21, 118.

5 But haughty sinners God will hate,
The proud shall die accurst;
The sons of falsehood and decent
Are trodden to the dust.

6 Vile as the dross the wicked are; And those that leave thy ways Shall see salvation from afar, But never taste thy grace.

PSALM 1. C. M. St. Martin's, Barby.

The way and end of the righteous and the wicked.

BLEST is the man who shuns the place
Where sinners love to meet;
Who fears to tread their wicked ways,
And hates the scoffer's seat:

2 But in the statutes of the Lord
Has placed his chief delight;By day he reads or hears the word,
And meditates by night.

3 [He, like a plant of generous kind, By living waters set, Safe from the storms and blasting wind,

Enjoys a peaceful state.]

4 Green as the leaf, and ever fair Shall his profession shine; While fruits of holiness appear, Like clusters on the vine.

5 Not so the impious and unjust; What vain designs they form! Their hopes are blown away, like dust, Or chaff, before the storm.

6 Sinners in judgment shall not stand Among the sons of grace, When Christ the Judge at his right hand

Appoints his saints a place.

7 His eye beholds the path they tread,
His heart approves it well:
But crooked ways of sinners lead
Down to the gates of hell.

381 PSALM 37. 3d Part. C. M. #

MY God, the steps of pious men
Are order'd by thy will;
Though they should fall, they rise again;
Thy hand supports them still.

The Lord delights to see their ways, Their virtue he approves:
He'll ne'er deprive them of his grace, Nor leave the men he loves.

3 The heavenly heritage is theirs,
Their portion and their home;
He feeds them now, and makes them heirs
Of blessings long to come.

4 Wait on the Lord, ye sons of men, Nor fear when tyrants frown; Ye shall confess their pride was vain,

When justice casts them down.

PAUSE.

5 The haughty sinner have I seen, Not fearing man nor God,

Like a tall bay tree, fair and green, Spreading his arms abroad.

6 And lo, he vanish'd from the ground, Destroy'd by hands unseen;

Nor root, nor branch, nor leaf was found Where all that pride had been.

7 But mark the man of righteousness,
His several steps attend;

True pleasure runs through all his ways, And peaceful is his end.

382 PSALM 37. 1st Part. C. M. b. Mear, York.

The cure of envy, fressulars and unbelief: or, the rewards of the righteous and the wicked: or, the world's hatred, and the saint's patience.

WHY should I vex my soul, and fret To see the wicked rise?

Or envy sinners, waxing great By violence and lies?

2 As flowery grass, cut down at noon, Before the evening, fades,

So shall their glories vanish soon, In everlasting shades.

3 Then let me make the Lord my trust, And practise all that's good! So shall I dwell among the just,

So shall I dwell among the just,
And he'll provide me food.

4I to my God my ways commit, And cheerful wait his will; Thy hand, which guides my doubtful feet, Shall my desires fulfil,

5 Mine innocence shalt thou display, And make thy judgments known, Fair as the light of dawning day,

And glorious as the noon.

6 The meek at last the earth possess, And are the heirs of heaven;

True riches, with abundant peace,
To humble souls are given.
PAUSE.

7 Rest in the Lord, and keep his way
Nor let your anger rise,
Though Providence should long delay

Though Providence should long delay To punish haughty vice.

8 Let sinners join to break your peace And plot, and rage, and foam; The Lord derides them, for he sees Their day of vengeance come.

9 They have drawn out the threatening Have bent the murderous bow, [sword, To slay the men that fear the Lord, And bring the righteous low.

10 My God shall break their bows, and Their persecuting darts; burn Shall their own swords against them turn, And pain surprise their hearts.

383 PSALM 94. 1st Part. C. M. b Dundee, London. Saints chastised, and sinners destroyed: or, instruc-

GOD, to whom revenge belongs, Proclaim thy wrath aloud;
Let sovereign power redress our wrongs,
Let justice smite the proud.

2 They say, "The Lord nor sees nor hears:"
When will the fools be wise!
Can he be deaf, who form'd their ears?
Or blind, who made their eyes?

3 He knows their impious thoughts are vain, And they shall feel his power; His wrath shall pierce their souls with pain

In some surprising hour.

4 But if thy saints deserve rebuke,
Thou hast a gentler rod:
Thy providences and thy book

Shall make them know their God. 5 Blest is the man thy hands chastise, And to his duty draw;

Thy scourges make thy children wise, When they forget thy law.

6 But God will ne'er cast off his saints, Nor his own promise break; He pardons his inheritance, For their Redeemer's sake.

384 PSALM 11. L. M. b or # Winchester, Malden.

MY refuge is the God of love;
Why do my foes insult, and cry,
'Fly, like a timorous, trembling dove,
'To distant woods or mountains fly?'

2 If government be all destroy'd
(That firm foundation of our peace)
And violence make justice void,
Where shall the righteous seek redress?

3 The Lord in heaven hath fix'd his throne; His eye surveys the world below; To him all mortal things are known; His eye-lids search our spirits through.

4 If he afflicts his saints so far,
To prove their love, and try their grace,

What must the bold transgressors fear? His very soul abhors their ways.

5 On impious wretches he shall rain Tempests of brimstone, fire and death, Such as he kindled on the plain Of Sodom, with his angry breath.

6 The righteous Lord loves righteous souls, Whose thoughts and actions are sincer; And with a gracious eye beholds The men that his own image bear.

385 PSALM 17. S. M. Silver Street, Dover.

Portion of saints and sinners: or, hope and despair in death.

A RISE, my gracious God, And make the wicked flee; They are but thy chastising rod To drive thy saints to thee.

2 Behold the sinner dies, His haughty words are vain: Here in this life his pleasure lies, And all beyond is pain.

3 Then let his pride advance, And boast of all his store; The Lord is mine inheritance, My soul can wish no more.

4 I shall behold the face
Of my forgiving God;
And stand complete in righteousness,

Wash'd in my Saviour's blood.
There's a new heaven begun
When I awake from death,
Dress'd in the likeness of thy Son,
And draw immortal breath.

386 PSALM 17. L. M.

The sinner's portion, and the saint's hope: or, the heaven of separate souls, and the resurrection.

ORD, I am thine; but thou wilt prove My faith, my patience, and my love; When men of spite against me join, They are the sword, the hand is thine.

2 Their hope and portion lie below:
"Tis all the happiness they know;
'Tis all they seek; they take their shares,
And leave the rest among their heirs.
3 What similers value, I resign;
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine;

I shall behold thy blissful face, And stand complete in righteousness. 4 This life's a dream, an empty show; But the bright world to which I go

But the bright world to which I go Hath joys substantial and sincere; When shall I wake and find me there? 50 glorious hour! O blest abode! I shall be near and like my God! And flesh and sin no more control The sacred pleasures of the soul.

6 My flesh shall slumber in the ground, Till the last trumpet's joyful sound; Then burst the chains with sweet surprise, And in my Saviour's image rise.

387 PSALM 149. C. M. #Rochester, Irish.
Proise God, all his saints: or, the saints judging

ALL ye that love the Lord, rejoice, And let your songs be new; Amid the church with cheerful voice His later wonders shew.

2The Jews, the people of his grace, Shall their Redeemer sing; And Gentile nations join the praise, While Zion owns her King.

3The Lord takes pleasure in the just, Whom sinners treat with scorn; The meek, that lie despised in dust, Salvation shall adorn.

4Saints should be joyful in their King, E'en on a dying bed;

And like the souls in glory sing,
For God shall raise the dead.

5 Then his high praise shall fill their tongues,

Their hands shall wield the sword;
And vengeance shall attend their songs,

The vengeance of the Lord.

When Christ his judgment-seat ascends,
And bids the world appear,

Thrones are prepared for all his friends, Who humbly loved him here.

7 Then shall they rule with iron rod Nations that dared rebel; And join the sentence of their God On tyrants doom'd to hell.

The royal sinners, bound in chains, New triumph shall afford;

Such honour for the saints remains; Praise ye, and love the Lord.

388 Hymn 122. B. 2. L. M. Portugal, Eaton.

MY God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee;
Amid a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth, And thus debase my heavenly birth? Why should I cleave to things below, And let my God, my Saviour go?

3 Call me away from flesh and sense; One sovereign word can draw me thence: I would obey the voice divine, And all inferior joys resign.

4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn Let noise and vanity be gone:
In secret silence of the mind,
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

389 PSALM 119. 2d Part. C.M. #

Secret devotion and spiritual mindedness; or, constant converse with God.

To thee, before the dawning light,
My gracious God, I pray;
I meditate thy name by night,
And keep thy law by day.

Vene 81.

2 My spirit faints to see thy grace;
Thy promise bears me up;
And, while salvation long delays,
Thy word supports my hope.

3 Seven times a day I lift my hands, And pay my thanks to thee; Thy righteous providence demands Repeated praise from me.

4 When midnight darkness veils the skies
I call thy works to mind;
My thoughts in warm devotion rise,
And sweet acceptance find.

PSALM 55. S. M. Haverhill, Norwalk.

Dangerous prosperity: or, daily devotion encouraged.

ET sinners take their course,
And choose the road to death;
But in the worship of my God
I'll spend my daily breath.

b

2 My thoughts address his throne, When morning brings the light; I seek his blessing every noon,

And pay my vows at night.

Thou wilt regard my cries,

O my eternal God; While sinners perish in surprise, Beneath thine angry rod.

4 Because they dwell at ease,
And no sad changes feel,
They neither fear nor trust thy name,
Nor learn to do thy will.

5 But I, with all my cares, Will lean upon the Lord; #

#

I'll cast my burdens on his arm, And rest upon his word.

His arm shall well sustain The children of his love; The ground on which their safety stands No earthly power can move.

PSALM 26. L. M. 391

Blendon, Islington. Self-examination; or, evidences of grace. JUDGE me, O Lord, and prove my ways, And try my reins, and try my heart; My faith upon thy promise stays, Nor from thy law my feet depart. 2 I hate to walk, I hate to sit With men of vanity and lies; The scoffer and the hypocrite Are the abhorrence of mine eyes.

3 Among thy saints will I appear With hands well wash'd in innocence; But when I stand before thy bar, The blood of Christ is my defence.

4 I love thy habitation, Lord, The temple where thine honours dwell; There shall I hear thy holy word, And there thy works of wonder tell.

5 Let not my soul be join'd at last With men of treachery and blood, Since I my days on earth have past Among the saints, and near my God.

FAMILY WORSHIP.

PSALM 101. C. M. Bedford, London.

A psalm for a master of a family. OF justice and of grace 1 sing, And pay my God my vows; Thy grace and justice, heavenly King, Teach me to rule my house.

2 Now to my tent, O God, repair, And make thy servant wise; I'll suffer nothing near me there That shall offend thine eyes.

3 The man that doth his neighbour wrong, By falsehood or by force, The scornful eye, the slanderous tongue,

I'll thrust them from my doors. 4 I'll seek the faithful and the just, And will their help enjoy: These are the friends that I shall trust,

The servants I'll employ. 5 The wretch that deals in sly deceit, I'll not endure a night; The liar's tongue I'll ever hate,

And banish from my sight.

6 I'll purge my family around, And make the wicked flee; So shall my house be ever found A dwelling fit for thee.

Psalm 127. L. M. 393 Medway, Nazareth.

The blessing of God on the business and comforts of life.

F God succeed not, all the cost And pains to build the house are lost; If God the city will not keep, The watchful guards as well may sleen. 2 What if you rise before the sun.

And work and toil when day is done, Careful and sparing eat your bread, To shun that poverty you dread?

3'Tis all in vain, till God hath blest; He can make rich, yet give us rest; Children and friends are blessings too, If God, our sovereign, makes them so.

4 Happy the man to whom he sends Obedient children, faithful friends! How sweet our daily comforts prove, When they are season'd with his love!

PSALM 127. C. M. 394 Abridge, Swanwick.

God all in all. F God to build the house deny, The builders work in vain; And towns, without his wakeful eve, A useless watch maintain.

2 Before the morning beams arise. Your painful work renew. And, till the stars ascend the skies, Your tiresome toil pursue.

3 Short be your sleep, and coarse your fare In vain, till God has blest; But if his smiles attend your care, You shall have food and rest.

4 Nor children, relatives, nor friends, Shall real blessings prove, Nor all the earthly joys he sends, If sent without his love.

Psalm 128. C. M. 395 Irish, St. Martin's, Medfield.

Family blessings. HAPPY man, whose soul is fill'd With zeal and reverend awe! His lips to God their honours yield, His life adorns the law.

2 A careful Providence shall stand, And ever guard thy head, Shall on the labours of thy hand Its kindly blessings shed.

3 Thy wife shall be a fruitful vine; Thy children round thy board,

Each like a plant of honour shine, And learn to fear the Lord.

4 The Lord shall thy best hopes fulfil For months and years to come; The Lord, who dwells on Zion's hill, Shall send thee blessings home.

5 This is the man whose happy eyes Shall see his house increase, Shall see the sinking church arise, Then leave the world in peace.

PSALM 133. S. M. Haverhill, Döver, Watchman.

Communion of saints; or, love and worship in a family.

BLEST are the sons of peace,
Whose hearts and hopes are one,

Whose hearts and hopes are one,
Whose kind designs to serve and please,
Through all their actions run.

Bleat is the pions house

- 2 Blest is the pious house, Where zeal and friendship meet; Their songs of praise, their mingled vows Make their communion sweet.
- 3 Thus, when on Aaron's head They pour'd the rich perfume, The oil through all his raiment spread, And pleasure fill'd the room.
- 4 Thus on the heavenly hills
 The saints are blest above,
 Where joy like morning dew distils,
 And all the air is love.

397 PSALM 133. S. P. M. Dalston, Worship.

The blessings of friendship

HOW pleasant 'tis to see
Kindred and friends agree!

Each in his proper station move,
And each fulfil his part,
With sympathizing heart,

#

2 'Tis like the ointment shed
On Aaron's sacred head,
Divinely rich, divinely sweet!
The oil through all the room
Diffus'd a choice perfume,
Ran through his robes, and blest his feet.

In all the cares of life and love!

3 Like fruitful showers of rain,
That water all the plain,
Descending from the neighbouring hills;
Such streams of pleasure roll
Through every friendly soul,
Where love like heavenly dew distils.

2 I love her gates, I love the road:
The church, adorn'd with grace,
Stands like a palace, built for God,
To show his milder face.

3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
The holy tribes repair;
The San of David holds his throne

The Son of David holds his throne, And sits in judgment there.

4 He hears our praises and complaints; And, while his awful voice Divides the sinners from the saints, We tremble, and rejoice.

5 Peace be within this sacred place, And joy a constant guest: With holy gifts and heavenly grace

Be her attendants blest.

6 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains;
There my best friends, my kindred dwell

There my best friends, my kindred dwell,
There God my Saviour reigns.

399 PSALM 122. S. P. M. Dalston, Worship.

HOW pleas'd and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
'Come, let us seek our God to-day!'
Yes, with a cheerful zeel,
We haste to Zion's hill,

And there our vows and honours pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy place,
Adorn'd with wondrous grace,

And walls of strength embrace thee round!
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 There David's greater Son
Has fix'd his royal throne;
He sits for grace and judgment there:
He bids the saint be glad,
He makes the sinner sad,
And humble souls rejoice with fear

4 May peace attend thy gate, And joy within thee wait,

To bless the soul of every guest:
The man that seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest!

400 PSALM 134. C. M.
Christmas, Irish, York,
Daily and nightly devotion.

YE, that obey the immortal King,
Attend his holy place;
Bow to the glories of his power,
And bless his wondrous grace.

2 Lift up your hands by morning light,

Above the starry sky.

3The God of Zion cheers our hearts
With rays of quickening grace;
The God that spreads the heavens abroad,
And rules the swelling seas.

401 Hymn 108. B.2. C. M. Conway, Rochester.

Access to the throne of grace by a Mediator.

OME, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there
Upon a throne of love.

2 Once 'twas a seat of dreadful wrath, And shot devouring flame; Our God appear'd consuming fire, And vengeance was his name.

3 Rich were the drops of Jesus' blood, That calm'd his frowning face; That sprinkled o'er the burning throne, And turn'd the wrath to grace!

4 Now we may bow before his feet, And venture near the Lord; No fiery cherub guards his seat, Nor double-flaming sword.

5 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss Are open'd by the Son; High let us raise our notes of praise, And reach th' Almighty throne.

6 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring, Great Advocate on high; And glory to the eternal King, That lays his fury by.

402 PSALM 84. 1st Part. L. M. #
Tallis' Evening Hymn, Portugal.

The pleasures of public worship.

HOW pleasant, how divinely fair,
O'Lord of Hosts, thy dwellings are!

With long desire my spirit faints

To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode! My panting heart cries out for God; My God, my King, why should I be So far from all my joys and thee? 3 The sparrow chooses where to rest, And for her young provides her nest; But will my God to sparrows grant That pleasure which his children want? 4 Blest are the saints, who sit on high, Around thy throne of majesty; Thy brightest glories shine above, And all their work is praise and love. 5 Blest are the souls that find a place Within the temple of thy grace; There they behold thy gentler rays And seek thy face, and learn thy praise. 6 Blest are the men whose hearts are set To find the way to Zion's gate; God is their strength; and through the road

They lean upon their helper, God.
7Cheerful theywalk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length,
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

403 PSALM 84. 2d Part. L. M. # Eaton, Ellenthorpe.

God and his church; or, grace and glory.

REAT God, attend, while Zion sings
The joy, that from thy presence springs:

To spend one day with thee on earth Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place Within thy house, O God of grace, Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.

3 God is our sun, he makes our day: God is our shield, he guards our way From all the assaults of hell and sin, From foes without, and foes within.

4 All needful grace will God bestow, And crown that grace with glory too! He gives us all things, and withholds No real good from upright souls.

5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway The glorious hosts of heaven obey; And devils at thy presence flee; Blest is the man that trusts in thee.

404 PSALM 84. C. M. Stattle-Street, Parma.

Delight in ordinances of worship: or, God present in his churches.

MY soul, how lovely is the place To which thy God resorts!

Tis heaven to see his smiling face, Though in his earthly courts.

2 There the great Monarch of the skies His saving power displays; And light breaks in upon our eyes With kind and quickening rays.

3With his rich gifts, the heavenly Dove Descends and fills the place, While Christ reveals his wondrous love, And sheds abroad his grace.

4 There, mighty God, thy words declare The secrets of thy will; And still we seek thy mercy there, And sing thy praises still.

PAUSE.

5 My heart and flesh cry out for thee, While far from thine abode: When shall I tread thy courts, and see My Saviour and my God?

6The sparrow builds herself a nest, And suffers no remove; O make me, like the sparrow, blest, To dwell but where I love.

7To sit one day beneath thine eye, And hear thy gracious voice, Exceeds a whole eternity

Employ'd in carnal joys. 8Lord, at thy threshold I would wait, While Jesus is within, Rather than fill a throne of state,

Or live in tents of sin. 9Could I command the spacious land, And the more boundless sea,

For one blest hour at thy right hand I'd give them both away.

405 PSALM 84. H. M. Bethesda, St. Philip. Longing for the house of God.

How pleasant and how fair ORD of the worlds above, The dwellings of thy love, Thine earthly temples are! To thine abode With warm desires My heart aspires, | To see my God.

2 The sparrow for her young With pleasure seeks a nest And wandering swallows long To find their wonted rest: My spirit faints, To rise and dwell With equal zeal, | Among thy saints.

To spend one sacred day Where God and saints abide, Affords diviner joy Than thousand days beside: Where God resorts, To keep the door, Than shine in courts. I love it more

6 God is our sun and shield, Our light and our defence: With gifts his hands are fill'd, We draw our blessings thence: He shall bestow | Peculiar grace, On Jacob's race | And glory too.

Thrice happy he, Whose spirit trusts
O God of Hosts, Alone in thee!

406 Hymn 123. B. 2. L. M. Shoel, Sharon.

The benefit of public ordinances. WAY from every mortal care, Away from earth, our souls retreat; We leave this worthless world afar, And wait and worship near thy seat.

2 Lord, in the temple of thy grace We see thy feet, and we adore; We gaze upon thy lovely face, And learn the wonders of thy power.

3 While here our various wants we mourn, United groans ascend on high; And prayers produce a quick return Of blessings in variety.

4 [If Satan rage, and sin grow strong, Here we receive some cheering word; We gird the gospel armour on, To fight the battles of the Lord.

5 Or if our spirit faints and dies, (Our conscience gall'd with inward stings) Here doth the righteous Sun arise, With healing beams beneath his wings.]

6 Father! my soul would still abide Within thy temple, near thy side; But if my feet must hence depart, Still keep thy dwelling in my heart.

407 PSALM 27. 1st Part. Arundel, Patmos.

The church is our delight and safety THE Lord of glory is my light, And my salvation too: God is my strength, nor will I fear What all my foes can do.

2 One privilege my heart desires: O! grant me an abode

Among the churches of thy saints, The temples of my God.

3 There shall I offer my requests, And see thy beauty still; Shall hear thy messages of love, And there inquire thy will.

4 When troubles rise, and storms appear,
There may his children hide;
God has a strong pavilion where
He makes my soul abide.

5 Now shall my head be lifted high Above my foes around; And songs of joy and victory. Within thy temple sound.

408 PSALM 27. 2d Part. C. M. Abridge, Christmas.

Proyer and hope.

OON as I heard my Father say,
'Ye children, seek my grace;'
My heart reply'd, without delay,
'I'll seek my Father's face.'

2 Let not thy face be hid from me, Nor frown my soul away;God of my life, I fly to thee In a distressing day.

3 Should friends and kindred, near and Leave me to want or die, [dear, My God would make my life his care, And all my need supply.

4 My fainting flesh had died with grief, Had not my soul believed To see thy grace provide relief;

Nor was my hope deceived.

5 Wait on the Lord, ye trembling saints,
And keep your courage up;

He'll raise your spirit when it faints, And far exceed your hope.

409 PSALM 65. 1st Part. C. M. :

A prayer-hearing God, and the Gentiles called.

PRAISE waits in Zion, Lord, for thee;
There shall our vows be paid:
Thou hast an ear when sinners pray;
All flesh shall seek thine aid.

2 Lord, our iniquities prevail, But pardoning grace is thine; And thou wilt grant us power and skill

And thou wilt grant us power and skill To conquer every sin.

3 Blest are the men whom thou wilt choose

To bring them near thy face;
Give them a dwelling in thine house,
To feast upon thy grace.

4 In answering what thy church requests, Thy truth and terror shine, And works of dreadful righteousness Fulfil thy kind design.

5 Thus shall the wondering nations see The Lord is good and just: And distant islands fly to thee.

And distant islands fly to thee,
And make thy name their trust.

6 They dread thy glittering tokens, Lord,
When signs in heaven appear;
But they shall learn thy holy word,
And love, as well as fear.

410 Psalm 65. 1st Part. L. M. bor# Rothwell, Luton, Sharon. Public prayer and praise.

THE praise of Zion waits for thee, My God; and praise becomes thy house:

There shall thy saints thy glory see, And there perform their public vows.

2 O thou, whose mercy bends the skies, To save, when humble sinners pray, All lands to thee shall lift their eyes, And islands of the northern sea.

3 Against my will my sins prevail, But grace shall purge away their stain; The blood of Christ will never fail To wash my garments white again.

4 Blest is the man whom thou shalt choose, And give him kind access to thee; Give him a place within thy house, To taste thy love divinely free. PAUSE.

5 Let Babel fear when Zion prays; Babel, prepare for long distress, When Zion's God himself arrays In terror and in righteousness.

6 With dreadful glory, God fulfils What his afflicted saints request; And with almighty wrath reveals His love, to give his churches rest. 7 Then shall the flocking nations run To Zion's hill, and own their Lord;

The rising and the setting sun

Shall see the Saviour's name adored.

411 Psalm 116. 2d Part. C. M. bor#
St. Martin's, Clarendon.

Vows, made in trouble, paid in the church; or, public thanks for private deliverance.

And Zion triumph in her King.

7 ['Jesus shall see a numerous seed

'Born here, t' uphold his glorious name; 'His crown shall flourish on his head, 'While all his foes are cloth'd with shame.']

455 PSALM 118. 3d Part. C. M. Rochester, London.

Christ the foundation of his church. BEHOLD the sure foundation stone,

Which God in Zion lays, To build our heavenly hopes upon, And his eternal praise.

2 Chosen of God, to sinners dear, And saints adore the name;

They trust their whole salvation here, Nor shall they suffer shame.

3 The foolish builders, scribe and priest, Reject it with disdain;

Yet on this rock the church shall rest, And envy rage in vain.

4 What though the gates of hell withstood, Yet must this building rise: Tis thine own work, Almighty God, And wondrous in our eyes.

456 PSALM 45. 2d Part. L. M. Islington, Antigua.

Christ and his church; or, the mystical marriage. THE King of saints, how fair his face, Adorn'd with majesty and grace! He comes with blessings from above, And wins the nations to his love.

2 At his right hand, our eyes behold The queen, array'd in purest gold; The world admires her heavenly dress, Her robe of joy and righteousness.

3 He forms her beauties like his own; He calls and seats her near his throne; Fair stranger, let thine heart forget The idols of thy native state.

4 So shall the King the more rejoice In thee, the favourite of his choice; Let him be loved, and yet adored, For he's thy Maker, and thy Lord.

Let every age his praises spread; While we, with cheerful songs, approve The condescensions of his love.

PSALM 45. S. M. 457 Pelham, St. Thomas.

The glory of Christ; the success of the gospel, and the Gentile church.

MY Saviour and my King, Thy beauties are divine; Thy lips with blessings overflow, And every grace is thine.

Now make thy glory known; Gird on thy dreadful sword, And ride in majesty, to spread The conquests of thy word.

Strike through thy stubborn foes, Or melt their hearts t' obey; While justice, meekness, grace and truth Attend thy glorious way.

Thy laws, O God, are right; Thy throne shall ever stand; And thy victorious gospel prove A sceptre in thy hand.

Thy Father and thy God Hath without measure shed His Spirit, like a joyful oil, T' anoint thy sacred head.

Behold, at thy right hand The Gentile church is seen, Like a fair bride in rich attire, And princes guard the queen.

Fair bride, receive his love: Forget thy father's house: Forsake thy gods, thy idol gods, And pay thy Lord thy vows.

O let thy God and King Thy sweetest thoughts employ! Thy children shall his honours sing In palaces of joy.]

And mark the building well;

How decent and how wise!
How glorious to behold!
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorn'd with gold.

THE CHURCH'S AFFLICTIONS, PERSECUTIONS AND COMPLAINTS.

PSALM 80. L. M. Weils, Portugal, Bowen. 463

The church's prayer under affliction; or, the vine-yard of God wasted.

REAT Shepherd of thine Israel, Who didst between the cherubs dwell, And lead the tribes, thy chosen sheep, Safe through the desert and the deep; 2 Thy church is in the desert now, Shine from on high and guide us through; Turn us to thee, thy love restore; We shall be saved, and sigh no more. 3 Great God, whom heavenly hosts obey,

And wait in vain thy kind return? How long shall thy fierce anger burn? 4 Instead of wine and cheerful bread, Thy saints with their own tears are fed! Turn us to thee, thy love restore;

How long shall we lament and pray,

We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

PAUSE I.

5 Hast thou not planted with thy hands A lovely vine in heathen lands? Did not thy power defend it round, And heavenly dews enrich the ground?

6 How did the spreading branches shoot, And bless the nations with the fruit! But now, dear Lord, look down and see Thy mourning vine, that lovely tree.

7 Why is its beauty thus defaced? Why hast thou laid her fences waste? Strangers and foes against her join, And every beast devours thy vine.

8 Return, Almighty God, return; Nor let thy bleeding vineyard mourn; Turn us to thee, thy love restore; We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

PAUSE II.

9 Lord, when this vine in Canaan grew, Thou wast its strength and glory too! Attack'd in vain by all its foes, Till the fair Branch of Promise rose:

10 Fair Branch, ordain'd of old to shoot From David's stock, from Jacob's root; Himself a noble vine, and we The lesser branches of the tree.

11 "Tis thine own Son, and he shall stand, Girt with thy strength, at thy right hand,

Thy first-born Son, adorn'd and blest With power and grace above the rest. 12 O! for his sake, attend our cry; Shine on thy churches, lest they die; Turn us to thee, thy love restore; We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

PSALM 44. C. M. 464 Dundee, Plympton.

The church's complaint in porsecution.

ORD, we have heard thy works of old. L Thy works of power and grace, When to our ears our fathers told The wonders of their days.

2 How thou didst build thy churches here,

And make thy gospel known; Among them did thine arm appear, Thy light and glory shone.

3 In God they boasted all the day; And in a cheerful throng

Did thousands meet, to praise and pray, And grace was all their song.

4 But now our souls are seized with shame, Confusion fills our face,

To hear the enemy blaspheme, And fools reproach thy grace.

5 Yet have we not forgot our God, Nor falsely dealt with Heaven; Nor have our steps declined the road Of duty thou hast given;

6 Though dragons all around us roar With their destructive breath,

And thine own hand has bruised us sore, Hard by the gates of death.

PAUSE.

7 We are exposed all day to die As martyrs for thy cause; As sheep, for slaughter bound, we lie, By sharp and bloody laws.

8 Awake, arise, Almighty Lord! Why sleeps thy wonted grace? Why should we look like men abhorr'd, Or banish'd from thy face?

9 Wilt thou forever cast us off, And still neglect our cries? Forever hide thy heavenly love From our afflicted eyes?

10 Down to the dust our souls are bow'd, And die upon the ground; Rise for our help, rebuke the proud,

And all their powers confound.

11 Redeem us from perpetual shame, Our Saviour and our God; We plead the honours of thy name, The merits of thy blood.

465 PSALM 74. C. M. # or b

The church pleading with God under sore persecution.

WILL God forever cast us off?
His wrath forever smoke
Against the people of his love,
His little chosen flock?

2Think of the tribes so dearly bought With their Redeemer's blood; Nor let thy Sion be forgot,

Where once thy glory stood.

3 Lift up thy feet, and march in haste, Aloud our ruin calls;

See what a wide and fearful waste Is made within thy walls.

4Where once thy churches pray'd and sang, Thy foes profanely roar;

Over thy gates their ensigns hang, Sad tokens of their power.

5 How are the seats of worship broke! They tear the buildings down; And he that deals the heaviest stroke, Procures the chief renown.

6 With flames they threaten to destroy Thy children in their nest; 'Come, let us burn at once,' they cry,

'The temple and the priest.'

7 And still, to heighten our distress,
Thy presence is withdrawn;

Thy wonted signs of power and grace, Thy power and grace are gone.

8 No prophet speaks to calm our woes,

But all the seers mourn:

There's not a soul among us knows
The time of thy return.

PAUSE.

9 How long, eternal God! how long Shall men of pride blaspheme? Shall saints be made their endless song, And bear immortal shame?

10 Canst thou forever sit and hear Thine holy name profaned; And still thy jealousy forbear, And still withhold thine hand?

11 What strange deliverance hast thou In ages long before! [shown And now no other God we own, No other god adore.

12 Thou didst divide the raging sea By thy resistless might, To make thy tribes a wondrous way,

To make thy tribes a wondrous way, And then secure their flight.

13 Is not the world of nature thine, The darkness and the day?
Didst thou not bid the morning shine, And mark the sun his way?

14 Hath not thy power form'd ev'ry coast, And set the earth its bounds, With summer's heat and winter's frost, In their perpetual rounds?

15 And shall the sons of earth and dust That sacred power blaspheme? Will not thy hand, that form'd them first, Avenge thine injured name?

16 Think on the covenant thou hast made, And all thy words of love:

Nor let the birds of prey invade Nor vex thy mourning dove.

17 Our foes would triumph in our blood, And make our hope their jest: Plead thine own cause, Almighty God, And give thy children rest.

PSALM 83. S. M. Sutton, Olmutz.

A complaint against persecutors.

A ND will the God of grace Perpetual silence keep? The God of justice hold his peace, And let his vengeance sleep?

2 Behold, what cursed snares The men of mischief spread: The men that hate thy saints, and thee, Lift up their threatening head.

3 Against thy hidden ones Their counsels they employ, And malice, with her watchful eye, Pursues them to destroy.

4 The noble and the base
Into thy pastures leap;
The lion and the stupid ass
Conspire to vex thy sheep.

Come, let us join, they cry,
To root them from the ground,
Till not the name of saints remain,
Nor memory shall be found.

6 Awake, Almighty God, And call thy wrath to mind; Give them, like forests, to the fire, Or stubble to the wind.

7 Convince their madness, Lord, And make them seek thy name; Or else their stubborn rage confound, That they may die in shame.

Then shall the nations know That glorious, dreadful word, JEHOVAH is thy name alone, And thou the sovereign Lord.

467 PSALM 35. 1st Part. C. M. Bangor, Durham, Dedham.

Proyer and faith of persecuted saints; or, imprecations mixed with charity.

NOW plead my cause, Almighty God, With all the sons of strife; And fight against the men of blood, Who fight against my life.

2 Draw out thy spear, and stop their way, Lift thine avenging rod;

But to my soul in mercy say, 'I am thy Saviour God.'

3They plant their snares to catch my feet, And nets of mischief spread; Plunge the destroyers in the pit That their own hands have made.

4 Let fogs and darkness hide their way, And slippery be their ground; Thy wrath shall make their lives a prey, And all their rage confound.

5 They fly, like chaff before the wind, Before thine angry breath;

The angel of the Lord behind Pursues them down to death.

6 They love the road that leads to hell; Then let the rebels die,

Whose malice is implacable Against the Lord on high.

7 But if thou hast a chosen few Among that impious race, Divide them from the bloody crew By thy surprising grace.

8Then will I raise my tuneful voice To make thy wonders known; In their salvation I'll rejoice, And bless thee for my own.

468 PSALM 14. 2d Part. C. M. Plympton, Irish.

The folly of persecutors.

b

ARE sinners now so senseless grown, That they the saints devour? And never worship at thy throne, Nor fear thine awful power?

2 Great God! appear to their surprise; Reveal thy dreadful name; Let them no more thy wrath despise,

Nor turn our hope to shame. 3 Dost thou not dwell among the just?

And yet our foes deride, That we should make thy name our trust; Great God! confound their pride.

40 that the joyful day were come, To finish our distress!

When God shall bring his children home, Our songs shall never cease.

13*

PSALM 53. C. M. b | 469 York, St. Ann's.

Victory and deliverance from persecution. RE all the foes of Zion fools? A Who thus devour her saints?

Do they not know her Saviour rules, And pities her complaints?

2 They shall be seized with sad surprise; For God's avenging arm Scatters the bones of them that rise

To do his children harm.

3 In vain the sons of Satan boast Of armies in array;

When God has first despised their host, They fall an easy prey.

40 for a word from Zion's King, Her captives to restore!

Jacob with all his tribes shall sing, And Judah weep no more.

THE SAFETY, DELIVERANCE AND TRIUMPH OF THE CHURCH.

470 PSALM 135. 1st Part. L. M. # Danvers, Rothwell.

The church is God's house and care. PRAISE ye the Lord; exalt his name. While in his holy courts ye wait,

Ye saints, that to his house belong, Or stand attending at his gate.

2 Praise ye the Lord; the Lord is good: To praise his name is sweet employ, Israel he chose of old, and still His church is his peculiar joy.

3 The Lord himself will judge his saints; He treats his servants as his friends; And when he hears their sore complaints, Repents the sorrows that he sends.

4 Through every age the Lord declares His name, and breaks th' oppressor's rod, He gives his suffering servants rest, And will be known, Th' Almighty God. 5 Bless ve the Lord, who taste his love; People and priests, exalt his name; Among his saints he ever dwells; His church is his Jerusalem.

Hymn 39. B. 1. C. M. bor # 471 Dedham, St. Ann's.

God's tender care of his church.

NOW shall my inward joys arise, And burst into a song; Almighty love inspires my heart, And pleasure tunes my tongue.

2 God, on his thirsty Zion hill, Some mercy drops has thrown; And solemn oaths have bound his love To shower salvation down.

3 Why do we then indulge our fears, Suspicions and complaints? Is he a God, and shall his grace

Grow weary of his saints?

4 Can a kind woman e'er forget
The infant of her womb,
And 'mongst a thousand tender thoughts
Her suckling have no room?

5 'Yet,' saith the Lord, 'should nature change,

'And mothers monsters prove,
'Zion still dwells upon the heart
'Of everlasting love.

6 Deep on the palms of both my hands I have engraved her name;

'My hands shall raise her ruin'd walls,
'And build her broken frame."

472 HYMN 8. B. 1. C. M. #
Conway, Peterboro, Irish.

The safety and protection of the church.

HOW honourable is the place Where we adoring stand; Zion, the glory of the earth, And beauty of the land!

2 Bulwarks of mighty grace defend The city where we dwell; The walls, of strong salvation made, Defy the assaults of hell.

3 Lift up the everlasting gates, The doors wide open fling; Enter, ye nations, that obey The statutes of our King.

4 Here shall you taste unmingled joys, And live in perfect peace; You that have known Jehovah's name, And ventured on his grace.

5 Trust in the Lord, forever trust, And banish all your fears; Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells,

Eternal as his years.

6 What though the rebels dwell on high, His arm shall bring them low; Low as the caverns of the grave

Their lofty heads shall bow.
7 On Babylon our feet shall tread
In that rejoicing hour;
The ruins of her walls shall spread
A pavement for the poor.

473 HYMN 64. B. 2. L. M. #

God the glory and defence of Zion.

APPY the church, thou sacred place,
The seat of thy Creator's grace;
Thine holy courts are his abode,
Thou earthly palace of our God.

2 Thy walls are strength, and at thy gates A guard of heavenly warriors waits; Nor shall thy deep foundations move, Fix'd on his counsels and his love.

3 Thy foes in vain designs engage; Against his throne in vain they rage; Like rising waves, with angry roar, That dash and die upon the shore.

4 Then let our souls in Zion dwell, Nor fear the wrath of Rome and hell; His arms embrace this happy ground, Like brazen bulwarks built around.

5 God is our shield, and God our sun; Swift as the fleeting moments run, On us he sheds new beams of grace, And we reflect his brightest praise.

474 Hymn 18. B. 2. L. M.
Blendon, Shoel, Enfield.
The ministry of angels.

HIGH on a hill of dazzling light
The King of glory spreads his seat,
And troops of angels, stretch'd for flight,
Stand waiting round his awful feet.

2'Go,' saith the Lord, 'my Gabriel, go, 'Salute the virgin's fruitful womb; 'Make haste, ye cherubs, down below, 'Sing and proclaim the Saviour come.'

3 Here a bright squadron leaves the skies, And thick around Elisha stands; Anon a heavenly soldier flies, And breaks the chains from Peter's hands.

4 Thy winged troops, O God of hosts, Wait on thy wandering church below; Here we are sailing to thy coasts, Let angels be our convoy too.

5 Are they not all thy servants, Lord? At thy command they go and come; With cheerful haste obey thy word, And guard thy children to their home.

475 PSALM 46. 1st Part. L.M. Old Hundred, Chapel-Street.

The church's safety and triumph among national desolations.

GOD is the refuge of his saints, When storms of sharp distress invade; Ere we can offer our complaints, Behold him present with his aid.

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurl'd Down to the deep, and bury'd there; Convulsions shake the solid world, Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Loud may the troubled ocean roar; In sacred peace our souls abide, While every nation, every shore Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

Ħ

4 There is a stream, whose gentle flow Supplies the city of our God; Life, love and joy still gliding through, And watering our divine abode.

5. That sacred stream, thine holy word, That all our raging fear controls! Sweet peace thy promises afford, And give new strength to fainting souls.

6 Zion enjoys her Monarch's love, Secure against a threatening hour; Nor can her firm foundations move, Built on his truth, and arm'd with power.

476 PSALM 46. 2d Part. L. M.

God fights for his church.

ET Zion in her King rejoice, [rise; L Though tyrants rage, and kingdoms He utters his almighty voice, The nations melt, the tumult dies.

2 The Lord of old for Jacob fought, And Jacob's God is still our aid: Behold the works his hand hath wrought, What desolations he hath made!

3 From sea to sea, through all the shores, He makes the noise of battle cease; When from on high his thunder roars, He awes the trembling world to peace.

4 He breaks the bow, he cuts the spear, Chariots he burns with heavenly flame: Keep silence, all the earth, and hear The sound and glory of his name,

5'Be still, and learn that I am God, 'I'll be exalted o'er the lands. 'I will be known and fear'd abroad,

'But still my throne in Zion stands.'

60 Lord of hosts, Almighty King, While we so near thy presence dwell, Our faith shall sit secure, and sing Defiance to the gates of hell.

HYMN 28. B. 1. C. M. 477 Wareham, Arundel.

The triumph of Christ over the enemies of his church.

THAT mighty man, or mighty God Comes travelling in state, Along the Idumean road, Away from Bozrah's gate?

2 The glory of his robes proclaims Tis some victorious King; Tis I, the just, the Almighty One, 'That your salvation bring.

3 Why, mighty Lord, thy saints inquire, Why thine apparel red? And all thy vesture stain'd like those, Who in the wine-press tread?

4'I, by myself, have trod the press, 'And crush'd my foes alone;

'My wrath has struck the rebels dead, 'My fury stamp'd them down.

5 "Tis Edom's blood that dies my robes 'With joyful scarlet stains;

'The triumph that my raiment wears

'Sprung from their bleeding veins. 6'Thus shall the nations be destroy'd,

'That dare insult my saints; 'I have an arm to avenge their wrongs,

'An ear for their complaints.'

HYMN 29. B. 1. C. M. 478 Braintree, Peterborough.

The triumph of Christ; or, the ruin of antichrist. LIFT my banners,' saith the Lord, 'Where antichrist has stood;

'The city of my gospel foes 'Shall be a field of blood.

2'My heart has studied just revenge, 'And now the day appears,

'The day of my redeem'd is come, 'To wipe away their tears.

3'Quite weary is my patience grown, 'And bids my fury go;
'Swift as the lightning it shall move,

'And be as fatal too.

4'I call for helpers, but in vain; 'Then has my gospel none?

'Well, mine own arm has might enough 'To crush my foes alone.

5 'Slaughter and my devouring sword 'Shall walk the streets around, 'Babel shall reel beneath my stroke,

'And stagger to the ground.'

6 Thine honours, O victorious King! Thine own right hand shall raise, While we thine awful vengeance sing, And our Deliverer praise.

Hymn 56. B. 1. C. M. 479 Abridge, Christmas, Marlow.

The song of Moses and the Lamb; or, Babylon falling. TE sing the glories of thy love, We sound thy dreadful name; The Christian church unites the songs

Of Moses and the Lamb. 2 Great God! how wondrous are thy works

Of vengeance and of grace; Thou King of saints, Almighty Lord, How just and true thy ways!

3 Who dares refuse to fear thy name, Or worship at thy throne?

Thy judgments speak thy holiness, Through all the nations known.

4 Great Babylon, that rules the earth, Drunk with the martyrs' blood, Her crimes shall speedily awake The fury of our God.

5 The cup of wrath is ready mix'd, And she must drink the dregs; Strong is the Lord, her sov'reign Judge, And shall fulfil the plagues.

480 Hymn 58. B. 1. L. M. Sabaoth, Nantwich.

The devil vanquished; or, Michael's war with the dragen.

LET mortal tongues attempt to sing The wars of heaven, when Michael stood Chief general of th' eternal King,

And fought the battles of our God.

2 Against the dragon and his host

2 Against the dragon and his host
The armies of the Lord prevail;
In vain they rage, in vain they boast,
Their courage sinks, their weapons fail.

3 Down to the earth was Satan thrown, Down to the earth his legions fell; Then was the trump of triumph blown, And shook the dreadful deeps of hell.

4 Now is the hour of darkness past, Christ hath assum'd his reigning power; Behold the great accuser cast Down from the skies, to rise no more.

5"Twas by thy blood, immortal Lamb, Thine armies trod the tempter down; "Twas by thy word and powerful name They gain'd the battle and renown.

6 Rejoice, ye heavens; let every star Shine with new glories round the sky; Saints, while ye sing the heavenly war, Raise your Deliverer's name on high.

481 HYMN 59. B. 1. L. M. Wells, Shoel. Babylon fallen.

IN Gabriel's hand a mighty stone Lies, a fair type of Babylon: 'Prophets, rejoice, and all ye saints,

'God shall avenge your long complaints.

2 He said, and, dreadful as he stood,
He sunk the mill-stone in the flood:

'Thus terribly shall Babel fall:
'Thus, and no more be found at all.'

Thus, and no more be found at all

CHURCH MEETINGS.

482 PSALM 126. C. M. #
Parma, St. Martin's, Archdale.

The joy of a remarkable conversion; or, melancholy removed.

WHEN God reveal'd his gracious name, And changed my mournful state, My rapture seem'd a pleasing dream, The grace appear'd so great.

2 The world beheld the glorious change, And did thy hand confess; My tongue broke out in unknown strains,

And sung surprising grace.

3 Great is the work,' my neighbours cry'd,
And own'd thy power divine;
Great is the work,' my heart reply'd,

'And be the glory thine.'

4 The Lord can clear the darkest skies, Can give us day for night; Make drops of sacred sorrow rise To rivers of delight.

5 Let those that sow in sadness wait Till the fair harvest come,

They shall confess their sheaves are great,
And shout the blessings home.

6 Though seed lie bury'd long in dust, It shan't deceive their hope: The precious grain can ne'er be lost, For grace insures the crop.

PSALM 126. L. M. Shoel, Truro.

WHEN God restored our captive star,
Joy was our song and grace our theme,
The grace beyond our hopes so great,
That joy appear'd a painted dream.

2 The scoffer owns thy hand, and pays Unwilling honours to thy name; While we with pleasure shout thy praise With cheerful notes thy love proclaim

3 When we review'd our dismal fears, "Twas hard to think they'd vanish so With God we left our flowing tears; He makes our joys like rivers flow.

4 The man that in his furrow'd field His scatter'd seed with sadness leaves, Will shout to see the harvest yield A welcome load of joyful sheaves.

484 PSALM 34. 1st Part. L. M. #

God's care of the saints; slade.

ORD, I will bless thee all my days,
Thy praise shall dwell upon my tongues
My soul shall glory in thy grace,
While saints rejoice to hear the song.

2 Come, magnify the Lord with me, Come, let us all exalt his name: I sought th' eternal God, and he Has not exposed my hope to shame.

3 I told him all my secret grief; My secret groaning reach'd his ears; He gave my inward pains relief, And calm'd the tumult of my fears. 4 To him the poor lift up their eyes,
Their faces feel the heavenly shine;
A beam of mercy from the skies
Fills them with light and joy divine.
5 His holy angels pitch their tents
Around the men that serve the Lord:
O fear and love him, all his saints,
Taste of his grace, and trust his word!
6 The wild young lions, pinch'd with pain
And hunger, roar through all the wood;
But none shall seek the Lord in vain,
Nor want supplies of real good.

485 PSALM 34. 1st Part. C. M. #

Prayer, and praise for eminent deliverance.

I'LL bless the Lord from day to day;
How good are all his ways!
Ye humble souls, that use to pray,
Come, help my lips to praise.

2Sing, to the honour of his name, How a poor sufferer cry'd; Nor was his hope exposed to shame, Nor was his suit deny'd.

3 When threatening sorrows round me And endless fears arose, [stood, Like the loud billows of a flood, Redoubling all my woes;

4I told the Lord my sore distress,
With heavy groans and tears;
He gave my sharpest torments ease,
And silenced all my fears.

PAUSE.
5{O sinners! come and taste his love,
Come, learn his pleasant ways;
And let your own experience prove
The sweetness of his grace.

6He bids his angels pitch their tents Round where his children dwell; What ills their heavenly care prevents No earthly tongue can tell.]

7[0] love the Lord, ye saints of his; His eye regards the just; How richly blest their portion is.

How richly blest their portion is, Who make the Lord their trust! 8 Young lions, pinch'd with hunger, roar, And famish in the wood;

But God supplies his holy poor With every needful good.]

486 Psalm 66. 2d Part. C. M. London, Braintree.

Praise to God for hearing prayer.

Now shall my solemn vows be paid To that Almighty Power, Who heard the long requests I made In my distressful hour.

2 My lips and cheerful heart prepare To make his mercies known; Come, ye that fear my God, and hear The wonders he hath done.

3 When on my head huge sorrows fell, I sought his heavenly aid; He saved my sinking soul from hell,

And death's eternal shade.

4 If sin lay cover'd in my heart,
While prayer employ'd my tongue,
The Lord had shown me no regard,
Nor I his praises sung.

5 But God (his name be ever blest) Hath set my spirit free,

Nor turn'd from him my poor request, Nor turn'd his heart from me.

487 PSALM 106. 1st Part. L. M. #

Praise to God; or, communion with saints.

TO God the great, the ever bless'd,
Let songs of honour be address'd;
His mercy firm forever stands;
Give him the thanks his love demands.

2 Who knows the wonders of thy ways? Who shall fulfil thy boundless praise? Blest are the souls that fear thee still, And pay their duty to thy will.

3 Remember what thy mercy did For Jacob's race, thy chosen seed; And with the same salvation bless The meanest suppliant of thy grace.

4 O may I see thy tribes rejoice, And aid their triumphs with my voice! This is my glory, Lord, to be Join'd to thy saints, and near to thee.

488 PSALM 102. 2d Part. C. M. # Clarendon, Swanwick, St. Ann's.

Prayer heard, and Zion restored.

ET Zion and her sons rejoice!

Behold the promised hour!
Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
And comes t' exalt his power.

 Her dust and ruins that remain Are precious in our eyes;
 Those ruins shall be built again, And all that dust shall rise.

3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem, And stand in glory there; Nations shall bow before his name,

And kings attend with fear.

4 He sits a sovereign on his throne,

With pity in his eyes: He hears the dying prisoners groan, And sees their sighs arise.

5 He frees the souls condemn'd to death! And, when his saints complain, It shan't be said, that praying breath Was ever spent in vain.

6 This shall be known when we are dead, And left on long record, That ages yet unborn may read,

And trust and praise the Lord.

PRAYER AND PRAISE FOR THE ENLARGEMENT OF THE CHURCH:

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

489 PSALM 72. 1st Part. L. M. Old Hundred, Sharon.

The kingdom of Christ. REAT God, whose universal sway The known and unknown worlds obey, Now give the kingdom to thy Son, Extend his power, exalt his throne.

2 Thy sceptre well becomes his hands; All heaven submits to his commands; His justice shall avenge the poor, And pride and rage prevail no more.

3 With power he vindicates the just, And treads the oppressor in the dust; His worship and his fear shall last, Till hours, and years, and time be past.

4 As rain on meadows newly mown, So shall he send his influence down; His grace on fainting souls distils, Like heavenly dew on thirsty hills.

5 The heathen lands, that lie beneath The shades of overspreading death, Revive at his first dawning light, And deserts blossom at the sight.

6 The saints shall flourish in his days, Dress'd in the robes of joy and praise: Peace, like a river, from his throne Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

490 PSALM 72. 2d Part. L. M. Dunstan, Blendon, Enfield. Christ's kingdom among the Gentiles.

JESUS shall reign where'er the sun Does his successive journeys run: His kingdom stretch from shore to shore, Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 [Behold! the islands, with their kings, And Europe her best tribute brings: From north to south the princes meet, To pay their homage at his feet.

3 There Persia, glorious to behold, There India shines in Eastern gold; And barbarous nations, at his word, Submit, and bow, and own their Lord.]

4 For him shall endless prayer be made, And praises throng to crown his head; His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise With every morning sacrifice.

5 People and realms of every tongue Dwell on his love with sweetest song: And infant voices shall proclaim Their early blessings on his name.

6 Blessings abound where'er he reigns; The prisoner leaps to loose his chains, The weary find eternal rest, And all the sons of want are blest.

7 [Where he displays his healing power, Death and the curse are known no more; In him the tribes of Adam boast More blessings than their father lost.

8 Let every creature rise, and bring Peculiar honours to our King; Angels descend with songs again, And earth repeat the long Amen.

PSALM 45. C. M. 491 Abridge, Arundel.

The personal glories and government of Christ. I'LL speak the honours of my King: His form divinely fair;

None of the sons of mortal race May with the Lord compare.

2 Sweet is thy speech, and heav'nly grace Upon thy lips is shed:

Thy God with blessings infinite Hath crown'd thy sacred head.

3 Gird on thy sword, victorious Prince! Ride with majestic sway; Thy terrors shall strike through thy foes And make the world obey.

4 Thy throne, O God, forever stands: Thy word of grace shall prove A peaceful sceptre in thy hands,

To rule thy saints by love. 5 Justice and truth attend thee still But mercy is thy choice;

And God, thy God, thy soul shall fill With most peculiar joys.

492 PSALM 45. 1st Part. L. M. #

NOW be my heart inspired to sing The glories of my Saviour King, Jesus the Lord, how heavenly fair His form! how bright his beauties are! 2 O'er all the sons of human race He shines with a superior grace; Love from his lips divinely flows, And blessings all his state compose! 3 Dress thee in arms, most mighty Lord, Gird on the terror of thy sword! In majesty and glory ride, With truth and meekness at thy side. 4 Thine anger, like a pointed dart, Shall pierce the foes of stubborn heart: Or words of mercy, kind and sweet, Shall melt the rebels at thy feet.
5 Thy throne, O God, forever stands, Grace is the sceptre in thy hands; Thy laws and works are just and right, Justice and grace are thy delight.
6 God, thine own God hath richly shed His oil of gladness on thy head, And with his sacred Spirit blest His first-born Son above the rest.

493 PSALM 110. 1st Part. L. M. # islington, Portugal, Slade.
Christ excited, and multitudes converted; or, the success of the gospel.

THUS the eternal Father spake To Christ the Son: 'Ascend and sit 'At my right hand, till I shall make 'Thy foes submissive at thy feet.

2' From Zion shall thy word proceed;
'Thy word, the sceptre in thy hand,
'Shall make the hearts of rebels bleed,
'And bow their wills to thy command.

3'That day shall show thy power is great,
'When saims shall flock with willing minds,

'And sinners crowd thy temple-gate, 'Where holiness in beauty shines.'

4 O blessed power! O glorious day!
What a large victory shall ensue!
And converts who thy grace obey,
Exceed the drops of morning dew.

494 PSALM 110. 2d Part. L. M.
Portugal, Rothwell.

The kingdom and priesthood of Christ.

THUS the great Lord of earth and sea Spake to his Son, and thus he swore; Eternal shall thy priesthood be,

'And change from hand to hand no more.
2' Aaron and all his sons must die;

'But everlasting life is thine,
'To save forever those that fly

'For refuge from the wrath divine.
3'By me Melchisedek was made

'On earth a king and priest at once;
'And thou, my heavenly Priest, shalt plead,

'And thou, my King, shalt rule my sons.'
4 Jesus, the priest, ascends his throne,
While counsels of eternal peace,
Between the Father and the Son,
Proceed with honour and success.

5 Through the whole earth his reign shall spread,

And crush the powers that dare rebel;

Then shall he judge the rising dead, And send the guilty world to hell. 6 Though while he treads his glorious way, of Inough while he treads his giorious way,

He drinks the cup of tears and blood,
The sufferings of that dreadful day
Shall but advance him near to God.

495 PSALM 110. C. M. Blandford, Clifford.

Christ's kingdom and priesthood.

ESUS, our Lord, ascend thy throne,
And near thy Father sit:

And near thy Father sit:
In Zion shall thy power be known,
And make thy foes submit.

2 What wonders shall thy gospel do! Thy converts shall surpass

The numerous drops of morning dew, And own thy sovereign grace.

3 God hath pronounced a firm decree, Nor changes what he swore;

'Eternal shall thy priesthood be,
'When Aaron is no more.

4 'Melchisedek, that wondrous priest,
'That king of high degree,
'That holy man, who Abrah'm blest,
'Was but a type of thee.'

5 Jesus our priest forever lives
To plead for us above;
Jesus our king forever gives
The blessings of his love.

6 God shall exalt his glorious head, And his high throne maintain; Shall strike the powers and princes dead Who dare oppose his reign.

496 Hymn 50. B. 1. C. M. Baldwin, Arundel, Bray.

The song of Zacharias, and the message of John the Baptist; or, light and salvation by Jesus Christ.

NOW be the God of Israel bless'd,
Who makes his truth appear;
His mighty hand fulfils his word,
And all the oaths he sware.

2 Now he bedews old David's root
With blessings from the skies;
He makes the branch of promise grow,
The promised horn arise.

3 [John was the prophet of the Lord, To go before his face;

The herald which our Saviour God Sent to prepare his ways.

4 He makes the great salvation known, He speaks of pardon'd sins; While grace divine, and heavenly love,

In its own glory shines.
5'Behold the Lamb of God,' he cries,
'That takes our guilt away;

'I saw the Spirit o'er his head 'On his baptizing day.]

6'Be every vale exalted high, 'Sink every mountain low;

'The proud must stoop, and humble 'Shall his salvation know. [souls

7' The heathen realms with Israel's land
'Shall join in sweet accord;
'And all that's horn of man shall see

'And all that's born of man shall see
'The glory of the Lord.

8'Behold the Morning Star arise, 'Ye that in darkness sit:

'He marks the path that leads to peace,
'And guides our doubtful feet.'

497 HYMN 21. B. 1. C. M. # Arlington, Christmas, Lanesboro'.

A vision of the kingdom of Christ among men.

O, what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes!

The earth and seas are pass'd away,
And the old rolling skies.

2 From the third heaven, where God That holy, happy place, [resides, The New Jerusalem comes down, Adorn'd with shining grace.

3 Attending angels shout for joy, And the bright armies sing,

'Mortals, behold the sacred seat
'Of your descending King.

4'The God of glory down to men 'Removes his blest abode;

'Men, the dear objects of his grace,
'And he, the loving God.

5 'His own soft hand shall wipe the tears 'From every weeping eye; [fears, 'And pains, and groans, and griefs, and 'And death itself shall die.'

6 How long, dear Saviour, O how long Shall this bright hour delay? Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,

Fly swifter round, ye wheels of ti And bring the welcome day.

498 PSALM 117. C. M.
Wareham, Rochester, Tallis Chant.
Praise to God from all nations.

ALL ye nations, praise the Lord, Each with a different tongue; In every language learn his word, And let his name be sung.

2 His mercy reigns through every land; Proclaim his grace abroad; Forever firm his truth shall stand: Praise ye the faithful God.

PSALM 117. L. M.
Denbigh, Old Hundred, Enfield.
The same.

FROM all that dwell below the skies, Let the Creator's praise arise; Let the Redeemer's name be sung Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord; Eternal truth attends thy word; [shore, Thy praise shall sound from shore to Till suns shall rise and set no more.

500 Psalm 117. S. M. Clapton, Sutton.

THY name, Almighty Lord, Shall sound through distant lands; Great is thy grace, and sure thy word, Thy truth forever stands.

2 Far be thine honours spread,
And long thy praise endure,
Till morning light and evening shade
Shall be exchanged no more.

CIRCUMCISION AND BAPTISM.

501 Hymn 52. B. 1. L. M. Ellenthorpe, Eaton.

Baptism.

"TWAS the commission of our Lord, 'Go, teach the nations and baptize.'
The nations have received the word Since he ascended to the skies.

2 He sits upon the eternal hills, With grace and pardon in his hands, And sends his covenant, with the seals, To bless the distant Gentile lands.

3' Repent, and be baptized,' he saith,
'For the remission of your sins;'
And thus our sense assists our faith,
And shows us what his gospel means.

4 Our souls he washes in his blood, As water makes the body clean; And the good Spirit from our God Descends like purifying rain.

5 Thus we engage ourselves to thee, And seal our covenant with the Lord; O may the great Eternal Three In heaven our solemn vows record!

502 Hymn 122. B. 1. L. M. 97th Psalm, Hague.

Believers buried with Christ in baptism.

O we not know that solemn word,
That we are bury'd with the Lord;
Baptized into his death, and then
Put off the body of our sin?

2 Our souls receive diviner breath, Raised from corruption, guilt and death: So from the grave did Christ arise, And lives to God above the skies. 3 No more let sin nor Satan reign Over our mortal flesh again; The various lusts we served before Shall have dominion now no more.

503 HYMN 113. B. 1. C. M. Wareham, Arlington.

Abraham's blessing on the Gentiles HOW large the promise! how divine To Abrah'm and his seed! 'I'll be a God to thee and thine, 'Supplying all their need.'

2The words of his extensive love From age to age endure; The Angel of the covenant proves,

And seals the blessing sure. 3 Jesus the ancient faith confirms, To our great fathers given;

He takes young children to his arms, And calls them heirs of heaven.

40ur God, how faithful are his ways! His love endures the same; Nor from the promise of his grace Blots out the children's name.

Hymn 114. B. 1. C. M. 504 Christmas, Litchfield.

The same. TENTILES by nature, we belong Grace takes us from the barren tree, And grafts us in the good.

2 With the same blessings, grace endows
The Gentile and the Jew;

If pure and holy be the root, Such are the branches too.

3Then let the children of the saints Be dedicate to God;

Pour out thy Spirit on them, Lord, And wash them in thy blood. 4Thus to the parents and their seed

Shall thy salvation come, And numerous households meet at last In one eternal home.

Hymn 121. B. 1. C. M. 505 Covington, Wareham, Bedford. Children devoted to God.

(For those who practise Infant baptism.) THUS saith the mercy of the Lord, 'I'll be a God to thee; 'I'll bless thy numerous race, and they 'Shall be a seed for me.'

²Abrah'm believed the promised grace, And gave his son to God;

But water seals the blessing now, That once was seal'd with blood.

³Thus Lydia sanctified her house, When she received the word;

Thus the believing jailer gave His household to the Lord.

4 Thus later saints, eternal King, Thine ancient truth embrace; To thee their infant offspring bring, And humbly claim the grace.

Hymn 134. B. 2. 506 Swanwick, Irish. Circumcision abolished.

THE promise was divinely free, Extensive was the grace; 'I will the God of Abrah'm be, 'And of his numerous race.'

2 He said — and with a bloody seal Confirmed the words he spoke; Long did the sons of Abrah'm feel The sharp and painful yoke.

3 Till God's own Son, descending low, Gave his own flesh to bleed;

And Gentiles taste the blessing now, From the hard bondage freed.

4 The God of Abrah'm claims our praise; His promises endure;

And Christ the Lord, in gentler ways, Makes the salvation sure.

HYMN 127. B. 2. L. M. 507 Rothwell, Luton.

Circumcision and baptism. [Written only for those who practise the baptism

THUS did the sons of Abrah'm pass Under the bloody seal of grace; The young disciples bore the yoke, Till Christ the painful bondage broke.

2 By milder ways doth Jesus prove His Father's covenant, and his love; He seals to saints his glorious grace, And not forbids their infant race.

3 Their seed is sprinkled with his blood, Their children set apart for God; His Spirit on their offspring shed, Like water poured upon the head.

4 Let every saint, with cheerful voice, In this large covenant rejoice; Young children in their early days Shall give the God of Abrah'm praise.

Hymn 141. B. 2. C. M. 508 Franklin, Peterborough.

Faith assisted by sense; or, preaching, baptism, and the Lord's Supper.

Y Saviour God, my sovereign Prince Reigns far above the skies; But brings his graces down to sense And helps my faith to rise.

2 Mine eyes and ears shall bless his name, They read and hear his word;

My touch and taste shall do the same, When they receive the Lord.

3 Baptismal water is design'd
To seal his cleansing grace;
While at his feast of bread and wine
He gives his saints a place.

4 But not the waters of a flood Can make my flesh so clean As by his Spirit and his blood

As by his Spirit and his blood He'll wash my soul from sin.

5 Not choicest meats nor noblest wines So much my heart refresh, As when my faith goes through the signs, And feeds upon his flesh.

6 I love the Lord, who stoops so low, To give his word a seal; But the rich grace his hands bestow Exceeds the figures still.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

509 Hymn 1. B. 3. L. M. b

The Lord's Supper instituted.

TWAS on that dark, that doleful night,
When powers of earth and hell arose
Against the Son of God's delight,
And friends betray'd him to his foes:

2 Before the mournful scene began, He took the bread, and bless'd, and brake; What love through all his actions ran! What wondrous words of grace he spake!

3 'This is my body broke for sin;
'Receive and eat the living food;'
Then took the cup, and bless'd the wine;
'Tis the new covenant in my blood.'

4 [For us his flesh with nails was torn, He bore the scourge, he felt the thorn; And justice pour'd upon his head Its heavy vengeance in our stead.]

5 [For us his vital blood was spilt, To buy the pardon of our guilt; When for black crimes of biggest size He gave his soul a sacrifice.]

6' Do this,' he cried, 'till time shall end,
'In memory of your dying Friend;
'Meet at my table, and record

'The love of your departed Lord.'

7 [Jesus! thy feast we celebrate, We show thy death, we sing thy name, Till thou return, and we shall eat The marriage supper of the Lamb.]

510 HYMN 2. B. 3. S. M. Sommership on the Chairt and with spirite

Communion with Christ, and with saints.

[JESUS invites his saints

To meet around his board:

Here pardon'd rebels sit, and hold Communion with their Lord.

2 For food he gives his flesh; He bids us drink his blood: Amazing favour! matchless grace Of our descending God!]

3 This holy bread and wine
Maintain our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.

4 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his members one!
We the young children of his love,
And he the first-born Son.

5 We are but several parts
Of the same broken bread!
One body hath its several limbs,
But Jesus is the head.

6 Let all our powers be join'd His glorious name to raise; Pleasure and love fill every mind, And every voice be praise.

511 Hymn 3. B. 3. C. M. Swanwick, Irish.

The New Testament in the blood of Christ; er, the new covenant sealed.

'THE promise of my Father's love 'Shall stand forever good,' He said—and gave his soul to death,

And seal'd the grace with blood.
2 To this dear covenant of thy word
I set my worthless name;

I seal th' engagement to my Lerd, And make my humble claim.

3 The light, and strength, and pardoning
And glory shall be mine; [grace,
My life and soul, my heart and flesh,
And all my powers are thine.

4I call that legacy my own,
Which Jesus did bequeath;
"Twas purchased with a dying groun,
And ratify'd in death.

5 Sweet is the memory of his name, Who bless'd us in his will, And to his testament of love

Made his own life the seal.

512 HYMN 4. B. 3. C. M. Bedford, Abridge.

Christ's dying love; or, our pardon bought at a dear price.

HOW condescending and how kind
Was God's eternal Son!
Our misery reach'd his heavenly mind,
And pity brought him down.

2 [When justice, by our sins provoked, Drew forth its dreadful sword,

He gave his soul up to the stroke, Without a murmuring word.]

3[He sunk beneath our heavy woes, To raise us to his throne; There's ne'er a gift his hand bestows, But cost his heart a groan.]

4 This was compassion like a God,
That when the Saviour knew
The price of pardon was his blood,
His pity no'er withdrew.

5 Now, though he reigns exalted high, His love is still as great: Well he remembers Calvary,

Nor lets his saints forget.
6 [Here we behold his bowels roll
As kind as when he died,

And see the sorrows of his soul

Bleed through his wounded side.]

7 [Here we receive repeated seals Of Jesus' dying love! Hard is the wretch that never feels

One soft affection move.]
8 Here let our hearts begin to melt,

While we his death record,
And, with our joy for pardon'd guilt,
Mourn that we pierced the Lord.

513 HYMN 5. B. 3. C. M. #
York, Arlington, Franklin.
Christ the bread of life.

LET us adore the Eternal Word,
Tis he our souls hath fed:
Thou art our living stream, O Lord,
And thou the immortal bread.

 2 [The manna came from lower skies, But Jesus from above,
 Where the fresh springs of pleasure rise, And rivers flow with love.

3 The Jews, the fathers, died at last, Who ate that heavenly bread: But these provisions which we taste, Can raise us from the dead.]

4 Bless'd be the Lord, who gives his flesh To nourish dying men; And often spreads his table fresh, Lest we should faint again.

5 Our souls shall draw their heavenly breath

While Jesus finds supplies; Nor shall our graces sink to death, For Jesus never dies.

6 [Daily our mortal flesh decays, But Christ, our life, shall come; His unresisted power shall raise Our bodies from the tomb.] 514 HYMN 6. B. 3. L. M. Dunstan, Old Hundred, Hague.
The memorial of our absent Lord.

JESUS is gone above the skies,
Where our weak senses reach him not;
And carnal objects court our eyes,
To thrust our Saviour from our thought.

2 He knows what wandering hearts we Apt to forget his lovely face, [have, And, to refresh our minds, he gave These kind memorials of his grace.

3 The Lord of life this table spread
With his own flesh and dying blood;
We on the rich provision feed,
And taste the wine, and bless our God.

4 Let sinful sweets be all forgot, And earth grow less in our esteem; Christ and his love fill every thought, And faith and hope be fix'd on him.

5 While he is absent from our sight,
'Tis to prepare our souls a place,
That we may dwell in heavenly light,
And live forever near his face.

6 [Our eyes look upward to the hills, Whence our returning Lord shall come: We wait thy chariot's awful wheels, To fetch our longing spirits home.]

515 HYMN 7. B. 3. L. M. Danvers, Munich.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross of Christ.
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ, my God! All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his blood.

3 See from his head, his hands, his feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down; Did e'er such love and sorrow meet? Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 [His dying crimson, like a robe, Spreads o'er his body on the tree; Then am I dead to all the globe, And all the globe is dead to me.]

5 Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a present far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all!

516 Hymn 8. B. 3. C. M. Rochester, St. Ann's, Lanesboro'.

The tree of life.

COME, let us join a joyful tune To our exalted Lord, Ye saints on high, around his throne, And we around his board.

2 While once upon this lower ground, 7
Weary and faint ye stood,
What dear refreshments here ye found

From this immortal food!

3 The tree of life, that near the throne In heaven's high garden grows, Laden with grace, bends gently down Its ever smiling boughs.

4 [Hovering among the leaves, there stands The sweet celestial Dove;

And Jesus on the branches hangs The banner of his love.

5 "Tis a young heaven of strange delight
While in his shade we sit;

His fruit is pleasing to the sight, And to the taste as sweet.

6 New life it spreads thro' dying hearts, And cheers the drooping mind; Vigour and joy the juice imparts, Without a sting behind.]

7 Now let the flaming weapon stand, And guard all Eden's trees; There's ne'er a plant in all that land That bears such fruits as these.

8 Infinite grace our souls adore,
Whose wondrous hand has made
This living branch of sovereign power
To raise and heal the dead.

517 Hymn 9. B. 3. S. M. #
St. Thomas, Paddington.

The Spirit, the water, and the blood.

ET all our tongues be one,
To praise our God on high,
Who from his bosom sent his Son,

To fetch us strangers nigh.

Nor let our voices cease
To sing the Saviour's name:
Jesus, the ambassador of peace,
How cheerfully he came!

3 It cost him cries and tears
To bring us near to God;
Great was our debt, and he appears
To make the payment good.

4 [My Saviour's pierced side Pour'd out a double flood; By water we are purify'd, And pardon'd by the blood.

5 Infinite was our guilt,
But he, our Priest, atones;
On the cold ground his life was spilt,
And offer'd with his groans.]

6 Look up, my soul, to him Whose death was thy desert, And humbly view the living stream Flow from his breaking heart.

7 There, on the cursed tree, In dying pangs he lies, Fulfils his Father's great decree, And all our wants supplies.

8 Thus the Redeemer came, By water, and by blood;

And when the Spirit speaks the same, We feel his witness good.

9 While the Eternal Three

Bear their record above, Here I believe he died for me, And seal my Saviour's love.

10 [Lord, cleanse my soul from sin, Nor let thy grace depart; Great Comforter, abide within,

And witness to my heart.

518 Hymn 10. B. 3. L. M.

Christ crucified, the wisdom and power of God.

NATURE with open volume stands,
To spread her Maker's praise abroad;
And every labour of his hands
Shows something worthy of a God.

2 But in the grace that rescued man, His brightest form of glory shines; Here, on the cross, 'tis fairest drawn In precious blood, and crimson lines.

3 [Here his whole name appears complete, Nor wit can guess, nor reason prove, Which of the letters best is writ, The power, the wisdom, or the love.]

4 Here I behold his inmost heart, Where grace and vengeance strangely join;

Piercing his Son with sharpest smart, To make the purchased pleasures mine.

5 O, the sweet wonders of that cross, Where God the Saviour lov'd and died! Her noblest life my spirit draws From his dear wounds and bleeding side.

6 I would forever speak his name, In sounds to mortal ears unknown; With angels join to praise the Lamb, And worship at his Father's throne.

519 Hymn 11. B. 3. C. M. Covington, Devizes.

Pardon brought to our senses

ORD, how divine thy comforts are!

How heavenly is the place,

Where Jesus spreads the sacred feast

Of his redeeming grace!

2 There the rich bounties of our God

And sweetest glories shine;

There Jesus says that 'I am his, 'And my Beloved's mine.'

3'Here,' saith the kind redeeming Lord, And shows his wounded side, 'See here the spring of all your joys, 'That open'd when I died!'

4 [He smiles, and cheers my mournful heart,

And tells of all his pain;

'All this,' says he, 'I bore for thee,'
And then he smiles again.]

5 What shall we pay our heavenly King For grace so vast as this!

He brings our pardon to our eyes, And seals it with a kiss.

6 [Let such amazing loves as these Be sounded all abroad; Such favours are beyond degrees, And worthy of a God.]

7[To Him who wash'd us in his blood Be everlasting praise; Salvation, honour, glory, power, Eternal as his days.]

520 HYMN 12. B. 3. L. M.
Old Hundred, Slade.
The gospel feast.

HOW rich are thy provisions, Lord!
Thy table furnish'd from above!
The fruits of life o'erspread the board,
The cup o'erflows with heavenly love.

2 Thine ancient family, the Jews, Were first invited to the feast: We humbly take what they refuse, And Gentiles thy salvation taste.

3 We are the poor, the blind, the lame; And help was far, and death was nigh! But at the gospel call we came, And every want received supply.

4 From the highway that leads to hell, From paths of darkness and despair, Lord, we are come, with thee to dwell, Glad to enjoy thy presence here.]

5 [What shall we pay th' Eternal Son, That left the heaven of his abode, And to this wretched earth came down, To bring us, wanderers, back to God?

6 It cost him death to save our lives; To buy our souls it cost his own; And all the unknown joys he gives Were bought with agonies unknown.

7 Our everlasting love is due
To him who ransom'd sinners lost;
And pity'd rebels, when he knew
The vast expense his love would cost.]
14*

521 HYMN 13. B. 3. C. M. St. Martin's, Christmas, Covington.

Divine love making a feast, and calling in the guests.

OW sweet and awful is the place,
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores!

2 Here every bowel of our God With soft compassion rolls; Here peace and pardon, bought with blood, Is food for dying souls.

3 [While all our hearts and all our songs Join to admire the feast,

Each of us cries, with thankful tongues, 'Lord, why was I a guest?

4 'Why was I made to hear thy voice,
'And enter while there's room,
'When thousands make a wretched
choice,

'And rather starve than come?']
5'Twas the same love that spread the feast
That sweetly forced us in;
Floor was had still refused to taste

Else we had still refused to taste, And perish'd in our sin.

6 [Pity the nations, O our God; Constrain the earth to come; Send thy victorious word abroad, And bring the strangers home.

7 We long to see thy churches full, That all the chosen race May with one voice and heart and soul Sing thy redeeming grace.]

522 Hymn 14. B. 3. L. M.
Baldwin, Dorchester.

The song of Simeon; or, a sight of Christ makes death easy.

NOW have our hearts embraced our God!

We would forget all earthly charms, And wish to die as Simeon would, With his young Saviour in his arms.

2 Our lips should learn that joyful song, Were but our hearts prepared like his; Our souls still waiting to be gone, And at thy word depart in peace.

3 Here we have seen thy face, O Lord, And view'd salvation with our eyes, Tasted and felt the living Word, The bread descending from the skies.

4 Thou hast prepared this dying Lamb, Hast set his blood before our face, To teach the terrors of thy name, And show the wonders of thy grace.

5 He is our light; our morning-star Shall shine on nations yet unknown; The glory of thine Israel here, And joy of spirits near thy throne,

#

523 Hymn 15. B. 3. C. M. St. Ann's, Abridge, Stamford.

Our Lord Jesus at his own table.

[THE memory of our dying Lord Awakes a thankful tongue;

How rich he spread his royal board, And bless'd the food, and sung!

2 Happy the men that eat this bread, But doubly bless'd was he That gently bow'd his loving head, And lean'd it, Lord, on thee.

3 By faith the same delights we taste As that great favourite did, And sit, and lean on Jesus' breast, And take the heavenly bread.

4 Down from the palace of the skies Hither the King descends! 'Come, my beloved, eat (he cries)

'And drink salvation, friends.

5 ['My flesh is food and physic too,

'A balm for all your pains:
'And the red streams of pardon flow
'From these my pierced veins.'

6 Hosanna to his bounteous love,
For such a feast below!

And yet he feeds his saints above
With nobler blessings too.

7 [Come, the dear day, the glorious hour, That brings our souls to rest! Then we shall need these types no more, But dwell at th' heavenly feast.]

524 HYMN 16. B. 3. C. M. Mear, Irish.

Now let our pains be all forgot,
Our hearts no more repine;
Our sufferings are not worth a thought
When, Lord, compared with thine.

2 In lively figures here we see
The bleeding Prince of love:
Each of us hopes he died for me,
And then our griefs remove.

3 [Our humble faith here takes her rise, While sitting round his board; And back to Calvary she flies, To view her groaning Lord.

4 His soul, what agonies it felt
When his own God withdrew;
And the large load of all our guilt
Lay heavy on him too!

5 But the Divinity within
Supported him to bear;
Dying, he conquer'd hell and sin,
And made his triumph there.

6 Grace, wisdom, justice, join'd and wrought The wonders of that day: No mortal tongue, no mortal thought Can equal thanks repay.

7 Our hymns should sound like those Could we our voices raise; [above, Yet, Lord, our hearts shall all be love, And all our lives be praise.

525 Hymn 17. B. 3. S. M. Olmutz, St. Thomas, Pelham.

Incomparable food; or, the flesh and blood of Christ
WE sing the amazing deeds
That grace divine performs;
Th'eternal God comes down and bleeds,
To nourish dying worms.

2 This soul-reviving wine,
Dear Saviour, 'tis thy blood;
We thank that sacred flesh of thine
For this immortal food.]

3 The banquet that we eat
Is made of heavenly things;
Earth hath no dainties half so sweet
As our Redeemer brings.

4 In vain had Adam sought, And search'd his garden round, For there was no such blessed fruit In all that happy ground

5 Th' angelic host above
Can never taste this food;
They feast upon their Maker's love,
But not a Saviour's blood.

6 On us the Almighty Lord
Bestows his matchless grace;
And meets us with some cheering word,
With pleasure in his face.

7 Come, all ye drooping saints, And banquet with the King; This wine will drown your sad complaints, And tune your voice to sing.

S Salvation to the name
Of our adored Christ; [claim,
Through the wide earth his grace proHis glory in the highest.

526 HYMN 18. B. 3. L. M. Stonefield, Wells, Bath.

The same.

JESUS! we bow before thy feet!
Thy table is divinely stored!
Thy sacred flesh our souls have eat,
'Tis living bread—we thank thee, Lord'
2 And here we drink our Saviour's blood'

We thank thee, Lord! 'tis generous wine Mingled with love, the fountain flow'd From that dear bleeding heart of thine.

3 On earth is no such sweetness found, For the Lamb's flesh is heavenly food; In vain we search the globe around For bread so fine, or wine so good.

4 Carnal provisions can at best But cheer the heart, or warm the head, But the rich cordial that we taste Gives life eternal to the dead. 5 Joy to the Master of the feast;

His name our souls forever bless; To God the King, and God the Priest, A loud hosanna round the place.

Hymn 19. B. 3. L. M. 527 Ward, Portugal.

Glory in the cross; or, not ashamed of Christ crucified. A T thy command, our dearest Lord, Here we attend thy dying feast; Thy blood, like wine, adorns thy board, And thine own flesh feeds every guest.

20ur faith adores thy bleeding love, And trusts for life in one that died; We hope for heavenly crowns above From a Redeemer crucified.

3 Let the vain world pronounce it shame, And fling their scandals on thy cause; We come to boast our Saviour's name, And make our triumphs in his cross.

4 With joy we tell the scoffing age He that was dead has left his tomb; He lives above their utmost rage, And we are waiting till he come.

Hymn 20. B. 3. C. M. 528 Bedford, Rochester.

The provisions for the table of our Lord; or, the tree of life, and river of love.

ORD, we adore thy bounteous hand, And sing the solemn feast, Where sweet celestial dainties stand For every willing guest.

2[The tree of life adorns the board With rich immortal fruit, And ne'er an angry flaming sword

To guard the passage to it. 3 The cup stands crown'd with living juice; The fountain flows above,

And runs down streaming, for our use, In rivulets of love.

4 The food's prepared by heavenly art, The pleasures well refined; They spread new life through every heart,

And cheer the drooping mind. 5 Shout and proclaim the Saviour's love, Ye saints that taste his wine; Join with your kindred saints above, In loud hosannas join.

6 A thousand glories to the God Who gives such joy as this; Hosanna! let it sound abroad, And reach where Jesus is.

HYMN 21. B. 3. C. M. Rochester, Bray, Marlow. C. M. 529

The triumphant feast for Christ's victory over sta, death and hell.

OME, let us lift our voices high High as our joys arise; And join the songs above the sky,

Where pleasure never dies. 2 Jesus, the God, who fought and bled, And conquer'd when he fell;

Who rose, and at his chariot wheels Dragg'd all the powers of hell.]

3 [Jesus, the God, invites us here.

To this triumphal feast, And brings immortal blessings down

For each redeemed guest. 4 The Lord! how glorious is his face!

How kind his smiles appear! And, O! what melting words he says To every humble ear!

5' For you, the children of my love,

'It was for you I died; Behold my hands, behold my feet,

'And look into my side.

6'These are the wounds for you I bore, 'The tokens of my pains,

'When I came down to free your souls 'From misery and chains.

7 ['Justice unsheath'd its fiery sword, 'And plunged it in my heart; 'Infinite pangs for you I bore,

'And most tormenting smart.

8 'When hell, and all its spiteful powers 'Stood dreadful in my way

'To rescue those dear lives of yours, 'I gave my own away.

9 'But while I bled, and groan'd, and died, 'I ruin'd Satan's throne;

'High on my cross I hung, and spy'd 'The monster tumbling down.

10' Now you must triumph at my feast, 'And taste my flesh, my blood; And live eternal ages blest,

'For 'tis immortal food.'

11 Victorious God! what can we pay For favours so divine?

We would devote our hearts away, To be forever thine.

12 We give thee, Lord, our highest praise, The tribute of our tongues; But themes so infinite as these Exceed our noblest songs.

Hymn 22. В. З. L. M. 530 97th Psalm, Hague, Wells. The compassion of a dying Christ. UR spirits join t'adore the Lamb; O that our feeble lips could move In strains immortal as his name, And melting as his dying love.

2 Was ever equal pity found?
The Prince of heaven resigns his breath,
And pours his life out on the ground,
To ransom guilty worms from death!

3 [Rebels, we broke our Maker's laws; He from the threatening set us free; Bore the full vengeance on his cross, And nail'd the curses to the tree.]

4 [The law proclaims no terror now, And Sinai's thunder roars no more; From all his wounds new blessings flow, A sea of joy without a shore.

5 Here we have wash'd our deepest stains, And heal'd our wounds with heavenly blood:

Blest fountain! springing from the veins
Of Jesus, our incarnate God.]

6 In vain our mortal voices strive
To speak compassion so divine;
Had we a thousand lives to give,
A thousand lives should all be thine.

531 Hymn 23. B. 3. C. M. Litchfield, Dundee.

Grace and glory by the death of Christ.

[SITTING around our Father's board,
We raise our tuneful breath,
Our faith beholds her dying Lord,
And dooms our sins to death.]

2 We see the blood of Jesus shed, Whence all our pardons rise; The sinner views th' atonement made, And loves the sacrifice.

3 Thy cruel thorns, thy shameful cross, Procure us heavenly crowns: Our highest gain springs from thy loss; Our healing from thy wounds.

40! 'tis impossible that we,
Who dwell in feeble clay,
Should equal sufferings bear for thee,
Or equal thanks repay.

532 HYMN 24. B. 3. C. M. York, Litchfield.

Pardon and strength from Christ.

PATHER, we wait to feel thy grace,
To see thy glories shine;
The Lord will his own table bless,
And make the feast divine.

2 We touch, we taste the heavenly bread, We drink the sacred cup; With outward forms our sense is fed, Our souls rejoice in hope.

3 We shall appear before the throne Of our forgiving God, Dress'd in the garments of his Son, And sprinkled with his blood.

4 We shall be strong to run the race, And climb the upper sky: Christ will provide our souls with grace,

He bought a large supply.

5 [Let us indulge a cheerful frame, For joy becomes a feast; We love the memory of his name More than the wine we taste.]

533 HYMN 25. B. 3. C. M. Devizes, Barby.

Divine glories and graces.

OW are thy glories here display'd;
Great God, how bright they shine;
While at thy word we break the bread,
And pour the flowing wine!

2 Here thy revenging justice stands, And pleads its dreadful cause; Here saving mercy spreads her hands,

Like Jesus on the cross.

3 Thy saints attend, with every grace,
On this great sacrifice;

And love appears with cheerful face, And faith with fixed eyes.

4 Our hope in waiting posture sits, To heaven directs her sight; Here every warmer passion meets, And warmer powers unite.

5 Zeal and revenge perform their part, And rising sin destroy; Repentance comes with aching hear,

Yet not forbids the joy.
6 Dear Saviour, change our faith to sight;
Let sin forever die;
Then shall our souls be all delight,
And every tear be dry.

SOLOMON'S SONG.

HYMN 66. B. 1. L. M.
Tallis' Evening Hymn, Effingham.
Christ, the King, at his table.

ET him embrace my soul, and prove Mine interest in his heavenly love; The voice that tells me, 'Thou art mine, Exceeds the blessings of the vine.

2 On thee th' anointing Spirit came, And spread the savour of thy name; That oil of gladness and of grace Draws virgin souls to meet thy face.

3 Jesus, allure me by thy charms; My soul shall fly into thine arms; Our wandering feet thy favours bring To the fair chambers of the King. 4 [Wonder and pleasure tune our voice To speak thy praises, and our joys; Our memory keeps this love of thine Beyond the taste of richest wine.]

5 Though in ourselves deform'd we are, And black as Kedar's tents appear, Yet when we put thy beauties on, Fair as the courts of Solomon.

6 [While at his table sits the King, He loves to see us smile and sing; Our graces are our best perfume, And breathe like spikenard round the room.]

7 As myrrh, new bleeding from the tree, Such is a dying Christ to me: And while he makes my soul his guest, My bosom, Lord, shall be thy rest.

8 [No beams of cedar or of fir Can with thy courts on earth compare; And here we wait until thy love Raise us to nobler seats above.]

535 Hymn 67. B. 1. L. M. #Portugal, Sharon.
Seeking the pastures of Christ the Shepherd.

THOU, whom my soul admires above
All earthly joy, and earthly love,
Tell me, dear Shepherd, let me know
Where doth thy sweetest pasture grow?

2 Where is the shadow of that rock, That from the sun defends thy flock? Fain would I feed among thy sheep, Among them rest, among them sleep.

3 Why should thy bride appear like one That turns aside to paths unknown? My constant feet would never rove, Would never seek another love.

4 [The footsteps of thy flock I see; Thy sweetest pastures here they be; A wondrous feast thy love prepares, Bought with thy wounds and groans and tears.

5 His dearest flesh he makes my food, And bids me drink his richest blood: Here to these hills my soul will come, Till my Beloved lead me home.

536 Hymn 68. B. 1. L. M. Wells, Shoel.

The banquet of love.

BEHOLD the Rose of Sharon here,
The lily which the valleys bear;
Behold the tree of life, that gives
Refreshing fruit and healing leaves.

2 Among the thorns so lilies shine,
Among wild gourds the poble vine:

Among the thorns so lines snine, Among wild gourds the noble vine; So in mine eyes my Saviour proves, Amidst a thousand meaner loves. 3 Beneath his cooling shade I sat,
To shield me from the burning heat:
Of heavenly fruit he spreads a feast,
To feed my eyes, and please my tasta.

4 [Kindly he brought me to the place Where stands the banquet of his grace; He saw me faint, and o'er my head The banner of his love he spread.

5 With living bread and generous wine He cheers this sinking heart of mine; And opening his own heart to me, He shows his thoughts, how kind they be.]

6 O never let my Lord depart;
Lie down and rest upon my heart:
I charge my sins not once to move,
Nor str, nor wake, nor grieve my Love.

537 HYMN 69. B. 1. L. M. Luton, Proctor.

Christ appearing to his church, and seeking her company.

THE voice of my Beloved sounds
Over the rocks and rising grounds;
O'er hills of guilt, and seas of grief,
He leaps, he flies to my relief.

2 Now, through the veil of flesh, I see With eyes of love he looks at me; Now in the gospel's clearest glass He shows the beauties of his face.

3 Gently he draws my heart along, Both with his beauties and his tongue; 'Rise,' saith my Lord, make haste away; 'No mortal joys are worth thy stay.

4 'The Jewish wintry state is gone,
'The mists are fled, the spring comes on;
'The sacred turtle-dove we hear
'Proclaim the new, the joyful year.

5 'Th' immortal vine of heavenly root 'Blossoms and buds, and gives her fruit.' Lo, we are come to taste the wine; Our souls rejoice, and bless the vine.

6 And when we hear our Jesus say,
'Rise up, my love, make haste away!'
Our hearts would fain outfly the wind,
And leave all earthly loves behind.

538 Hymn 70. B. 1. L. M. Uxbridge, Effingham.

#

Christ inviting, and the church answering the invitation.

HARK! the Redeemer from on high Sweetly invites his favourites nigh; From caves of darkness and of doubt, He gently speaks, and calls us out.

2 My dove, who hidest in the rock, Thine heart almost with sorrow broke, 'Lift up thy face, forget thy fear,
'And let thy voice delight mine ear.

3'Thy voice to me sounds ever sweet;
'My graces in thy count'nance meet:
'Though the vain world thy face despise,
'Tis bright and comely in mine eyes.'

4 Dear Lord, our thankful heart receives
The hope thine invitation gives;
To thee our joyful lips shall raise
The voice of prayer and that of praise.

5 [I am my love's, and he is mine; Our hearts, our hopes, our passions join; Nor let a motion, nor a word, Nor thought arise to grieve my Lord.

6 My soul to pastures fair he leads, Among the lilies where he feeds; Among the saints (whose robes are white, Wash'd in his blood) is his delight.

7 Till the day break, and shadows flee, Till the sweet dawning light I see, Thine eyes to me-ward often turn, Nor let my soul in darkness mourn.

8 Be like a hart on mountains green, Leap o'er the hills of fear and sin; Nor guilt nor unbelief divide My love, my Saviour, from my side.]

539 Hymn 71. B. 1. L. M. Portugal, Chapel-Street.

Christ found in the street, and brought to the church.

OFTEN I seek my Lord by night,
Jesus, my love, my soul's delight;
With warm desire and restless thought,
I seek him oft, but find him not.

2 Then I arise and search the street, Till I my Lord, my Saviour, meet! I ask the watchmen of the night, 'Where did you see my soul's delight?'

3 Sometimes I find him in my way,
Directed by a heavenly ray;
I leap for joy to see his face,
And hold him fast in mine embrace.

4 [I bring him to my mother's home; Nor does my Lord refuse to come, To Sion's sacred chambers, where My soul first drew the vital air.

5 He gives me there his bleeding heart, Pierced for my sake with deadly smart; I give my soul to him, and there Our loves their mutual tokens share.]

6 I charge you all, ye earthly toys, Approach not to disturb my joys; Nor sin, nor hell come near my heart, Nor cause my Saviour to depart. 540 HYMN 72. B. 1. L. M. Shoel, Portugal, Sharon.

The coronation of Christ; and espousals of the church.

AUGHTERS of Sion, come, behold
The crown of honour and of gold,
Which the glad church, with joys unknown,

Placed on the head of Solomon.

2 Jesus, thou everlasting King, Accept the tribute which we bring, Accept the well-deserved renown, And wear our praises as thy crown.

3 Let every act of worship be Like our espousals, Lord, to thee; Like the dear hour, when from above We first received thy pledge of love.

4 The gladness of that happy day
Our hearts would wish it long to stay;
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor comfort sink, nor love grow cold.

50! let each minute, as it flies, Increase thy praise, improve our joys; Till we are raised to sing thy name, At the great supper of the Lamb.

6 O that the months would roll away, And bring that coronation day! The King of grace shall fill the throne, With all his Father's glories on.

541 Hymn 73. B. 1. L. M. Winchester, Newcourt.

The church's beauty in the eyes of Christ.

IND is the speech of Christ our Lord,
Affection sounds in every word;
Lo, thou art fair, my love,' he cries;
Not the young doves have sweeter eyes.

2 ['Sweet are thy lips, thy pleasing voice 'Salutes mine ear with secret joys; 'No spice so much delights the smell,

'Nor milk nor honey tastes so well.]
3'Thou art all fair, my bride, to me;
'I will behold no spot in thee.'
What mighty wonders love performs,

And puts a comeliness on worms!

4 Defiled and loathsome as we are,
He makes us white, and calls us fair;
Adorns us with that heavenly dress,
His graces, and his righteousness.

5 'My sister, and my spouse,' he cries,
'Bound to my heart by various ties,
'Thy powerful love my heart retains

'In strong delight and pleasing chains.'
6 He calls me from the leopard's den,
From this wide world of beasts and men,
To Sion, where his glories are:
Not Lebanon is half so fair.

7 Nor dens of prey, nor flowery plains, Nor earthly joys, nor earthly pains, Shall hold my feet, or force my stay, When Christ invites my soul away.

542 HYMN 74. B. 1. L. M. #

The church the garden of Christ.

WE are a garden wall'd around,
Chosen and made peculiar ground,
A little spot, inclosed by grace,
Out of the world's wide wilderness.

Like trees of myrrh and spice we stand,
Planted by God the Father's hand;

Planted by God the Father's hand;
And all his springs in Sion flow,
To make the young plantation grow.

3 Awake, O heavenly wind, and come, Blow on this garden of perfume; Spirit divine, descend and breathe A gracious gale on plants beneath.

4 Make our best spices flow abroad,
To entertain our Saviour God:
And faith, and love, and joy appear,
And every grace be active here.
5 [Let my Beloved come and taste

His pleasant fruits at his own feast;
'I come, my spouse, I come,' he cries,
With love and pleasure in his eyes.
6 Our Lord into his garden comes.

6 Our Lord into his garden comes,
Well pleased to smell our poor perfumes;
And calls us to a feast divine,
Sweeter than honey, milk or wine.

7 Eat of the tree of life, my friends,
The blessings that my Father sends;
Your taste shall all my dainties prove,
And drink abundance of my love.

8 Jesus, we will frequent thy board, And sing the bounties of our Lord: But the rich food on which we live Demands more praise than tongues can give.]

543 Hymn 75. B. 1. L. M. Winchester, Luton.

The description of Christ, the beloved.

THE wond'ring world inquires to know
Why I should love my Jesus so;
'What are his charms,' say they, 'above
'The objects of a mortal love?'

2 Yes, my Beloved, to my sight, Shows a sweet mixture, red and white; All human beauties, all divine, In my Beloved meet and shine.

3 White is his soul, from blemish free; Red with the blood he shed for me; The fairest of ten thousand fairs; A sun among ten thousand stars. 4 [His head the finest gold excels; There wisdom in perfection dwells; And glory like a crown adorns Those temples once beset with thorns.

5 Compassions in his heart are found, Hard by the signals of his wound; His sacred side no more shall bear The cruel scourge, the piercing spear.]

6 [His hands are fairer to behold Than diamonds set in rings of gold; Those heavenly hands, that on the tree Were nail'd, and torn, and bled for me.

7 Though once he bow'd his feeble knees, Loaded with sins and agonies, Now, on the throne of his command, His legs like marble pillars stand.]

8 [His eyes are majesty and love, The eagle temper'd with the dove; No more shall trickling sorrows roll Through those dear windows of his soul.]

9 His mouth that pour'd out long complaints
Now smiles, and cheers his fainting saints,
His countenance more graceful is
Than Lebanon with all its trees.

10 All over glorious is my Lord; Must be beloved, and yet adored, His worth if all the nations knew, Sure the whole earth would love him too.

544 Hymn 76. B. 1. L. M. Rothwell, Bowen.

When they are the size of the size of the tell when the size of the tell what beauties in my Saviour dwell, where he is gone they fain would know. That they may seek and love him too.

2 My best Beloved keeps his throne On hills of light, in worlds unknown; But he descends, and shows his face In the young gardens of his grace.

3 [In vineyards planted by his hand, Where fruitful trees in order stand, He feeds among the spicy beds, Where lilies show their spotless heads. 4 He has engross'd my warmest love; No earthly charms my soul can move: I have a mansion in his heart, Nor death nor hell shall make us part.]

5 [He takes my soul ere I'm aware, And shows me where his glories are; No chariot of Amminadib The heavenly rapture can describe.

6 O may my spirit daily rise
On wings of faith above the skies,
Till death shall make my last remove,
To dwell forever with my love.]

HYMN 77. B. 1. L. M. Shoel, Luton.

The love of Christ to the church, in his language to her, and provision for her.

NOW, in the galleries of his grace, Appears the King, and thus he says,

'How fair my saints are in my sight! 'My love how pleasant for delight!'

2 Kind is thy language, sovereign Lord, There's heavenly grace in every word; From that dear mouth a stream divine Flows, sweeter than the choicest wine.

3 Such wondrous love awakes the lip Of saints, that were almost asleep, To speak the praises of thy name, And makes our cold affections flame.

4 These are the joys he lets us know In fields and villages below: Gives us a relish of his love, But keeps his noblest feast above.

5 In paradise, within the gates An higher entertainment waits: Fruits new and old, laid up in store, Where we shall feed, but thirst no more.

546 HYMN 78. B. 1. L. M. Shoel, Quito, Effingham. Strength of Christ's love, and the soul's jealousy of

[WHO is this fair one in distress. That travels from the wilderness, And, press'd with sorrows and with sins, On her beloved Lord she leans?

2 This is the spouse of Christ our God, Bought with the treasure of his blood: And her request, and her complaint Is but the voice of every saint.]

3'O let my name engraven stand 'Both on thy heart and on thy hand:

Seal me upon thine arm, and wear 'That pledge of love forever there. 4 'Stronger than death thy love is known,

'Which floods of wrath could never drown; 'And hell and earth in vain combine

'To quench a fire so much divine.

5' But I am jealous of my heart,

'Lest it should once from thee depart;

Then let thy name be well impress'd 'As a fair signet on my breast.

6'Till thou hast brought me to thy home, Where fears and doubts can never come,

'Thy count'nance let me often see, And often thou shalt hear from me.

7'Come, my Beloved, haste away,

'Cut short the hours of thy delay; 'Fly like a youthful hart or roe

'Over the hills where spices grow.'

TIMES AND SEASONS.

MORNING AND EVENING

Hymn 79. B. 1. L. M. 547 Nantwich, Blendon, Slade. A morning hymn.

OD of the morning, at whose voice The cheerful sun makes haste to rise, And like a giant doth rejoice To run his journey through the skies.

2 From the fair chambers of the east The circuit of his race begins, And, without weariness or rest Round the whole earth he flies and shines.

3 O, like the sun, may I fulfil Th' appointed duties of the day; With ready mind and active will March on, and keep my heavenly way.

4 [But I shall rove and lose the race, If God, my sun, should disappear, And leave me in this world's wild mase, To follow every wandering star.

5 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure, Enlightening our beclouded eyes; Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure, Thy gospel makes the simple wise.

6 Give me thy counsel for my guide, And then receive me to thy bliss; All my desires and hopes beside Are faint and cold, compared with this.

B. 2. C. M. HYMN 6. 548 Abridge, St. Ann's, Clifford.

A morning song.

NCE more, my soul, the rising day Salutes thy waking eyes; Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To Him that rules the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats, The day renews the sound, Wide as the heaven on which he sits, To turn the seasons round.

3 Tis he supports my mortal frame; My tongue shall speak his praise; My sins would rouse his wrath to flame, And yet his wrath delays.

4 [On a poor worm thy power might treat, And I could ne'er withstand:

Thy justice might have crush'd me dead, But mercy held thine hand.

5 A thousand wretched souls are fled Since the last setting sun; And yet thou lengthenest out my thread,

And yet my moments run.

6 Dear God, let all my hours be thine, 4 When I behold them press'd with grief, Whilst I enjoy the light; Then shall my sun in smiles decline, And bring a pleasant night.

PSALM 3. L. M. 549 97th Psalm, Brentford.

A morning psalm. O LORD, how many are my foes, In this weak state of flesh and blood! My peace they daily discompose; But my defence and hope is God.

2 Tired with the burdens of the day, To thee I raised an evening cry: Thou heard'st when I began to pray, And thine almighty help was nigh.

3 Supported by thine heavenly aid, I laid me down, and slept secure: Not death should make my heart afraid, Though I should wake and rise no more.

4 But God sustain'd me all the night; Salvation doth to God belong; He raised my head to see the light, And make his praise my morning song.

Hymn 81. B. 1. L. M. 55() Medfield, Litchfield.

A song for morning or evening. MY God, how endless is thy love! Thy gifts are every evening new; And morning mercies, from above, Gently distil like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night, Great Guardian of my sleeping hours; Thy sovereign word restores the light, And quickens all my drowsy powers.

31 yield my powers to thy command; To thee I consecrate my days; Perpetual blessings from thine hand Demand perpetual songs of praise.

PSALM 141. L. M. 551 Tallis' Evening Hymn, Shoel. Watchfulness and brotherly reproof A morning or evening psalm.

MY God, accept my early vows, Like morning incense in thy house; And let my nightly worship rise, Sweet as the evening sacrifice.

2 Watch o'er my lips, and guard them, Lord, From every rash and heedless word; Nor let my feet incline to tread The guilty path where sinners lead.

3 O may the righteous, when I stray, Smite and reprove my wandering way; Their gentle words, like ointment shed Shall never bruise, but cheer my head. I'll cry to heaven for their relief; And by my warm petitions prove How much I prize their faithful love.

HYMN 8. B. 2. C. M. 552 Devizes, Marlow.

A hymn for morning or evening. HOSANNA, with a cheerful sound, To God's upholding hand: Ten thousand snares attend us round, And yet secure we stand.

2 That was a most amazing power, That raised us with a word, And every day, and every hour We lean upon the Lord.

3 The evening rests our weary head, And angels guard the room; We wake, and we admire the bed That was not made our tomb.

4 The rising morning can't assure That we shall end the day; For death stands ready at the door, To seize our lives away.

5 Our breath is forfeited by sin To God's avenging law; We own thy grace, immortal King, In every gasp we draw.

6 God is our sun, whose daily light Our joy and safety brings; Our feeble flesh lies safe at night Beneath his shady wings.

HYMN 80. B. 1. L. M. 553 Hebron, All Saints. An evening hymn.

THUS far the Lord has led me on, Thus far his power prolongs my days, And every evening shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste, And I, perhaps, am near my home; But he forgives my follies past, He gives me strengh for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep; Peace is the pillow for my head; While well appointed angels keep Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 In vain the sons of earth or hell Tell me a thousand frightful things; My God in safety makes me dwell Beneath the shadow of his wings.

5 | Faith in his name forbids my fear: O may thy presence ne'er depart; And in the morning make me hear The love and kindness of thy heart. 6 Thus when the night of death shall come, My flesh shall rest beneath the ground, And wait thy voice, to rouse my tomb, With sweet salvation in the sound.]

554 Hymn 7. B. 2. C. M.
Barby, Bedford.
An evening song.

READ Sovereign, let my evening Like holy incense rise; [song, Assist the offerings of my tongue To reach the lofty skies.

2 Through all the dangers of the day Thy hand was still my guard, And still to drive my wants away

Thy mercy stood prepared.]
3 Perpetual blessings from above

Encompass me around,
But O, how few returns of love
Hath my Creator found!

4 What have I done for him that died To save my wretched soul? How are my follies multiplied, Fast as my minutes roll!

5 Lord, with this guilty heart of mine,
 To thy dear cross I flee,
 And to thy grace my soul resign,
 To be renew'd by thee.

6 Sprinkled afresh with pardoning blood, I lay me down to rest, As in th' embraces of my God, Or on my Saviour's breast.

FSALM 4. C. M. Bedford, Rochester, Covington.

An evening psalm.

ORD, thou wilt hear me when I pray;
I far forever thine;
I fear before thee all the day,
Nor would I dare to sin.

2 And while I rest my weary head, From cares and business free, Tis sweet conversing on my bed With my own heart and thee.

3I pay this evening sacrifice;
And when my work is done,
Great God, my faith and hope relies
Upon thy grace alone.

4 Thus, with my thoughts composed to
I'll give mine eyes to sleep; [peace,
Thy hand in safety keeps my days,
And will my slumbers keep.

556 PSALM 139. 3d Part. C. M.
Braintree, Franklin.
The mercies of God innumerable.

An evening psalm.

ORD, when I count thy mercies o'er,
They strike me with surprise;

Not all the sands that spread the shore To equal numbers rise.

2 My flesh with fear and wonder stands.
The product of thy skill;
And hourly blessings from thy hands

And hourly blessings from thy hands Thy thoughts of love reveal.

3 These on my heart by night I keep; How kind, how dear to me!

O may the hour that ends my sleep Still find my thoughts with thee.

557 PSALM 63. 2d Part. C. M. Bedford, Covington.

Midnight thoughts recollected.

"TWAS in the watches of the night
I thought upon thy power;
I kept thy lovely face in sight
Amid the darkest hour.

2 My flesh lay resting on my bed; My soul arose on high; 'My God, my life, my hope,' I said,

'Bring thy salvation nigh.'

3 My spirit labours up thine hill,
And climbs the heavenly road:

But thy right hand upholds me still,
While I pursue my God.

4 Thy mercy stretches o'er my head The shadow of thy wings; My heart rejoices in thine aid;

My tongue awakes and sings.

5 But the destroyers of my peaces

Shall fact and race in vain.

Shall fret and rage in vain;
The tempter shall forever cease,
And all my sins be slain.

6 Thy sword shall give my foes to death, And send them down to dwell In the dark caverns of the earth, Or to the deeps of hell.

THE SEASONS OF THE YEAR

558 PSALM 65. 3d Part. C. M. *
Cambridge, Conway.

The blessings of the Spring; or, God gives and A psalm for the Husbandman.

A psalm for the Husbandman.

GOOD is the Lord, the heavenly King,
Who makes the earth his care;
Visits the pastures every spring,

And bids the grass appear.

The clouds, like rivers, raised on high
Pour out, at thy command,

Their watery blessings from the sky, To cheer the thirsty land.

3 The soften'd ridges of the field Permit the corn to spring; The valleys rich provision yield, And the poor labourers sing.

4 The little hills, on every side, Rejoice at falling showers; The meadows, dress'd in all their pride, Perfume the air with flowers.

5 The barren clods, refresh'd with rain, Promise a joyful crop;

The parched grounds look green again, And raise the reaper's hope.

6 The various months thy goodness crowns; How bounteous are thy ways! The bleating flocks spread o'er the downs, And shepherds shout thy praise.

559 PSALM 65. 2d Part. C. M. Peterborough, Colchester.

The providence of God in air, earth, and sea; or, the blessing of rain.

"TIS by thy strength the mountains stand, God of eternal power!

The sea grows calm at thy command, And tempests cease to roar.

2 Thy morning light and evening shade Successive comforts bring;

Thy plenteous fruits make harvest glad, Thy flowers adorn the spring.

3 Seasons and times, and moons and hours, Heaven, earth, and air are thine; When clouds distil in fruitful showers, The Author is divine.

4 Those wandering cisterns in the sky, Borne by the winds around, With watery treasures well supply The furrows of the ground.

5 The thirsty ridges drink their fill, And ranks of corn appear; Thy ways abound with blessings still, Thy goodness crowns the year.

560 PSALM 147. 2d Part. L. M. Slade, Leyden.

Summer and Winter.

LET Zion praise the mighty God,
And make his honours known abroad,
For sweet the joy, our songs to raise,
And glorious is the work of praise,?

2 Our children are secure and blest; Our shores have peace, our cities rest; He feeds our sons with finest wheat, And adds his blessing to their meat.

3 The changing seasons he ordains,
The early and the latter rains;
His flakes of snow like wool he sends,
And thus the springing corn defends.

4 With hoary frost he strews the ground; His hail descends with clattering sound; Where is the man, so vainly bold, That dares defy his dreadful cold?

5 He bids the southern breezes blow: The ice dissolves, the waters flow: But he hath nobler works and ways To call his people to his praise.'

6 To all our realm his laws are shown; His gospel through the nation known; He hath not thus reveal'd his word To every land:—Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 147. C. M. Devizes, Stamford. The seasons of the year.

WITH songs and honours sounding Address the Lord on high! [loud Over the heavens he spreads his cloud, And waters veil the sky.

2 He sends his showers of blessings down To cheer the plains below; He makes the grass the mountains crown,

And corn in valleys grow.

3 He gives the grazing ox his meat: He hears the ravens cry;

But man, who tastes his finest wheat, Should raise his honours high.

4 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,

And wintry days appear.

5 His hoary frost, his fleecy snow
Descend and clothe the ground;

The liquid streams forbear to flow, In icy fetters bound.

6 When from his dreadful stores on high He pours the rattling hail, The wretch, that dares this God defy, Shall find his courage fail.

7 He sends his word, and melts the snow, The fields no longer mourn; He calls the warmer gales to blow,

And bids the spring return.
8'The changing wind, the flying cloud

Obey his mighty word:
With songs and honours sounding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

PSALM 29. L. M. Truro, All Saints, Enfield.

GIVE to the Lord, ye sons of fame, Give to the Lord renown and power Ascribe due honours to his name, And his eternal might adore.

2 The Lord proclaims his power aloud Over the ocean and the land; His voice divides the watery cloud, And lightnings blaze at his command.

3 He speaks, and tempest, hail and wind Lay the wide forest bare around; The fearful hart and frighted hind Leap at the terror of the sound. 4 To Lebanon he turns his voice,
And lo! the stately cedars break;
The mountains tremble at the noise,
The valleys roar, the deserts quake.
5 The Lord sits sovereign on the flood;
The Thunderer reigns forever King:
But makes his church his blest abode,
Where we his awful glories sing.

6 In gentler language, there the Lord The counsels of his grace imparts; Amid the raging storm, his word Speaks peace and courage to our hearts.

563 Hymn 62. B. 2. C. M. b or # Abridge, Swanwick, London.

God the thunderer; or, the last judgment, and hell.*
SING to the Lord, ye heavenly hosts,
And thou, O earth, adore:

Let death and hell, through all their coasts, Stand trembling at his power.

2 His sounding chariot shakes the sky; He makes the clouds his throne; There all his stores of lightning lie, Till vengeance darts them down.

3 His nostrils breathe out fiery streams— And from his awful tongue

A sovereign voice divides the flames, And thunder roars along!

4 Think, O my soul, the dreadful day, When this incensed God Shall rend the sky, and burn the sea, And fling his wrath abroad!

5 What shall the wretch, the sinner do?
He once defy'd the Lord;
But he shall dread the Thunderer now,
And sink beneath his word.

6 Tempests of angry fire shall roll, To blast the rebel worm, And beat upon his naked soul In one eternal storm.

* Written in a great sudden storm of thunder, August 20, 1697

YOUTH AND OLD AGE.

564 PSALM 8. 1st Part. L. M. #

The hosanna of the children; or, infants praising God.

A LMIGHTY Ruler of the skies, Through the wide earth thy name is spread;

And thine eternal glories rise
O'er all the heavens thy hands have made.

2 To thee the voices of the young A monument of honour raise; And babes, with uninstructed tongue, Declare the wonders of thy praise. 3 Thy power assists their tender age To bring proud rebels to the ground; To still the bold blasphemer's rage, And all their policies confound.

4 Children amid thy temple throng
To see their great Redeemer's face;
The Son of David is their song,
And young hosannas fill the place.

5 The frowning scribes and angry priests In vain their impious cavils bring; Revenge sits silent in their breasts, While Jewish babes proclaim their King.

565 PSALM 34. 2d Part. L. M. b or #

Religious education; or, instructions of picty.
CHILDREN, in years and knowledge young,
Your parents' hope, your parents' joy,

Your parents' hope, your parents' joy, Attend the counsels of my tongue; Let pious thoughts your minds employ.

2 If you desire a length of days, And peace to crown your mortal state, Restrain your feet from impious ways, Your lips from slander and deceit.

3 The eyes of God regard his saints, His ears are open to their cries; He sets his frowning face against The sons of violence and lies.

4 To humble souls and broken hearts, God with his grace is ever nigh; Pardon and hope his love imparts, When men in deep contrition lie.

5 He tells their tears, he counts their groams, His Son redeems their souls from death; His Spirit heals their broken bones; They in his praise employ their breath.

566 PSALM 34. 2d Part. C. M. *

Exhortations to peace and holiness.

COME, children, learn to fear the Lord;
And, that your days be long,
Let not a false or spiteful word
Be found upon your tongue.

2 Depart from mischief, practise love, Pursue the works of peace; So shall the Lord your ways approve, And set your souls at ease.

3 His eyes awake to guard the just, '
His ears attend their cry;
When broken spirits dwell in dust.

The God of grace is nigh.

4 What though the sorrows here they taste Are sharp and tedious too,

b

The Lord, who saves them all at last, $|\,569\,$ Is their supporter now.

5 Evil shall smite the wicked dead, But God secures his own. Prevents the mischief when they slide,

Or heals the broken bone.

6When desolation, like a flood, O'er the proud sinner rolls, Saints find a refuge in their God, For he redeem'd their souls.

HYMN 91. B. 1. L. M. 567 Hebron, Dresden. Advice to youth; or, old age and death in an unconverted state.

NOW, in the heat of youthful blood, Remember your Creator, God: Behold, the months come hastening on, When you shall say, 'My joys are gone.'

2 Behold, the aged sinner goes, Laden with guilt, and heavy woes, Down to the regions of the dead, With endless curses on his head.

3The dust returns to dust again; The soul, in agonies of pain, Ascends to God, not there to dwell, But hears her doom, and sinks to hell.

4 Eternal King, I fear thy name; Teach me to know how frail I am; And when my soul must hence remove, Give me a mansion in thy love.

568 Hymn 89. B. 1. L. M. Armley, Quito. Youth and judgment.

YE sons of Adam, vain and young, Indulge your eyes, indulge your tongue; Taste the delights your souls desire, And give a loose to all your fire.

2 Pursue the pleasures you design, And cheer your hearts with sengs and wine;

Enjoy the day of mirth; but know There is a day of judgment too.

3 God from on high beholds your thoughts; His book records your secret faults: The works of darkness you have done Must all appear before the sun.

4 The vengeance to your follies due, Should strike your hearts with terror through:

How will ye stand before his face, Or answer for his injured grace? 5 Almighty God, turn off their eyes

From these alluring vanities, And let the thunder of thy word Awake their souls to fear the Lord. 15*

Hymn 90. B. 1. C. M. Franklin, York.

The same. O, the young tribes of Adam rise, And through all nature rove, Fulfil the wishes of their eyes, And taste the joys they love.

2 They give a loose to wild desires; But let the sinners know The strict account that God requires

Of all the works they do.

3 The Judge prepares his throne on high The frighted earth and seas Avoid the fury of his eye,

And flee before his face.

4 How shall I bear that dreadful day, And stand the fiery test?

I give all mortal joys away, To be forever blest.

570 PSALM 90. 2d Part. York, Dedham. C. M.

Infirmities and mortality the effect of sin; or, lift, old age, and preparation for death.

ORD, if thine eyes survey our faults,

ORD, if thine eyessen...
And justice grow severe,
Thy dreadful wrath exceeds our thoughts,

2 Thine anger turns our frame to dust: By one offence to thee, Adam, with all his sons, have lost

Their immortality. 3 Life, like a vain amusement, flies,

A fable or a song; By swift degrees our nature dies, Nor can our joys be long.

4 Tis but a few whose days amount To threescore years and ten; And all beyond that short account

Is sorrow, toil, and pain. 5 [Our vitals, with laborious strife, Bear up the crazy load,

And drag those poor remains of life Along the tiresome road.]

6 Almighty God, reveal thy love, And not thy wrath alone; O let our sweet experience prove The mercies of thy throne!

7 Our souls would learn the heavenly art To improve the hours we have, That we may act the wiser part, And live beyond the grave.

571 PSALM 71, 1st Part. C. M. St. Ann's, York.

The aged saint's reflection and hope. MY God, my everlasting hope, I live upon thy truth; Thine hands have held my childhood up, And strengthen'd all my youth.

2 My flesh was fashion'd by thy power, With all these limbs of mine; And from my mother's painful hour, I've been entirely thine.

3 Still hath my life new wonders seen, Repeated every year; Behold my days that yet remain,

Behold my days that yet remain, I trust them to thy care.

4 Cast me not off when strength declines, When hoary hairs arise; And round me let thy glory shine,

Whene'er thy servant dies.

5 Then, in the history of my age,
When men review my days,
They'll read thy love in every page,
In every line, thy praise.

572 PSALM 71. 3d Part. C. M. Litchfield, Canterbury.

The aged Christian's prayer and song; or, old age, death, and the resurrection.

GOD of my childhood and my youth, The guide of all my days, I have declared thy heavenly truth, And told thy wondrous ways.

2 Wilt thou forsake my hoary hairs, And leave my fainting heart? Who shall sustain my sinking years, If God, my strength, depart?

3 Let me thy power and truth proclaim To the surviving age,

And leave a savour of thy name When I shall quit the stage.

4 The land of silence and of death
Attends my next remove;
O may these poor remains of breath
Teach the wide world thy love.

PAUSE.

5 Thy righteousness is deep and high, Unsearchable thy deeds; Thy glory spreads beyond the sky,

And all my praise exceeds.
6 Oft have I heard thy threatenings roar,

And oft endured the grief;
But when thy hand hath press'd me sore,
Thy grace was my relief.

7 By long experience have I known Thy sovereign power to save; At thy command I venture down Securely to the grave.

8 When I lie buried deep in dust,
My flesh shall be thy care;
These withering limbs with thee I trust,

To raise them strong and fair.

FAST AND THANKSGIVING DAYS, &c.

573 PSALM 10. C. M. St. Ann's, Windsor.

Prayer heard, and soints saved; or, pride, atheism, and oppression punished. For a humiliation day.

WHY doth the Lord stand off so far?
And why conceal his face,
When great calamities appear,
And times of deep distress?

2 Lord, shall the wicked still deride
Thy justice and thy power?

Shall they advance their heads in pride, And still thy saints devour?

3 They put thy judgments from their sight, And then insult the poor; They boast, in their exalted height, That they shall fall no more.

4 Arise, O God, lift up thine hand, Attend our humble cry; No enemy shall dare to stand When God ascends on high

When God ascends on high.

PAUSE.

5 Why do the men of malice rage,
And say, with foolish pride,

'The God of heaven will ne'er engage 'To fight on Zion's side?'

6 But thou forever art our Lord;
And powerful is thine hand,
As when the heathens felt thy sword,

And perish'd from thy land.

7 Thou wilt prepare our hearts to pray,
And cause thine ear to hear;

Hearken to what thy children say, And put the world in fear.

8 Proud tyrants shall no more oppress, No more despise the just; And mighty sinners shall confess They are but earth and dust.

574 PSALM 12. C. M. b or #

Complaint of a general corruption of manners; or, the promise and signs of Christ's coming to judgment.

ELP, Lord, for men of virtue fail, Religion loses ground; The sons of violence prevail,

And treacheries abound.

2 Their oaths and promises they break, Yet act the flatterer's part; With fair, deceitful lips they speak, And with a double heart.

3 If we reprove some hateful lie, How is their fury stirr'd! 'Are not our lips our own,' they cry, 'And who shall be our Lord?'

L. M. b or # Hague, Denton. The saint's safety and hope in evil times; or, sins of the tongue complained of, viz. blasphemy, false-hood, &c. LORD, if thou dost not soon appear Virtue and truth will flee away, A faithful man among us here Will scarce be found, if thou delay. 2 The whole discourse, when neighbours meet, Is fill'd with trifles loose and vain; Their lips are flattery and deceit, And their proud language is profane. 3But lips, that with deceit abound, Shall not maintain their triumph long;

The God of vengeance will confound The flattering and blaspheming tongue. 4'Yet shall our words be free,' they cry, 'Our tongues shall be controll'd by none: 'Where is the Lord, will ask us why? 'Or say, our lips are not our own?' 5 The Lord, who sees the poor oppress'd, And hears the oppressor's haughty strain, Will rise to give his children rest, Nor shall they trust his word in vain. 6 Thy word, O Lord, though often try'd, Yoid of deceit shall still appear; Not silver, seven times purify'd From dross and mixture, shines so clear. 7 Thy grace shall, in the darkest hour, Defend the holy soul from harm; Though when the vilest men have power, On every side will sinners swarm.

PSALM 60. C. M. 576

York, Miller. On a day of humiliation for disappointments in war. ORD, hast thou cast the nation off? Must we forever mourn? Wilt thou indulge immortal wrath? Shall mercy ne'er return? 2 The terror of one frown of thine

Melts all our strength away: Like men that totter, drunk with wine, We tremble in dismay.

3'Our Zion trembles at thy stroke, 'And dreads thy lifted hand! 'O, heal the people thou hast broke, 'And save the sinking land.'

4 Lift up a banner in the field For those that fear thy name; Save thy beloved with thy shield, And put our foes to shame.

5 Go with our armies to the fight, Like a confederate God; In vain confederate powers unite Against thy lifted rod.

6 Our troops shall gain a wide renown By thine assisting hand; Tis God that treads the mighty down, And makes the feeble stand.

Psalm 20. L. M. Wells, Uxbridge. 577

Prayer and hope of victory. For a day of prayer in time of war. NOW may the God of power and grace Attend his people's humble cry! Jehovah hears when Israel prays, And brings deliverance from on high. 2 The name of Jacob's God defends

Better than shields or brazen walls; He from his sanctuary sends Succour and strength when Zion calls. 3 Well he remembers all our sighs:

His love exceeds our best deserts; His love accepts the sacrifice Of humble groans and broken hearts.

4 In his salvation is our hope, And in the name of Israel's God Our troops shall lift their banners up, Our navies spread their flags abroad.

5 Some trust in horses train'd for war, And some of chariots make their boasts: Our surest expectations are From thee, the Lord of heavenly hosts.

6 O may the memory of thy name Inspire our armies for the fight! Our foes shall fall and die with shame Or quit the field with shameful flight. 7 Now save us, Lord, from slavish fear; Now let our hopes be firm and strong, Till thy salvation shall appear, And joy and triumph raise the song.

578 HYMN 30. B. 1. L. M. Winchester, Shoel.

Prayer for deliverance answered.

IN thine own ways, O God of love, We wait the visits of thy grace; Our souls' desire is to thy name, And the remembrance of thy face.

2 My thoughts are searching, Lord, for thee, 'Mongst the black shades of lonesome night,

My earnest cries salute the skies, Before the dawn restore the light.

3 Look, how rebellious men deride The tender patience of my God; But they shall see thy lifted hand, And feel the scourges of thy rod.

4 Hark! the Eternal rends the sky, A mighty voice before him goes, A voice of music to his friends, But threatening thunder to his foes.

5 'Come, children, to your Father's arms, 'Hide in the chambers of my grace, 'Till the fierce storms be overblown,

'And my revenging fury cease.

6 'My sword shall boast its thousands slain, 'And drink the blood of haughty kings, 'While heavenly peace around my flock 'Stretches its soft and shady wings.'

579 HYMN 1. B. 2. L. M. Sabaoth, Enfield.

A song of praise to God.

NATURE, with all her powers, shall God the Creator and the King: [sing Nor air, nor earth, nor skies, nor seas Deny the tribute of their praise.

2 Begin to make his glories known, Ye seraphs, that sit near his throne! Tune your harps high, and spread the To the creation's utmost bound. [sound

3 [All mortal things, of meaner frame, Exert your force, and own his name; While with our souls and with our voice, We sing his honours and our joys.]

4 [To him be sacred all we have, From the young cradle to the grave; Our lips shall his loud wonders tell, And every word a miracle.]

5 [These Western shores, our native land, Lie safe in the Almighty's hand: Our foes of victory dream in vain, And wear the captivating chain.]

6 Raise monumental praises high
To Him who thunders through the sky
And, with an awful nod or frown,
Shakes an aspiring tyrant down.

7 [Pillars of lasting brass proclaim The triumphs of th' Eternal Name; While trembling nations read from far The honours of the God of war.]

8 Thus let our flaming zeal employ Our loftiest thoughts and loudest songs! Let there be sung, with warmest joy, Hosanna from ten thousand tongues.

9 [Yet, mighty God, our feeble frame Attempts in vain to reach thy name; The strongest notes that angels raise Faint in the worship and the praise.]

580 PSALM 144. L. M. Sharon, Nantwich.

Grace above riches; or, the happy nation.

APPY the city, where their sons,
APPY the city, where their sons,
Like pillars round a palace set,
And daughters, bright as polish'd stones,
Give strength and beauty to the state.

2 Happy the country, where the sheep,
Cattle and corn have large increase:
Where men securely work or sleep,
Nor sons of plunder break their peace.

3 Happy the nation thus endow'd;
But more divinely blest are those,

On whom the all-sufficient God
Himself with all his grace bestows.

Psalm 67. C. M.

Patmos, Swanwick.

The nation's prosperity, and the church's increase.

SHINE, mighty God, on this our land,
With heaves of beauty.

With beams of heavenly grace; Reveal thy power through allour coast, And show thy smiling face.

2[Amidst our States, exalted high, Do thou our glory stand, And like a wall of guardian fire, Surround thy favourite land.]

3 When shall the name from shore to shore Sound all the earth abroad, And distant nations know and love Their Saviour and their God?

4 Sing to the Lord, ye distant lands, Sing loud with solemn voice; While thankful tongues exalt his praise, And grateful hearts rejoice.

5 He, the great Lord, the sov'reign Judge, That sits enthroned above, Wisely commands the worlds he made, In justice and in love.

6 Earth shall obey her Maker's will, And yield a full increase; Our God will crown his chosen land With fruitfulness and peace.

7 God, the Redeemer, scatters round His choicest favours here; While the creation's utmost bound Shall see, adore, and fear.

582 PSALM 107. Last Part. L. M. :
Ninety-seventh Psalm, Stonefield.
Colonies planted; or, nations blest and punished.
A Psalm for New-England.

WHEN God, provoked with daring crimes,

Scourges the madness of the times, He turns their fields to barren sand, And dries the rivers from the land.

2 His word can raise the springs again, And make the wither'd mountains green, Send showery blessings from the skies, And harvest in the desert rise.

3[Where nothing dwelt but beasts of prey, Or men as fierce and wild as they, He bids the oppress'd and poor repair, And build them towns and cities there. 4 They sow the fields, and trees they plant, Whose yearly fruit supplies their want: Their race grows up from fruitful stocks, Their wealth increases with their flocks. 5 Thus they are blest; but if they sin, He lets the heathen nations in; A savage crew invades their lands; Their children die by barbarous hands. 6 Their captive sons, exposed to scorn.

6 Their captive sons, exposed to scorn, Wander unpitied and forlorn; The country lies unfenced, untill'd, And desolation spreads the field.

7 Yet if the humbled nation mourns, Again his dreadful hand he turns; Again he makes their cities thrive, And bids the dying churches live.] 8 The righteous, with a joyful sense, Admire the works of providence;

And tongues of atheists shall no more Blaspheme the God that saints adore. 9 How few, with pious care, record

9 How few, with pious care, record These wondrous dealings of the Lord! But wise observers still shall find The Lord is holy, just, and kind.

583 Hymn 111. B. 2. C. M. #

Thanksgiving for victory; or, God's dominion, and our deliverance.

ZION, rejoice; and Júdah, sing, The Lord assumes his throne; Come, let us own the heavenly King, And make his glories known. 2 The great, the wicked and the proud From their high seats are hurl'd; Jehovah rides upon a cloud, And thunders through the world.

3 He reigns upon the eternal hills, Distributes mortal crowns; Empires are fix'd beneath his smiles, And totter at his frowns.

And totter at his frowns.

4 Navies, that rule the ocean wide,
Are vanquish'd by his breath,

And legions, arm'd with power and pride Descend to watery death.

5 Let tyrants make no more pretence To vex our happy land; Jehovah's name is our defence, ehovah's name is our defence, Our buckler is his hand.

6 [Still may the King of grace descend, To rule us by his word; And all the honours we can give Be offer'd to the Lord.]

584 PSALM 18. 1st Part. C.M. #

Victory and triumph over temporal enemies.

WE love thee, Lord, and we adore;
Now is thine arm reveal'd;
Thou art our strength, our heavenly tower,
Our bulwark and our shield.

2 We fly to our eternal Rock, And find a sure defence; His holy name our lips invoke, And draw salvation thence.

3 When God, our leader, shines in arms, What mortal heart can bear The thunder of his loud alarms, The lightning of his spear?

4 He rides upon the winged wind, And angels in array,

In millions wait, to know his mind, And swift as flames obey.

5 He speaks, and at his fierce rebuke Whole armies are dismay'd; His voice, his frown, his angry look Strikes all their courage dead.

6 He forms our generals for the field. With all their dreadful skill, Gives them his awful sword to wield, And makes their hearts of steel.

7 [He arms our captains to the fight, Though there his name's forgot: (He girded Cyrus with his might, When Cyrus knew him not.)

8 Oft has the Lord whole nations blest For his own church's sake;

The powers that give his people rest, Shall of his care partake.] 585 PSALM 18. 2d Part. C. M. Devizes, St. Martin's.

The conqueror's song. To thine almighty arm we owe The triumphs of the day; Thy terrors, Lord, confound the foe. And melt their strength away.

2 Tis by thine aid our troops prevail, And break united powers:

Or burn their boasted fleets, or scale The proudest of their towers.

3 How have we chased them through the And trod them to the ground, Ifield, While thy salvation was our shield; But they no shelter found!

4 In vain to idol saints they cry, And perish in their blood: Where is a rock so great, so high, So powerful as our God?

5 The Rock of Israel ever lives; His name be ever blest; Tis his own arm the victory gives, And gives his people rest.

6 On kings that reign as David did, He pours his blessings down; Secures their honours to their seed, And well supports their crown.

PSALM 124. L. M. *5*86 All Saints, Park-Street. A song for public deliverance.

HAD not the Lord, may Israel say, Had not the Lord maintain'd our side, When men, to make our lives a prey, Rose like the swelling of the tide,

2 The swelling tide had stopt our breath, So fiercely did the waters roll, We had been swallow'd deep in death, Proud waters had o'erwhelm'd our soul.

3 We leap for joy, we shout and sing, Who just escaped the fatal stroke: So flies the bird with cheerful wing, When once the fowler's snare is broke.

4 Forever blessed be the Lord, Who broke the fowler's cursed snare, Who sav'd us from the murdering sword, And made our lives and souls his care.

5 Our help is in Jehovah's name, Who form'd the earth, and built the skies; He that upholds that wondrous frame, Guards his own church with watchful eyes.

Hymn 92. / B. 2. C. M. 587 Bray, Rochester, Marlow. The church saved, and her enemies disappointed; or, deliverance from treason.

SHOUT to the Lord, and let our joys Through the whole nation run:

Ye western skies, resound the noise Beyond the rising sun.

2 Thee, mighty God, our souls admire; Thee our glad voices sing:

And join with the celestial choir, To praise th' eternal King.

3 Thy power the whole creation rules. And on the starry skies,

Sits smiling at the weak designs Thine envious foes devise.

4 Thy scorn derides their feeble rage, And, with an awful frown, Flings vast confusion on their plots, And shakes their Babel down.

5 Their secret fires in caverns lay. And we the sacrifice;

But gloomy caverns strove in vain To 'scape all-searching eyes.

6 Their dark designs were all reveal'd; Their treasons all betray'd:

Praise to the Lord, who broke the snare Their cursed hands had laid.]

7 In vain the busy sons of hell Still new rebellions try; Their souls shall pine with envious rage,

And vex away, and die. 8 Almighty grace defends our land From their malicious power: Then let us with united songs

Almighty grace adore. PSALM 76. C. M. 588

Peterborough, Nottingham. Israel saved, and the Assyrians destroyed; or, God's vengeance against his enemies proceeds from his church IN Judah God of old was known,

His name in Israel great; In Salem stood his holy throne. And Zion was his seat.

2 Among the praises of his saints, His dwelling there he chose; There he received their just complaints Against their haughty foes.

3 From Zion went his dreadful word, And broke the threatening spear, The bow, the arrows, and the sword, And crush'd the Assyrian war.

4 What are the earth's wide kingdoms else But mighty hills of prey? The hill on which Jehovah dwells Is glorious more than they.

5 'Twas Zion's King that stopp'd the breath Of captains and their bands: The men of might slept fast in death,

And never found their hands. 6 At thy rebuke, O Jacob's God, Both horse and chariot fell!

MAGISTRACY.

589 HYMN 149. B. 2. C. M. Arundel, Stamford.

Honour to magistrates; or, government from God.

ETERNAL Sovereign of the sky,
And Lord of all below,
We mortals to thy majesty
Our first obedience owe.

2 Our souls adore thy throne supreme, And bless thy providence, For magistrates of meaner name, Our glory and defence.

3[The rulers of these States shall shine With rays above the rest, Where laws and liberties combine

To make a nation blest.]

4 Kingdoms on firm foundations stand,
While virtue finds reward;
And sinners perish from the land

By justice and the sword.

5 Let Cesar's due be ever paid
To Cesar and his throne;

But consciences and souls were made To be the Lord's alone.

PSALM 101. L. M. Effingham, All Saints. The magistrate's psalm.

MERCY and judgment are my song!
And since they both to thee belong,
My gracious God, my righteous King,
To thee my songs and vows I'll bring.
2 If I am raised to bear the sword,

II 1 am raised to bear the sword, I'll take my counsels from thy word; Thy justice and thy heavenly grace Shall be the pattern of my ways. 3 Let wisdom all my actions guide, And let my God with me reside; No wicked thing shall dwell with me, Which may provoke thy jealousy.

4 No sons of slander, rage and strife, Shall be companions of my life; The haughty look, the heart of pride Within my door shall ne'er abide.

5 [I'll search the land, and raise the just To posts of honour, wealth and trust; The men that work thy holy will Shall be my friends and favourites still.]

6 In vain shall sinners hope to rise By flattering or malicious lies; And while the innocent I guard, The bold offender shan't be spared.

7 The impious crew; that factious band, Shall hide their heads, or quit the land; And all that break the public rest, Where I have power shall be suppress'd.

PSALM 75. L. M. Old Hundred, Rothwell.

Power and government from God alone.

TO thee, Most Holy, and Most High, To thee we bring our thankful praise; Thy works declare thy name is nigh, Thy works of wonder and of grace.

2 'To slavery doom'd, thy chosen sons 'Beheld their foes triumphant rise; 'And, sore oppress'd by earthly thrones,

'They sought the Sov'reign of the skies.
3 'Twas then, great God, with equal power,

'Arose thy vengeance and thy grace,
'To scourge their legions from the shore

'And save the remnant of thy race.'
4 Let haughty sinners sink their pride,
Nor lift so high their scornful head;
But lay their foolish thoughts aside,
And own the 'empire' God hath made.

5 Such honours never come by chance, Nor do the winds promotion blow: 'Tis God the judge doth one advance, 'Tis God that lays another low.

6 No vain pretence to royal birth
Shall fix a tyrant on the throne;
God, the great Sovereign of the earth,
Will rise, and make his justice known.

7 [His hand holds out the dreadful cup Of vengeance, mix'd with various plagues, To make the wicked drink them up, Wring out and taste the bitter dregs.

8 Now shall the Lord exalt the just, And while he tramples on the proud, And lays their glory in the dust, Our lips shall sing his praise aloud. 592

PSALM 21. C. M. Patmos, Arlington.

Our country the care of Heaven. UR land, O Lord, with songs of praise, Shall in thy strength rejoice, And, blest with thy salvation, raise To heaven their cheerful voice.

2 Thy sure defence thro' nations round Has spread our wondrous name: And our successful actions crown'd

With dignity and fame.

3 Then let our land on God alone For timely aid rely;

His mercy, which adorns his throne, Shall all our wants supply.

4 But, righteous Lord, thy stubborn foes Shall feel thy dreadful hand; Thy vengeful arm shall find out those

Who hate all just command. 5 When thou against them dost engage, Thy just, but dreadful doom Shall, like a fiery oven's rage,

Their hopes and them consume. 6 Thus, Lord, thy wondrous power declare,

And thus exalt thy fame; While we glad songs of praise prepare For thine almighty name.

593

PSALM 58. L. P. M. St. Hellen's, Brooklyn. Warning to magistrates.

TUDGES, who rule the world by laws, Will ye despise the righteous cause, When th' injur'd poor before you stands? Dare ye condemn the righteous poor, And let rich sinners 'scape secure, While gold and greatness bribe your hands?

2 Have ye forgot, or never knew, That God will judge the judges too? High in the heavens his justice reigns; Yet you invade the rights of God, And send your bold decrees abroad To bind the conscience in your chains.

3 A poison'd arrow is your tongue, The arrow sharp, the poison strong, And death attends where'er it wounds; You hear no counsels, cries or tears;

So the deaf adder stops her ears Against the power of charming sounds. 4 Break out their teeth, eternal God;

Those teeth of lions dyed in blood: And crush the serpents in the dust. As empty chaff, when whirlwinds rise, Before the sweeping tempest flies,

So let their hopes and names be lost.

|5 Th' Almighty thunders from the sky, Their grandeur melts, their titles die, As hills of show dissolve and run,

Or snails that perish in their slime, Or births that come before their time, Vain births, that never see the sun.

6 Thus shall the vengeance of the Lord Safety and joy to saints afford;

And all that hear shall join and say, 'Sure there's a God that rules on high, 'A God that hears his children cry, And will their sufferings well repay.'

Psalm 82. L. M. 594 Islington, Medway.

God the supreme governor; or, magistrates warned. MONG the assemblies of the great, A greater Ruler takes his seat; The God of Heaven, as Judge, surveys Those gods on earth and all their ways. 2 Why will ye then frame wicked laws?

Or why support th' unrighteous cause? When will ye once defend the poor, That sinners vex the saints no more?

3 They know not, Lord, nor will they know; Dark are the ways in which they go: Their name of earthly gods is vain, For they shall fall and die like men.

4 Arise, O Lord, and let thy Son Possess his universal throne, And rule the nations with his rod: He is our Judge, and he our God.

SICKNESS AND RECOVERY.

595 PSALM 102. 1st Part. C. M. b Brattle Street, York.

A prayer of the afflicted. HEAR me, O God, nor hide thy face, But answer, lest I die; Hast thou not built a throne of grace, To hear when sinners cry?

2 My days are wasted like the smoke Dissolving in the air;

My strength is dried, my heart is broke, And sinking in despair.

3 My spirits flag, like withering grass, Burnt with excessive heat;

In secret groans my minutes pass, And I forget to eat.

4 As on some lonely building's top, The sparrow tells her moan, Far from the tents of joy and hope,

I sit and grieve alone. 5 My soul is like a wilderness,

Where beasts of midnight howl:

There the sad raven finds her place, And there the screaming owl.

6 Dark dismal thoughts and boding fears
Dwell in my troubled breast;
While sharp reproaches wound my ears,

Nor give my spirit rest.

7 My cup is mingled with my woes, And tears are my repast; My daily bread like ashes grows, Unpleasant to my taste.

8 Sense can afford no real joy
To souls that feel thy frown;
Lord, 'twas thy hand advanced me high,
Thy hand hath cast me down.

9 My locks like wither'd leaves appear, And life's declining light Grows faint, as evening shadows are,

That vanish into night.

10 But thou forever art the same, O my eternal God!

Ages to come shall know thy name, And spread thy works abroad. 11 Thou wilt arise, and show thy face;

Nor will my Lord delay
Beyond th' appointed hour of grace,
That long expected day.

12 He hears his saints, he knows their cry, And by mysterious ways Redeems the prisoners doom'd to die, And fills their tongues with praise.

596 PSALM 39. 3d Part. C. M. | Haarlem, Colchester.

Sixt-bed devotion; or, pleading without repining.

GOD of my life, look gently down,
Behold the pains I feel;
But I am dumb before thy throne,
Nor dare dispute thy will.

2 Diseases are thy servants, Lord; They come at thy command: I'll not attempt a murmuring word

Against thy chastening hand.

3 Yet I may plead with humble cries,
 Remove thy sharp rebukes;

My strength consumes, my spirit dies,

Through thy repeated strokes.

4 Crush'd as a moth beneath thy hand,
We moulder to the dust;
Our feeble powers can ne'er withstand

And all our beauty's lost.

5[This mortal life decays apace! How soon the bubble's broke! Adam and all his numerous race Are vanity and smoke.]

61'm but a sojourner below, As all my fathers were; May I be well prepared to go, When I the summons hear.

7 But if my life be spared awhile, Before my last remove, Thy praise shall be my business still, And I'll declare thy love.

597 PSALM 119. 14th Part. C. M. b

Benefit of afflictions, and support under them.

CONSIDER all my sorrows, Lord, And thy deliverance send;
My soul for thy salvation faints;
When will my troubles end?

2 Yet I have found 'tis good for me To bear my Father's rod; Afflictions make me learn thy law, And live upon my God.

3 This is the comfort I enjoy
When new distress begins,
I read thy word, I run thy way,
And hate my former sins.

And hate my former sins.

Vere 22.

4 Had not thy word been my delight,
When earthly joys were fled,
My soul, opprest with sorrow's weight,
Had sunk among the dead.

Vere 75.

5 I know thy judgments, Lord, are right,
Though they may seem severe:
The sharpest sufferings I endure
Flow from thy faithful care.
Vere 67.

6 Before I knew thy chastening rod, My feet were apt to stray; But now I learn to keep thy word, Nor wander from thy way.

598 PSALM 119. Last Part. L. M. b

Sanctified afflictions; or, delight in the word of God.

Verses 67, 59.

FATHER, I bless thy gentle hand; How kind was thy chastising rod, That forced my conscience to a stand, And brought my wandering soul to God!

2 Foolish and vain, I went astray, Ere I had felt thy scourges, Lord; I left my guide, and lost my way, But now I love and keep thy word.

3 'Tis good for me to wear the yoke, For pride is apt to rise and swell; 'Tis good to bear my Father's stroke, That I might learn his statutes well.

4 The law that issues from thy mouth Shall raise my cheerful passions more Than all the treasures of the South, Or Western hills of golden ore. 5 Thy hands have made my mortal frame, Thy Spirit form'd my soul within; Teach me to know thy wondrous name, And guard me safe from death and sin.

6 Then all that love and fear the Lord, At my salvation shall rejoice; For I have hoped in thy word; And made thy grace my only choice.

599

Psalm 6. L. M. bor #
Blendon, Armley.

Temptations in sickness overcome.

ORD, I can suffer thy rebukes,
When thou with kindness dost
chastise;

But thy fierce wrath I cannot bear; O let it not against me rise!

2 Pity my languishing estate,
And ease the sorrows which I feel;

The wounds thine heavy hand hath made, O let thy gentler touches heal!

3 See how I pass my weary days,

In sighs and groans; and when 'tis night,
My bed is water'd with my tears;
My grief consumes and dims my sight.
4 Look how the powers of nature mourn!

How long, Almighty God, how long! When shall thine hour of grace return? When shall I make thy grace my song?

5 I feel my flesh so near the grave, My thoughts are tempted to despair: But graves can never praise the Lord, For all is dust and silence there.

6 Depart, ye temptors, from my soul; And all despairing thoughts depart; My God, who hears my humble moan, Will ease my flesh, and cheer my heart.

600 PSALM 6. C. M. bor #

Complaint in sickness; or, diseases healed.

In anger, Lord, rebuke me not,
Withdraw the dreadful storm;
Nor let thy fury grow so hot
Against a feeble worm.

2 My soul's bow'd down with heavy cares, My flesh with pain oppress'd:

My couch is witness to my tears, My tears forbid my rest.

3 Sorrow and pain wear out my days; I waste the night with cries, Counting the minutes as they pass, Till the slow morning rise.

4 Shall I be still tormented more?
Mine eyes consumed with grief?

How long, my God, how long before Thine hand afford relief?

5 He hears when dust and ashes speak; He pities all our groans;

He saves us for his mercy's sake, And heals our broken bones.

6 The virtue of his sovereign word
Restores our fainting breath;
But silent graves praise not the Lord,
Nor is he known in death.

PSALM 91. L. M. Tallis' Evening Hymn, Medway.

Safety in public diseases and dangers.

LE that hath made his refuge, God,
Shall find a most secure abode;
Shall walk all day beneath his shade,
And there at night shall rest his head.

2 Then will I say, 'My God, thy power 'Shall be my fortress and my tower: 'I, that am form'd of feeble dust, 'Make thine almighty arm my trust.'

3 Thrice happy man! thy Maker's care Shall keep thee from the fowler's snare; Satan, the fowler, who betrays Unguarded souls a thousand ways.

4 Just as a hen protects her brood (From birds of prey that seek their blood) Under her feathers, so the Lord Makes his own arm his people's guard.

5 If burning beams of noon conspire To dart a pestilential fire, God is their life, his wings are spread

To shield them with a healthful shade. 6 If vapours, with malignant breath, Rise thick, and scatter midnight death, Israel is safe: The poison'd air Grows pure, if Israel's God be there.

PAUSE.

7 What though a thousand at thy side, At thy right hand ten thousand died? Thy God his chosen people saves, Among the dead, amid the graves.

8 So when he sent his angel down
To make his wrath in Egypt known,
And slew their sons, his careful eye
Pass'd all the doors of Jacob by.

9 But if the fire, or plague, or sword, Receive commission from the Lord To strike his saints among the rest, Their very pains and deaths are bless.

10 The sword, the pestilence, or fire, Shall but fulfil their best desire; From sins and sorrows set them free, And bring thy children, Lord. to thee. 602

PSALM 91. C. M. Braintree, Nottingham.

Protection from death, guard of angels, victory and deliverance.

YE sons of men, a feeble race, Exposed to every snare,

Come, make the Lord your dwelling And try, and trust his care. [place, 2 No ill shall enter where you dwell;

Or, if the plague come high, And sweep the wicked down to hell, Twill raise his saints on high.

3 He'll give his angels charge to keep Your feet in all their ways:

To watch your pillow while you sleep, And guard your happy days.

4 Theirhands shall bear you, lest you fall, And dash against the stones; Are they not servants at his call, And sent t' attend his sons?

5 Adders and lions ye shall tread;
The tempter's wiles defeat;
He that hath broke the serpent's head

Puts him beneath your feet.
6 Because on me they set their love,
'I'll save them (saith the Lord)

'I'll bear their joyful souls above, 'Destruction and the sword.

7'My grace shall answer when they call;'In trouble I'll be nigh; [fall,'My power shall help them when they

'And raise them when they die.

8'Those that on earth my name have
'I'll honour them in heaven: [known,

'There my salvation shall be shown,
'And endless life be given.'

603 PSALM 30. 2d Part. L. M. Denton, Dresden.

Health, sickness, and recovery.

FIRM was my health, my day was bright,

And I presumed 'twould ne'er be night; Fondly I said within my heart,

'Pleasure and peace shall ne'er depart.'

But I forgot thine arm was strong,
Which made my mountain stand so long;
Soon as thy face began to hide,

My health was gone, my comforts died. 3I cried aloud to thee, my God, 'What canst thou profit by my blood?

Deep in the dust, can I declare 'Thy truth, or sing thy goodness there?

4'Hear me, O God of grace,' I said,
'And bring me from among the dead;'
Thy word rebuked the pains I felt,
Thy pardoning love removed my guilt.

5 My groans, and tears, and forms of wo Are turn'd to joy and praises now; I throw my sackcloth on the ground, And ease and gladness gird me round.

6 My tongue, the glory of my frame, Shall ne'er be silent of thy name; Thy praise shall sound through earth and heaven,

For sickness heal'd, and sins forgiven.

604 PSALM 30. 1st Part. L. M. #

Sickness healed, and sorrow removed.

WILL extol thee, Lord, on high;
At thy command, diseases fly;
Who but a God can speak and save
From the dark borders of the grave?

2 Sing to the Lord, ye saints of his, And tell how large his goodness is; Let all your powers rejoice and bless, While you record his holiness.

3 His anger but a moment stays; His love is life and length of days; Though grief and tears the night employ, The morning star restores the joy.

605 PSALM 31. 1st Part. C. M.

INTO thine hand, O God of truth,
My spirit I commit;

Thou hast redeem'd my soul from death, And saved me from the pit.

2 The passions of my hope and fear Maintain'd a doubtful strife, While sorrow, pain, and sin conspired To take away my life.

3' My times are in thy hand,' I cry'd,
'Though I draw near the dust;'
Thou art the refuge where I hide,

The God in whom I trust.

40 make thy reconciled face
Upon thy servant shipe,
And save me for thy mercy's sake,
For I'm entirely thine.

PAUSE.

5 ['Twas in my haste my spirit said, 'I must despair and die,

'I am cut off before thine eyes;'
But thou hast heard my cry.]

6 Thy goodness, how divinely free!
How wondrous is thy grace
To those that fear thy majesty,

And trust thy promises!

7 O love the Lord, all ye his saints,

And sing his praises loud; He'll bend his ear to your complaints, And recompense the proud.

b

606 PSALM 116. 1st Part. C. M. Dundee, York.

Recovery from sickness.

LOVE the Lord: he heard my cries, And pity'd every groan; Long as I live, when troubles rise, I'll hasten to his throne.

2 I love the Lord: he bow'd his ear,

And chased my griefs away:
O let my heart no more despair, While I have breath to pray!

3 My flesh declined, my spirits fell, And I drew near the dead; While inward pangs, and fears of hell,

Perplex'd my wakeful head. 4'My God,' I cry'd, 'thy servant save,

'Thou ever good and just; 'Thy power can rescue from the grave, 'Thy power is all my trust.'

5 The Lord beheld me sore distress'd, He bade my pains remove: Return, my soul, to God, thy rest, For thou hast known his love.

6 My God hath saved my soul from death, And dried my falling tears; Now to his praise I'll spend my breath, And my remaining years.

Hymn 55. B. 1. C. M. 607 Canterbury, Mear.

Hezekiah's song; or, sickness and recovery. WHEN we are raised from deep distress,

Our God deserves a song; We take the pattern of our praise From Hezekiah's tongue.

2 The gates of the devouring grave Are open'd wide in vain,

If he that holds the keys of death Commands them fast again.

3 Pains of the flesh are wont t' abuse Our minds with slavish fears; 'Our days are past, and we shall lose 'The remnant of our years.'

4 We chatter with a swallow's voice, Or like a dove we mourn, With bitterness instead of joys,

Afflicted and forlorn. 5 Jehovah speaks the healing word. And no disease withstands;

Fevers and plagues obey the Lord, And fly at his commands.

6 If half the strings of life should break, He can our frame restore;

He casts our sins behind his back, And they are found no more.

608 PSALM 118. 2d Part. C. M. # Arundel, Mear.

Public praise for deliverance from death. ORD, thou hast heard thy servantery, And rescued from the grave; Now shall he live! (and none can die, If God resolve to save.)

2 Thy praise, more constant than before, Shall fill his daily breath; Thy hand, that hath chastised him sore,

Defends him still from death. 3 Open the gates of Zion now, For we shall worship there;

The house, where all the righteous go, Thy mercy to declare.

4 Among the assemblies of thy saints, Our thankful voice we raise; There we have told thee our complaints, And there we speak thy praise.

TIME AND ETERNITY.

609 Hymn 88. B. 1. L. M. bor# Hebron, Wells.

Life, the day of grace and hope. LIFE is the time to insure the great reward; IFE is the time to serve the Lord, And while the lamp holds out to burn, The vilest sinner may return.

2 [Life is the hour that God hath given To 'scape from hell, and fly to heaven; The day of grace, and mortals may Secure the blessings of the day.]

3 The living know that they must die, But all the dead forgotten lie; Their memory and their sense is gone, Alike unknowing and unknown.

4 [Their hatred and their love is lost, Their envy buried in the dust; They have no share in all that's done Beneath the circuit of the sun.

5 Then what my thoughts design to do, My hands, with all your might, pursue; Since no device nor work is found, Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.

6 There are no acts of pardon pass'd In the cold grave, to which we haste; But darkness, death, and long despair Reign in eternal silence there.

HYMN 39. B. 2. C. M. 610 Miller, Canterbury.

The shortness and misery of life. OUR days, alas! our mortal days Are short and wretched too! 'Evil and few,' the patriarch says, And well the patriarch knew.

2'Tis but, at best, a narrow bound, That Heaven allows to men; And pains and sins run through the round Of threescore years and ten.

3 Well, if ye must be sad and few, Run on, my days, in haste; Moments of sin, and months of wo, Ye cannot fly too fast.

4 Let heavenly love prepare my soul, And call her to the skies, Where years of long salvation roll, And glory never dies.

611 Hymn 58. B. 2. C. M. bedham, Miller.

The shortness of lift, and the goodness of God.

TIME! what an empty vapour 'tis!

And days, how swift they are!

Swift as an Indian arrow flies,

Or like a shooting star.

2 [The present moments just appear,

Then slide away in haste;
That we can never say, they're here;
But only say, they're past.]
3[Our life is ever on the wing

And death is ever nigh;
The moment when our lives be

The moment when our lives begin,
We all begin to die.]

4 Yet, mighty God, our fleeting days
Thy lasting favours share;
Yet, with the bounties of thy grace
Thou load'st the rolling year.

5 Tis sovereign mercy finds us food, And we are cloth'd with love; While grace stands pointing out the road That leads our souls above.

6 His goodness runs an endless round;
All glory to the Lord!

His mercy never knows a bound; And be his name adored.

7 Thus we begin the lasting song;
And, when we close our eyes,
Let the next age thy praise prolong,
Till time and nature dies.

612 PSALM 144. 2d Part. C. M. b
Windsor, Lebanon.
The vanity of man, and the condessension of God.
CRD, what is man, poor feeble man,
Born of the earth at first;
His life a shadow, light and vain,
Still hastening to the dust.
O what is feeble, dying man,

Or any of his race,
That God should make it his co

That God should make it his concern To visit him with grace? 3 That God, who darts his lightnings down,

That God, who darts his lightnings down,
Who shakes the worlds above,
And mountains tremble at his frown,
How wondrous is his love!
16*

613 PSALM 39. 2d Part. C. M. b.
Lebanon, York.
The vanity of man as mortal.

TEACH me the measure of my days,
Thou Maker of my frame!
I would survey life's narrow space,

And learn how frail I am.

2 A span is all that we can boast,
An inch or two of time;

Man is but vanity and dust, In all his flower and prime.

3 See the vain race of mortals move Like shadows o'er the plain; They rage and strive, desire and love,

But all their noise is vain.

4 Some walk in honour's gaudy show, Some dig for golden ore:

They toil for heirs, they know not who, And straight are seen no more.

5 What should I wish or wait for then From creatures, earth and dust? They make our expectations vain, And disappoint our trust.

6 Now I forbid my carnal hope,
My fond desires recall;
I give my mortal interest up

I give my mortal interest up, And make my God my all.

HYMN 32. B. 2. C. M. Dedham, Canterbury.

Frailty and fally.

Frailty and fally.

Frow short and hasty is our life!

How vast our souls' affairs!

Yet senseless mortals vainly strive

To lavish out their years.

2 Our days run thoughtlessly along, Without a moment's stay;

Just like a story, or a song, We pass our lives away.

3 God, from on high, invites us home, But we march heedless on; And, ever hastening to the tomb, Stoop downward as we run.

4 How we deserve the deepest hell,
That slight the joys above! [feel,
What chains of vengeance should we
That break such cords of love!

5 Draw us, O God, with sovereign grace, And lift our thoughts on high, That we may end this mortal race, And see salvation nigh.

615 Hymn 55. B. 2. C. M. b

THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame:
What dying worms are we!

2 [Our wasting lives grow shorter still, |8 Like flowery fields the nations stand, As months and days increase;

And every beating pulse we tell Leaves but the number less.

3 The year rolls round, and steals away The breath that first it gave: Whate'er we do, where'er we be,

We're travelling to the grave.] 4 Dangers stand thick through all the ground, To push us to the tomb; And fierce diseases wait around,

To hurry mortals home. 5 Good God, on what a slender thread Hang everlasting things!

Th' eternal states of all the dead Upon life's feeble strings!

6 Infinite joy, or endless wo Attends on every breath; And yet how unconcern'd we go Upon the brink of death!

7 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense To walk this dangerous road; And, if our souls are hurry'd hence, May they be found with God.

616 PSALM 90. 1st Part. C. M. Stephens, Plympton.

Man frail, and God eternal. OUR God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home;

2 Under the shadow of thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defence is sure.

3 Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame, From everlasting thou art God, To endless years the same.

4 Thy word commands our flesh to dust, 'Return, ye sons of men:' All nations rose from earth at first, And turn to earth again.

5 A thousand ages in thy sight Are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night, Before the rising sun.

6 [The busy tribes of flesh and blood, With all their lives and cares, Are carry'd downward by the flood,

And lost in following years. 7 Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away;

They fly, forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.

Pleased with the morning light; The flowers beneath the mower's hand Lie withering ere 'tis night.]

9 Our God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Be thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home.

PSALM 90. S. M. 617 Aylesbury, Haverhill. The frailty and shortness of life.

ORD, what a feeble piece Is this our mortal frame! Our life, how poor a trifle 'tis, That scarce deserves the name.

Alas! the brittle clay That built our body first! And every month and every day 'Tis mouldering back to dust.

Our moments fly apace, Nor will our minutes stay; Just like a flood our hasty days Are sweeping us away.

Well, if our days must fly, We'll keep their end in sight; We'll spend them all in wisdom's way, And let them speed their flight.

They'll waft us sooner o'er This life's tempestuous sea: Soon we shall reach the peaceful shore Of blest eternity.

DEATH AND THE RESUR-RECTION.

618 PSALM 90. L. M. Hague, Armley. Man mortal, and God eternal.

A mournful song at a funeral. THROUGH every age, eternal God, Thou art our rest, our safe abode; High was thy throne ere heaven was made,

Or earth, thy humble footstool, laid. 2 Long hadst thou reign'd ere time began, Or dust was fashion'd into man; And long thy kingdom shall endure, When earth and time shall be no more.

3 But man, weak man, is born to die, Made up of guilt and vanity: Thy dreadful sentence, Lord, was just, 'Return, ye sinners, to your dust.'

4 [A thousand of our years amount Scarce to a day in thine account: Like yesterday's departed light, Or the last watch of ending night.]

PAUSE.

5 Death, like an overflowing stream, Sweeps us away; our life's a dream; An empty tale; a morning flower, Cut down and wither'd in an hour.

6 [Our age to seventy years is set; How short the term! how frail the state! And if to eighty we arrive,

We rather sigh and groan than live.

7 But O how oft thy wrath appears, And cuts off our expected years; Thy wrath awakes our humble dread; We fear the power that strikes us dead.]

8 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man! And kindly lengthen out our span, Till a wise care of piety Fit us to die and dwell with thee.

619 PSALM 102. 2d Part. L. M.

Man's mortality and Christ's eternity; or, saints die, but Christ and the church live.

To is the Lord our Saviour's hand
Weakens our strength amid the race; Disease and death, at his command, Arrest us, and cut short our days.

2 Spare us, O Lord, aloud we pray, Nor let our sun go down at noon; Thy years are one eternal day, And must thy children die so soon?

3 Yet, in the midst of death and grief, This thought our sorrow shall assuage; 'Our Father and our Saviour live; 'Christ is the same through every age.'

4 'Twas he this earth's foundation laid, Heaven is the building of his hand; This earth grows old, these heavens shall fade;

And all be changed at his command. 5 The starry curtains of the sky. Like garments, shall be laid aside; But still thy throne stands firm and high, Thy church forever must abide.

6 Before thy face thy church shall live, And on thy throne thy children reign; This dying world shall they survive, And the dead saints be raised again.

Hymn 52. B. 2. C. M. 620 Miletus, Canterbury.

Death dreadful, or delightful.

DEATH! 'tis a melancholy day To those that have no God, When the poor soul is forced away To seek her last abode.

2 In vain to heaven she lifts her eyes; But guilt, a heavy chain, Still drags her downward from the skies, To darkness, fire, and pain.

3 Awake, and mourn, ye heirs of hell, Let stubborn sinners fear: You must be driven from earth, and dwell A long rorever there!

4 See how the pit gapes wide for you, And flashes in your face; And thou, my soul, look downward too,

And sing recovering grace.

5 He is a God of sovereign love, Who promised heaven to me,

And taught my thoughts to soar above, Where happy spirits be.

6 Prepare me, Lord, for thy right hand, Then come the joyful day; Come, death, and some celestial band, To bear my soul away.

Hymn 17. B. 1. C. M. 621 Patmos, Mear.

Victory over death.

FOR an overcoming faith To cheer my dying hours, To triumph o'er the monster, death, And all his frightful powers.

2 Joyful, with all the strength I have, My quivering lips should sing, 'Where is thy boasted victory, grave?

'And where the monster's sting?' 3 If sin be pardon'd, I'm secure; Death hath no sting beside;

The law gives sin its damning power; But Christ, my ransom, died.

4 Now to the God of victory Immortal thanks be paid, Who makes us conquerors, while we die, Through Christ, our living head.

622 Hymn 6. B. 1. C. M. Archdale, Luton.

Triumph over death.

REAT God, I own thy sentence just, And nature must decay; I yield my body to the dust, To dwell with fellow clay.

2 Yet faith may triumph o'er the grave, And trample on the tombs;

My Jesus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour comes.

3 The mighty Conqueror shall appear High on a royal seat,

And death, the last of all his foes, Lie vanquish'd at his feet.

4 Though greedy worms devour my skin, And gnaw my wasting flesh, When God shall build my bones again, He'll clothe them all afresh.

5 Then shall I see thy lovely face With strong, immortal eyes, And feast upon thy unknown grace, With pleasure and surprise.

Hymn 18. B. 1. C. M. 623Lanesboro', Windsor.

Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord. EAR what the voice from heaven proclaims

For all the pious dead; Sweet is the savour of their names, And soft their sleeping bed.

2 They die in Jesus, and are blest; How kind their slumbers are! From sufferings and from sins releas'd, And freed from every snare.

3 Far from this world of toil and strife, They're present with the Lord; The labours of their mortal life End in a large reward.

Hymn 49. B. 2. C. M. 624 Dundee, Plymouth, Stephens. Moses dying in the embraces of God.

EATH cannot make our souls afraid If God be with us there; ${f W}$ e may walk through its darkest shade,

And never yield to fear. 2 I could renounce my all below,

If my Creator bid: And run, if I were call'd to go, And die as Moses did.

3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's top, And view the promised land, My flesh itself would long to drop, And pray for the command.

4 Clasp'd in my heavenly Father's arms, I would forget my breath, And lose my life among the charms Of so divine a death.

HYMN 19. B. 1. C. M. Braintree, Conway.

The song of Simeon; or, death made desirable. ORD, at thy temple we appear, As happy Simeon came, And hope to meet our Saviour here;

O make our joys the same!

2 With what divine and vast delight The good old man was fill'd, When fondly in his wither'd arms He clasp'd the holy Child!

3' Now I can leave this world,' he cried; 'Behold thy servant dies; I've seen thy great salvation, Lord! 'And close my peaceful eyes.

4'This is the Light prepared to shine 'Upon the Gentile lands;

'Thine Israel's glory, and their hope, To break their slavish bands.

5 [Jesus! the vision of thy face Hath overpowering charms! Scarce shall I feel death's cold embrace,

If Christ be in my arms. 6 Then, while ye hear my heart-strings

How sweet my minutes roll; [break, A mortal paleness on my cheek, And glory in my soul.]

HYMN 66. B. 2. C. M. 626 Arundel, Jordan.

A prospect of heaven makes death easy.

THERE is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign, Infinite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides, And never-withering flowers; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.

3 [Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood, Stand dress'd in living green; So to the Jews old Canaan stood, While Jordan roll'd between.

4 But timorous mortals start and shrink To cross this narrow sea, And linger, shivering on the brink, And fear to launch away.]

5 O! could we make our doubts remove, These gloomy doubts that rise-And see the Canaan that we love, With unbeclouded eyes;

6 Could we but climb where Moses stood, And view the landscape o'er; Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold Should fright us from the shore. [flood

Hymn 31. B. 2. L. M. 627 Portugal, Nuremburg.

Christ's presence makes death easy. VHY should we start and fear to die? What timorous worms we mortals Death is the gate of endless joy, [are! And yet we dread to enter there.

2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife Fright our approaching souls away; Still we shrink back again to life, Fond of our prison and our clay.

30! if my Lord would come and meet, My soul would stretch her wings in haste, Fly, fearless, through death's iron gate, Nor feel the terrors as she pass ...

4 Jesus can make a dying bed Feel soft as downy pillows are, While on his breast I lean my head, And breathe my life out sweetly there. b

628 HYMN 27. B. 1. C. M. York, Windsor.

Assurance of heaven; or, a saint prepared to die.

EATH may dissolve my body now,
And bear my spirit home;
Why do my minutes move so slow,
Nor my salvation come?

2 With heavenly weapons I have fought The battles of the Lord,

Finish'd my course, and kept the faith, And wait the sure reward.]

3 God has laid up in heaven for me A crown which cannot fade; The righteous Judge at that great day

Shall place it on my head.

4 Nor hath the King of grace decreed This prize for me alone; But all that love and long to see Th' appearance of his Son.

5 Jesus the Lord shall guard me safe From every ill design;

And to his heavenly kingdom take This feeble soul of mine.

6 God is my everlasting aid,
And hell shall rage in vain:
To him be highest glory paid,
And endless praise, Amen.

629 HYMN 110. B. 1. C. M. #
Canterbury, Dedham.
Death and immediate glory.

THERE is a house not made with Eternal and on high; [hands, And here my spirit waiting stands, Till God shall bid it fly.

2 Shortly this prison of my clay
Must be dissolved and fall;
Then, O my soul, with joy obey
Thy heavenly Father's call.

3'Tis he, by his almighty grace, That forms thee fit for heaven; And, as an earnest of the place, Hath his own Spirit given.

4 We walk by faith of joys to come;
Faith lives upon his word;
But while the body is our home,
We're absent from the Lord.

5 Tis pleasant to believe thy grace, But we had rather see; We would be absent from the flesh

We would be absent from the flesh, And present, Lord, with thee.

630 Hymn 2. B. 2. C. M. Windsor, Miller.

The death of a sinner.

MY thoughts on awful subjects roll, Damnation and the dead;

What horrors seize the guilty soul Upon a dying bed!

2 Lingering about these mortal shores, She makes a long delay; Till, like a flood, with rapid force,

Death sweeps the wretch away.

3 Then, swift and dreadful, she descends

Down to the fiery coast, Among abominable fiends; Herself a frighted ghost.

4 There endless crowds of sinners lie, And darkness makes their chains; Tortured with keen despair, they cry.

Tortured with keen despair, they cry, Yet wait for fiercer pains.

5 Not all their anguish and their blood For their old guilt atones, Nor the compassion of a God

Shall hearken to their groans.

6 Amazing grace, that kept my breath,
Nor bade my soul remove,

Till I had learn'd my Saviour's death,
And well insured his love!

631 HYMN 3. B. 2. C. M. Canterbury, Hebron.

The death and burial of a saint.

WHY do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?

'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more sle

Nor would we wish the hours more slow, To keep us from our love. 3 Why should we tremble to convey

Their bodies to the tomb?

There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And left a long perfume.

4 The graves of all his saints he blest, And soften'd every bed: Where should the dying members rest, But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose, ascending high, And show'd our feet the way; Up to the Lord our flesh shall fly At the great rising day.

6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound, And bid our kindred rise: Awake, ye nations under ground;

Ye saints, ascend the skies.

632 Hymn 28. B. 2. C. M. Lebanon, Plymouth.

Death and eternity.

STOOP down, my thoughts, that used to rise,
Converse a while with death;

Ь

Think how a gasping mortal lies, And pants away his breath.

2 His quivering lip hangs feebly down, His pulse is faint and few:

Then, speechless, with a doleful groan, He bids the world adieu.

3 But, O the soul, that never dies!
At once it leaves the clay!

Ye thoughts, pursue it where it flies, And track its wondrous way!

4 Up to the courts where angels dwell It mounts—triumphing there; Or devils plunge it down to hell,

In infinite despair!

5 And must my body faint and die?
And must this soul remove?

Of for some guardian angel nigh.

O, for some guardian angel nigh,
To bear it safe above!

6 Jesus, to thy dear faithful hand
 My naked soul I trust;
 And my flesh waits for thy command
 To drop into my dust.

633 Hymn 61. B. 2. C. M.
Mear, York, Dedham.
A thought of death and glory.

MY soul, come, meditate the day, And think how near it stands, When thou must quit this house of clay, And fly to unknown lands.

2 [And you, mine eyes, look down and The hollow, gaping tomb: [view This gloomy prison waits for you, Whene'er the summons come.]

30! could we die with those that die, And place us in their stead; Then would our spirits learn to fly, And converse with the dead.

4 Then should we see the saints above In their own glorious forms, And wonder why our souls should love To dwell with mortal worms.

5 [How should we scorn these clothes of These fetters, and this load, [flesh, And long for evening to undress, That we may rest with God.]

6 We should almost forsake our clay, Before the summons come, And pray and wish our souls away To their eternal home.

HYMN 63. B. 2. C. M. Canterbury, Bangor.
A funeral thought.

HARK! from the tombs a doleful sound!
Mine ears attend the cry—

'Ye living men, come view the ground 'Where you must shortly lie.

2'Princes, this clay must be your bed,
'In spite of all your towers;

'The tall, the wise, the reverend head 'Must lie as low as ours.'

3 Great God, is this our certain doom?
And are we still secure?

Still walking downward to the tomb, And yet prepare no more?

4 Grant us the powers of quickening To fit our souls to fly; [grace, Then, when we drop this dying flesh, We'll rise above the sky.

635 HYMN 24. B. 1. L. M.
Denton, Windham.
The rich sinner dying.

IN vain the wealthy mortals toil,
And heap their shining dust in vain;
Look down and scorn the humble poor,
And boast their lofty hills of gain.

2 Their golden cordials cannot ease Their pained hearts, or aching heads, Nor fright, nor bribe approaching death From glittering roofs and downy beds.

3 The lingering, the unwilling soul The dismal summons must obey, And bid a long, a sad farewell To the pale lump of lifeless clay.

4 Thence they are huddled to the grave, Where kings and slaves have equal thrones;

Their bones without distinction lie Among the heap of meaner bones.

PSALM 49. L. M. Denton, Malden.

WHY do the proud insult the poor,
And boast the large estates they
How vain are riches to secure [have?

Their haughty owners from the grave!
2 They can't redeem one hour from death,
With all the wealth in which they trust,
Nor give a dying brother breath,

When God commands him down to dust. 3 There the dark earth and dismal shade Shall clasp their naked bodies round;

That flesh, so delicately fed, Lies cold, and moulders in the ground.

4 Like thoughtless sheep the sinner dies, Laid in the grave for worms to eat; The saints shall in the morning rise; And find the oppressor at their feet.

5 His honours perish in the dust,
And pomp and beauty, birth and blood:

That glorious day exalts the just To full dominion o'er the proud.

6 My Saviour shall my life restore, And raise me from my dark abode: My flesh and soul shall part no more, But dwell forever near my God.

637 PSALM 49. 1st Part. C. M.

Dundee, Dedham.

Pride and death; or, the vanity of life and riches.

WHY doth the man of riches grow To insolence and pride,
To see his wealth and honours flow

With every rising tide?

2 [Why doth he treat the poor with scorn, Made of the self-same clay, And boast as though his flesh were born Of better dust than they?

3 Not all his treasures can procure His soul a short reprieve:

Redeem from death one guilty hour, Or make his brother live.

4 [Life is a blessing can't be sold, The ransom is too high;

Justice will ne'er be bribed with gold, That man may never die.]

5 He sees the brutish and the wise, The timorous and the brave Quit their possessions, close their eyes,

And hasten to the grave. 6 Yet 'tis his inward thought and pride, 'My house shall ever stand;

'And that my name may long abide 'I'll give it to my land.'

7 Vain are his thoughts, his hopes are lost, How soon his memory dies! His name is written in the dust, Where his own carcass lies. PAUSE.

8 This is the folly of their way; And yet their sons, as vain, Approve the words their fathers say, And act their works again.

9 Men void of wisdom and of grace, If honour raise them high,

Live like the beast, a thoughtless race, And like the beast they die.

10 [Laid in the grave like silly sheep, Death feeds upon them there, Till the last trumpet breaks their sleep, In terror and despair.

638 PSALM 49. . 2d Part. C. M. St. Ann's, Stephens.

Death and the resurrection

YE sons of pride, that hate the just, And trample on the poor, When death has brought you down to Your pomp shall rise no more. [dust,

2 The last great day shall change the When will that hour appear? [scene: When shall the just revive and reign O'er all that scorn'd them here?

3 God will my naked soul receive, When separate from the flesh; And break the prison of the grave, To raise my bones afresh.

4 Heaven is my everlasting home: Th' inheritance is sure: Let men of pride their rage resume,

But I'll repine no more.

639 PSALM_89. 2d Part. L. M. Denton, Malden.

Mortality and hope. A funeral pealm.

REMEMBER, Lord, our mortal state, How frail our life! how short the

Where is the man that draws his breath Safe from disease, secure from death? 2 Lord, while we see whole nations die.

Our flesh and sense repine and cry, 'Must death forever rage and reign,

'Or hast thou made mankind in vain? 3 Where is thy promise to the just? 'Are not thy servants turn'd to dust?" But faith forbids these mournful sighs.

And sees the sleeping dust arise. 4 That glorious hour, that dreadful day Wipes the reproach of saints away, And clears the honour of thy word: Awake, our souls, and bless the Lord.

PSALM 89. P. M. St. Hellen's, Brooklyn. 640

Life, death, and the resurrection. THINK, mighty God, on feeble man; How few his hours, how short his span; Short from the cradle to the grave. Who can secure his vital breath

Against the bold demands of death, With skill to fly, or power to save?

2 Lord, shall it be forever said, 'The race of man was only made

'For sickness, sorrow, and the dust?" Are not thy servants, day by day, Sent to their graves, and turn'd to clay? Lord, where's thy kindness to the just?

3 Hast thou not promised to thy Son, And all his seed, a heavenly crown? But flesh and sense indulge despair:

Forever blessed be the Lord, That faith can read his holy word, And find a resurrection there.

4 Forever blessed be the Lord, Who gives his saints a long reward For all their toil, reproach and pain:
Let all below, and all above,
Join to proclaim thy wondrous love,
And each repeat a loud Amen.

641 PSALM 16. 3d Part. L. M. Hague, Medway.

Courage in death, and hope of the resurrection.

WHEN God is nigh, my faith is strong:
His arm is my almighty prop:
Be glad, my heart; rejoice, my tongue;
My dying flesh shall rest in hope.

2 Though in the dust I lay my head, Yet, gracious God, thou wilt not leave My soul forever with the dead, Nor lose thy children in the grave.

3 My flesh shall thy first call obey, Shake off the dust, and rise on high: Then shalt thou lead the wondrous way Up to thy throne above the sky.

4 There streams of endless pleasure flow, And full discoveries of thy grace, (Which we but tasted here below) Spread heavenly joys though all the place.

642 HYMN 110. B. 2. S. M. Sutton, Watchman, Miletus.

And must these active limbs of mine Lie mouldering in the clay?

2 Corruption, earth and worms Shall but refine this flesh, Till my triumphant spirit comes, To put it on afresh.

3 God my Redeemer lives,
And often from the skies
Looks down, and watches all my dust,
Till he shall bid it rise.

4 Array'd in glorious grace
Shall these vile bodies shine;
And every shape, and every face
Look heavenly and divine.

These lively hopes we owe
 To Jesus' dying love;
 We would adore his grace below,
 And sing his power above.

6 Dear Lord, accept the praise Of these our humble songs, Till tunes of nobler sound we raise With our immortal tongues.

643 Hymn 102. B. 2. L. M. all Saints, Dresden.

No, I'll repine at death no more, But, with a cheerful gasp, resign To the cold dungeon of the grave These dying, withering limbs of mine.

2 Let worms devour my wasting flesh, And crumble all my bones to dust, My God shall raise my frame anew, At the revival of the just.

3 Break, sacred morning, thro' the skies, Bring that delightful, dreadful day; Cut short the hours, dear Lord, and come, Thy lingering wheels, how long they stay!

4 [Our weary spirits faint to see The light of thy returning face; And hear the language of those lips Where God has shed his richest grace.]

5 [Haste, then, upon the wings of love, Rouse all the pious sleeping clay; That we may join in heavenly joys, And sing the triumph of the day.]

DAY OF JUDGMENT.

644 Hymn 65. B. 1. L. M. Enfield, Blendon.

The kingdoms of the world become the kingdom of the Lord; or, the day of judgment.

ET the seventh angel sound on high, Let shouts be heard thro' all the sky: Kings of the earth, with glad accord, Give up your kingdoms to the Lord.

2 Almighty God, thy power assume, Who wast, and art, and art to come; Jesus, the Lamb, who once was slain, Forever live, forever reign!

3 The angry nations fret and roar, That they can slay the saints no more: On wings of vengeance flies our God, To pay the long arrears of blood.

4 Now must the rising dead appear; Now the decisive sentence hear; Now the dear martyrs of the Lord Receive an infinite reward.

645 PSALM 97. 1st Part. L. M. # Winchelsea, Old Hundred.

Christ reigning in heaven, and coming to judgment.

HE reigns! the Lord, the Saviour reigns!
Praise him in evangelic strains;
Let the whole earth in songs rejoice,
And distant islands join their voice.

2 Deep are his counsels, and unknown, But grace and truth support his throne; Though gloomy clouds his way surround, Justice is their eternal ground.

3 In robes of judgment, lo, he comes! Shakes the wide earth, and cleaves the Before him burns devouring fire, [tombs: The mountaips melt, the seas retire. 4 His enemies, with sore dismay, Fly from the sight, and shun the day; Then lift your heads, ye saints, on high, And sing, for your redemption's nigh.

646 HYMN 107. B. 2. C. M. Bangor, Chester.

The everlasting absence of God intolerable.

THAT awful day will surely come,
Th' appointed hour makes haste,
When I must stand before my Judge,
And pass the solemn test.

2 Thou lovely Chief of all my joys, Thou Sovereign of my heart, How could I bear to hear thy voice Pronounce the sound, Depart?

3The thunder of that dismal word
Would so torment my ear,
'Twould tear my soul asunder, Lord,
With most tormenting fear.

4 [What, to be 'banish'd from my life, And yet forbid to die!

To linger in eternal pain, Yet death forever fly!]

50! wretched state of deep despair, To see my God remove, And fix my doleful station where

I must not taste his love!
6 Jesus, I throw mine arms around,
And hang upon thy breast;

Without a gracious smile from thee My spirit cannot rest.

70! tell me that my worthless name Is graven on thy hands; Show me some promise, in thy book,

Where my salvation stands.

8 [Give me one kind, assuring word,
To sink my fears again;
And cheerfully my soul shall wait
Her threescore years and ten.]

647 PSALM 9. 1st Part. C. M. #

Wrath and mercy from the judgment seat.
WITH my whole heart I'll raise my song,
Thy wonders I'll proclaim;
Thou, sovereign Judge of right and
Wilt put my foes to shame. [wrong,

2 I'll sing thy majesty and grace; My God prepares his throne To judge the world in righteousness, And make his vengeance known.

3Then shall the Lord a refuge prove For all the poor oppress'd; To save the people of his love,

And give the weary rest.

4 The men that know thy name will trust | In thy abundant grace For thou hast ne'er forsook the just, Who humbly sought thy face.

5 Sing praises to the righteous Lord, Who dwells on Zion's hill, Who executes his threatening word,

And doth his grace fulfil.

648 Hymn 45. B. 1. C. M. York, Franklin.

The last judgment.

SEE where the great incarnate God Fills a majestic throne,

While from the skies his awful voice Bears the last judgment down.

2 ['I am the first, and I the last,
'Through endless years the same;
'I AM is my memorial still,

And my eternal name.

3 Such favours as a God can give, My royal grace bestows;

'Ye thirsty souls, come taste the streams
'Where life and pleasure flows.]

4 ['The saint that triumphs o'er his sins 'I'll own him for a son;

'The whole creation shall reward 'The conquests he has won.

5 But bloody hands, and hearts unclean, 'And all the lying race,

'The faithless and the scoffing crew,
'That spurn at offer'd grace;

6 They shall be taken from my sight, Bound fast in iron chains,

'And headlong plunged into the lake 'Where fire and darkness reigns.']

70 may I stand before the Lamb When earth and seas are fled! And hear the Judge pronounce my name

With blessings on my head.

8 May I with those forever dwell,

Who here were my delight, While sinners, banish'd down to hell, No more offend my sight.

649 PSALM 50. 1st Part. C. M. #

The last judgment; or, the saints rewarded.

THE Lord, the judge, before his throne,
Bids the whole earth draw nigh;
The nations near the rising sun,

And near the western sky.

No more shall bold blasphemers say,

'Judgment will ne'er hegin;'
No more abuse his long delay

To impudence and sin.

3 Throned on a cloud, our God shall come, Bright flames prepare his way; Thunder and darkness, fire and storm Lead on the dreadful day. 4 Heaven from above his call shall hear, Attending angels come,

And earth and hell shall know and fear His justice and their doom.

5'But gather all my saints,' he cries,
'That made their peace with God
'By the Redeemer's sacrifice,

And seal'd it with his blood.

6 Their faith and works, brought forth to light,

'Shall make the world confess 'My sentence of reward is right, 'And heaven adore my grace.'

650 PSALM 50. 3d Part. C. M. Dundee, Rochester.

Dundee, Rochester.

The judgment of hypocrites.

WHEN Christ to judgment shall

And saints surround their Lord,
He calls the nations to attend,
And hear his awful word.

2 Not for the want of bullocks slain 'Will I the world reprove;

'Altars and rites and forms are vain,
'Without the fire of love.

3'And what have hypocrites to do 'To bring their sacrifice?

'They call my statutes just and true, 'But deal in theft and lies.

4 Could you expect to 'scape my sight,
'And sin without control?
'But I shall bring your gimes to light

'But I shall bring your crimes to light,
'With anguish in your soul.'

5 Consider, ye that slight the Lord, Before his wrath appear;

If once you fall beneath his sword, There's no deliverer there.

651 PSALM 50. 1st Part. P. M. Walworth, New 50th.

The last judgment.
The Lord, the sov'reign, sends his summons forth,
Calls the south nations, and awakes the north;
From east to west the sounding orders spread,
Through distant worlds, and regions of the dead:
No more shall atheists mock his long delay;
His vengeance sleeps no more: behold the day!

2 Behold the Judge descends; his guards are nigh: Tempest and fire attend him down the sky: Heaven, earth and hell, draw near; let all things come

To hear his justice, and the sinner's doom!
'But gather first my saints (the Judge commands)
Bring them, ye angels, from their distant lands.

3 Behold my covenant stands forever good, Seal'd by the eternal sacrifice in blood, And sign'd with all their names; the Greek, the That paid the ancient worship, or the new; There's no distinction here; come, spread their thrones,

And near me seat my favourites and my sons.

4 'I, their Almighty Saviour, and their God, I am their Judge: Ye heavens, proclaim abroad My just, eternal sentence, and declare Those awful truths that sinners dread to hear: Sinners in Zion, tremble and retire; I doom the painted hypocrite to fire.

5 Not for the want of goats or bullocks slain Do I condemn thee; bulls and goats are vain Without the flames of love: In vain the store Of brutal offerings that were mine before; Mine are the tamer beasts and savage breed, [feed. Flocks, herds, and fields, and forests, where they

6 'If I were hungry, would I ask thee food?
When did I thirst, or drink thy bullocks' blood?
Can I be flatter'd with thy cringing bows,
Thy solemn chatterings, and finitastic vows?
Are my eyes charm'd thy vestments to behold,
Glaring in gems, and gay in woven gold?

7 Unthinking wretch! how couldst thou hope to A God, a Spirit, with such toys as these? [please While, with my grace and statutes on thy tongue, Thou lovest deceit, and dost thy brother wrong! In vain to pious forms thy zeal pretends, Thieves and adulterers are thy chosen friends.

8 'Silent I waited with long-suffering love; But didst thou hope that I should ne'er reprove? And cherish such an impious thought within, That God, the righteous, would indulge thy sin? Behold my terrors now; my thunders roll, And thine own crimes affright thy guilty soul?

9 Sinners, awake betimes; ye fools, be wise; Awake before this dreadful morning rise; [amend: Change your vain thoughts, your crooked works Fly to the Saviour, make the Judge your friend; Lest like a lion his last vengeance tear Your trembling souls, and no deliverer near.

652 PSALM 50. 2d Part. P. M. #

The last judgment.

The God of glory sends his summons forth,
Calls the south nations, and awakes the north;
From east to west the sovereign orders spread,
Through distant worlds, and regions of the dead.
The trumpet sounds; hell trembles; heaven rejoices;
Lift up your heads, ye saints, with cheerful voices.

2 No more shall atheists mock his long delay; His vengeance sleeps no more: Behold the day! Behold the Judge descends: his guards are nigh: Tempest and fire attend him down the sky. When God appears, all nature shall adore him: While sinners tremble, saints rejoice before him.

To hear my justice, and the sinner's doom! [come,
But gather first my saints, (the Judge commands)
Bring them, ye augels, from their distant lands.'
When Christ returns, wake every cheerful passion;
And shout, ye saints! he comes for your salvation.
4 'Behold! my covenant stands forever good,

Seal'd by the eternal sacrifice in blood, [Jew, And sign'd with all their names; the Greek, the That paid the ancient worship or the new.' There's no distinction here; join all your voices, And raise your heads, ye saints, for heaven rejoices.

5' Here (saith the Lord) ye angels, spread their thrones,
And near me seat my favourites and my sons:

And near me seat my favourites and my sons:
Come, my redeem'd, possess the joys prepared
Ere time began; 'tis your divine reward.'
When Christ returns, wake every cheerful passion;
And shout, ye saints! he comes for your salvation.
Pause I.

6 'I am the Saviour, I th' Almighty God; I am the Judge: Ye heavens, proclaim abroad My just, eternal sentence, and declare Those awful truths, that sinners dread to hear.' While stinners tremble, suints rejoice before him

7 . Stand forth, thou bold blasphemer, and profane, Now feel my wrath, nor call my threatenings vain:
Thou hypocrite, once dress'd in saint's attire,
I doom the painted hypocrite to fire.'
Judgment proceeds; hell trembles; heaven rejoices;
Lift up your heads, ye saints, with cheerful voices.

8 Not for the want of goats or bullocks slain Do I condemn thee; bulls and goats are vain
Without the flames of love; in vain the store Of brutal offerings that were mine before.

Earth is the Lord's; all nature shall adore him; While sinners tremble, saints rejoice before him.

9 ' If I were hungry, would I ask thee food? When did I thirst, or drink thy bullocks' blood? Mine are the tamer beasts, and savage breed, Flecks, herds, and fields, and forests where they All is the Lord's; he rules the wide creation; [feed. Gives sinners vengeance, and the saints salvation.

10 Can I be flatter'd with thy cringing bows
Thy solemn chatterings and fantastic vows Are my eyes charm'd thy vestments to behold, Glaring in gems, and gay in woven gold?'
God is the Judge of hearts; no fair disguises Can screen the guilty, when his vengeance rises.

PAUSE II.

11 'Unthinking wretch! how couldst thou hope to

A God, a Spirit, with such toys as these? [please While with my grace and statutes on thy tongue, Thou lovest deceit, and dost thy brother wrong? Judgment proceeds; hell trembles; heaven rejoices. Lift up your heads, ye saints, with cheerful voices.

12 'In. vain to pious forms thy zeal pretends; Thieves and adulterers are thy chosen friends; While the false flatterer at my altar waits, His harden'd soul divine instruction hates.' God is the Judge of hearts; no fair disguises Can screen the guilty when his vengeance rises.

13 'Silent I waited with long suffering love; But didst thou hope that I should ne'er reprove? And cherish such an impious thought within, That the All-holy would indulge thy sin?' See, God appears, all nature joins to adore him; Judgment proceeds, and sinners fall before him. 14 'Behold my terrors now; my thunders roll, And thy own crimes affright thy guilty soul.

Now like a lion shall my vengeance tear Thy bleeding heart, and no deliverer near.'
Judgment concludes; hell trembles; heaven rejoices;

Lift up your heads, ye saints, with cheerful voices. 15 'Sinners, awake betimes; ye fools, be wise; Awake before this dreadful morning rise: [amend;

Change your vain thoughts, your crooked works Fly to the Saviour, make the Judge your friend. Then join the saints; wake every cheerful passion; When Christ returns, he comes for your salvation.

HELL AND HEAVEN.

Hymn 44. B. 2. L. M. 653 Windham, Malden

Hell; or, the vengeance of God. ITH holy fear, and humble song, The dreadful God our souls adore: Reverence and awe becomes the tongue That speaks the terrors of his power.

2 Far in the deep, where darkness dwells, The land of horror and despair, Justice has built a dismal hell, And laid her stores of vengeance there.

3 [Eternal plagues, and heavy chains, Tormenting racks, and fiery coals,

And darts t' inflict immortal pains, Dyed in the blood of damned souls.

4 There Satan, the first sinner, lies, And roars, and bites his iron bands. In vain the rebel strives to rise, [hands.] Crush'd with the weight of both thine

5 There guilty ghosts of Adam's race Shriek out, and howl beneath thy rod; Once they could scorn a Saviour's grace, But they incensed a dreadful God.

6 Tremble, my soul, and kiss the Son — Sinners, obey the Saviour's call: Else your damnation hastens on, And hell gapes wide to wait your fall.

HYMN 105. B. 1. Haven, Dundee. 654

Heaven invisible and holy.

C. M.

OR eye hath seen, nor ear hath heard. Nor sense nor reason known, What joys the Father hath prepared For those that love the Son.

2 But the good Spirit of the Lord Reveals a heaven to come; The beams of glory in his word Allure and guide us home.

3 Pure are the joys above the sky, And all the region peace;

No wanton lips, nor envious eye Can see or taste the bliss.

4 Those holy gates forever bar Pollution, sin and shame;

None shall obtain admittance there, But followers of the Lamb.

5 He keeps the Father's book of life; There all their names are found; The hypocrite in vain shall strive To tread the heavenly ground.

655 Hymn 86. B. 2. C. M. # orb Abridge, St. Ann's.

Freedom from sin and misery in heaven.

UR sins, alas, how strong they be! And, like a violent sea, They break our duty, Lord, to thee, And hurry us away.

2 The waves of trouble, how they rise! How loud the tempests roar! But death shall land our weary souls Safe on the heavenly shore.

3 There, to fulfil his sweet commands, Our speedy feet shall move;

No sin shall clog our winged zeal, Or cool our burning love.

4 There shall we sit, and sing, and tell The wonders of his grace;

#

Till heavenly raptures fire our hearts, | 5 Tormenting thirst shall leave their souls, And smile in every face.

5 Forever his dear sacred name Shall dwell upon our tongue; And Jesus and Salvation be The close of every song.

HYMN 40. B. 1. L. M. 656 Nantwich, Dunstan.

The business and blessedness of glorified saints. WHAT happy men or angels these. 'That all their robes are spotless white?

'Whence did this glorious troop arrive 'At the pure realms of heavenly light?'

2 From torturing racks and burning fires And seas of their own blood they came; But nobler blood has wash'd their robes, Flowing from Christ, the dying Lamb.

3 Now they approach th' Almighty Throne With loud hosannas night and day: Sweet anthems to the great Three-One Measure their blest eternity.

4 No more shall hunger pain their souls; He bids their parching thirst be gone; And spreads the shadow of his wings To screen them from the scorching sun.

5 The Lamb, that fills the middle throne, Shall shed around his milder beams; There shall they feast on his rich love. And drink full joys from living streams.

6 Thus shall their mighty bliss renew, Thro' the vast round of endless years: And the soft hand of sovereign grace Heals all their wounds, and wipes their tears.

Hymn 41. B. 1. C. M. 657 Bethlehem, Cambridge.

The same; or, the martyrs glorified. "THESE glorious minds, how bright they shine;

'Whence all their white array? 'How came they to the happy seats

'Of everlasting day?' 2 From torturing pains to endless joys On fiery wheels they rode,

And strangely wash'd their raiment white In Jesus' dying blood.

3 Now they approach a spotless God, And bow before his throne;

Their warbling harps and sacred songs Adore the Holy One.

4 The unveil'd glories of his face Among his saints reside, While the rich treasure of his grace Sees all their wants supply'd.

And hunger flee as fast;

The fruit of life's immortal tree Shall be their sweet repast.

6 The Lamb shall lead his heavenly flock Where living fountains rise, And love divine shall wipe away

The sorrows of their eyes.

Hymn 33. B. 2. C. M. 658. Christmas, Bray.

The blessed society in heaven. RAISE thee, my soul, fly up, and run Through every heavenly street, And say, There's nought below the sun That's worthy of thy feet.

2 Thus will we mount on sacred wings, And tread the courts above: Nor earth, nor all her mightiest things

Shall tempt our meanest love. 3 There, on a high majestic throne.

Th' Almighty Father reigns, And sheds his glorious goodness down On all the blissful plains.

4 Bright, like a sun, the Saviour sits, And spreads eternal noon: No evenings there, nor gloomy nights,

To want the feeble moon. 5 Amid those ever-shining skies Behold the sacred Dove;

While banish'd sin, and sorrow flies From all the realms of love. 6 The glorious tenants of the place

Stand bending round the throne; And saints and scraphs sing and praise The infinite THREE-ONE.

7 [But O, what beams of heavenly grace Transport them all the while! Ten thousand smiles from Jesus' face, And love in every smile!

8 Jesus, and when shall that dear day, That joyful hour, appear,

When I shall leave this house of clay, To dwell among them there!

#

Hymn 68. B. 2. C. M. 659 Wareham, Litchfield. The humble worship of heaven.

FATHER, I long, I faint to see The place of thine abode; I'd leave thy earthly courts, and flee Up to thy seat, my God!

2 Here I behold thy distant face, And 'tis a pleasing sight;

But to abide in thine embrace Is infinite delight.

3 I'd part with all the joys of sense To gaze upon thy throne;

Pleasure springs fresh forever thence, 3 [Princes to his imperial name Unspeakable, unknown.

Bend their bright sceptres d

4 [There all the heavenly hosts are seen; In shining ranks they move;

And drink immortal vigour in, With wonder, and with love.

5 Then at thy feet with awful fear Th' adoring armies fall;

With joy they shrink to NOTHING there, Before th' eternal ALL.

6 There I would vie with all the host In duty, and in bliss;

While less than nothing I could boast,

And vanity confess.]
7 The more thy glories strike mine eyes,

The humbler I shall lie;
Thus, while I sink, my joys shall rise
Unmeasurably high.

PSALM 96. L. P. M.
St. Hellen's.

The God of the Gentiles.

LET all the earth their voices raise
To sing the choicest psalm of praise,
To sing and bless Jehovah's name:
His glory let the heathens know,
His wonders to the nations show,

And all his saving works proclaim.

The heathens know thy glory, Lord;
The wondering nations read thy word;
Among us is Jehovah known:

Our worship shall no more be paid To gods which mortal hands have made; Our Maker is our God alone.

3 He framed the globe, he built the sky, He made the shining worlds on high, And reigns complete in glory there: His beams are majesty and light;

His beauties how divinely bright!
His temple how divinely fair!

4 Come, the great day, the glorious hour, When earth shall feel his saving power, And barbarous nations fear his name; Then shall the race of man confess The beauty of his holiness,

And in his courts his grace proclaim.

661 HYMN 91. B. 2. C. M. Braintree, Barby.

The glory of Christ in heaven.

O THE delights, the heavenly joys, The glories of the place, Where Jesus sheds the brightest beams Of his o'erflowing grace.

2 Sweet majesty and awful love Sit smiling on his brow; And all the glorious ranks above At humble distance bow.

17*

3 [Princes to his imperial name Bend their bright sceptres down; Dominions, thrones, and powers rejoice To see him wear the crown.

4 Archangels sound his lofty praise Through every heavenly street, And lay their highest honours down Submissive at his feet.

Submissive at his feet.]
5 Those soft, those blessed feet of his,

That once rude iron tore, High on a throne of light they stand, And all the saints adore.

6 His head, the dear majestic head, That cruel thorns did wound, See what immortal glories shine, And circle it around!

7 This is the Man, th' exalted Man, Whom we, unseen, adore!
But, when our eyes behold his face,
Our hearts shall love him more.

8 [Lord! how our souls are all on fire To see thy blest abode:

Our tongues rejoice in tunes of praise To our incarnate God!

9 And while our faith enjoys this sight, We long to leave our clay; And wish thy fiery chariots, Lord, To fetch our souls away.]

662 HYMN 75. B. 2. C. M. Christmas, Tallis' Chant.

Spiritual and eternal joys; or, the beatific sight of Christ.

ROM thee,my God,my joys shall rise, And run eternal rounds, Beyond the limits of the skies, And all created bounds.

2 The holy triumphs of my soul Shall death itself outbrave, Leave dull mortality behind, And fly beyond the grave.

3 There, where my blessed Jesus reigns, In heaven's unmeasured space, I'll spend a long eternity

In pleasure, and in praise.

4 Millions of years my wondering eyes
Shall o'er thy beauties rove;
And endless ages I'll adore
The glories of thy love.

5 [Sweet Jesus! every smile of thine Shall fresh endearments bring, And thousand tastes of new delight

And thousand tastes of new delight From all thy graces spring.

6 Haste, my Beloved, fetch my soul Up to thy bless'd abode; Fly, for my spirit longs to see My Saviour, and my God.]

I cannot persuade myself to put a full period to these divine Hymns, until I have addressed a special SONG OF GLORY to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Though the Latin name of it, Gloria Patri, be retained in the English nation from the Roman Church; and though there may be some excesses of superstitious honour paid to the words of it, which may have wrought some unhappy prejudices in weaker Christians; yet I believe it still to be one of the noblest parts of Christian worship. The subject of it is, the doctrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar glory of the Divine Nature, that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly revealed unto men, and is so necessary to true Christianity. The action is praise, which is the most complete and exalted part of heavenly worship. I have cast the song into a variety of forms, and have fitted it by a plain version, or a larger paraphrase, to be sung either alone, or at the conclusion of another Hymn. I have added also a few Hosannas, or ascriptions of salvation to Christ, in the same manner, and for the same end.

DOXOLOGIES.

THOSE OF EACH METRE ARE PLACED TOGETHER, BEGINNING WITH LONG METRE.

663 Hymn 26. B. 3. 1st L. M. Old Hundred, Angels' Hymn. A song of praise to the ever-blessed TRINITY, GOD the FATHER, SON, and SPIRIT.

BLESS'D be the Father and his love, To whose celestial source we owe Rivers of endless joy above, And rills of comfort here below.

2 Glory to thee, great Son of God, From whose dear wounded body rolls A precious stream of vital blood, Pardon and life for dying souls.

3 We give the sacred Spirit praise. Who in our hearts of sin and wo Makes living springs of grace arise, And into boundless glory flow.

4 Thus God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit, we adore, That sea of life and love unknown. Without a bottom or a shore.

664 Hymn 29. B. 3. 2d L. M. Winchelsea, Enfield. LORY to God the Trinity, Whose name has mysteries unknown; In essence One, in person Three;

A social nature, yet alone. 2 When all our noblest powers are join'd The honours of thy name to raise, Thy glories over-match our mind, And angels faint beneath the praise.

665 Hymn 32. B. 3. 3d L. M. O God the Father, God the Son. And God the Spirit, Three in One, Be honour, praise, and glory given, By all on earth, and all in heaven.

666 HYMN 33. B. 3. L. M.

Or thus. LL glory to thy wondrous name, Father of mercy, God of love; Thus we exalt the Lord, the Lamb, And thus we praise the heavenly Dova.

667 Hymn 27. B. 3. 1st C. M. # Bray, St. Martin's.

LORY to God the Father's name, Who, from our sinful race, Chose out his favourites to proclaim The honours of his grace.

2 Glory to God the Son be paid, Who dwelt in humble clay, And, to redeem us from the dead, Gave his own life away.

3 Glory to God the Spirit give, From whose almighty power Our souls their heavenly birth derive,

And bless the happy hour. 4 Glory to God that reigns above, Th' eternal Three in One, Who by the wonders of his love Has made his nature known.

668 HYMN 30. B. 3. 2d C. M.

THE God of mercy be adored. Who calls our souls from death, Who saves by his redeeming word, And new-creating breath.

2 To praise the Father, and the Son, And Spirit, all divine, The One in Three, and Three in One,

Let saints and angels join.

669 HYMN 34. B. 3. 3d C. M.

NOW let the Father, and the Son, And Spirit be adored, Where there are works to make him known, Or saints to love the Lord.

670 Hymn 35. B. 3. C. M.

Or thus. HONOUR to thee, Almighty Three, And everlasting One; All glory to the Father be, The Spirit, and the Son.

The 2d at the end of the Psalms. 671 C. M. # ET God the Father, and the Son, And Spirit be adored, Where there are works to make him known, Or saints to love the Lord.

#

672 Hymn 28. B. 3. 1st S. M. Dover, Silver Street.

ET God the Father live Forever on our tongues; Sinners from his first love derive The ground of all their songs.

Ye saints, employ your breath In honour to the Son,

Who bought your souls from hell and death,

By offering up his own.

3 Give to the Spirit praise Of an immortal strain,

Whose light and power and grace conveys

Salvation down to men.

4 While God the Comforter Reveals our pardon'd sin,

O may the blood and water bear The same record within!

To the great One in Three, That seal this grace in heaven, The Father, Son, and Spirit, be Eternal glory given.

673 Hymn 31. B. 3. 2d S. M.

ET God the Maker's name Have honour, love and fear; To God the Saviour pay the same, And God the Comforter.

Father of lights above, Thy mercy we adore, The Son of thine eternal love, And Spirit of thy power.

674 Hymn 36. B. 3. 3d S. M.

E angels round the throne, And saints that dwell below, Worship the Father, love the Son, And bless the Spirit too.

HYMN 37. B. 3. S. M.

Or thus. ✓IVE to the Father praise; Give glory to the Son; And to the Spirit of his grace Be equal honour done.

The 5th at the end of the Psalms. P. M.

NOW to the great and sacred Three, The Father, Son, and Spirit, be Eternal praise and glory given, Through all the worlds where God is known, By all the angels near the throne, And all the saints in earth and heaven.

| 677 HYMN 38. B. 3. H. M. Harwich, Bethesda.

> A song of praise to the blessed TRIRITY. I GIVE immortal praise To God the Father's love, For all my comforts here, And better hopes above:

He sent his own To die for sins
That man had done. Eternal Son,

2 To God the Son belongs Immortal glory too, Who bought us with his blood From everlasting wo:
And now he lives, And sees the fruit
And now he reigns, Of all his pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name Immortal worship give, Whose new-creating power Makes the dead sinner live: His work completes | And fills the soul The great design, With joy divine. Almighty God, to thee

Be endless honours done, The undivided Three, And the mysterious One: Where reason fails | There faith prevails With all her powers, And love adores.

Hymn 39. B. 3. H. M. 678 Harwich, St. Philips.

Po Him that chose us first, Before the world began; To Him that bore the curse To save rebellious man; To Him that form'd | Is endless praise Our hearts anew | And glory due.

The Father's love shall run Through our immortal songs; We bring to God the Son Hosannas on our tongues: | With equal praise, Our lips address The Spirit's name, | And zeal the same.

3 Let every saint above, And angel round the throne. Forever bless and love The sacred Three in One. Thus heaven shall raise When earth and His honours high, Grow old and die.

679 HYMN 40. B. 3. H. M.

Perpetual honours raise; Glory to God the Son, To God the Spirit, praise: And while our lips | Our faith adores
Their tribute bring | The name we sing. #

The 6th at the end of the Psalms. H. M. #

TO God the Father's throne Perpetual honours raise; Glory to God the Son, To God the Spirit, praise: With all our powers, Thy name we sing, Eternal King, 681 HYMN 41. B. 3. H. M.

TO our eternal God,
The Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, all divine,
Three mysteries in one,
Salvation, power,
And praise be given,
And all in heaven.

THE HOSANNA:

SALVATION ASCRIBED TO CHRIST.

682 HYMN 42. B. 3. L. M. #
HOSANNA to King David's Son,
Who reigns on a superior throne;
We bless the Prince of heavenly birth,
Who brings salvation down to earth.

2 Let every nation, every age, In this delightful work engage; Old men and babes in Sion sing The growing glories of her King.

683 Hwmn 43. B. 3. C. M. #
HOSANNA to the Prince of Grace;
Sion, behold thy King;
Proclaim the Son of David's race,
And teach the babes to sing.
2 Hosanna to the incarnate Word,
Who from the Father came;
Ascribe salvation to the Lord,
With blessings on his name.

684 HYMN 16. B. 1. C. M.
Bedford, Parma.
Hosanna to Christ.

HOSANNA to the royal Son Of David's ancient line; His natures two, his person one, Mysterious and divine.

2 The root of David here, we find, And offspring is the same; Eternity and time are join'd In our Immanuel's name. 3 Bless'd he that comes to wretched men With peaceful news from heaven; Hosannas of the highest strain To Christ the Lord be given!

4 Let mortals ne'er refuse to take
Th' hosanna on their tongues,
Lest rocks and stones should rise, and break

Their silence into songs.

685 HYMN 89. B. 2. C. M. Christmas, York.

Christ's victory over Satan.

HOSANNA to our conquering King,
The prince of darkness flies;

The prince of darkness flies;
His troops rush headlong down to hell,
Like lightning from the skies.

There bound in chains, the light roat.

2 There, bound in chains, the lions roar, And fright the rescued sheep; But heavy bars confine their power And malice to the deep.

3 Hosanna to our conquering King! All hail, incarnate Love!

Ten thousand songs and glories wait
To crown thy head above.

4 Thy victories and thy deathless fame Through the wide world shall run; And everlasting ages sing The triumphs thou hast won.

686 Hymn 44. B. 3. S. M. Watchman, St. Thomas.

HOSANNA to the Son
Of David, and of God,
Who brought the news of pardon down
And bought it with his blood.
To Christ th' anointed King
Be endless blessings given;
Let the whole earth his glory sing,

Who made our peace with Heaven.

687 HYMN 45. B. 3. H. M. Harwich, Bethesda.

HOSANNA to the King
Of David's ancient blood;
Behold he comes to bring
Forgiving grace from God;
Let old and young | And at his feet
Attend his way, | Their honours lay.

2 Glory to God on high;
Salvation to the Lamb;
Let earth, and sea, and sky,
His wondrous lone proclaim:
Upon his head | And every age
Shall honours rest, | Pronounce him blest.

THE PERFECTIONS OF GOD, ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

HYMN 1. L. M. Addison.
Castle Street, Nantwich, Slade.
Being of God proclaimed by creation.

THE spacious firmament on high, With all the blue, ethereal sky, And spangled heavens, a shining frame, Their great Original proclaim.

2 The unwearied sun, from day to day, Doth his Creator's power display; And publishes, to every land, The work of an almighty hand.

3 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly, to the listening earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;

4 While all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets, in their turn, Confirm the tidings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole.

5 What though in solemn silence all Move round this dark, terrestrial ball; What though no real voice nor sound Amid their radiant orbs be found:

6 In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice; Forever singing, as they shine, 'The hand that made us is divine.'

2 HYMN 2. C. M. Steele. Convey, St. Martin's, Barby. Condescension of God.

ETERNAL Power, Almighty God, Who can approach thy throne?

Accessless light is thine abode,

To angel eyes unknown.

2 Before the radiance of thine eye,
 The heavens no longer shine;And all the glories of the sky
 Are but the shade of thine.

3 Great God, and wilt thou condescend To cast a look below? To this vile world thy notice bend, These seats of sin and wo? 4 [But O! to show thy smiling face, To bring thy glories near! Amazing and transporting grace, To dwell with mortals here!]

5 How strange! how awful is thy love! With trembling we adore:

Not all the exalted minds above Its wonders can explore.

6 While golden harps and angel tongues Resound immortal lays,

Great God, permit our humble songs
To rise, and mean thy praise.

3 HYMN 3. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. #
St. Ann's, Nottingham, Dorchester.

Condescension of God.

WHEN the Eternal bows the skies, To visit earthly things, With scorn divine he turns his eyes From towers of haughty kings.

2 He bids his awful chariot roll
Far downward from the skies,
To visit every humble soul,
With pleasure in his eyes.

3 Why should the Lord, that reigns above. Disdain so lofty kings?

Say, Lord, and why such looks of love Upon such worthless things?

4 Mortals, be dumb; what creature dares
Dispute his awful will?

Ask no account of his affairs, But tremble, and be still.

5 Just like his nature is his grace, All sovereign and all free; Great God, how searchless are thy ways! How deep thy judgments be!

4 Hymn 4. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. #
Abridge, Canterbury.

Decrees ond Dominion of God.

KEP silence, all created things,
And wait your Maker's nod:
My soul stands trembling, while she sings
The honours of her God.

2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown Hang on his firm decree: He sits on no precarious throne, Nor borrows leave to be.

3 Chain'd to his throne, a volume lies, With all the fates of men, With every angel's form and size,

Drawn by the eternal pen.

4 His providence unfolds the book, And makes his counsels shine; Each opening leaf, and every stroke Fulfils some deep design.

5 Here, he exalts neglected worms To sceptres and a crown:

And there, the following page he turns, And treads the monarch down.

6 Not Gabriel asks the reason why; Nor God the reason gives; Nor dares the favourite angel pry Between the folded leaves.

7 My God, I would not long to see My fate with curious eyes, What gloomy lines are writ for me,

Or what bright scenes may rise. 8 In thy fair book of life and grace, O may I find my name

Recorded in some humble place, Beneath my Lord the Lamb!

Hymn 5. C. M. Rowe.

St. Ann's, Canterbury, Devizes.

Elevating of God.

THOU didst, O mighty God, exist

Ere time began its reason. Ere time began its race; Before the ample elements Fill'd up the void of space.

2 Before the ponderous earthly globe In fluid air was stay'd;

Before the ocean's mighty springs Their liquid stores display'd.

3 And when the pillars of the world, With sudden ruin break,

And all this vast and goodly frame Sinks in the mighty wreck:

4 When from her orb the moon shall start, The astonish'd sun roll back While all the trembling starry lamps Their ancient course forsake;

5 Forever permanent and fix'd, From agitation free, Unchanged in everlasting years, Shall thy existence be.

HYMN 6. L. M. Needham. Portugal, Wells, Shoel. Faithfulness of God.

E humble saints, proclaim abroad The honours of a faithful God; How just and true are all his ways, How much above your highest praise! 2 The words his sacred lips declare, Of his own mind the image bear: What should him tempt, from frailty free, Blest in his self sufficiency.

3 He will not his great self deny: A God all truth can never lie: As well might he his being quit As break his oath, or word forget. 4 Let frighted rivers change their course, Or backward hasten to their source; Swift through the air let rocks be hurl'd, And mountains like the chaff be whirl'd;

5 Let suns and stars forget to rise, Or quit their stations in the skies; Let heaven and earth both pass away, Eternal truth shall ne'er decay.

6 True to his word, God gave his Son, To die for crimes which men had done; Blest pledge! he never will revoke A single promise he has spoke.

HYMN 7. C. M. Steele. Irish, Exeter, Abridge, Newton. Goodness of God.

YE humble souls, approach your God With songs of sacred praise; For he is good, immensely good, And kind are all his ways.

2 All nature owns his guardian care, In him we live and move; But nobler benefits declare

The wonders of his love. 3 He gave his Son, his only Son, To ransom rebel worms; "Tis here he makes his goodness known In its diviner forms.

4 To this dear refuge, Lord, we come; Tis here our hope relies:

A safe defence, a peaceful home, When storms of trouble rise.

5 Thine eye beholds, with kind regard, The souls who trust in thee; Their humble hope thou wilt reward With bliss divinely fire.

6 Great God, to thy almighty love What honours shall we raise? Not all the raptured songs above Can render equal praise.

8 Hymn 8. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. # Portugal, Old Hundred, Blendon. Greatness of God, or, God supreme and self-sufficient

WHAT is our God, or what his name, Nor men can learn, nor angels teach! He dwells conceal'd in radiant flame, Where neither eyes nor thoughts can reach.

2 The spacious worlds of heavenly light, Compared with him, how short they fall! They are too dark, and he too bright; Nothing are they, and God is all.

3 He spoke the wondrous word, and, lo! Creation rose at his command; Whirlwinds and seas their limits know, Bound in the hollow of his hand.

4 There rests the earth, there roll the spheres,

There nature leans, and feels her prop; But his own self sufficience bears The weight of his own glories up.

5 The tide of creatures ebbs and flows, Measuring their changes by the moon; No ebb his sea of glory knows; His age is one eternal noon.

6 Then fly, my song, an endless round; The lofty tune let Gabriel raise: All nature dwell upon the sound, But we can ne'er fulfil the praise.

9 HYMN 9. C. M. Rippon's Select.#orb Bedford, Abridge, York.

HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King:
Thrice holy Lord, the angels cry;
Thrice holy, let us sing.

2 Heaven's brightest lamps, with him compared,

How mean they look, and dim! The fairest angels have their spots, When once compared with him.

3 Holy is he in all his works, And truth is his delight; But sinners and their wicked ways Shall perish from his sight.

4 The deepest reverence of the mind, Pay, O my soul, to God;

Lift with thy hands a holy heart To his sublime abode.

5 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach:
A broken heart shall please him more

A broken heart shall please him more Than the best forms of speech.

6 Thou holy God, preserve my soul From all pollution free; The pure in heart are thy delight, And they thy face shall see.

10 HYMN 10. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. #

Incomprehensibility of God.

OD is a name my soul adores;
Th' Almighty Three, th' eternal One!
Nature and grace, with all their powers,
Confess the Infinite Unknown.

18

2 From thy great self thy being springs:
Thou art thy own original,
Made up of uncreated things,

Made up of uncreated things, And self-sufficience bears them all.

3 Thy voice produced the seas and spheres, Bid the waves roar, and planets shine; But nothing like thyself appears Through all these spacious works of thine.

A Still restless nature dies and grows; From change to change the creatures run Thy being no succession knows,

And all thy vast designs are one.

5 Thrones and dominions round thee fall
And worship in submissive forms;
Thy presence shakes this lower ball,
This little dwelling-place of worms.

6 How shall affrighted mortals dare To sing thy glory or thy grace? Beneath thy feet we lie so far, And see but shadows of thy face!

7 Who can behold the blazing light!
Who can approach consuming flame?
None but thy wisdom knows thy might,
None but thy word can speak thy name

11 HYMN 11. C. M. Smart. # or b. St. Ann's, Medfield.

God incomprehensible.

CELESTIAL King, our spirits lie, Trembling beneath thy feet; And wish, and cast a longing eye, To reach thy lofty seat.

2 In thee, what endless wonders meet! What various glories shine! The dazzling rays too fiercely beat

Upon our fainting mind.

3 Angels are lost in glad surprise,
If thou unveil thy grace;
An humble awe runs through the skies.

When wrath arrays thy face.
4 Created powers, how weak they be!

How short our praises fall! So much akin to nothing, we, And thou, th' eternal All.

5 Lord, here we bend our humble souls, And awfully adore;

For the weak pinions of our minds Can stretch a thought no more.

12 HYMN 12. C. M. Watts. # or b Covington, Bedford. Infinity of God.

THY names, how infinite they be!
Great everlasting One!
Boundless thy might and majesty,
And unconfined thy throne.

2 Thy glories shine of wondrous size, And wondrous large thy grace And Gabriel veils his face.

3 Thine essence is a vast abyss, Which angels cannot sound,

An ocean of infinities, Where all our thoughts are drown'd.

4 Thy mysteries of creation lie Beneath enlighten'd minds; Thoughts can ascend above the sky, And fly before the winds;

5 Reason may grasp the massy hills, And stretch from pole to pole; But half thy name our spirit fills, And overloads our soul.

6 In vain our haughty reason swells, For nothing's found in thee But boundless inconceivables, And vast eternity.

13 HYMN 13. C. M. Watts. # or b Canterbury, Bedford, Abridge.

Sovereignty and grace. HE Lord, how fearful is his name! How wide is his command! Nature, with all her moving frame, Rests on his mighty hand.

2 Immortal glory forms his throne, And light his awful robe; While with a smile, or with a frown, He manages the globe.

3 A word of his almighty breath Can swell or sink the seas; Build the vast empires of the earth, Or break them as he please.

4 Adoring angels round him fall, In all their shining forms, His sovereign eye looks thro' them all, And pities mortal worms.

5 Now let the Lord forever reign, And sway us as he will; Sick, or in health, in ease, or pain, We are his favourites still.

HYMN 14. C. M.
Braintree, Irish, Devizes.

Love of God. # 14

OME. ye that know and fear the Lord, And lift your souls above; Let every heart and voice accord, To sing, that God is love.

2 This precious truth his word declares, And all his mercies prove; Jesus, the gift of gifts, appears, To show, that God is love.

3 Sinai, in clouds, and smoke, and fire, Thunders his dreadful name; But Sion sings, in melting notes, The honours of the Lamb.

Immortal day breaks from thine eyes, | 4 In all his doctrines and commands, His counsels and designs-In every work his hands have framed. His love supremely shines.

> 5 Angels and men the news proclaim Through earth and heaven above, The joyful and transporting news, That God, the Lord, is love.

15 HYMN 15. L. M. Upton's Selec. # Wells, Old Hundred, Portugal.

Majesty of God. O thou, my soul, in sacred lays. Attempt thy great Creator's praise; But, O, what tongue can speak his fame! What mortal verse can reach the theme!

2 Before his throne a glittering band Of seraphim, and angels, stand; Ethereal spirits, who, in flight, Outwing the active rays of light. 3 To God, all nature owes its birth; He form'd this ponderous globe of earth, He raised the glorious arch on high, And measured out the azure sky.

4 In all our Maker's grand designs, Omnipotence, with wisdom, shines; His works, thro' all this wondrous frame, Bear the great impress of his name.

5 Raised on devotion's lofty wing, Do thou, my soul, his glories sing: And let his praise employ thy tongue, Till listening worlds applaud the song.

16 HYMN 16. L. M. Rippon's Select. #

Medway, Quito.

Spirituality of God.

THOU art, O God, a Spirit pure,
Invisible to most-li Invisible to mortal eyes; Th' immortal, and th' eternal King, The great, the good, the only wise. 2 While nature changes, and her works Corrupt, decay, dissolve, and die, Thy essence pure, no change shall see, Secure of immortality.

3 Let stupid heathers frame their gods Of gold and silver, wood and stone; Ours is the God that made the heavens; Jehovah he, and God alone.

4 My soul, the purest homage pay, In truth and spirit him adore; More shall this please than sacrifice, Than outward forms delight him more

17 HYMN 17. C. M. Watts's Sermons. # Irish, Braintree. Trinity.

PATHER of glory! to thy name Immortal praise we give, Who dost an act of grace proclaim, And bid us rebels live.

2 Immortal honour to the Son, Who makes thine anger cease; Our lives he ransom'd with his own, And died to make our peace.

3 To thy Almighty Spirit be Immortal glory given,

Whose influence brings us near to thee, And trains us up for heaven.

4 Let men with their united voice Adore th' eternal God,

And spread his honours and their joys Through nations far abroad.

5 Let faith, and love, and duty join, One general song to raise;

Let saints in earth and heaven combine In harmony and praise.

18 HYMN 18. L. M. Williams. #
Old Hundred, Portugal.
Unity of God.

ETERNAL God! Almighty Cause Of earth, and seas, and worlds unknown,

All things are subject to thy laws, All things depend on thee alone.

2 Thy glorious being singly stands, Of all within itself possess'd; Controll'd by none are thy commands; Thou from thyself alone art bless'd.

3 To thee alone ourselves we owe; Let heaven and earth due homage pay; All other gods we disavow,

Deny their claims, renounce their sway.

4 Spread thy great name through heathen
Their idol deities dethrone; [lands;
Reduce the world to thy commands;
And reign, as thou art, God alone.

19 HYMN 19. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. #
Blendon, Winchelsea.
God only known to himself.

STAND and adore! how glorious He, That dwells in bright eternity! We gaze, and we confound our sight, Plunged in th' abyss of dazzling light.

2 Seraphs, the nearest to the throne, Begin, and speak the Great Unknown: Attempt the song, wind up your strings, To notes untried, and boundless things.

3 How far your highest praises fall Below th' immense Original! Weak creatures we, that strive in vain To reach an uncreated strain!

4 Great God, forgive our feeble lays, Sound out thine own eternal praise; A song so vast, a theme so high, Calls for the voice that tuned the sky. 20 HYMN 20. L. M. Needham. Islington, Sharon.

Moral perfections of the Deity imitated.

GREAT Author of th' immortal mind!
For noblest thoughts and views design'd,

Make me ambitious to express The image of thy holiness.

2 While I thy boundless love admire, Grant me to catch the sacred fire; Thus shall my heavenly birth be known, And for thy child thou wilt me own.

3 Enlarge my soul with love like thine; My moral powers by grace refine; So shall I feel another's wo, And cheerful feed a hungry foe.

4 I hope for pardon through thy Son, For all the crimes which I have done; O, may the grace that pardons me, Constrain me to forgive like thee!

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE

21 HYMN 21. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. *
Braintree, Devizes, Arundel.
A song to Creating Wisdom.

ETERNAL Wisdom, thee we praise!
Thee, the creation sings!
With thy loved name, rocks, hills and seas

And heaven's high palace rings.

2 Thy hand, how wide it spread the sky,

How glorious to behold!
Tinged with the blue of heavenly dye,
And starr'd with sparkling gold.

3 Thy glories blaze all nature round, And strike the gazing sight, Through skies, and seas, and solid ground,

Phrough skies, and seas, and solid grow With terror and delight.

4 Infinite strength, and equal skill Shine through the worlds abroad, Our souls with vast amazement fill, And speak the builder, God.

5 But still the wonders of thy grace Our softer passions move; Pity divine in Jesus' face

We see, adore, and love.

22 Hymn 22. L. M. Doddridge.
Antigua, Castle-Street, Enfield.
God's goodness to the children of men.

YE sons of men, with joy record The various wonders of the Lord; And let his power and goodness sound, Through all your tribes the earth around

2 Let the high heavens your songs invite, Those spacious fields of brilliant light; Where sun, and moon, and planets roll, And stars, that glow from pole to pole.

쁔

3 But O! that brighter world above, Where lives and reigns incarnate love! God's only Son, in flesh array'd, For man a bleeding victim made.

4 Thither, my soul, with rapture soar, There, in the land of praise, adore; The theme demands an angel's lay, Demands an everlasting day.

23 Hymn 23. C. M. Steele. Irish, Christmas, Chesterfield. Creation and Providence.

ORD, when our raptured thought Creation's beauties o'er, [surveys All nature joins to teach thy praise, And bid our souls adore.

2 Where'er we turn our gazing eyes, Thy radiant footsteps shine; Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise, And speak their source divine.

3 The living tribes, of countless forms, In earth, and sea, and air, The meanest flies, the smallest worms,

Almighty power declare.

4 Thy wisdom, power, and goodness, Lord,
In all thy works appear:

And O! let man thy praise record— Man, thy distinguish'd care!

5 From thee the breath of life he drew;
That breath thy power maintains,
Thy tender mercy, ever new,
His brittle frame sustains.

6 Yet nobler favours claim his praise, Of reason's light possess'd; By revelation's brightest rays Still more divinely bless'd.

24 HYMN 24. C. M. Cowper. #
St. Ann's, Barby, Clarendon.
The mysteries of Providence; or, light shining out of darkness.

GOD moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform; He plants his footsteps in the sea, And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines Of never-failing skill,

He treasures up his bright designs, And works his sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take, The clouds ye so much dread Are big with mercy, and shall break In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust him for his grace; Behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast, Unfolding every hour; The bud may have a bitter taste, But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

25 HYMN 25. C. M. Beddome.

Bedford, St. Martin's.

Mysteries to be explained hereafter.

CREAT God of Providence 1 they were

CREAT God of Providence! thy ways
Are hid from mortal sight;
Wrapt in impenetrable shades,
Or clothed with dazzling light!

2 The wondrous methods of thy grace Evade the human eye; The nearer we attempt t'approach,

The farther off they fly.

3 But in the world of bliss above,
Where thou dost ever reign,
These mysteries shall be all unveil'd,
And not a doubt remain.

4 The Sun of Righteousness shall there His brightest beams display, And not a hovering cloud obscure That never-ending day.

26 HYMN 26. C. M. Addison. # Arundel, Irish, Lanesboro'.

Gratitude for divine mercies. (Part I.)

WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,

Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love and praise.

2 Thy providence my life sustain'd, And all my wants redress'd, When in the silent womb I lay, Or hung upon the breast.

3 To all my weak complaints and cries Thy mercy lent an ear, Ere yet my feeble thoughts had learn'd

To form themselves in prayer.

4 Unnumber'd comforts on my soul Thy tender care bestow'd, Before my infant heart conceived From whom those comforts flow'd.

5 When in the slippery paths of youth, With heedless steps, I ran, Thine arm unseen convey'd me safe,

And led me up to man.

6 Through hidden dangers, toils, and death,

It gently clear'd my way;
And through the pleasing scenes of vice
Where thousands go astray.

27 HYMN 27. C. M. Addison. # Bedford, St. Ann's, York.
Gratitude for divine mercies. (Part II.)
WHEN pale with sickness, oft hast thou
With health renew'd my face;

#

And when in sin and sorrow sunk, Revived my soul with grace.

2 Thy bounteous hand with worldly good Has made my cup run o'er;

And in a kind and faithful friend Has doubled all my store.

3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts My daily thanks employ,

My daily thanks employ,
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.

4 Through every period of my life, Thy goodness I'll pursue; And after death, in distant worlds, The glorious theme renew.

5 Through all eternity to thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
For O, eternity's too short
To utter all thy praise.

28 HYMN 28. L. M. Addison.
Brighton, Brooklyn.
God our Shepherd.

THE Lord my pasture shall prepare, And feed me with a shepherd's care; His presence shall my wants supply, And guard me with a watchful eye. My noon-day walks he shall attend, And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint, Or on the thirsty mountain pant; To fertile vales, and dewy meads, My weary, wandering steps he leads: Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow, Amid the verdant landscapes flow.

3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
His bounty shall my pains beguile,
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With lively greens and herbage crown'd,
And streams shall murmur all around.

4 Though in the paths of death I tread, With gloomy horrors overspread, My steadfast heart shall fear no ill, For thou, O Lord, art with me still; Thy friendly staff shall give me aid, And guide me through the dismal shade.

29 HYMN 29. L. M. Cowper.
Slade, Sharon,
Grace and Providence.

ALMIGHTY King! whose wondrous hand Supports the weight of sea and land; Whose grace is such a boundless store,

No heart shall break that sighs for more.

Thy providence supplies my food,
And 'tis thy blessing makes it good;

My soul is nourish'd by thy word; Let soul and body praise the Lord.

3 My streams of outward comfort came From him who built this earthly frame; Whate'er I want, his bounty gives, By whom my soul forever lives.

4 Either his hand preserves from pain, Or, if I feel it, heals again; From Satan's malice shields my breast, Or over-rules it for the best.

5 Forgive the song that falls so low Beneath the gratitude I owe; It means thy praise, however poor, An angel's song can do no more.

30 Hymn 30. C. M. Addison.

Jordan, Mear, Rochester.

The Traveller's Psalm.

HOW are thy servants blest, O Lord, How sure is their defence; Eternal Wisdom is their guide Their help Omnipotence.

2 In foreign realms and lands remote, Supported by thy care,

Through burning climes they pass un-And breathe in tainted air. [hurt,

3 When by the dreadful tempest borne High on the broken wave,

They know thou art not slow to hear, Nor impotent to save.

4 The storm is laid, the winds retire, Obedient to thy will;

The sea, that roars at thy command, At thy command is still.

5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths,
Thy goodness we'll adore;

We'll praise thee for thy mercies past, And humbly hope for more.

31 HYMN 31, L. M. Upton. Luton, Shoel, Eaton.

TWAS God who kept me by his power, His goodness, O my soul, adore! Preserv'd by him, to him I raise This monument of grateful praise.

2 Many go out and ne'er return, But leave their families to mourn The sad, irreparable blow, Hasty, and vast, and awful too.

3 Others return'd in safety, find, Fled from the earth, some lovely mind, Embrace in vain the breathless clay, And wish to grieve themselves away.

4 What woes beyond my powers to count, What sorrows to unknown amount Might have occur'd to wound my heart, And bid my brightest scenes depart:

- 5 But God (his name my soul shall bless)
 Still crowns my house with life and peace;
 My life he crowns with every good,
 And will be known a gracious God.
- 6 What can I do but ask his grace, Still to enhance my debt of praise; Jesus, my soul to thee I bring, And long to serve thee while I sing.
- 32 Hymn 32. C. M. Madan's Coll. # Franklin, Mear, St. Ann's.

 Thanksgiving for deliverance in a storm.

OUR little bark, on boisterous seas, By cruel tempest tost, Without one cheerful beam of hope, Expecting to be lost!

2 We to the Lord in humble prayer Breath'd out our sad distress;Though feeble, yet with contrite hearts, We begg'd return of peace.

3 The stormy winds did cease to blow, The waves no more did roll; And soon again a placid sea Spoke comfort to each soul.

4 O! may our grateful, trembling hearts Sweet hallelujah's sing To Him who hath our lives preserved, Our Saviour and our King.

5 Let us proclaim to all the world, With heart and voice, again, And tell the wonders he hath done For us, the sons of men.

33 HYMN 33. L. M. Evans's Coll. # Sharon, Islington. Providence.

THE earth and all the heavenly frame Their great Creator's love proclaim! He gives the sun his genial power, And sheds the soft refreshing shower.

- 2 The ground with plenty blooms again, And yields her various fruits to men; To men! who from thy bounteous hand, Receive the gifts of every land.
- 3 Nor to the human race alone
 Is his paternal goodness shown:
 The tribes of earth, and sea, and air
 Enjoy his universal care.
- 4 Not e'en a sparrow yields his breath Till God permits the stroke of death; He hears the ravens when they call; The Father, and the Friend of all.

UNIVERSAL PRAISE.

34 Hymn 34. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. #
Norfolk, Marlow.
Universal Hallelujah.

PRAISE ye the Lord, immortal choir, That fill the realms above; Praise him, who form'd you of his fire, And feeds you with his love.

2 Shine to his praise, ye crystal skies, The floor of his abode;

Or veil in shade your thousand eyes Before your brighter God.

3 Thou restless globe of golden light, Whose beams create our days, Join with the silver queen of night,

And own your borrow'd rays.

4 Winds, ye shall bear his name aloud,
Through the ethereal blue;

For when his chariot is a cloud, He makes his wheels of you.

5 Shout to the Lord, ye surging seas,
In your eternal roar,
Let wave to wave resound his preise

Let wave to wave resound his praise, And shore reply to shore.

6 Thunder and hail, and fires and storms, The troops of his command, Appear in all your dreadful forms, And speak his awful hand.

7 Wave your tall heads, ye lofty pines, To Him that bid you grow, Sweet clusters bend the fruitful vines On every thankful bough.

8 Thus while the meaner creatures sing, Ye mortals, catch the sound; Echo the glories of your King Through all the nations round.

35 Hymn 35. C. M. Evans's Coll. #
Stamford, Irish, Devizes.

Praise to God.

THE glorious armies of the sky, To thee, Almighty King! Triumphant anthems consecrate, And hallelujahs sing.

2 But still their most exalted flights
Fall vastly short of thee;
How distant then must human praise
From thy perfections be?

3 Yet how, my God, shall I refrain, When to my ravish'd sense, Each creature in its various ways, Displays thy excellence?

4 The blushes of the morn confess
That thou art much more fair;
When in the east its beams revive,
To gild the fields of air.

5 The singing birds, the whistling winds, | 38 HYMN 38. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. # And waters murmuring fall,

To praise the first Almighty Cause, With different voices call.

6 Thy numerous works exalt thee thus, And shall we silent be?

No, rather let us cease to breathe, Than cease from praising thee.

36 Hymn 36. L. M. Doddridge Uxbridge, Tallis' Evening Hymn. Doddridge. # Praise to God for his unnumbered mercies.

IN glad amazement, Lord, we stand Amid the bounties of thy hand; How numberless those bounties are, How rich, how various, and how fair!

2 But O! what poor returns we make! What lifeless thanks we pay thee back! Lord, we confess, with humble shame, Our offerings scarce deserve the name.

3 Fain would our labouring hearts devise To bring some nobler sacrifice; It sinks beneath the mighty load! What shall we render to our God?

4 To Him we consecrate our praise, And vow the remnant of our days; Yet what, at best, can we pretend, Worthy such gifts, from such a friend?

5 In deep abasement, Lord, we see Our emptiness and poverty; Enrich our souls with grace divine, And make them worthier to be thine.

37 HYMN 37. L. M. Evans's Coll. # Portugal, Shoel, Sharon, Slade. Praise to God through the whole of our existence.

OD of my life, through all its days, My grateful powers shall sound thy praise;

The song shall wake with opening light, And warble to the silent night.

2 When anxious cares would break my rest, And grief would tear my throbbing breast, Thy tuneful praise I'll raise on high, And check the murmur and the sigh.

3 When death o'er nature shall prevail, And all its powers of language fail, Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,

And mean the thanks I cannot speak. 4 But O! when that last conflict's o'er. And I am chain'd to flesh no more, With what glad accents shall I rise To join the music of the skies!

5 Soon shall I learn th' exalted strains, Which echo through the heavenly plains; And emulate, with joy unknown,

The glowing scraphs round thy throne.

Old Hundred, Wells, Psalm 97.

God exalted above all praise. TERNAL Power, whose high abode Becomes the grandeur of a God; Infinite length beyond the bounds Where stars revolve their little rounds:

2 The lowest step around thy seat Rises too high for Gabriel's feet; In vain the tall archangel tries [eyes. To reach thine height with wondering

3 Lord, what shall earth and ashes do? We should adore our Maker too; From sin and dust to thee we cry, The Great, the Holy, and the High!

4 Earth from afar has heard thy fame, And worms have learnt to lisp thy name; But O, the glories of thy mind Leave all our soaring thoughts behind.

 ${f 5\,God}$ is in heaven, but man below ; Be short our tunes; our words be few: A sacred reverence checks our songs, And praise sits silent on our tongues.

SCRIPTURE.

39 Hymn 39. C. M. Rippon's Selec. # Barby, Litchfield.

The inspired word, a system of knowledge and joy. OW precious is the book divine, By inspiration given! Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,

To guide our souls to heaven. 2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts

In this dark vale of tears; Life, light, and joy it still imparts, And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp, through all the tedious night Of life, shall guide our way

Till we behold the clearer light Of an eternal day.

40 HYMN 40. C. M. Dr. S. Stennett. # York, St. Ann's, Irish. The riches of God's word.

ET avarice, from shore to shore, Her favourite god pursue; Thy word, O Lord, we value more Than India or Peru.

2 Here, mines of knowledge, love and joy Are open'd to our sight;

The purest gold without alloy, And gems divinely bright.

3 The counsels of redeeming grace These sacred leaves unfold; And here the Saviour's lovely face Our raptured eyes behold.

4 Here, light descending from above
Directs our doubtful feet;
Here, promises of heavenly love
Our ardent wishes meet.

5 Our numerous griefs are here redrest,
 And all our wants supply'd:
 Nought we can ask to make us blest
 Is in this book denied.

6 For these inestimable gains,
That so enrich the mind,
O may we search with eager pains,
Assured that we shall find!

Usefulness of the Scriptures.

HOW precious is thy word, O God,
"Tis for our light and guidance given;
It sheds a lustre all abroad,
And points the path to bliss and heaven.

2 It fills the soul with sweet delight; It quickens its inactive powers; It sets our wandering footsteps right; Displays thy love, and kindles ours:

3 Its promises rejoice our hearts; Its doctrines are divinely true; Knowledge and pleasure it imparts; It comforts and instructs us too.

4 Ye favour'd lands, who have this word, Ye saints, who feel its saving power— Unite your tongues to praise the Lord, And his distinguish'd grace adore.

42 HYMN 42. C. M. Steele. #
St. Ann's, Irish, Canterbury.

The excellency and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures.

FATHER of mercies! in thy word

FATHER of mercies! in thy wor What endless glory shines; Forever be thy name adored For these celestial lines.

2 Here may the wretched sons of want Exhaustless riches find; Riches above what out here grant

Riches above what earth can grant, And lasting as the mind.

3 Here the fair tree of knowledge grows, And yields a free repast; Sublimer sweets than nature knows

Sublimer sweets than nature knows
Invite the longing taste.

4 Here the Redeemer's welcome voice Spreads heavenly peace around; And life, and everlasting joys Attend the blissful sound.

5 O may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight;
And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light.

6 Divine Instructer, gracious Lord!
Be thou forever near:
Teach me to love thy sacred word,
And view my Saviour there!

CHRIST.
HIS INCARNATION.

43 HYMN 43. C. M. Medley.
Braintree, Arundel, Marlow.
Incarnation of Christ.

MORTALS, awake, with angels join, And chant the solemn lay: Joy, love, and gratitude combine To hail the auspicious day.

2In heaven the rapturous song began, And sweet seraphic fire

Through all the shining legions ran, And strung and tuned the lyre.

3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew, And loud the echo roll'd; The theme the song the joy was new

The theme, the song, the joy was new,
'Twas more than heaven could hold.
4 Down through the portals of the sky

Th' impetuous torrent ran; And angels flew, with eager joy, To bear the news to man.

5 Hark! the cherubic armies shout, And glory leads the song; Good will and peace are heard thro'out Th' harmonious heavenly throng.

44 HYMN 44. 7's. J. C. W. Hotham, Pilton.

Nativity of Christ.

HARK! the herald-angels sing, 'Glory to the new-born King: 'Peace on earth, and mercy mild, 'God and sinners reconciled.'

2 Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumphs of the skies; With the angelic hosts proclaim, 'Christ is born in Bethlehem!'

3 Christ, by highest heaven adored, Christ, the everlasting Lord: Late in time behold him come, Offspring of a virgin's womb.

4 Veil'd in flesh the Godhead see, Hail the incarnate Deity! Pleased as man with men t' appear, Jesus, our Immanuel, here.

45 HYMN 45. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. *
Arundel, Cambridge, Conway.

Nativity of Christ.

SHEPHERDS! rejoice, lift up your And send your fears away; [eyes,

#

'News from the regions of the skies, 6' All glory be to God on high! 'Salvation's born to-day.

2'Jesus, the God whom angels fear,

'Comes down to dwell with you; 'To-day he makes his entrance here, 'But not as monarchs do.

3'No gold nor purple swaddling bands, 'Nor royal shining things;

'A manger for his cradle stands, 'And holds the King of kings.

4'Go, shepherds, where the infant lies, 'And see his humble throne;

'With tears of joy in all your eyes, 'Go, shepherds, kiss the Son.'

5 Thus Gabriel sang, and straight around The heavenly armies throng, They tune their harps to lofty sound, And thus conclude the song:

6'Glory to God that reigns above, 'Let peace surround the earth; 'Mortals shall know their Maker's love 'At their Redeemer's birth.'

7 Lord, and shall angels have their songs, And men no tunes to raise?

O may we lose our useless tongues When they forget to praise.

8 Glory to God, that reigns above, That pitied us forlorn, We join to sing our Maker's love, For there's a Saviour born.

46 HYMN 46. C. M. Patrick or Tate. # St. Martin's, Braintree, Stamford.

Nativity of Christ.

WHILE shepherds watch'd their flocks by night, All seated on the ground,

The angel of the Lord came down, And glory shone around.

2' Fear not,' said he (for mighty dread Had seized their troubled mind,) 'Glad tidings of great joy I bring 'To you, and all mankind.

3'To you, in David's town, this day 'Is born, of David's line,

'The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord, 'And this shall be the sign:

4'The heavenly Babe you there shall 'To human view display'd; [find 'All meanly wrapt in swathing-bands, 'And in a manger laid.'

5 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith Appear'd a shining throng Of angels, praising God, and thus

Address'd their joyful song:

'And to the earth be peace!

'Good will henceforth from heaven to 'Begin and never cease!' men

47 Hymn 47. Milton altered. (6's and 10's.) Courtney.

Angels proclaiming the birth of Christ. JO war nor battle's sound Was heard the world around, No hostile chiefs to furious combat ran; But peaceful was the night,

In which the Prince of light

His reign of peace upon the earth began. The shepherds on the lawn,

Before the point of dawn, In social circle sat, while all around The gentle fleecy brood,

Or cropp'd the flow'ry food, [ground. Or slept, or sported on the verdant

When lo! with ravish'd ears, Each swain delighted hears

Sweet music, offspring of no mortal hand; Divinely warbled voice, Answering the stringed noise,

With blissful rapture charm'd the list' ning band.

Sounds of so sweet a tone Before were never known, But when of old the sons of morning While God disposed in air

Each constellation fair, hung. And the well balanced world on hinges Hail, hail, auspicious morn!

The Saviour Christ is born: (Such was th' immortal seraph's song sublime)

Glory to God in heaven; To man sweet peace be given, [time! Sweet peace and friendship to the end of

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

48 HYMN 48. C. M. Rippon's Selec. # Irish, Patmos, Tallis, Chant. The Redeemer's message.

HARK, the glad sound, the Saviour The Saviour promised long! [comes, Let every heart prepare a throne, And every voice a song.

2 On him, the Spirit, largely pour'd,

Exerts his sacred fire; Wisdom and might, and zeal and love

His holy breast inspire. 3 He comes, from thickest films of vice

To clear the mental ray; And, on the eyes oppress'd with night, To pour celestial day.

Ь

4 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim;
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

49 Hymn 49. L. M. Steele.
Portugal, Uxbridge.
Our example.

A ND is the gospel peace and love!
Such let our conversation be;
The serpent blended with the dove,
Wisdom and meek simplicity.

2 Whene'er the angry passions rise, And tempt our thoughts or tongues to To Jesus let us lift our eyes, [strife, Bright pattern of the Christian life!

30, how benevolent and kind!
How mild! how ready to forgive!
Be this the temper of our mind,
And these the rules by which we live.

4 To do his heavenly Father's will Was his employment and delight; Humility and holy zeal

Shone through his life divinely bright!

5 Dispensing good where'er he came,
The labours of his life were love;
O, if we love the Saviour's name,
By his example let us move.

SUFFERINGS AND DEATH.

50 HYMN 50. L. M. Steele. Armiey, Danvers. A dying Saviour.

STRETCH'D on the cross, the Saviour dies:

Hark! his expiring groans arise!

See, from his hands, his feet, his side,

Runs down the sacred crimson tide!

2 And didst thou bleed?---for sinners bleed? And could the sun behold the deed? No! he withdrew his sick'ning ray, And darkness veil'd the mourning day.

3 Can I survey this scene of wo,
Where mingling grief and wonder flow;
And yet my heart unmoved remain,
Insensible to love or pain?

4 Come, dearest Lord! thy grace impart, To warm this cold, this stupid heart, Till all its powers and passions move In melting grief and ardent love.

51 HYMN 51. L. M. Dr. S. Stennett. b Munich, Middlebury. It is finished.

"IlS finish'd! so the Saviour cried, And meekly bow'd his head, and died: "Tis finish'd—yes, the race is run, The battle fought, the victory won.

2"Tis finish'd—all that Heaven decreed, And all the ancient prophets said Is now fulfill'd, as was design'd, In me, the Saviour of mankind.

3 'Tis finish'd—this my dying groan Shall sins of every kind atone: Millions shall be redeem'd from death, By this my last expiring breath.

4 Tis finish'd—Heaven is reconciled.
And all the powers of darkness spoil'd:
Peace, love, and happiness again
Return, and dwell with sinful men.

RESURRECTION OF CHRIST.

52 HYMN 52. H. M. Doddridge. # Harwich, Triumph.

Resurrection of Christ.

YES! the Redeemer rose,
The Saviour left the dead,
And o'er our hellish foes
High raised his conquering head!
In wild dismay | Fall to the ground,
The guards around | And sink away.

2 Lo! the angelic bands
In full assembly meet,
To wait his high commands,
And worship at his feet;
Joyful they come,
And wing their way | To Jesus' tomb.

3 Then back to heaven they fly,
The joyful news to bear;
Hark! as they soar on high,
What music fills the air!
Their anthems say, 'Hath left the dead;
'Jesus, who bled, 'He rose to-day.'

4 Ye mortals! catch the sound—
Redeem'd by him from hell,
And send the echo round
The globe on which you dwell;
Transported, cry— | 'Hath left the dead;
'Jesus, who bled, | 'No more to die.'

5 All hail, triumphant Lord,
Who savest us with thy blood!
Wide be thy name adored,
Thou rising, reigning God;
With thee we rise, | And empires gain
With thee we reign, | Beyond the skies.

53 HYMN 53. 7's. Rippon's Selec. # Pilton, Lincoln.
The Resurrection.

CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day!
Sons of men and angels say!
Raise your joys and triumphs high!
Sing, ye heavens, and earth, reply.
Love's redeeming work is done—
Fought the fight, the battle won;

Lo! the sun's eclipse is o'er; Lo! he sets in blood no more.

3Vain the stone, the watch, the seal, Christ hath burst the gates of hell; Death in vain forbids him rise, Christ hath open'd paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King!
'Where, O death! is now thy sting?'
Once he died, our souls to save;
'Where's thy victory, boasting grave?'
5 Hail the Lord of earth and heaven!

5 Hail the Lord of earth and heaven! Praise to thee by both be given! Thee we greet triumphant now, Hail! the resurrection—thou.

54 HYMN 54. 7's. Gibbons.
Pilton, Sicilian Hymn.
The resurrection and ascension.

A NGELS! roll the rock away!
Death! yield up the mighty prey;
See! he rises from the tomb,
Glowing with immortal bloom.

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

2 Tis the Saviour! angels, raise
Fame's eternal trump of praise!
Let the earth's remotest bound
Hear the joy-inspiring sound.

3 Now, ye saints, lift up your eyes!
Now to glory see him rise,
In long triumph, up the sky—

Up to waiting worlds on high. Hal. 4 Praise him, all ye heavenly choirs! Praise, and sweep your golden lyres! Shout, O earth, in rapturous song, Let the strains be sweet and strong! Hal.

ASCENSION OF CHRIST.

55 HTMN 55. L. M. Wesley's Coll. #
Truro, Nantwich, Enfield.
Christ's ascension.

Our Jesus is gone up on high:
The powers of hell are captive led;
Dragg'd to the portals of the sky.

2 There his triumphal chariot waits; And angels chant the solemn lay: 'Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates! 'Ye everlasting doors, give way!'

3 Loose all your bars of massy light, And wide unfold the radiant scene; He claims those mansions as his right; Receive the King of glory in.

4'Who is the King of glory, who?'
The Lord, that all his foes o'ercame;
The world, sin, death and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the conqueror's name.

5 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits, And angels chant the solemn lay: 'Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates, 'Ye everlasting doors, give way! 6' Who is the King of glory, who?' The Lord, of boundless power possest; The King of saints and angels too; God over all, forever blest.

56 Hymn 56. L. M. Watts's Miscel. #
Danvers, Medway.

The humiliation, exaltation, and triumphs of Christ.

THE mighty frame of glorious grace,
That brightest monument of praise.
That e'er the God of love design'd,
Employs and fills my labouring mind.

2 Begin, my soul, the heavenly song,
A burden for an angel's tongue:
When Gabriel sounds these awful things,
He tunes and summons all his strings.

3 Proclaim inimitable love!
Jesus, the Lord of worlds above,
Puts off the beams of bright array,
And veils the God in mortal clay.
4 He, that distributes crowns and thrones,
Hangs on a tree, and bleeds and groans.

Hangs on a tree, and bleeds, and groans;
The Prince of life resigns his breath—
The King of glory bows to death.
5 But see the wonders of his power!

He triumphs in his dying hour; And, while by Satan's rage he fell, He dash'd the rising hopes of hell.

6 Thus were the hosts of death subdued, And sin was drown'd in Jesus blood; Then he arose, and reigns above, And conquers sinners by his love.

7 Who shall fulfil this boundless song! The theme surmounts an angel's tongue! How low, how vain are mortal airs When Gabriel's nobler harp despairs!

INTERCESSION OF CHRIST.

57 HYMN 57. L. M. Steele.
Angel's Hymn, Uxbridge.
Intercession of Christ.

HE lives! the great Redeemer lives! (What joy the blest assurance gives!)
And now, before his Father, God,
Pleads the full merit of his blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears, And justice, arm'd with frowns, appears; But in the Saviour's lovely face Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace. 3 Hence, then, ye black despairing tho'ts!

3 Hence, then, ye black despairing tho to Above our fears, above our faults, His powerful intercessions rise; And guilt recedes, and terror dies. 4 In every dark, distressful hour, When sin and Satan join their power, Let this dear hope repel the dart, That Jesus bears us on his heart.

5 Great Advocate, Almighty Friend, On him our humble hopes depend: Our cause can never, never fail, For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

DOMINION OF CHRIST.

58 HYMN 58. H. M. Rippon's Selec. #

The kingdom of Christ. REJOICE! the Lord is King; Your God and King adore; Mortals, give thanks and sing, And triumph evermore.

Lift up the heart, | Rejoice aloud, Lift up the voice, | Ye saints, rejoice.

Rejoice! the Saviour reigns-The God of truth and love; When he had purged our stains, He took his seat above: Lift up the heart, | Rejoice aloud, Lift up the voice, | Ye saints, rejoice.

3 His kingdom cannot fail, He rules o'er earth and heaven; The keys of death and hell Are to our Jesus given:
Lift up the heart, | Rejoice aloud,
Lift up the voice, | Ye saints, rejoice.

4 Rejoice in glorious hope! Jesus, the Judge, shall come, And take his servants up To their eternal home:

We soon shall hear |The trump of God Th' archangel's voice: Shall sound, rejoice.

CHARACTERS OF CHRIST. ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

59 HYMN 59. L. M. Rippon's Selec. # Advocate.

WHERE is my God? does he retire Beyond the reach of humble sighs? Are these weak breathings of desire, Too languid to ascend the skies?

2 No, Lord! the breathings of desire, The weak petition, if sincere, Is not forbidden to aspire, But reaches thy all-gracious ear.

3 Look up, my soul, with cheerful eye, See where the great Redeemer stands; The glorious Advocate on high, With precious incense in his hands!

4 He sweetens every humble groan, He recommends each broken prayer; Recline thy hope on him alone, Whose power and love forbid despair.

5 Teach my weak heart, O gracious Lord: With stronger faith to call thee mine; Bid me pronounce the blissful word, My Father, God, with joy divine.

60 Hymn 60. C. M. Toplady. Cambridge, Conway.

____All in all.

COMPARED with Christ, in all beside No comeliness I see: The one thing needful, dearest Lord, Is to be one with thee.

2 The sense of thy expiring love Into my soul convey:

Thyself bestow! for thee alone, My all in all, I pray.

3 Less than thyself will not suffice My comfort to restore: More than thyself I cannot crave:

And thou canst give no more. 4 Loved of my God, for him again

With love intense I'd burn: Chosen of thee, ere time began, I'd choose thee in return.

5 Whate'er consists not with thy love, O teach me to resign: I'm rich to all th' intents of bliss, If thou, O God, art mine.

61 Hymn 61. L. M. Watts. # or b Portugal, Slade. Christ the eternal life.

ESUS, our Saviour and our God. Array'd in majesty and blood, Thou art our life; our souls in thee Possess a full felicity.

2 All our immortal hopes are laid In thee, our surety, and our head; Thy cross, thy cradle and thy throne Are big with glories yet unknown.

3 Let atheists scoff, and Jews blaspheme Th' eternal Life and Jesus' name; A word of thy almighty breath Dooms the rebellious world to death.

4 But let my soul forever lie Beneath the blessings of thine eye: 'Tis heaven on earth, 'tis heaven above

To see thy face and taste thy love. 62 Hymn 62. C. M. Cowper. Litchfield, Covington.

Praise for the fountain opened.

THERE is a fountain fill'd with blood,

Drawn from Impagnication.

Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood. Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
O may I there, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away!

3 Dear dying Lamb! thy precious blood Shall never lose its power, Till all the ransom'd church of God Be saved, to sin no more.

4 E'er since by faith I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply,

Redeeming love has been my theme,

And shall be till I die.

5 Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save,

When this poor lisping, stammering tongue

Lies silent in the grave.

63 Hymn 63. C. M. Doddridge. 4
Abridge, Barby.
Head of the church.

JESUS, I sing thy matchless grace,
That calls a worm thy own;
Gives me among thy saints a place
To make thy glories known.

2 Allied to thee, our vital Head, We act, and grow, and thrive; From thee divided, each is dead When most he seems alive.

3 Thy saints on earth, and those above, Here join in sweet accord: One body all in mutual love,

And thou our common Lord.

4 Thou the whole body wilt present
Before thy Father's face;
Nor shall a wrinkle or a spot
Its beauteous form disgrace.

64 Hymn 64. C. M. Steele.
Warsaw, Archdale.
King of saints.

COME, ye that love the Saviour's name, And joy to make it known; The Sovereign of your heart proclaim, And bow before his throne.

2 Behold your King, your Saviour, crown'd With glories all divine;

And tell the wondering nations round How bright those glories shine.

3 Infinite power, and boundless grace In him unite their rays; You, that have e'er beheld his face,

Can you forbear his praise?

4 When in his earthly courts we view
The glories of our King,
We long to love as angels do,
And wish like them to sing.

19

5 O, happy period! glorious day! When heaven and earth shall raise, With all their powers, the raptured lay, To celebrate thy praise.

65 HYMN 65. C. M. Duncan.
Arundel, Marlow.
The spiritual coronation.

A LL-HAIL the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem,

And crown him Lord of all.

2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant week and small!

A remnant weak and small!

Hail him, who saves you by his grace,

And crown him Lord of all.

3 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
 The wormwood and the gall;
 Go—spread your trophies at his feet,
 And crown him Lord of all.

4 Let every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 O, that with yonder sacred throng, We at his feet may fall; We'll join the everlasting song, And crown him Lord of all.

66 HYMN 66. C. M. Doddridge. # Mear, Barby, Arlington.

Jesus precious to them that believe.

JESUS, I love thy charming name,

"Tip music to my charming name,

'Tis music to my ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud
That earth and heaven might hear.

2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul! My transport and my trust: Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,

And gold is sordid dust.

3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;

Nor to my eyes is light so dear, Nor friendship half so sweet.

4 Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart, And shed its fragrance there; The noblest balm of all its wounds,

The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

5 I'll speak the honours of thy name With my last labouring breath; And dying, clasp thee in my arms, The antidote of death.

67 Hymn 67. L. M. Steele. # or b Portugal, Hebron, Ward. Physician of souls.

DEEP are the wounds which sin has made; Where shall the sinner find a cure?

In vain, alas! is nature's aid;
The work exceeds all nature's power.

2 And can no sovereign balm be found? And is no kind physician nigh, To ease the pain, and heal the wound, Ere life and hope forever fly?

3 There is a great Physician near: Look up, O fainting soul, and live; See in his heavenly smiles appear Such ease as nature cannot give!

4 See, in the Saviour's dying blood, Life, health, and bliss abundant flow; 'Tis only this dear sacred flood Can ease thy pain and heal thy wo.

Saviour—tile only one.

JESUS, the spring of joys divine,
Whence all our hope and comforts
Jesus, no other name but thine [flow;
Can save us from eternal wo.

2 In vain would boasting reason find The way to happiness and God; Her weak directions leave the mind Bewilder'd in a dubious road.

3 No other name will Heaven approve: Thou art the true, the living way, Ordain'd by everlasting love, To the bright realms of endless day.

69 HYMN 69. L. M. Cennick. #
Portugal, Ellenthorpe.
Way to Canaan.

ESUS, my all, to heaven is gone;
He, whom I fix my hopes upon!
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went, The road that leads from banishment; The King's highway of holiness, I'll go; for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long have sought, And mourn'd because I found it not; My grief, and burden, long has been Because I could not cease from sin.

4 The more I stroye against its power, I sinn'd and stumbled but the more, Till late I heard my Saviour say, 'Come hither, soul, I am the way.'

5 Lo! glad I come! and thou, blest Lamb, Shalt take me to thee as I am: My sinful self to thee I give! Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 Then will I tell to sinners round What a dear Saviour I have found; I'll point to thy redeeming blood, And say, 'Behold the way to God!' 70 Hymn 70. C. M. Hartford Coll. #

Praise to the Redeemer.

FOR a thousand tongues to sing My dear Redeemer's praise!
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace!

2 My gracious Master and my God, Assist me to proclaim, To spread through all the earth about The honours of thy name.

3 Jesus, the name that calms our fear,
That bids our sorrows cease:

That bids our sorrows cease;
"Tis music in the sinner's ears;
"Tis life, and health, and peace.

4 He breaks the power of reigning sin, He sets the prisoner free; His blood can make the foulest clean; His blood avail'd for me.

5 Let us obey, we then shall know, Shall feel our sins forgiven; Anticipate our heaven below, And own that love is heaven.

The privileges of the sons of God.

BLESSED are the sons of God,
They are bought with Jesus' blood,
They are ransom'd from the grave,
Life eternal they shall have:
With them number'd may we be,

Now and through eternity.

2 God did love them, in his Son,
Ere creation was begun;
They the seal of this receive.

They the seal of this receive, When on Jesus they believe: With them, &c.

3 They are justify'd by grace,
They enjoy a solid peace;
All their sins are wash'd away,
They shall stand in God's great day.
With them, &c.

4 They have fellowship with God, Through the Mediator's blood; One with God, through Jesus one, Glory is in them begun.

With them, &c.

5 They alone are truly blest—
Heirs with God, joint heirs with Christ;
They with love and peace are fill'd;
They are by his Spirit seal'd.
With them, &c.

Christians the sons of God.

NOT all the nobles of the earth, Who boast the honours of their birth, Such real dignity can claim As those who bear the Christian name.

2To them the privilege is given To be the sons and heirs of heaven: Sons of the God who reigns on high, And heirs of joys beyond the sky.

3 When, through temptation, they rebel, His chastening rod he makes them feel; Then, with a father's tender heart, He soothes the pain, and heals the smart.

4 Their daily wants his hands supply, Their steps he guards with watchful eye, Leads them from earth to heaven above, And crowns them with eternal love.

5 If I've the honour, Lord, to be One of this numerous family, On me the gracious gift bestow To call thee Abba, Father! too.

6 So may my conduct ever prove My filial piety and love! While all my brethren clearly trace Their Father's likeness in my face.

ATONEMENT.

73 Hymn 73. C. M. Watts's Ser. # Abridge, Bedford.

The atonement of Christ. HOW is our nature spoil'd by sin! Yet nature ne'er hath found The way to make the conscience clean, Or heal the painful wound.

2In vain we seek for peace with God By methods of our own:

Jesus, there's nothing but thy blood Can bring us near the throne. 3 The threatenings of thy broken law

Impress our souls with dread: If God his sword of vengeance draw, It strikes our spirits dead.

4 But thine illustrious sacrifice Hath answer'd these demands, And peace and pardon from the skies Come down by Jesus' hands.

5 Here all the ancient types agree, The altar and the lamb; And prophets in their vision see

Salvation through his name. 6 Tis by thy death we live, O Lord; Tis on thy cross we rest; Forever be thy love adored.

Thy name forever blest.

72 HYMN 72. L. M. S. Stennett. # 71 HYMN 74. 8's and 7's. L. H. Coll. # Sicilian Hymn, Walpole. Gratitude for the atonement.

HAIL! thou once despised Jesus, Hail! thou Galilean King! Thou didst suffer to release us; Thou didst free salvation bring!

Hail, thou agonizing Saviour, Bearer of our sin and shame!

By thy merits we find favour; Life is given through thy name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed, All our sins on thee were laid: By almighty love anointed,

Thou hast full atonement made: All thy people are forgiven Through the virtue of thy blood:

Open'd is the gate of heaven; Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory, There forever to abide! All the heavenly hosts adore thee,

Seated at thy Father's side: There for sinners thou art pleading; There thou dost our place prepare; Ever for us interceding,

Till in glory we appear.

4 Worship, honour, power, and blessing, Thou art worthy to receive:

Loudest praises, without ceasing, Meet it is for us to give:

Help, ye bright angelic spirits! Bring your sweetest, noblest lays! Help to sing our Saviour's merits; Help to chant Immanuel's praise!

COMMUNION WITH GOD.

75. C. M. Co York, St. Ann's. Walking with God Hymn 75. Cowper. 75

O FOR a closer walk with God. A calm and heavenly frame; A light to shine upon the road, That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew When first I saw the Lord; Where is the soul-refreshing view Of Jesus, and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I then enjoy'd! How sweet their memory still!

But now I find an aching void The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove! return, Sweet messenger of rest!

I hate the sins that made thee mourn. And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known. Whate'er that idol be,

Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God, Calm and serene my frame; So purer light shall mark the road That leads me to the Lamb.

76 HYMN 76. C. M. Watts. b or #

"O that I knew where I might find him." Sins and sorrows laid before God.

O THAT I knew the secret place Where I might find my God; I'd spread my wants before his face,

And pour my woes abroad.

2 I'd tell him how my sins arise,
What sorrows I sustain;

How grace decays, and comfort dies, And leaves my heart in pain.

3 He knows what arguments I'd take, To wrestle with my God; I'd plead for his own mercy's sake,

And for my Saviour's blood.

4 My God will pity my complaints, And heal my broken bones; He takes the meaning of his saints, The language of their groans.

5 Arise, my soul, from deep distress,
 And banish every fear;
 He calls thee to his throne of grace,
 To spread thy sorrows there.

DEPRAVITY.

77 HYMN 77. L.M. Watts. # orb

A DAM, our father and our head, Transgress'd, and justice doom'd us dead:

The fiery law speaks all despair, There's no reprieve nor pardon there. 2 Call a bright council in the skies; Seraphs, the mighty and the wise, Speak; are you strong to bear the load, The weighty vengeance of a God?

3 In vain we ask; for all around Stand silent through the heavenly ground; There's not a glorious mind above Has half the strength or half the love.

4 But, O! unmeasurable grace!
Th' eternal Son takes Adam's place:
Down to our world the Saviour flies,
Stretches his arms, and bleeds, and dies.

5 Amazing work! look down, ye skies! Wonder and gaze with all your eyes; Ye saints below, and saints above, All bow to this mysterious love.

78 HYMN 78. C. M. S. Stennett. b Dorset, York, Wareham. Inducting sin lamented.

WITH tears of anguish I lament Here at thy feet, my God, My passion, pride, and discontent, And vile ingratitude.

2 Sure there was ne'er a heart so base, So false as mine has been:

So faithless to its promises, So prone to every sin!

3 My reason tells me thy commands
Are holy, just, and true;

Tells me whate'er my God demands
Is his most righteous due.
4 Reason I hear, her counsels weigh,

And all her words approve;
But still I find it hard t' obey,
And harder yet to love.

5 How long, dear Saviour, shall I feel
These strugglings in my breast?
When wilt thou bow my stubborn will,
And give my conscience rest?

GRACE.

79 HYMN 79. S. M. Doddridge. # Shirland, Mornington.

Salvation by grace, from the first to the last.

CRACE! 'tis a charming sound;
Harmonious to the ear!
Heaven with the echo shall resound,
And all the earth shall hear.

2 Grace first contrived the way To save rebellious man; And all the steps that grace display

Which drew the wondrous plan.

Grace led my roving feet
To tread the heavenly road;

And new supplies, each hour, I meet, While pressing on to God.

I Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

80 HYMN 80. C. M. Irish, Cambridge.

By the grace of God I am what I am

GREAT God, 'tis from thy sovereign grace

That all my blessings flow; Whate'er I am, or do possess, I to thy mercy owe.

2"Tis this my powerful lusts control, And pardons all my sin; [soul, Spreads life and comfort through my And makes my nature clean. 81, 82

Tis this upholds me whilst I live, Supports me when I die; And hence ten thousand saints receive Their all, as well as I.

JUSTIFICATION.

81 Hymn 81. L. M. # or b

Human rightcourness insufficient to justify.

WHEREWITH, O Lord, shall I draw near.

Or bow myself before thy face? How, in thy purer eyes, appear? What shall I bring to gain thy grace?

2 Will gifts delight the Lord most high? Will multiplied oblations please? Thousands of rams his favour buy? Or slaughter'd millions e'er appease?

3 Can these assuage the wrath of God? Can these wash out my guilty stain? Rivers of oil, or seas of blood— Alas! they all must flow in vain.

4 What have I, then, wherein to trust?
I nothing have, I nothing am;
Excluded is my every boast,
My glory swallow'd up in shame.

5 Guilty, I stand before thy face;
My sole desert is hell and wrath;
"Twere just the sentence should take place;

But O, I plead my Saviour's death!
6 I plead the merits of thy Son,
Who died for sinners on the tree;
I plead his righteousness alone;
O put the spotless robe on me!

82 Hymn 82. L. M. Wesley.
Shoel, Duke Street, Sterling.
Imputed righteousness.

JESUS, thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
'Midst flaming worlds, in these array'd,
With joy shall I lift up my head.

2 When from the dust of death I rise, To take my mansion in the skies; E'en then shall this be all my plea, 'Jesus hath lived and died for me.'

3 Thus Abraham, the friend of God, Thus all the armies bought with blood, Saviour of sinners, thee proclaim! Sinners—of whom the chief I am.

4 This spotless robe the same appears When ruin'd nature sinks in years; No age can change its glorious hue: The robe of Christ is ever new.

19*

5 O let the dead now hear thy voice! Bid, Lord, thy banish'd ones rejoice; Their beauty this, their glorious dress, Jesus, the Lord, our righteousness.

PARDON.

83 Hymn 83. C. M. Steele. York, Canterbury, Wantage. Pardoning love.

HOW oft, alas! this wretched heart Has wander'd from the Lord! How oft my roving thoughts depart, Forgetful of his word!

2 Yet sovereign mercy calls, 'Return:'
Dear Lord, and may I come!
My vile ingratitude I mourn;
O take the wanderer home.

3 And canst thou, wilt thou yet forgive, And bid my crimes remove? And shall a pardon'd rebel live

To speak thy wondrous love?

4 Thy pard'ning love, so free, so sweet,

Dear Saviour, I adore;
O keep me at thy sacred feet,
And let me rove no more.

84 HYMN 84. S. M. Watts's Lagrics. b Aylesbury, Olmutz. Confession and pardon.

MY sorrows, like a flood, Impatient of restraint, Into thy bosom, O my God! Pour out a long complaint.

This impious heart of mine Could once defy the Lord, Could rush with violence on to sin, In presence of thy sword.

3 O'ercome by dying love, Here at thy cross I lie,

And throw my flesh, my soul, my all, And weep, and love, and die.

4 'Rise,' saith the Saviour, 'rise!
'Behold my wounded veins!
'Here flows a sacred crimson flood,

'To wash away thy stains!'

See, God is reconciled!

Behold his smiling face!

Let joyful cherubs clap their wings,

And sound aloud his grace.

PERSEVERANCE.

85 HYMN 85. L. M. Doddridge. #
Blendon, Angel's Hymn, Danvers.

Moah preserved in the ark, and the believer in Christ.

THE deluge, at the Almighty's call,
In what impetuous streams it fell;
Swallow'd the mountains in its rage,
And swept a guilty world to hell.

2 Yet Noah, humble, happy saint! Surrounded with a chosen few, Sat in his ark, secure from fear, And sang the grace that steer'd him thro'.

3 So may I sing, in Jesus safe, While storms of vengeance round me fall; Conscious how high my hopes are fix'd, Beyond what shakes this earthly ball.

4 Enter thine ark, while patience waits, Nor ever quit that sure retreat, Then the wide flood, which buries earth, Shall waft thee to a fairer seat.

86 HYMN 86. C. M. F.——,
Bedford, Cambridge.
Perseverance.

LORD, hast thou made me know thy Conduct me in thy fear; [ways? And grant me such supplies of grace, That I may persevere.

2 Let but thy own Almighty arm Sustain a feeble worm,

I shall escape, secure from harm, Amid the dreadful storm.

3 Be thou my all-sufficient friend, Till all my toils shall cease, Guard me through life, and let my end Be everlasting peace.

REDEMPTION.

87 HYMN 87. 7's. Rippon's Selec. #
Alsen, Pilton.
Redeeming love.

NOW begin the heavenly theme, Sing aloud in Jesus' name! Ye, who his salvation prove, Triumph in redeeming love.

2 Ye, who see the Father's grace Beaming in the Saviour's face, As to Canaan on ye move, Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears; Banish all your guilty fears; See your guilt and curse remove, Cancell'd by redeeming love.

4 Welcome all, by sin opprest, Welcome to his sacred rest; Nothing brought him from above, Nothing but redeeming love.

5 Hither, then, your music bring, Strike aloud each cheerful string; Mortals, join the host above, Join to praise redeeming love.

88 Hymn 88. L. M. Steele. b or # Winchester, Brentford.
Redemption by Christ alone.

RNSLAV'D by sin, and bound in chains Beneath its dreadful, tyrant sway,

And doom'd to everlasting pains, We wretched guilty captives lay. 2 Jesus, the Lord, the mighty God, An all-sufficient ransom paid: Invalued price! his precious blood, For vile, rebellious traitors shed! 3 Jesus the sacrifice became, To rescue guilty souls from hell: The spotless, bleeding, dying Lamb, Beneath avenging justice fell. 4 Amazing goodness! love divine! O may our grateful hearts adore The matchless grace; nor yield to sin, Nor wear its cruel fetters more.

REGENERATION.

89 Hymn 89. C. M. Toplady's Coll. # st. Martin's, Cambridge, Arundel.

Fificacious grace.

AIL! mighty Jesus! how divine
Is thy victorious sword!

The stoutest rebel must resign
At thy commanding word.

2 Deep are the wounds thy arrows give,
They pierce the hardest heart;
Thy smiles of grace the slain revive,

And joy succeeds to smart.

3 Still gird thy sword upon thy thigh,
Ride with majestic sway;

Go forth, great Prince, triumphantly, And make thy foes obey.

4 And when thy victories are complete, When all the chosen race Shall round the throne of glory meet,

To sing thy conquering grace;
50 may my humble soul be found

Among that favour'd band!

And I, with them, thy praise will sound
Throughout Immanuel's land.

90 HYMN 90. S. M. Doddridge. $ Dover, W chman.

DEAR Saviour, we are thine
By everlasting bands;
Our names, our hearts we would resign,
Our souls are in thy hands.

2 To thee we still would cleave, With ever-growing zeal; If millions tempt us Christ to leave, O let them ne'er prevail.

3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee our head;
Shall form us to thy image bright,
That we thy paths may tread.

Death may our souls divide From these abodes of clay:

But love shall keep us near thy side Through all the gloomy way.

5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If he in heaven hath fix'd his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

91 Hymn 91. C. M. S. Stennett. : Swanwick, Barby, Abridge.

A S on the cross the Saviour hung, And wept, and bled, and died, He pour'd salvation on a wretch, That languish'd at his side.

2 His crimes, with inward grief and shame, The penitent confess'd;

Then turn'd his dying eyes to Christ, And thus his prayer address'd:

3'Jesus, thou Son and heir of heaven,
'Thou spotless Lamb of God!
'I see thee bathed in sweat and tears,

'And weltering in thy blood.

4'Yet quickly from these scenes of wo, 'In triumph thou shalt rise, 'Burst thro' the gloomy shades of death, 'And shine above the skies.

5' Amid the glories of that world,
'Dear Saviour, think on me,

'And in the victories of thy death 'Let me a sharer be.'

6 His prayer the dying Jesus hears, And instantly replies,

'To-day thy parting soul shall be 'With me in paradise.'

92 HYMN 92. C. M. b or # Windsor, Bedford, Bangor.

Renewing grace.

HOW helpless guilty nature lies, Unconscious of its load! The heart, unchanged, can never rise To happiness and God.

2 Can aught beneath a power divine
The stubborn will subdue?
Tis thine, eternal Spirit, thine

To form the heart anew.

3"Tis thine the passions to recall,
And upwards bid them rise;
And make the scales of error fall

From reason's darkened eyes.

4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;

A beam of heaven, a vital ray, Tis thine alone to give.

5 O change these wretched hearts of ours, And give them life divine! Then shall our passions and our powers, Almighty Lord, be thine. ____

SANCTIFICATION.

93 Hymn 93. C. M. Watts. # or b
Windsor, Bedford, Abridge.
Sanctification and pardon.

WHERE shall we sinners hide our heads?

Can rocks or mountains save? Or shall we wrap us in the shades Of midnight and the grave?

2 Is there no shelter from the eye
Of a revenging God?
Jesus, to thy dear wounds we fly;

Bedew us with thy blood.

3 Those guardian drops our souls secure, And wash away our sin;

Eternal justice frowns no more, And conscience smiles within.

4 We bless that wondrous purple stream,
That cleanses every stain;
Yet are our souls but half redeem'd,

If sin, the tyrant, reign.

5 Lord, blast his empire with thy breath,

That cursed throne must fall; Ye flatt'ring plagues that work our death, Fly, for we hate you all.

LAW AND GOSPEL

94 HYMN 94. L. M. Watts. # or b

The law and the gospel; or, Christ a refuge.

CURST be the man, forever curst,
'That doth one wilful sin commit;
'Death and damnation for the first,
'Without relief, and infinite.'

2 Thus Sinai roars, and round the earth, Thunder, and fire, and vengeance flings; But, Jesus, thy dear gasping breath, And Calvary, say gentler things!

3'Pardon, and grace, and boundless love, 'Streaming along a Saviour's blood; 'And life, and joys, and crowns above, 'Obtained by a dear bleeding God.'

4 Hark, how he prays (the charming sound Dwells on his dying lips) 'FORGIVE!' And every groan and gaping wound Cries, 'Father, let the rebels live!'

5 Go, you that rest upon the law, And toil and seek salvation there, Look to the flame that Moses saw, And shrink, and tremble, and despair.

6 But I'll retire beneath the cross—
Saviour, at thy dear feet I'll lie;
And the keen sword, that justice draws,
Flaming and red, shall pass me by.

95 HYMN 95. L. M. Watts. # or b | 97

The gespel the power of God to salvation.

WHAT shall the dying sinner do,
That seeks relief for all his wo?
Where shall the guilty conscience find
Ease for the torment of the mind?

2 How shall we get our crimes forgiven, Or form our natures fit for heaven? Can souls, all o'er defiled with sin, Make their own powers and passions clean?

3 In vain we search, in vain we try, Till Jesus brings his gospel nigh; Tis there that power and glory dwell, Which saves rebellious souls from hell.

4 This is the pillar of our hope, That bears our fainting spirits up; We read the grace, we trust the word, And find salvation in the Lord.

5 Let men or angels dig the mines, Where nature's golden treasure shines; Brought near the doctrine of the cross, All nature's gold appears but dross. 6 Should vile blasphemers, with disdain, Pronounce the truths of Jesus vain,

Pronounce the truths of Jesus vain,
We'll meet the scandal and the shame,
And sing and triumph in his name.

96 HYMN 96. C. M. Cowper. York, St. Ann's, Devizes.

NO strength of nature can suffice To serve the Lord aright; And what she has, she misapplies, For want of clearer light.

2 How long beneath the law I lay, In bondage and distress! I toil'd, the precept to obey, But toil'd without success.

3 Then, to abstain from outward sin Was more than I could do; Now, if I feel its power within, I feel I hate it too.

4 Then, all my servile works were done A righteousness to raise; Now, freely chosen in the Son, I freely choose his ways.

5' What shall I do?' was then the word,
'That I may worthier grow?'
'What shall I render to the Lord?'

Is my inquiry now.

6 To see the law by Christ fulfill'd, And hear his pardoning voice, Changes a slave into a child, And duty into choice. 97 HYMN 97. L. M. Watts.
Rothwell, Chapel Street.
The inward witness to Christianity.

QUESTIONS and doubts be heard no more; Let Christ and joy be all our theme; His Spirit seals his gospel sure To every soul that trusts in him.

2Jesus, thy witness speaks within:
The mercy which thy words reveal
Refines the heart from sense and sin,
And stamps its own celestial seal.

3'Tis God's inimitable hand
That moulds and forms the heart anew:
Blasphemers can no more withstand,
But bow and own thy doctrine true.

4 The guilty wretch that trusts thy blood Finds peace and pardon at the cross; The sinful soul, averse to God,. Believes and loves his Maker's laws.

5 Learning and wit may cease their strife, When miracles with glory shine; The voice that calls the dead to life Must be almighty, and divine.

98 Hymn 98. C. M. Watts.
Cambridge, Conway.
God glorious, and sinners saved.

FATHER, how wide thy glories shine, How high thy wonders rise! Known thro' the earth by thousand signs, By thousand through the skies.

2 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power, Their motion speak thy skill; And on the wings of every hour We read thy patience still.

3 But when we view thy strange design, To save rebellious worms, Where vengeance and compassion join, In their divinest forms;

4 Here the whole Deity is known;
Nor dares a creature guess
Which of the glories brightest shone,
The justice, or the grace.

5 Now the full glories of the Lamb Adorn the heavenly plains; Sweet cherubs learn Immanuel's pane

Sweet cherubs learn Immanuel's name, And try their choicest strains. 6 O, may I bear some humble part

In that immortal song!
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.

99 HYMN 99. C. M. Watts. # London, Bedford.

A rational defence of the gospel.

SHALL atheists dare insult the cross
Of our incarnate God?

 ${\sf Digitized\ by\ Google}$

Shall infidels revile his truth, And trample on his blood?

2 What if he choose mysterious ways
To cleanse us from our faults;
May not the works of sovereign grace
Transcend our feeble thoughts?

3 What if his gospel bid us strive With flesh, and self, and sin? The prize is most divinely bright That we are call'd to win.

4 What if the men despised on earth, Still of his grace partake?

This but confirms his truth the more;
For so the prophets spake.

5 Do some, that own his sacred truth, Indulge their souls in sin? [name; None should reproach the Saviour's His laws are pure and clean.

6 Then let our faith be firm and strong, Our lips profess his word; Nor ever shun those holy men, Who fear and love the Lord.

INVITATIONS AND PROMISES.

100 Hymn 100. C. M. Fawcett. b Mear, Lanesboro', Bangor. Let the wicked forsake his way, &c.

SINNERS, the voice of God regard, 'Tis mercy speaks to-day;
He calls you by his sovereign word
From sin's destructive way.

2 Why will you in the crooked ways
Of sin and folly go?
In pain you travel all your days,
To reap immortal wo!

3 But he that turns to God shall live, Through his abounding grace: His mercy will the guilt forgive

Of those that seek his face.

4 Bow to the sceptre of his word,
Renouncing every sin;

Irish, Braintree, Warsaw.
An invitation to the gospel feast.

YE wretched, hungry, starving poor, Behold a royal feast! Where mercy spreads her bounteous For every humble guest. [store]

2 See Jesus stands with open arms: He calls, he bids you come: Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms: But see, there yet is room.

3 O come, and with his children taste.
The blessings of his love;

While hope attends the sweet repast Of nobler joys above.

4 There, with united heart and voice, Before the eternal throne,

Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice, In ecstacies unknown.

5 And yet ten thousand thousand more 'Are welcome still to come: Ye longing souls, the grace adore, Approach, there yet is room.

The freeness of the Gospel.

HO every one that thirsts, draw nigh; ('Tis God invites the fallen race;) Mercy and free salvation buy; Buy wine, and milk, and gospel grace.

2 Come to the living waters, come: Sinners, obey your Maker's call; Return, ye weary wanderers, home, And find my grace reach'd out to all.

3 See from the Rock a fountain rise! For you in healing streams it rolls: Money ye need not bring, nor price. Ye labouring, burden'd, sin-sick souls.

4 Nothing ye in exchange shall give Leave all you have and are behind Frankly the gift of God receive, Pardon and peace in Jesus find.

103 HYMN 103. L. M. Steele. b. Hebron, Portugal, Bath. Weary souls invited to rest.

COME, weary souls, with sins distrest, Come, and accept the promised rest; The Saviour's gracious call obey, And cast your gloomy fears away.

2 Oppress'd with guilt, a painful load, O come, and spread your woes abroad; Divine compassion, mighty love, Will all the painful load remove.

3 Here mercy's boundless ocean flows, To cleanse your guilt, and heal your woes; Pardon and life, and endless peace; How rich the gift, how free the grace!

4 Lord, we accept, with thankful heart, The hope thy gracious words impart: We come with trembling, yet rejoice, And bless the kind inviting voice.

104 Hymn 104. L. M. Fawcett. # Islington, Eaton, Medway.

As thy days, so shall thy strength be.

A FFLICTED saint, to Christ draw near,
Thy Saviour's gracious promise hear;
His faithful word declares to thee,
That, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

2 Let not thy heart despond, and say, How shall I stand the trying day? He has engaged, by firm decree, That, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

3 Thy faith is weak, thy foes are strong; And, if the conflict should be long, The Lord will make the tempter flee; For, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

4 Should persecution rage and flame, Still trust in thy Redeemer's name; In fiery trials thou shalt see, That, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

5 When call'd to bear the weighty cross, Or sore affliction, pain or loss, Or deep distress, or poverty,— Still, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

6 When ghastly death appears in view, Christ's presence shall thy fears subdue; He comes to set thy spirit free; And, as thy days, thy strength shall be.

HOLY SPIRIT.

HYMN 105. S. M. Dover, Shirland, Olmutz.

The Holy Spirit invoked.

COME, Holy Spirit, come, With energy divine; And on this poor benighted soul With beams of mercy shine.

2 From the celestial hills,
Life, light, and joy dispense!
And may I daily, hourly feel

Rochester, York, St. Ann's.

Contentment.

FIERCE passions discompose the mind,
As tempests vex the sea;
But calm content and peace we find,
When, Lord, we trust in thee.

2 In vain by reason, and by rule, We try to bend the will; . For none but in the Saviour's school Can learn the heavenly skill.

3 Since at his feet my soul has sat, His gracious words to hear, Contented with my present state, I cast on him my care.

4 'Art thou a sinner, soul?' he said,
'Then how canst thou complain?'
'How light thy troubles here, if weigh'd
'With everlasting pain!

5 'If thou of murmuring would'st be cured,
'Compare thy griefs with mine;
'Think what my love for thee endured,

'And thou wilt not repine.

6"Tis I appoint thy daily lot,

7 'In life my grace shall strength supply,

8 Thus I, who once my wretched days
In vain repining spent;

Taught in my Saviour's school of grace, Have learn'd to be content.

108 Hymn 108. L. M. Watts.

Faith connected with salvation.

OT by the laws of innocence
Can Adam's sons arrive at heaven;
New works can give us no pretence
To have our ancient sins forgiven.

2 Not the best deeds that we have done Can make a wounded conscience whole: Faith is the grace, — and faith alone, That flies to Christ, and saves the soul.

3 Lord, I believe thy heavenly word! Fain would I have my soul renew'd; I mourn for sin, and trust the Lord To have it pardon'd and subdued.

40 may thy grace its power display; Let guilt and death no longer reign; Save me in thine appointed way, Nor let my humble faith be vain!

109 Hymn 109. C. M. Watts.

Faith in the sacrifice of Christ.

WHERE shall the guilty sinner go, To find a sure relief? Can bleeding bulls or goats bestow A balm to ease my grief?

2 O never let my thoughts renounce The gospel of my God, Where vilest crimes are cleansed at once In Christ's atoning blood.

3 Here rest my faith, and ne'er remove;
Here let repentance rise;
While I behold his bleeding love,
His dying agonies.

110 Hymn 110. L. M. Watts. #orb

Faithfulness. HATH God been faithful to his word, And sent to men his promis'd grace? Shall I not imitate the Lord, And practise what my lips profess? 2 Hath Christ fulfill'd his kind design, The dreadful work he undertook, And died to make salvation mine, And well perform'd whate'er he spoke? 3 Doth not his faithfulness afford A noble theme to raise my song? And shall I dare deny my Lord, Or utter falsehood with my tongue? 4 My King, my Saviour, and my God! Let grace my sinful soul renew, Wash my offences with thy blood, And make my heart sincere and true.

111 HYMN 111. C. M. Needham. #
St. Martin's, York, Conway.

/ Fear of God.

HAPPY beyond description he, Who fears the Lord his God; Who hears his threats with holy awe, And trembles at his rod.

Fear, sacred passion, ever dwells
 With its fair partner, love,
 Blending their beauties, both proclaim
 Their source is from above.

3Let terrors fright th' unwilling slave:
The child with joy appears;
Cheerful he does his father's will,
And loves as much as fears.

4 Let fear and love, most holy God!
Possess this soul of kine;
Then shall I worship thee aright,
And taste thy joy divine.

112 Hymn 112. C. M. Watts. :
Paring, Mear, Irish.
Holy fortitude.

A M I a soldier of the cross, A follower of the Lamb? And shall I fear to own his cause,— Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies On flowery beds of ease? While others fought to min the

While others fought to win the prize, And sail'd through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face, Must I not stem the flood?

Is this vile world a friend to grace, To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints in all this glorious war Shall conquer, though they die; They see the triumph from afar, And seize it with their eye:

6 When that illustrious day shall rise, And all thy armies shine

In robes of victory through the skies, The glory shall be thine.

113 Hymn 113. L. M. Watts.
Bath, Slade, Lowell.

WHEN tumults of unruly fear Rise in my heart, and riot there, What shall I do to calm my breast, And get the vexing foe supprest?

What power can these wild thoughts control?

This ruffling tempest of thy soul?
Where shall I fly in this distress,
But to the throne of glorious grace?

3 My faith would seize some promise, Lord; There's power and safety in thy word; Not all that earth or hell can say Shall tempt or drive my soul away.

4 I call the days of old to mind, When I have found my God was kind; My heavenly Friend is still the same; Salvation to his holy name.

5 Great God, preserve my conscience clean, Wash me from guilt, forgive my sin; Thy love shall guard me from surprise, Tho'threatening dangers round me rise. 6 When fear like a wild ocean raves, Let Jesus walk upon the waves, And say, ''tis \(\frac{1}{2}\);' that heavenly voice Shall sink the storm, and raise my joys.

HYMN 114. L. M. Watts.
All Saints, Winchester, Portugal.

BEHOLD the sons, the heirs of God, So dearly bought with Jesus' blood! Are they not born to heavenly joys, And shall they stoop to earthly toys? 2 Doth vain discourse, or empty mirth, Well suit the honours of their birth? Shall they be fond of gay attire,

Which children love, and fools admire?
3 Lord, raise our hearts and passions

higher;
Touch our vain souls with sacred fire;
Then, with a heaven-directed eye,
We'll pass these glittering trifles by.
We'll look on all the toys below
With such disdain as angels do;

And wait the call, that bids us rise
To mansions promised in the skies.

115 HYMN 115. L. M. Watts.

Armley, Malden.

Things of good report.

Is it a thing of good report,
To squander life and time away?
To cut the hours of duty short,
While toys and follies waste the day?
2 Doth this become the Christian name,
To venture near the tempter's door?
To sort with men of evil fame,

And yet presume to stand secure?

3 Am I my own sufficient guard,
While I expose my soul to shame?
Can the short joys of sin reward
The lasting blemish of my name?

4 O may it be my constant choice To walk with men of grace below, Till I arrive where heavenly joys And never fading honours grow.

116 Hymn 116. C. M. Watts. #
Barby, Wareham, Litchfield.
None excluded from hops.

JESUS, thy blessings are not few,
Nor is thy gospel weak;
Thy grace can melt the stubborn Jew,
And bow the aspiring Greek.

Wide as the reach of Satan's rage Doth thy salvation flow;Tis not confined to sex or age,The lofty or the low.

3 While grace is offer'd to the prince, The poor may take their share; No mortal has a just pretence To perish in despair.

4 Be wise, ye men of strength and wit, Nor boast your native powers; But to his sovereign grace submit, And glory shall be yours.

5 Come, all ye vilest sinners, come, He'll form your souls anew: His gospel and his heart have room

His gospel and his heart have room For rebels such as you.

6 His doctrine is Almighty love;
There's virtue in his name
To turn the raven to a dove,
The lion to a lamb.

117 HYMN 117. L. M. Steele. #
Castle Street, Blendon, Slade.

Happy poverty; or, the poor in spirit blessed.

YE humble souls, complain no more;
Let faith survey your future store;
How happy, how divinely blest,
The sacred words of truth attest.

2 When conscious grief laments sincere, And pours the penitential tear; Hope points to your dejected eyes, The bright reversion in the skies.

3 In vain the sons of wealth and pride Despise your lot, your hopes deride; In vain they boast their little stores; Trifles are theirs, a kingdom yours!

4 A kingdom of immense delight,
Where health and peace and joy unite;
Where undeclining pleasures rise,
And every wish hath full supplies.

5 There shall your eyes with rapture view The glorious Friend that died for you; That died to ransom, died to raise To crowns of joy and songs of praise.

118 HYMN 118. C. M. Brown. b
Bangor, Wantage, York.
Humbly plending for mercy.

ORD, at thy feet we sinners lie,
And knock at mercy's door;
With heavy heart, and downcast eye,
Thy favour we implore.

2"Tis mercy, mercy we implore; O may thy bowels move! Thy grace is an exhaustless store, And thou thyself art love.

3 O, for thy own, for Jesus' sake, Our many sins forgive! Thy grace our rocky hearts can break, And breaking, soon relieve.

4 Thus melt us down, our gracious Friend, And make us thine alone: Nor let a rival more pretend

To repossess thy throne.

HYMN 119. L. M. Enfield.
Winchester, Hebron.

WHEREFORE should man, frail child of clay,
Who, from the cradle to the shroud,
Lives but the insect of a day,—
O why should mortal man be proud?

2 His brightest visions just appear,
Then vanish, and no more are found;
The stateliest pile his pride can rear,
A breath may level with the ground!

3 By doubt perplex'd, in error lost, With trembling step he seeks his way, How vain of wisdom's gifts the boast! Of reason's lamp, how faint the ray!

4 Follies and crimes, a countless sum,
Are crowded in life's little span:
How ill, alas, does pride become
That erring, guilty creature, man.
5 God of my life. Father divine!

5 God of my life, Father divine! Give me a meek and lowly mind: In modest worth, O, let me shine, And peace in humble virtue find.

120 HYMN 120. L. M. Doddridge. #
Old Hundred, Psalm Ninety-seventh.

Rejoicing in God.

THE righteous Lord, supremely great, Maintains his universal state; O'er all the earth his power extends: All heaven before his footstool bends.

2 Yet justice still with power presides, And mercy all his empire guides: Mercy and truth are his delight, And saints are lovely in his sight.

3 No more, ye wise! your wisdom boast; No more, ye strong! your valour trust; No more, ye rich! survey your store,— Elate with heaps of shining ore.

4 Glory, ye saints, in this alone,—
That God, your God, to you is known:
That you have own'd his sovereign sway,
That you have felt his cheering ray.

5 Our wisdom, wealth, and power we find In one Jehovah all combin'd: On him we fix our roving eyes, And all our souls in raptures rise.

6 All else, which we our treasure call, May in one fatal moment fall; But what their happiness can move, Whom God, the blessed, deigns to love?

121 Hymn 121. S. M. Doddridge. #
Dover, Petham, Mornington.
Rejoicing in the ways of God.

NIOW let our voices join

Now let our voices join To form a sacred song; Ye pilgrims, in Jehovah's ways, With music pass along.

2 How straight the path appears, How open and how fair! No lurking gins t' entrap our feet, No fierce destroyer there.

3 But flowers of paradise
In rich profusion spring;

The Sun of glory gilds the path,
And dear companions sing.

4 See Salem's golden spires
In beauteous prospect rise;
And brighter crowns than mortals wear,
Which sparkle through the skies.

5 All honour to his name,
Who marks the shining way,
To him who leads the wanderers on
To realms of endless day.

122 Hymn 122. L. M. Watts.

Portugal, Shoel, Medway.

Justice and equity.

BLESSED Redeemer! how divine,
How righteous is this rule of thine,
'Never to deal with others worse
'Than we would have them deal with us!'

2 This golden lesson, short and plain, Gives not the mind nor memory pain, And every conscience must approve This universal law of love.

3 'Tis written in each mortal breast, Where all our tenderest wishes rest; We draw it from our inmost veins, Where love to self resides and reigns.

4 Is reason ever at a loss?

Call in self-love to judge the cause;

Let our own fondest passions show

How we should treat our neighbour too.

5 How blest would every nation prove, Thus ruled by equity and love! All would be friends, without a foe, And form a paradise below.

123 Hymn 123. C. M. Watts. b or #
Bedford, Franklin, Medfield.

Justice and equity.

COME, let us search our ways and see; Have they been just and right? Is the great rule of equity Our practice and delight?

2 What we would have our neighbour do, Have we still done the same? From others ne'er withheld the due, Which we from others claim?

3 Have we not, deaf to his request, Turn'd from another's wo? The scorn, which wrings the poor man's Have we abhorr'd to show? [breast, 4 Do we, in all we sell or buy,
Integrity maintain;
And, knowing God is always nigh,
Renounce unrighteous gain?

5 Then may we raise our modest prayer
To God, the just and kind,

May humbly cast on him our care, And hope his grace to find.

124 Hymn 124. L. M. Watts, b Uxbridge, Stonefield. Justice and truth.

GREAT God, thy holy law requires
To curb our covetous desires,
Forbids to plunder, steal or cheat,
To practise falsehood or deceit.

The Sep heth set a pattern too:

2 Thy Son hath set a pattern too;
He paid to God and men their due;
A dreadful debt he paid to God,
And bought our pardon with his blood.

3 Amazing justice! boundless love!
Do we not feel our passions move?
Do we not grieve that we have been
Faithless to God, or false to men?

4 If truth and justice once be gone, And leave our faith and hope alone; If honesty be banish'd hence, Religion is a vain pretence.

125 Hymn 125. L. M. Rippon. #
Blendon, China, Slade, Brentiord.

Liberality; or, the duty and pleasures of benevolence.

O WHAT stupendous mercy shines
Around the Majesty of heaven!
Rebels he deigns to call his sons,—
Their souls renew'd, their sins forgiven.

2 Go, imitate the grace divine,—
The grace that blazes like a sun;
Hold forth your fair, though feeble light;
Through all your lives let mercy run!

3 Upon your bounty's willing wings Swift let the great salvation fly; The hungry feed, the naked clothe; To pain and sickness help apply.

A Pity the weeping widow's wo, And be her counsellor and stay: Adopt the fatherless, and smooth To useful, happy life, his way.

5 Let age, with want and weakness bow'd,
 Your bowels of compassion move;
 Let e'en your enemies be blest —
 Their hatred recompensed with love.

6 When all is done, renounce your deeds, Renounce self-righteousness with scorn; Thus will you glorify your God, And thus the Christian name adorn.

126 Hymn 126. 7's. Taylor. Hotham, Benson, Alsen.

Love to God and man.

PATHER of our feeble race, Wise, beneficent, and kind, Spread o'er nature's ample face, Flows thy goodness unconfined: Musing in the silent grove, Or the busy walks of men, Still we trace thy wondrous love, Claiming large returns again.

2 Lord, what offerings shall we bring, At thine altars when we bow? Hearts, the pure, unsullied spring, Whence the kind affections flow; Soft compassion's feeling soul, By the melting eye express'd; Sympathy, at whose control, Sorrow leaves the wounded breast:

3 Willing hands to lead the blind, Bind the wound, or feed the poor; Love, embracing all our kind, Charity, with liberal store:
Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus the accepted offering bring,
Love to thee, and all mankind.

127 Hymn 127. L. M. Watts. $ Dunstan, Uxbridge, Lowell.

Love to Christ, present or absent.

F all the joys we mortals know,
Jesus, thy love exceeds the rest,
Love, the best blessing here below,
The nearest image of the blest.

2 While we are held in thine embrace, There's not a thought attempts to rore; Each smile upon thy beauteous face Fixes, and charms, and fires our love.

3 While of thy absence we complain, And long, or weep in all we do, There's a strange pleasure in the pain; And tears have their own sweetness too

4 When round thy courts by day we rore, Or ask the watchmen of the night For some kind tidings of our love, Thy very name creates delight

5 Jesus, our God, yet rather come! Our eyes would dwell upon thy face; 'Tis best to see our Lord at home, And feel the presence of his grace.

128 Hymn 128. 7's. Newton, #

'TIS a point I long to know,
Oft it causes anxious thought—
Do I love the Lord, or no;
Am I his, or am I not.

2 If I love, why am I thus?
Why this dull and lifeless frame?
Hardly, sure, can they be worse,
Who have never heard his name.

3 [Could my heart so hard remain; Prayer a task and burden prove; Every trifle give me pain; If I knew a Saviour's love?]

4 When I turn my eyes within, All is dark, and vain, and wild; Fill'd with unbelief and sin; Can I deem myself a child?

5 If I pray, or hear, or read, Sin is mix'd with all I do; You that love the Lord indeed, Tell me, is it thus with you?

6 Yet I mourn my stubborn will, Find my sin a grief and thrall; Should I grieve for what I feel, If I did not love at all?

7 Lord, decide the doubtful case!
Thou, who art thy people's sun,
Shine upon thy work of grace,
If it be indeed begun.

8 Let me love thee more and more, If I love at all, I pray!
If I have not loved before,
Help me to begin to-day.

129 Hymn 129. C. M. Gregory. #
Jordan, Lanesboro'.
Mutual love.

SWEET is the love that mutual glows
Within each brother's breast;
And binds in gentlest bonds each heart,
All blessing and all blest:

2 Sweet as the odorous balsam pour'd
On Aaron's sacred head,
Which o'er his beard, and down his vest
A breathing fragrance shed.

3 Like morning dews; on Sion's mount, That spread their silver rays; And deck with gems the verdant pomp, Which Hermon's top displays.

4 To such the Lord of life and love
His blessing shall extend;
On earth a life of joy and peace,
And life that ne'er shall end.

130 HYMN 130. S. M. Fawcett.

Dover, Watchman.

Love to the brethren.

LEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love!
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne We pour our ardent prayers:

Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one, Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes; Our mutual burdens bear; And often for each other flows The sympathizing tear.

4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be join'd in heart,
And hope to meet again.

5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

6 From sorrow, toil, and pain, And sin, we shall be free; And perfect love and friendship reign Through all eternity.

131 HYMN 131. S. M. Beddome. Watchman, St. Thomas, Dartmouth.

Christian love.

ET party names no more
The Christian world o'erspread;
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,
Are one in Christ their head.

2 Among the saints on earth Let mutual love be found; Heirs of the same inheritance, With mutual blessings crown'd.

3 Let envy, child of hell!
Be banish'd far away; [dwell,
Those should in strictest friendship
Who the same Lord obey.

4 Thus will the church below Resemble that above; Where streams of pleasure ever flow, And every heart is love.

132 Hymn 132. L. M. Scott. b or # Sharon, Tallis' Evening Hymn.

Mekkness.

MARK when tempestuous winds arise,
The wild confusion and uproar,
All ocean mixing with the skies,
And wrecks are dash'd upon the shore.

2 Not less confusion racks the mind, When, by the whirl of passion toss'd, Calm reason is to rage resign'd, And peace in angry tumult lost.

30 self-tormenting child of pride, Anger, bred up in hate and strife; Ten thousand ills, by thee supplied, Mingle the cup of bitter life.

4 Happy the meek, whose gentle breast, Clear as the summer's evening ray, Calm as the regions of the blest, Enjoy on earth celestial day. 5 No jars their peaceful tent invade, No friendships lost their bosom sting; And foes to none, of none afraid, [bring. Where'er they go, sweet peace they 60 may a temper meek and mild, With gentle sway our souls possess; Passion and pride be thence exiled, And to be blest, still may we bless!

133 Hymn 133. L. M. Gibbons. #
Winchester, Uxbridge, Rothwell.

DATIENCE! - O, 'tis a grace divine! Sent from the God of power and love, That leans upon its Father's hand, As through the wilderness we move.

2 By patience we serenely bear The troubles of our mortal state, And wait, contented, our discharge, Nor think our glory comes too late.

3 Though we, in full sensation, feel The weight, the wounds our God ordains, We smile amid our heaviest woes, And triumph in our sharpest pains.

40, for this grace! to aid us on, And arm with fortitude the breast, Till life's tumultuous voyage is o'er-We reach the shores of endless rest!

5 Faith into vision shall resign; Hope shall in full fruition die; And patience in possession end, In the bright world of bliss on high.

134 Hymn 134. C.M. Watts. St. Ann's, Abridge, Covington. Prudence; or, a lovely carriage.

'TIS a lovely thing to see A man of prudent heart, Whose thoughts, and lips, and life agree To act a useful part.

2 When envy, strife, and wars begin In little angry souls,

Mark how the sons of peace come in, And quench the kindling coals.

3 Their minds are humble, mild, and meek, Nor let their fury rise;

Nor passion moves their lips to speak, Nor pride exalts their eyes.

4 Their frame is prudence mix'd with love, Good works fulfil their day:

They join the serpent with the dove, But cast the sting away.

5 Such was the Saviour of mankind; Such pleasures he pursued;

His flesh and blood were all refined, His soul divinely good.

6 Lord, can these plants of virtue grow In such a heart as mine?

Thy grace my nature can renew, And make my soul like thine.

135 HYMN 135. C. M. S. Stennett. h Bangor, Windsor, York. The penitent.

PROSTRATE, dear Jesus 1 at thy feet A guilty rebel lies; And upwards to the mercy-seat

Presumes to lift his eyes. 2 If tears of sorrow would suffice

To pay the debt I owe, Tears should from both my weeping eyes In ceaseless torrents flow.

3 But no such sacrifice I plead To explate my guilt; No tears but those which thou hast shed;

No blood, but thou hast spilt. 4 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord!

And all my sins forgive: Justice will well approve the word That bids the sinner live.

136 HYMN 136. C. M. Cowper. #orb York, St. Ann's. The contrite heart.

THE Lord will happiness divine On contrite hearts bestow; Then tell me, gracious God! is mine A contrite heart or no?

2I hear, but seem to hear in vain, Insensible as steel;

If aught is felt, 'tis only pain To find I cannot feel.

3 I sometimes think myself inclined To love thee if I could: But often feel another mind, Averse to all that's good.

4 My best desires are faint and few, I fain would strive for more; But, when I cry, 'My strength renew,' Seem weaker than before.

5 Thy saints are comforted, I know, And love thy house of prayer;

I sometimes go where others go, But find no comfort there.

6 O, make this heart rejoice or ache, Decide this doubt for me; And, if it be not broken, break; And heal it if it be.

137 Hymn 137. Watts. L. M. Quito, Dresden.

The penitent pardoned.

HENCE from my soul, my sins, depart, Your fatal friendship now I see; Long have you dwelt too near my heart, Hence, to eternal distance flee.

2 Black, heavy tho'ts like mountains roll O'er my poor breast, with boding fears, And crushing hard my tortured soul, Wring through my eyes the briny tears.

3 Forgive my treasons, Prince of grace,
The bloody Jews were traitors too,
Yet thou hast pray'd for that cursed race,

Father, they know not what they do.

4 Great Advocate, look down and see A wretch, whose smarting sorrows bleed, O plead the same excuse for me! For, Lord, I knew not what I did.

5 Peace, my complaints; let every groan Be still, and silence wait his love! Compassions dwell amidst his throne, And through his inmost bowels move.

6 How sweet the voice of pardon sounds! Sweet the relief to deep distress! I feel the balm that heals my wounds, And all my powers adore thy grace.

138 Hymn 138. C. M. # or b

Repeatance from a view of the mercy of God.

O THOU, the wretched's sure retreat,
Who dost our cares control,
And with the cheerful smile of peace,
Revive the fainting soul;

2 Did ever thy propitious ear The humble plea disdain?

Or when did plaintive misery sigh, Or supplicate in vain?

3 Oppress'd with grief and shame, dissolv'd In penitential tears;

Thy goodness calms our anxious doubts, And dissipates our fears.

4 New life from thy refreshing grace
Our sinking hearts receive:
Thy gentlest, best loved attribute,
To pity and forgive.

5 From that blest source, propitious hope Appears serenely bright,

And sheds her soft and cheering beam O'er sorrow's dismal night.

6 Our, hearts adore thy mercy, Lord, And bless the friendly ray, Which ushers in the smiling morn Of everlasting day.

139 Hymn 139. C. M. Cowper. #

Mear, Barby, St. Ann's.

Submission.

O LORD! my best desires fulfil, And help me to resign Life, health, and comfort to thy will, And make thy pleasure mine.

2 Why should I shrink at thy command, Whose love forbids my fears? Or tremble at the gracious hand That wipes away my tears?

3 No! let me rather freely yield What most I prize, to thee,

Who never hast a good withheld, Nor wilt withhold from me.

4 Thy favour all my journey through Thou art engag'd to grant! What else I want, or think I do.

Tis better still to want.

5 Wisdom and mercy guide my way; Shall I resist them both?

A poor blind creature of a day, And crush'd before the moth!

6 But ah! my inmost spirit cries, Still bind me to thy sway; Else the next cloud that veils my skie

Else the next cloud that veils my skies Drives all these thoughts away.

140 HYMN 140. C. M. Beddome. #

MY times of sorrow and of joy, Great God! are in thy hand;

My choicest comforts come from thee, And go at thy command.

2 If thou shouldst take them all away, Yet would I not repine;

Before they were possess'd by me, They were entirely thine.

3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word, Though the whole world were gone, But seek enduring happiness In thee, and thee alone.

141 Hymn 141. C. M. Hervey.

THROUGH all the downward tracts of time,

God's watchful eye surveys; O, who so wise to choose our lot, Or regulate our ways!

2I cannot doubt his bounteous love, Immeasurably kind;

To his unerring, gracious will, Be every wish resign'd.

3 Good when he gives, supremely good, Nor less when he denies;

E'en crosses from his sovereign hand Are blessings in disguise.

142 Hymn 142. C. M. Kirkham. #orb St. Martin's, Dedham.

DIDST thou, dear Jesus, suffer shame And bear the cross for me? And shall I fear to own thy name, Or thy disciple be? 2 Inspire my soul with life divine, And make me truly bold; [shine, Let knowledge, faith, and meekness Nor love nor zeal grow cold.

3 Let mockers scoff, the world defame, And treat me with disdain; Still may I glory in thy name, And count reproach my gain

And count reproach my gain.

4 To thee I cheerfully submit,

And all my powers resign;
Let wisdom point out what is fit,
And I'll no more repine.

143 HYMN 143. C. M. Watts.
Barby, Abridge, Medfield.
Sincerity and truth.

LET those who bear the Christian name Their holy vows fulfil: The saints, the followers of the Lamb, Are men of honour still.

2 True to the solemn oaths they take, Though to their hurt they swear, Constant and just to all they speak, For God and angels hear.

3 Still with their lips their hearts agree, Nor flattering words devise; They know the God of truth can see Through every false disguise.

4 They hate the appearance of a lie, In all the shapes it wears, Firm to their truth; and when they die, Eternal life is theirs.

144 Hymn 144. L. M. Watts. # All Saints, Antigua, Marietta.

Trust and confidence.

MY soul, survey thy happiness,
If thou art form'd a child of grace!
How richly is the gospel stored!
What joy the promises afford!

2' All things are ours;' the gift of God, And purchas'd with our Saviour's blood, While the good Spirit shows us how To use and to enjoy them too.

3 If peace and plenty crown my days, They help me, Lord, to speak thy praise: If bread of sorrows be my food, Those sorrows work my real good.

4 I would not change my blest estate
With all that flesh calls rich or great;
And while my faith can keep her hold,
I envy not the sinner's gold.

5 Father, I wait thy daily will;
Thou shalt divide my portion still!
Grant me, on earth, what seems thee best,
Till death and heaven reveal the rest.

145 Hymn 145. L. M.
Islington, Sharon.
True voisdom.

HAPPY the man, who finds the grace, The blessing of God's chosen race; The wisdom coming from above, And faith that sweetly works by love.

2 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her flowery paths are peace; Wisdom to silver we prefer,

And gold is dross compared with her.

3 He finds, who wisdom apprehends, A life begun that never ends; The tree of life divine she is, Set in the midst of paradise.

4 Happy the man, who wisdom gains, In whose obedient heart she reigns; He owns, and will forever own, Wisdom, and Christ, and heaven are one.

146 HYMN 146. C. M. Watts. #
Irish, Barby, St. Martin's.
Zeal and fortitude.

DO I believe what Jesus saith,
And think the gospel true?
Lord, make me bold to own my faith,
And practise virtue too.

2 Suppress my shame, subdue my fear, Arm me with heavenly zeal, That I may make thy power appear,

And works of praise fulfil.

3 If men shall see my virtue shine,
And spread my name abroad,

Thine is the power, the praise is thine,
My Saviour and my God.

4 Thus when the saints in glory meet, Their lips proclaim thy grace; They cast their honours at thy feet, And own their borrowed rays.

147 HYMN 147. C. M. Newton. #
Abridge, Mear, Franklin.

Zeal, true and false.

ZEAL is that pure and heavenly flame
The fire of love supplies;
While that which often bears the name
Is self, in a disguise.

2 True zeal is merciful and mild, Can pity and forbear; The false is headstrong, fierce and wild; And breathes revenge and war.

3 While zeal for truth the Christian warms, He knows the worth of peace; But self contends for names and forms,

Its party to increase.

4 Zeal has attain'd its highest aim, Its end is satisfied,

If sinners love the Saviour's name; Nor seeks it aught beside.

5 But self, however well employ'd, Has its own ends in view; And says, as boasting Jehu cried, 'Come, see what I can do!'

148 HYMN 148. C. M. Doddridge. #
Christmas, Irish, Conway.

Zeal and vigour in the Christian race.

WAKE, my soul! stretch every nerve,

And press with vigour on:

A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.

2 A cloud of witnesses around Hold thee in full survey: Forget the steps already trod, And onward urge thy way.

3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine uplifted eye:—

4 That prize, with peerless glories bright, Which shall new lustre boast, When victors' wreaths and monarchs'

Shall blend in common dust.

THE CHRISTIAN.

149 HYMN 149. L. M. Cowper. #
Portugal, Oporto.
The Christian.

HONOUR and happiness unite
To make the Christian's name a
praise:

How fair the scene, how clear the light, That fills the remnant of his days.

2 A kingly character he bears, No change his priestly office knows: Unfading is the crown he wears, His joys can never reach a close.

8 Adorn'd with glory from on high, Salvation shines upon his face; His robe is of the ethereal dye, His steps are dignity and grace.

4 Inferior honours he disdains, Nor stoops to take applause from earth; The King of kings himself maintains The expenses of his heavenly birth.

5 The noblest creature seen below, Ordain'd to fill a throne above; God gives him all he can bestow, His kingdom of eternal love!

Methinks from earth I see him rise;
Angels congratulate his lot,
And shout him welcome to the skies.

Supplicating — Jesus, thou Son of David, kare mercy on me.

ESUS! full of all compassion, Hear thy humble suppliant's cry; Let me know thy great salvation: See! I languish, faint, and die.

2 Guilty, but with heart relenting, Overwhelm'd with helpless grief, Prostrate at thy feet repenting, Send, O send me quick relief.

3 On the word thy blood hath seal'd Hangs my everlasting all;

Let thy arm be now reveal'd; Stay, O stay me, lest I fall!

4 In the world of endless ruin, Let it never, Lord, be said, 'Here's a soul that perish'd sueing 'For the boasted Saviour's aid!'

5 Saved! the deed shall spread new glory,
Through the shihing worlds above!
Angels sing the pleasing story,
All enraptured with thy love!

2 The heavenly building is begun When ye receive the Lord; His hands shall lay the crowning stone, And will perform his word.

4 Your souls are form'd by wisdom's rules; Your joys and graces shine; You need no learning of the schools, To prove your faith divine.

4 Let heathens scoff, and Jews oppose, Let Satan's bolts be hurl'd; [shows There's something wrought within you That Jesus saves the world.

152 HYMN 152. C. M. Watts. # or b Bedford, China, Barby. Flesh and Spirit.

WHAT vain desires, and passions vain, Attend this mortal clay! Oft have they pierced my soul with pain, And drawn my heart astray.

2 How have I wander'd from my God, And follow'd sin and shame,

In this vile world of flesh and blood
Defiled my nobler name!

3 Forever blessed be thy grace That form'd my spirit new,

#

And made it of a heaven-born race, Thy glory to pursue.

4 My spirit holds perpetual war, And wrestles and complains, And views the happy moment near That shall dissolve its chains.

5 Cheerful in death I close my eyes To part with every lust, And charge my flesh, whene'er it rise, To leave them in the dust.

153 HYMN 153., 7's. Couper.
Bath-Abbey, Condolence.
Welcoming the cross.

TIS my happiness below
Not to live without the cross;
But the Saviour's power to know,
Sanctifying every loss:
Trials must and will befall;
But—with humble faith to see
Love inscribed upon them all,

This is happiness to me.

2 God, in Israel, sows the seeds
Of affliction, pain, and toil;
These spring up, and choke the weeds

Which would else o'erspread the soil:
Trials make the promise sweet;
Trials give new life to prayer:
Trials bring me to his feet,
Lay me low, and keep me there.

154 · HYMN 154. 8's. Hampton, Lambeth. Faith fainting.

ENCOMPASS'D with clouds of distress,
Just ready all hope to resign,
I pant for the light of thy face,
And fear it will never be mine:
Dishearten'd with waiting so long,
I sink at thy feet with my load;
All plaintive I pour out my song,
And stretch forth my hands unto God.

2 Shine, Lord! and my terror shall cease:
The blood of atonement apply;
And lead me to Jesus for peace,
The rock that is higher than I!
Speak, Saviour! for sweet is thy voice,
Thy presence is fair to held!

Thy presence is fair to behold;
Attend to my sorrows and cries,
My groanings that cannot be told.

My groamings that cannot be told.

3 Dear Lord, if thy love hath design'd
No covenant blessing for me,
Ah! tell me how is it I find

Some pleasure in waiting for thee?
Almighty to rescue thou art;

Thy grace is my shield and my tower, Come, succour and gladden my heart: Let this be the day of thy power.

155 Hymn 155. C. M. Williams. #
Hymn Second, Mear.
Devotion.

WHILST thee I seek, protecting Power!

Be my vain wishes still'd; And may this consecrated hour With better hopes be fill'd.

2 Thy love the power of thought bestow'd, To thee my thoughts would soar: Thy mercy o'er my life has flow'd; That mercy I adore.

3 In each event of life, how clear Thy ruling hand I see!

Each blessing to my soul most dear, Because conferr'd by thee.

4 In every joy that crowns my days, In every pain I bear, My heart shall find delight in praise,

Or seek relief in prayer.

5 When gladness wings my favour'd hou,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill;

Thy love my thoughts shall fill; Resign'd, when storms of sorrow lower, My soul shall meet thy will. 6 My lifted eye, without a tear,

The gathering storm shall see; My steadfast heart shall know no fear; That heart will rest on thee.

156 HYMN 156. L. M. H. K. White. # Eaton, Leeds, China.
The Star of Bethlehom.

WHEN, marshall'd on the nightly plain,
The glittering host bestud the sky;
One star alone, of all the train,
Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.
2 Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks,
From every host, from every gem;
But one alone the Saviour speaks;

It is the star of Bethlehem.

3 Once on the raging seas I rode,
The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean yawn'd, and rudely blow'd
The wind that toss'd my foundering bark.

4 Deep horror then my vitals froze, Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem: When suddenly a star arose; It was the star of Bethlehem.

5 It was my guide, my light, my all, It bade my dark forebodings cease; And, through the storm and dangers thrall,

It led me to the port of peace.
6 Now safely moor'd—my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem;
Forever and forevermore,
The star—the star of Bethlehem.

157 HYMN 157. C. M. Watts. #
Stade, Abridge.

The hidden life of a Christian.

HAPPY soul! that lives on high,

HAPPY soul! that lives on high While men lie grovelling here!

His hopes are fix'd above the sky,

And faith forbids his fear.

2 His conscience knows no secret stings,
While peace and joy combine
To form a life whose holy springs

Are hidden and divine.

3 He waits in secret on his God;
His God in secret sees:

Let earth be all in arms abroad, He dwells in heavenly peace. 4 His pleasures rise from things unseen,

Beyond this world and time;
Where neither eyes nor ears have been,
Nor thoughts of sinners climb.

5 He wants no pomp nor royal throne
To raise his figure here;
Content and pleased to live unknown,
Till Christ, his life, appear.

6 He looks to heaven's eternal hill
To meet that glorious day;
But patient waits his Saviour's will
To fetch his soul away.

158 HYMN 158. 7's. Cowper. Hotham, Bath Abbey.

Tempted, but flying to Christ, the refuge.

SUS, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,

While the raging billows roll,—
While the tempest still is high!
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
See into the house guide.

Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none,— Hangs my helpless soul on thee; Leave, ah! leave me not alone, Still support and comfort me:

All my trust on thee is stay'd,
All my help from thee I bring:
Cover my defenceless head

With the shadow of thy wing. 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;

All in all in thee I find!
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
Vile and full of sin I am,

Thou art full of truth and grace.

159 HYMN 159. C. M. Steele. b or # Dorset, Windsor, St. Ann's.

Walking in darkness, and trusting in God.

HEAR, gracious God, my humble moan,
To thee I breathe my sighs:

When will the mournful night be gone?
And when my joys arise?

2 My God—O could I make the claim—
My Father and my friend,
And call thee mine by every name

And call thee mine by every name On which thy saints depend! 3 By every name of power and love,

I would thy grace entreat:

Nor should my humble hopes remove,

Nor leave thy sacred seat.

4 Yet though my soul in darkness mourns,
Thy word is all my stay.

Thy word is all my stay; Here I would rest till light returns; Thy presence makes my day.

160 HYMN 160. C. M. Newton. b or # Dundee, York, Dedham.

O that I were as in months past.

WEET was the time, when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Apply'd to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

2 Soon as the morn the light reveal'd, His praises tuned my tongue; And when the evening shades prevail'd His love was all my song.

3 In vain the tempter spread his wiles; The world no more could charm; I liv'd upon my Saviour's smiles,

And lean'd upon his arm.

4 In prayer my soul drew near the Lord, And saw his glory shine; And when I read his holy word,

I called each promise mine.

5 Now, when the evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;

And when the morn the light reveals, No light to me returns.

6 My prayers are now a chattering noise; For Jesus hides his face;

I read, the promise meets my eyes, But will not reach my case.

7 Now Satan threatens to prevail, And make my soul his prey; Yet, Lord, thy mercies cannot fail, O come without delay.

161 HYMN 161. C. M. Steele.
Canterbury, Bradford, Medfield.
Troubled, but making God a refuge.

DEAR Refuge of my weary soul, On thee, when sorrows rise, On thee, when waves of trouble roll, My fainting hope relies.

2 To thee I tell each rising grief,For thou alone canst heal;Thy word can bring a sweet reliefFor every pain 1 feel.

3 But O! when gloomy doubts prevail, I fear to call thee mine;

The springs of comfort seem to fail, And all my hopes decline.

4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee? Thou art my only trust; And still my soul would cleave to thee, Though prostrate in the dust.

162 HYMN 162. 8. 7. 4. Fawcett. #

Cast down, yet hoping in God.

MY soul, what means this sadness?
Wherefore art thou thus cast down?
Let thy griefs be turn'd to gladness,
Bid thy restless fears be gone;
Look to Jesus,
And rejoice in his dear name.

2 What though Satan's strong temptations
Vex and grieve thee day by day,
And thy sinful inclinations
Often fill thee with dismay;
Thou shalt conquer,

Through the Lamb's redeeming blood. 3 Though ten thousand ills beset thee,

From without and from within;
Jesus saith, he'll ne'er forget thee,
But will save from hell and sin:
He is faithful

To perform his gracious word.

4 Though distresses now attend thee,
And thou tread'st the thorny road,
His right hand shall still defend thee;

Soon he'll bring thee home to God! Therefore praise him, Praise the great Redeemer's name.

163 HYMN 163. L. M. Newton. #
Portugal, Uxbridge, Bath.
Prayer answered by crosses.

ASK'D the Lord that I might grow In faith, and love, and every grace; Might more of his salvation know, And seek, more earnestly, his face.

2 Twas he who taught me thus to pray, And he, I trust, has answer'd prayer; But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair.

3 I hoped that in some favour'd hour At once he'd answer my request, And by his love's constraining power Subdue my sins, and give me rest.

4 Instead of this, he made me feel
The hidden evils of my heart,
And let the angry powers of hell
Assault my soul in every part.

5 Yea, more, with his own hand he seem'd

Cross'd all the fair designs I schemed, Blasted my gourds, and laid me low.

6 'Lord, why is this?' I trembling cried,
'Wilt thou pursue thy worm to death?'
'Tis in this way,' the Lord replied,

'I answer prayer for grace and faith: 7'These inward trials I employ,

'From self and pride to set thee free; 'And break thy schemes of earthly joy, 'That thou may'st seek thy all in me.'

164 Hymn 164. L. M. Watts.
Dunstan, Rothwell, Wells.

A Christian's treasure.—All things.

HOW vast the treasure we possess!

How rich thy bounty, King of grace!

This world is ours, and worlds to come!

Earth is our lodge, and heaven our home.

2 Paul is our teacher: while he speaks, The shadows flee, the morning breaks, His words like beams of knowledge shire, And fill our souls with light divine.

3 Cephas is ours: he makes us feel The kindlings of celestial zeal: While sweet Apollos' charming voice Gives us a taste of heavenly joys.

4 The springing corn, the stately wood, Grow to provide us house and food, Fire, air, earth, water, join their force, All nature serves us in her course.

5 The sun rolls round to make our day, The moon directs our nightly way; While angels bear us in their arms, And shield us from ten thousand harms.

6 O glorious portion of the saints! Let faith suppress our sore complaints; And tune our hearts and tongues to sing Our bounteous God, our sovereign King.

165 HYMN 165. C. M. Watts. *
Barby, York, Lanesboro'.
The comparison and complaint.

INFINITE Power, eternal Lord.
How sovereign is thy hand!
All nature rose t' obey thy word,
And moves at thy command.

2 With steady course thy shining sun Keeps his appointed way: And all the hours obedient run The circle of the day.

3 But, ah! how wide my spirit flies, And wanders from her God! My soul forgets the heavenly prize, And treads the downward road.

4 Great God, create my soul anew, Conform my heart to thine; Melt down my will, and let it flow, 5 Then shall my feet no more depart, Nor wandering senses rove; Devotion shall be all my heart, And all my passions love.

166 HYMN 166. L. M. Cowper. # Stonefield, Rothwell.

Return of joy. WHEN darkness long has veil'd my mind, And smiling day once more appears, Then, my Redeemer! then I find The folly of my doubts and fears. 21 chide my unbelieving heart; And blush that I should ever be Thus prone to act so base a part, Or harbour one hard thought of thee. 30, let me then, at length, be taught (What I am still so slow to learn,) That God is love, and changes not, Nor knows the shadow of a turn. 4 Sweet truth, and easy to repeat; But when my faith is sharply tried, I find myself a learner yet, 'Unskilful, weak, and apt to slide. 5 But, O my Lord, one look from thee Subdues the disobedient will; Drives doubt and discontent away, And thy rebellious worm is still. 6 Thou art as ready to forgive, As I am ready to repine; Thou therefore all the praise receive; Be shame and self-abhorrence mine.

167 HYMN 167. C.M. Mrs. Steele. #

Covington, Medfield.

The supreme good.

WHEN fancy spreads her boldest And wanders unconfined [wings, Amid the unbounded scene of things, Which entertain the mind;

2 In vain we trace creation o'er, In search of sacred rest; The whole creation is too poor, Too mean to make us blest.

3 In vain would this low world employ Each flattering, specious wile; There's nought can yield a real joy But our Creator's smile.

4 Let earth and all her charms depart, Unworthy of the mind; In God alone this restless heart An equal bliss can find.

Hymn 168. 168 L. M. Scott. Brentford, 97th Psalm.
Liberty of conscience.

A BSURD and vain attempt! to bind, With iron chains, the free-born mind; To force conviction, and reclaim The wandering by destructive flame.

2 Bold arrogance, to snatch from Heaven Dominion not to mortals given! O'er conscience to usurp the throne, Accountable to God alone. 3 Jesus, thy gentle law of love

Does no such cruelties approve; Mild as thyself, thy doctrine wields No arms, but what persuasion yields. 4 By proofs divine, and reasons strong It draws the willing soul along; And conquests to thy church acquires, By eloquence which Heaven inspires.

169 HYMN 169. L. M. Newton. Blendon, 97th Psalm, Castle Street. Mun by nature, grace and glory. ORD, what is man! extremes how

In this mysterious nature join! The flesh, to worms and dust allied, The soul immortal and divine! 2 Divine at first, a holy flame,

Kindled by the Almighty's breath; Till, stain'd by sin, it soon became The seat of darkness, strife, and death.

3 But Jesus, O! amazing grace! Assumed our nature as his own, Obey'd and suffer'd in our place, Then took it with him to his throne. 4 Now what is man, when grace reveals The virtue of a Saviour's blood?

Again a life divine he feels, Despises earth, and walks with God. 5 And what in yonder realms above Is ransom'd man ordain'd to be? With honour, holiness, and love,

No seraph more adorn'd than he. 6 Nearest the throne, and first in song, Man shall his hallelujahs raise; While wondering angels round him throng, And swell the chorus of his praise.

170 HYMN 170. L. M. Barbauld. # Truro, Shoel, 97th Psalm. The Christian warfare.

WAKE, my soul! lift up thine eyes; A See where thy foes against thee rise In long array, a numerous host; Awake, my soul! or thou art lost.

2 See where rebellious passions rage, And fierce desires and lusts engage; The meanest foe of all the train Has thousands and ten thousands slain.

3 Thou tread'st upon enchanted ground; Perils and snares beset thee round; Beware of all; guard every part; But most, the traitor in thy heart.

4 Come then, my soul! now learn to wield The weight of thine immortal shield; Put on the armour from above Of heavenly truth, and heavenly love. 5 The terror and the charm repel, And powers of earth, and powers of hell;

And powers of earth, and powers of hell; The Man of Calvary triumph'd here: Why should his faithful followers fear?

The Christian pilgrum.

OUR country is Immanuel's ground, We seek that promised soil; The songs of Sion cheer our hearts, While strangers here, we toil.

2 Oft do our eyes with joy o'erflow, And oft are bath'd in tears; Yet nought but heaven our hopes can

And nought but sin our fears. [raise,

3 Our powers are oft dissolved away
In ecstacies of love;

And while our bodies wander here, Our souls are fix'd above.

4 We purge our mortal dross away, Refining as we run; But while we die to earth and sense, Our heaven is here begun.

Bath, Angel's Hymn, Brighton.
Private worship. — Self-examination.

WHAT strange perplexities arise; What anxious fears and jealousies! What crowds in doubtful light appear! How few, alas! approved and clear!

2 And what am I? — My soul, awake, And an impartial survey take: Does no dark sign, no ground of fear, In practice or in heart appear?

3 What image does my spirit bear?
Is Jesus form'd and living there?
Say, do his lineaments divine
In thought, and word, and action shine?

4 Searcher of hearts, O search me still: The secrets of my soul reveal; My fears remove: let me appear To God, and my own conscience, clear.

5 Scatter the clouds, which o'er my head Thick glooms of dubious terror spread; Lead me into celestial day, And, to myself, myself display.

6 May I at that blest world arrive, [live, Where Christ through all my soul shall And give full proof that he is there, Without one gloomy doubt or fear. 173 HYMN 173. L. M. Doddridge. #

Family worship.

FATHER of all, thy care we bless, Which crowns our families with peace;

From thee they spring, and by thy hand They have been, and are still sustain'd.

2 To God, most worthy to be praised, Be our domestic altars raised; Who, Lord of heaven, scorns not to dwell With saints in their obscurest cell.

3 To thee may each united house, Morning and night, present its vows; Our servants there, and rising race, Be taught thy precepts, and thy grace.

4 O may each future age proclaim
The honours of thy glorious name!
While pleased and thankful we remove,
To join the family above.

With all-engaging charms;
Hark! how he calls the tender lambs,

And folds them in his arms!
2 Permit them to approach,' he cries,
 'Nor scorn their humble name;
 'For 'twas to bless such souls as these,
 'The Lord of angels came.'

3 We bring them, Lord, by fervent prayer, And yield them up to thee; Joyful that we ourselves are thine, Thine let our offspring be!

4 If orphans they are left behind,
Thy guardian care we trust;
That care shall heal our bleeding hearts,
If weeping o'er their dust.

175 HYMN 175. 148th. B. Francis. #

On opening a place of worship.

REAT King of glory, come,
And with thy favour crown
This temple as thy dome,
This people as thy own;
Beneath this roof, O deign to show
How God can dwell with men below!

Our interceding cries,
And grateful praise ascend,
All fragrant, to the skies.
Here may thy word melodious sound,
And spread celestial joys around!

#

3 Here may the attentive throng Imbibe thy truth and love, And converts join the song Of seraphim above,

And willing crowds surround thy board, With sacred joy and sweet accord.

4 Here may our unborn sons
And daughters sound thy praise;
And shine, like polish'd stones,
Through long succeeding days;
Here, Lord, display thy saving power,
While temples stand, and men adore.

176 Hymn 176. L. M. Doddridge. #

On opening a place of worship.

REAT God, thy watchful care we bless
Which guards our synagogues in
Nor dare tumultuous foes invade, [peace,
To fill our worshippers with dread.

2 These walls we to thy honour raise; Long may they echo to thy praise; And thou, descending, fill the place With choicest tokens of thy grace.

3 Here let the great Redeemer reign, With all the graces of his train; While power divine his word attends, To conquer foes, and cheer his friends.

4 And in the great decisive day,
When God the nations shall survey,
May it before the world appear,
That crowds were born to glory here.

The pleasures of swial worship.

OW charming is the place,
Where my Redeemer God
Unveils the beauties of his face,
And sheds his love abroad!

To him their prayers and cries
 Each humble soul presents:
 He listens to their broken sighs,
 And grants them all their wants.

3 To them his sovereign will He graciously imparts; And in return accepts, with smiles, The tribute of their hearts.

4 Give me, O Lord, a place, Within thy blest abode, Among the children of thy grace, The servants of my God.

178 HYMN 178. S. M. Watts. # Watchman, Paddington.

A LMIGHTY Maker, God! How wondrous is thy name!
Thy glories how diffused abroad
Through the creation's frame!

Nature, in every dress, Her humble homage pays, And finds a thousand ways t'express Thine undissembled praise.

My soul would rise and sing
To her Creator too;

Fain would my tongue adore my King, And pay the worship due.

4 Create my soul anew,
Else all my worship's vain,
This wretched heart will ne'er be true,
Until 'tis form'd again.

5 Let joy and worship spend
The remnant of my days,
And to my God my soul ascend

And to my God my soul ascend, In sweet perfumes of praise.

179 HYMN 179. C. M. Watts.

Appearance before God here and hereafter.

WHILE I am banish'd from thy house I mourn in secret, Lord; When shall I come and pay my vows, And hear thy holy word.

2 So while I dwell in bonds of clay,
My weary soul shall groan;
When shall ruing any boayealy way

When shall I wing my heavenly way, And stand before thy throne?

3I love to see my Lord below,
His church displays his grace;
But upper worlds his glory show,
And view him face to face.

4 I love to worship at his feet,
Though sin attack me there,
But saints, exalted near his seat,
Have no assaults to fear.

5 I'm pleas'd to meet him in his court, And taste his heavenly love; But still I think his visits short,

Or I too soon remove.

6 He shines, and I am all delight;
He hides, and all is pain;
When will he fix me in his sight,
And ne'er depart again?

A NOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun;
Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day that God hath blest.

2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise, As grateful incense, to the skies, And draw from heaven that sweet repose Which none but he that feels it knows. 3 This heavenly calm within the breast

3 This heavenly calm within the breast Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,

Which for the church of God remains, The end of cares, the end of pains.

4 With joy, great God, thy works we view, In various scenes, both old and new: With praise, we think on mercies past; With hope, we future pleasures taste.

5 In holy duties let the day
In holy pleasures pass away;
How sweet, a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

181 Hymn 181. C. M. Brown.
Barby, Mear, Franklin.

REQUENT the day of God returns,
To shed its quickening beams;
And yet how slow devotion burns;
How languid are its flames!

2 Accept our faint attempts to love, Our frailties, Lord, forgive; We would be like thy saints above, And praise thee while we live.

3 Increase, O Lord, our faith and hope, And fit us to ascend,

Where the assembly ne'er breaks up, The Sabbath ne'er shall end;—

4 Where we shall breathe in heavenly air,
With heavenly lustre shine;
Before the throne of God appear,
And feast on love divine.

182 Hymn 182. C. M. Barbauld. # Christmas, Dundee, Conway.

The Lord's-day morning.

A GAIN the Lord of life and light, Awakes the kindling ray; Unseals the eyelids of the morn, And pours increasing day.

20 what a night was that which wrapt
The heathen world in gloom!
O what a sun which broke, this day,

Triumphant from the tomb!

3 This day be grateful homage paid, And loud hosannas sung; Let gladness dwell in every heart,

And praise on every tongue.

4 Ten thousand differing lips shall join
To hail this welcome morn;

Which scatters blessings from its wings
To nations yet unborn.

5 Jesus, the friend of human kind, Was crucified and slain! Behold the tomb its prey restores! Behold he lives again!

6 And while his conquering chariot wheels
Ascend the lofty skies,

Broken beneath his powerful cross, Death's iron sceptre lies. 183 Hymn 183. L. M. Doddridge. #

For the close of public worskip.

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love;

But there's a nobler rest above; To that our longing souls aspire,

To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope, and strong desire.
No more fatigue, no more distress.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress, Nor sin nor death shall reach the place; No groans shall mingle with the songs, Which dwell upon immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of angry foes; No cares to break the long repose; No midnight shade, no clouded sun, But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long expected day, begin;
Dawn on these realms of pain and any
With joy we'll tread th' appointed road,
And sleep in death to rest with God

Exhortation to prayer.

WHAT various hindrances we meet In coming to a mercy seat! Yet who that knows the worth of prayer, But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darken'd cloud withdraw,

Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob sav, Gives exercise to faith and love, Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight; Prayer makes the Christian's armour bright:

And Satan trembles when he sees The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 While Moses stood with arms spread Success was found on Israel's side; [wide, But when through weariness they fail'd, That moment Amalek prevail'd. 5 Have you no words? Ah, think again,

Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill your fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all your care.
6 Were half the breath thus vainly spent

To heaven in supplication sent; Your cheerful songs would oftener be, 'Hear what the Lord has done for me.

185 Hymn 185. C. M. E. Jones. Windsor, Lanesboro', Franklia.
The successful resolve—I will go in unto the King
COME, humble sinner, in whose breast
A thousand thoughts revolve;
Come, with your guilt and fear opposed,
And make this last resolve!

2'I'll go to Jesus, though my sin 'Hath like a mountain rose;

'I know his courts, I'll enter in,
'Whatever may oppose.

3'I'll to the gracious King approach,
'Whose sceptre pardon gives;

'Perhaps he may command my touch,
'And then the suppliant lives.

4 Perhaps he will admit my plea, Perhaps will hear my prayer; But if I perish, I will pray,

'And perish only there.
5'I can but perish if I go;

'I am resolved to try;
'For if I stay away, I know
'I must forever die.'

Through all the world proclaim:
The year, &c.

Ye who have sold for naught The heritage above; Come, take it back unbought, The gift of Jesus' love: The year, &c.

Ye slaves of sin and hell, Your liberty receive; And safe in Jesus dwell, And blest in Jesus live: The year, &c.

The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of pardoning grace;
Ye happy souls, draw near,
Behold your Saviour's face:
The year, &c.

5 Jesus, our great High Priest, Has full atonement made; Ye weary spirits, rest; Ye mourning souls, be glad: The year, &c.

189 Hymn 189. L. M. Doddridge. #

Etekiel's vision of the dry bones.

OOK down, O Lord, with pitying eye;
See Adam's race in ruin lie;
Sin spreads its trophies o'er the ground,
And scatters slaughtered heaps around.

2 And can these mould'ring corpses live? And can these perish'd bones revive? That, mighty God, to thee is known, That wondrous work is all thy own.

3 Thy ministers are sent in vain To prophesy upon the slain; In vain they call, in vain they cry, Till thine Almighty aid is nigh.

4 But if thy Spirit deign to breathe, Life spreads thro' all the realms of death; Dry bones obey thy powerful voice; They move, they waken, they rejoice.

5 So, when thy trumpet's awful sound Shall shake the heavens, and rend the ground,

Dead saints shall from their tombs arise, And spring to life beyond the skies.

190 Hymn 190. C. M. Cowper. # Abridge, Conway, Parma.

The light and glory of God's word.

The light and glory of God's word.

WHAT glory gilds the sacred page!

Majestic, like the sun,

It gives a light to every age,

It gives, but borrows none.

2 His hand that gave it, still supplies
His gracious light and heat;
His truths upon the nations rise,
They rise, but never set.

3 Let everlasting thanks be thine
For such a bright display,
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

4 My soul rejoices to pursue
The paths of truth and love;
Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

191 Hymn 191. H. M. Doddridge. #
Bethesda, Triumph, St. Philip's.

Fruitful showers, emblems of the effects of the gospel.

MARK the soft-falling snow,
And the descending rain:
To heaven, from whence it fell,
It turns not back again;
But waters earth | And calls forth all

Thro' every pore, | Her secret store.

2 Array'd in beauteous green
The hills and valleys shine,
And man and beast are fed
By providence divine.
The harvest bows | The copious seed
Its golden ears, | Of future years.

Its golden ears, | Of future years

So, saith the God of grace,
My gospel shall descend,
Almighty to effect
The purpose I intend:

Millions of souls And bear it down Shall feel its power, To millions more.

HYMN 192. 6. 4.
Bermondsey, Italian Hymn.
Worthy the Lamb.

C LORY to God on high!
Let earth and skies reply,
Praise ye his name:
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore;
Sing aloud evernore,
Worthy the Lamb.

2 Jesus, our Lord and God,
Bore sin's tremendous load,
Praise ye his name:
Tell what his arm hath done,
What spoils from death he won:
Sing his great name alone;
Worthy the Lamb.

Worthy the Lamb.

While they around the throne, Cheerfully join in one,
Praising his name;
Those who have felt his blood,
Sealing their peace with God,
Sound his dear fame abroad,
Worthy the Lamb.

4 Join, all ye ransom'd race,
Our holy Lord to bless;
Praise ye his name:
In him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
Worthy the Lamb.

HYMN 193. 7's. liotham, Nuremburg.

THANKS for mercies past, receive;
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us, henceforth, how to live,
With eternity in view.

2 Bless thy word to old and young; Grant us, Lord, thy peace and love; And, when life's short race is run, Take us to thy house above.

THE CHURCH.

194 HYMN 194. L. M. Cowper. #

A S birds their infant brood protect,
And spread their wings to shelter
them,

Thus saith the Lord to his elect, 'So will I guard Jerusalem.'

2 And what then is Jerusalem,
This object of his tender care?
Where is its worth in God's esteem?
Who built it?—Who inhabits there?

3 Jehovah founded it in blood,
The blood of his incarnate Son;
There dwell the saints, once foes to God,
The sinners whom he calls his own.

4 There, though besieged on every side, Yet much beloved, and guarded well; From age to age they have defy'd The utmost force of earth and hell.

5 Let earth repent, and hell despair, This city has a sure defence; Her name is call'd, 'The Lord is THERE;'

And who has power to drive them thence?

195 Hymn 195. S. M. Dwight. #
Shirland, Watchman, Olmutz.

Love to the church.

I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of thine abode,
The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand,

3 If e'er to bless thy sons
My voice or hands deny,
These hands let useful skill forsake,
This voice in silence die.

If e'er my heart forget Her welfare or her wo,

Let every joy this heart forsake, And every grief o'erflow.

5 For her my tears shall fall; For her my prayers ascend;

To her my cares and toils be given, Till toils and cares shall end.

6 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heaverfly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,

Her hymns of love and praise.

7 Jesus, thou Friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.

8 Sure as thy truth shall last, To Zion shall be given The brightest glories earth can yield, And brighter bliss of heaven.

196 HYMN 196. C. M. Doddridge. #
St. Martin's, Irish, Mear.

Asking the way to Sion.

INQUIRE, ye pilgrims, for the way That leads to Sion's hill, And thither set your steady face, With a determined will.

2 Invite the strangers all around Your pious march to join; And spread the sentiments you feel Of faith and love divine.

3 O come, and to his temple haste, And seek his favour there; Before his footstool humbly bow, And pour your fervent prayer.

4 O come, and join your souls to God In everlasting bands; Accept the blessings he bestows, With thankful hearts and hands.

197 HYMN 197. L. M. Steele. # Eaton, Rothwell, Hebron.
To whom shall we go, but unto thee? or, life and safety in Christ alone.

THOU only Sovereign of my heart, My refuge, my Almighty Friend; And can my soul from thee depart, On whom alone my hopes depend?

2 Whither, ah! whither shall I go, A wretched wanderer from my Lord? Can this dark world of sin and wo One glimpse of happiness afford? 3 Eternal life thy words impart, On these my fainting spirit lives: Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart Than all the round of nature gives.

4 Let earth's alluring joys combine; While thou art near, in vain they call; One smile, one blissful smile of thine, My dearest Lord, outweighs them all.

5 Thy name my inmost powers adore, Thou art my life, my joy, my care; Depart from thee? 'tis death—'tis more, 'Tis endless ruin, deep despair!

6 Low at thy feet my soul would lie; Here safety dwells, and peace divine: Still let me live beneath thine eye, For life, eternal life is thine.

198 HYMN 198. 8.7. Altered by Dr. Ryland.
Sicilian Hymn, Jerauld.

Prayer for a revival.

AVIOUR, visit thy plantation; Grant us, Lord, a gracious rain! All will come to desolation, Unless thou return again:

2 Keep no longer at a distance, Shine upon us from on high, Lest, for want of thine assistance, Every plant should droop and die.

3 Surely, once thy garden flourish'd, Every part look'd gay and green; Then thy word our spirits nourish'd, Happy seasons we have seen!

4 [But a drought has since succeeded; And a sad decline we see; Lord, thy help is greatly needed, Help can only come from thee.

5 Where are those we counted leaders, Fill'd with zeal, and love, and truth?

Old professors, tall as cedars, Bright examples to our youth!

6 Some, in whom we once delighted,
We shall meet no more below!
Some alse we fear are blighted

Some, alas! we fear are blighted, Scarce a single leaf they show!

7 Younger plants—the sight how pleasant, Cover'd thick with blossoms stood; But they cause us grief at present, Frosts have nipp'd them in the bud.

8 Dearest Saviour, hasten hither, Thou canst make them bloom again; O! permit them not to wither

O! permit them not to wither, Let not all our hopes be vain.

9 Let our mutual love be fervent, Make us prevalent in prayers: Let each one, esteem'd thy servant, Shun the world's hewitching snares.

10 Break the tempter's fatal power. Turn the stoney heart to flesh; And begin from this blest hour To revive thy work afresh.

199 HYMN 199. L. M. Burnham.
All Saints, Wells, Portugal. At a church meeting before experiences.

OW we are met in holy fear

To hear the happy saints declaré The free compassions of a God, The virtues of a Saviour's blood.

2 Jesus, assist them now to tell What they have felt, and now do feel; O Saviour, help them to express The wonders of triumphant grace.

3 While to the church they freely own What for their souls the Lord hath done. We join to praise eternal love, And heighten all the joys above.

200 HYMN 200. C. M. Burnham. # Mear, Irish, Salem.
After experiences.

EAR Saviour, we rejoice to hear When sinners humbly tell How thou art pleased to save from sin, From sorrow, death and hell. 2 Lord, we unite to praise thy name For grace so freely given; Still may we keep in Sion's road, And dwell at last in heaven.

Hymn 201. L. M. Kelly. 201 Portugal, Wells, Shoel. Receiving members

OME in, thou blessed of the Lord. Enter in Jesus' precious name; We welcome thee with one accord. And trust the Saviour does the same. 2 Thy name, 'tis hoped, already stands

Mark'd in the book of life above, And now to thine we join our hands, In token of fraternal love.

3 Those joys which earth cannot afford, We'll seek in fellowship to prove, Join'd in one Spirit to our Lord, Together bound by mutual love.

4 And while we pass this vale of tears, We'll make our joys and sorrows known, We'll share each other's hopes and fears, And count a brother's case our own.

5 Once more our welcome we repeat, Receive assurance of our love; O! may we all together meet Around the throne of God above!

202 HYMN 202. L. M. Doddridge. #

Seeking direction in the choice of a Pastor.

HEPHERD of Israel, bend thine ear, Thy servants' groans indulgent hear;

Perplex'd, distress'd, to thee we cry, And seek the guidance of thine eye. 2 Send forth, O Lord, thy truth and light, To guide our doubtful footsteps right: Our drooping hearts, O God, sustain, Nor let us seek thy face in vain.

3 Return, in ways of peace, return, Nor let thy flock neglected mourn; May our blest eyes a Shepherd see, Dear to our souls, and dear to thee.

Hymn 203. L. M. 203Armley, Brentford.

Sickness of a minister.

THOU, before whose gracious throne, We bow our suppliant spirits down; Thou know'st the anxious cares we feel, And all our trembling lips would tell. 2 Thou only canst assuage our grief,

And give our sorrowing hearts relief; In mercy then thy servant spare, Nor turn aside thy people's prayer.

3 Avert thy desolating stroke, Nor smite the shepherd of the flock; Restore him, sinking to the grave; Stretch out thine arm, make haste to save.

4 Bound to each soul by tender ties, In every heart his image lies; Thy pitying aid, O God, impart, Nor rend him from each bleeding heart.

5 But if our supplications fail, And prayers and tears cannot prevail, Be thou his strength, be thou his stay, Support him through the gloomy way.

6 Around him may thy angels stand, Waiting the signal of thy hand, To bid his happy spirit rise, And bear him to their native skies.

Hymn 204. L. M. 204All Saints, Blendon, Uxbridge. At a choice of deacons.

RAIR Sion's King, we suppliant bow, And hail the grace thy church enjoys: Her holy deacons are thine own, With all the gifts thy love employs.

2 Up to thy throne we lift our eyes, For blessings to attend our choice* Of such, whose generous, prudent zeal Shall make thy favour'd ways rejoice.

3 Happy in Jesus, their own Lord, May they his sacred table spread,-The table of their pastor fill, And fill the holy poor with bread.

* If this Hymn be sung before the choice, then the second line of the second verse may stand thus:

'For wisdom to direct our choice.'

4 By purest love to Christ and truth,
O may they win a good degree
Of boldness in the Christian faith,
And meet the smile of thine and thee.
5 And when the work to them assign'd—

5 And when the work to them assign'd The work of love — is fully done, Call them from serving tables here, To sit around thy glorious throne.

LORD'S SUPPER.

205 HYMN 205. L. M. Watts.

A preparatory thought.

WHAT heavenly Man, or mighty God,
Comes marching downward from the skies.

Array'd in garments roll'd in blood, With joy and pity in his eyes?

2 The Lord! the Saviour! yes, 'tis he; I know him by the smiles he wears; The glorious Man, that died for me, Drench'd deep in agonies and tears.

3 Lo, he reveals his shining breast; I own these wounds, and I adore; Lo, he prepares a royal feast, Sweet fruit of the sharp pangs he bore. 4 Whence flow these favours so divine? Lord, why so lavish of thy blood?

Why, for such earthly souls as mine, This heavenly wine, this sacred food? 5'Twas his own love that made him bleed, That nail'd him to the cursed tree; 'Twas his own love this table spread,

For such unworthy guests as we.
6 Then let us taste the Saviour's love;
Come, faith, and feed upon the Lord;
With glad consent our lips shall move,
And sweet hosannas crown the board.

206 Hymn 206, L. M. Watts.

Now let our faith grow strong, and rise,
And view our Lord in all his love;
Look back to hear his dying cries,
Then mount and see his throne above.

2 See where he languish'd on the cross; Beneath our sins he groan'd and died: See where he sits to plead our cause, By his Almighty Father's side.

3 If we behold his bleeding heart, There love in floods of sorrow reigns; He triumphs o'er the killing smart, And seals our pleasure with his pains.

4 Or if we climb the eternal hills, Where the blest Conqueror sits enthroned, Still in his heart compassion dwells, Near the memorials of his wound. 5 How shall vile, pardon'd rebels show How much they love their dying God? Lord, here we'd banish every foe, We hate the sins that cost thy blood.

6 Commerce no more we hold with hell; Our dearest lusts shall all depart; But let thine image ever dwell, Stamp'd as a seal on every heart.

207 Hymn 207. C. M. J. Stennett. #

A sacramental hymn.

ORD, at thy table I behold
The wonders of thy grace;
But most of all admire; that I
Should find a welcome place;—

2 I that am all defiled with sin, A rebel to my God,

I that have crucified his Son, And trampled on his blood.

3 What strange, surprising grace is this,
That such a soul has room!
My Saviour takes me by the hand,
My Jesus bids me come.

4' Eat, O my friends,' the Saviour cries, 'The feast was made for you; 'For you I groan'd, and bled, and died, 'And rose and triumph'd too.'

5 With trembling faith and bleeding hearts, Lord, we accept thy love:

'Tis a rich banquet we have had: What will it be above?

208 Hymn 208. C. M. Cowper. #

Welcome to the table.

THIS is the feast of heavenly wine, And God invites to sup; The juices of the living vine Were press'd to fill the cup.

O bless the Saviour, ye who eat,
 With royal dainties fed;
 Not heaven affords a costlier treat,
 For Jesus is the bread.

3 The vile, the lost—he calls to them;
'Ye trembling souls, appear!
'The righteous in their own esteem,
'Have no acceptance here;—

4' Approach, ye poor, nor dare refuse
'The banquet spread for you:'
Dear Saviour, this is welcome news,
That I may venture too.

5 If guilt and sin afford a plea, And may obtain a place, Surely the Lord will welcome me, And I shall see his face. 209 HYMN 209. L. M. Watts. ‡
Dreaden, Hebron, Duke Street.
Christ dging, rising, and reigning.

A solemn darkness veils the skies!

A solemn darkness veils the skies!

A sudden trembling shakes the ground!

Come, saints, and drop a tear or two,

For him who groan'd beneath your load;

He shed a thousand drops for you,

A thousand drops of richer blood!

A thousand drops of richer blood!

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree;
The Lord of glory dies for men!
But lo! what sudden joys we see!
Jesus the dead revives again!
The rising God forsakes the tomb!
Up to his Father's courts he flies;
Cherubic legions guard him home;
And shout him welcome to the skies.

3 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell How high our great Deliverer reigns; Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell, And led the monster, death, in chains! Say, 'Live forever, wondrous Kine, 'Born to redeem, and strong to save!' Then ask the monster, 'Where's thy sting?

'And where's thy victory, boasting grave?'

210 Hymn 210. L. M. Watts. b or # Bath, Pseim 97, Denton.

Christ's propitiation improved.

ORD, didst thou send thy Son to die
For such a guilty wretch as I?
And shall thy mercy not impart
Thy Spirit to renew my heart?

2 Lord, hast thou wash'd my garments clean,

In Jesus' blood, from shame and sin? Shall I not strive with all my power

That sin pollute my soul no more? 3 Shall I not bear my Father's rod,
The kind corrections of my God,
When Christ upon the cursed tree
Sustain'd a heavier load for me?

4 Why should I dread my dying day, Since Christ hath took the curse away, And taught me with my latest breath To triumph o'er thy terrors, death?

5 O rather let me wish and cry, 'When shall my soul get loose and fly 'To upper worlds? When shall I see 'The God, the man, that died for me?'

6I shall behold his glories there, And pay him my eternal share Of praise, and gratitude, and love, Among ten thousand saints above.

Institution of the gospel ministry.

TATHER of mercies, in thy house

Smile on our homage and our vows;
While with a grateful heart we share
These pledges of our Saviour's care.

Through the last courses of the sun;
While unborn churches by their care

Watching for souls. An ordination hymn.

LET Sion's watchmen all awake,
And take the alarm they give;
Now let them, from the mouth of God,
Their awful charge receive.

2 "Tis not a cause of small import The pastor's care demands; But what might fill an angel's heart, And fill'd a Saviour's hands.

3 They watch for souls, for which the Lord Did heavenly bliss forego, — For souls, which must forever live, In raptures, or in wo.

4 May they that Jesus, whom they preach, Their own Redeemer, see; And watch thou daily o'er their souls, That they may watch for thee.

After the charge.

WOULD you win a soul to God?
Tell him of the Saviour's blood;
Say, how Jesus' bowels move;
Tell him of redeeming love.

2 Tell him how the streams did glide From his hands, his feet, his side; How his head with thorns was crown'd, And his heart in sorrow drown'd.

3 Tell him how he suffer'd death, Freely yielded up his breath, Died, and rose to intercede, As our Advocate, and Head. 4 Tell him it was sovereign grace Wrought on you to seek his face; Made you choose the better part,—Brought salvation to your heart.

5 Tell him of that liberty, Wherewith Jesus makes us free; Sweetly speak of sins forgiven, Earnest of the joys of heaven.

Yes, gracious Lord, thy word is past; 'All Israel shall be saved at last.

The veil from Jacob's heart remove:

Receive thy ancient people home; That, quicken'd by thy dying love; The world may their reception view, And shout to God the glory due.

Hymn 225. S. M. 225 Shirland, Germany, Conway.

Missionaries addressed and encouraged. VE messengers of Christ, His sovereign voice obey; Arise! and follow where he leads,

And peace attend your way. The Master whom you serve Will needful strength bestow: Depending on his promised aid,

With sacred courage go. Mountains shall sink to plains, And hell in vain oppose; The cause is God's, and must prevail, In spite of all his foes.

Go, spread a Saviour's fame: And tell his matchless grace, To the most guilty and depraved Of Adam's numerous race.

We wish you in his name, The most divine success; Assured that he who sends you forth, Will your endeavours bless.

Hymn 226. 8.7.4. 226 Tamworth, Helmsley, Greenville.

Longing for the spread of the gospel. ER the gloomy hills of darkness, Look, my soul, be still and gaze; All the promises do travail

With a glorious day of grace; Blessed jubilee,

Let thy glorious morning dawn!

2 Let the Indian, let the negro, Let the rude barbarian see That divine and glorious conquest, Once obtain'd on Calvary;

Let the gospel Loud resound from pole to pole.

3 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness. Grant them, Lord, the glorious light; And from eastern coast to western, May the morning chase the night;

And redemption, Freely purchased, win the day.

4 Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel, Win and conquer, never cease; May thy lasting wide dominions Multiply and still increase;

Sway thy sceptre, Saviour, all the world around.

CONFERENCE MEETINGS.

227 HYMN 227. L. M. S. Stennett. # Portugal, Shoel, Uxbridge.

THERE two or three with sweet accord,

'Obedient to their sovereign Lord, 'Meet to recount his acts of grace,

'And offer solemn prayer and praise;

2' There,' says the Saviour, 'will I be 'Amid this little company;

'To them unveil my smiling face, 'And shed my glories round the place.'

3 We meet at thy command, dear Lord, Relying on thy faithful word:

Now send thy Spirit from above, Now fill our hearts with heavenly love.

228 Hymn 228. L. M. Watts. Shoel, Slade.

The soul drawing near to God in prayer.

Y God, I bow before thy feet;
When shall my soul get near thy seat?

When shall I see thy glorious face, With mingled majesty and grace?

2 How should I love thee, and adore, With hopes and joys unknown before! And bid this trifling world be gone, Nor grieve my heart, so near thy throne!

3 Creatures with all their charms should The presence of a God so nigh: My darling sins should lose their name, And grow my hatred and my shame.

4 My soul shall pour out all her cares, In flowing words or flowing tears! Thy smiles would ease my sharpest pain, Nor should I seek my God in vain.

229 Hymn 229. 9 Hymn 229. L. M. Watts. Old Hundred, Shoel, Lowell. Nearness to God the felicity of creatures. RE those the happy persons here, A Who dwell the nearest to their God? Has God invited sinners near? And Jesus bought them with his blood?

2 Go, then, my soul, address the Son, To lead thee near the Father's face; Gaze on his glories yet unknown,

And taste the blessings of his grace.

3 Vain, vexing world, and flesh and sense, Retire, while I approach my God; Nor let my sins divide me thence,

Nor creatures tempt my thoughts | 2 abroad.

4 While to thine arms, my God, I press, No mortal hope, nor joy, nor fear, Shall call my soul from thine embrace; 'Tis heaven to dwell forever there.

HYMN 230. L. M. Steele. ;
Rothwell, Wells, Shoel.
The presence of Christ, the joy of his people.
ORD, in the temples of thy grace, L'Thy saints behold thy smiling face; And oft have seen thy glories shine

With power and majesty divine: 2 But soon, alas! thy absence mourn, And pray and wish thy kind return; Without thy life-inspiring light,

'Tis all a scene of gloomy night. 3 Come, dearest Lord, thy children cry, Our graces droop, our comforts die; Return, and let thy glories rise Again, to our admiring eyes;

4 Till, fill'd with light, and joy, and love, Thy courts below, like those above, Triumphant hallelujahs raise, And heaven and earth resound thy praise.

COLLECTIONS.

231 HYMN 231. C. M. Doddridge. # York, St. Ann's, Dundee.

JESUS, my Lord, how rich thy grace! Relieving Christ in his members. Thy bounties how complete! How shall I count the matchless sum? How pay the mighty debt?

2 High on a throne of radiant light Dost thou exalted shine; What can my poverty bestow,

When all the worlds are thine? 3 But thou hast brethren here below,

The partners of thy grace; And wilt confess their humble names Before thy Father's face.

4 In them thou may'st be cloth'd and fed, And visited and cheer'd;

And in their accents of distress, My Saviour's voice is heard.

5 Thy face, with reverence and with love, We in thy poor would see; O let us rather beg our bread, Than keep it back from thee.

232 HYMN 252. S. M. School Watchman, Silver Street, Mornington.

THY bounties, gracious Lord, With gratitude we own; We praise thy providential grace, That showers its blessings down.

With joy thy people bring Their offerings round thy throne; With thankful souls, behold, we pay
A tribute of thine own.

Accept this humble mite, Great sovereign Lord of all #

Nor let our numerous mingling sins The sacred ointment spoil.

Let the Redeemer's blood
Diffuse its virtues wide;
Hallow and cleanse our every gift,
And all our follies hide.

5 O may this sacrifice
To thee, the Lord, ascend,
An odour of a sweet perfume,
Presented by his hand.

6 Well pleased, our God shall view The products of his grace; And in a plentiful reward, Fulfil his promises.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

HYMN 233. S. M. S.—... Sutton, Dover, Haverhill.

A morning hymn.

Pursues his shining way;
And wide proclaims his Maker's praise
With every brightening ray.

2 Thus would my rising soul
Its heavenly Parent sing:
And to its great Original
The humble tribute bring.

3 Serene I laid me down Beneath his guardian care; I slept, and I awoke, and found My kind Preserver near.

4 O! how shall I repay
The bounties of my God!
This feeble spirit pants beneath
The pleasing, painful load.

5 Dear Saviour, to thy cross
I bring my sacrifice;
Tinged with thy blood, it shall ascend
With fragrance to the skies.

234 HYMN 234. C. M. Steele.
Dundee, Canterbury, Lanesboro'.

Morning.

LORD of my life, O may thy praise Employ my noblest powers; Whose goodness lengthens out my days, And fills the circling hours.

2 Preserved by thine Almighty arm, I pass'd the shades of night, Serene and safe from every harm, And see returning light.

3 O let the same Almighty care My waking hours attend; From every danger, every snare My heedless steps defend. And guide my future days;
And let thy goodness fill my soul
With gratitude and praise.

235 HYMN 235. L. M. Castle Street, Hebron.
An evening hymn.

GREAT God, to thee my evening song,
With humble gratitude, I raise;
O let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.

2 My days, unclouded as they pass, And every gentle rolling hour, Are monuments of wondrous grace, And witness to thy love and power.

3 And yet this thoughtless, wretched Too oft regardless of thy love, [heart, Ungrateful, can from thee depart, And, fond of trifles, vainly rove.

4 Seal my forgiveness in the blood Of Jesus: his dear name alone I plead for pardon, gracious God, And kind acceptance at thy throne.

5 Let this blest hope mine eyé-lids close, With sleep refresh my feeble frame; Safe in thy care may I repose, And wake with praises to thy name.

An eccning hymn.

An evening hymn.

NDULGENT God, whose bounteous
O'er all thy works is shown, [care
O let my grateful praise and prayer
Arise before thy throne!

2 What mercies has this day bestow'd! How largely hast thou blest!

My cup with plenty overflow'd,
With cheerfulness my breast.

3 Now may soft slumbers close my eyes, From pain and sickness free! And let my waking thoughts arise,

To meditate on thee.

4 Thus bless each future day and night,
Till life's vain scene is o'er:

And then, to realms of endless light, O let my spirit soar.

237 HYMN 237. C. M. H. K. White. # York, Mear, Litchfield.

Hymn for family worship.

O LORD, another day is flown, And we, a lonely band, Are met once more before thy throne,

To bless thy fostering hand.

2 And wilt thou bend a listening ear, To praises low as ours?

Thou wilt! for thou dost love to hear The song which meekness pours.

3 And, Jesus, thou thy smiles will deign, 13 How kind the influence of the skies! As we before thee pray;

For thou didst bless the infant train, And we are less than they.

4 O let thy grace perform its part, And let contention cease; And shed abroad in every heart Thine everlasting peace!

5 Thus chasten'd, cleans'd, entirely thine, A flock by Jesus led; The sun of holiness shall shine

In glory on our head.

6 And thou wilt turn our wandering feet, And thou wilt bless our way; Till worlds shall fade, and faith shall The dawn of lasting day. greet

Hymn 238. C. M. Barby, Franklin.

For morning or evening. N thee, each morning, O my God. My waking thoughts attend; In whom are founded all my hopes, In whom my wishes end.

2 My soul, in pleasing wonder lost, Thy boundless love surveys; And, fired with grateful zeal, prepares

The sacrifice of praise. 3 When evening slumbers press my eyes, With thy protection blest, In peace and safety I commit

My weary limbs to rest. 4 My spirit, in thy hands secure, Fears no approaching ill;

For, whether waking or asleep Thou, Lord, art with me still. 5 Then will I daily to the world

Thy wondrous acts proclaim; Whilst all with me shall praise and sing, And bless thy sacred name.

6 At morn, at noon, at night, I'll still Thy growing work pursue; And thee alone will praise, to whom Eternal praise is due.

Hymn 239. C. M. Steele. Devizes, Salem. Spring.

M/HEN verdure clothes the fertile

And blossoms deck the spray, And fragrance breathes in every gale, How sweet the vernal day!

2 Hark! how the feather'd warblers sing, 'Tis nature's cheerful voice; Soft music hails the lovely spring, And woods and fields rejoice.

The showers, with blessings fraught, Bid virtue, beauty, fragrance rise, And fix the roving thought.

4 Then let my wondering heart confess, With gratitude and love, The bounteous hand that deigns to bless The garden, field, and grove.

5 O God of nature and of grace, Thy heavenly gifts impart; Then shall my meditation trace Spring, blooming in my heart.

Hymn 240. C. M. 240 Irish, Abridge, Conway. Summer .- An harvest hymn.

TO praise the ever bounteous Lord, My soul, wake all thy powers He calls, and at his voice come forth The smiling harvest hours.

2 His covenant with the earth he keeps, My tongue, his goodness sing; Summer and winter know their time, His harvest crowns the spring.

3 Well pleas'd the toiling swains behold The waving, yellow crop: With joy they bear the sheaves away, And sow again in hope.

4 Thus teach me, gracious God, to sow The seeds of righteousness; Smile on my soul, and with thy beams The ripening harvest bless.

5 Then, in the last great harvest, I Shall reap a glorious crop: The harvest shall by far exceed What I have sown in hope.

HYMN 241. L. M. Watts.
Blendon, Winchelsea. 241 The God of thunder.

THE immense, th' amazing height, . The boundless grandeur of our God, Who treads the worlds beneath his feet, And sways the nations with his nod!

2 He speaks, and lo! all nature shakes, Heaven's everlasting pillars bow; He rends the clouds with hideous cracks And shoots his fiery arrows through.

3 Well, let the nations start and fly At the blue lightning's horrid glare, Atheists and emperors shrink and die, When flame and noise torment the air.

4 Let noise and flame confound the skies, And drown the spacious realms below; Yet will we sing the Thunderer's praise, And send our loud hosannas through

5 Celestial King, thy blazing power Kindles our hearts to flaming joys; We shout to hear thy thunders roar, And echo to our Father's voice.

242 Hymn 242. C. M. Steele. St. Martin's, Franklin. Winter.

STERN Winter throws his icy chains, Encircling nature round; How bleak, how comfortless the plains, Late with gay verdure crown'd!

2 The sun withdraws his vital beams, And light and warmth depart; And, drooping, lifeless nature seems

An emblem of my heart—

3 My heart, where mental winter reigns,
In night's dark mantle clad,
Confined in cold, inactive chains,

How desolate and sad!

4 Return, O blissful sun, and bring
Thy soul-reviving ray;
This mental winter shall be spring,

This darkness cheerful day.

5 O happy state, divine abode,
 Where spring eternal reigns,
 And perfect day, the smile of God,
 Fills all the heavenly plains.

6 Great Source of light, thy beams display, My drooping joys restore, And guide me to the seats of day, Where winter frowns no more.

244 HYMN 244. 8.7. Robinson. #
Sicilian Hymn, Greenville.
Grateful recollection.—Ebenezer.

COME, thou fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace; Streams of mercy, never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise:

Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above:
Praise the mount—O fix me on it,
Mount of God's unchanging love.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer, Hither by thy help I'm come; And I hope, by thy good pleasure, Safely to arrive at home:

Jesus sought me when a stranger, Wandering from the fold of God; He, to save my soul from danger, Interposed his precious blood.

3 O! to grace, how great a debtor Daily I'm constrain'd to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee!
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love,
Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it,
Seal it from thy courts above.

245 HYMN 245. L. M. Antigua, Sharon.

REAT God, we sing that mighty hand,

By which, supported still we stand.

By which, supported still, we stand: The opening year thy mercy shows; Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God; By his incessant bounty fed, By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own; The future, all to us unknown; We to thy guardian care commit, And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depress'd,
Be thou our joy and thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

5 When death shall interrupt these songs, And seal in silence mortal tongues, Our helper, God, in whom we trust, In better worlds our souls shall boast. Canterbury, York.

Swiftness of time. New year. REMARK, my soul, the narrow bound Of the revolving year; [round! How swift the weeks complete their How short the months appear!

2 So fast eternity comes on And that important day,

When all that mortal life hath done, God's judgment shall survey.

3 Yet, like an idle tale, we pass The swift revolving year; And study artful ways t' increase The speed of its career.

4 Waken, O God, my careless heart, Its great concerns to see; That I may act the Christian part,

And give the year to thee. 5 So shall their course more grateful roll, If future years arise;

Or this shall bear my waiting soul To joy beyond the skies.

247 HYMN 247. L. M. Doddridge. #

Rothwell, All Saints, Hebron.

Close of the year.

MY helper, God! I bless his name;

The same his power, his grace the The tokens of his friendly care [same; Open, and crown, and close the year.

2 I 'midst ten thousand dangers stand, Supported by his guardian hand; And see, when I survey my ways, Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far his arm has led me on, Thus far I make his mercy known; And while I tread this desert land, New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 My grateful soul on Jordan's shore Shall raise one sacred pillar more; Then bear, in his bright courts above, Inscriptions of immortal love.

248 HYMN 248. C. M. Doddridge. # Parma, Danbury, St. Martin's. Close of the year.

WAKE, ye saints, and raise your eyes, A And raise your voices high, Awake, and praise that sovereign love That shows salvation nigh.

2 On all the wings of time it flies, Each moment brings it near; Then welcome each declining day! Welcome each closing year!

3 Not many years their rounds shall run, Nor many mornings rise, Ere all its glories stand reveal'd To our admiring eyes.

246 HYMN 246. C. M. Doddridge: # | 4 Ye wheels of nature, speed your course, Ye mortal powers, decay; Fast as ye bring the night of death, Ye bring eternal day.

> 249 HYMN 249. L. M. Proud. Wells, Effingham. Marriage.

WITH cheerful voices rise and sing The praises of our God and King; For he alone can minds unite, And bless with conjugal delight.

2 This wedded pair, O Lord, inspire With heavenly love, that sacred fire; From this blest moment may they prove The bliss divine of marriage love.

3 O may they both increasing find Substantial pleasures of the mind; Happy together may they be, And both united, Lord, to thee.

4 So may they live as truly one; And when their work on earth is done, Rise, hand in hand, to heaven, and share The joys of love forever there!

250 HYMN 250. L. M. Newton. # Shoel, Wells, Brighton.

A velcome to Christian friends.—At meeting.

KINDRED in Christ, for his dear sake,
A hearty welcome here receive: May we together now partake

The joys which only he can give. 2 To you and us by grace 'tis given To know the Saviour's precious name: And shortly we shall meet in heaven, Our hope, our way, our end the same.

3 May he, by whose kind care we meet, Send his good Spirit from above, Make our communications sweet, And cause our hearts to burn with love.

4 Forgotten be each worldly theme, When Christians see each other thus; We only wish to speak of him, Who liv'd, and died, and reigns for us.

5 We'll talk of all he did and said, And suffer'd for us here below; The path he mark'd for us to tread, And what he's doing for us now.

6 Thus, as the moments pass away, We'll love, and wonder, and adore; And hasten on the glorious day, When we shall meet, to part no more.

Hymn 251. 7's. 251 Hotham, Nuremburg. At parting

FOR a season call'd to part, Let us now ourselves commend To the gracious eye and heart Of our ever-present Friend.

2 Jesus, hear our humble prayer; Tender Shepherd of thy sheep, Let thy mercy and thy care All our souls in safety keep.

3 In thy strength may we be strong, Sweeten every cross and pain; Give us, if we live, ere long, In thy peace to meet again.

♣ Then if thou thy help afford, Ebenezers shall be rear'd; And our souls shall praise the Lord, Who our poor petitions heard.

YOUTH AND OLD AGE.

252 HYMN 252. L. M. S. Stennett. b Brighton, Brentford. Early pisty.

5 Though, press'd with fears on every side, They know not how the strife may end, Yet he will soon the cause decide, And judgment unto victory send.

253 HYMN 253. C. M. Doddridge. # Mear, Canterbury, Litchfield.

The encouragement young persons have to seek Christ. E hearts, with youthful vigour warm, In smiling crowds draw near, And turn from every mortal charm, A Saviour's voice to hear.

254 Hymn 254. L.M. Watts. Medway, Hague. A lovely youth falling short of heaven.

MUST all the charms of nature, then, So hopeless to salvation prove? Can hell demand, can heaven condemn The man whom Jesus deigns to love?-2 The man who sought the ways of truth, Paid friends and neighbours all their due; A modest, sober, lovely youth,

Who thought he wanted nothing new! 3 But mark the change: Thus spake the Lord. 'Come, part with earth for heaven today;

The youth, astonish'd at the word, In silent sadness went his way.

4 Poor virtues, that he boasted so, This test unable to endure; Let Christ, and grace, and glory go, To make his land and money sure. 5 Ah, foolish choice of treasures here!

Ah, fatal love of tempting gold! Must this base world be bought so dear, And life and heaven so cheaply sold? 6 In vain the charms of nature shine, If this vile passion governs me; Transform my soul, O love divine! And make me part with all for thee.

255 Hymn 255, C. M. Watts. # or b Arlington, Barby, Medfield. A hopeful youth falling short of heaven.

THUS far 'tis well : you read, you pray, You hear God's holy word, You hearken what your parents say, And learn to serve the Lord.

2 Your friends are pleas'd to see your ways, Your practice they approve; Jesus himself would give you praise, And look with eyes of love.

3 But if you quit the paths of truth, To follow foolish fires, And give a loose to giddy youth,

With all its wild desires;

To hold your riches fast; Or hunt for empty joys below; You'll lose your heaven at last.

5 The rich young man 'whom Jesus loved Should warn you to forbear;

His love of earthly treasures proved A fatal golden snare.

6 See, gracious God, dear Saviour, see 6 We pray that you may early prove, llow youth is prone to fall: Teach them to part with all for thee, And love thee more than all.

256 Hymn 256. S. M. .Fawcett. # Watchman, Paddington. How shall a young man cleanse his way?

How I may cleanse my way. Now in my early days,

Teach me thy will to know: O God, thy sanctifying grace Betimes on me bestow.

Make an unguarded youth The object of thy care; Help me to choose the way of truth,

And fly from every snare.

4 O let the word of grace My warmest thoughts employ; Be this, through all my following days, My treasure and my joy.

To what thy laws impart Be my whole soul inclined; O let them dwell within my heart, And sanctify my mind.

May thy young servant learn By these to cleanse his way; And may I here the path discern That leads to endless day.

HEAR, Lord, the song of praise and prayer,

In heaven thy dwelling place, From infants made the public care, And taught to seek thy face.

2 Thanks for thy word and for thy day, And grant us, we implore, Never to waste in sinful play Thy holy Sabbaths more.

3 Thanks that we hear—but O impart
To each, desires sincere,
That we may listen with our heart,
And learn as well as hear.

4 For if vain thoughts the minds engage Of older far than we,

What hope that at our heedless age, Our minds should e'er be free?

5 Much hope, if thou our spirits take Under thy gracious sway, Who canst the wisest wiser make,

And babes as wise as they.

6 Wisdom and bliss thy word bestows,
A sun that ne'er declines,

And be thy mercies shower'd on those, Who placed us where it shines.

And can those prayers be lost?

5 Are not the righteous dear to thee,
Now as in ancient times?

Or does this sinful land exceed Gomorrah in its crimes?

Forsake us not, O God.

6 Still are we thine, we bear thy name,
Here yet is thine abode;
Long has thy presence blest our land,

264 Hymn 264. L. M. Pres. Davies. b

National judgments' deprecated, and national mercies pleaded for.

WHILE o'er our guilty land, O Lord, We view the terrors of thy sword, O! whither shall the helpless fly; To whom but thee direct their cry?

2 The helpless sinner's cries and tears Are grown familiar to thine ears; Oft has thy mercy sent relief, When all was fear and hopeless grief. 3 On thee, our guardian God, we call, Before thy throne of grace we fall; And is there no deliverance there, And must we perish in despair?

And must we perish in despair?

4 See, we repent, we weep, we mourn,
To our forsaken God we turn;
O spare our guilty country, spare
The church which thou hast planted here.

5 We plead thy Son's atoning blood;
We plead thy Son's atoning blood;

We plead thy gracious promises;
And are they unavailing pleas?
6 These pleas, presented at thy throne
Have brought ten thousand blessings down

6 These pleas, presented at thy throne, Have brought ten thousand blessings down On guilty lands in helpless wo; Let them prevail to save us too.

265 HYMN 265. L. M. Doddridge. b Bath, Denton. Public Fast.

O RIGHTEOUS God, thou Judge supreme,
We tremble at thy dreadful name;
And all our crying guilt we own,
In dust and tears before thy throne.

2 So manifold our crimes have been, Such crimson tincture dyes our sin, That could we all its horrors know, Our streaming eyes with blood might flow.

3 Estranged from reverential awe, We trample on thy sacred law: And tho' such wonders grace has done, Anew we crucify thy Son.

4 Justly might this polluted land
Prove all the vengeance of thy hand;
And bathed in heaven, thy sword might come.

To drink our blood, and seal our doom.
5 Yet hast thou not a remnant here,
Whose souls are fill'd with pious fear?
O bring thy wonted mercy nigh,
While prostrate at thy feet they lie.

6 Behold their tears, attend their moan, Nor turn away their secret groan: With these we join our humble prayer; Our nation shield, our country spare.

266 HYMN 266. L. M.
Psalm 97th, Lowell.
Prayer for the President, Congress, Magistrates,

Prayer for the President, Congress, Magistrates, &c.

REAT Lord of all, thy matchless power,

Archangels in the heavens adore; With them our Sovereign thee we own, And bow the knee before thy throne. 2 Let dove-eyed peace, with odour'd wing, On us her grateful blessings fling, Freedom spread beauteous as the morn, And plenty fill her ample horn.

3 Pour on our Chief thy mercies down, His days with heavenly wisdom crown; Dispose his heart, where'er he goes, 'To launch the stream that duty shows?

4 Over our Capitol diffuse, From hills divine, thy welcome dews; While Congress, in one patriot band,

Prove the firm fortress of our land.
5 Our magistrates with grace sustain,
Nor let them bear the sword in vain;
Long as they fill their awful seat,
Be vice seen dying at their feet.

6 Forever from the western sky Bid the 'destroying angel' fly! With grateful songs our hearts inspire, And round us blaze, a wall of fire.

HYMN 267. L. M. Antigua, Shoel, Rothwell.

Praise for national peace.

CREAT Ruler of the earth and skies,
A word of thy Almighty breath
Can sink the world, or bid it rise;
Thy smile is life, thy frown is death.

2 When angry nations rush to arms, And rage, and noise, and tumult reign, And war resounds its dire alarms, And slaughter dyes the hostile plain;

3 Thy sovereign eye looks calmly down, And marks their course, and bounds their power;

Thy word the angry nations own, And noise and war are heard no more.

4 Then peace returns with balmy wing; Reviving commerce spreads her sails; The fields are green, and plenty sings Responsive o'er the hills and vales.

5 Thou good, and wise, and righteous Lord, All move subservient to thy will; Both peace and war await thy word, And thy sublime decrees fulfil.

6 To thee we pay our grateful songs, Thy kind protection still implore; O may our hearts, and lives and tongues Confess thy goodness, and adore.

268 Hymn 268. C. M. #

Thanksgiving for victory over our enemies.

To thee, who reign'st supreme above,
And reign'st supreme below,
Thou God of wisdom, power, and love,
We our successes owe.

The thundering horse, the martial band, Without thine aid were vain;
And victory flies at thy command,
To crown the bright campaign.

3 Thy mighty arm, unseen, was nigh, When we our foes assail'd; Tis thou hast raised our honours high,

And o'er their hosts prevail'd.

4 To our young race will we proclaim
The mercies God has shown,

That they may learn to bless his name, And choose him for their own.

5 Thus, while we sleep in silent dust, When threatening dangers come; Their fathers' God shall be their trust, Their refuge, and their home.

269 Hymn 269. L. P. M. Kippis.

Thanksgiving for national prosperity.

HOW rich thy gifts, Almighty King! From thee our public blessings spring:

The extended trade, the fruitful skies,
The treasures liberty bestows,
The eternal joys the gospel shows,
All from thy boundless goodness rise.

2 Here commerce spreads the wealthy store, Which pours from every foreign shore, Science and art their charms display; Religion teaches us to raise Our voices to our Maker's praise,

As truth and conscience point the way.

3 With grateful hearts, with joyful tongues,
To God we raise united songs,

Here still may God in mercy reign; Crown our just counsels with success, With peace and joy our borders bless, And all our sacred rights maintain.

270 HYMN 270. C. M. Watts. Bangor, Wantage, Dedham.

Complaint and hope under great pain.

LORD, I am pain'd; but I resign My body to thy will; Tis grace, 'tis wisdom all divine, Appoints the pains I feel.

2 Dark are the ways of Providence,
While they who love thee groan:
Thy reasons lie conceal'd from sense,
Mysterious and unknown.

3 Yet nature may have leave to speak, And plead before her God, Lest th' o'er-burden'd heart should break Beneath thine heavy rod,

4 These mournful groans and flowing tears Give my poor spirit ease; While every groan my Father hears, And every tear he sees.

5 Is not some smiling hour at hand, With peace upon its wings? Give it, O God, thy swift command, With all the joys it brings.

271 Hymn 271. L. M. Cowper. b Bath, Uxbridge, Old Hundred.

Afficions cancified by the word.

HOW I love thy holy word,
Thy gracious covenant, O Lord!
It guides me in the peaceful way;
I think upon it all the day.

2 What are the mines of shining wealth?

The strength of youth, the bloom of health?—

What are all joys, compared with those, Thine everlasting word bestows?

3 Long unafflicted, undismay'd,
In pleasure's path, secure I stray'd:
Thou mad'st me feel thy chast'ning rod,
And straight I turn'd unto my God.

4 What though it pierced my fainting heart, I bless thine hand that caus'd the smart, It taught my tears awhile to flow; But saved me from eternal wo.

50! hadst thou left me unchastised, Thy precept I had still despised; And still the snare in secret laid, Had my unwary feet betray'd.

6 I love thee, therefore, O my God, And breathe tow'rds heaven, thy bright abode;

Where, in thy presence fully blest, Thy chosen saints forever rest.

272 Hymn 272. C. M. Steele. York, Bangor, Dedham.

Desiring the presence of God in affiction.

THOU only centre of my rest,
Look down with pitying eye,
While with protracted pain opprest,
I breathe the plaintive sigh.

2 Thy gracious presence, O my God, My every wish contains; With this, beneath affliction's load, My heart no more complains.

3 This can my every care control, Gild each dark scene with light; This is the sun-shine of the soul, Without it, all is night.

4 My Lord, my life, O cheer my heart With thy reviving ray,

And bid these mournful shades depart, And bring the dawn of day. 273 HYMN 273. C. M. Cowper. Bangor, Windsor, York.
The instability of worldly enjoyments.

THE evils that beset our path,
Who can prevent or cure?
We stand upon the brink of death,
When most we seem secure.

2 If we to-day sweet peace possess, It soon may be withdrawn; Some change may plunge us in distress Before to-morrow's dawn.

3 Disease and pain invade our health, And find an easy prey; And oft, when least expected, wealth

Takes wings and flies away.

4 The grounds from which we look for fruit, Produce us often pain;

A worm unseen attacks the root, And all our hopes are vain.

5 Since sin has fill'd the earth with wo, And creatures fade and die, Lord, wean our hearts from things below,

And fix our hopes on high.

274 Hymn 274. L. M. Cowper. b or#

Stonefield, Upton.

Calling upon Christ in temptation and affiction.

THE billows swell, the winds are high,
Clouds overcast my wintry sky;
Out of the depths to thee I call;
My fears are great, my stength is small.

20 Lord, the pilot's part perform, And guide and guard me through the storm!

Defend me from each threatening ill,
Control the waves, say, 'Peace—be still!

3 Amidst the roaring of the sea, My soul still hangs her hopes on thee; Thy constant love, thy faithful care Is all that saves me from despair.

4 Dangers of every shape and name Attend the followers of the Lamb, Who leave the world's deceitful shore, And leave it to return no more.

5 Tho' tempest toss'd, and half a wreck, My Saviour through the floods I seek! Let neither winds, nor stormy rain Force back my shatter'd bark again.

275 HYMN 275. C. M. Heginbotham. b or # Windsor, St. Ann's, Dedham. Comfort in sickness and death.

THEN sickness shakes the languid frame,

Each dazzling pleasure flies;
Phantoms of bliss no more obscure
Our.long-deluded eyes.

b 2 Then the tremendous arm of death
Its hated sceptre shows;

And nature faints beneath the weight Of complicated woes.

3 The tottering frame of mortal life Shall crumble into dust;

Nature shall faint—but learn, my soul! On nature's God to trust.

4 The man, whose pious heart is fix'd On his all-gracious God,

In every frown may comfort find, And kiss the chastening rod.

5 Nor him shall death itself alarm; On heaven his soul relies;

With joy he views his Maker's love, And with composure dies.

276 HYMN 276. C. M. Doddridge. b or #

Praise for recovery from sickness:

OVEREIGN of life, I own thy hand
In every chastening stroke;

And, while I smart beneath thy rod, Thy presence I invoke.

2To thee, in my distress, I cried, And thou hast bow'd thine ear; Thy powerful word my life prolong'd, And brought salvation near.

3 Unfold, ye gates of righteousness, That, with the pious throng, I may record my solemn yows.

I may record my solemn vows,
And tune my grateful song.

4 Praise to the Lord, whose gentle hand, Renews our labouring breath: Praise to the Lord, who makes his saints Triumphant e'en in death.

TIME AND ETERNITY.

277 Hymn 277. C. M. Watts. b or #
Barby, St. Ann's, Wareham.
The true improvement of life.

A ND is this life prolong'd to me?
Are days and seasons given?
O let me then prepare to be
A fitter heir of heaven.

2 In vain these moments shall not pass, These golden hours be gone: Lord, I accept thine offer'd grace, I bow before thy throne.

3 Now cleanse my soul from every sin By my Redeemer's blood:

Now let my flesh and soul begin The honours of my God.

4 Let me no more my soul beguile
With sin's deceitful toys:

Let cheerful hope, increasing still, Approach to heavenly joys. 5 My thankful lips shall loud proclaim The wonders of thy praise, And spread the savour of thy name, Where'er I spend my days.

6 On earth let my example shine,
 And when I leave this state,
 May heaven receive this soul of mine
 To bliss supremely great.

278 Hymn 278. L. M. Watts. Luton, Wells, Portugal.

The privileges of the living above the dead.

MAKE, my zeal, awake, my love,
To serve my Saviour here below,
In works, which perfect saints above
And holy angels cannot do.

2 Awake, my charity, to feed
The hungry soul, and clothe the poor;
In heaven are found no sons of need,
There all these duties are no more.

3 Subdue thy passions, O my soul!

Maintain the fight, thy work pursue,
Daily thy rising sins control,
And be thy victories ever new.

4 The land of triumph lies on high,
There are no foes t' encounter there:
Lord, I would conquer till I die,
And finish all the glorious war.

5 Let every flying hour confess
I gain thy gospel fresh renown;
And when my life and labours cease,
May I possess the promised crown!

279 HYMN 279. L. M. Doddridge. b or # Angels' Hymn, Ellenthorpe.

The wisdom of redeeming time.

GOD of eternity, from thee
Did infant time his being draw;
Moments, and days, and months, and years,

Revolve by thine unvaried law.

2 Silent and slow they glide away; Steady and strong the current flows; Lost in eternity's wide sea— The boundless gulf from whence it rose.

3 With it, the thoughtless sons of men Before the rapid streams, are borne, On to the everlasting home, Whence not one soul can e'er return.

4 Yet, while the shore on either side Presents a gaudy, flattering show, We gaze, in fond amazement lost, Nor think to what a world we go.

5 Great Source of wisdom! teach my heart
To know the price of every hour;
That time may bear me on to joys
Beyond its measure, and its power.

281 Hymn 281. C. M. Watts.
Franklin, York.
Death of kindred improved.

MUST friends and kindred drop and die?

And helpers be withdrawn?
While sorrow with a weeping eye
Counts up our comforts gone?

2 Be thou our comfort, mighty God! Our helper and our friend: Nor leave us in this dangerous road, Till all our trials end.

282 Hymn 282. S. M.
Shirland, Olmutz, Dover.
The expiring saint.

Where lies the dying saint!
Though in the icy arms of death,
He utters no complaint.

2 His aspect is serene; He smiles in joyful hope; He knows that arm on which he rests Is an unfailing prop. 8 He lifts his eyes in love To his almighty Friend,

283 Hymn 283. L. M. Fawcett.

Death of the sinner and saint.

WHAT scenes of horror and of dread
Await the sinner's dying bed!

Death's terrors all appear in sight,

Presages of eternal night!

2 His sins in dreadful order rise, And fill his soul with sad surprise; Mount Sinai's thunders stun his ears, And not one ray of hope appears.

3 Tormenting pangs distract his breast; Where'er he turns he finds no rest; Death strikes the blow—he groans and cries—

And, in despair and horror—dies.

4 Not so the heir of heavenly bliss:
His soul is fill'd with conscious peace;
A steady faith subdues his fear;
He sees the happy Canaan near.

5 His mind is tranquil and serene,
No terrors in his looks are seen;
His Saviour's smile dispels the gloom,
And smooths his passage to the tomb.

6 Lord, make my faith and love sincere, My judgment sound, my conscience clear; And when the toils of life are past, May I be found in peace at last.

284 Hymn 284. C. M. Doddridge. b Canterbury, St. Ann's.

YE mourning saints, whose streaming tears

Flow o'er your children dead, Say not, in transports of despair, That all your hopes are fled.

2 While, cleaving to that darling dust, In fond distress ye lie, Rise, and, with joy and reverence, view,

A heavenly parent nigh.

3 'I'll give the mourner,' saith the Lord, 'In my own house a place:

'No name of daughters and of sons
'Could yield so high a grace.

4 Transient and vain is every hope
A rising race can give;

'A rising race can give;
'In endless honour and delight,
'My children all shall live.'

5 We welcome, Lord, those rising tears,
Through which thy face we see;
And bless those wounds, which, through our hearts,

Prepare a way to thee.

285 Hymn 285. C. M. Steele. b or #

WHEN blooming youth is snatch'd away

By death's resistless hand, Our hearts the mournful tribute pay, Which pity must demand.

2 While pity prompts the rising sigh, O may this truth, imprest With awful power—I too must die—

Sink deep in every breast.

3 Let this vain world engage no more:
Behold the gaping tomb!

It bids us seize the present hour!

To-morrow death may come.

4 The voice of this alarming scene May every heart obey;

Nor be the heavenly warning vain, Which calls to watch and pray.

5 O let us fly, to Jesus fly, Whose powerful arm can save; Then shall our hopes ascend on high, And triumph o'er the grave.

286 HYMN 286. C. M. Doddridge. b or # Plympton, York, Haarlem.

Death of a Minister.

NOW let our drooping hearts revive, And all our tears be dry; Why should those eyes be drown'd in grief, Which view a Saviour nigh?

2 What tho' the arm of conquering death Does God's own house invade? What though the prophet, and the priest,

Be number'd with the dead?—

3 Though earthly shepherds dwell in dust,

Though earthly shepherds dwell in dust.
The aged and the young—
The watchful eye in darkness closed,

And mute the instructive tongue;—
4 Th' eternal Shepherd still survives,
New comfort to impart;

His eye still guides us, and his voice Still animates our heart. 5 Lo, I am with you, saith the Lord, 289 My church shall safe abide;

For I will ne'er forsake my own, Whose souls in me confide.'

6 Through every scene of life and death,
This promise is our trust;

And this shall be our children's song, When we are cold in dust.

287 Hymn 287. L. M. Watts.
Bath, Armley, Putney.

On the death of friends.

FAREWELL, dear friend, a short farewell,

Till we shall meet again above, Where endless joys and pleasures dwell, And trees of life bear fruits of love.

2 There glory sits on every face,
There friendship smiles in every eye,
There shall our tongues relate the grace
That led us homeward to the sky.

3 O'er all the names of Christ our King Shall our harmonious voices rove; Our harps shall sound from every string The wonders of his bleeding love.

4 How long must we lie lingering here, While saints around us take their flight; Smiling they quit this dusky sphere, And mount the hills of heavenly light.

5,Come, sovereign Lord, dear Saviour, come;

Remove these separating days; Send thy bright wheels to fetch us home; That golden hour, how long it stays!

288 HYMN 288. 8. 7. 4. Robinson. # Tamworth, Greenville.

The grave; or, Christ a guide through death to glory.

The grave: or, Christ a guide through death to glory.

GUIDE me, O thou great Jehovah!
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven,

Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open thou the crystal fountain, Whence the healing streams do flow:

Let the fiery cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer,

Be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan, Bid my anxious fears subside; Death of deaths, and hell's destruction, Land me safe on Canany's side.

Land me safe on Canaan's side: Songs of praises

I will ever give to thee.

289 Hymn 289. L. M. Watts. Brutney, Armley, Hebron.

A funeral hymn.

UNVEIL thy bosom, faithful tomb, Take this new treasure to thy trust; And give these sacred relics room, To seek a slumber in the dust.

2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear Invade thy bounds. No mortal woes Can reach the peaceful sleeper here, While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept;—God's dying Son Pass'd thro' the grave, and blest the bed. Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne The morning break, and pierce the shade.

4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn; Attend, O earth! his sovereign word; Restore thy trust,—a glorious form,— Call'd to ascend, and meet the Lord.

290 Hymn 290. C. M. Watts. | Abridge, Dedham.
The welcome messenger.

LORD, when we see a saint of thine Lie gasping out his breath,
With longing eyes and looks divine,
Smiling and pleased in death;

2 How we could e'en contend to lay
Our limbs upon that bed!
We ask thing envoy to convey

We ask thine envoy to convey Our spirits in his stead.

3 Our souls are rising on the wing,
To venture in his place!
For when grim death has lost his sting,
He has an angel's face.

4 Jesus, then purge my crimes away;
"Tis guilt creates my fears,

"Tis guilt gives death his fierce array, And all the arms he bears.

291 Hymn 291. L. M. Watts.

Absent from the body and present with the Lord.

A BSENT from flesh! O blissful tho't,
What unknown joys this moment
brings,

Freed from the mischiefs sin has brought, From pains and fears and all their springs.

2 Absent from flesh! illustrious day! Surprising scene! triumphant stroke, That rends the prison of my clay, And I can feel my fetters broke.

3 Absent from flesh! then rise, my soul, Where feet nor wings could ever climb, Beyond the heavens, where planets roll, Measuring the cares and joys of time. 4 I go where God and glory shine, His presence makes eternal day, My all that's mortal I resign, For angels wait and point my way.

292 HYMN 292. C. M. Watts.

The presence of God worth dying for.

ORD, 'tis an infinite delight

To see thy lovely face,

To dwell whole ages in thy sight,

And feel thy vital rays.

And heaven repeats the song.

293 HYMN 293. L. M. Scott. b Putney, Armley, Brentford. Satisfiction in God under the loss of dear friends. THE God of love will sure indulge The flowing tear, the heaving sigh, When his own children fall around; When tender friends and kindred die.

2 Yet not one anxious, murmuring thought Should with our mourning passions blend; Nor would our bleeding hearts forget The Almighty, ever-living Friend.

3 Beneath a numerous train of ills Our feeble flesh and heart may fail; Yet shall our hope in thee, our God, O'er every gloomy fear prevail.

4 Parent and Husband, Guard and Guide, Thou art each tender name in one: On thee we cast our every care; And comfort seek from thee alone.

5 Our Father, God! to thee we look, Our rock, our portion, and our friend! And on thy covenant love and truth Our sinking souls shall still depend.

294 HYMN 294. C. M. Doddridge. b Franklin, Wachusett. Submission under bereaving providences. PEACE! 'tis the Lord Jehovah's hand

That blasts our joys in death; Changes the visage once so dear, And gathers back the breath.

2 Tis He, the Potentate supreme Of all the worlds above; Whose steady counsels wisely rule, Nor from their purpose move. 3 Tis He, whose justice might demand Our souls a sacrifice;

Yet scatters, with unwearied hand, A thousand rich supplies.

4 Our covenant God and Father he, In Christ, our bleeding Lord; Whose grace can heal the bursting heart With one reviving word.

5 Fair garlands of immortal bliss
He weaves for every brow:
And shall rebellious passions rise,
When he corrects us now?

6 Silent, we own Jehovah's name;
We kiss the scourging hand;
And yield our comforts, and our life,
To his supreme command.

295 Hymn 295. C. M. Needham. b Bangor, Windsor.

The rich fool surprised.

PELUDED souls! who think to find A solid bliss below:

Bliss! the fair flower of paradise,
On earth can never grow.

2 See how the foolish wretch is pleased, To increase his worldly store! Too scanty now he finds his barns, And covets room for more.

3. What shall I do? distressed he cries;
This scheme will I pursue;

'My scanty barns shall now come down,
'I'll build them large and new.

4'Here will I lay my fruits, and bid 'My soul to take its ease: 'Eat, drink, be glad; my lasting store 'Shall give what joys I please.'

5 Scarce had he spoke, when, lo! from heaven

The Almighty made reply:
'For whom dost thou provide, thou fool?
'This night thyself shall die.'

6 Teach me, my God, all earthly joys
Are but an empty dream:
And may I seek my bliss alone
In thee, the Good Supreme.

296 HYMN 296. C. M. Watts. b Canterbury, London. A prospect of the resurrection. HOW long shall death, the tyrant, reign,

And triumph o'er the just;
While the rich blood of martyrs slain
Lies mingled with the dust?

2 Lo, I behold the scatter'd shades, The dawn of heaven appears; The sweet immortal morning spreads Its blushes round the spheres. 3 I see the Lord of glory come, And flaming guards around; The skies divide, to make him room, The trumpet shakes the ground.

4 I hear the voice, 'Ye dead, arise!'
And, lo! the graves obey:

And waking saints, with joyful eyes, Salute the expected day.

5 They leave the dust, and on the wing Rise to the midway air,

In shining garments meet their King, And low adore him there.

6 O may our humble spirits stand Among them clothed in white! The meanest place at his right hand Is infinite delight.

297 HYMN 297. C. M. Rippon. b or # Windsor, Barby, Marlow.
The bodies of the saints quickened and raised by the Spirit.

WHY should our mourning thoughts delight

To grovel in the dust?

Or why should streams of tears unite

Around th' expiring just?

2 Did not the Lord, our Saviour, die, And triumph o'er the grave? Did not our Lord ascend on high? And prove his power to save?

3 Doth not the sacred Spirit come, And dwell in all the saints?

And should the temples of his grace Resound with long complaints? 4 Awake, my soul, and like the sun

4 Awake, my soul, and like the sun Burst through each sable cloud; And thou, my voice, though broke with sighs,

Tune forth thy songs aloud.

5 The Spirit raised my Saviour up,
When he had bled for me;

And, spite of death and hell, shall raise Thy pious friends and thee.

6 Awake, ye saints, that dwell in dust; Your hymns of victory sing, And let his dying servants trust Their ever-living King.

298 HYMN 298. C. M. Scotch paraphrase. #
Danbury, Uxbridge.
The resurrection.

WHEN the last trumpet's awful voice
This rending earth shall shake,—
When opening graves shall yield their charge,
And dust to life awake;—

2 Those bodies, that corrupted fell, Shall incorrupted rise;

And mortal forms shall spring to life Immortal in the skies.

3 Behold, what heavenly prophets sung, Is now at last fulfill'd,—

That death should yield his ancient reign; And, vanquish'd, quit the field.

4 Let faith exalt her joyful voice, And thus begin to sing:

'O grave! where is thy triumph now? 'And where, O death! thy sting?'

DAY OF JUDGMENT.

299 HYMN 299. L. M. Needham. b or # All Saints, Old Hundred, Monmouth.

The books opened.

METHINKS the last great day is

Methinks I hear the trumpet sound, That shakes the earth, rends every tomb, And wakes the prisoners under ground.

2 The mighty deep gives up her trust, Awed by the Judge's high command; Both small and great now quit their dust, And round the dread tribunal stand.

3 Behold the awful books display'd, Big with th' important fates of men; Each deed and word now public made, As wrote by Heaven's unerring pen.

4 To every soul, the books assign
The joyous or the dread reward:
Sinners in vain lament and pine;
No pleas the Judge will here regard.

5 Lord, when these awful leaves unfold, May life's fair book my soul approve: There may I read my name enroll'd, And triumph in redeeming love.

300 Hymn 300. L. M. Watts. # Portugal, Psalm 97th. Come, Lord Jesus.

WHEN shall thy lovely face be seen? When shall our eyes behold our God?

What lengths of distance lie between, And hills of guilt! a heavy load!

2 Our months are ages of delay,
And slowly every minute wears:
Fly, winged time, and roll away
These tedious rounds of sluggish years.

3 Ye heavenly gates, loose all your chains! Let th' eternal pillars bow! Blest Saviour, cleave the starry plains, And make the crystal mountains flow! 4 Hark! how thy saints unite their cries, And pray, and wait the general doom! Come, thou, THE SOUL of all our joys, Thou, THE DESIRE OF NATIONS, COME.

301 Hymn 301. L. M. Watts altered. b or #Rothwell, Carthage, 97th Psalm.

Judgment.

Sinner, O why so thoughtless grown? Why in such dreadful haste to die? Daring to leap to worlds unknown, Heedless against thy God to fly! Wilt thou despise eternal fate, Urged on by sin's fantastic dreams? Madly attempt the infernal gate, And force thy passage to the flames? 3 Stay, sinner! on the gospel plains; Behold the God of love unfold The glories of his dying pains, Forever telling, yet untold.

HEAVEN.

302 HYMN 302. L. M. Watts. Luton, Castle Street, 97th Psalm.

God the light and glory of heaven.

MY God, I love, and I adore, But still would love and know thee more;

Wilt thou forever hide, and stand Behind the labours of thy hand?

- 2 O'er all the earth, around the sky, There's not a spot, or deep, or high, Where the Creator has not trod, And left the footstep of a God.
- 3 But are thy footsteps all that we, Poor grov'ling worms, must know or see? Where is thy residence? O why Dost thou avoid my searching eye?
- 4 Ah! though thou art diffused abroad, Thro' boundless space, a present God, Yet still thy beams of warmest love, Sure they were made for worlds above.
- 5 O for a wing to bear me far, Beyond the golden morning star; Fain would I trace th' immortal way That leads to courts of endless day.
- 6 There the Creator stands confess'd, In his own fairest glories dress'd; Some shining spirit, help me rise, Come, waft a stranger to the skies.
- 7 Blest Jesus, meet me on the road, First-born of the eternal God: Thy hand shall lead a younger son, And place me near my Father's throne.

303 HYMN 303. C. M. Steele. #
St. Martin's, Marlow, Irish.
The juys of heaven.

COME, Lord, and warm each languid heart,

Inspire each lifeless tongue; And let the joys of heaven impart Their influence to our song.

- 2 Sorrow, and pain, and every care, And discord there shall cease; And perfect joy and love sincers Adorn the realms of peace.
 - 3 The soul, from sin forever free, Shall mourn its power no more; But, clothed in spotless purity, Redeeming love adore.

4 There on a throne (how dazzling bright!)
Th' exalted Saviour shines;
And beams ineffable delight
On all the heavenly minds.

5 There shall the followers of the Lamb Join in immortal songs; And endless honours to his name Employ their tuneful tongues.

304 HYMN 304. L. M. Watts. b or # Bath, Medfield.
Death and heaven.

DO flesh and nature dread to die?
And timorous thoughts our minds
enslave?

But grace can raise our hopes on high, And quell the terrors of the grave.

- 2 What! shall we run to gain the crown, Yet grieve to think the goal so near? Afraid to have our labours done, And finish this important war?
- 3 Do we not dwell in clouds below? And little know the God we love? Why should we like this twilight so, When 'tis all noon in worlds above?
- 4 There shall we see him face to face, There we shall know the great Unknown; And Jesus with his glorious grace Shine in full light around the throne.
- 5 When we put off this fleshly load We're from a thousand mischiefs free Forever present with our God, Where we have long'd and wish'd to be.
- 6 No more shall pride or passion rise, Or envy fret, or malice roar, Or sorrow mourn with down-cast eyes, And sin defile our souls no more.
- 7"Tis best, 'tis infinitely best, To go where tempters cannot come; Where saints and angels, ever blest, Dwell and enjoy their heavenly home.

80 for a visit from my God, To drive my fears of death away; And help me thro' this darksome road, To realms of everlasting day.

305 Hymn 305. C. M. Was Cambridge, Parma, Marlow. Watts.

The everlasting song.

EARTH has engross'd my love too long! Tis time I lift mine eyes

Upward, dear Father, to thy throne, And to my native skies.

2 There the blest Man, my Saviour, sits: The God! how bright he shines! And scatters infinite delights On all the happy minds.

3 Seraphs, with elevated strains, Circle the throne around; And move and charm the starry plains

With an immortal sound. 4 Jesus the Lord their harps employs, Jesus, my love, they sing! Jesus, the life of both our joys,

Sounds sweet from every string. 5 Now let me mount and join their song,

And be an angel too; My heart, my hand, my ear, my tongue, Here's joyful work for you.

6 I would begin the music here, And so my soul should rise; O for some heavenly notes to bear My passions to the skies!

BAPTISM.

Hymn 313. L. M. Gregg. # 313 Portugal, Wells, Hebron.

JESUS! and shall it ever be, Not ashamed of Christ. A mortal man ashamed of thee! Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise, Whose glories shine through endless days!

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far Let evening blush to own a star; He sheds the beams of light divine O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon Let midnight be ashamed of noon: 'Tis midnight with my soul till he, Bright Morning-Star! bid darkness flee.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear friend, On whom my hopes of heaven depend! No; when I blush, be this my shame, That I no more revere his name.

5 Ashamed of Jesus! yes I may, When I've no guilt to wash away, No tear to wipe, no good to crave, No fears to quell, no soul to save.

6 Till then — nor is my boasting vain. Till then, I boast a Saviour slain! And O may this my glory be, That Christ is not ashamed of me!

7 His institutions would I prize, Take up my cross, the shame despise; Dare to defend his noble cause, And yield obedience to his laws.

314 HYMN 314. C. M. Beddome. # Bedford, St. Ann's.

Morning before baptism; or, at the water side. OW great, how solemn is the work Which we attend to-day! Now for a holy, solemn frame, O God, to thee we pray.

IF A continuation of the Hymns on Baptism may be found at the end of this work.

[Note. The Psalms and Hymns of Dr. Watts are in themselves very copious for public worship; and the preceding Supplement has furnished the addition of a rich variety of sacred compositions from other authors, which has rendered this work peculiarly acceptable to the churches. Yet the numerous associations for Christian benevolence which mark the present day, so multiply public and social meetings, and diversify the objects of prayer and praise, that it has been deemed expedient still further to increase the value of this volume by an additional selection. Hymns of Particular Metres have been especially desired, that many pieces of sacred music of distinguished excellence, for which no hymns are now furnished, may be introduced into the public worship. The hymns introduced into the public worship. The hymns here annexed, being placed at the end of the book, can occasion no inconvenience to those who have procured the former editions of Winchell's Watta, as the leaders in worship will omit giving out the additional hymns in the public service, till the congregation are supplied; but they can in the mean time be used with pleasure in social meetings, by giving out the lines. The additional hymns, however, can be procured separately, by congregations who wish immediately to use them. Many of the hymns now added have been abridged, and some variations made in their versification.]

PERFECTIONS OF GOD.

328 HYMN 328. C. P. M. H. More. #

MY God, thy boundless love I praise! How bright on high its glories blaze! How sweetly bloom below!

It streams from thine eternal throne; Through heaven its joys forever run, And o'er the earth they flow.

2 Tis love that paints the purple morn, And bids the clouds, in air upborne, Their genial drops distil; In every vernal beam it glows,

And breathes in every gale that blows, And glides in every rill.

3 But in the gospel it appears

In sweeter, fairer characters,
And charms the ravish'd breast:
There, love immortal leaves the sky,
To wipe the drooping mourner's eye,
And give the weary rest.

4 Then let the love that makes me blest, With cheerful praise inspire my breast, And ardent gratitude;

And all my thoughts and passions tend To thee, my Father and my Friend, My soul's eternal good.

But the fair glories of thy grace
More godlike and unrivall'd shine:
Who is a pardoning God like thee!
Or who has grace so rich and free!
2 In wonder lost, with trembling joy
We take the pardon of our God,
Pardon for crimes of deepest dye,

Sovereign of air, and earth, and sea,
All nature feels thy power, and all
A silent homago pays to thee.

2 Waked by thy hand, the morning sun Pours forth to thee its earlier rays, And spreads thy glories as it climbs; While raptured worlds look up and praise.

3 The moon to the deep shades of night Speaks the mild lustre of thy name; While all the stars that cheer the scene, Thee, the great Lord of light proclaim.

4 And groves, and vales, and rocks, and And every flower, and every tree, [hills, Ten thousand creatures warm with life, Have each a grateful song for thee.

5 But man was form'd to rise to heaven; And, blest with reason's clearer light, He views his Maker through his works, And glows with rapture at the sight.

333 Hymn 333. L. M. Quincy, Otis.

God knows our hearts and ways.

FATHER of spirits! Nature's God!
Our inmost thoughts are known to thee;
Thou, Lord, canst hear each idle word,
And every private action see.

2 Could we on morning's swiftest wings Pursue our flight through trackless air; Or dive beneath deep ocean's springs, Thy presence still would meet us there.

3 In vain may guilt attempt to fly, Conceal'd beneath the pall of night, One glance from thy all-piercing eye Can kindle darkness into light.

4 Search thou our hearts, and there destroy Each evil thought, each secret sin; And fit us for those realms of joy, Where nought impure shall enter in.

334 HYMN 334. C. M. Doddridge.

Divine goodness in moderating afflictions.

REAT Ruler of all nature's frame,
We own thy power divine:
We hear thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are thine.

2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way,

And awed by thy majestic voice
Confusion shall be still.

3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
To them that seek thy face;

335 Hymn 335. L. M. Beddome. #

God wise and gracious.

WAIT, O my soul, thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.
2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
But, though his methods are unknown,

The infant Saviour.

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning, Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid; Star of the east, the horizon adorning, Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold, on his cradle, the dew-drops are shining, Low lies his hed with the beasts of the stall; Angels adore him, in slumber reclining, Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion, Odours of Eden and offerings divine? Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean, Myrth from the förest, and gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation; Vainly with gifts would his favour secure; Richer by far is the heart's adoration, Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Sung aloud Messiah's birth;

Come and worship, Worship Christ, the new-born King.

2 Shepherds, in the fields abiding, Watching o'er their flocks by night, Saw angelic heralds gliding, And beheld the glorious light!

Come, &c.

3 Sages left their contemplations, Brighter visions beam'd from far! Sought the great Desire of Nations, When they saw his natal star: Come, &c.

4 Sinners! bow'd with true repentance, Doom'd by guilt to endless pains, Justice now repeals your sentence, Mercy calls you,—break your chains! Come, &c.

HIS MINISTRY.

346 HYMN 346. L. M. Bowring. #
Addison, Warefield.
The teaching of Jesus.

HOW sweetly flow'd the gospel sound From lips of gentleness and grace; When list'ning thousands gath'ring round, The voice of Jesus fill'd the place!

2 From heaven he came — of heaven he spoke,

To heaven he led his followers' way; Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke, Unveiling one immortal day.

3' Come, wanderers, to my Father's home, Come, all ye weary ones, and rest!' Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come, Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.

4 Decay, then, tenements of dust! Pillars of earthly pride, decay! A nobler mansion waits the just, And Jesus has prepared the way.

RESURRECTION.

347 Hynn 347. 7's. Collyer.
Aberdeen, Sudbury.
Resurrection of Christ.

MORNING breaks upon the tomb!
Jesus dissipates its gloom!
Day of triumph through the skies,
See the glorious Saviour rise!

2 Christians, dry your flowing tears; Chase those unbelieving fears; Look on his deserted grave; Doubt no more his power to save.

3 Ye who are of death afraid, Triumph in the scatter'd shade; Drive your anxious fears away; See the place where Jesus lay!

4 So the rising sun appears, Shedding radiance o'er the spheres; So returning beams of light Chase the terrors of the night.

348 HYMN 348. C. P. M.
Rapture, Kingsbridge.
Christ rising from the grave.

JESUS who died, a world to save, Revives, and rises from the grave, By his almighty power; From sin, and death, and hell set free, He captive leads captivity,

And lives, to die no more.

2 Plenteous he is in truth and grace, He offers pardon to our race, He bids us turn and live: His pard'ning grace for all is free -Transgression, sin, iniquity, He freely doth forgive.

EXALTATION.

Hymn 349. 8.7. Kelly. 349 Tamworth, Bavaria.

Let all the angels of God worship him. ARK, ten thousand harps and voices Sound the note of praise above! Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices: Jesus reigns, the God of love: See, he sits on yonder throne; Jesus rules the world alone.

2 Sing how Jesus came from heaven. How he bore the cross below; How all power to him is given;

How he reigns in glory now: Tis a great and endless theme: O 'tis sweet to sing of him!

3 King of glory, reign forever, Thine an everlasting crown:

Nothing from thy love shall sever Those whom thou hast made thine own! Happy objects of thy grace,

Destined to behold thy face.

4 Saviour, hasten thine appearing; Bring, O bring the glorious day, When, the awful summons hearing, Heaven and earth shall pass away: Then, with golden harps, we'll sing-Glory, glory to our King.'

C. P. M. # Hymn 350. 350 Sherburne, Kingsbridge. Excellencies of Christ celebrated. COULD we speak the matchless worth, O could we sound the glories forth, Which in our Saviour shine, We'd soar and touch the heavenly strings, And vie with Gabriel, while he sings

In notes almost divine.

2 We'd sing the character he bears, And all the forms of love he wears, Exalted on his throne: In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,

We would to everlasting days Make all his glories known.

3 Woll, the delightful day will come, When Christ our Lord will bring us home, And we shall see his face: 24

Then with our Saviour, brother, friend, A blest eternity we'll spend, Triumphant in his grace.

Hymn 351. Wesley. 5. 6. 351

Praise to the Saviour. YE servants of God, Your Master proclaim, And publish abroad His wonderful name: The name all victorious Of Jesus extol; His kingdom is glorious And rules over all.

God ruleth on high, Almighty to save; And still he is nigh, His presence we have: The great congregation His triumph shall sing, Ascribing salvation To Jesus our King.

3 Then let us adore, And give him his right: All glory and power, And wisdom and might, All honour and blessing, With angels above, And thanks never ceasing, For infinite love.

CHARACTERS OF CHRIST.

Hymn 352. C. M. Steele. 352 Dedham, Canterbury.

Jesus Christ the Christian's best Beloved. EAR centre of my best desires, And sovereign of my heart! What sweet delight thy name inspires What bliss thy smiles impart!

2 Too oft, alas! my passions rove In search of meaner charms; Trifles, unworthy of my love, Divide me from thine arms,

3 Ye tempting vanities, depart; I seek my gracious Lord: No balm to heal my aching heart

Can all your joys afford.

4 Come, dearest Lord, with power divine, And drive thy foes away;

O! make my heart, my passions thine, Nor ever let me stray.

353 HYMN 353. C. M. Heginbotham. # Roxbury, Boxford.

The good Shepherd.
TO thee, my Shepherd and my Lord, A grateful song I'll raise;

O! let the feeblest of thy flock Attempt to speak thy praise.

2 But how shall mortal tongues express A subject so divine?

Do justice to so vast a theme, Or praise a love like thine?

And nobler bliss above.

3 My life, my joy, my hope, I owe To this amazing love; Ten thousand thousand comforts here,

4 To thee my trembling spirit flies, With sin and grief oppress't; Thy gentle voice dispels my fears, And lulls my cares to rest.

354 Hymn 354. C. M. Woodland, Gorham.

The guiding Star.

BRIGHT was the guiding star that led,
With mild benignant ray,
The Gentiles to the lowly shed
Where the Redeemer lay.

2 But lo! a brighter, clearer light,
Now points to his abode,
It shines through sin and sorrow's night,
To guide us to our Lord.

3 O haste to follow where it leads; The gracious call obey; Be rugged wilds, or flowery meads, The Christian's destined way.

4 O gladly tread the narrow path, While light and grace are given; Who meekly follow Christ on earth, Shall reign with him in heaven.

355 HYMN 355. L. M. Doddridge. #

Christ, the Sun of righteousness.

To thee, O God, we homage pay,
Source of the light that rules the day;
Who, while he gilds all nature's frame,
Reflects thy rays, and speaks thy name.

2 In louder strains we sing that grace, Which gives the Sun of righteousness; Whose noble light salvation brings, And scatters healing from his wings.

3 Still on our hearts may Jesus shine, With beams of light and love divine; Quicken'd by him, our souls shall live, And cheer'd by him, shall grow and thrive.

4 O may his glories stand confess'd
From north to south, from east to west:
Successful may his gospel run,
Wide as the circuit of the sun.

356 HYMN 356. 7's. # or b Mount Calvary, Evening Hymn. Christ the Rock of Ages.

ROCK of Ages, shelter me, Let me hide myself in thee! Let the water and the blood, From thy wounded side which flow'd, Be of sin the double cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Not the labour of my hands
Can fulfil the law's demands:
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears forever flow;
All for sin could not atone,
Thou must save, and thou alone.
3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyes shall close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,

357 HYMN 357. C. M. Steele. #

See thee on thy judgment throne,

Rock of Ages, shelter me, Let me hide myself in thee.

COME, heavenly love, inspire my song With thine immortal flame; And teach my heart, and teach my tongue, The Saviour's lovely name.

2 The Saviour! O, what endless chams Dwell in that blissful sound! Its influence every fear disarms, And spreads delight around.

3 Here, pardon, life, and joys divine, In rich profusion flow, For guilty rebels, lost in sin, And doom'd to endless wo.

4 O, the rich depths of love divine!
Of bliss, a boundless store!
Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine,—
I cannot wish for more!

5 On thee alone my hope relies; Beneath thy cross I fall; My Lord, my life, my sacrifice, My Saviour, and my all!

DOCTRINES OF THE GOSPEL

358 HYMN 358. L. P.M. Palestine, Eliot.

PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan

Hath taught the rocks the notes of wo: Cease thy complaint—suppress thy grown, And let thy tears forget to flow; Behold the precious balm is found, Atoning blood can heal thy wound.

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppress'd,
Unburden here thy weighty load;
Here find thy refuge and thy rest,
And trust the mercy of thy God;
He is thy Saviour—glorious word!
Forever love and praise the Lord.

359 Hymn 359. C. M. Turner. # Milford, Lanesboro'.

The power of faith.

FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves me from its snares;
Its aid in every duty brings,
And softens all my cares.

2 It takes away the thirst of sin,

And lights the sacred fire
Of love to God and heavenly things,
And feeds the pure desire.

3 The wounded conscience knows its power The healing balm to give: That balm the saddest heart can cheer,

That balm the saddest heart can cheer And make the dying live. 4 Wide it unveils celestial worlds,

Where deathless pleasures reign;
And bids me seek my portion there,
Nor bids me seek in vain.

360 Hymn 360. H. M. Haddam, Hobart.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

THE wisdom of the Lord,
Descending from above,
Invites the sons of men
In language full of love:
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are paths of peace.

2 Her riches are divine;
Her treasures, always full,
Brighter than rubies shine,
And satisfy the soul:

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are paths of peace.

3 In wisdom's pleasant ways
The sun will always shine,
To cheer the soul with peace,
And prospects all divine:
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are paths of peace.

361 Hymn 361. C.P.M. H. More. #

The charms of virtue imperishable.

ALL earthly charms, however dear,
Howe'er they please the eye or ear,
Will quickly fade and fly;
Of earthly glory faint the blaze,
And soon the transitory rays
In endless darkness die.

2 The nobler beauties of the just
Shall never moulder in the dust,
Or know a sad decay;
Their honours time and death defy,
And round the throne of heaven on high
Beam everlasting day.

362 Hymn 362. L. M. Steele.

N vain my roving thoughts would find A portion worthy of the mind; On earth my soul can never rest, For earth can never make me blest.

2 Can lasting happiness be found Where seasons roll their hasty round, And days and hours with rapid flight Sweep cares and pleasures out of sight?

3 Arise, my thoughts, my heart arise, Leave this vain world, and seek the skies; There purest joys forever last, When seasons, days, and hours are past.

4 Come, Lord, thy powerful grace impart, Thy grace can raise my wandering heart To pleasure perfect and sublime, Unmeasured by the wings of time.

INVITATIONS AND PROMISES.

363 Hymn 363. 8.7.4. Hart.
Bethlehem, Franconia.

Come and welcome to Jesus Christ.

OME, ye sinners, poor and wretched,
Come—'tis mercy's welcome hour;

Jesus ready stands to save you, Full of pity, join'd with power:

He is able, He is willing; doubt no more.

2 Let not conscience make you linger, Nor of fitness fondly dream;

All the fitness he requireth
Is to feel your need of him:
This he gives you;

"Tis the Spirit's rising beam.

3 Come, ye weary, heavy laden, Lost and ruin'd by the fall; If you tarry till you're better, You will never come at all:

Not the righteous— Sinners, Jesus came to call.

4 Lo! the incarnate God, ascended, Pleads the merits of his blood; Venture on him, venture wholly, Let no other trust intrude:

None but Jesus Can do helpless sinners good. 364 HYMN 364. 8.7. Montgomery. # Bavaria, Franconia.

Sinners invited to the fountain.

COME to Calvary's holy mountain, Sinners, ruin'd by the fall; Here, a pure and healing fountain Flows to purify the soul, In a full perpetual tide, -Open'd when the Saviour died.

2 Come, in sorrow and contrition, Wounded, impotent, and blind; Here, the guilty, free remission-Here, the troubled, peace may find: Health this fountain will restore; He that drinks shall thirst no more.

Hymn 365. 8.7.4. 365 Greenville, Franconia. The sinner invited and threatened.

HEAR, O sinner! — mercy hails you, Now with sweetest voice she calls; Bids you haste to seek the Saviour, Ere the hand of justice falls; Trust in Jesus,

Tis the voice of mercy calls.

2 Haste! O sinner! to the Saviour, Seek his mercy while you may; Soon the day of grace is over; Soon your life will pass away! Haste to Jesus, You must perish if you stay.

366 Hymn 366. 8.7.4. Allen. Greenville, Bingham. Sinners entreated to hear.

SINNERS, will you scorn the message, Sent in mercy from above! Every sentence -O how tender! Every line is full of love; Listen to it— Every line is full of love.

2 Hear the heralds of the gospel News from Zion's King proclaim, To repenting sinners - 'Pardon, 'Free forgiveness in his name.'

How refreshing! Free forgiveness in his name!

3 Tempted souls, they bring you succour; Fearful hearts, they quell your fears; And with news of consolation Chase away the falling tears:

Tender heralds-

Chase away the falling tears.

Hymn 367. 8.7. 367 Greenville, Homer. The Gospel Proclamation

HARK! the Gospel trumpet's sounding! Sinners, hear the joyful call;

Christ, in pardoning love abounding, Offers liberty to all.

2 Tho' your crimes have reach'd to heaven, And of deepest dye appear; Ask, and they shall be forgiven,

Seek, and you shall find him near. 3 Cast your load of guilt behind you, To the Lord for mercy flee;

Though the strongest fetters bind you, His salvation makes you free.

4 Turn to Jesus, seek salvation, Sound aloud, his gracious name; Glory, honour, adoration!

Christ, the Lord, to save us came.

Hymn 368. C. M. 368 Roxbury, Milford.

Christ's invitation to sinners. THE Saviour calls—let every ear Attend the heavenly sound; Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear; Hope smiles reviving round.

2 For every thirsty, longing heart, Here streams of bounty flow; And life, and health, and bliss impart, To banish mortal wo.

3 Ye sinners, come — 'tis mercy's voice; That gracious voice obey; Tis Jesus calls to heavenly joys-And can you yet delay?

4 Dear Saviour! draw reluctant hearts; To thee let sinners fly, And take the bliss thy love imparts, And drink - and never die.

HYMN 369. C. M. Medley. # 369 Lanesboro', Hopkinton.

Whosoever will, let him come. WHAT amazing words of grace Are in the gospel found, Suited to every sinner's case Who knows the joyful sound.

2 Poor sinful, thirsty, fainting souls, Are freely welcome here; Salvation, like a river, rolls Abundant, free, and clear.

3 Come, then, with all your wants and wounds,

Your every burden bring; Here love, unchanging love, abounds, A deep celestial spring!

4 Millions of sinners, vile as you, Have here found life and peace: Come, then, and prove its virtues too, And drink, adore, and bless.

Hymn 370. 370 Evening Hymn,

Sinners urged to accept the invitation. YE, who in his courts are found, Listening to the joyful sound, Lost and helpless as ye are, Sons of sorrow, sin, and care, Glorify the King of Kings, Take the peace the gospel brings. 2 Turn to Christ your longing eyes, View this bleeding sacrifice; See, in him, your sins forgiven, Pardon, holiness, and heaven; Glorify the King of Kings, Take the peace the Gospel brings.

371

Hymn 371. 7's. Austria, Pilgrim.

At parting. THEN thy mortal life is fled, When the death-shades o'er thee spread,

Thou hast finish'd earth's career, Sinner, where wilt thou appear?

2 When the world has pass'd away. When draws near the judgment day, When the awful trump shall sound, Say, O where wilt thou be found?

3 When the Judge descends in light, Clothed in majesty and might; When the wicked quail with fear, Where, O where wilt thou appear?

4 What shall soothe thy pained heart, When the saints and thou must part? When the good with joy are crown'd, Sinner, where wilt thou be found?

5 While the Holy Ghost is nigh, Quickly to the Saviour fly: Then shall peace thy spirit cheer, Then in heaven shalt thou appear.

372

Hymn 372. 12's.

Scotland.

THE voice of free grace cies, 'Escape to the mountain:'
For Atlam's lost race Christ hath open'd a fountain;
For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression,
slit blood flows most freely in streams of salvation.
Halleuijah to the Lumb, who has died for our partion,
We'll praise him sgain, when we pass over Jordan.

2 Now Jesus, our King, reigns triumphantly glorious; Over sin, death, and hell, he is more than victorious; With shouting proclaim it—O trust in his passion, He saves us most freely—O precious salvation! Halletujah to the Lamb, &c.

3 The Saviour his name now proclaims all victorious. He reigns over all, and his kingdom is glorious: To Jesus we'll join with the great congregation, And triumph, ascribing to him our salvation. Halletulah to the Lamb, &c.

4 With loy shall we stand, when escaped to the shore; With harps in our hands, we'll praise him the more; We'll range the sweet plains on the bank of the river, And sing of salvation forever and ever!

Hallelujah to the Lamb, &c.,

HYMN 373. S. M. # | 373 Shepherd, Zealand.

> Now is the accepted time, Sinners invited. Now is the day of grace; O sinners come without delay,

And seek the Saviour's face. 2 Now is the accepted time,

The Saviour calls to-day; To-morrow it may be too late, Then why should you delay?

Now is the accepted time, The Saviour bids you come; And every promise in his word, Proclaims there yet is room.

Hymn 374. L. M. 374 Alton, Quincy.

One thing necdful. WHY will ye waste on trifling cares The lives divine compassion spares, While in the various range of thought The one thing needful is forgot?

2 Shall God invite you from above, Shall Jesus urge his dying love, Shall troubled conscience give you pain, And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so your eyes will always view The objects which you now pursue; Not so eternity appear, When death's decisive hour is near.

4 Almighty God! thine aid impart To fix conviction on the heart: Thou canst illume the darkest eyes, And make the proudest scorner wise.

HOLY SPIRIT.

375

Hymn 375. S.M. Fountain, Loudon.

'TIS God, the Spirit, leads In paths before unknown: The work to be perform'd is ours; The strength is all his own.

Assisted by his grace, We still pursue our way; And hope at last to reach the prize, Secure in endless day.

Hymn 376. 8.7.4, 376 Bingham, Vesper Hymn. Influences of the Spirit.

WHO but thou, Almighty Spirit, Can the heathen world reclaim? Men may preach, but, till Thou favour, Heathens still will be the same; Mighty Spirit! Witness to the Saviour's name,

2 Thou hast promised by the prophets |3 Glorious light in latter days: Come, and bless bewilder'd nations,

Change our prayers and tears to praise; Promised Spirit!

Round the world diffuse thy rays. 3 All our hopes, and prayers, and labours Must be vain without thine aid:

But thou wilt not disappoint us, All is true that thou hast said: Gracious Spirit!

O'er the world thine influence shed.

377 HYMN 377. L. M. Stennett. # Heber, Ashfield.

Our bodies the temple of the Holy Ghost. A ND will the offended God again Return, and dwell with sinful men? Will he within this bosom raise A living temple to his praise?

2 The joyful news transports my breast; All hail! I cry, thou heavenly Guest! Lift up your heads, ye powers within, And let the King of Glory in.

3 Enter, with all thy heavenly train, Here live, and here forever reign; Thy sceptre o'er my passions sway, Let love command, and I'll obey.

4 Reason and conscience shall submit, And pay their homage at thy feet; To thee I'll consecrate my heart, And bid each rival thence depart.

378 Himn 378. Brown. # L. M. Alton, Vernon.

Prayer for the guidance of the Holy Spirit. COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With light and comfort from above; Be thou our guardian, thou our guide! O'er every thought and step preside. 2 The light of truth to us display, And make us know and choose thy way; Plant holy fear in every heart, That we from God may ne'er depart.

S. M. Hart. Hymn 379. 379 Zealand, Suffield. Prayer for the Spirit.

OME, gracious Spirit, come, Let thy bright beams arise; Dispel the sorrow from our minds, The darkness from our eyes,

Convince us of our sin; Then lead to Jesus' blood; And to our wondering view reveal Th' eternal love of God.

Revive our drooping faith; Our doubts and fears remove; And kindle in our breasts the flame Of never-dying love.

Tis thine to cleanse the heart, To sanctify the soul,

To pour fresh life in every part, And new-create the whole.

380 HYMN 380. L. M. Beddome. # Alton, Shirley.

Teachings of the Spirit. OME, blessed Spirit, source of light, Whose power and grace are unconfined, Dispel the gloomy shades of night, The thicker darkness of the mind.

2 To mine illumined eyes display The glorious truth thy word reveals; Cause me to run the heavenly way; The book unfold, unloose the seals.

3 Thine inward teachings make me know, The mysteries of redeeming love, The emptiness of things below, The excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray, Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad, To show the dangers of the way, And guide my feeble steps to God.

Hymn 381. L. M. Steele. # 381 Alden, Addison.

The influences of the Holy Spirit experienced. DEAR Lord! and shall thy Spirit rest In this polluted heart of mine? Unworthy dwelling! glorious guest! Favour astonishing, divine!

2 Yes, the blest Comforter is nigh! "Tis he sustains my fainting heart; Else would my hopes forever die, And every cheering ray depart.

3 What less than thine almighty word Can raise my heart from earth and dust? And bid me cleave to thee, my Lord, My life, my treasure, and my trust?

4O! let thy Spirit in my heart Forever dwell, thou God of love! And light and heavenly peace impart, Sweet earnest of the joys above!

THE CHRISTIAN.

Hymn 382. C. M. 382 Abridge, Boxford.

The request. HATHER, whate'er of earthly bliss Thy sovereign will denies, Accepted at thy throne of grace, Let this petition rise:

#

2 Give me a calm, a thankful heart, From every murmur free:

The blessings of thy grace impart, And make me live to thee.

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine,
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

383

HYMN 383. C. M. Amherst, Samos. Holy aspiration.

SUN of Righteousness, arise, With healing in thy wing;
To my diseased, my fainting soul,
Life and salvation bring.

2 These clouds of pride and sin dispel, By thine all-piercing beam; Lighten my darken'd eyes with faith, My heart with hope inflame.

3 My mind, by thy all-quickening power, From low desires set free; Unite my roving, scatter'd thoughts, And fix my love on thee.

4 Father, thy long-lost son receive; Saviour, thy purchase own; Blest Comforter, with peace and joy Thy new-made creature crown.

384 HYMN 384. L. M. Addison, Townsend.

The mercy seat.

FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat—
Tis found beneath the mercy seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads;
A place, of all on earth most sweet—
It is the blood-bought mercy seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend; Though sunder'd far — by faith they meet Around one common mercy seat.

4 There, there, on eagle-wings we soar, And sin and sense molest no more, And heav'n comes down, our souls to greet, And glory crowns the mercy seat.

385 Hymn 385. C. M. Cowper. # Woodland, New Bedford.

Retirement.

FAR from the world, O Lord! I flee, From strife and tumult far; From scenes where Satan wages still His most successful war.

2 The calm retreat, the silent shade, With prayer and praise agree; And seem by thy sweet bounty made For those who follow thee.

3 Author and Guardian of my life, Sweet source of light divine, And, dearest of thy sacred names, Mu Seminur, thou art mine!

My Saviour, thou art mine!

4 What thanks I owe thee, and what love!

A boundless, endless store
Shall echo through the realms above,
When time shall be no more.

386 HYMN 386. L. P. M. Raffles. #

Glasgow, Palestine.

Prayer for devine consolation.

ATHER of mercies, God of love,
O! hear a humble suppliant's cry;
Bend from thy lofty seat above,
Thy throne of glorious majesty:
O! deign to listen to my voice,
And bid my drooping heart rejoice.

2I urge no merits of my own,
No worth, to claim thy gracious smile:
And when I bow before the throne,
Dare to converse with God awhile,
Thy name, blest Jesus, is my plea,
Dearest and sweetest name to me!

3 Father of mercies, God of love,
Then hear thy humble suppliant's cry;
Bend from thy lofty seat above,
Thy throne of glorious majesty:
One pardoning word can make me whole,
And soothe the anguish of my soul.

387 Hymn 387. C. M. Steele. #
New Haven, Lanesboro'.
Refuge and strength in the mercy of God.

MY God, 'tis to thy mercy seat
My soul for shelter flies;
'Tis here, I find a safe retreat,
When storms and tempests rise.

2 My cheerful hope can never die, If thou, my God, art near; Thy grace can raise my comforts high, 'And banish every fear.

3 My great protector, and my Lord,
Thy constant aid impart,
And let the kind the gracious wor

And let thy kind, thy gracious word Sustain my trembling heart.

4 O never let my soul remove,
From this divine retreat;
Still let me trust thy power and love,
And dwell beneath thy feet.

388 HYMN 388. C. M. Moore. # Woodland, St. Mark's.

O Thou who dry'st the mourner's tear.

O THOU, who dry'st the mourner's tear, How dark this world would be, If, when deceived and wounded here, We could not fly to Thee. 2 The friends, who in our sunshine live, | 2 Love and grief my heart dividing, When winter comes, are flown; And he, who has but tears to give, Must weep those tears alone.

30! who could bear life's stormy doom, Did not thy wing of love Come brightly wafting through the gloom Our peace-branch from above?

4 Then sorrow, touch'd by thee, grows bright

With more than rapture's ray As darkness shows us worlds of light We never saw by day.

389

Hymn 389. Mercy.

I would not live always.

MOULD not live always, thus fetter'd by sin; Temptation without, and corruption within; E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears, And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.

2 I would not live always; no-welcome the tomb, Since Jesus hath lain there, I'll enter its gloom; There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise, To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

3 O, who would live always, away from his God, Away from you heaven, that blissful abode; Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,

And the noon-tide of glory eternally reigns?-4 There the saints of all ages in harmony meet, Their Saviour and brethren, transported to greet; While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll, And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

390 Hymn 390. C. M. Toplady. # Lanesboro', Roxbury. The sweetness of resting on God.

WHEN languor and disease invade This trembling house of clay, Tis sweet to look beyond our cage, And long to soar away.

2 Sweet to look inward, and attend The whispers of his love; Sweet to look upward to the throne Where Jesus pleads above.

3 Sweet in the confidence of faith. To trust thy truth divine; Sweet to lie passive in thy hands, And have no will but thine.

4 If such the sweetness of the streams, What will that fountain be. Where saints and angels draw their bliss From thee, my God, from thee!

Hymn 391. 8.7. Robinson. # 391 Homer, Suppliant. Visit to the cross.

WEET the moments, rich in blessing, Which before the cross I spend; Life, and health, and peace possessing From the sinner's dying friend.

Gazing here I'd spend my breath; Constant still in faith abiding Life deriving from his death.

3 Lord, in ceaseless contemplation, Fix my heart and eyes on thee, Till I taste thy whole salvation, And unveil'd thy glories see!

392 Hymn 392. C. M. Bowring. # Milford, Barby. Sincere worship.

THE offerings which to Thee arise, Of mingled praise and prayer, Are but a worthless sacrifice, Unless the heart be there.

20! may thy Spirit warm my heart To gratitude and praise; And e'en to earth's low vale impart The rapture of the skies!

393 Hymn 393. L. M. Gibbons. # Wakefield, Alton. Rising to God.

NOW let our souls, on wings sublime, Rise from the vanities of time; Draw back the parting veil, and see The glories of eternity.

2 Born by a new, celestial birth, Why should we grovel here on carth? Why grasp at transitory toys, So near to heaven's eternal joys?

3 Shall aught beguile us on the road When we are walking back to God? For strangers into life we come, And dying is but going home.

4 To dwell with God, to feel his love, Is the full heaven enjoy'd above; And the sweet expectation now Is the young dawn of heaven below.

394 Hymn 394. C. P. M. Cowper. # Kingsbridge, Sherburne. Resignation.

LORD! in sorrow, I resign My soul to that dear hand of thine, Without reserve or fear; That hand shall wipe my streaming eyes, Or into smiles of glad surprise Transform the falling tear.

2 My sole possession is thy love; In earth beneath, or heaven above, I have no other store;

For this with fervent suit I pray, And importune thee night and day, And ask for nothing more.

Ħ

395 Hymn 395. C. M. Heginbotham. # 398 Woodland, Milford.

Good hope through grace.

COME, humble souls; ye mourners,

And wipe away your tears;
Adieu to all your sad complaints,
Your sorrows and your fears.

2 Come, shout aloud the Father's grace, The Saviour's dying love;

Soon you shall sing the glorious theme In loftier strains, above.

3 God, the eternal, mighty God,
To dearer names descends;
Calls you his treasure and his joy,
His children and his friends.

4 My Father, God! and may these lips Pronounce a name so dear? Not thus could heaven's sweet harmony Delight my listening ear.

396 Hymn 396. C. P. M. Kingsbridge, Sherburne.

The Christian's peace.

HOW peaceful is the Christian's breast!
Though by distressing cares oppress'd,
How bright his prospects shine!
If comforts fly, or friends decay,
Or clouds obstruct the cheering ray
Which lights him on his heavenly way,
He sees the hand divine.

2 He knows, in heaven there dwells a friend, Who lives, though life and time shall end, And nature's reign be o'er; Whose smiles the weary soul shall share; Whose love shall crown the pilgrim there; Nor aught of anguish, aught of care Disturb his passions more.

397 HYMN 397. C. M. Steele. :
Mentz, Norway.
Absence from God.

O LORD, thy tender mercy hears Contrition's humble sigh; Thy hand, indulgent, wipes the tears From sorrow's weeping eye.

2 See! low before thy throne of grace, A sinful wanderer mourn:

Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said, Return?

30! shine on this benighted heart— With beams of mercy shine; And let thy healing voice impart A taste of joys divine.

4 Thy presence only can bestow
Delights which never cloy:
Be this my solace here below,
And my eternal joy.

398 Hymn 398. 8.6. Woodland, Lanesboro.

Mait on the Lord: be of good courage.

THO' clouds arise, and dim the sight,
And darkest storms impend,
Our God will yet restore the light;

Our God will yet restore the light; He'll make the rising moment bright, And show himself our friend.

2 What though a thousand foes invade, And aim to break our peace; Let but our prayers to him be made, He'll swiftly bring resistless aid, And make the tumult cease.

3 Then let us yield no more to grief; A gracious God will rise; On wings of love he'll bring relief, Exceed our hope, assuage our grief, And dry our weeping eyes.

399 Hymn 399. L. M. Doddridge. #

Retirement and meditation.

O THOU, great God, whose piercing eye Distinctly marks each deep recess; In these sequester'd hours draw nigh, And with thy presence fill the place.

2 Through all the windings of my heart, My search let heavenly wisdom guide, And still its radiant beams impart, Till all be search'd and purified.

3 Then, with the visits of thy love, Vouchsafe my inmost soul to cheer: Till every grace shall join to prove That God has fix'd his dwelling there.

400 HYMN 400. C. P. M. Sherburne, Switzerland.

Trusting in Christ for pardon.

O THOU, that hear'st the prayer of faith,
Wilt thou not save a soul from death,
That casts itself on thee?

I have no refuge of my own,
But fly to what my Lord hath done
And suffer'd once for me.

3 Lord, save me from eternal death, The Spirit of adoption breathe, His consolations send: By Him some word of life impart.

By Him some word of life impart, And sweetly whisper to my heart, 'Thy Maker is thy friend.'

4 The king of terrors then would be A welcome messenger to me, To bid me come away:

Unclogg'd by earth, or earthly things, I'd mount, I'd fly, with eager wings,
To everlasting day.

HYMN 401. C. M. Steele. 401 Broomsgrove, Amherst.

Longing after unseln pleasures.

O LET our thoughts and wishes fly, Above these gloomy shades, To those bright worlds beyond the sky Which sorrow ne'er invades.

2 There joys unseen by mortal eyes Or reason's feeble ray,

In ever-blooming prospect rise, Unconscious of decay.

3 Lord, send a beam of light divine, To guide our upward aim; With one reviving touch of thine

Our languid hearts inflame. 4 Then swift on faith's sublimest wing Our ardent souls shall rise

To those bright scenes, where pleasures Immortal in the skies. spring

402 Hymn 402. H. M. Haddam.

Mourning over aeparted comforts.

WHERE is my Saviour now, Whose smiles I once possess'd? Till he return, I bow, By heaviest grief oppress'd: My days of happiness are gone, And I am left to weep alone.

- 2 Where can the mourner go, And tell his tale of grief? Ah! who can soothe his wo, And give him sweet relief? Earth cannot heal the wounded breast, Or give the troubled sinner rest.
- Jesus, thy smiles impart; My dearest Lord, return, And heal my wounded heart, And bid me cease to mourn: Then shall this night of sorrow flee, And peace and heaven be found in thee.

403 HYMN 403. C. P. M. Newton. # Sherburne, Rapture. The enchantment dissolved.

BLINDED in youth, by Satan's arts, The world, to our unpractised hearts, A flattering prospect shows; Our fancy forms a thousand schemes Of gay delights, and golden dreams, And undisturb'd repose.

2 But while we listen with surprise, The charm dissolves, the vision dies,-'Tis but enchanted ground: And if the Lord our spirit touch, The world, which promised us so much, A wilderness is found.

3 At first we start, and feel distress'd, Convinced we never can have rest In such a barren place; But He, whose mercy breaks the charm, Reveals his own almighty arm, And bids us seek his face.

4 Then we begin to live indeed, When from our sin and bondage freed, By this beloved Friend; We follow him from day to day, Assured of grace through all the way, And glory at the end.

404 HYMN 404. C. P. M. Steele. # Kingsbridge, Sherburne.

The happy man. HAPPY the man of heavenly birth, Beyond the proudest boast of earth, Whom grace divine sustains: To scenes of living verdure led, Plenty and peace their blessings spread, And not a thought complains.

2 Conducted by a gracious guide Where streams of sweet refreshment glide, And fed with food divine; God is the guardian of his rest, Beneath his smile, serenely blest, He bids his soul recline.

3 The constant bounty of his Lord, With rich provision spreads his board, Amid repining foes: While peace and gladness on his head Their sweetest odours hourly shed, His cup with bliss o'erflows:

4 O happy portion! lot divine! Thus shall indulgent goodness shine On all his future days; Forever near his guardian God Shall mercy fix his blest abode, And tune his soul to praise.

Hymn 405. L. M. Steele. 405 Nazareth, Townsend.

Desiring assurance of the divine favour. IN vain the world's alluring smile Would my unwary heart beguile: Deluding world! its brightest day, Dream of a moment, flits away.

2 To nobler bliss my soul aspires; Come, Lord, and fill these vast desires With power, and light, and love divine: O! speak, and tell me thou art mine.

3 The blissful word, with joy replete, Shall bid my gloomy fears retreat; And heaven-born hope, serenely bright, Illume and cheer my darkest night.

4 So shall my joyful spirit rise On wings of faith, above the skies; Then dwell forever near thy throne, In joys to mortal thought unknown.

406 Hymn 406. L. M. Seward.

Earth unsatisfying.

COME, blessed Jesus, quickly come, And mark the bright, celestial way; Within my breast erect thy throne, Nor let me faint through long delay.

- 2 I'm weary of these earthly toys,— The world, and all its flattering charms; My heart aspires to purer joys, And Christ alone my bosom warms.
- 3 Unmov'd by all their charms, I view These vain, these transitory scenes; Since grace has form'd my heart anew, 2 And waked me from delusive dreams.
- 4 My hope, my treasure, and my rest, My heart, my all is fix'd above; The kingdoms of the world possess'd Are vain without my Saviour's love.

Hymn 407. 7's. Cennick. 407 German Hymn, Emmons.

Rejoicing in hope. CHILDREN of the heavenly King, As ye journey, sweetly sing; Sing your Saviour's worthy praise, Glorious in his works and ways.

- 2 Ye are travelling home to God, In the way the fathers trod; They are happy now, and ye Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest! You on Jesus' throne shall rest; There your seat is now prepared,-There your kingdom and reward.
- 4 Lord! submissive make us go, Gladly leaving all below; Only thou our leader be, And we still will follow thee!

408 Hymn 408. S. M. Heath. Proclamation, Chester.

Watch and pray.

MY soul, be on thy guard, Ten thousand foes arise And hosts of sins are pressing hard, To draw thee from the skies.

2 O watch, and fight, and pray, The battle ne'er give o'er;

- Renew it boldly every day, And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the victory won, Nor once at ease sit down; Thy arduous work will not be done "Till thou hast got thy crown.
- Fight on, my soul, till death Shall bring thee to thy God; He'll take thee, at thy parting breath, Up to his blest abode.

409 HYMN 409. S. M. Toplady. *

Weak believers encouraged.

YOUR harps, ye trembling saints, Down from the willows take: Loud to the praise of love divine, Bid every string awake.

- Though in a foreign land, We are not far from home; And nearer to our house above We every moment come.
- His grace will to the end Stronger and brighter shine; Nor present things, nor things to come Shall quench the love divine.

Hymn 410. L. M. Steele. 410 Warefield, Brooklyn. Backslider's return.

REATE, O God, my powers anew. Make my whole heart sincere and true; O cast me not in wrath away, But shine with thy enlivening ray.

- 2 Restore thy favour, bliss divine! Those heavenly joys that once were mine; Let thy good Spirit, kind and free, Uphold and guide my steps to thee.
- 3 Since, O my Saviour, grace is thine, On me let cheering mercy shine; Glad offerings then prepared shall be, And each oblation rise to thee.

Hymn 411. C. M. 411 Broomsgrove, Hopkinton.

O that I were as in months past. A GAIN, indulgent Lord, return, With thine all-quickening grace, To animate my sluggish soul, And speed me in my race.

2 Awake my love, my faith, my hope, My fortitude and joy: Vain world, be gone, let things above My happy thoughts employ.

3 Whilst Thee, my Saviour, and my God, | 3 O Lord, I cast my care on Thee I would forever own; Drive each rebellious, rival lust,

Each traitor, from the throne.

4 Instruct my mind, my will subdue, To heaven my passions raise; And let my life forever be Devoted to thy praise.

HYMN 412. P. M. Cennick. 412 Chaplin.

The pilgrim's song. RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy better portion trace; Rise from transitory things,

Towards heaven, thy native place. Sun and moon, and stars decay, Time shall soon this earth remove: Rise, my soul, and haste away

To seats prepared above. 2 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn, Press onward to the prize; Soon your Saviour will return Triumphant in the skies: Yet a season, and you know Happy entrance will be given,

All your sorrows left below, And earth exchanged for heaven.

HYMN 413. L. M. Steele. 413 Alden, Palestine. Gratitude and obedience.

ORD, when my thoughts delighted TOVE

Amid the wonders of thy love; Sweet hope revives my drooping heart, And bids invading fears depart.

2 Guilty and weak, to Thee I fly, On thy atoning blood rely, And on thy righteousness depend, My Lord, my Saviour, and my Friend. 3 Be all my heart, be all my days,

Devoted to thy single praise! And let my glad obedience prove How much I owe, how much I love.

414 Hymn 414. C. M. Ryland. # Hopkinton, Cohasset. Delight in God.

O LORD! I would delight in Thee, And on thy care depend; To Thee in every trouble flee, -My best, my only friend.

2 When all created streams are dried, Thy fulness is the same; May I with this be satisfied,

And glory in thy name!

I triumph and adore:

Henceforth, my great concern shall be To love and please. Thee more.

Hymn 415. L. M. 415 Warefield, Stoddard. Sanctification prayed for.

HY healing Spirit, Lord, impart-Refine, and sanctify my heart; And with reflected beauty fair Impress thy sacred image there.

20, train me for the seats of rest, And in thy presence make me blest; My soul shall see thy lovely face, And sing the triumphs of thy grace.

416 Hymn 416. 10. 11. Newton. # Cheshunt.

I will trust and not be afraid.

BEGONE, unbelief! my Saviour is near, D And for my relief will surely appear: Though cisterns be broken, and creatures all fail, The word He has spoken shall surely prevail. 2 His love, in time past, forbids me to think He'll leave me at last in trouble to sink; Each sweet Ebenezer I have in review, Confirms his good pleasure to help me quite through. 3 Since all that I meet shall work for my good, The bitter is sweet, the med'cine is food Though painful at present, 'twill cease before long And then, O how pleasant the conqueror's song!

417 HYMN 417. S. M. Doddridge. # Suffield, Millbury.

The watchful Christian. YE servants of the Lord, Each in his office wait, Observant of his heavenly word,

And watchful at his gate. 2 O happy servant he, In such a posture found; He shall his Lord with rapture see,

And be with honour crown'd. Christ shall the banquet spread With his own royal hand, And raise that favourite servant's head Amidst the angelic band.

HYMN 418. C. M. Steele. # Lanesboro', Roxbury. 418

Trust in God. MY God, my Father, blissful name! May I with sweet assurance claim A portion so divine!

2 This only can my fears control, And bid my sorrows fly; What harm can ever reach my soul Beneath my Father's eye?

3 Whate'er thy providence denies, I calmly would resign,

For thou art good, and just, and wise; O bend my will to thine.

4 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains, O give me strength to bear; And let me know my Father reigns, And trust his tender care.

419 Hymn 419. L. M. Oberlin. # Quincy, Otis.

God the source of hope.

LORD, thy heavenly grace impart, And fix my frail, inconstant heart. Henceforth my chief desire shall be To dedicate myself to Thee.

2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ, One thought shall fill my soul with joy; That silent, secret thought shall be, That all my hopes are fix'd on Thee.

3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space, Thy presence, Lord, fills every place, And, wheresoe'er my lot may be, Still shall my spirit cleave to Thee.

4 Renouncing every worldly thing, And safe beneath thy spreading wing, My sweetest thought henceforth shall be, That all I want, I find in Thee.

420

Hymn 420. P. M. Chaplin.

Resignation. AST, with all my cares, on thee, O my redeeming Lord, I shall thy salvation see According to the word: Kindest help shall I receive:-Saviour in distresses past, Do not now thy servant leave,

But bring me through at last. 2 To thy blessed will resign'd, And stay'd on that alone,

I thy perfect strength shall find, Thy faithful mercies own; Compass'd round with songs of praise, Lord, to thee my all I'll give; Spread thy miracles of grace,

And to thy glory live.

WORSHIP.

Hymn 421. 7's. Turner. 421 Nelson, Evening Hymn. How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of Hosts. ORD of Hosts, how lovely fair, E'en on earth thy temples are! Much of heaven, and much of thee.

2 From thy gracious presence flows Bliss that softens all our woes; While thy Spirit's holy fire Warms our hearts with pure desire.

3 Here, we supplicate thy throne; Here, thy pardoning grace is known; Here, we learn thy rightcous ways, Taste thy love, and sing thy praise.

4 Thus with sacred songs of joy We the happy hours employ; Love, and long to love thee more, Till from earth to heaven we soar.

422

Hymn 422. S. M. Fountain, Zealand.

Morning prayer meetings.

HOW sweet the melting lay, Which breaks upon the ear, When at the hour of rising day, Christians unite in prayer!

May breezes waft our cries Up to Jehovah's throne;

O Saviour, listen to our sighs, And send thy blessing down.

Hymn 423. 8.7. Homer, Greenville.

A blessing sought.

ORD of nature, source of goodness, View with love thy world below; Guide our erring footsteps rightly, Through these scenes of guilt and wo.

2 Grant thy Spirit; by thy kindness Let our sins be all forgiven; Heal our wounds; dispel our darkness; Then, conduct us safe to heaven.

424 HYMN 424. C. M. Jervis. Victory, Stamford.

Homage and devotion.

WITH sacred joy we lift our eyes To those bright realms above, That glorious temple in the skies, Where dwells eternal love.

2 Before the awful throne we bow Of heaven's Almighty King: Here we present the solemn vow, And hymns of praise we sing.

3 While in thy house of prayer we kneel With trust and holy fear,

Thy mercy and thy truth reveal, And lend a gracious ear.

4 With fervour teach our hearts to pray, And tune our lips to sing; Nor from thy presence cast away The sacrifice we bring.

425 HYMN 425. L. M. Coueper. #

Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

JESUS, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat:
Where'er they seek thee thou art found,
And every place is hallow'd ground.

2 For thou, within no walls confined, Inhabitest the humble mind; Such ever bring thee where they come, And going, take thee to their home.

3 Here may we prove the power of prayer, To strengthen faith, and sweeten care; To teach our faint desires to rise, And bring all heaven before our eyes.

426 HYMN 426. C. P. M.
Rapture, Sherburne.
Anticipation of Sabbath.

WEET day of rest! for thee I wait,
Emblem and earnest of a state
Where saints are fully blest!
For thee I look, for thee I sigh,
I count the days till thou art nigh,
Sweet day of sacred rest!

2 O that it might be always so; My songs no interruption know, Till death shall seal my tongue; In heaven a nobler strain I'll raise, And rest from every work but praise; My heaven an endless song.

427 HYMN 427. 7's. Newton. Pilgrim, Evening Hymn. Subbath morning.

SAFELY through another week God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in his courts to-day: Day of all the week the best; Emblem of eternal rest!

2 While we seek supplies of grace, Through the dear Redeemer's name; Show thy reconciled face— Take away our sin and shame: From our worldly cares set free, May we lest this day in thee.

3 Here we come, thy name to praise; Let us feel thy presence near: May thy glory meet our eyes, While we in thy house appear: Here afford us, Lord, a taste Of our everlasting feast.

4 May the gospel's joyful sound Conquer sinners, comfort saints, Make the fruits of grace abound, Bring relief from all complaints: Thus let all our Sabbaths prove, Till we join the church above.

428 Hymn 428. H. M. Hayward. #

WELCOME, delightful morn, Sweet day of sacred rest, I hail thy kind return; Lord, make these moments blest. From low desires and fleeting toys, I soar to reach immortal joys.

Now may the King descend,
And fill his throne of grace;
Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face:
Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless the sacred hours:
Then shall my soul new life obtain,
Nor Sabbaths be indulged in vain.

429 Hymn 429. L. P. M. Brooklyn, St. Hellen's.

Engagements of the Christian Sabbath.

CREAT God, this sacred day of thine Demands our souls' collected powers:
May we employ in work divine
These solemn, these devoted hours:
O may our souls adoring own
The grace, which calls us to thy throne.

2 The word of life dispensed to-day, Invites us to a heavenly feast; May every ear the call obey, Be every heart a humble guest: O bid the wretched sons of need On soul-reviving dainties feed.

3 Thy Spirit's powerful aid impart; O may thy word, with life divine, Engage the ear and warm the heart; Then shall the day indeed be thine: Then shall our souls adoring own The grace which calls us to thy throne.

430 Hymn 430. L. M. Warefield, Wakefield.

Sabbath morning.

COME, dearest Lord, and bless this day, Come, bear our thoughts from earth away!

Now let our noblest passions rise With ardour to their native skies.

2 Come, Holy Spirit, all divine, With rays of light upon us shine; And let our waiting souls be blest, On this sweet day of sacred rest.

3 Then, when our Sabbaths here are o'er,
And we arrive on Canaan's shore
With all the ransom'd, we shall spend
A Sabbath, which shall never end.

431

HYMN 431. L. P. M. Eaton, Melville.
Sabhath morning.

AIL, holy morning! Look, my soul, Far back through ages of the past; See, the blest Saviour bursts the tomb—He the GREAT FIRST and he the LAST. Shout to the Lamb, who once was slain; Who died for thee, yet lives again.

2 Hail, holy morning! Look, my soul, See where the risen Jesus lay; Think o'er his groans, behold his side— This is his resurrection day! Yes, and for thee his tears were shed— For thee he toil'd—for thee he bled!

432

HYMN 432. 8.7.4. Bethlehem, Greenville.

LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing, Fill our hearts with joy and peace, Let us each, thy love possessing, Triumph in redeeming grace:
O refresh us!

Travelling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration
For the gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound:
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

433 HYMN 433. H. M. Newton. # Zion, Haddam.
After Sermon.

ON what has now been sown, Thy blessing, Lord, bestow; The power is thine alone To make it spring and grow: Do thou the gracious harvest raise, And thou, alone, shalt have the praise.

434 HYMN 434. 8's. Hogg. $
Greenville, Harmonia, omit lat note.

Blessed be his glorious name forever.

BLESSED be thy name forever!
Thou of life the glorious giver:
Thou canst guard thy creatures, sleeping,
Heal the heart long broke with weeping.

2 Thou who slumberest not, nor sleepest, Blest are they thou kindly keepest: Thou of every good the giver, Blessed be thy name forever!

435 Hymn 435. S. M. Loudon, Lisbon.

At dismission.

ATHER, ere we depart,
Send thy good Spirit down;
Let him reside in every heart,
And bless the seed that's sown.

Fountain of endless love!
Who sent thy Son to die;
Let thy good Spirit from above
Enlighten and apply.

THE CHURCH. LORD'S SUPPER.

436 Hymn 436. L. M. Krishnu. #

O THOU, my soul, forget no more The Friend who all thy sorrows bore; Let every idol be forgot; But, O my soul, forget Him not.

2 Renounce thy works and wavs, with grief, And fly to this divine relief; Nor Him forget, who left his throne And for thy life gave up his own.

3 Infinite truth and mercy shine
In Him, and he himself is thine:
And canst thou then, with sin beset,
Such charms, such matchless charms
forget?

40! no—till life itself depart,
His name shall cheer and warm my heart;
And lisping this, from earth I'll rise,
And join the chorus of the skies.

437 Hymn 437. C. M. Norway, Bray.

Love of Christ celebrated.

To our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song!
O may his love, immortal flame!
Tune every heart and tongue.

2 His love, what mortal thought can reach '
What mortal tongue display!
Imagination's utmost stratch

Imagination's utmost stretch In wonder dies away.

3 Dear Lord, while we adoring pay Our humble thanks to thee, May every heart with rapture say, 'The Saviour died for me!'

Fill every heart and tongue, Till strangers love thy charming name, And join the sacred song.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

HYMN 438. 7.6. Heber. 438 Romaine, Millenium.

Missionary hymn. ROM Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand, Where Afric's sunny fountains Roll down their golden sand; From many an ancient river, From many a palmy plain, They call us, to deliver Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle, Though every prospect pleases, And only man is vile; In vain with lavish kindness The gifts of God are strown: The heathen, in his blindness, Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted By wisdom from on high, Shall we to man benighted The light of life deny? Salvation! O! salvation! The joyful sound proclaim; Till earth's remotest nation

Has learnt Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story, And you, ye waters, roll, Till, like a sea of glory, It spreads from pole to pole; Till o'er our ransom'd nature The Lamb for sinners slain, Redeemer, King, Creator, In bliss returns to reign.

HYMN 439. C. P. M. 439# Kingsbridge, Rapture. The triumphs of Messiah.

HE Saviour comes in triumph now; Before him see the mountains bow, And all the valleys rise: He comes with majesty and grace, To sanctify the human race. And raise them to the skies.

2 We'll aid thy triumphs, mighty King! The glories of thy cross we'll sing, And shout salvation round; Till every nation, every land, From Greenland's shore to Afric's strand Shall echo back the sound.

40 may the sweet, the blissful theme, 3 Let earth commence the lofty praise; Let heaven prolong the enraptured lays; Swell every tuneful lyre: Bright seraphs, chant the immortal song, And pour the bounding notes along, From heaven's eternal choir.

> HYMN 440. 8.7.4. Kelly. 440 Bethlehem, Tamworth.

Cry aloud, spare not. MEN of God, go take your stations, Darkness reigns throughout the earth; Go, proclaim among the nations Joyful news of heavenly birth; Bear the tidings Of the Saviour's matchless worth.

2 Of his Gospel not ashamed, As 'the power of God to save,' Go, where Christ was never named, Publish freedom to the slave! Blessed freedom! Such as Zion's children have.

3 When exposed to fearful dangers, Jesus will his own defend; Borne afar 'midst foes and strangers, Jesus will appear your friend, And his presence Shall be with you to the end.

441 Hymn 441. 8.7.4. Cotteril. # Tamworth, Bethlehem.

False religions supplanted by Christianity. ER the realms of pagan darkness Let the eye of pity gaze; See the kindreds of the people Lost in sin's bewildering maze: Darkness brooding O'er the face of all the earth.

2 Light of them that sit in darkness! Rise and shine—thy blessings bring: Light to lighten all the Gentiles! Rise with healing in thy wing;

To thy brightness Let all kings and nations come.

Hymn 442. L. M. 442 Warefield, Ashfield.

Prevalence of Christianity promised. THOUGH now the nations sit beneath.
The darkness of o'erspreading death, God will arise with light divine, On Zion's holy towers to shine.

2 That light shall glance on distant lands, And heathen tribes, in joyful bands, Come with exulting haste to prove The power and greatness of his love.

3 Lord, spread the triumphs of thy grace; Let truth, and righteousness, and peace, In mild and lovely forms, display The glories of the latter day.

443 Hymn 443. 8.7.4.
Bingham, Bethlehem.

Rejoicing in the progress of Christ's kingdom.

YES, we trust the day is breaking,
Joyful times are near at hand;
God, the mighty God, is speaking,
By his word in every land;
When he chooses,
Darkness flies at his command.

2 Let us hail the joyful season;

Let us hail the rising ray;
When the Lord appears, with reason
We expect a glorious day;

At his presence Gloom and darkness fly away.

3 While the foe becomes more daring; While he enters like a flood; God, the Saviour, is preparing

Means to spread his truth abroad: Every language Soon shall tell the love of God.

HYMN 444. L. M.
Ashfield, Alfreton.
Departure of missionaries.

YE Christian heroes, go, proclaim Salvation in Immanuel's name; To distant climes the tidings bear, And plant the Rose of Sharon there.

2 He'll shield you with a wall of fire, With holy zeal your hearts inspire; Bid raging winds their fury cease, And calm the savage breast to peace.

3 And when our labours all are o'er, Then shall we meet to part no more; Meet, with the blood-bought throng to fall, And crown our Jesus,—Lord of all.

445 HYMN 445. 8. 7. 4. S. F. Smith. #
Greenville, Franconia.

Missionary hymn.

YES, my native land, I love thee, All thy scenes I love them well, Friends, connexions, happy country! Can I bid you all farewell? Can I leave you, Far in heathen lands to dwell?

2 Home! thy joys are passing lovely;
Joys no stranger-heart can tell!
Happy home! 'tis sure I love thee!
Can I—can I say—Farewell?
Can I leave thee,
Far in boother lands to dwell?

Far in heathen lands to dwell?

25*

3 Scenes of sacred peace and pleasure, Holy days and Sabbath-bell, Richest, brightest, sweetest treasure! Can I say a last farewell? Can I leave you,

Far in heathen lands to dwell?

4 Yes! I hasten from you gladly,
From the scenes I loved so well!
Far away, ye billows, bear me;
Lovely native land, farewell!
Pleased I leave thee,
Far in heathen lands to dwell.

Far in heathen lands to dwell. 5 In the deserts let me labour.

On the mountains let me tell, How he died—the blessed Saviour— To redeem a world from hell! Let me hasten,

Far in heathen lands to dwell.

6 Bear me on, thou restless ocean;

Let the winds my canvass swell—
Heaves my heart with warm emotion,
While I go for benea to dwell

While I go far hence to dwell. Glad I bid thee,

Native land! — Farewell — Farewell!

446 HYMN 446. H. M. Burder. #

Missionary hymn.

RISE, Sun of Glory, rise!
And chase those shades of night,
Which now obscure the skies,
And hide thy sacred light.

O! chase those dismal shades away, And bring the bright millennial day.

2 Behold, how heathen dwell
In gloominess profound,
Where sin, and death, and hell
Spread their dark horrors round;
Behold, and chase that gloom away,
And shed the bright millennial day.

3 Why, Saviour! why conceal
Thy beams of grace and love?
Those heavenly rays reveal,
Which cheer the saints above!

Those rays shall chase the night away
And give the bright millennial day.

4 Yet, Jesus, should thy will

Defer that sacred morn, Hear our petition still, Nor leave the world forlorn: Jesus! till that resplendent day, Shine on our souls with powerful ray.

447 HYMN 447. C. M. Samos, Broomsgrove.

Prayer for missionaries, and the success of missionary undertakings.

ORD, charge the waves to bear our friends

In safety o'er the deep: Let the rough tempest speed their way, Or bid its fury sleep.

2 Whene'er they preach the Saviour's Beneath the cooling shade, [word Let the poor heathen feel its power,

And grace their souls pervade.
3 From sea to sea, from shore to shore,
May Jesus be ador'd;

And earth, with all her millions, shout Hosannas to the Lord.

448 HYMN 448. H. M. Marshman. # Keene, Haddam. A blessing sought.

GRACIOUS Saviour, deign To smile upon thy word; Let sinners now obtain Salvation from the Lord, Nor let its growing conquests stay, Till earth exult to own its sway.

449 Hymn 449. 7's. Sudbury, Aberdeen.

Prayer for the spread of the Gospel.

ISE, triumphant Saviour, rise!

Now display thy boundless power;

Bid the earth, and seas, and skics

Thy all-glorious name adore.

2 Now thine ancient word fulfil, Through the earth extend thy sway; Let the nations know thy will, Let them all thy Son obey.

30! that heathen lands may know Thee, their Saviour, God, and Friend; All to Thee for succour flow, All on Thee for help depend.

4 Grant thy servants great success
While they wield the Gospel sword,
All their earnest labours bless;
Send thy Spirit with thy word.

450 HYMN 450. L. M. Truro, Heber.

Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord.

ARM of the Lord, awake! awake!
Put on thy strength, the nations shake!

And let the world adoring see, Triumphs of mercy wrought by thee.

2 Let Zion's time of favour come, O! bring the tribes of Israel home, And let our wondering eyes behold Gentiles and Jews in Jesus' fold.

3 Almighty God! thy grace proclaim, In every clime of every name! Let adverse powers before thee fall, And crown the Saviour, Lord of all!

451 HYMN 451. L. M. Slinn.
Ellenthorpe, Quincy.
Prayer for divine aid.

A RISE, in all thy splendour, Lord, Let power attend thy gracious word; Unveil the beauties of thy face, And show the glories of thy grace. 2 Send forth thy messengers of peace, Make Satan's reign and empire cease. Let thy salvation, Lord, be known,

That all the world thy power may own.

452 HYMN 452. 8.7.4.
Bingham, Vesper Hymn.
Spread of the Gospel.

NOW we hail the happy dawning Of the Gospel's glorious light, May it take the wings of morning, And dispel the shades of night! Blessed Saviour,

Let our eyes behold the sight.

2 Let the world, O Lord, adore thee— Universal be thy fame; Kings and subjects fall before thee, And extol thy matchless name;

All ascribing Endless praises to the Lamb.

453 HYMN 453. L. M. #
Duke Street, Warefield.
On receiving favourable intelligence from foreign

GREAT God! with wonder and with joy,
Thy mercies all our souls employ;

And to thy name, thy grace, we raise Our grateful songs, our loudest prage. 2 Still shall our distant brethren share Our cordial love, our fervent prayer: Lord, with thy choicest mercies bless,

And crown their mission with success!

30 may thy glory rise, and smile On every distant heathen isle: Let Satan and his kingdom fall, And Jesus Christ be all in all.

454 HYMN 454. L. M. Alton, Quincy.

Prayer for the spread of the Gospel.

SOVEREIGN of worlds! display thy power,

Be this thy Zion's favour'd hour; Bid the bright morning star arise, And point the nations to the skies.

2 Speak! and the world shall hear thy voice;

Speak! and the desert shall rejoice; Scatter the gloom of heathen night, And bid all nations hail the light.

455

HYMN 455. L. M. Edgarton, Arnheim.
The spread of the Gospel.

To distant lands thy Gospel send, And thus thine empire wide extend; To Gentile, and to stubborn Jew, Thou King of Grace! salvation show.

2 Where'er thy sun or light arise,
Thy name, O God! immortalize;
May nations yet unborn confess
Thy wisdom, power, and righteousness.

456 HYMN 456. C. M. Davis.

Hopkinton, Victory.

Let God arise.

A RISE, O God, thy strength display, Stretch out thy conquering sword; O'er every land thy sceptre sway, And shed thy grace abroad.

2 Soon may the Gentile and the Jew With one consent submit; And men of every name and hue

Bow at Immanuel's feet.

3 Lord, send thy Spirit with thy word,
To every tribe and tongue;
Let all the nations praise the Lord
In one delightful song.

457 HYMN 457. S. M. #
Tellord, Millbury.

Prayer for the universal extension of Christ's kingdom.

O LORD our God, arise,
The cause of truth maintain;
And wide o'er all the peopled world
Extend her blessed reign.

Thou Prince of Life, arise,
 Nor let thy glory cease;
 Far spread the conquests of thy grace,
 And bless the earth with peace.

3 O, Holy Spirit, rise,'
Expand thy heavenly wing,
And o'er a dark and ruin'd world
Let light and order spring.

4 O, all ye nations, rise,
To God the Saviour sing,
From shore to shore, from earth to heaven,
Let echoing anthems ring!

458 HYMN 458. L. M. #

Preyer for a blassing on missionary efforts.

REAT God of Glory, grant thy grace,
And crown our efforts with success;
In heathen lands thy Gospel bless,
And here secure its large increase.

2 Let Jews and Gentiles, bond and free, Embrace salvation, Lord, by thee;

While those who now in darkness dwell, Deliverance sing from guilt and hell. 3 Millions behold, on heathen ground,

Millions behold, on heathen ground, Who never heard the Gospel's sound; O, send it forth, and let it run, Swift and reviving as the sun.

459 Hymn 459. C. M. Abridge, Gorham.

Thy kingdom come.

UR Father, high enthroned above, With boundless glory crown'd, Thou source of life, display thy love

To every nation round.

20 be thy will on earth obey'd,
As 'tis obey'd above;
From every land be homege pair

From every land be homage paid For thy redeeming love. 3 Erect thine empire, gracious King,

And spread its power abroad, Till all thy chosen millions sing The praises of their God.

460 HYMN 460. C. M. Brady. All nations exhorted to praise God.

ET all the lands, with shouts of joy, To God their voices raise; Sing psalms in honour of his name, And spread his glorious praise.

2 Thro' all the earth, the nations round Shall Thee their God confess; And with glad hymns their rapturous

praise
Of thy great name express.

461 HYMN 461. S. M. St. Thomas, Chester.

TO bless thy chosen race, In mercy, Lord, incline;

And cause the brightness of thy face On all thy saints to shine.

2 Let differing nations join To celebrate thy fame;

Let all the world, O Lord, combine To praise thy glorious name.

O let them shout and sing With joy and pious mirth:

For thou, the righteous judge and king, Shalt govern all the earth.

462 Hymn 462. 8. 7. Francis.
Homer, Suppliant.
Missionary collection.

BE thy kingdom, Lord, promoted; Let the earth her Monarch know; Be my all to thee devoted; To my Lord my all I owe.

#

2 With my substance will I honour My Redeemer and my Lord; Were ten thousand worlds my manor, All were nothing to his word. 3 While the heralds of salvation

3 While the heralds of salvation His abounding grace proclaim, Let his friends of every nation Gladly join to spread his fame.

463 Hymn 463. H. M. Scott.

Kingdom of Christ.

A LMIGHTY Saviour, haste
That glorious, happy day,
When souls, like drops of dew,
Shall own thy gentle sway:
O may it bless our longing eyes,
And bear our shouts beyond the skies!

2 All hail, triumphant Lord,
Eternal be thy reign;
May all the nations come
To wear thy gentle chain:
When earth and time are known no more,
Thy throne shall stand forever sure.

464 HYMN 464. L. M. Shirley, Bowen. Christ victorious.

THY footsteps, Lord, with joy we trace, And mark the conquests of thy grace; Finish the work thou hast begun, And let thy will on earth be done.

2 Then shall contending nations rest, For love shall reign in every breast; Weapons, for war design'd, shall cease, And yield to implements of peace.

465 Hymn 465. L. M. Duke Street, Ashfield. Latter day glory.

MY soul, with sacred joy survey
The glories of the latter day;
Its dawn already seems begun,
Sure earnest of the rising sun.

2 Auspicious dawn! thy rising ray
With joy we view, and hail the day:
Thou sun arise, supremely bright,
And fill the world with purest light.

466 HYMN 466. 8.7.4.
Tamworth, Bethlehem.
Zion's increase proyed for.

GIRD thy sword, O mighty Saviour,
Make the word of truth thy car;
Prosper in thy course, triumphant,
All success attend thy war;
Gracious victor,
Bring thy trophies from afar.

2 Blest are they that touch thy sceptre,
Blest are all that own thy reign;
Freed from sin, that worst of tyrants,
Rescued from its galling chain;
Saints and angels,
All who know thee, bless thy reign.

467 HYMN 467. H. M. Doddridge. #

Zion's presperity.

O ZION, tune thy voice,
And raise thy hands on high;
Tell all the earth thy joys,
And boast salvation nigh.
Cheerful in God, While rays divine
Arise and shine, Stream all abroad.

With beams that cannot fade;
His all-resplendent grace
He pours around thy head;
The nations round | With lustre new
Thy form shall view, | Divinely crown'd

In honour to his name
Reflect that sacred light;
And loud that grace proclaim,
Which makes thy darkness bright
Pursue his praise,
Till sovereign love The glory raise.

4 There on his holy hill
A brighter Sun shall rise,
And with his radiance fill
Those fairer, purer skies;
While round his throne In nobler spheres
Ten thousand stars,
His influence own

Homer, Suppliant.

Joys of salvation.

LOVE divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven to earth come down!
Fix in men thy humble dwelling;
All thy faithful mercies crown.

2 Breathe, O breathe thy gracious Spirit;
Bless with peace each troubled breast;
Let the poor in thee inherit,
Let them find thy promised rest.

3 Carry on thy new creation; Cheer'd with pardon may we be; Let us see our whole salvation Perfect and secure in Thee.

469 HYMN 469. S. M. Swain.
Lisbon, Telford.
On receiving members.

WHO can forbear to sing, Who can refuse to praise, When Zion's high celestial King His saving power displays?

When sinners at his feet, By mercy conquer'd, fall;

When grace, and truth, and justice meet, And peace unites them all;

Who can forbear to praise Our high celestial King,

When sovereign, rich, redeeming grace Invites our tongues to sing?

470 HYMN 470. L. M. Doddridge. # Alton, Stonefield.

Prayer for the increase of the church. EAR, gracious Sovereign, from thy throne, And send thy various blessings down: While by thy children thou art sought, Attend the prayer thy word hath taught.

2 Come, sacred Spirit! from above, And fill the coldest heart with love; Soften to flesh the flinty stone, And let thy gracious power be known.

3 O, let the joyful converts wait Numerous around thy temple-gate! Each pressing on with zeal to be A living sacrifice to Thee.

471 HYMN 471. L. M. Kingsbury. # Shirley, Vernon. Zion's increase prayed for.

REVIVE thy churches, Lord, with grace; Forgive our sins and grant us peace; Rouse us from sloth, our hearts inflame; Kindle our zeal for Jesus' name.

2 May young and old thy word receive, Dead sinners hear thy voice and live, The wounded conscience healing find, And joy refresh each drooping mind.

OPENING MEETING HOUSES.

Hymn 472. C. M. 472 Broomsgrove, Hopkinton.

On opening a place of worship.

TREAT Sovereign of the earth and G And Lord of all below, sky, Before thy glorious majesty Ten thousand seraphs bow.

2 Behold, a temple raised for Thee! O meet thy people here; Here, O thou King of saints, reside,

And in thy church appear. 3 Within these walls, let holy peace

And love and concord dwell; Here give the troubled conscience ease, The wounded spirit heal.

4 Here, may salvation be proclaim'd, By thy most precious blood;

And sinners know the joyful sound, And own the Saviour, God.

5 Here, may a numerous crowd arise, To bow before thy throne; Here may their songs salute the skies,

To ages yet unborn.

473 HYMN 473. H. M. Doddridge. # Haddam, Hobart.

On opening a place of worship.

REAT Father of mankind, We bless that wondrous grace, Which could for Gentiles find Within thy courts a place.

How kind the care | For us to raise Our God displays, | A house of prayer!

Though once estranged afar, We now approach the throne; For Jesus brings us near,

And makes our cause his own: Strangers no more, | And find our home, To thee we come, And rest secure.

May all the nations throng To worship in thy house; And thou attend their song, And smile upon their vows;
Indulgent still, To join the choir
Till earth conspire On Zion's hill.

474 HYMN 474. L. M. Doddridge. # Edgarton, Arnheim.

The church the birth-place of the saints. ND will the great, eternal God, A On earth establish his abode? And will He, from his radiant throne, Avow our temples for his own?

2 These walls we to thine honour raise, Long may they echo with thy praise; And Thou, descending, fill the place With choicest tokens of thy grace.

3 Here let the great Redeemer reign, With all the graces of his train; While power divine his word attends, To conquer foes, and cheer his friends.

4 And in the great decisive day, When God the nations shall survey, May it before the world appear That crowds were born to glory here.

ORDINATIONS.

475 HYMN 475. L. M. Beddome. # Quincy, Otis.

Prayer for ministers.

PATHER of mercies, bow thine ear, Attentive to our earnest prayer: We plead for those who plead for Thee, Successful pleaders may they be.

2 Teach them to sow the precious seed, Teach them thy chosen flock to feed; Teach them immortal souls to gain, Nor let them labour, Lord, in vain.

3 Let thronging multitudes around Hear from their lips the joyful sound; In humble strains thy grace adore, And feel thy new-creating power.

4 Let sinners break their massy chains, Afflicted souls forget their pains, And light thro' distant realms be spread Till Zion rears her drooping head.

476 Hymn 476. C. M. Newton.

Prayer for the ministers of Christ.

HIEF Shepherd of thy chosen sheep,
From death and sorrow free.

From death and sorrow free, May all thine under-shepherds keep Their eyes intent on Thee!

2 With plenteous grace their hearts prepare To execute thy will; Give them compassion, love, and care,

And faithfulness, and skill.

3 Inflame their minds with holy zeal,
Their flocks to feed and teach;
And, gracious Lord, O let them feel
The sacred truths they preach.

CONFERENCE MEETINGS.

477 Hymn 477. C. P. M. Kent. #
Sherburne, Switzerland.
Social worship.

'WHERE two or three together meet,
'My love and mercy to repeat,
'And tell what I have done,
'There will I be,' saith God, 'to bless,
'And every burden'd soul redress,

'Who worships at my throne,'

Speak to each heart some cheering word,
To set the spirit free;
Impart a hind coloride;

In set the spirit free;
Impart a kind, celestial shower,
And grant that we may spend an hour
In fellowship with thee.

478 HYMN 478. 7's.
Evening Hymn, Pilgrim.
The close of a prayer meeting.

LORD, 'tis sweet to mingle where Christians meet for social prayer; O, 'tis sweet with them to raise Songs of holy joy and praise; Sweeter far that state must be Where they meet eternally.

2 Saviour, may these meetings prove Preparations from above; While we worship in this place, May we go from grace to grace; Till we, each in his degree, Ripe for endless glory be.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

479

Hymn 479. H. M. Zion, Keene.

COME, let our voices join
In joyful songs of praise;
To God, the God of love,
Our thankful hearts we'll raise.
To God alone all praise belongs,
Our earliest and our latest songs.

Now we are taught to read The book of life divine, Where our Redeemer's love And brightest glories shine: To God alone all praise belongs, Our earliest and our latest songs.

3 Within these hallow'd walls
Our wandering feet are brought,
Where prayer and praise ascend,
And heavenly truths are taught:
To God alone your offerings bring;
Let young and old his praises sing.

4 Lord, let this work of love
Be crown'd with full success!
Let thousands, yet unborn,
Thy sacred name here bless!
To thee, O Lord, all praise to thee
We'll raise throughout eternity.

480 Hymn 480. 8.7. Greenville, Suppliant.

A ID, O Lord, our youthful voices, In a song of joyful praise;
Th' ransom'd soul in heaven rejoices, Saved from sin by thy rich grace.

2 Thou from error's ways hast brought us, To the light that shines from heaven; Wandering far, the Saviour sought us, And has kind instruction given.

3 Friends and teachers are around us,
Kindly urging thy commands;
Many blessings now attend us,
Freely given from thy hands.

4 Lord, accept our feeble offerings,
For these mercies freely given;
Thy rich grace to us continue;
Bring us safely home to heaven.

The importance of educating youth.

CONGREGATION.

N OW let our hearts conspire to raise
A cheerful anthem to His praise,
Who reigns enthroned above:
Let music, sweet as incense, rise
With grateful odours to the skies,
The work of joy and love.

CHILDREN.

2 Teach us to bow before thy face;
Nor let our hearts forget thy grace,
Or slight thy providence;
When lost in ignorance we lay,
To vice and death an easy prey,
Thy goodness snatch'd us thence.

CONGREGATION.

3 We feel a sympathizing heart; Lord, 'tis a pleasure to impart; To thee thine own we give? Hear thou our cry, and pitying see, O let these children live to thee, O let these children live.

CHILDREN.

4 Grant, Lord, each liberal soul may prove The joys of thine exhaustless love; And while thy praise we sing, May we the sacred scriptures know, And like the blessed Jesus grow, That earth and heaven may ring.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

482

HYMN 482. H. M. Hobart, Haddam. #

To thee, my God, and Friend,
I wake my grateful tongue:
Still does thy power defend,
And claim my morning song:
Though many foes | Yet sweet repose
Beset me round, | From thee I found.

- 2 Though sleep pervade my frame,
 Still I am safe in sleep;
 For angels, in thy name,
 Their watchful stations keep:
 How rich and great | Thine angels wait
 Thy mercies prove! | On men, in love.
- 3 Now, blest with morning light,
 To Thee I give the day;
 And with renew'd delight
 Pursue my heavenly way,
 Till thou shalt raise | Where all is proise,
 My soul above, | And all is love.

483 HYMN 483. S. M. Shepherd, Olmutz.

Reliance on the care of our heavenly Father.

An evening hymn.

A NOTHER day is past, The hours forever fled; And time is bearing me away, To mingle with the dead.

2 My mind in perfect peace My Father's care shall keep;
I yield to gentle slumbers now,

For thou canst never sleep.

3 Happy the souls alone
On Thee securely stay'd!
Nor shall they be in life alarm'd,
Nor be in death dismay'd.

484 Hymn 484. S. M. Shepherd, Suffield.

Morning or evening.

THY mercy, gracious God,
Thy pardon I implore;
O! heal the follies of my mind,
And aid me with thy power.

2 Be thou my friendly guard, While slumbering on my bed; And with thy sacred teachings fill The visions of my head.

3 When morning's cheerful rays
Salute my waking eyes,
All vig'rous may my soul to thee
In grateful songs arise!

4 Devoted to thy fear, Thy service and thy praise; My God, I would be wholly thine The remnant of my days.

485 Hymn 485. 7's. Newton. Spring, Nelson.

DLEASING Spring again is here!
Trees and fields in bloom appear!
Hafk! the birds, with artless lays,
Warble their Creator's praise!

2Lord, afford a spring to me! Let me feel like what I see: Ah! my winter has been long; Chill'd my hopes, and mute my song.

3 On thy garden deign to smile; Raise the plants, enrich the soil: Soon thy presence will restore Life to what seem'd dead before.

4 Speak, and by thy gracious voice, Make my drooping soul rejoice: O! beloved Savibur, haste— Tell me all the storms are past. 486

Hymn 486. L. M.

Fulton, Costellow.

Prayer for rain in summer.

REAT God, we view thy chastening hand,

That turns to brass our fertile land; Thy clouds withhold their rich supplies, And parched nature fades and dies.

2 Revive our withering fields with rain, Let fruitful showers descend again; On Thee, alone, our hopes rely, Lord, hear our humble, earnest cry.

487 HYMN 487. C. M. Bray, Norway.

Praise for rain in summer.

THE Lord hath heard his people's cries,

Their prayers have reach'd his throne; The rain has fall'n in rich supplies; See what the Lord hath done!

2 Now nature blooms on every hand, And birds their Maker praise;— Ye saints, throughout our favour'd land, Your songs of praises raise.

488 HYMN 488. 8.7. Dodd.
Suppliant, Greenville.
Autumn.

Dry and wither'd to the ground;
Thus to thoughtless mortals calling,
In a sad and solemn sound!—

2'Youth, on length of days presuming, 'Who the paths of pleasure tread, 'View us, late in beauty blooming,

'Number'd now among the dead.
3' What tho' yet no losses grieve you,—
'Gay with health, and many a grace;
'Let not cloudless skies deceive you;

'Summer gives to autumn place.'
4 On the tree of life eternal
Let our highest hopes be stay'd!
This alone, forever vernal,

Bears a leaf that shall not fade.

489 Hymn 489. L. M. Newton. #

Winter.

SEE how rude Winter's icy hand
Has stripp'd the trees, and seal'd the ground!

But spring shall soon his rage withstand, And spread new beauties all around.

2 My soul a sharper winter mourns; Barren and fruitless I remain: When will the gentle spring return, And bid my graces grow again? 3 Jesus, my glorious Sun, arise!
"Tis thine the frozen heart to move;
O! hush these storms, and clear my skies,
And let me feel thy vital love.

DEATH AND RESURRECTION.

490 Hymn 490. L. P. M. Melville, Saxony.

The hope of Christian friendship, in the anticipation of parting.

SWEET is the thought, the promise sweet,

That friends, long-sever'd friends shall meet;
That kindred souls on earth disjoin'd

That kindred souls, on earth disjoin'd, Shall meet, from earthly dross refined, Their mortal cares and sorrows o'er, And mingle hearts, to part no more.

2 But for this hope, this blessed stay, When earthly comforts all decay, O! who could view th' expiring eye, Nor wish, with those they love, to die? Who could receive their parting breath, Nor long to follow them in death?

3 But we have brighter hopes—we know Short is this pilgrimage of wo: We know that our Redeemer lives; We trust the promises he gives; And part, in hope to meet above, Where all is joy, and all is love.

491 HYMN 491. H. M. Hobert, Haddam.

COME, death, released from dread,
Thy form would I survey;
And learn to sing of Him
Who took thy sting away:
Cheerful, I'll close my dying eyes,
And sleep till Jesus bid me rise.

2 'Twas Jesus, Prince of Life, Enter'd thy dark domains; He slept in thine embrace, And broke thine iron chains. Cheerful, &c.

3 Though toils the day employ, And rough the path appear, The time of rest will come, The evening shades draw near: Cheerful, &c.

492 HYMN 492. L. M. Barbauld. Alden, Addison.

The penceful death of the rightenue.

BLEST is the scene when Christians die,

When holy souls retire to rest; How mildly beams the closing eye! How gently heaves th' expiring breast! 2 So fades a summer cloud away; So sinks the gale when storms are o'er; So gently shuts the eye of day; So dies a wave along the shore.

3 Triumphant smiles the victor's brow, Fann'd by some guardian angel's wing; O grave, where is thy victory now! And where, O death, where is thy sting!

493 Hymn 493. 8.7. Collyer. Suppliant, Bavaria.

The happiness of departed saints, the consolation of survivors.

CEASE, ye mourners, cease to languish
O'er the grave of those you love;
Pain, and death, and night, and anguish
Enter not the world above.

While our silent steps are straying, Lonely, thro' night's deep'ning shade, Glory's brightest beams are playing Round the happy Christian's head.

3 Light and peace at once deriving
From the hand of God most high,
In his glorious presence living,
They shall never, never die!

4 Endless pleasure, pain excluding, Sickness, there, no more can come; There, no fear of wo, intruding, Sheds o'er heaven a moment's gloom.

DAY OF JUDGMENT.

HYMN 494. 8.7.4.
Vesper Hymn, Bethlehein.

The day of judgment.

O! He comes, with clouds descending,
Once for favour'd sinners slain:
Twice ten thousand saints attending,
Swell the triumph of his train:
Hallelujah!

Boundless glory to the Lamb!

Every island, sea, and mountain,—
 Heaven and earth—shall flee away;
 All who hate him, must, confounded,
 Hear the trump proclaim the day:
 Come to judgment!

'Come to judgment! come away!'

3 Now, redemption, long-expected, See in solemn pomp appear! All his saints, by man rejected, Now, shall meet him in the air! Hallelujah!

See the Son of God appear!

495 HYMN 495. 8.7.4. Newton. #
Franconia, Bingham.
The day of judgment.

DAY of judgment,—day of wonders! Hark! the trumpet's awful sound,

Louder than a thousand thunders, Shakes the vast creation round! How the summons

Will the sinner's heart confound!

2 See the Judge, our nature wearing, Clothed in majesty divine! You, who long for his appearing, Then shall say, 'This God is mine!' Gracious Saviour!

Own me in that day for thine!

Rapture, Kingsbridge.

Longing for a place at the right hand of the Longing for a place at the right hand of the Judge.

WHEN thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come

To take thy ransom'd people home, Shall I among them stand? Shall such a worthless worm as I, Who sometimes am afraid to die, Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now, Before thy gracious feet to bow, Though vilest of them all: But can I bear the piercing thought! What if my name should be left out, When thou for them shalt call!

3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace!
Be thou, O Lord, my hiding place,
In this th' accepted day:
Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear;
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Let me among thy saints be found,
Whene'er the archangel's trump shall
To see thy smiling face: [sound,
Then, loudest of the crowd I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring

With shouts of sovereign grace.

497 HYMN 497. C. P. M. Wesley. #
Sherburne, Kingsbridge.
Contemplation of judgment.

O GOD, mine inmost soul convert, And deeply on my thoughtful heart Eternal things impress; Give me to feel their solemn weight, And tremble on the brink of fate, And wake to righteousness.

2 Before me place, in dread array,
The pomp of that tremendous day,
When thou with clouds shalt come
To judge the nations at thy bar;
And tell me, Lord, shall I be there
To meet a joyful doom?

3 Be this my one great business here, 500 Hymn 500. C. M. S. Stennett. # With serious industry and fear, Eternal bliss t' insure; Thine utmost counsel to fulfil And suffer all thy righteous will,

And to the end endure.

4 Then, Father, then my soul receive, Transported from this vale, to live And reign with thee above; Where faith is sweetly lost in sight, And hope in full, supreme delight, And everlasting love.

HEAVEN.

Hymn 498. 8.6. 498 Woodland, Antonia.

Heaven. THERE is an hour of peaceful rest, To mourning wanderers given; There is a tear for souls distress'd, A balm for every wounded breast; 'Tis found alone in heaven.

2 There is a home for weary souls, By sins and sorrows driven; When toss'd on life's tempestuous shoals, Where storms arise and ocean rolls. And all is drear but heaven.

3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye, The heart with anguish riven; It views the tempest passing by, Sees evening shadows quickly fly, And all serene in heaven.

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom, And joys supreme are given; There rays divine disperse the gloom; Beyond the dark and narrow tomb, Appears the dawn of heaven.

Hymn 499. 499 . Roxbury, Woodland.

Death and heaven.

SWIFT as my fleeting days decline, The final hour draws nigh, When, from the busy scenes of time, I must retire and die!

20! may this solemn thought pervade And penetrate my soul! Govern my life through every stage,

And all my powers control! 3 Lord, draw thy image on my heart, And show my sins forgiven; And all that holiness impart

Which fits the soul for heaven.

4 Then welcome the kind hour of death, That ends this painful strife! The hand that stops this mortal breath Will give eternal life.

The promised land.

ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand. And cast a wishful eye To Canaan's fair and happy land, Where my possessions lie.

20! the transporting, rapturous scene, That rises to my sight! Sweet fields array'd in living green,

And rivers of delight!

3 O'er all those wide-extended plains Shines one eternal day; There, God the Sun forever reigns,

And scatters night away.

4 No chilling winds, no poisonous breath Can reach that healthful shore; Sickness and sorrow, pain and death Are felt and fear'd no more.

Hymn 501. C. M. 501 Hopkinton, Milford.

The heavenly Jerusalem. JERUSALEM! my happy home! Name ever dear to me!

When shall my labours have an end In joy, and peace, and thee?

2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built And pearly gates behold, [wall Thy bulwarks with salvation strong, And streets of shining gold?

30 when, thou city of my God, Shall I thy courts ascend, Where congregations ne'er break up, And sabbaths have no end?

BAPTISM.

Hymn 502. C. M. 502 Cohasset, Hopkinton.

The ordinance of Baptism.

SAVIOUR! we seek the watery tomb Illumed by love divine, Far from the deep tremendous gloom Of that which once was thine.

2 Down to the hallow'd grave we go, Obedient to thy word; 'Tis thus the world around shall know We're buried with the Lord.

3 Tis thus we bid its pomps adieu, And boldly venture in: O may we rise to life anew, And only die to sin.

#

503 HYMN 503. 8.7.4. S. F. Smith. # 3 When, rising from the wave, Bingham, Franconia.

Joy in obedience.

ESUS, thou hast freely saved us; Cleansed us in thy precious blood; And the sins that once enslaved us, Thou hast by thy might subdued; From our rovings Thou hast brought us home to God.

2 Saviour, thy commands fulfilling,
Yielding all that once we prized,
Lo! we come, with joyful feeling,
Like our Lord to be baptized;
Round our Jordan
Let thy grace be exercised.

3 Sacred Spirit, breathing o'er us,
Thy sweet influence may we know;
Open paths of light before us,
And thy peace on us bestow.
By thee guided,
Up to glory may we go.

 $\mathbf{504}$

Hymn 504. H. M. Hobart, Haddam.

An address to the Holy Spirit.

DESCEND, celestial Dove,
And make thy presence known;
Reveal our Saviour's love,
And seal us for thine own!

Unblest by thee, our works are vain;
Nor can we e'er acceptance gain.

2 When our incarnate God, The sovereign Prince of light, In Jordan's swelling flood Received the holy rite, In open view thy form came down. And, dove-like, flew the King to crown.

3 Continue still to shine,
And fill us with thy fire:
This ordinance is thine,
Do thou our souls inspire!
Thou wilt attend on all thy sons:
'Till time shall end,' thy promise runs.

505 Hymn 505. S. M. Burnham. #

Before Baptism.

THOU great incarnate God, Behold thy children stand; Warm'd with the fire of love divine, They bow to thy command.

When buried with the Lord May they his presence find; Proving that pleasures from thy throne Are with obedience join'd. When, rising from the wave, Lord, show thy lovely face; May sacred joy from heaven descend, And glory fill the place.

506 Hymn 506. 8. 7.
Bavaria, Homer.

The pleasure of following Christ.

ORD, in humble, sweet submission,
Here we meet to follow thee;
Trusting in thy great salvation,
Which alone can make us free.

2 Nought have we to claim as merit;
All the duties we can do
Can no crown of life inherit:
All the praise to Thee is due.

3 Yet we come in Christian duty, Down beneath the wave to go; O the bliss! the heavenly beauty! Christ the Lord was buried so!

4 Come, ye children of the kingdom, Follow him beneath the wave; Rise, and show his resurrection, And proclaim his power to save.

507 HYMN 507. L. M. Beddome. #
Shirley, Edgarton.
Delight in duty.

DEAR Saviour, we thy will obey, Not of constraint, but with delight; Hither thy servants come to-day, To honour thine appointed rite.

2 Descend again, celestial Dove, On these, the followers of the Lord; Exalted Head of all the church, Thy promised aid to them afford.

3 Let faith, assisted now by signs, The mysteries of thy love explore; And, wash'd in thy redeeming blood, Let them depart, and sin no more.

508 HYMN 508. L. M. Judson. # Addison, Eowen.
Christ's example.

OUR Saviour bow'd beneath the wave, And meekly sought a watery grave; Come see the sacred path he trod, A path well pleasing to our God.

2 His voice we hear, his footsteps trace, And hither come to seek his face, To do his will, to feel his love, And join our songs with songs above.

3 Hosanna to the Lamb divine! Let endless glories round him shine! High o'er the heavens forever reign, O Lamb of God! for sinners slain! 509

HYMN 509. 8.7.4. Greenville, Vesper Hymn.

Christian profession.

C RACIOUS Saviour! we adore thee; Purchased by thy precious blood, We present ourselves before thee, Now to walk the narrow road. Saviour, guide us, Guide us to our heavenly home.

2 Thou didst mark our path of duty; Thou wast laid beneath the wave; Thou didst rise in glorious beauty From the semblance of the grave; May we follow In the same delightful way.

510 Hymn 510. S. M. S. F. Smith.

The baptism of Christ.

DOWN to the sacred wave
The Lord of life was led;
And He, who came our souls to save,
In Jordan bow'd his head.

He taught the solemn way,
 He fix'd the holy rite;
 He bade his ransom'd ones obey,
 And keep the path of light.

3 The Holy Ghost came down, The baptism to approve,— The ordinance of Christ to crown, And stamp it with his love.

Dear Saviour, we will tread
 In thy appointed way;
 Let glory o'er these scenes be shed,
 And smile on us to-day.

511 HYMN 511. L. M. Judson. :

Following Christ.

COME, Holy Spirit, Dove divine!
On these baptismal waters shine,
And teach our hearts, in highest strain,
To praise the Lamb, for sinners slain.

2 We love thy name, we love thy laws, And joyfully embrace thy cause; We love thy cross, the shame, the pain; O Lamb of God! for sinners slain!

3 We plunge beneath thy mystic flood, O plunge us in thy cleansing blood; We die to sin, and seek a grave With thee, beneath the yielding wave.

4 And as we rise, with thee to live, O let the Holy Spirit give The sealing unction from above, The breath of life, the fire of love!

512 Hymn 512. S. M. Sigourney.

The example of Christ.

SAVIOUR, thy law we love, Thy pure example bless, And with a firm, unwavering zeal Would in thy footsteps press.

2 Not to the fiery pains By which the martyrs bled, Not to the scourge, the thorn, the cross, Our favour'd feet are led:

3 But at this peaceful tide,
Assembled in thy fear,
The homage of obedient hearts
We humbly offer here.

513 HYMN 513. S. M. Sigourney. #

Before immersion.

MINISTER AND ELDERS.

'CHOOSE ye his cross to bear,
'Who bow'd to Jordan's wave?'

Clad in his armour, will ye dare
'In faith, a watery grave?'

'In faith, a watery grave?'

CANDIDATES.

'We love his holy word,
'His precepts we obey,

'Buried in baptism with our Lord,
'We seek to be, this day.'

CHOIR. Millbury.

3 All hail! ye blessed band,
Shrink not to do his will,
In deep humility, this work

Of righteousness fulfil.

Tread in the Saviour's steps,

Invoke his Spirit free, And as he ope'd the gates of death, So may your rising be.

514 Hymn 514. 7
Pilgrim, Nelson.

Converts baptized.

EE, beneath the peaceful flood,
In the way ordain'd of God,
Joyful converts meekly bow,
Taking heaven's holy vow.

515 HYMN 515. 8.7.4.
Greenville, Vesper Hymn.
Peace in obedience.

WHILE these Jordan waves are flowing,

Full of calmness, full of peace, Let the gales of mercy, blowing, Fill our souls with holy bliss; Saviour, listen; And from sin and fear release.

OCCASIONAL PIECES.

Hymn 516. 7s. Bowring. 516 Hymn Glo.

WATCHMAN! tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are. Traveller! o'er yon mountain's height, See that glory-beaming star! Watchman! does its beauteous ray

Aught of hope or joy forctell?
Traveller! yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.

2 Watchman! tell us of the night, Higher yet that star ascends.

Traveller! blessedness and light, Peace and truth, its course portends! Watchman! will its beams alone

Gild the spot that gave them birth? Traveller! ages are its own, See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman! tell us of the night, For the morning seems to dawn. Traveller! darkness takes its flight, Doubt and terror are withdrawn. Watchman! let thy wanderings cease; Hie thee to thy quiet home. Traveller! lo! the Prince of Peace,

Lo! the Son of God is come!

HYMN 517. 517

The dying Christian to his soul. VITAL spark of heavenly flame! Quit, O! quit this mortal frame: Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying-O! the pain, the bliss of dying! Cease, fond nature - cease thy strife, And let me languish into life!

2 Hark! they whisper; angels say, 'Sister spirit, come away:'
What is this absorbs me quite, Steals my senses, shuts my sight, Drowns my spirits, draws my breath? Tell me, my soul, can this be death!

3 The world recedes, it disappears! Heaven opens on my eyes! my ears With sounds seraphic ring! Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly!
O grave! where is thy victory!
O death! where is thy sting!

Hymn 518. # 518 Amesbury.

New year. COME, let us anew our journey pursue, And rover stand still till our Master appear! His adorable will let us gladly fulfil, And our talents improve

By the patience of hope and the labour of love.

2 Our life as a dream, our time as a stream Glides swiftly away, And the fugitive moment refuses to stay; The arrow is flown, the moment is gone:

The millennial year Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here. 3 O that each in the day of His coming may cay

'I have fought my way through, 'I have finish'd the work thou didst give me to do!' Othat each from his Lord may receive the glad word, 'Well and faithfully done!

Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne.

Hymn 519. 6.5. 519 Lvons

O PRAISE ye the Lord, prepare a new song.

And let all the saints in full concert join; With voices united, the anthem prolong, And show forth his praises in music divine.

Hymn 520. 520

Wesley. The Lord's prayer.

10. I2.

OUR Father in heaven, we hallow thy name! May thy kingdom holy on earth be the same O, give to us daily our portion of bread, It is from thy bounty that all must be fed.

2 Forgive our transgressions, and teach us to know That humble compassion that pardons each foe! Keep us from temptation, from weakness and sin: And thine be the glory forever, Amen!

521

HYMN 521. 5. 7. 4. Alexander.

Divine protection.

SAVE me from my foes, Shield me, Lord, from harm; Let me safe repose

On thy mighty arm:
Thou art God alone;
Those who seek thy heavenly face Thou wilt bless, and they shall own

Thy matchless grace 2 Pleasant is the land Where Jehovah's known; Where a pious band Bow before his throne; Lord, with loud acclaim
We will sing thy wondrous love,

And ere long shall praise thy name With saints above. .

Hymn 522. 522 Saxony.

Danger of delay. WHILE life prolongs its precious light, Mercy is found and peace is given;

But soon, all! soon approaching night, Shall blot out every hope of heaven. While God invites, how blest the day, How sweet the Gospel's charming sound; Come, sinners, haste, O haste away, While yet a pardoning God is found.

Hymn 523. 10's. Acceptance,

Sabbath.

A GAIN the day returns of holy rest, Which when he made the world Jehovah blest, When like his own he made our labour cease, And all be piety, and all be peace.

2 Let us devote this consecrated day To learn his will, and all we learn obey; So shall he hear when fervently we raise Our supplications, and our songs of praise.

3 Father in heaven, in whom our hope confides, Whose power defends us, and whose wisdom guldes;

In life our guardian, and in death our friend Glory supreme be thine till time shall end.

524

Hymn 524.

Margate. Christ's reign.

WHEN shall the voice of singing Flow joyfully along, When hill and valley ringing With one triumphant song, Proclaim the contest ended, And Him who once was slain, Again to earth descended. In righteousness to reign.

525

Hymn 525. 11. 9:

Birth of Christ.

A LL hail, happy day, when enrobed in our clay The Redeemer appear'd upon earth; O lift up your voice, with loud anthems rejoice, And hail gladly Immanuel's birth.

2 Let echo prolong the harmonious song, While we worship, admire, and adore; In accents of praise, with our voices we'll raise Hallelujahs to God evermore.

526 Hymn 526. Whitefield. #. 11's. Mercy.

Divine grace.

THY mercy, my God, is the theme of my song, The joy of my heart, and the boast of my tongue,

Thy free grace alone, from the first to the last, Hath won my affections, and bound my soul fast. 2 Great Father of mercies, thy goodness I own, And the covenant love of thy crucified Son; All praise to the Spirit, whose witness divine Seals mercy, and pardon, and righteousness mine.

Hymn 527. P. M. Chaplin.

Shortness of life.

ORD, we bless thee for thy grace And truth, which never fail, Hastening to behold thy face, Without a darkening veil We shall see our heavenly King, All thy glorious love proclaim, Help the angel choirs to sing The blest, triumphant Lamb.

2 Time is winging us away To our eternal home, Life is but a winter's day, A journey to the tomb; But the Christian shall enjoy Health and beauty from above, Far, beyond the world's alloy, Secure in Jesus' love.

Hymn 528.

Death.

F^{AR}, for o'er hill and dale, on the winds stealing, List to the tolling bell, mournfully pealing: Hark! hark! it seems to say, As melt those sounds away, So life's best joys decay, Whilst new their feeling.

2 Now through the charmed air, slowly ascending, List to the mourner's prayer, solemnly bending: Hark! hark! it seems to say, Turn from those joys away To those which ne'er decay,

For life is ending.

#13 O'er a father's dismal tomb, see the orphan

bending, From the solemn church-yard's gloom hear the dirge ascending,

Hark! hark! it seems to say, How short ambition's sway, Life's joys and friendship's ray In the dark grave ending.

4 So when our mortal ties, death shall dissever, Lord, may we reach the skies, where care comes never;

And in eternal day, Joining the angel's lay, To our Creator pay Homage forever.

Nashua, Epworth. Praise to the Sociour. Hymn 529. 8's.

TPHELD by thine infinite love, My Saviour, thy praise I'll proclaim, And join with the armies above, To shout thine adorable name.

2 To gaze on thy glories divine Shall be my eternal employ; To feel them incessantly shine, My boundless, ineffable joy.

530 Hymn 530. 10. 11. Newton. # Cheshunt.

The Lord will provide.

HOUGH troubles assail, and dangers affright, Tho' friends should all fail, and foes all unite; Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide, The Scripture assures us, the Lord will provide. 2 No strength of our own, or goodness we claim, Yet since we have known the Savior's great name, In this our strong tower for salvation we hide, The Lord is our power, the Lord will provide.

531

Hymn 531. S. M.

Shepherd. Commencement of worship.

NOW may thy grace descend, As showers propitious fall; O Lord, thy faithful word attend, To sanctify us all.

2 Jesus, we look to thee, Thy influence to impart; Let every ear attentive be, And open every heart.

532

Hymn 532. Townsend, Vernon.

Close of worship.

GAIN we'll magnify the Lord, And close with praise the day of rest; For all the comforts of thy word Be thy great name forever blest.

2 Our services are all defiled; But Jesus pleads within the veil; Saviour, on thee our hopes we build, Nor can thine intercession fail.
